Sportsman Clubs Sponsor Pheasant Rearing Units Over State Seven new pheasant booster units have been added for 1951 according to plans announced Thursday by Lloyd P. Vance, supervisor of state game. The additional units—with a capacity of 2,700 pheasants—and he 12 remaining units from 1950 will bring the total booster unit capacity for 1951 to 9,000 birds. Young birds are given by the Game Commission to organized wildlife clubs and wildlife committees of civic clubs in the state for rearing until the pheasants reach release size. Two units of '50, Dalton and North Platte, will not operate this year as sufficient breeding stock is now locally available without the release of additional birds. The Alliance unit is reducing the capacity of its pens from 2,000 birds to 1,500. Alliance, however, is still operating the largest unit, The Valentine (new) and O'Neill units run closely behind with 1,200 and 1,500 birds respectively. Vance said the release of pheasants in areas known capable of supporting a harvestable pheasant population is one of the game management tools employed by the Game Commission to bring pheasant hunting within reasonable distances of most Nebraska sportsmen. "Generally," he added, "pheasants are distributed over the entire state, but there are areas in which their numbers fail to increase to sufficient numbers to provide good hunting. Game Commission personnel, taking advantage of many years of experience with pheasants, are concentrating efforts to maintain high pheasant populations in areas where they are most apt to succeed." Vance gave credit to the wildlife clubs and wildlife committees of civic clubs for their cooperation in helping provide the fine pheasant hunting enjoyed annually by Nebraskans throughout the state. Following is a listing of the operating booster unit organizations, their location and the number of birds each will rear: O'Neill Gun club (page 150, O'Neill, 1,500 and Emmett, 150). Why 365 Days?
All because of a river, there are 365 days in a year. When the ancient Egyptians made the first calendar about 4241 B. C., as a means of measuring time from the moon and sun, they decided to reckon a year by the 365 days between the highest points of the Nile flood.

The number of pints of blood taken exceeded the quota for the county by six pints. Seven donors were processed every fifteen minutes.

Accompanying the unit to this city were eight nurses and three men, who attended to the details of getting the program in operation. Eight beds were made available.

Loup Valley League Opens Season May 6

The Loup Valley baseball league will open its 1951 season with three games Sunday, May 6. Only seven teams will be in the league this year. Eddyville, which had planned to field a team in the league, withdrew and declined to pay the "fee," according to officials. As a result, one team will be idle each Sunday.

The schedule will run for 14 weeks, ending Aug. 5, following which the four top teams will take part in the playoff. Games will be in the afternoon until May 27, but towns having lights will play night games after that.

Broken Bow will be at Mason City for the first day's action May 6. Other teams in the league include Arnold, Ansley, Arcadia, Miller and Sargent.

J. M. McDonald Co. Reports Big Gain

The J. M. McDonald Co. in its third annual report to stockholders, reported a gain for their fiscal year of over one and a half million dollars in net sales. Wm. Darges, manager of the local store, reported to the Quiz.

In the same period earnings before taxes increased from a half million to nine hundred thousand dollars, but taxes jumped from $195,421 to $383,181. The company now operates 56 stores as compared with 48 a year ago.

—Richard Stopp of Hayes, Kans., spent Sunday with his fiancée, Ramona Koza.

Tax Schedules Up to Last Year

The number of personal property tax schedules filed this year is about the same as the number filed last year, Henry Stara, county assessor, reported to the Quiz.

"As near as I can tell, we've just about even," he said. "Of course there are still a number who haven't filed their schedules as yet and these will be subject to the fifty percent penalty provided by law."

Stara said there were a great number of young persons in the county who had reached the age of 21 years who were apparently not aware that they must file a tax schedule. "Whether they own property or not makes no difference," Stara said. "If they are 21 years old they must file a schedule as they are subject to poll tax and the old-age pension tax."

Four Schools Are in District Merger

Several school districts in Howard county merged last week. Miss Lena Deininger, county superintendent, announced the changes this week.

All of the schools are located south and southeast of St. Paul. District 65 merged with District 15; most of District 76 also merged with District 15.

At the present time District 15 has no school.

The other change also involved District 76; the rest of that school district merged with District 16 about 8 miles south of town.

The change will actually become effective in the fall.

The mergers were made possible when more than 55 per cent of the voters in the affected districts petitioned for it.

Barger Home Burns in Deary, Idaho

An early morning fire, the cause unknown, fanned by stiff winds razed the home of the Brownie Barger family two miles southeast of Deary, Ida, recently. After the fire died down the remains were two chimneys. The house was formerly a schoolhouse, but had been converted into a dwelling of seven rooms by Barger. Last June the remodeling and modernizing of the house was completed. It was only partially covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Barger and their two children, a boy about 17 and a girl about 8, escaped without injury and were given shelter by a neighbor.

When Mrs. Barger discovered the fire she called her husband, who had started to work in a field, then flagged a passing truck. The driver helped them remove some of their furniture.

The Dorcas society of the Seventh Day Adventist church is planning to help the family.

Mrs. Barger was the Arcadia correspondent for the Quiz for several years. She was born and raised in Arcadia and moved to Idaho after her marriage.

Umpiring Costs Up, Too: Night League Faces Problem

The Mid-Nebraska Night Baseball league, scheduled to open a 16-week season Sunday, faces a problem, says Harold McDermott, St. Paul league secretary. Tuesday he telephoned Gene Leggett, league president, to advise him that the umpires who worked so efficiently last season are asking for a raise in pay—they now want $10 each per game.

In 1950 they were paid $7.50 per game and league by-laws authorize only this amount for 1951. Two umpires team up to work each game.

League managers and officials will hold a meeting at the Legion club in St. Paul at 8:00 Friday evening to try to iron out the umpiring problem so the league can start play as scheduled. Qualified aspirants for umpiring jobs are invited to attend.

Streams Too High for Good Fishing

Fishing is getting off to a slow start in the Loup valley region this year, thanks to a late, cold spring and heavy April rainfall. Archie Bradt, caretaker at the dam, says he knows of only 7 legal size catfish caught there this spring.

J. A. Kovanda took a 6 lb. northern pike from a bayou east of the dam Saturday. Alfred Dardt, of Scotia, reported a 6 1/2 lb. catfish caught near there on the same day and several other good catfish are reported near Scotia.

The Cedar river has been high and both bayou and lake fishing there have been slow to date. Water was reported flowing across the highway bridge near Ericson early Sunday.

No Rush by Locals to Ship Cattle

Although movements of fat cattle from the Ord vicinity to terminal markets is up over the same period last year, there is no great rush to sell before ceiling prices are clamped on beef.

"The shipping at present is not excessive, considering the number of cattle in this area," M. B. Cummins, of the Ord Livestock Market, told the Quiz.

"If the ceiling prices do go into effect, as the government threatens, a lot of cattle will be shipped before they are what we consider finished," Cummins said. "That means less beef—and the reappearance of the black market."

Rural School Track, Field, Meet Today

Weather and track conditions permitting, the annual Valley county rural school track and field meet will be held at the athletic field in Ord starting at 1:00 today, Thursday, May 3. Both girls and boys events will be held.

The 8th grade exam schedule set up last week remains unchanged, according to Fred B. Appelget, county superintendent. These will be given at Ord May 8, at North Loup May 9 and at Arcadia May 10, starting each day at 9 a. m.

Complete details regarding the rural school commencement exercises May 21 will be available by next week, says Mr. Appelget.

Valley County Fails to Use Federal Funds

Get $183,777 Gas Tax But Passed Up Chance to Match Dollars.

Valley county, along with 37 other Nebraska counties has been failing to obtain any state or federal funds for use on its secondary road system.

Every county has secondary roads. Valley county has 130 miles.

During 1948-1949-1950 Valley county received $183,377.00 as its net share of gasoline tax funds. This money could have been used to match Federal-aid Secondary funds for use on secondary roads—or for bridges on such roads.

"Practically all counties in Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas and South Dakota make full use of Federal-aid Secondary Road Funds on their secondary systems."

Only 17 Nebraska counties have matched Federal-aid Secondary Funds on a 50-50 basis in the last three years.

Arrangements for matching secondary road funds must be made through the State Highway Department which acts as the legal representative of the federal government. Valley county officials have complained that required standards of construction are too rigid and resultant costs too high.

Obviously, there is misinformation on this point since the Commissioner of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads said, "The standards are not rigid but are purposely flexible so that they may be easily adapted to local requirements."

It follows then that closer cooperation between responsible state and local officials is needed to insure greater use of available funds and the more rapid improvement of secondary roads which are so essential to a large number of our population and to so many of our trade centers.

In the last three years, over 26 million of gasoline tax was given to the counties of Nebraska for their exclusive use. In view of this fact, it appears that the solution of our secondary road problem can be found without the imposition of additional taxes.

Some counties have obtained both federal and state money for secondary roads without putting up a dollar of local funds.

Grain.

As this is written we have a very strong market on all grain. With feeding grain very hard to get enough of to fill demands. If the roads get a little better we should have some corn the last of the week and while it will carry quite a little moisture it will be good quality corn. See us if you need a load or two.

We have about half a car of rye and would like to buy enough to make a full carload for shipment. If you have rye to sell let us buy it to fill this rate.

Oats and barley continue to be scarce and are bringing small premiums over a shipping market.

Legume Seeds.

This seems to be an ideal spring to sow both alfalfa and sweet clover seed. Any of this seed sown in the next few weeks should do well. We have a good stock of White and Yellow Sweet Clover and some Hubam. In alfalfa seed we have limited amount of home grown seed and the purity and germination is very good. About the finest alfalfa seed that we have had in years.

Grass Seed.

With a late spring Brome and Crested Wheat should do well if planted in the next ten days. It is getting a little late but with cool and wet weather it should get off to a good start. It will soon be time to plant Gramina and other grasses of the warm type. And we carry Ladino, Alsike and Red Clover for low pasture ground.

Chicks.

Hill Hatchery has a limited amount of Hy-Line Pullets from one to three weeks old and they have a very nice price on these started chicks. If you want started chicks let us have your order while they are available. Recent production records show many flocks are showing a profit of nearly $2.00 per hen over the standard breeds. Why not try out a divided house of Hy-Lines and your favorite breed and prove to yourself the production ability of Hy-Lines as compared with standard breeds.

Feeds.

Our stock of feeds of every kind is very complete. Let us figure with you on your Poultry Feeds and on your Hog Supplement.

Scotia High Wins Award

Holdrege High school students collected enough points to take home the Grand Trophy, while Red Cloud and Scotia students broke tradition by creating a tie for Master Trophy honors at the 23rd annual Inter High School Day contest held at Kearney State Teachers College on April 6.

Hastings High school, winner of four trophies in previous contests, was but one point behind the winning Holdrege students.

More than fifty high schools were represented and while all schools were eligible for an attempt at Grand Trophy laurels, only those schools with an enrollment under 150 were entitled to participate in the Master Trophy race.

Planning for the scholastic meet, which included forty-six contest divisions, was done by the Public Relations Committee of the college. Harry Hoffman is chairman.

Respect for the Flag.

Some people, in fact, a lot of people, are slouchy in their attitude toward the flag. It is not that we do not love the flag, for we do love it. We think of it as the emblem of progress and liberty, the liberty that only a free people like ourselves can enjoy. Its folds are wrapped in sacred history and not a little mystery. To us it is the most beautiful banner in all the world. Yet we are slouchy in our attitude toward it. Perhaps familiarity breeds contempt. We are certainly familiar enough with our flag. When the banner is unfurled we know at once it is ours and not that of some less fortunate nation. Yet it took years of agitation to get a law passed that would prevent it being used for advertising purposes.

Right today, if it were not for a law to prevent it, we would find some selfish-minded advertiser using the flag as part of the decorations to advertise his product with the hope of getting the public to believe that his product was the better because the flag of the nation was on the wrapper.

Perhaps you think it could not happen. The fact is it did happen, and it was done so flagrantly that the only way to put a stop to it was to prescribe by law the procedure for the use of the flag, and to make it illegal to use in any other way. Plenty of people can recall attending a political meeting in the old days when the front of the speaker's platform was draped with the flag.

Every school, while in session, is supposed to have the flag of the United States flying from a flag pole in the yard. The next time you drive through the country it might be a good idea to note how many schools are equipped with flag poles and how many of these poles have a flag flying from the top of the pole. Some one should institute a movement to require proper respect for the flag under which our boys are fighting and dying in Korea. If it is worth dying for, it is worth respecting.

Have You Been Assessed?

The question is timely. The time is now past in which the people were supposed to report to be assessed. If you have not been assessed, the fault is yours. Assessors have been located in strategic places in this county and all others for the purpose of having you appear before them, with your work sheets filled out and ready to sign the regular tax schedule when it is filled in. The present system of assessing is Biblical. At certain times in Biblical days the people convened in Jerusalem to be taxed. The assessor did not go out to look for them. It was up to them, just as it is to you today, to report for the purpose of being assessed. Some still question whether the new system is superior to the old, but the new system is the law of the land and must be obeyed.

The trouble with both the old and the new taxing systems is that so much depends upon the honesty of the individual. A man clever enough to do so can easily cheat the government out of quite a sum of money every year, in case he has a large amount of taxable property. The trouble with taxation is that the tax dodgers are usually those who have a large amount of property, who can afford to pay taxes.

The amount of money lost through failure of small property owners is comparatively small, and usually is unintentional. Items seldom used are easily overlooked. For example, a lot of men have old style watches, worth five dollars, perhaps. They never use them, and so they are likely to forget they have them. This is also true of old guns, cameras and many other items.

The penalty involved does not worry the professional tax dodger. He has taken the chance before and he will do it again. While many are caught, and made to pay the penalty, far more get by every year. A man may have plenty of money in the bank, for example, but, if he fails to give it in, there is no positive proof that he has it. But behind it all is the fact that taxes have been very high for a long time now and are getting higher from year to year. Most people have a tough time of it raising enough cash to pay their taxes, and they know that more will be required in the coming year. They fear the time will come when they will not be able to pay the tax and then they may lose their property by tax sale.

As a result, the higher taxes go, the less property is given in for taxation. Most people would rather keep the amount they must pay at a lower level and be able to pay it, than to have so much to pay that they cannot pay it. Taxes will be higher next year, and the chances are they will increase every year for a long time to come, thus straining the honesty of the taxpayer to the breaking point.

Nebraska saloons are reluctant to inaugurate a sales tax here, and they may be saved the trouble. Congress is now considering the advisability of a national sales tax with the idea of relieving the strain on the man who has, and put some of the burden on the man who has not. If we must have a sales tax, the federal angle seems to be the only fair solution to the tax problem.

War Eternal

The question of the difference of opinion between the president and General MacArthur is not so important to the people of the United States as is the fact that there is a difference. The General has stated that, fundamentally, there was no difference of opinion between himself and the chiefs of staff, a statement that the near future should either prove or disprove.

It seems to be agreed that the present condition of affairs in Korea is unsatisfactory. While the United States is not at war with Communist China, the fact remains that we are killing thousands of their soldiers and they are killing hundreds of ours. The fact that we are killing more of them than they are of ours is important, but it is by no means conclusive.

The war has been waged back and forth over Korea for the past ten months, first against North Koreans, and now against Chinese. We might continue to kill off the Chinese at the rate of ten to one and still lose the war, for Chinese are being born far faster than they are being killed or wounded. Further, they are being trained by outside experts and are being prepared for front line service faster than they are being killed. It is true we are destroying vast quantities of war materials, but these are being furnished and replaced by Russia and not by China. At the present rate of progress we could continue to wage war in Korea for the next decade and get absolutely nowhere.

It was with this in mind, no doubt, that MacArthur advocated an economic and navy blockade of the Chinese and help for the Chinese Nationals on Formosa in the invasion of the mainland. If this can be done, it ought to be done, and it must be done if we do not wish to have ourselves exhausted by a long and continuous war in Korea.

One of the things essential to the prosecution of the Korean war is the permission to bomb strategic centers in China, especially to the north of the Korean border. As conditions now are supplies of men and munitions are being concentrated there and thrown into the battle when they are needed. Jet fighters take off from and land on fields immune from attack, but within easy reach of the front lines.

Prominent men in America are still advocating the present course because they fear that a change in the present policy would bring on a Third World War. If these same men were on the front lines in Korea they would probably be surprised to learn that all it lacks there of being a Third World War is the name.

Russia asks nothing better than to have us continue the present stalemate in Korea, in which the part she is playing is costing her not more than a tenth what it is costing us. Meanwhile she can build up her stockpile of war materials and go ahead with any plans she may have for invading Western Europe, Iran, Greece, Turkey, India or Indo-China, with the help of the Chinese.

Yes, regardless of the details of the difference between MacArthur and Truman, it is about time something is done to bring about a showdown in the far east. If this can be done without an all-out war, so much the better. If not, the United States will never be in a better position for that war than we are today, and Russia will never be more unprepared than she is now.

It may be that the dismissal of MacArthur will bring affairs in Asia to a head. The general has lost nothing through the incident, while the President has lost ground. The state of affairs in the state department may now be brought into the open. It is time we stopped playing the game the communists started, and it is time we started playing a game of our own. The pawns in Korea are demanding it.

News you perhaps haven't heard:

The Ed Jensons, so long homesick, now love their home in Europe, and aren't too thrilled at the idea of returning to the states in June. Lucille has a wonderful job in which she is her own boss. Gross and his father spent a recent thrilling week in Africa. The family get in their Plymouth and go touring almost every weekend, and there is so very much to see, historical places, fabulous scenery and antiques and so on.

We all envy them their 400-year-old home in Stuttgart, and the luxury of putting a boy in school at Heidelberg and so forth, but Ord misses them!

The littlest Jenson, Kippy, had a treat he will never forget this winter, when he skated on the ice glacier hundreds of feet below ground with his schoolmates in a famed Swiss Ice Palace! Customarily the fee is $20, but these school youngsters were permitted to skate for $1 each.

Kippy also learned to speak German more quickly and easily than the rest of the family. Orders to the maid and gardener were given through Kippy for many weeks after their arrival in Germany, now nearly two years past.

For quite some time educators have declared that the younger the child, the easier and the more perfectly he learned to speak more than one language. Kippy Jenson seems to bear this out. Personally I think it shameful to see the Czech speech dying out hereabouts. It could so smoothly be kept as a second tongue, with so many good teachers near us.

finest knowledge, have come from the tiny land of Czechoslovakia. Descendants of that storied land should be proud of their heritage, music, culture of several kinds.

Also did you know, the only son of George and Elveta Dworak is hospitalized and seriously ill? Yes, he's been a G. I. He has a wife and two small children.

And did you know Dick Michalek was married, out at Scottsbluff? The only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Michalek.

And did you know the service is about to catch Bob Marks of Broken Bow, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Marks? He and his bride paid a week end visit here, preceding his departure for regimentalizing.

