1934 THE CITY OF CINCINNATI 1935

THE EARLY settlers who founded Cincinnati in 1788 laid a firm foundation for a well-balanced city. Constructive conservatism and strength of character enabled these settlers to take full advantage of the proximity to raw materials and establish transportation systems so as to foster manufacturing. This laid the foundation for a distribution center and a mecca of diversified industry.

During the past year Cincinnatians heard much about relief measures and depression. Still the "Queen City" is "sound"—in fact, slightly prosperous. Her real estate tax rate has been cut nearly 25 per cent, and her bonds still sell at a premium. A project for the elimination of the slum districts in the "bottoms" has gained such momentum that it seems as though this elimination will soon be done. This project will involve an expenditure of millions of dollars, and will put model homes and parks in the place of tenement houses.

Building has increased remarkably, while other forms of business have made slight increases, or, at least have "carried on." Cincinnati's outlook is bright. Good government, commercial and industrial health, cultural advancements and constructive conservatism will not be denied. Cincinnati marches on!

TRANSPORTATION.

"Gateway to the South" is the title given to Cincinnati years ago. At first the excess agricultural products were put on little boats to be taken southward by means of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. Soon manufactured articles began to follow the same course to the South. To increase her hold on Southern commerce and at the same time open more territory the Queen City built a $30,000,000 steam railroad 325 miles in length. This road is now an integral part of the Southern Railroad System, its lessee.

Today Cincinnati still enjoys this enviable title. Many of the automobiles and buses going South pass through, via the fine Dixie Highway. The Queen City is also on the air trunk line going to Ft. Worth and Los Angeles.

In order to foster Southern commerce, transportation facilities from all directions had to be adequate. There are eight railroad systems operating to and from Cincinnati, over as many trunk lines. All passenger service is consolidated at the new Union Terminal, one mile from the planned civic center of the city. The new depot, which contains the latest improvements, is as fine as can be found in the whole United States. Art has been skillfully combined with unique workable ideas to produce a tastefully practical station.

"Take the air" is the advice given those who want to reach their destination as quickly as possible. In this mode of transportation Cincinnati is very fortunate in having regularly scheduled airplane service to practically every important city in the United States, as well as establishing connections to Canada, Alaska and South America. Lunken Airport, which is Cincinnati's Municipal Airport, is one of the largest and finest flying fields in the world. It is provided with concrete runways, flood lights, a weather bureau, directional radio beam, radio communication, and every modern aid for flying activities. Cincinnati lies on the cross-roads of American Airlines, Inc., who are flying frequent schedules from Boston, Cleveland, through Cincinnati and Ft. Worth to Los Angeles, and from Chicago, through Cincinnati and Washington, D. C., to New York.

The most modern types of planes are being operated by American Airlines, Inc., in providing Cincinnati with rapid passenger, air mail and air express service. Equipment now in use by this company includes the new Vultee eight-passenger transport plane, which cruises at 215 miles an hour; the Douglas airliner, which accommodates 14 passengers and cruises at 195 miles an hour, and the Condor, which as a day plane carries 15 passengers and as a "sleeper" plane is equipped with 12 berths. The most outstanding advancement during the past year has been the establishment of the airplane "sleeper" service between Cincinnati and Los Angeles, via Ft. Worth. Passengers may board a "sleeper" at Cincinnati at midnight, sleep as far as Ft. Worth, transfer to the fast Douglas airliner and arrive in Los Angeles shortly after noon the same day; or they may board a day plane at Cincinnati in the early evening and transfer at Ft. Worth to a "sleeper" arriving in Los Angeles early the next morning.

Schedules to Chicago and Cleveland require less than two hours. Washington is but three hours and 30 minutes away, while New York is reached in less than five hours. Miami requires only eight hours over the airways, and even Seattle can be reached in 21 hours.

INDUSTRY.

Proximity to raw materials and markets, a central location and adequate transportation facilities brought nearly one-third of the major types of industry to Cincinnati. The larger industries include soap, machinery, machine tools, metal products, airplanes and accessories, printing, publishing, lithographing, meat packing, radio, clothing, jewelry, shoes, engineering specialties, furniture, drugs and chemicals, roofing and shingles, leather and tanning, pianos and inks. A few types of industries at present not represented in the Queen City which should find this city a favorable location are aluminum manufacture, cigarette making, electrolysis of caustic soda, rayon manufacture and terra cotta manufacture.

THE WORLD'S MOST POWERFUL BROADCASTING STATION.