Mrs. Marks has finished her task as supervisor of Eastern Star chapters of our region. It was quite some job. Week after week she drove alone, spending a day or two inspecting and suggesting. Quite an honor too, of course, for Mrs. Marks.

A good many honors come to our town, I wonder if you all appreciate? State offices, and good ones, in the professional organizations to which they belong, have been held by, for instance, C. C. Thompson. Recently Jay Auble, or was it Glen Auble... then I noticed a son-in-law of Jay's, Irwin Underberg, who now lives at Broken Bow, had won such an honor. Dr. Blessing has had notable dentist's honors. Dr. Osentowski "goes places" in vet organizations. Dr. Parkins has been honored repeatedly, both in and out of Nebraska.

But here at home: shucks, we don't make such fuss over them!

In reading the Nebraska Fish & Game items we learn that a female carp lays 120,000 eggs in a season. Who will give her a carnation on Mother's Day?

Thought for the day, inspired by J. B. Colbert, a seventeenth century French taxman:

"The art of taxation consists in so plucking the goose as to obtain the largest amount of feathers with the least possible amount of hissing."

Many a family is fighting to keep the wolf away from the door, when the stork slips down the chimney.

The greatest stumbling block in the path of most men usually is not laziness or fear but a tight-skirted, low-necked, sultry-voiced d iam o n d-decked, perfumery-scented siren called "tomorrow."

Merchants who have been sweating over the new O.P.S. reports could enjoy the following little piece, which was printed in a Minnesota newspaper.

"The story of the creation of the world is told in Genesis in 400 words. 'The world's greatest moral code,' the Ten Commandments, contains only 297 words. 'Lincoln's Gettysburg Address' is but 266 words in length. 'The Declaration of Independence' required only 1,321 words to set up a new concept of freedom. 'The O.P.S.' uses 2,500 words to announce a reduction in the price of cabbage seed."

At this season of the year it's more likely to be green onions than halitosis.

Here's another version, put forth by the Valley National Bank of Phoenix, on definitions of various "isms":

Socialism—If you have two cows, the government takes both of them and gives you back a little skim milk.

Communism—If you have two cows, the government shoots you, cows your neighbors and issues a manifesto to the effect that milk is a poisonous secretion produced only by capitalistic mammals.

Brannan plan—If you have two cows the government shoots the bull and milks the taxpayer.

Idealism—If you have two cows, you imagine that one is a bull.

Realism—If you have two cows, both of them are dry.

A funeral story: Funeral services were being held for a woman who had been heartily disliked in her rural community. She had a violent, explosive temper, she henpecked her husband and feuded with her neighbors. Even the animals on her place had a hunted look. The summer day was dark and hot and as the service ended a storm broke furiously. There was a blinding flash followed by a terrific clap of thunder. "Waal, she's got there, one mourner concluded."

The Osceola Record says the Osceola ball players are not out for the money this year. "They are playing for the love of the game," the Record states, and adds: "They will split at the end of the season, if there is any money to split."

Christian Science Services "Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Scripture which will be read in Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 6, 1951. The Golden Text is: "Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin." Because he considereth, and turn- eth away from all his transgres- sions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die." (Ezekiel 18:27, 28).

Bossen-Treptow

The wedding of Rae Jean Bossen and Calvin Treptow took place Sunday afternoon, April 22, at 2 p. m. in the Arcadia church.

Rev. Beuhler performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with candelabra and white gladioli.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was edged in lace and fell from a satin sweetheart crown. She wore a pearl necklace

—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Proskocil visited Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lou Penas.

—Mrs. Roy Cox of North Loup spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Horner.

—Stan Roy, of Loup City, became the owner of the building, stock of goods and the hatchery and hatching equipment and will take possession of the business next week.

The new owner has been in charge of the soil conservation dis- trict office at Loup City, a posi- tion he is resigning to go into busi- ness for himself. A Loup City resi- dent for many years, Roy has been active in civic and com- munity affairs there and Ravenna is glad to welcome this progressive young business man.

The hatchery under Mr. Roy's direction will be operated next year, but not this year, as it is getting too late in the season. He will continue the Ralston-Turina franchise, along with several other well-known lines of farm supplies and equipment.

Sale of the Williams interest here was brought about by a di- vorce action between Mr. and Mrs. Williams, which called for a finan- cial settlement between the two. Sale of the hatchery and building closes out the Williams business interests here, although he retains ownership of a hatchery in Kear- ney which is not at present oper- ating. Sen. Williams came up from Lincoln Saturday to sign the nec- essary papers, and told friends he is considering several good posi- tions offered him in Lincoln and Omaha after the legislature ad- journs.

Mrs. Rowell was a faithful member of the Christian church at Longwood and held to that faith after the church was discontinued a number of years ago. Until her health failed, Mrs. Rowell took pleasure in keeping up her home and caring for her family and helping where she could in the neighborhood.

Ward's Cookin' hat's Column

I have in my possession one of the earliest of the chain letters that have been plaguing the public for the last half century and possibly for some time before. This one happened to be left in a book of a considerably older date, which is the only reason it was kept all these years. It was probably used in those days by some reader who figured it would make a good bookmark, and it may well be that nobody has even looked inside the book since that time. It was probably of some interest in those days, but it is entirely too dull to meet with the requirements of the present generation. At the top of the page is the number 114, apparently meaning that the letter had been written and rewritten a total of 114 times. The full text of the letter follows:

"An effort is being made to furnish a separate ward in the small hospital at St. George Hasletts, Sydney, New South Wales. At present the children can only be taken when there is a vacancy in the men and women's wards. This is detrimental to all patients. A philanthropist friend has agreed that, if one million cancelled stamps are sent to him by a date, it will be sufficient to build a ward. I have kept up the chain and your help is asked. Please make three copies of this letter and place 115 at the top of each, sign your name and send to three of your friends. Return this letter to Miss Griffin Hasletts, New South Wales, enclosing ten or more used stamps, also the names and addresses of three of your friends. They in turn will do the same. Anyone not willing to help in this charitable work is asked to send this letter to Miss Griffin Hasletts so she may know the chain is broken. This may seem a small thing to you but it will be a serious loss to the cause. The person receiving No. 150 will return without any copies, as that completes the chain.—Florence Craigmile, Tarkio, Mo.—Jan. 28, 1902."

This chain letter appears to be one put out without the thought of personal gain, such as was sought in the handkerchief and dime chains of more recent years. But several angles enter into the situation. For example, nothing is said of how much the new ward was to cost, how the money was to be raised, or how much the recipient of all those cancelled stamps would consider his stamp collection to be worth when he got those million stamps from all parts of the world into his collection. On sober second thought it looks like the value of the stamps might be much more than a ward in a hospital would cost, especially if they were kept for a few years, and the job of collecting them would all be done by the persons receiving the chain letters, at the cost of plenty of postage.

Most interesting to me of all is the angle of how many letters would have been sent in if the chain had been kept up until 150 without any break at any point. Figure it out for yourself if you have the time and the ambition, and you will find that the number is probably more than all the people who ever lived on the earth from the beginning down to the present time. Three raised to the 15th power is 1,422,133,467. That is more than half the people now living in the world. But the letter presumes that the multiplication is to be carried on ten times that far. Also, all the numbers produced by the intermediate multiplications are to be added to the grand total. Of course all such schemes are based on the presumption that nobody will notice such little things as the numerical impossibility of reaching such a goal.

It is possible that the chain letter gamble is almost as old as the postal service itself. In the beginning the department did not want to shut down on the idea, since it tended to increase the amount of mail. If the matter had been kept within the bounds of decency we might be still receiving chain letters, but because of their obviously gambling nature, they simply had to be suppressed.

This week I would like to pay my respects to the memory of a rather remarkable woman who was born and spent her earlier years in Valley county. There are many people still living who will remember Ruth Squires, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Squires, who at one time lived on eighty acres across the road east from the Bremer home in Mira Valley. She was the last of an unusual family, unusual because they were honest in the highest sense of the word; unusual because they were so different from the run-of-the-mill residents of the neighborhood in which they lived. The parents both died in California many years ago and her only brother, David, only boy in the Ord high school class of 1907, died in the 20s from the effects of his experience in World War I.

Geweke Farm Easy to Identify; Everyone Knew It

Easiest place yet to identify in the "mystery farm" contest was the Geweke place which was pictured in last week's Quiz. The many improvements on the place mark it, both on the ground and from the air. There is the big elevator, the big barn, the acres of feed lots covered with racks and the many smaller outbuildings on the place, to make it stand out.

Lloyd Geweke, who came in to make the identification and claim the photo, says he hadn't even got his Quiz yet when Howard Cook drove by waving a paper out the window and shouted "Your place is in the Quiz." Many neighbors telephoned to tell him the same thing.

Members of the Geweke family have lived on this place ever since 1918, when Archie rented it for two years. In 1920 he bought the farm from his father-in-law Joe Cook and over the years bought adjacent acreage until now the place comprises 370 acres under cultivation and 2,220 acres in pasture. Corn, wheat and alfalfa, with emphasis on the latter, are the main crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Geweke moved to their new home in Ord in 1946 and a son-in-law farmed the place two years. The Lloyd Gewekes moved there in 1948. Lloyd is happy to be living again on the farm where he was born and raised.

Cattle raising and feeding have always been principal Geweke occupations. At present Lloyd has 200 head of stock cows in pasture and 180 head of cattle in the feed lot and his father has 175 head of stock in pasture there.

The farm is one of the show places of Mira Valley.

Ruth became a teacher after her schooling was completed and taught a number of terms of school. One of the schools in which she taught was North Loup, about the time of the First World War, I believe. From here she went to New Mexico, and there she married a doctor named Winchester, and they lived at Clayton. Ruth not only took good care of her household but found time to take quite an active part in local and state politics, in which work both friends and opponents found her a power to reckon with.

Through the years she found time to keep in touch with a number of her old friends here and her letters were a source of help and inspiration to all who received them. She is gone, but the world was made better because she lived here for a while.

If the present trend in song hits keeps up, we may expect any time now to hear "Little Bo Peep" or "Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son" come out as one of the latest song hits. Recently a number of songs that had a brief lease of life a generation or more ago and which were abandoned because they had no appeal to the public have been resurrected and by clever and persistent hit-men, have become hit tunes. It is easy to understand the reason for this robbing of the literary grave yard. The public demand is greater than ever for songs today. People do not want to hear even the most popular hits for more than a few weeks, and the radio programs have a habit of playing any new song to death in half that time.

Since there are not enough songs to meet the popular demand, it is but natural for the ghouls to go to the cemetery and dig up any song they think may fool the public for a few weeks. In fact, this practice is sound from the financial viewpoint. New songs cost a lot of money and require the talent of the best current song-writers. A song that went out of style twenty to forty years ago can be had for the trouble of digging it up. If it fails to have the wanted appeal as written, it is an easy matter to change either the words or the music or both, and most people, especially the younger generation, can be fooled into thinking it is something entirely new.

Another plagiarism that is currently popular is to take the music of some old song, change it here and there, write a set of new words that do not need to have any sense to them so long as they sing well, and a new song is born. For example, I just heard the "Tumbleweed" song in a new suit of clothes. If I hadn't remembered the words I might have been fooled into believing it was an entirely new song. The object of the entertainers is to meet the popular demand. The trouble seems to be that they do not know just what the popular demand is, and they never will. The few who are satisfied with the so-called new songs are vociferous in their commendation, while the vast majority of us are so disgusted that we turn off the radio and do not say a word about it.

Curb and Gutter Petitions to Be Heard May 21st

City Dads Let Contract for Conversion Unit.

In a meeting that didn't adjourn until past midnight, the Ord city council decided on airport improvements, huddled with the park board and utilities board, let a $23,000 contract for electric plant improvements, entertained curb and gutter petitions, and then wound up a host of minor matters such as claims and plumbers and electricians licenses.

The council will meet again Monday evening, May 21st, at which time they plan to give full consideration to curb and gutter petitions, and also decide on whether to make city employees eligible for social security benefits.

Park board members met with the council to discuss jurisdictional matters, and were requested by Mayor F. L. Blessing to hold monthly meetings, regularly called.

Utility board members discussed wages of their employees with the council. A request for more wages had been made to the board. The council, after hearing statements by the board that the utility employees, with the exception of City Engineer George Allen, had all been given raises last May and again in January, agreed that Allen should be raised fifty dollars a month, and tossed the question of raises for other employees back in the lap of the utility board.

Big business of the evening was the letting of a contract for $20,000 to the Nordberg Co. of St. Louis for a dual fuel conversion unit in the Busch 1000 KW generator at the city light plant. Installation of the unit will cost another $3,000. City Engineer George Allen told the council that savings in fuel consumption should pay for the unit within two years.

City dads also decided that the utility board could go ahead and contract with the Saunders Milling Co. for the delivery of current to the alfalfa mill, now being serviced by Consumers. The city has a line running to a point a few hundred feet from the mill, and the Saunders firm calls for about 300 KW demand load, 24 hours a day during the summer. That amount is equivalent to about one-fourth the total city and REA demand at present.

Councilmen left the airport committee to decide whether a lighted beacon would be installed at the Ord airport. Airport Manager Ellis Carson told the council that a beacon from the Fairmont Army Airbase had been offered the city on a loan basis, free of expense except for cost of installation and upkeep, and that the beacon would make the local airport available for both day and night flying.

Petitions bearing the names of 132 Ord property owners, asking that a curb and gutter district be formed within the general limits of J street on the north, O street on the south, 14th on the east and 23rd street on the west, were given to the council. The area covered would include about 45 blocks of street improvement.

The council tabled these for further consideration at their May 21st meeting, so that time would be given for study of the costs and engineering involved.

1,500 Korea Veterans Land at Seattle Saturday, June 5

Ord Man in First Group Sent Home Under New Rotation Program.

More than 1,500 Army veterans of the Korean war got their first glimpse of the United States May 5th after many hectic months in the front lines. They were the first soldiers to return home under the Army's new rotation program, and the city of Seattle paid a tumultuous tribute to these fighting men.

As the Navy transport General Leroy Eltinge which brought the men home steamed into Elliot Bay city of Seattle and Seattle Port of Embarkation fireboats circled the vessel sending streams of water spraying high into the air. A flotilla of small craft provided an honor escort to the pier while overhead, Air Force bombers and jet fighters dipped their wings in salute to the returning heroes.

At the Seattle Port of Embarkation, civic and military leaders from throughout the nation were present to add their words of welcome. Led by Secretary of the Army Frank Pace, jr., Lieutenant General Albert C. Wedemeyer, Sixth Army Commanding general, and movie comedian Joe E. Brown, they praised the heroic stand of the men who from the earliest days of the Korean war helped to stem the tide of Red aggression.

Among the 107 officers aboard was 1st Lieutenant Warren Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Allen of Ord, Neb. In Korea since last July, Warren was wounded three times during his service overseas.

County Dads Discuss Roads, Taxes, Pensions

Also Meeting as Equalization Board This Week.

It's a busy week for members of the Valley county board of supervisors. The group started sessions Tuesday and will continue in session through Friday to discuss roads, gravel, taxes and social security pensions among other things.

Tuesday the board let two gravel contracts, one for 2500 yards to the Ulrich firm of Ord, and another for 1000 yards to the Hill Sand & Gravel Co. of Elyria. The Hill firm was also granted permission to make delivery on another 1000 yards ordered last fall, but never delivered. Price to the county will run from 75 cents to 90 cents per yard, delivered on the county roads.

Social Security pensions for county employees will be the main topic of conversation Thursday, when a representative of the federal Social Security office will meet with the board to explain the program.

Under new rulings, county and other governmental employees can now come under the Social Security act. The cost of covering all present county employees in the present plan would run from $60 to $65 monthly, which amount must be matched by the individual employees.

At the same time supervisors are holding sessions as a board of equalization to review assessments on personal property and real estate. Less than a half dozen complaints on real estate assessments have been filed with the board to date, and Henry Stara, county assessor, said he does not think that more than 10 or 15 will be made.

New Standard for Excellence Set by Senior Class Play

'Mother Is a Freshman' Given Thursday Eve to a Packed House.

Admirably cast and excellently acted was the senior class play, 'Mother Is a Freshman,' given Thursday evening by seniors of Ord high school to a crowd that filled the school auditorium to overflowing and brought them a net profit of $200, a record in class play profits.

The leading part, that of a young widow who decided to enter as a freshman the same college in which her daughter was a sophomore, was splendidly portrayed by Margaret Heuck, who gave perhaps the most outstanding performance of any of the group.

Charlene Severns, as the daughter, gave a fine performance also as did Darlene Novosad who played Mrs. Miller, the house mother.

Male leads were taken by Frank Adamek and Dennis Knopik and both were excellent but a member of the supporting cast, Ed Andersen, ran away with the best honors as Bobo, an irrepressible student. He played the part with an ebullience and verve seldom seen in a high school actor, or perhaps the part exactly fitted him and he merely played himself—it was hard to tell.

Others in the supporting cast did nearly as well, the group including Marlene Norman, Jean Huff, Adeline Dubas, Delores Blaha, Dorothy Urban, Gladys Kokes, Don Sorenson, Kerry Leggett and Bob Waldmann.

The entire cast maintained such a high level of performance throughout that it was difficult to think of the play as a purely amateur performance, given by a group which had drilled together only a few weeks. The production was a great tribute to the ability of the director, Mrs. J. A. Kovanda, and her student assistant, Barbara Nay, as well as the class sponsors, Lucile Tolén and Mr. Kovanda.

Moore Sent to Kearney School

District Court Session Held Here Monday.

Roy W. Moore, 16-year-old Arcadia youth, was sent to the Kearney Training School, at a brief session of district court Monday with Judge Wm. F. Spikes presiding.

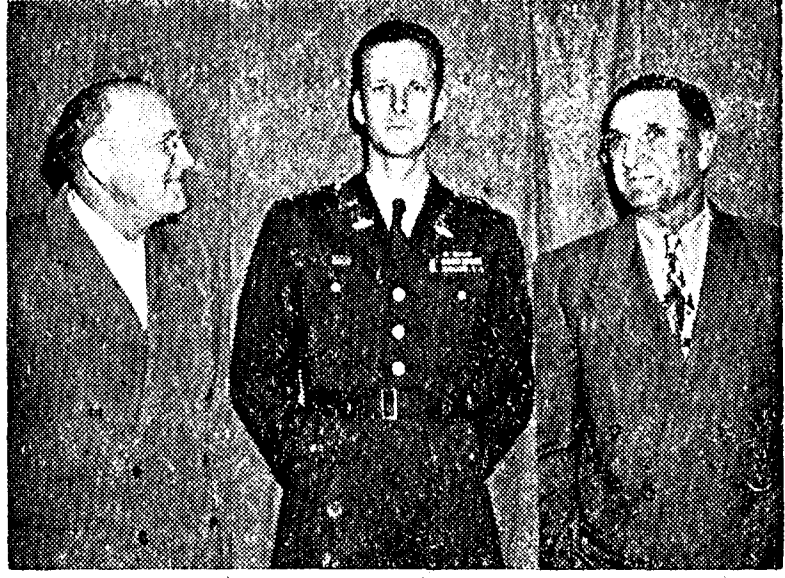

Moore, an eighth grader in Arcadia schools, was found guilty of breaking and entering several homes in Arcadia. His parents are in Texas, and the youth has been living with his grandparents.

In the suit for damages brought by Earl Klingensmith against Ross Allen, Spikes sustained motions by the defendant to strike out several clauses of the complaint, narrowing it in scope. The defendant now has five days to submit a motion, ten days to file a answer, or 30 days to answer the charges.

Ord Seniors, Juniors, 'Tiptoe Through the Tulips,' at Traditional Banquet

Each year the juniors try to surpass the class ahead of them and decorate the junior-senior banquet with the finest flourish yet! 1951 was no exception. The auditorium lost all semblance of a concert hall. It became, in the span of about three days, a Dutch dreamland.

As near as could be figured, there were 1000 hand-made tulips, bright and pretty, blooming on a green background where bleachers formerly exposed their ugly board seats.

Lt. Allen Welcomed at Rotary Club

Lt. Warren Allen looked trim and fit when he posed for this Quizpic at a meeting of the Ord Rotary club Monday evening. On the left is Robert Noll, president of the club, on the right is George Allen, father of the Army officer.

Judge Ball Has Playful Neighbors

As far as County Judge Ellsworth Ball, jr., was concerned, he might have been planting skunk cabbage Wednesday evening. He couldn't figure out the splendid, rich odor coming from his garden while he was working on it, an odor that curiously enough, seemed to be on his hands. Several times he stopped his work to wipe his hands on the grass.

But there's a reason for everything. Judge Ball has playful neighbors, and one of them, Jerry Petaska, had carefully smeared a thin layer of limburger cheese on the handles of all Ellsworth's garden tools.

Mustangs Subdue Boelus 3-2 in 15 Inning Thriller

Ord Took Early Lead, Boelus Tied in 5th, Jim Finley the Hero.

The entire Ord baseball field was in shadow at 6:30 Sunday evening when Jim Finley, coming to bat with 2 down and 2 out in the 15th inning of the Ord-Boelus game, pumped a two-bagger over second to break a deadlock which had lasted since the 5th inning and give Ord a victory in the first game of the Mid-Nebraska Night League season for 1951.

Only a couple of hundred shivering fans saw a game that will go down in the record books as one of the best ever played in Ord.

The Mustangs scored in the second inning when Stan Johnson, who had singled, was advanced to third by Finley's 2-base blow, smartly handled by the Boelus outfield to hold him at third, but crossed the plate on Philbrick's sharp single.

In the third Boelus tied it up with a single by G. Whitefoot, who went all the way around on Ord overthrows. It was the single pricely inning indulged in by the Mustangs.

In the 5th Boelus went ahead 2 to 1 when G. Whitefoot again hit, this time for two bases, and scored on a double by K. Stubbs. After that K. Whitefoot and Hyde got singles but smart playing by the Mustangs cut off another score.

In the 6th Ord tied the score at 2-2 when Dilla singled, went to second when Dick Beran was hit by a pitched ball, and scored on a single by Stan Johnson.

From then on the innings went by with monotonous regularity. Many times Ord had men on base but couldn't hit in the clutch. Thrice Boelus had scoring chances but twice Bill Beasley, making his debut in an Ord uniform, tightened up and cut down the batter with strike-outs. Once a sparkling double play, Nelson to Moore to Donkey, beat Boelus out of what looked like a sure score.

The public is invited to a party Thursday evening at the Veterans Club in honor of Lt. Warren P. Allen, who returned to Ord Sunday from Korea. The affair will start at 9 o'clock, and is being given by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

Ord's Own Warren Allen, Thrice Wounded, Returns from the Korean War

Sand Hill Lakes Say Fishing 'Good'

Lincoln, Neb.—Apply the fishing touches to your fishing tackle as better fishing throughout the state appears to be in the making.

Reports received at the Game Commission office during recent days from 21 district game wardens indicate the most marked improvement of fishing of the year with signs of continued improvement.

The sand hills area in Holt, Boyd and Knox counties offers an encouraging note as Warden Sam "Badger" Grasmick says fishing is good. In all previous reports, Grasmick reported fishing as "poor." The sand hills area annually provides Nebraskans with some of the finest fishing in the state.

Only during recent days has lake fishing started to produce in the sand hills. Most fishing, however, is still confined to streams and creeks. Continued warm weather would establish lake fishing as the most popular and productive.

Northern pike are going strong at Maloney lake. Walleyes have provided good fishing at Maloney, too. Harry Bragg of North Platte landed a 9 pound, 14 ounce white E. E. Saunders, also of North Platte, took five walleyes from 2 1/2 to 9 pounds each, all in Maloney.

Benny Ostrand of Mason City proved a stern challenger to the northern pike record, hooking a 10 pound, 8 ounce, only five and one-half pounds under the state mark. Ostrand took the big northern white fishing in Johnson lake.

According to the reports, fishing was considered fair in the following counties: Dodge, Colfax, Butler, Saunders, Washington, Douglas, Sarpy, Cass, Dundy, Chase, Hayes, Hitchcock, Adams, Clay, Webster, Nuckolls, Dawson, Buffalo, south Custer, Lincoln, Logan, McPherson, Lancaster, Gage, Pawnee, Johnson, Otoe and Nemaha.

Fishing pressure increased along with the productive fishing. Three districts had heavy concentrations of anglers while only one district was fished by a limited number of anglers.

Shadelite Marquee Goes to Cleveland

The largest individual sale ever made by the Shadelite Marquee Co. of Ord came through this week with the approval of a new shopping center in the suburbs of Cleveland, Ohio. Specifications call for immediate installation of a 600 foot aluminum marquee with a later addition of a 275 foot marquee.

Jay Auble, manager of Shadelite, said the unit would involve around 8,000 pounds of aluminum. The Cleveland shopping center will house 27 individual stores and will cost nearly two million dollars to construct.

Shadelite was chosen for the marquee because of its modern adaptability to any type of construction.

Sperlings Observe 25th Anniversary

Friends and relatives gathered at the American Legion hall in Ord Sunday, May 6, to help Mr. and Mrs. George Sperling celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

Dinner was served to the family and relatives at noon. The table for the wedding party was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three tier wedding cake, which was baked and brought from Omaha. The other tables were covered with white cloths with baskets of carnations as center pieces.

Mrs. E. W. Petersen, Mrs. Everett Wright, Mrs. Bill Miller, Mrs. Jack Fauble and Mrs. George Rich served. Miss Betty Sperling took care of the guest book.

From 3:00 o'clock until 5:00 o'clock open house was held at which cake, ice cream and coffee was served from a tea table. Mrs. Fauble poured the coffee and Betty Sperling served the ice cream with the honored couple serving their wedding cake.

Mrs. Sperling wore a corsage and Mr. Sperling a boutonniere given to them by their children. They also received many nice gifts and cards.

August Lessons for Music Beginners

William Nelson, music instructor in the Ord schools, announced this week that an intensive two weeks course in music for beginners only will be conducted by him from August 29 until September 4, and asked parents of children interested to enroll them not later than May 11. Mr. Nelson will attend school in Colorado the earlier part of the summer.

Students below the 6th grade will make up this beginners' class, except under exceptional circumstances when older children may be admitted. The course is entirely free of cost and instruments may be rented from the local music store or elsewhere as parents desire.

More information about this course may be obtained from Miss King, Miss Swain or from Mr. Nelson himself, but enrollments will close Friday, May 11, so parents who wish their children to get this free music instruction should act at once.

High school faculty members judged the displays and Mr. Fisk donated cash prizes to the winners.

The Ord team then journeyed to Grand Island Saturday for the state sand greens tournament where they compiled a slightly better score to take sixth place in the state tournament.

Larry Baker turned in a 77 in Wednesday's meet for North Platte's low score while Kerry Leggett shot an 83 for Ord's low. Reiger, N. P., took Leggett 3 up the first round but the second round Leggett turned the tables and took him 3 up for a tie. Baker, N. P., took Anderson 4 up the first round and 2 up the second round. Witherwax took Fitzgerald, N. P., 1 up each round. Shodd, N. P., took Bennett 5 up the first round and 7 up the second round. Douthitt played, Ritz, N. Cattle Rally on Short Run Monday at Omaha

Light supply can still exert price leverage, even in the face of government controls, it was demonstrated in fat cattle trade Monday at Omaha. With the run nearly halved from a week earlier, slaughter steers, yearlings and heifers sold strong to 50c higher, some plain ones up more—in contrast to last week's $2-$3 break.

Plain to medium shortfords brought $30-$34, better steers reached $38 and quotable top was figured above $39. Fed heifers sold to $35.50. Cow trade, however, failed to revive, and was no better than steady to weak, bid away apart. Canners and cutters ranged from $16.50-$23 but bulked at $18-$22. Beef cows sold to $27.50, heiferettes to $29. Bologna bulls sold to $29, beef to $28; veal calves to $37.

Stocker and feeder cattle and calves got back 50c to $1 of last week's $3 to $4 break. Yearling stock steers from 500 to 700 lbs. sold at $30.50-$36, stock heifers brought $32, and mixed steer and heifer calves scored $38.50.

Hogs sold steady to 25c lower, butchers weighing 180-360 $18.50-$20.75, one deck $20.85. Sows weighing 270-600 sold at $16.25-$19, stags $14-$17.

Fat lamb trade was steady, native and fed California springers weighing 90-101 $36, plain to medium old croppers $29.75, yearling wethers discounted $3. Short lambs with No. 1 pelts brought $33.50; with No. 1 and 2 skins, $33. Slaughter ewes sold steady, shorn $12-$17.50, woolled to $22. Three decks 93-pound shearing lambs brought $35.

In Hayward they were guests of Mrs. Parkos' daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harbert. They were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rysavy in San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Rysavy and family in Hayward and Mr. and Mrs. Les Scherbarth and family in Oakland, the latter being a granddaughter of Mrs. Parkos. All are former Valley county residents.

They saw many points of interest and visited Mexico enroute home. In Mesa, Ariz., they visited the Frank Hron family, former Ordites, and found them well and happy.

The highlight of their trip was the welcoming of General MacArthur and his family, when they arrived in San Francisco.

Joyce Achen Wins Poetry Contest

Lincoln—Willia Joyce Achen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Treptow of Ord, today was revealed as winner of the fourth annual Woman's Athletic Association Poetry Award at Nebraska Wesleyan university.

Miss Achen, a senior, read her poem, "Shades of Gray," as a high spot in annual May Day festivities on the campus.

The poetry contest, sponsored by the W.A.A., is open to any senior student. The entry must be serious, of at least sonnet length; may be done in patterned blank or free verse; and may meditate on the season, the occasion, or reflect the thoughts of one about to graduate.

Miss Achen, who also attended Hastings college before enrolling at Nebraska Wesleyan, is active in campus organizations for unaffiliated students, Association for Childhood Education, Phi Gamma, Mu, Woman's Home Council, Y.W.C.A., and Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary society.

Her winning poem: "SHADES OF GRAY."

Why should it be that mortals render judgments,
Evenness in terms of absolutes
Like good or bad and right or wrong, alone?
Life weaves two tapestries from varied yarns of human virtues, frailties, strengths and faults.
Ignorance beholds these different cloths;
Adjudges one as black as ebony night,
The other, pale as starlight and as pure;
But Learning ponders each more closely, finding
Midst the dark warp, threads of clearest
white.
And through the lighter fabric, strands of black,
Until at last he sees both motley hues
As matching shades of gray, and judgment falls.
Then Wisdom looks with clearer, keener eye;
Employs his power to differentiate
Between the lighter and the darker tints;
But even Wisdom sometimes cannot judge
Which is the lighter, which the darker, hue.
'Tis then that Faith must stand,
steadfast, alone,
To choose where intellect has gone astray.
A man may never call ideas, actions,
Deeds, completely good, completely bad.
For each of them is gray, for black and white
Belong alone to youth, fanatics, fools,
by Joyce Achen.

Ask for More Trained Man For Animal Disease Study

Solution to some of the nation's most costly animal diseases is being slowed by lack of highly trained research men.

There is urgent need for giving promising young scientists an opportunity to learn the techniques of animal disease investigation. The only way this can be done is by a long range fellowship program.

Such a program has been sponsored by the AVMA for the past years. Under this program, which will be expanded as funds permit, research-minded graduates of colleges of veterinary medicine get financial aid to engage in animal disease studies at leading scientific institutions. This gives them background and experience needed for unraveling highly complex diseases.

Many livestock and pet owners who ask for "more research to solve disease problems" have given too little thought to how the job might be done.

Finding out what causes a perplexing animal disease isn't much different from tracking down a dangerous criminal, and neither is a job for anyone but a well-trained person.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation would not put a man on any of its cases without first training him in FBI methods. The same advantage should be given to people interested in disease investigation.

Funds for expanding the fellowship project should come from private sources rather than the federal government "because the nation already has gone too far toward dependence on federal hand-outs."

Mastitis Germs Live 5 Days on Broomstick

Harmless though it may look, that broom in the corner of the barn might be the means of starting a new case of bovine mastitis.

The germ responsible for most cases of bovine mastitis can stay alive for as long as 20 days on objects around the barn, and for as long as 28 days anywhere on a cow's skin. From these jumping-off places, the germ may eventually get into a cow's udder, where it starts the disease known as mastitis.

Survival time of the germ was observed after mastitis-infected milk was poured on manure, hair, wood, bricks, udder cloths, and other materials commonly found or used around dairy barns.

The germ stayed alive for 4 days on rubber boots, 5 days on a broom handle, 7 days on an udder-washing cloth, 8 days on a bucket, 13 days on hair, and 20 days on hay. However, when some of these objects were treated with a disinfectant before being smeared with infected milk, the germ didn't do so well. Enough of the disinfectant lingered to cut down the survival time to a day or less.

This research emphasizes the need for clean barns, clean cows, clean attendants, and prompt disinfection of any object that gets splattered with milk.

Use of Columbium

John Winthrop, Jr., who supervised the construction of America's first successful blast furnace at Saugus, Massachusetts, in 1643, found an unidentified rock fragment near his home. About 150 years later, an English chemist, Charles Blackett, saw this fragment in the British museum, analyzed it, and thus discovered the element columbium. Today, this element is playing an increasingly important part in the manufacture of stainless and heat resistant steels for such uses as jet aircraft engines.

Columbium is one of the most recent elements to find use in the steel industry. It was used commercially as an alloy in the 1930's, although experimental work had been done with it as early as 1920. Last year 632,000 pounds of columbium metal was consumed in the manufacture of steel.

Origin of Camouflage

The origin of the word camouflage has, it seems, been lost in the shuffle. One of the stories told in connection with it is that, during the Indian troubles in the Southwest, one Jacques Camou built a circular mud fort. This fort had large square openings at regular intervals around the walls. Through these, the garrison of the fort would fire. As the Indians' shots also found their mark through these openings, Camou painted the entire fort like a checkerboard with large black squares on a white field. This confused the Indians so they were unable to determine at which dark squares to aim.

Thermal Snow Removal

Thermal snow removal from sidewalks and driveways by means of embedded piping is a new and interesting development in the heating industry. The snow is removed automatically and without effort by the heat from pipe coils installed under the surface of the pavement. Hot water, circulated through the coils, transfers its heat to the pavement, thus melting the snow and keeping the surface dry. Automatic snow removal is economical. There is no necessity for using snow shovels or chemicals. All the owner does is to turn the switch to start the system in operation when it snows.

Rod Prevents Rusting

A magnesium rod has been manufactured which prevents rusting in household hot-water tanks. Corrosion attacks the rod inside the tank instead of the steel walls.

Claude Philbrick Rites Here Friday

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Ord Methodist church for Claude O. Philbrick, former resident, who died Sunday in Santa Ana, Calif.

In 1941 he went to Santa Ana, Calif., where he made his home with his sister, Mrs. Maude Howell.

Anything Can Be Proved With Figures

County Supervisor S. V. Hansen visited the Quiz office Monday to object to a Quiz story last week in which it was stated that Valley county got $188,777 in gas tax funds in 1948, 1949 and 1950. He had with him an adding machine slip from the county treasurer's office, tending to show that the total received was only $109,218.85.

Since the Quiz figures came from the state auditor's office at Lincoln it was apparent that something was wrong. Discussion soon brought out the fact that Mr. Hansen's figures didn't include money received by Valley county under the Schroeder mail route bill and that the Lincoln figures received by the Quiz did include such funds.

Which shows again that anyone can prove anything with figures—if they select the right figures to use.

$40,000 Credited to County General Fund by Satterfield

The county general fund will benefit to the tune of some $40,000, due to the bookkeeping of the late George Satterfield.

At the end of this fiscal year, the total will be transferred to the general fund. County officials believe it will be possible to cut the general fund levy as a result. The amount represents fees and commissions collected by the treasurer over the past five years, which were never properly credited by the treasurer. Each year it is the custom to credit these funds to the general fund of the county, but in 1945, about the time the late treasurer began his financial manipulations, the fees were allowed to pile up in a suspense fund.

Last Week's Mystery Farm Was Bill Kluna Place in Springdale; Klunas Didn't Know

The Bill Klunas, who live in Springdale, five miles east and a mile south of Ord, didn't recognize their own farm when it appeared in the Mystery Farm Series in the Quiz last week.

But their daughter, Mrs. Forrest Watson, did. Friday morning she came from her home fifteen miles west of Ord to tell her parents to go to the Quiz office and get their free enlarged photo of the home place.

Last Friday we had a good offering of both cattle and hogs with a very active market considering the OPS ceiling. The cattle prices were some lower than the previous weeks.

For this Friday there will be a moderate consignment of cattle consisting of several consignments of Hereford steer and heifer calves, several cows with calves at side, some stock cows, several milk cows, a Black Angus breeding bull, several Hereford bulls, several loads of mixed cows, several baby calves, some fat cattle and balance will be light weight replacement cattle.

Expect another large run of fat hogs again this week; also several consignments of feeder shoats and pigs; several brood sows.

Some farm machinery.

Plan to attend the sale each Friday at Burwell where you will find a very good market to buy or sell your livestock.

Ansley, Arcadia, Broken Bow, Cop First Round Games

Ansley, Arcadia and Broken Bow won first-round games as the Loup Valleys league began a 14-week schedule under frigid playing conditions Sunday.