Cincinnati has been made well known by its good government, Rookwood Pottery, musical interests, cultural arts, education system and many manufacturing trade marks. Through publicity received from these assets most localities have heard of the city on the beautiful Ohio.

At present the Queen City has been "heard" most everywhere. The world's most powerful broadcasting station is responsible for the new fame. Station WLW, with its 500,000-watt transmitter, carries the name of Cincinnati all over the world.

All the latest principles in radio engineering were used in the construction of the new transmitter. A porcelain insulator base of about 1½ inches in thickness support the steel vertical radiating antenna tower. The tower rises 831 feet—over 250 feet higher than the observatory on the fiftieth floor of the city's tallest skyscraper. This structure weighs over 400 tons. The tower proper weighs 135 tons and is 35 feet wide in the center. It tapers from the middle to points on both ends. More than a mile of 2-inch bridge cable keeps the "radiator" in place.

This type of antenna decreases the loss of signal strength, since the signals go out from the whole tower, which acts as the "aerial." WLW has changed the old saying, "Vas you efer in Zinzinnati?" to "have you ever heard Cincinnati?"

HEALTH.

Cincinnati was one of the first communities in the United States to co-ordinate the work of its public and private health agencies. This is done by the health branch of the Community Chest, the Public Health Federation. In it are representatives of all public and private health organizations. Programs are planned jointly so as to present a "solid front." The aims are to promote in every possible way better health in the community. The Federation has the wholehearted co-operation of the Academy of Medicine, the Cincinnati Dental Society, College of Medicine and the Graduate Nurses' Association.

Some of the most exhaustive studies ever undertaken by a city, comparing mortality rates with other cities by age groups, race and diseases, has been made by the Federation. It has also studied death rates by census tracts in a thorough manner for all diseases of major importance. A report on this work and of new health projects undertaken as a result of it will be published this year.

Cincinnati has a well-organized Department of Health, functioning along lines approved by the American Public Health Association. The department is requesting $100,000 addition to its budget to improve and expand its work, although at present it rates among the best in the country. The public health matters in the unincorporated areas of the county are taken care of by the District Health Department of Hamilton County. This department rates well with others in the state.

EDUCATION.

There is a very low percentage of illiteracy in Cincinnati. This is due largely to the efficient system of education to be found here. From kindergarten through high school is a service offered without any tuition by the public schools. For a small tuition residents may also enroll at the municipally owned University.

A force of 1,943 teachers is employed to teach the 65,994 pupils enrolled in the public school system. This system consists of 66 elementary schools; six special schools, where handicapped children are taught; 10 vocational schools, where pupils receive instructions in the trade which they have chosen to enter; 10 junior high schools and six senior high schools. More than 10,000 people attend evening schools and community centers. Here academic, high school, vocational and Americanization classes are held for those who cannot attend school during the day.

The University of Cincinnati, founded in 1870, is widely known for its "Cincinnati," or co-operative plan of combining work with study. The University, composed of nine colleges, has an enrollment of 9,065 students. The campus, on which 21 buildings and a stadium are located, covers 45 acres in the south-western part of Burnet Woods. About 1¼ miles from the campus, among the medical science buildings, surrounding the General Hospital, the College of Medicine and the Christian R. Holmes Memorial Hospital are located.

The parochial school system is also approved by the State Board of Education. The Cincinnati Archdiocese covers 28 counties in South-western Ohio. In this system there are 73 elementary or institutional schools in Cincinnati, upon which 19,734 pupils depend for their early education. The 27 high schools in Hamilton County have an enrollment of 5,362 students.

Xavier University, operated by the Jesuit priests, has a high rating among the parochial colleges of the country. The three colleges which compose the university are located on Victory Parkway at Dana Avenue, namely, arts and science, commerce, education and law. Here 1,283 men attend classes.

Besides the complete public and Catholic parochial school systems, Cincinnatians point with pride to an institution which has been teaching students for over 100 years, the only technical institute in Ohio. Here, too, are other parochial or "church" schools, a well-known military academy, fashionable private schools for girls and up-to-date commercial schools.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK OF CINCINNATI.

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati, one of the 12 banks comprising the Federal Home Loan Bank System, has its headquarters on the fourteenth floor of the Chamber of Commerce Building. The Cincinnati bank is authorized to accept as members any Building and Loan Association, Savings and Loan Association, Corporative Bank, Homestead Association, Insurance Company or Savings Bank in the Fifth District (Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee) whose financial condition meets with the approval of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. The purpose of this bank is to ease credit and aid the building trades in the States of Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee by acting as a central reservoir for mortgage credit to its member institutions.