At Mason City, the Broken Bow Indians raked the host team, 9-1, with Eddie Staab whiffing 10 batters while rival hurler Ray Jensen yielded 10 hits. Paul Dean homered in the first inning for the winners on a screaming line drive to right-center field.

Arnold lost a 3-2 contest at Ansley, Arleigh Sinter having the game under control throughout. The visitors suffered more bad luck in the first of the ninth when Croghan, Arnold backstop, twisted his ankle sliding into home on the four bagger that gave Arnold his final tally.

Arcadia and Miller displayed mid-season form in the closest of the three encounters, the Huskies outlasting the Buffalo county club, 3-2. Ike Sutherland, on the mound for Arcadia, gave up three hits while losing pitcher George Turner was almost equally as stingy, yielding only six blows. Turner had nine strikeouts, Sutherland eight. Bellinger got two hits to force the Huskies, Turner an RBI number for the visiting Miller nine.

Line Scores:

28 lb. Northern Is Record Fish

Lincoln, Neb.—State fishing records continue to fall. Henry Drummheller, Jr., Route 1, Minatare, has notified the Game Commission that he caught a 28-pound northern pike while fishing at Lake Minatare on Nov. 3, 1950. The Game Commission recently announced that it was attempting to bring its state fishing records up to date and that anyone catching a fish heavier than that listed in the records would receive recognition upon presentation of an affidavit ascertaining the catch. Drummheller, using a minnow for bait and a 25 pound test line, battled for five minutes before landing the husky northern. His catch exceeded the old record 25 pounder caught by R. O. DeFord of Ogallala in McConaughy in 1949. The big northern will be recognized as a state record upon receipt of an affidavit from Drummheller.

Mustangs Subdue Boelus 3-2 in 15 Inning Thriller

Ord Took Early Lead, Boelus Tied in 5th, Jim Finley the Hero.

Not until the 15th inning did the Mustangs break through Boelus' tight defensive play. In the 12th Harris, who started for the Danes, gave way to Andy Jensen, who kept things pretty well under control for 3 innings, but in the 15th he weakened. Bud Novosad, first man up for Ord, flew out to left field. Dilla went out on a grounder, 3rd to first, and it looked like Ord's chances were gone. Then Verl Smith, who had gone in to run for Dick Beran a couple of innings before, hit a hard grounder to L. Jensen, the Boelus third bagger, who hadn't erred during the game, and Jensen juggled the throw long enough to let Smith reach first safely. Jensen walked Stan Johnson, to put two men on, and Manager Roy Johnson inserted himself into the line-up as a pinch runner. Jensen threw four balls to him, wide and then retired in the game in favor of G. Whitefoot. He took his warm up pitches as Lefty Jim Finley stood impassively by the plate, and then pitched to Jim. He swung, and the ball was a white streak going over second—a clean double on a triple in anybody's language. One or two, or three Ord men scored—it didn't matter how many—for the first Ord run spelled the ball game and it went into the records as a 3 to 2 victory, after 15 innings.

Birch Services Held Monday

Funeral services were held Monday, at 2:00 o'clock at the Christian church in Burwell for Mrs. Raymond Birch, who died May 3, at the home of her daughter, Blanche Frederick of North Loup. Elder Shurink of Lincoln officiated at the services. Music was furnished by Mrs. Bus Alcott, Miss Eleanor Renick and Mrs. Bernard Haines. Mrs. Shurink sang a solo. Laura Olive Hillman, daughter of Edwin and Emily Hillman, was born November 4, 1879 in Gage county and died at the age of 71 years, 6 months and 29 days. On January 23, 1902, she married Raymond Birch in Beatrice. They farmed in Gage county until 1909, when they moved to Loup county and took up a Kinkaid claim where they lived until 1915. They then moved to Garfield county, east of Burwell. To this union was born five girls and three boys of which three died in infancy. Survivors are her husband, five children: Lester of Lebanon, Mo., Mrs. Blanche Frederick of North Loup, Mrs. Violet Jasper of David City, Mrs. Marjorie Klink of St. Marie, Ida, and Raymond, Jr. of Ord, also 21 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, 1 sister, 2 brothers and many friends. Burial was in the Burwell cemetery.

Armstrong Wins Trip

Ed Armstrong, representative in the Ord community for Guarantee Mutual Life Insurance company, recently qualified through his sales for an all-expense trip to the company's 1951 convention which will be held in Mexico City next November. All trip expenses for Mrs. Armstrong also will be paid by the company.

The Cornhusker Corner

by Howard Lanier
If the Nebraska track team loses many more members, Coach Ed Weir will have to start scheduling Slippery Rock Teachers to get back in the win column. Latest casualties are Vaulter Don Coper, York; and Hurdler Dan Tolman, Indianapolis. Cooper pulled a leg muscle in the Drake Relays and Tolman banged a knee on a hurdle early this spring. Their hopes, though, to have both in shape for the Big Seven meet at Columbia, Mo., on May 17-19.

Coach Marvin Franklin has come up with a honey of a golf squad. His starting four are Joe Gifford, Dick Spangler, Erv Peterson—all of Lincoln—and Doug Dale, Ord.

The golfers have won four and lost one this season. Kansas State beat them 15-3 at Manhattan, Kan. The wins are over Wichita, U., the University of Kansas and a pair over Omaha U.

Try to question Harry Good about the freshman basketball players he has coming out next fall and you get nowhere.

But by that twinkle in his eye, you can safely bet a cigar that he has some pretty good prospects in mind.

The Husker baseball squad's greatest diamond foe is the weather.

To date, three conference games have been rained out, one with Kansas State and two with Iowa State.

What hurts is that the games can't be made up. And with Oklahoma sporting a record of 11 wins and no losses, the Huskers need to play every scheduled game to stay in the race. They especially want to face such clubs as the Wildcats and Cyclones, who aren't exactly any Bronx Bombers at the plate.

West Point's Bob Diers continues to lead Husker hitters with a .447 average. Grand Island's Bob Reynolds, hitting a .378 clip, has moved into the number two spot.

It's almost as much fun to watch Mr. Touchdown run the bases as it is to watch him circle end in a football game. He's a smart base runner who really keeps opposing pitchers on their toes. His 10 stolen bases in nine games prove that.

Ward's Cookin' Column

I have been collecting quite a few items of interest lately, and I am only too glad to pass them on to the readers of this column. One of them is a continuation of a reference I made to Mike Lamb in the story of the last of the horse thieves a few weeks ago. I recently met Archie Dahlstedt, who as a kid worked for Mike Lamb on the Lamb ranch back just before the first world war. He recalls that the ranch house was on the south side of the Clear river about half way between Spalding and Primrose. He knew everything wasn't strictly on the square with Lamb, but I job was a job and he stayed there 7 months, working for 20 dollars per month, collecting $70 and losing the rest of the money.

He remembers that Mike had two Model T Fords, which were quite the style in those days especially in the sand hills, where cars could not and were handy or account for the rest of the way be the hay roads. There was a question of ownership of one of these cars and the sheriff from Albion came over and examined the car expressing his opinion that it had been stolen. Mike told him he had bought the car from a car dealer but could not remember who he was or what town he had bought it in. The sheriff showed him photos of some men suspected of shady car dealings but he could not recognize any of them as the man who sold him the car.

Mike got away with it that time, but not on three other occasions. It was about this time that Mike's son-in-law and the hired man robbed the Primrose bank, at a time when Mike was in South Dakota on business. They got about $3,000 and then drove home to the ranch in a buggy.

When accused of the theft they admitted it and got the money which they had hid in various places around the ranch. When Mike got home he was sore about the deal and told the men they were foolish to give up the money as they would have to do time anyway and might as well have had the money for their trouble.

Mike was taken to the pen it served his time partly after Archie quit working for him. He got out after a few years, but lived only a short time after that.

Mike and a friend went up to the Rosebud Indian reservation, one year for a July Fourth celebration. It was against the law to sell liquor of any kind to the Indians, but the men bought some quart bottles of beer, an equal number of empty quart bottles, thinned the beer with water and then sold it to the Indians at a dollar a bottle, thus realizing a handsome profit. One of the Indians asked Mike if he could use some horses and Mike said he could. The Indian rounded up the horses and left them along a creek where Mike found them and later sold them. It is not known how much the Indian got out of his share of the transaction.

Once Lamb stole 50 head of cattle in South Dakota and shipped them to Omaha. The owner got word of where they were going and ordered the cattle held in Omaha. Mike found out that they were on his farm so he reshipped the stock to Chicago, sold them there and got the money. The law caught up with him, however, and that accounts for one of his prison terms. Land was being opened for homesteading in Dakota in those days, and one of Mike Lamb's ways of accumulating property was to have a young man file on land, pay him wages and then have him deed the land over to him as soon as he had proved up on it. One man was too smart for him, however, and when Lamb came and asked for a deed, this man told him the land was his and he wouldn't give it up.

Then there is the tale of a man by the name of Murphy who owned a fine driving team that Lamb wanted to buy. He went to the Murphy place and tried to buy the pair, but Murphy liked the team himself and refused to sell. That night the team disappeared and nobody ever saw anything of them again. An effort was made to connect Lamb with their disappearance, but the case fell through for want of evidence.

The recent death of Charles Gates Dawes was an item of special interest to an Ord man, Clarence M. Davis. Mr. Davis was one of the delegates to the national Republican convention in Cleveland in 1924. The Nebraska delegation was strong for Dawes as a running mate for Calvin Coolidge, and when Governor Lowden of Illinois was nominated and refused the honor, the Nebraska group led the fight for Dawes. On the way home from Cleveland the Nebraska men stopped over in Chicago for a visit with Mr. Dawes. In honor of the occasion he sent out and got a bunch of those famous Dawes pipes. They came in boxes and Dawes autographed each box and presented each man with a pipe. When the news came that Dawes had died, Davis looked up the pipe and found he still has it. The chances are he will keep it among the rest of his historical souvenirs. Other members of that delegation were Sam McKelvie, Congressman Reavis and Jefferies and one of the Woods Bros. from Lincoln.

Mr. Albert Peterson when I was in town last week, and I said: "Hello, John," thinking I was talking to John (Country) Mason. It reminds me that nearly every man has a double somewhere, and it is often a little difficult to tell one from the other, especially if both of them live in the heart of the country. Albert told me that other people had made the same mistake. It so happens that both men were born and grew to manhood in Mira Valley and are not far from the same age. It may be that I was mistaken in something to do with it. That day I also met George Lange of Burwell and before that storekeeper at Bartlett. He sold his business to Luther Pierce some 25 years ago. Pierce moving to Bartlett and Lange to Burwell. I met Lawrence Fransson of Burwell, who was a kid with my kids in those days. He certainly lacks a lot of being a kid now.

I know it is against the rules to advertise in this column, but I am apt to say something when I think it. I was in Ord Monday, April 30, the morning we had that fine rain. I was walking down the north side of the square. I noted that, while it was raining hard, it was dry under the awning in front of Aables and also in front of Abslons and Miskos, and I thought what a fine thing it would be if all the buildings on the square were as well equipped to protect the public from rain as those buildings are. It might be shadeless marquee or it might be some other kind of awning, but those awnings are sure a lot of protection in a rain storm, and I believe the public appreciates them.

It is the things that are distinct and different that call the attention of the public to a town. There are hundreds of items that most towns have in common and they are appreciated equally whatever town you happen to be in. There are some features that one town has and another does not, and these are the things the traveling public notices. One of these is the name of the town, which is usually different from that of any other town in the state. I believe a town should have signs on all

TV vs Literacy.

Ernest A. Hooton, Harvard anthropologist, has come out with the statement that television will seriously affect the literacy of the people who look at it and listen to it. He also states that it will ruin the eyes and nervous system because of the flickering of the pictures. He might add that it will ruin the hearing because of the static which will usually accompany the sound.

This statement by one of the nations top thinkers is interesting, if true. And who are we to question the word of a man mentally far superior to the rank and file of the American people. His statements might be right and they might be wrong, but the average man has no means of proving them either way.

Such remarks would be worthy of serious consideration if it were not for the fact that such statements are made nearly every day with relation to some phase of human existence. Most of them are prefaced on the long continuance of some condition in our every day life. It will not happen in one generation, probably not in ten generations. By that time progress will have removed the cause of the prophecy.

We are reminded of some of prophecies of the past. One of these which many people will remember being made only a generation ago is that the continued use of the automobile would develop a race of people with legs so weak that they would be unable to walk on them. A generation has passed since that prophecy was made, and still people manage to get about on legs fully as good as those of their forebears.

The motion pictures would develop a race of people who would in time forget how to read, for they could depend upon the talking pictures to tell them all that happens in the world. Today the picture is more popular than they have ever been, but we find that there are more books being written and read than ever before in our history. That same radio was to stop the study of music, but a higher percentage of the people are musical today than ever before.

Farther back in history, about fifty years ago, it was freely prophesied that the coming of the telephone would put an end to families and persons visiting each other. Because of hundreds of time saving inventions we find that the people of the present day find time to do far more visiting than their ancestors did, and the telephone is used more for business than for visiting.

The horse is seldom seen on the highways today, not because they are afraid of the autos, but because they are no longer used. It may well be that the first man who ever built a boat had to put up with the ribbiting of some wise old timer who believed the fact that the invention of boats would mean that mankind would forget how to swim and the mortality rate by drowning would be terrific. Today a higher percentage of the people swim than ever before in history.

So long as inventions are made there will be prophecies of doom telling us of radical changes that will come in the way of human existence. In the case of the A and H bombs, they have already prophesied that mankind is in immediate danger of total annihilation. Luckily, the average man is still able and willing to stand on his own feet and is not stampeded by the wallings of narrow-minded prophets.

Major Highway Problem.

The public is well acquainted with the fact that highways cost money and that constant use soon makes it necessary to resurface them. In fact, highways in Nebraska are perhaps the biggest single problem that confronts the citizens of the state. This problem will become greater as the years go by.

The invention of the automobile was followed by an era in which roads have been recognized as highly important in the scheme of human existence. As the speed of the auto increased, road with the curves taken out were recognized as essential for greater facility in getting from here to there with the greatest speed.

Also, as the number of vehicles to the hour increased on the principal roads and as the loads of the trucks became greater, the fact that roads with smoother and more durable surfaces were needed became paramount issue. Now it is usually considered that the life of any highway without major repairs is about ten years.

Recently Governor Peterson recognized this fact when he commented on the condition of black-top roads of the state and warned that soon many of these would be rapidly nearing the point where major repairs will be necessary on most of them.

Just what the unicameral will do with regard to raising the funds that must be used to keep up the roads is not definite at this time, but it is clear that something must be done to keep the main highways of the state in condition for the travel of the coming years. It is not pleasant to contemplate, but money, and a lot of money, will be needed.

Back in the days when we had only country roads and the automobile was still in the blueprint stage, people traveled by buggy locally and made their long distance trips by train. The coming of the auto, truck and bus has gradually pushed travel on the branch lines of the railroads out of the picture. Many of these branches have been abandoned and more will be from year to year. Eventually there will be no railroads left.

Today the railroads are using the highways of the state to carry on a part of their transportation by truck. Their plans for the future call for more truck transportation. As branch lines are torn up the counties through which they ran are deprived of tax money the railroads formerly paid, and this loss must be made up from some other source. There is but one ultimate source of tax money in Nebraska and that is you and I and all the other taxpayers.

At the present time a new source of grief is developing on the highways of the state, something that could and should be prevented by the people who are responsible. That is the throwing of beer cans and bottles and whiskey bottles along the highway. The state furnishes its maintenance crews with mowers to keep the grass and weeds along the highways mowed.

This gives the roads a neat and orderly appearance and rids them of the danger of weed obstructing the view. In many places the shoulders of the highways have been worn to brone or other grass and weeds have been eliminated to a great extent. The hundreds of cans and bottles that today are strewn along every highway in Nebraska are a disgrace to the general public.

All towns maintain dumping grounds for the disposal of such junk, and that is where it should be dumped. It is against the state law to dump rubbish along the highways, and tin cans and bottles come under that classification. A little thoughtfulness on the part of the drinking public would do much to eliminate a public nuisance and an unnecessary expense to the state highway department.

Three pro football players were sitting on the bench exchanging yarns about how they happened to leave school and take up professional playing.

"In my senior year at Nebraska," said the first player, "they made me take calculus. I just couldn't make head nor tail of it, so they threw me out on my ear."

"That's the way it was at Iowa State," said the second man. "In my junior year I had to take advanced trigonometry, and I wasn't able to understand a thing, so out I went."

The Kansas man spoke up. "Say," he said, "did you fellows ever run across a subject called long division?"

Something Different

Dog tag time, folks, don't forget to buy your pooch a new locket.

The poor strays around town. There seems to be so many of them this year. They shouldn't be allowed to run wild and starve. Surely there are homes for every one of those strays, if dog lovers and dogs could only be matched up.

Trouble is, so many folks seem to have no conscience about pups. They turn them loose when they don't want them.

Either the pup should have a good name located for him, or he should be destroyed, for he is not self-sufficient.

And with gardening time coming on, stray dogs are a real curse.

Gardeners have rights, too. Remember that backache you got last time you weeded for only half an hour? Well!

Elliot McClure, over in Japan, working with birds, has some mighty strange experiences. Lately he had one that he thought was funny!

It seems he wanted to go down the coast a couple of hundred miles to check on just what migratory birds might be there, and see if they carried any encephalitis!

A jeep and one Jap assistant would do him, he said.

Mentioning it to the military, to secure permission, he popped a major who had a little leave coming and nothing more interesting to do, who just thought he might like to go with Elliot.

So the major requisitioned the comforts it would take for the two-day trip. You should have read the list. Among other things there was a jeep, a refrigerating unit, a sleeping car and observation lounge, an engine, and a total of 11 men finally made the trip!

"And all I wanted to do was to go see one little bird!" wrote Elliott, who has a most wonderful sense of humor.

The Park Board hopes to open the swimming pool on May 27th this year, and give youngsters a longer swimming season, weather permitting.

Last year the unseasonly weather cut the swimming hours down considerably. One cool day after another kept gooseflesh on our arms, to Manager Keith Kovanda's sorrow. He seemed to feel almost a personal responsibility for the bad weather!

We are going to have another good pool manager this year in the person of Mr. Littrell, high school science teacher. Boys and girls like him and are enthusiastic, one good sign.

His able and capable assistants will be Evelyn Urban, senior life guard, who holds Red Cross certificates to instruct as well as life-saver; and Duane Wolfe, another fine swimmer and hard-working helper who has already earned several Red Cross awards.

Add to the list of people Ord can be proud of... Pat Ball, who was a member of Tassels this week. Tassels is the feminine pep organization at the University of Nebraska.

Pat, the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Ellsworth Ball, was made a member of Theta Sigma Phi recently, honorary professional journalism group for women. She is also secretary of her house, and a capable helper in the office of Dr. William Swindler of the school of journalism, where he describes her as "a dream student."

The Quiz is proud of Pat, too. — Irma

HUGH CARSON, 29th District

Due to critical illness in my family I have been unable to find the time to write a news letter the past two weeks. Every minute that I have been able to spare from my legislative duties has been spent at home.

We are nearing the close of the session. Most of the Legislation has been disposed of. Remaining to be acted on are the Budget Bill, and the Road measures. I have a feeling that most of the Road Legislation will fail of adoption.

It commences to look as though many of the members feel that the State is not ready for a change to a Highway Commission and if not, I believe a majority will not look favorably on an increase in Gas Tax. The Legislature is very apt to feel that the referendum on the Gasoline tax was the voice of the people. Remaining to be acted on at the last election is likely to be confirmed, and at this time this seems to me to be as good an answer as any.

Dear Editor:

It was indeed heartening to read Irma's reference to the lamentable neglect of learning the Czech (Czech) language by the local young people of Czech descent. It is difficult to understand why the place of Czechoslovakia among the nations of the cultural world, has rarely been pointed out or its importance stressed.

This is, perhaps, due to the fact that very few people know the history of the Czech people. For example, few know that Czechoslovakia, the cradle of liberty, lost its national independence to the Hapsburgs, the Auto-German dynasty, only two months after the "Pilgrim Fathers" set sail for America in the "Mayflower" in 1620.

Few of the Czech families managed to escape to other countries; some came to America, seeking freedom in the new world as did the Pilgrims. Among these were the families of August Herman and Frederick Filip. One of the latter's descendants, Marie Filip (Phillip) was George Washington's sweetheart when he was a captain in the Continental Army.

James Fenimore Cooper tells of this courtship in his novel, "The Spy." The Herman and Filip families were ancestral to such men as the Bayards, Sargents, Trents, Marshalls and Radoloffs. John Jay, the first chief justice of the United States, married a Filip, and his descendants were proud to proclaim themselves of Czech blood.

Also, only a few know that Jan Hus (Huss), a religious reformer, preceded Martin Luther by almost a century. And, Jan Amos Komensky (Comenius) (born in the province of Moravia), influenced America indirectly through his educational ideas. It was he who instituted public education for all, rich or poor, and pled to make education available to women on the same level with men.

There were many queens and daughters of Czech royal families who became renowned and revered as benefactresses of the poor people. For example, Dagmar, queen of the Danish king, Valdemar; her memory still lives in the songs of the Danish peasants.

Then there was Queen Anne, wife of the English king, Richard II. She was a real mother to the poor, and her influence over the king made him realize many good things for his realm. These and many other noted Czechs make us justly proud of our Czech heritage.

As for the language; not only the Czechs, but the Poles, the Danes, and others should bear in mind that our international affairs have made this world of ours very small. For that reason, the knowledge of languages of the peoples with whom we deal, would avoid much misunderstanding because of misinterpretation.

From our experience, we heartily support the "educators" idea that the younger the child, the easier and the more perfectly he learned to speak more than one language. This unexcelled "heritage" would not make one less American, but would serve as an indispensable link in the American principles of Democracy to peoples to whom these are denied.

ALWAYS BE CAREFUL DRIVING

The difference goes more than Skin-Deep

Nobody wonders what you're driving when you roll by in this one.

In the 1951 line-up, its brand-new front-end styling stands out with a beauty all its own.

You're the proud owner of a Buick—and the whole world knows it.

But you—at the wheel—enjoy a long list of differences that go far deeper than looks.

The ride is different—level and true. You sit the road with special assurance—because Buick's torque-tube drive keeps rear wheels firmly aligned—soft coil springs on all four wheels soak up the bumps and bobbles—honest weight keeps you on a steady keel.

The power is different—eager and sure. Buick's high-compression Fireball engine does wonders with fuel—and no matter what you demand in emergency, there's horsepower to spare.

Handling is different—this car seems to steer itself on straightaway or curve—and swings lightly into parking spots inches shorter than you'd think you need.

Capping it all, there's the silken versatility of Dynaflo Drive,* that takes all the tenseness out of driving—responds to your slightest wish with a surging swoop of power.

No doubt about it, what you get in a Buick is far more than just a new car—it's a whole new experience in getting pleasurable from here to there.

So why not explore this difference? Come, take a Buick over and find out how very much satisfaction smart money can buy.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

No other car provides all this!

Slick Chick

When it comes to egg production, a New Hampshire red owned by Mrs. Leonard Turnwall of Weston doesn't stop with mere chicken feed. The resourceful hen recently surprised its owner with an egg three inches long and two inches wide. But that was only the first surprise. When Mrs. Turnwall cracked the shell, she found a normal-sized egg inside.

IN NEBRASKA RACING IS DIFFERENT...

In Nebraska, racing isn't a business, but a sport where neighbors get together in the friendly atmosphere of good Nebraska sunshine for an afternoon of exciting entertainment. This is the only state of the 26 states having legalized racing in which no individual can share in the profits. Racing can only be conducted by State or County Fair Associations, or non-profit organizations, such as Ak-Sar-Ben.

Ak-Sar-Ben board members, like your county and state fair boards, are civic leaders who serve without compensation as a public service.

Receipts, after expenses, are used in their entirety for such civic purposes as promoting county fairs, university scholarships and fellowships in agriculture, 4-H activities, etc. These are only a few of the many beneficial ways proceeds from Nebraska racing are put to good usage.

Yes — In Nebraska racing is different.

Visit to The Quiz

We went to The Ord Quiz office last Wednesday about 10 a. m. and returned about 4 p. m.

First we went to the composing room where the type was being set up for the paper on linotype machines. The keyboard is somewhat like a typewriter but has more keys to operate.

We also watched the papers being printed on the large double angle press which is fed from a large circular roll of paper which is printed and comes out folded and ready to have customer's names placed on the paper.

We also watched the new envelope press in operation which prints 4800 envelopes an hour. We also spent some time in the bindery where covers are placed on books in completing jobs.

The guide also took us to the storeroom where all the paper is stored and answered our questions, which were many.

Mrs. Bessie Mentzer Laid to Rest Friday

Nebraska Pioneer Had Lived Near Ericson 49 Years.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Ericson Methodist church for Mrs. Bessie Mentzer, 89, who died Wednesday morning at the age of 89.

Rev. Chas. Cox officiated at the last rites. Pallbearers were George Lockhart, Faye Patrick, Palmer Canfield, J. A. Bodyfield, M. O. Bodyfield and H. F. Bodyfield. Hastings-Pearson mortuary were in charge of arrangements. Burial was in the Ord City cemetery.

Bessie Hebekah, daughter of John and Lettie Trout, was born at Madison, Ohio, Oct. 14, 1861 and died May 2, 1951 at the age of 89 years, 6 months and 18 days.

Her childhood was spent in her parents' home at Madison, O. At the age of 16 years she came west with her parents, locating on a farm near Central City, Nebr. On July 4, 1881 she married Charles L. Mentzer at Marquette, Nebr. They had one son and one daughter, the oldest son passing away in infancy.

The family resided at Central City until 1893 when they moved to St. Paul, at which place they made their home for nine years. In September, 1902, they came to Ericson locating on a farm west of town. This has been her home for the past 49 years. Her husband preceded her in death in 1931.

In 1931 she united with the Methodist church in Ericson but because of defective hearing was unable to enjoy the services. However from childhood she reverently read and studied her Bible every day until advanced age made it difficult. Her daily life was a shining example of the word she so revered.

Mentzer as she affectionately was known, has been in declining health for the past couple of years, but stoutly insisted on caring for herself and her little home until she was suddenly stricken seriously ill the first of last December. She has been confined to her bed since then and bore with uncompromising patience her sufferings. Testimony of the loving regard in which she was held, there was rarely a day in which some loving message or token did not arrive from an interested friend during the five months of her illness. Words cannot express the comfort and happiness she derived from them, and the gratitude with which they were received even to the last one.

Mrs. Mentzer leaves to mourn her departure one son, Vernon of Ericson; one daughter, Mrs. Kathryn Patrick also of Ericson, six grandchildren, three sisters and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Chrysler FirePower

Finest engine ever put in an automobile

180 HORSEPOWER

The new Chrysler Hemispherical Combustion Chamber, heart of the finest car engine built today. In this dome-topped area, you see the only ideal combustion chamber... the only way to develop full combustion, full compression, full work and value from every drop of fuel!

With so many engines claiming newness... how can we call FirePower the only new type engine today? The answer's very simple, and one you ought to know before you invest in a car. The fact is that engine "improvements" happen every year... but a basically new motor car engine is a very rare thing. And FirePower is the most basic new development since Chrysler introduced high-compression in 1924!

To get to the heart of the matter, just go to the heart of the engine... the combustion chamber where the spark fires gas into power. Here Chrysler brings you something no car has had till now... a Hemispherical combustion chamber... the only perfect and ideal combustion chamber in any passenger car. Here the same amount of gasoline delivers you far more energy than it could in any other car.

What this means to the man at FirePower's wheel is impossible to tell you till you take that wheel yourself. FirePower's 180 horsepower can outperform any other engine on the road, even on regular grade gas.

Remember, too, that Chrysler now offers the wondrous road-ease of new Oriflow shock absorbers with twice the shock-absorbing power of any others... and the exclusive safety and delight of Hydraguide power steering* which takes four-fifths of the work out of steering! You can learn for yourself how Chrysler has changed your motoring life by seeing your Chrysler dealer now!

*HYDRAGUIDE regular on Crown Imperial, optional at extra cost on all New Yorker and Imperial models.

Also the piece of ground described as follows: Commencing at the Southwest corner of Lot Seven (7) in Block Seventeen (17) being a tract of land designated on the recorded plat of Railroad Addition to the town of Arcadia, Valley County, Nebraska, (as school) running thence North One Hundred thirty (130) feet; thence West eighty (80) feet; thence South one hundred thirty (130) feet to the place of beginning. Air Force Show at Omaha May 16-19 Is Feature of Armed Services Day

The Nation's largest Armed Forces Day display will be presented to the public in Omaha, May 16 through 19, by the United States Air Force through the cooperation of the USAF Exhibit Unit from Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. The huge four-day display at the AK-SAR-BEN Coliseum will give the people in and around Omaha a chance to see their Air Force in detail. The display will be part of an extensive program of events in Omaha leading up to Armed Forces Day, Saturday, May 19.

Perhaps the most interesting display will be the "Lucky Lady II," the B-50 bomber of Strategic Air Command that made the first non-stop flight around the world in 1949. This will be the famous plane's first major public showing. The "Lady" won't have her wings; they've been removed for Korea. The display will be a 99-foot fuselage, mounted on two flat bed trailers, will have special doors and ramps to provide easy access for spectators who will want to see the inside of the large bomber, equipment used by flight crews, the pilot's seat, instruments, flight controls and instruments, practice bombs in the bomb bay, and so on.

Eight Air Force theme exhibits will be included. Various phases of Air Force activity in carrying out its "Defenders of Freedom" role are animated in these displays.

One of the newest is that depicting the Pacific Airlift operation. A recent film, photo montages and a globe are used to relate the airlift of supplies to Korea, the evacuation of wounded, mail service, paratroop support and many other details of this Air Force operation.

Models of the latest Air Force fighting planes have been incorporated into a Models theme display. Fighters, bombers, and transports parade past spectators. Among the models, the B-36 intercontinental bomber is a model-maker's dream. Elevator and flight controls on the model are electrically controlled together with realistic engines. The landing gear is manually operated.

In the animated display themes, one can learn the story of an air cadet during his training. Guided Missile research and development is detailed. A "Walking Man" exhibit compares the time a man takes to walk down a 7000-foot runway while a jet flies from Omaha to Kansas City. Other displays include F-84 and F-86 jet fighters, a radio controlled target plane, an assortment of aerial bombs and rockets and cutaway jet and conventional type engines. There is no admission charge.

All of the display items will come to Omaha from Dayton, O., home of the exhibit unit, on trucks. Forty trained technicians will be on hand to explain the exhibits and answer queries of spectators during the Armed Forces Day program.

Other activities around Omaha in conjunction with Armed Forces Day include "Operations Palette," a caravan of paintings and drawings by Navy artists, showing May 9-27 at the Joslyn Art Museum.

Lt. Gen. Edwin W. Rawlings, U. S. Air Force deputy chief of staff, comptroller, will speak in Omaha at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon on May 17. On

A Good Law—Now Replaced By One Still Better

The $50 fine against minors for falsifying their age to obtain beer has been doubled to $100!

The Nebraska Division, U.S. Brewers Foundation, compliments the state legislature for stiffening the penalty, believing this is a step in the right direction. The industry strongly opposes drinking by minors. It has long cooperated with enforcement officers in repressing sales to those under legal age. It feels the new law will be helpful in its efforts to operate in the public interest.

"Statement of Age" blanks, supplied by the Foundation, will now be even more effective in preventing drinking by youths. You are urged to cooperate in making this improved law really work.

Ord Presbyterians Accept Bids; New Church Costs 51,723

E. R. Horner Will Be General Contractor, Will Start June 1st.

Ord Presbyterians met Tuesday to consider bids for their new colonial-style church and accepted a bid of $44,263.12 for general construction, this being the bid of Ernest R. Horner, of Ord. Rowal Plumbing company's bid of $5,920 was accepted on the plumbing and heating, and Henry Janus' bid of $1,540 for electrical work was accepted. Total cost is to be $51,723.12.

The board of trustees will award contracts to these firms at once and it is hoped that construction may start by June 1. Some time in October church members hope to occupy the new structure, according to Rev. Allen Strong, the pastor.

Mr. Horner's bid was about $900 higher than a bid filed by a Lincoln firm, but was much lower than any of the other bids. Because he is an Ord man and a member of the church, the building committee composed of Mrs. C. J. Mortensen, Duane Armstrong and Mrs. F. L. Blessing, decided he should have the contract despite the slight difference in price.

Selection of brick for the new structure was made Tuesday also. A pink brick, with white stone trim, will be used.

Helleberg & Helleberg, of Kearney, are architects and say that their design for the church is a modified colonial style. The building will have no basement, covers most of the two lots on which the present church stands, and many who have seen the architect's sketches refer to it as "ranch style." It will be a most attractive addition to Ord when completed.

Razing of the old church structure will start at once. While the church is under construction services will be held in the Masonic Hall.

Valley County Cancer Drive Makes '51 Quota

Some Reports Still to Come In, Says County Chairman.

Although some collectors have not as yet reported on the Valley county drive for cancer control and research funds has made it's 1951 quota of $451, Mrs. Ed Appling, county drive chairman, reported to the Quiz.

The chairman said that a total of $465.00 had been turned in, and that she expected more funds within the week.

The chairman asked that all collectors complete their work this week and turn in their funds so that the drive can be officially closed for the year.

The Cancer drive is a yearly project within the county, and is sponsored by the Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars as a community service project. Aiding the Auxiliary are home extension clubs and women's clubs in Elyria, North Loup, Arcadia, and the rural areas of the county.

Fishermen at Neligh hit the jackpot last week when an epidemic of "night crawlers" was discovered in the city. The crawlers had been "planted" in the yard several years ago and were making their spring debut. Fishermen said the crawlers were about 14 inches long and as big around as a man's finger, according to a story in the Neligh Leader.

Construction of Presbyterian Church Starting Soon

By June 1st construction will start on Ord's new Presbyterian church, pictured above from a sketch by the architects, and some time next October it should be ready for use. Bids totalling $51,723.12 were accepted Tuesday.

Janice Skinner, 4, Flown to Hospital; B-B Shot in Eye

Four-year-old Janice Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillimon Sinner of near North Loup, is resting easily in Children's Memorial Hospital in Omaha.

Janice was flown to Omaha Saturday afternoon by Dillo Troyer for an emergency operation to remove a BB pellet which had lodged in her left eye. Tuesday Dr. Morrison, Omaha eye specialist who performed the operation, said she would not lose sight in the eye.

The child was shot Friday afternoon, but apparently suffered no ill effects. Saturday morning a hemorrhage developed and Janice was taken to Dr. Robert Lynn of Ord who discovered the pellet lodged beneath her eyelid, and made arrangements to rush her to the Omaha hospital.

Marion Geneski, 17, Wounded Wed. Morn in Rifle Accident

Bullet Missed Lung, Lodged in Armpit; Removed by Surgery.

Marion Geneski, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geneski and a member of this year's Ord graduating class was painfully hurt Wednesday morning by the accidental discharge of a 22 calibre rifle. The bullet entered his right chest, missing the lung and shoulder bone, and lodged in the right armpit, says Dr. C. W. Weekes, who located the bullet by x-ray, and then removed it by surgery.

The accident happened about 10 a. m. Marion had harnessed a team to haul in a few logs from the wood lot and his father was in town. Mrs. Geneski heard her son calling for help and ran into the yard to find him lying on the ground near the house, the rifle beside him, crying "Get a doctor; I'm hurt."

Neighbors, Ray Melia and Mrs. George Zikmund, brought the boy to town at once in the Zikmund car and he was attended by Dr. Weekes.

Paul Geneski says that Marion always takes his rifle with him when he goes to the pasture or works in the field and shoots crows and at targets. The boy was in shock and couldn't say what happened but it is surmised that when he got back to the farm yard he took his rifle from the wagon and was leaning it against the house when it went off and struck him in the upper right chest.

The wound is painful but will not be serious in all probability and Marion even may be able to stand up with his classmates to receive his diploma Friday evening.

Adamek Announced Winner of Leggett Journalism Award

All-Tuition Award Goes to Senior Boy for All-Around Excellence.

At class night festivities Tuesday evening, Frank Adamek, 19, was announced as winner of the Leggett Journalism Award for 1951. This award, presented Thursday for the third year, pays all tuition of the winner for four years in College of Journalism, University of Nebraska. Thus it has a cash value of approximately $640.00, with tuition fees at their present level.

Frank Adamek

Besides having the highest scholastic average of any boy in the senior class, Frank Adamek was active throughout high school in athletics, journalism, speech and other activities. He has been president of his class and of the student council and has resigned as "king" of the high school.

Presentation of the award was made by Mrs. Eugene Leggett. In previous years this award has gone to Dan Huff and to Patricia Ball. The latter is making a fine record in the College of Journalism at present.

Frank Adamek says that he intends to enroll as a journalism student next fall, and will major in science along with journalism. His ultimate ambition is to write outdoor scientific articles for magazines such as Outdoor Life, Field and Stream, etc. If he is not called for army service, he expects to spend the summer of 1952 in Alaska working for the Bureau of Biologic Survey.