As of December 31, 1934, 452 member institutions had subscribed to 49,891 one-hundred-dollar shares of stock, extending to these members a combined line of credit in the amount of $59,044,050, of which Ohio institutions represented $51,032,300, Kentucky $6,909,750 and Tennessee $1,102,000. At this date $26,022,838.76 had been advanced to 330 member borrowing institutions, of which $9,063,807.78 was repaid, leaving the balance outstanding of $16,959,030.98 distributed between 261 institutions. Outstanding at this date to 197 Ohio institutions $12,882,822.91, 52 Kentucky associations held $3,531,603.07 and 12 Tennessee $544,605. As security for advances outstanding at the same date, the bank held 20,573 mortgages, having a combined present appraisal value of $98,822,485.04.

As of December 31, 1934, the Cincinnati bank's membership represented 44 per cent of all Building and Loan Associations in its district. Its member institutions held 64 per cent of the total assets of all operating Building and Loan Associations in Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Of the 270 Building and Loan Associations in Hamilton County, 171, or 63 per cent, are members of the bank, and hold 73 per cent of the total assets held by the associations in this county.

THE FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION.

The Federal Housing Administration was created to encourage improvement in housing standards and conditions, and to provide a system of mutual mortgage insurance.

The first objective is housing renovation and modernization to stimulate immediate activity in the fields of repair and modernization of existing properties in an effort to relieve unemployment in the building trades and associate industries.

Its second purpose is the reconstruction of the national home mortgage debt burden upon a sound basis, so that normal real estate values may be recreated, and to bring about the revival of new construction if the building industry is to keep pace with other forms of economic activity.

You can now buy or build a house with your initial investment in the property as little as 20 per cent of its cost. You may borrow the balance (up to 80 per cent of the appraised value, but not more than $16,000) from an approved lending institution, covered by Government insurance, and repay the entire amount on a monthly basis in 12, 15, 20 years or less.

It costs less than the old method of home financing, because you may borrow up to 80 per cent of the appraised value of your home. That means one mortgage, and the end of refinancing problems.

LIBRARIES.

The Public Library provides for the "reading needs" of many residents of Hamilton County. It has a system of a main library and 34 branches, 12 of the latter being outside the city. There are also 34 deposit stations, 68 other extension agencies, 21 school libraries and classroom libraries in 20 schools. Two book trucks serve 252 class rooms in 70 schools, and make 36 village stops. Altogether there are 284 library agencies for serving the people of Hamilton County.

Since its establishment, in 1853, the Public Library has built a collection of rare and valuable books. At the beginning of 1935 the total number of volumes available to users of the library was 1,064,964. At the same time there were 174,451 card holders. As a book frequently is read by the entire family, at least twice that number of persons have had library privileges on the basis of two readers to a card. During 1934, 4,565,224 books were lent.

While the Public Library system serves all types and ages, the main library has some highly specialized departments—scientists, chemists, engineers, builders, etc., go to science and industry; artists, designers, architects and musicians go to fine arts; teachers to education; those interested in history, genealogy, literature and finance and seeking general information to general reference. Patent attorneys, health officers, statisticians, etc., are attracted by federal, state, county and municipal documents, which are shelved in a separate department.

In the circulation department, besides books, there is a collection of about 80,000 slides, which are lent to lecturers and teachers. This department also receives all applications for borrowers' cards and issues them for the entire library system. Here also much ready reference work is done. The Readers' Bureau outlines reading courses to suit the individual needs, assists in outlining programs for clubs and discussion groups, has on file an index to all adult classes in the city, and acts in an advisory capacity in the study of any subject.

A thoroughly organized Children's Department supervises all work with children, and has only approved books on the shelves. The Guide Post, a monthly publication, lists new books, and is placed for free distribution in all library agencies.

Besides the Public Library system there are 50 odd professional or technical libraries. Most of these libraries operate on a card system, which is open to the public, students, members or associates. The card system is also used by the University of Cincinnati and Xavier University, where there are twelve and five collections respectively.

CULTURAL ARTS.

Cincinnatians have long been known for their love of music and cultural arts. To help further these desires for "higher and finer" education the Cincinnati Institute of Fine Arts was founded. This non-profit organization maintains the famous Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, the Taft Museum, a valuable collection of paintings and porcelains; the Conservatory of Music, a school for the instruction of music in all of its phases; concerts and operas.

The establishment of the Queen City as a musical center has been aided by the College of Music. At the college drama and music are taught. Renown has also been brought to Cincinnati by the May and Fall Festivals. Equally famous in its field is the Art Academy. A list of former students will disclose names famous in art circles. The foremost of these are Blum, Twachtman and Duveneck. The Art Museum adjoins the academy. Collections of paintings, sculpture work, carving, metal work, Indian shawls, and musical instruments are housed here. The historic collection of Rookwood, the inimitable Cincinnati-made pottery, will be found in the large exhibit of ceramics.

ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN.

Sixty years ago the Zoological Gardens were organized and opened to the public. During these years the Zoo has gained fame for its collection of rare animals. Here the visitor looks at the lions and tigers roaming in haunts very similar to the place where they were captured. Around these barless grottos native wild flowers and rockeries help beautify the natural setting. In the African veldt are seen all the grass-eating animals roaming around together. Here, also, no bars obstruct the vision.

Visitors from all corners of the world have laughed at the pranks of "Susie," the only trained gorilla in the world. Other attractions and "rarities" include "Gimpy," the pigmy elephant, which stands less than 4 feet high; the Secretary bird, a raptorial feathered feature, and the long-snouted edentates, the ant eaters. The Zoological Garden is one of the numerous city parks.

CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS.

Constantly fostering progress in the Queen City, and sponsoring civic pride, the Chamber of Commerce is ever trying to boost Cincinnati. The Chamber has been active in the slum elimination project; they have brought new firms and industries to this city, and their name is always associated with Fire Prevention and Clean-Up Week. The Convention Department has brought Cincinnati more than her share of conventions.

The Better Business Bureau protects the public and aids honest business. This organization, which is supported by Cincinnati enterprise, suppresses fraudulent investment schemes, as well as inaccurate and misleading advertising.

The Cincinnati Community Chest, the outgrowth of the War Chest, is one of the three oldest organizations of its kind in the United States. The Chest is the financial organization for 76 social agencies. Approximately 45 per cent of all the money spent by these agencies in their annual operations is raised through gifts from the public in a campaign in which some 6,000 citizens serve as solicitors without compensation. In the campaign of April, 1935, $1,758,548 was raised.

The Cincinnati Automobile Club is aggressive in railroad crossing elimination and promotion of highways. This club is tireless in its efforts to obtain a state drivers' license law, and require training and tests for automobile drivers.

BRIEF FACTS AND STATISTICS ABOUT CINCINNATI.

Air Transportation—All lines serving Cincinnati are American Airlines, and carry air mail, passengers and express. Service is given to practically any point in the United States.

DOMESTIC MAIL MATTER.

First-Class Mail Matter includes written matter, typewritten matter and carbon copies thereof, whether sealed or unsealed; postal cards (Government cards), post cards (private mailing cards) and all sealed matter, except third and fourth-class matter under certain conditions. Imitations of typewriting produced by mimeograph, multigraph, etc., are classed as first-class mail matter unless mailed at post office window in 20 or more identical copies. The postage rate on first-class matter is three cents for each ounce or fraction of an ounce when addressed for other than local delivery; 2 cents for each ounce when addressed for local delivery. The rate on Government postal cards is one cent each, the price for which they are sold. The rate on private mailing cards (post cards) is one cent each.

[Post cards (private mailing cards) are cards manufactured by private persons consisting of cardboard substantially like the Government postal cards, not exceeding in size 3½ by 5½ inches, nor less than 2¾ by 4 inches. Larger mailing cards bearing the words "post card" or "private mailing card" are chargeable with first-class rate 3 cents for each ounce. Larger cards not bearing such words will be third-class matter—1½ cents for each two ounces or fraction of two ounces, or first-class rate if they contain writing.]

Business Reply Cards and Envelopes—Firms may mail double reply cards, or inclose single reply cards, or reply envelopes, with other matter, at the regular postage rates, and the reply cards and envelopes can be returned to them without prepayment of postage by the addressee, provided the firm will guarantee to pay for their return at the rate of 1 cent each in addition to regular rate. Firms or persons desiring this privilege should make written application to the postmaster.

Air Mail Fees—Domestic: Six cents for each ounce or fraction thereof.

Second-Class Mail Matter consists of periodical publications entered as second-class matter. When mailed by the publisher or news agents the special zone rates apply. When mailed by the general public the transient second-class rate is one cent for each two ounces or fraction of two ounces. Parcel Post rate if lower. When copies are not complete the third or fourth-class rate applies according to weight.