Other candidates considered for the Leggett Scholarship were Don Sorensen, Bob Moore and Dennis Knopik. Each applicant took a test devised by Dr. Winn F. Swindler, director of the College of Journalism at Lincoln, and test papers were judged by him. Results of this test counted a maximum of 30% toward winning the scholarship, other factors being grades, participation in activities, personality, character and need.

Bonding Firm Sues Ord Bank

The financial juggling of the late George Satterfield resulted in another suit being filed in Valley county district court Monday.

This time, the Massachusetts Bonding Co., which paid off on the eleven thousand odd dollars Satterfield stole, is suing the First National Bank of Ord to recover the sum of $3,000.00.

The $3000 represents a check Satterfield drew on county funds to deposit in a trust account in the bank. Later the $3000 was replaced in the county's regular account. The company alleges that the bank shouldn't have allowed the county treasurer to do this.

2 Games Are Rained Out in Mid-Nebr. Baseball League

Wood River Slugs Out a Win Over Boelus in Only Contest.

Ord was scheduled to play at Shelton and Ravenna was scheduled to play at Loup City Sunday, in the Mid-Nebraska Night league, but both games were rained out and had to be postponed. Only one game took place in the league that day, Wood River slugging out a 17 to 12 win over Boelus.

Wood River got 20 hits off three Boelus pitchers, Dvughus, Harris and Whitefoot, three of them being home runs. Boelus made 6 errors while Wood River made only 3. Boelus collected 13 hits, one a home run by L. Jensen, off two Wood River hurlers, English and B. Wells.

A protest was declared in the 8th inning by Boelus. It is reported, but no written protest has been received by league officials, as by-laws require.

Next Sunday afternoon will see Loup City in Ord, St. Paul at Boelus and Shelton at Ravenna.

Dates for the postponed games will be announced as soon as weather permits. League rules require that they be played off within two weeks.

Last Rites Today for 'Pidge' Johnson

Ord Tavern Owner, 51, Died After Illness With Lung Cancer.

Funeral services are being held at the Hastings-Pearson chapel at 2:00 p.m. today for E. L. "Pidge" Johnson, who died Sunday night at the Ord cooperative hospital after a long and painful illness with cancer of the lung.

Rev. Allen Strong of the Ord Presbyterian church is officiating and burial will be in the Ord cemetery.

Edward Johnson youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnson, was born Sept. 27, 1899, Ord, Neb., and passed away May 13, 1951 at the Ord hospital, at the age of 51 years, 7 months and 16 days. Except for two years spent in residence in Omaha in childhood, Edward grew to manhood in Ord and was educated in the Ord public schools.

Dec. 24, 1930 he was united in marriage to Miss Bess Johnson of St. Paul, Neb. The Johnsons moved to Altoona, Pa., where they were engaged in the Karmel Korn business for three years. In 1933 they returned to Ord, where Mr. Johnson has been in business since.

Edward was a member of the Presbyterian church for several years. He was a vigorous enthusiast for baseball, having played with the Ord team for a number of seasons, and managed the Junior Legion baseball team for one season.

Mr. Johnson became ill in January of this year and was hospitalized in Omaha for a month. After this he was brought home in semi-invalid condition, remaining home until last month, when he was admitted to the Ord hospital, where he passed away.

Surviving are his wife, Bess; his mother, Mrs. E. L. Johnson, sr.; two brothers, Glen of Ord and Forrest, of Seattle, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. Hope Dunond and Mrs. W. L. Blessing, both of Ord. There are also a number of nieces and nephews.

OPS Causing Queer Deals for Retailers

Meat Rises as Ceiling Prices Go On.

When ceiling prices on beef went into effect in Ord Monday, the cost of living went up. Although the office of price stabilization issued a statement Sunday that the "price control cleaver is lopping about 12 cents a pound off some chuck steaks," the effect was just the opposite in Ord.

At Safeway, ceiling prices became selling prices, with the result that T-bone steaks went from $1.15 per pound to $1.22; hamburger from 59 cents to 62 cents. On rump roast, the ceiling price was 70 cents as compared with a former selling price of 83 cents.

Jim Cetak of the North Side Market told the Quiz that his meat prices would go up, too. "We have a quite competitive situation here on meat, and our prices have been low," he said. "But here's what OPS is doing to us: Our ceiling on T-bones is $1.26, and we're selling them for 90 cents and we're going up to 92. On rump roast we have a ceiling of 72 cents, we're selling it at 65 and we're charging 60. We have been selling hamburger for a long time at 60 cents, and the ceiling is 64 cents. We'll probably go up to 62 cents."

Cetak said that ceiling prices for the smaller markets were a few cents higher than those allowed the big chains.

"But that's not what is worrying us. All of the small butchers like ourselves have a new problem coming up, that may have the direct effect of putting us out of business," Cetak said.

"A regulation provides that we must either hire a federal meat grader to grade our meat, or we must grade everything as 'commercial' beef, or third grade. In other words, no matter what quality steer we slaughter, we can't grade it any higher than commercial beef, if we do our own grading."

"Salaries for federal meat graders start at $5000. So either we put one of those fellows on our payroll to check our meat for us, or we sell nothing but third grade beef."

"Now we have never sold that kind of meat here, unless it has been in the form of cured meats such as bologna. In order to build and maintain a reputation for quality we have slaughtered only the kind of animals that would grade either US Choice or US Good, and 90% of them are US Choice. That's the kind of cattle we raise up here. That same story is true of our competitors across the square, because George Vavra has a reputation for quality, too. And you can add Grunke's in Burwell and the local markets in St. Paul that do their own slaughtering and curing."

"So, the only thing I can see for us to do will be for several of the small markets in this vicinity to go together and hire a grader or else get out of business. It's a cinch we're not going to be able to make a living selling third grade beef as people up here won't buy it."

Mrs. Crandall, 31, Commits Suicide

Four Ord Seniors Divide Awards for Honor Students

Double Honors for 3 at Class Night Program Tuesday.

Four Ord high school graduates between them monopolized all scholarship and other awards available for honor students, it was disclosed Tuesday evening at the class night program held at the school auditorium.

The four are Margaret Heuck, Charlene Severns, Frank Adamek and Adeline Dubas.

Of these three won two awards each.

Adeline Dubas was revealed as being winner of the Carl Raymond Gray scholarship to the University of Nebraska college of agriculture for her proficiency in home economics. Miss Eunice Jensen, head of this department, made the award.

Class night is traditionally the "fun night" for graduates and aside from the serious business of scholarship presentations it was exactly that. President John Piskorski presided and heard Dennis Knopik read the class prophecy which he (Piskorski) had written, and Don Sorensen read the class will which was prepared by Darlene Novosad and Joan Whiting. Both were humorous in content and kept seniors in a ripple of laughter, as well as the audience.

Five complete kitchens of the type known as "unit" kitchens will be installed, in accordance with the latest methods of Home Economics instruction. Pupils will be divided into groups of 5 or 6 and each will use a kitchen of its own, simulating a family group.

Ranges, cabinets and other kitchen equipment of the latest design will be installed in each kitchen and there will be one large refrigerator and freezer to serve all five units.

Bids will be received in three sections, general construction work, plumbing work and electric work, and must be submitted by June 11. Frank N. McNett & Co., Grand Island are architects in charge.

Pool Will Open, Two Band Concerts, Golf Picnics, Planned.

Hoping to bring the public to a new appreciation of Bussell Park, an official 1951 opening day program has been planned for Wednesday, May 30, which is also Memorial Day. Members of the park board met Monday evening to make plans.

The swimming pool will officially open for the summer at 1:00 p. m. with the new manager, Merritt Littrell, and his assistants, Evelyn Urban and Duane Wolfe, in charge.

At 1:00 also the Ord Municipal band, directed by William Nelson, will give its first concert of the season in the horseshoe-shaped band stand on the east side of the park drive. Before the concert band members and their families will have a big picnic together.

Plans are being made to have an exhibition golf match during the afternoon, with Ord boys now playing on college and university golf teams taking part.

At 7:30 p. m. the Comstock village band, directed by Dr. Glen Auble, will give a concert at the park.

Efforts are being made to schedule a baseball game for 8:15 under the lights. Two Junior Legion or Midget teams will play a game in the afternoon.

The golf course, tennis courts, playgrounds and horseshoe courts will be open to the public all day.

It is hoped that many families will plan to attend Memorial Day exercises at Ord in the morning and then picnic and spend the rest of the day in beautiful Bussell park.

R. C. Austin Rites Held Wednesday

Well Known Ord Man Was 76; Death Came Rather Suddenly.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Assembly of God church for R. C. Austin, who died Saturday at his home. Rev. G. E. Fogelman conducted the services. Mrs. Fogelman and Mrs. J. E. Whiting sang a solo, accompanied by Patricia Brown.

Hollie Chester Austin was born February 17, 1875, in Barada, Nebr., and died May 12, 1951, at the age of 76 years, 2 months and 25 days. He spent his boyhood days in Barada, later spending three years in Wyoming before moving to Sargent.

On September 29, 1906, he was married to Nettie Collins of Arcadia. To this union were born two boys and four girls: Chester, Ord; Oscar, Bartlett; Zelma Vincent, Seattle, Wash.; Lila Harris, Klamath Falls, Ore.; Rae Jean Garner, Palouse, Wash.; and Laverne Austin, who died in 1945.

They made their home near Sargent for three years after which they moved to a farm near Arcadia. Mr. Austin later became a sewing machine repairman and salesman. They then moved to Ord and remained here until his death.

He is survived by his wife, one sister, five children, ten grandchildren and many friends. Pallbearers were Roy Nelson, Don Nelson, James Lane, Verne Stark, Walter Anderson and M. L. Rickard. Burial was in the Ord city cemetery. Hastings-Pearson Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Charlene Severns, with her welcoming address, and Margaret Heuck, with her farewell, struck more serious notes, and there was a solo by Marlene Norman, music by a girls' trio, and a solo by Darlene Novosad.

The seniors were freshly home from all-day picnic and trip, marred somewhat by muddy roads and too much rain but pleasurable anyway.

Sunday night they had marched in pairs into the crowded auditorium to hear Rev. Allen Strong, of the Ord Presbyterian church, give an inspiring baccalaureate sermon, along with other traditional features of this service.

For the 61 graduates it will be all over Friday evening when commencement exercises are held. Chief Justice Robert G. Simmons being the principal speaker.

But they have their handsome 1951 annuals, distributed on class night, to look at, and they will have their memories of four difficult but fun-filled years in Ord high school.

Fishing Excellent Over Nebraska

Lincoln, Nebr.—A Kansan, Bryon Reeding, temporarily grabbed the angling spotlight in Nebraska by hauling in a huge 23-pound northern pike while fishing in Johnson lake.

Reeding, however, had stiff competition for fishing honors as recent angling activities featured the most productive fishing of the year. Game Commission fishing reports from 21 district game wardens again showed marked improvement over the previous week.

Large bass continued to fill anglers' bags. Melvin Pursley of Benkelman set the pace with a 6 1/2 pound largemouth bass caught in a southwestern lake.

Other prize fish were 10 crappies weighing a total of 11 1/4 pounds by Rev. Phil Dubbs of North Platte, both a five and a three-pound channel cat by R. W. Davis of Hastings, a 12-pound blue cat by William Manley of Omaha and 11 catfish, one 16 pounds and another 10 by Fred Ward and party of Ogallala.

It didn't make much difference which species of fish you preferred—bass, crappie, bluegill, trout, catfish, walleye, northern pike or bullheads—as productive fishing was reported for all species in some part of the state.

Following is a glimpse at the waters which provided the best fishing for the different species of underwater game: Crappie—Whitney lake, Alexandria lake, Lake Maloney and Louisville lakes; Bullheads—Walgreen lake, Swan and School creeks; Northern Pike—Johnson lake, Lake Maloney; Walleye—Johnson lake, McCone-

Spring lambs lost 50c and more but old croppers sold strong. Best old crop woolled were some at $31.13, 14 and 15 brought a total of 50, best clips a medium to just-good kind with No. 2 pelts at $30.00, yearling out at $30.00, shorn lamb weights ranged from 101-113. Spring lambs weighing Encouraging observations as reported by the wardens: Crappie started to hit in canal below North Platte; night fishing best for catfish in Washington, Douglas, Sargey and Cass counties, and walleye, white bass and crappie much improved over last week at McConebaugh. Best catches in west third of lake where water is shallow and warmer.

Big Run Breaks Slaughter Beeves Monday at Omaha

With supply sharply higher than a week ago and also above a year ago, fat cattle prices Monday at Omaha broke 50c-$1.00, thus erasing a big part of the previous week's hard-won recovery.

Omaha's cattle run Monday was 15,000. Slaughter steers and yearlings bulked at $31.50-$35.50, better steers sold to $36.75, quotable top was a heifer at $38.00. Plain top medium shortfords brought $28-$32.50, with real plain killers down to $24.00. Best heifers were some at $34.50.

Cows were in short supply but even so sold no better than steady to 25-50c off, beef hardest hit. Few beef cows beat $27.00, more sold at $22.75-$26.75. Cannons and cutters ranged from $16.00-$22.50, bulked at $18.00-$21.50. Bologna bulls sold to $30.00, beef to $28.50, odd head $29.00. Vealer top held at $38.00.

Stocker and feeder values defied the fat cattle break to hold steady. Yearling stock steers sold to $36.00 and $37.00, medium to just-good stock heifers scored $32.00, and feeder steers weighing up to 500 pounds brought $34.00-$35.00.

A 12,100 run jotted swine values 50c-$1.00, top off $1.15. Butchers weighing 180-360 cleared at $18.25

Moisture Total for Year Now 7.99 Ins., Ahead of 1950

The year 1951 is still running neck and neck with 1950 for moisture but downpours on May 13, 14 and 15 brought a total of 1.59 inches and put 1951 safely ahead for the time being, 7.99 inches to 7.32 inches on this date in May, 1950.

Temperatures for May are about the same as last year, says Horace Travis, but humidity is running higher and it seems hotter.

Fields are drying quickly after Tuesday's half inch of rain but weather forecasts indicate more moisture in prospect, with high winds and hail storms as a possibility for central Nebraska and Kansas.

North Loup Upperclassmen Banquet in Old Fashioned Garden Setting

This old fashioned garden, complete with shrubs, grass, flowers, birds and a wishing well was the scene of the North Loup high school junior-senior banquet Wednesday evening.

An old fashioned garden—realistic to the smallest detail formed the setting for the junior-senior banquet held Wednesday evening at the school house. Real green grass, flowering shrubs, a wishing well, a rock garden, rustic benches and birds in the trees, with the sky of blue formed the background for the tables.

Miss Minnie Jensen, faculty sponsor, and David Alfrey, junior class sponsor and the junior class were responsible for the success of the event.

The dinner of tomato juice cocktail, baked ham, mashed potatoes and gravy, creamed corn, cinnamon apples, hot buttered rolls, pear salad, angel food cake with whipped cream and tea and coffee was prepared and served by mothers of the junior class members. Mrs. Cloyd Ingerson was chairman.

Gale Sintelok, junior class president gave the welcome and acceptance as toastmaster. Mervyn Meyers, senior president, replied for the class. Others on the program were Duane Willoughby, whose subject was "Early Senior."

Carol Hamer played a saxophone solo in a Monastery Garden. Supt. Dunklau gave a special address entitled "At Ease," followed by Ila Roby and Sylvia Ingerson singing two duets, "Rose Red" and "An Old Fashioned Garden."

Jeneane Brennick presented piano solos and Miss Jensen gave a speech "Now You Leave."

To date 20 class members and their husbands or wives have made reservations for the dinner. Dr. Chauncey Hager of Denver is planning to attend and will show slides. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Cushing of Kearney also plan to be here for the occasion.

All those wishing to make reservations, contact Mrs. Lorea McMindle as soon as possible.

Now on this 5th day of May, 1951, S. V. Hansen, the Administrator of the estate of Paul Larson, deceased, having presented his petition under oath praying for a license to sell the following described real estate, to-wit: The tract of land designated as "School" on the recorded plat of Railroad Addition to Arcadia, and also as Lot #7 in Block Seventeen (17) in the tract having a frontage of Three Hundred feet South of Owen Street of the Original town of Arcadia, Valley County, Nebraska, and extending North from said street one hundred thirty (130) feet. Also the piece of ground described as follows: Commencing at the Southwest corner of Lot Seven (7) in Block Seventeen (17) being a tract of land designated on the recorded plat of Railroad Addition to the town of Arcadia, Valley County, Nebraska (as school). Running thence North One Hundred thirty (130) feet; thence West eighty (80) feet; thence South one hundred thirty (130) feet; thence East Eighty (80) feet to the place of beginning. The last described piece or parcel of ground fronts on Owens Street eighty (80) feet. Which latter tract is the same real estate described in a certain deed thereof running from Lincoln Land Company to John Wall, dated May 14, 1923, and recorded at the office of the County Clerk of Valley County, Nebraska, on May 21, 1923. For the purpose of obtaining money to pay the debts allowed against said estate and the costs of administration, for the reason that there is not a sufficient amount of personal property in the hands of the Administrator belonging to the estate to pay the same. ley County, Nebraska, at chambers in the District Courtroom in the City of St. Paul, Howard County, Nebraska, on the 14th day of June, 1951, at the hour of ten o'clock A. Kit J. Carson Rites Held Here Saturday

Prominent Citizen Came to Nebraska from Illinois in 1880.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon for Kit J. Carson, 79, one of Ord's prominent citizens, who died Wednesday night at the local hospital. He had been bedridden for nearly a year.

Carson was born January 22, 1872, at Kewanee, Ill., the son of John and Mary Rogers Carson. He came to Nebraska with his parents in 1880. The family settled first on a ranch in Holt county, and later moved to the Carson lake neighborhood in Garfield county.

They moved to Ord in 1885. For some time Kit was associated with his father in a general store business, later he was county clerk of Valley county.

In 1895 he married Ellen Millard of Ord, who preceded him in death. A son, Hugh, was born to them in 1898.

Mr. Carson was a veteran of the Spanish American War, and also served as a Lieutenant in the Ord company of the Nebraska national guard.

In 1906 he moved to Omaha where he accepted the position of assistant collector of internal revenue. He held this job until 1938, when he retired and moved back to Ord.

He attended Nebraska Central College in Central City, and the University of Nebraska. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and a member of the Omaha lodge of the B.P.O.E.

In his youth Mr. Carson was especially interested in sports of all kinds, baseball, track, duck and bird hunting, and trap shooting.

He is survived by his son Hugh, daughter-in-law, Tamara; two grandsons, John and Robert Carson of Los Angeles, Calif., and two great grandsons, Eric and Robert Jr.

Funeral services were held at the First Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Allen Strong of the local Presbyterian church officiated. Don Auble sang, "Be Still, My Soul," and "Abide With Me," and he was accompanied by Mrs. Viola Kellison.