Third-Class Mail Matter includes books, catalogs, circulars, merchandise, miscellaneous printed matter and all mailable matter not included in first or second classes, weighing eight ounces or less. Over eight ounces all such matter is fourth-class matter.

The rate of postage on third-class matter is 1½ cents for each two ounces or fraction of two ounces up to and including eight ounces, except that the rate on books, catalogs, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants not exceeding eight ounces in weight is one cent for each two ounces or fraction of two ounces. Miscellaneous printed matter may not accompany books and catalogs at the lower rate.

Special Rate for Bulk Mailings—Identical pieces (contents must be identical) of third-class matter in quantities of not less than 20 pounds or not less than 200 pieces with pre-anceled stamps affixed, or under the permit system, when the pieces are separated to States and Cities and tied in bundles properly labeled, are subject to postage at the rate of 12 cents a pound or fraction of a pound. However, books and catalogs are subject to postage, under these provisions, at the rate of 8 cents a pound or fraction of a pound. Provided, however, that the rate of postage on third-class matter shall be not less than one cent per piece. Persons desiring this privilege should make written application to the postmaster.

Post office definition of book or catalog is printed matter bound in that form having 24 or more pages including the covers. Twenty-two pages must be printed.

Fourth-Class Mail Matter (Parcel Post) consists of books, catalogs, printed matter, merchandise and all mailable matter weighing over eight ounces and not over 70 pounds, not included in first class. All such matter weighing over eight ounces is subject to zone rates according to weight and distance as indicated in table on page 33.

Special Handling Fees: (in addition to zone rates) Fourth-Class Matter only—Up to 2 pounds, 10 cents; over 2 pounds but not more than 10 pounds, 15 cents; over 10 pounds, 20 cents.

This service accords parcels same treatment in dispatch and transportation as first-class mail matter. (See special delivery fees if you want parcels specially delivered after arrival).

Special Delivery Fees: (in addition to regular postage) Letters and first-class parcels—Up to 2 pounds, 10 cents; over 2 pounds but not more than 10 pounds, 20 cents; over 10 pounds, 25 cents.

Other Classes (Parcels) of Mail Matter—Up to 2 pounds, 15 cents; over 2 pounds but not more than 10 pounds, 25 cents; over 10 pounds, 35 cents.

Registry Fees: (in addition to regular postage)—

*Local means Cincinnati delivery.

In the first or second zone, where the distance by the shortest regular practicable mail route is 300 miles or more, the rate is 9 cents for the first pound and 2 cents for each additional pound.

On parcels collected on rural routes the postage is 2 cents less per parcel than shown in the foregoing table when for local delivery and 3 cents less per parcel when for other than local delivery.

Parcels weighing less than 10 pounds measuring over 84 inches but not more than 100 inches in length and girth combined, are subject to a minimum charge equal to that for a ten-pound parcel for the zone to which addressed.

For orders from 60.01 to 80.00.....20 cents
 For orders from 80.01 to 100.00.....22 cents
 A single money order may include any amount from one cent to one hundred dollars, inclusive.

This Publication Is The Product of A Member of

Thus assuring you the ultimate service that skill and care can produce in the way of City Directories or other reference media.

The following "Standards of Practice," adopted at the inception of the Association of North American Directory Publishers in 1898, and strictly adhered to over the years, is your guarantee of satisfactory Directory Service.

The publisher of a Directory should dedicate his best efforts to the cause of business uplift and social service, and to this end pledges himself:

1. To consider, first, the interest of the user of the book.
2. To subscribe to and work for truth, honesty and accuracy in all departments.
3. To avoid confusing duplication of listings, endeavoring to classify every concern under the one heading that best describes it, and to treat additional listings as advertising, to be charged for at regular rates.
4. To increase public knowledge of what Directories contain; to study public needs and make Directories to supply them; to revise and standardize methods and classifications, so that what is wanted may be most easily found, and the Directory be made to serve its fullest use as a business and social reference book and director of buyer and seller.
5. To decline any advertisement which has a tendency to mislead or which does not conform to business integrity.
6. To solicit subscriptions and advertising solely upon the merits of the publications.
7. To avoid misrepresentation by statement or inference regarding circulation, placing the test of reference publicity upon its accessibility to seekers, rather than on the number of copies sold.
8. To co-operate with approved organizations and individuals engaged in creative advertising work.
9. To avoid unfair competition.
10. To determine what is the highest and largest function of Directories in public service, and then to strive in every legitimate way to promote that function.