Burial was in the family plot in the Ord City cemetery.

Hans Larsen Back from Overseas, Says U. S. Is Best

Hans Larsen, who on April 17, 1950 sailed on the Polish ship Batori to spend a year visiting relatives and friends in Denmark, returned home last week with one firm conviction—that the United States is the finest place in the world to live, after all.

Hans is looking "fat and assy," proving that his year's residence in Copenhagen was good for him. Copenhagen is a fine city of one million people and he found his relatives well. These include a sister, Laura Larsen, a home economist in charge of all buying for a big state hospital; another sister, Marie Larsen, recently retired after a successful career in business; and a brother, Wilhelm, who operates a dragline in construction work. There also are many nieces and nephews.

There is little or no unemployment in Denmark, the economic condition of the country appears good and currency is stable with the krone valued at 6.92 for one American dollar throughout his stay there. However, living costs are about the same as in this country, Hans says. If you want a good steak dinner there you pay $2 or more for it, about the same as in the U. S.

Several times Hans and his sister Marie, with whom he stayed, leased a drive-yourself car and toured Denmark, seeing the smaller towns of the country and all the sights. Once they went to Sweden, across the North Sea, and enjoyed the sights there. Everywhere people were hospitable and although Mr. Larsen speaks Danish well he also found many people who spoke English.

There is fear of the Russians and of the atom bomb but Danes don't talk about possibility of World War III all the time as we do in this country, he said. Eisenhower was in Copenhagen while he was there and got a wonderful reception.

Hans returned home on a new Norwegian ship, the Oslo-Fjord, which carried 600 passengers and a crew of 300, docking in New York on May 1. His future plans are uncertain. Throughout his stay in Europe he retained his room at the Mrs. Laura Thorne home in Ord and it really felt like home to come back to it. He plans to take it easy for a while and his sister, Marie, may come for a visit here.

Later he may get back into business, he just doesn't know.

Lois Severns Heads Sorority

Don Edwards Gets Combat Promotion

With the 7th Infantry Division, U. S. Army, Private First Class Donald W. Edwards, husband of Mrs. Margaret Ann Edwards, 1615 Q Street, Ord, recently received a combat promotion to Corporal for outstanding performance of duty while serving with the 51st Infantry Regiment in Korea.

Edwards' unit, the 51st Infantry Regiment (The Polar Bears) made two amphibious landings in Korea, one at Inchon with the subsequent liberation of Seoul and the other at Iwon in North Korea. Later they engaged the Chinese Communists in a bitter fighting around the Chosin Reservoir area. During more recent action Edwards and the Polar Bears have pushed their way up the mountain spine of Central Korea against increasingly strong resistance.

Prior to being recalled to active service on Oct. 15, 1950, Edwards was an automobile salesman. During World War II he served with the 103 Inf. Division in Europe. He received his refresher course at Fort Lewis, Wash., before being sent to the 7th Division in Korea.

Rain Forced Change in Plans for Picnic

Heavy rains Monday night and Tuesday morning forced Ord seniors to make a quick change in their plans to hold their picnic at Swan lake Tuesday. At the last moment they held the picnic in Bussell park, then drove to Grand Island where the afternoon was spent in bowling, shopping and attending the movies.

One group of senior boys who went to Swan lake Monday night and camped out, hoping to get in some morning fishing before their class mates arrived, finally caught up with the main group in Grand Island by mid-afternoon.

Fish Hitting on Gracie

Rainbow trout were hitting hard on Gracie creek last week, as proved by the fact that Stanley Powers, of Sargent, got a limit catch of 11 to 14 inch fish. Cecil Lindsey, Burwell, caught a 12 pound catfish near the mouth of Gracie creek, in the Calamus river.

Valley Countians Bought War Bonds

Savings Bond sales for the month of April in Valley county amounted to $37,863.50, according to C. J. Mortensen, chairman of the Savings Bond Committee for the county.

At the same time, it was announced by Leland R. Hall, State Director, that total sales for Nebraska were $6,178,636.37, of which 77% or $4,788,314.37 was in Series "E" Bonds. At the same time, Hall announced that, contrary to rumor, sales of the small denomination bonds ($25 and $50) were increasing. "During the first quarter of 1951, the number of these bonds sold amounted to $13,194,000, of which $10,787,000 were $25 denomination and $3,007,000 were $50. This record was the highest for the first quarter for the last four years," Hall said.

"The small denomination bonds sold accounted for 35% of the total 'E' Bonds sold during the first quarter of 1951, as compared to 25% for the same period in 1950," Hall added.

Clarice Fiala Winner of Ag Sign Contest

Clarice Fiala, a junior in the Agricultural college, at Lincoln recently submitted a sketch that won the Ag College sign contest.

W. V. Lambert, dean of the Ag college, and three members of the Agricultural Executive board met Saturday to select the winner.

The purpose of the contest was to obtain ideas for a sign to be erected at each of two main entrances to the Ag college. Of the 17 sketches submitted were judged on four points: (1) Appropriateness to Ag college, (2) Simple in design, (3) Durable and practical, (4) Cost of construction.

Miss Fiala's sketch, along with the other sketches, will be used by Dean Lambert in conferring with University architects to determine exactly the sign which will be most appropriate and in agreement with University regulations.

I wish to thank my friends for the flowers and cards that I received at the time of my recent illness when I was in the hospital and also after I returned home.

FERTILIZER.

The fertilizer situation is much worse than had been anticipated. During recent weeks Government requirements have been cutting in to civilian allocations. Nearly all shipments are running a couple of weeks late and some of them are cancelled entirely. While Ammonium Nitrate is so scarce there is a small amount of 21% available. We are taking bookings now for fall delivery.

Seed Corn.

Cornhusker performance is remarkable in Valley county. We believe that Cornhusker yields are higher than any variety of hard end corn; and the shelling percentage is extremely high. Very seldom do you have any maturity trouble with Cornhusker as they ripen so very fast in the fall of the year. Just at present we have the following numbers of Cornhusker hybrids: 148, 75, 64, 83, 84, 85 and 107. Here are hybrids of any maturity date that you want.

Chicks.

Hy-lines are still available on short notice and in a few cases we can get started chicks from one to three weeks old. However, only Hy-lines in started chicks. We have Leghorns, Rocks, New Hamp and Austral Whites. If you want high producing chicks let us order for you from Hill.

Feeds.

We have a full line of Hill Poultry Feeds and Hog Feeds and carry Cattle feeds in any protein content that you want. If you have cattle in the feed yard let us furnish you with Beefmaikr, 12%, 20%, 30% or 40% protein. Also have 80% Bean Meal, Oil Meal, Bran, Shorts, Salt Oyster Shell, Tankage and other feeds. Have buttermilk both powder and condensed, also Stock Gro.

Grain.

All grain markets are somewhat unsettled the past week and somewhat weaker. We have limited amounts of corn and barley on hand. We are in the market for corn, oats, rye, wheat and barley. If you have some of these grains for sale let us make you an offer.

Postal Increase
There are a number of angles to the postal increase story, and we should know all of them before passing judgment on the proposed raise in postal rates. First and foremost we must remember that the postal department is a service to the public, and was so founded, and not on the basis of a money-making proposition.

It is true that, if the department goes into the red, then the deficit must be made up from some other source. After all that source is the same as the original source of funds, the general public. It may well be that a lot of letters are not written and many packages not sent for the reason that the persons wishing to send them cannot afford to do so. If the amount of postage is increased, these same people will write fewer letters and send fewer packages, thus making the amount of revenue smaller, than it might be under the lower rates. As it now is, the shortage is made up mostly by those best able to pay it, and these very poor people are still able to write those occasional letters.

Looking at the postal service as a business, we must admit that it is a model of efficiency and at the same time a financial failure. It has nearly always been a financial failure, and it is doubtful if any means can be devised to put it on a sound financial footing. Since it is a public service and the public must pay in any event, whether it shows a profit or a loss does not matter so seriously.

There are approximately 39,000 of the $1,000 post offices in the United States that do not take in enough revenue to pay their own expenses. This means that 94% of all post offices go in the red every year. It is an exceptional office indeed that pays its own way. This in spite of the fact that fourth class offices are run by public spirited people who receive no salary.

In spite of this fact, the star route of the old days usually went behind because there was not enough revenue to pay the expenses of the star route carrier, and even he took the job on contract for much less than it was worth. In modern times a large percent of these rural fourth class offices have been eliminated, and the business they once did has been taken over by the Rural Free Delivery.

If it is criminal for the postal service to run behind, perhaps it might be well to check some of the other departments of government. According to the 1950 reports the department of the interior ran behind $160 million; the commerce department showed a deficit of $668 million; and the agriculture department went in the red $175 million.

All these deficits are charged off as a public service to mere segments of the population, but the same government does not want to charge off a smaller deficit in a department that affects the entire people. The president points out that the matter of postal rates should be a matter of thorough study, and for once most of the people agree with him.

Heard this story about Dr. Bob Lynn the other day. He was called to the home when Mr. Blank was suddenly taken ill. The doctor went upstairs to the sick room but hurried back down to inquire of Mrs. Blank, "Have you a cork screw handy?" Given the tool, he disappeared upstairs for the second time. Several minutes later the doctor was back. "Got a screw driver?" he asked the anxious woman. Instrument in hand he went upstairs again. Almost immediately he was back down. "A chisel and a mallet, quickly," he demanded.

The distraught wife could stand it no longer. "For goodness sake, doctor," she begged, "what's the matter with my husband?" "Don't know yet," was the reply. "Can't get my medicine bag open."

An Ord father related this one on his 10 year old son. Seems that the boys and a pal were down at the park, when a golfer drove out in the creek. He asked the boys to get the ball for him, so they took off their shoes and socks, waded in. They found the ball all right, the 10-year-old getting a bad bash on his foot from a rusty tin can, in the process of wading. So they trudged across the golf course to find the golfer who had gone on with his game, and were rewarded with a nickel.

Then home they came, one boy helping the other to walk, to get the foot bandaged. "Only cost me three dollars for a tetanus shot and the dressing," the father confided.

The fly season is opening up. It won't be long now until houseflies hatched in mess of filth somewhere, will be buzzing around a pile of decayed garbage and then coming in and walking on your food if you will let them.

It took health authorities a long time to get at the root of the fly problem. Years ago, when it was being discovered that flies transmitted nearly every kind of disease, the public was being urged and educated to "swat the fly."

It was not until it was found that flies are one of the means by which polio is spread that the battle against them really began. So, when health boards object to open garbage piles and other hatching places for flies, they are not just being fussy.

++ Something Different ++

I have decided lady elms are no ladies, or they wouldn't drop their young with such abandon, all over my yard. Dein 'em.

oOo
Bet the Corwin Cummins' don't know that a little bird has a nest in their clothesline pole cross-bar! A cute little number was working busily the other morning as I stopped across the street.

oOo
How wonderful it was to get the green of things again. I thought spring never would come this year.

oOo
A most marvelous view of Gothic arches, courtesy of Mother Nature, is the lovely archway of trees through Bussell Park. There isn't a more delightful drive anywhere than that curve of road.

oOo
Yet it is spoiled by those skiddy kiddies who must drive wildly up the bank at the east of it, on the wrong side of the trees, where deep ruts are cut in the green sod. Or perhaps it is better known as parking and petting lane. And many beer cans tossed out there do not help.

oOo
Driving is such a queer, dangerous thing. A radio highway talk a few days ago said "If I did you that you had, HAD, to go down the highway on top of a few dozen sticks of dynamite, bearing a lighted fuse, you'd take plenty of care!"

oOo
"Driving a car is potentially just as dangerous." Yet little training is thought to be needed, very few bans are put upon the driver. He is free to sail down the highway regardless of the condition of his car or the road or his skill.

oOo
There he goes, on top his load of dynamite!

oOo
Nothing strikes me as such a waste of time as manicuring! I begrudge every minute of the time it takes for filing nails and so on. Cuticle removers, polish to dry, polish to remove! Phooey!

oOo
And this I enjoy! Suppose I'd better hush, and consider I'm lucky that I didn't live in the days when finger nails were used for tearing flesh for eating. . . .

oOo
Again vandals are working over Bussell Park. Sunday night some hefties tossed the iron benches from the golf course into the creek once more, doing them no good. And of course regular work on the golf course and the picnic grounds must stop while Bud and his helpers once again pry them up and get them out of deep old Dane Creek.

oOo
There isn't too much money to spend on the park. There is a waiting list of desirable projects ready to go, when the money is available.

oOo
Seems mighty silly to squander time and money repairing such hoodlumism, when it could go for shiny new features.

oOo
What gallant citizens with thimble-sized brains planned the latest wreckage? They must have quite a childish streak. Mature minds wouldn't consider such breakage funny, but boring.

oOo
These weight-lifters would be better employed helping Lyle Manchester work with the Boy Scouts.

oOo
Those lively Scouts will soon relieve you of any excess energy! —Irma.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS LETTER

HUGH CARSON, 29th District

This session of the Legislature is about to close. Two more weeks will be closely finished all the business now under consideration.

The Gas Tax bill was killed during the past week, and I would not be surprised to see the remaining Road Bills meet the same end. The truck weight tolerance measure should be passed, however in fairness to truck operators.

The Budget Bill will in my opinion be accepted practically as it is. This Bill has been given a great deal of careful consideration by Chairman Arthur Carmody and the rest of the Budget committee, and it is probably in better shape than any Budget ever presented to the Legislature.

The State of Nebraska is fortunate in having as able a man as Senator Carmody, and it is the general opinion that his has been an outstanding, and efficient effort. He would make an outstanding Governor.

IT'S AN OLD AMERICAN CUSTOM...

WASHINGTON, TOO, ENJOYED THE THRILL OF THOROUGHBREDS

George Washington was not only a racing fan, but he owned racing horses as well. So did Thomas Jefferson. The two even met in match races and it is said to be the only recorded instance of two men who became Presidents of the nation meeting as rivals on the race course.

Like Washington and Jefferson, many Nebraska folks enjoy horse racing and gather together in the friendly atmosphere of the good Nebraska sunshine for an afternoon of exciting sport.

Racing in Nebraska benefits county and state fairs, live stock shows, poultry shows, 4-H activities, scholarships and fellowships in agriculture, and countless other beneficial projects.

In Nebraska no individual can share in the proceeds, yet everyone shares in the benefits racing provides.

Ord Council Will Hire Engineer for Survey

Curb and Gutter Move Presents Drainage Problem.

Ord city councilmen voted Tuesday night to hire the services of a city engineer to survey the drainage and construction problems incident to the establishing of a curb and gutter district within the city.

The engineer will survey the district requested in petitions presented to the council, and also make general recommendations on disposal of storm water.

Drainage, a problem that has plagued Ord street maintenance for years, will become a greater problem with the construction of curbs and gutters, unless adequate provision is made for it. E. H. Cordes, of the Diamond Engineering Co. of Grand Island, told city council.

Cordes whose firm is at present constructing some 30 blocks of curb and gutter in Greeley Nebr., appeared at the invitation of the council.

The construction man said it seemed very evident to him that some storm sewer would have to be built within the city if the job was to be done right. He suggested that the city obtain engineering counsel before taking definite action on petitions.

Cordes said that his firm is constructing curb and gutter in Greeley for a fee of $1.50 per front foot. Grading and earth moving is charged for in addition to this and he estimated that the cost for Ord property owners would run around $1.65 per front foot for a 6 x 30 concrete curb and gutter. Storm sewer construction needed to put the city's drainage system in shape would be a general obligation of the city, curb and gutter costs would be charged against resident property owners.

The city improvement project had both backers and opposition appearing before the council.

City employees are apparently slated for social security benefits the council decided. The entire city payroll, both full and part time help will be placed under the social security program, retroactive to January 1.

Some 37 full and part time city employees or executives will come under the program, which number includes the mayor and council utility board, any individual drawing compensation from the city for services. The number represents an average monthly payroll of $3800, and the city's share of social security taxes will run about $700 per year.

Valley county commissioners had previously put county employees under the same set up.

Five Rural Schools Picnic in Ord

The Ord city park appeared to be a favorite spot for school picnics on last Sunday. At least five schools from the rural districts were to be found at various tables scattered through the picnic grounds.

A casual glance over the numerous dishes was evidence enough that none would go hungry, but rather suffer from the effects of overeating. Then after all were filled, gallons and gallons of ice cream of various flavors appeared, and all were expected to start all over again.

The afternoon was spent visiting with friends and neighbors while the younger generation either enjoyed the several pieces of playground apparatus or attended the ball game or the Ord theater.

Among the schools which spent the day in this fashion were District 40, Reatha Moody, teacher; District 14, Garnette Kokes, teacher; District 31, Mary Beran, teacher; District 38, Mary F. Svoboda, teacher, and District 12, Irene Seidel, teacher.

Cattfish Hitting in North Loup River

The best cattfish fishing in many years is being enjoyed by North Loup river anglers right now.

One Ord group made up of Charlie Svoboda, George Anderson and Gene Kovachs, fishing below the alfalfa mill where Svoboda has a fishing shack had caught 83 legal size fish up to Tuesday night. Largest one weighed 6 1/2 lbs. Most of them were caught on setlines.

Preferred bait is live frogs but they are scarce around here and some anglers are driving as far as Swan lake to get them. Live minnows also seem to work well.

Theron Bechtle said Wednesday he has caught 35 cattfish so far this season and others who fish regularly have fared as well.

Pool Being Readied for Big Season

Bright and early Monday the new Ord pool manager, Merritt Littrell, and Duane Wolfe, junior life guard, began cleaning the pool to ready it for painting. The 1951 opening is scheduled for Wednesday, May 30, and if the weather continues to cooperate the pool will be ready for the swimmers. Third member of the pool staff, Miss Evelyn Urban, will report Friday.

At the invitation of the park board, the Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas company is experimenting on heating water in the pool. If the experiments succeed it will mean that outdoor pools can be used to a much greater extent, as the water could be warmed on cold days and pools could open earlier in the spring and close later in the fall.

Commie Flag Over P. O. Causes Jitters

When Custodian Cecil Clark started to raise the flag at the post office Friday morning, according to his daily custom, he paused and looked with horror toward the top of the flag staff where a flag already floated. It was the flag of Red Russia, complete with hammer and sickle.

Clark hauled down the alien flag, and securing a possible communist plot to seize the post office, the city, perhaps even the state, or nation, he called Postmaster A. L. Hill, who came in a hurry. What to do? Should the F. B. I. be called?

The flag was crudely printed on an old towel and Hill decided to do some quiet investigation of his own before he took the matter too seriously. At 04 high school 3 boys soon admitted they had hoisted the commie flag, strictly as a prank, which closed the matter to Hill's satisfaction, although taunting with federal publicity against federal law and even such a prank might have caused trouble for them.

Bussell park will officially open for the 1951 summer season next Wednesday, May 30, at 1:00 p. m. and the Ord park board is hoping that a large crowd will be present to see the beautiful park and use its facilities.

The swimming pool opens at 1:00 p. m. and at the same hour, in the horseshoe band stand on the east side of the park drive, the Ord Municipal band will play a 1-hour concert under Bill Nelson's baton.

At 2:30 a baseball game will be played at the athletic field between the Loup City and Ord VFW Midget teams. Ord Mustangs Drop 10-Inning Thriller to Loup Red Wings

Ord Leads Til Ninth, Loses in 10th on 5 Run Loup Rally.

The Ord Mustangs lost a 10-inning heartbreaker to the Loup City Red Wings Sunday on the Ord field, final score being 7 to 3.

Ord lead throughout, scoring twice in the third inning on an infield hit by Rol Moore, a 3 bagger by Bud Novosad and a single by Dan Dilla.

Bill Novosad pitched masterful ball through 7 innings, giving up 7 well spaced hits and striking out only one down. Beasley, the batter, assayed to lay one down while Stan Johnson charged in from third base on a squeeze play, but failed to get his bat on the ball and Johnson was tagged by Catcher Billesbach for Ord's second out. Moore grounded out, ending the rally, and the game went into extra innings.

County Officials Start Crackdown Teenage Drinkers

Situation Has Gone Too Far, Says Attorney.

Valley county law enforcement officials made a definite step Sunday afternoon in a campaign to wipe out possession and sale of liquor to minors in this area.

As a result four teen age youths left town hurriedly Sunday evening and haven't been heard from since.

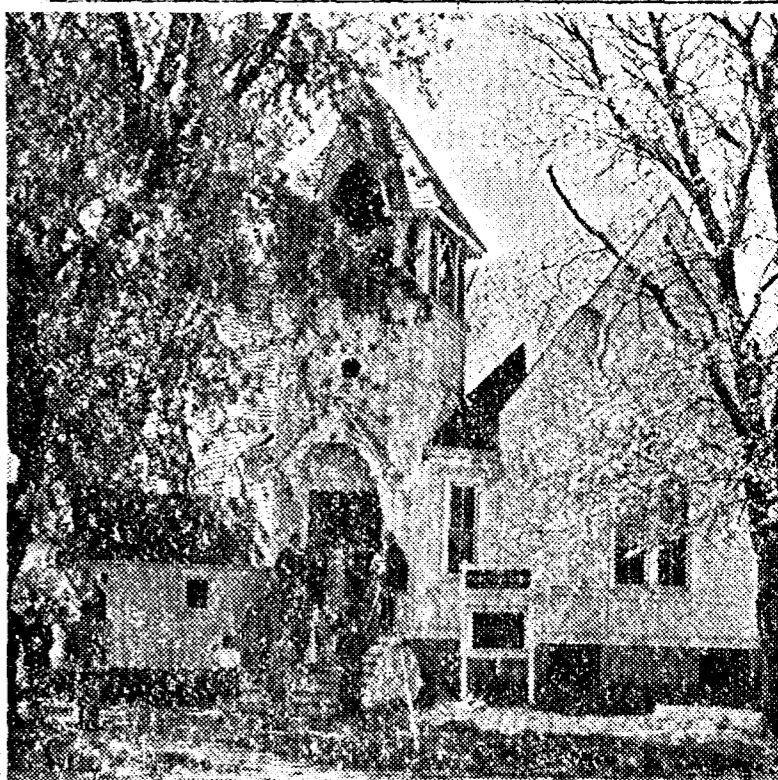

The four were stopped at the entrance of the ball park Sunday afternoon, and a search of their car by state highway patrolmen and county sheriff Bob Hall produced a bottle of whiskey.

The youths were told they would be requested to appear before officials for questioning Monday, and released.

County Attorney Ralph W. Norman said that he would probably prepare complaints and that the four would be arrested on their return to the county.

"We're getting too much of this sort of thing," the county attorney said. "All four of these boys have either been warned or picked up before on offenses involving liquor. And there are others, too, whom we are watching closely."

"The persons we're really after are the adults who have been either selling or giving these youths their liquor. We have a book ready to throw at him," Norman said.

Short Run Gives Lift to Monday's Cattle Trade

Short supply Monday at Omaha forced fat cattle trade into a course that neither OFS nor some of the buyers had counted on. Trade was brisk and steady to 25-50c higher, bulk of steers and yearlings $32.50-$36.25, better steers to $38.00, heifers to $36.50, odd head $37.00. Plain to medium killer cattle ranged from $28.00-$33.50. Actually, most packers, despite the heralded May 20 roll-back date, do not have to have their buying averages fall into prescribed ceiling ranges before June 1. That fact, combined with light supply, made for steady to higher trade Monday at Omaha. But cow selling was spotty and no more than steady, despite scarce numbers. Canners and cutters bulked at $18.50-$22.50, beef cows sold to $29.00, odd head higher. Bologna bulls sold to $31.00, beef to $29.50, vealers to $38.00, heavier killing calves to $33.00.

Stocker and feeder trade was steady to strong. Yearling stock steers weighing 655 scored $35.50 and $36.00, and comparably heavy stock heifers $33.75.

Swine sold strong to 25c and more up, butchers weighing 180-360 $19.00-$21.60, packer limit $21.25; extreme heavies down to $17.50. Sows gained 25-50c, bracketing 270-550-pounders at $17.00-$19.50, extreme heavies down to $16.25. Stags brought $14.00-$17.00.

Fat lamb trade was steady to 50c up, the advance on old crop clips, those $32.50-$34.00. At $34.00 were mostly good 93-pound Colorado's with No. 1 pelts. Quotable top for spring lambs held at $35.50 but best in the run were some at $35.00. Southwesterns included at that figure. Shorn slaughter ewes held at $12.00-$18.00.

Valley county shippers at the Omaha market Monday included Valco Kerchal with 10 steers weighing 1129 that sold at $36.00.

Ralph Norman, Atty. IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA, IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF S. V. HANSEN, ADMINISTRATOR, FOR A LICENSE TO SELL REAL ESTATE. ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE Now on this 5th day of May, 1951, S. V. Hansen, the Administrator of the estate of Paul Larson, deceased, having presented his petition under oath praying for a license to sell the following described real estate, to-wit:

The tract of land designated as "School" on the recorded plat of Railroad Addition to Arcadia, and also as Lot #7 in Block Seventeen (17) being the tract having a frontage of Three Hundred feet South of Owen Street of the Original town of Arcadia, Valley County, Nebraska, and extending North from said street one hundred thirty (130) feet. Also the piece of ground described as follows: Commencing at the Southwest corner of Lot Seven (7) in Block Seventeen (17) being a tract of land designated on the recorded plat of Railroad Addition to the town of Arcadia, Valley County, Nebraska (as school), running thence North One Hundred thirty (130) feet; thence West eighty (80) feet; thence South one hundred thirty (130) feet; thence East Eighty (80) feet to the place of beginning. The last described piece or parcel of ground fronts on Owens Street eighty (80) feet. Ord Mustangs Drop 10-Inning Thriller to Loup Red Wings

In the 10th the Red Wings began to connect with Beasley's fast ball and got a couple of extra base hits. Ord's infield had been weakened by an injury to Bud Novosad and errors combined with the base hits let Loup City shower in 5 runs before the rally could be stopped, making the count 7-2 in their favor.

The Mustangs started a rally of their own in the last half of the tenth but scored only one run and the game went to the Red Wings, 7 to 3.

There was a fine crowd present and they got their money's worth by seeing a fast, well played ball game. Loup City got 11 hits off Ord's two pitchers while the Mustangs tagged Lefty Dale Krueger for 9.

Standouts for Ord included Bobby Philbrick who made four difficult running catches in center field, Jim Finley, who did a splendid job at first base, and Stan Johnson, who caught an excellent game and held Loup City runners to a single stolen base. Bud Novosad and Dick Beran lead the Ord batting attack with 2 safe blows apiece.

Loup City has another fine team, using Babbit and Grassmeyer as pitchers. Red Wings Irishmen in place of Ron Clark and Wieserski and other using about the same players who won the 1950 pennant. The Red Wings definitely look like the team to beat in the 1951 race, with Pete Wilson doing the master-minding in place of Stan Roy.

Ord's infield is still the big question, and Manager Red Johnson is going to have to come up with some answer to it or the Mustangs can't stand the Mid-Nebraska Night league pace.

Tonight (Wednesday) the Mustangs play off a postponed game under the lights at Shelton and fans are watching with interest to see what reshuffling Johnson may do in his infield. He has excellent pitching, fine catching and a satisfactory outfield but Bud Novosad, while a fine player, has failed to click at shortstop and Dick Nelson, at third, not only is weak with the stick but lacks fielding experience which may later make him a fine third baseman. Moore is doing an adequate job at second and shows promise there. Finley, at first, is very good when he is good and is always a threat at the plate.

The Mustangs have a bye for Sunday and play at St. Paul on May 30, so the next chance home fans will have to see them in action is on June 3 when they play Ravenna under the lights here.

Cattfish Giving Most Sport Now

Lincoln, Neb.—Fishing for cattfish overshadowed most other angling throughout the state according to district fishing reports at the Game Commission office.

Several anglers landed ponderous cats. Ned Darling of Crete set the pace with a 16½ pounder taken from the Blue river. Leonard Snyder of North Bend hauled in an 11½ pounder from the Platte which also produced a 9½ pounder for Clifford Kooper of Wahoo.

Trout fishing generally is continuing its downward trend. There were, however, the usual exceptions. Warden W. J. Ahern reported trout fishing as very good in Long Pine lake and Plum and Pine creeks.

White bass were quite active. Some of the first white bass taken at Johnson lake this year were reported. Warden Lee Jensen writes that white bass are hitting in the canal creeks below North Platte. McConaughy is also producing its share of the popular species.

Jerry Cole of Sidney hooked on to a 12-pounder northern pike while fishing at McConaughy. Three Ainsworth fishermen, Dr. V. L. Hybl, Jim Burke and Turk Beeboub, each took limit catches of trout while working Pine creek above Long Pine Lake.

Following are some of the more productive waters during recent angling festivities: McConaughy (white bass, crappie, trout, northern pike, cattfish, walleye); Whitney lake (cattfish); Box Butte lake (carp); Kimball reservoirs (trout); Lake Minatare (walleye); Crystal lake (crappie, carp); Rock Creek lake (bass); Dewey lake (crappie, bullheads); Trout lake (bass, bullheads); Shell lake (bass, crappie, bluegill); Willow lake (bullheads); Fremont lakes Nos. 1 and 2 (bluegill); Fremont lakes Nos. 3 and 5 (perch); Red Deer and Long lakes (bass, bullheads).

On the basis of information acquired from anglers, cattfish appeared to be the least particular about baits. Cattfish were biting on crawdads, minnows, chicken blood, shrimp and frogs. Other fish were biting on the following baits: white bass (small minnows); bullheads (worms); crappie (minnows); walleye (minnows); trout (worms, salmon eggs, minnows); bass (minnows, plugs); northern pike (minnows); carp (corn, doughballs).

Ward's Cookin' Column

W. J. Boomer tells me of an interesting happening that occurred to a grandson of his, I believe he said. Anyway, this young man is in the reserves and was called into service at a camp at Macy, Nebr. Because of a shortage of a number of necessary items it was up to the recruits to furnish several articles, including sheets and underwear, or go without them. What made it ridiculous was that at the same time an outfit was holding a sale in Macy of war surplus goods and these same items were included in the list of goods they were selling. The trouble is that this is not an exceptional case. It wasn't much but it does state to the man who was selling them for ten cents on the dollar or less, and then were being offered by him for resale at about what the government paid for them in the first place. One cannot but wonder why they were sold at the first place. Such material is not perishable and could have been stored against the time of need, which in this case was a very short time, indeed.

In common with a lot of the boys, I had in the VCC camp in 1935-36. The government issued us our clothes and paid us $30 per month, most of which was allotted to our families. That meant the family was supposed to get by on about $25 a month. It wasn't much, but it was sold at less than nothing. It wouldn't get a family anywhere today. What I recall of special interest in connection with that experience in camp was the underwear that was issued to us, light weight underwear, but long handed. Most of the men found the drawers too warm for summer use, so they cut the legs off and made shorts of them. The most interesting thing about it all was that those drawers had a quartermaster's stamp on them, showing that they were delivered to the Philadelphia depot back in 1917. They were still in usable condition after 18 years in storage, yet underwear made for world war two was sold almost as soon as the war was over, in spite of the fact that we had a military training program in force.

The other day a couple of men were in North Loup pasting up the bills for a traveling circus which was scheduled for Scotia. Such shows are few and far between now, but fifty years ago the traveling circus was one of the biggest entertainments of the year. Then the big shows came to towns the size of Ord and St. Paul, but today they visit only the big cities and usually make quite a show of it. Today it is easier for the people to go to the city where the show is and the show does not have to be brought to the people.

Two of the shows that made Ord in those days were Ringling Bros. (all six of eight of them, I forget the name) and John Robinson. The biggest show ever to show in Ord came in about forty years ago, on two special trains, and the side tracks in Ord were filled to capacity with the cars. They had a big parade a mile or two long and gave two shows (you paid for them) in the afternoon and the evening. It was a three ring circus, and many a kid developed cross eyes from trying to see all that was going on at the same time. I recall that the Canadian weight lifting champion, strongest man in the world, one Louis Cyr, was one of the big attractions of the show, and he was ably assisted by the French champion, Horace Barr.

Most families planned ahead for those shows. They brought their dinner and the whole family in the lumber wagon and made a day of it. The kids had as much as a quarter to spend all day, but some were lucky to have even a dime, outside of the price of the ticket. There was a side show, which could be seen for about half the price of the big show, and many a kid never got to see more than the side show. But that street parade was something, once seen, never to be forgotten. There were all kinds of animals from all parts of the world, and there were strange peoples, Russian Cossaks, Turkish soldiers, Bedouins, pygmies, giants. The big show has been gone from the scene for a long time now, but it will never be forgotten.

People have amused themselves in various ways since the first settlement of the country. Some of the old customs have survived, but are different than they used to be. The settlers held their neighborhood dances, with an old time fiddler to furnish the music, seldom anything more. Today we can't have a dance without a full orchestra, but I doubt if the young people have any more fun now than both young and old did then. I have heard my father tell of working in the field all day, then walking as much as nine miles to a country frolic, as they called the early day dances. He then would dance until long after midnight, walk home, get up in the morning and go to work again. No wonder he lived to be 96 years old. It would take a lot of living to offset such a strenuous life as that.

The literary societies were a product of those early days, and today they have degenerated into declamatory and spelling contests. A literary was organized in a neighborhood with local people as officials, and a program of singing and speaking was planned for the next meeting. This was usually the first part of the program, was followed by a recess and then came the debate, with the best talkers arguing the merits, for example, of "Government Ownership of Railroads," or "Which Gives the Greatest Pleasure, Anticipation or Realization." Sometimes a spelling bee would be held in connection, or as a separate entertainment. These occasions drew people from all the neighboring communities, some coming to participate, others merely to be entertained.

Political speeches were a big drawing card in the early days, and reached their climax with the campaign of 1896, when William Jennings Bryan tried in vain to defeat William McKinley for president of the United States. In that campaign the two contestants spoke only in the larger cities, although Bryan finally had the burden of the battle was borne by a lot of lesser lights, who made fiery speeches to express their ideas of government as it ought to be run. They always drew large and enthusiastic crowds.

Political caucuses and conventions usually drew quite a crowd in those days, since there was more to do than there is today. It was before the day of primary elections and the caucuses and conventions selected the party candidates for the different local and county offices. Caucuses are still much as they used to be, but the county convention has changed radically. In those days the man who could make the best speech had a good chance of winning the nomination over a more capable man who was not endowed with the gift of gab. The smart politician made it a point to have a friend or two in each of the delegations from the different voting precincts, and these men would try to swing their delegation for their friend.

Class and church plays and entertainment were in vogue in the early days and are still a popular form of entertainment. Grandparents who graduated from Nebraska schools are now seeing their grandchildren or even their great-grandchildren graduating, and with practically the same kind of ceremony. The literary societies finally gave way for the chaqueta and lecture course, and these gave the average person the opportunity to hear the best musicians, speakers and entertainers in the nation at a very reasonable cost. The original chaqueta were planned as summer camps. A tent city was erected and people went there for a week of camping and entertainment.

Stage shows were all the rage fifty years ago, and more than one show was organized in this area and then went on the road, much as the Hugo shows do today, except that they usually held forth in local opera houses. One of these was organized by Ulrich Sorenson, and held its premiere in the old Ord Opera house. In the line of outdoor entertainment many contests were just getting their start in Nebraska fifty years ago. So far as Ord is concerned, basketball, football and track are now rounding out fifty years of life, and a Golden Jubilee of sports would seem to be in order. Except for six-man football, outdoor sports have changed little.

Today the radio, video and the motion pictures have taken their toll, and many of the entertainments of the old days have gone out of existence, never to return. It is far easier to sit back, look and listen to the entertainment than it formerly was to make a part of the entertainment yourself. Riding machinery has made the work easier and the upholstered theater seats have made the play easier. In fact, we are living in an upholstered age. The old way had its compensations. Work was hard and play was hard, but the pioneer did not need a beauty-rest mattress to bring him a refreshing night's rest. When he got tired enough he could sleep on the floor and enjoy it.

This Is America.

The following associated press report came out last week:

"Lakewood, N. J., May 14: Townspeople here said 'thanks' to Ray Marino by giving him a $23,000 home. The 25-year-old ex-marine, who was blinded by Japanese gunfire on Iwo Jima, accepted the key to the silver, white frame home yesterday. His fiancée, Miss Mary Jane Shafro, at his side, Marine turned to the crowd and said simply: "When you asked why we are fighting today, here is your answer."

The home had been a cooperative effort from the start. Ocean County Judge Harry E. Newman, publisher of the Lakewood Times, started the fund. Trustees were appointed. Donations of dimes and dollars poured in. Carpenters and cement layers worked on the home week-ends. Deacons in the Lake Branch and Barnet gave the plaster, the lumber and the nails. They were all on hand yesterday to see Marino mount the steps of the front porch of the home he might never see."

Today marines, soldiers, sailors and airmen are fighting in an undeclared war in Korea. They are a long way from home, and they are fighting just as hard as though declared war were actually in progress. Primarily they are fighting because they are in the service and they are under orders to fight. They have been taught to obey orders. But all this can be said of the men against whom they are fighting.

There is something far more important behind it all than obedience, something more vital than the thought that they must destroy or be destroyed. The men of America have always fought well, and they fought well in the days when this nation was being formed from the original thirteen colonies. Americans fight better, for one reason, because of their heritage of fighting spirit; because of the shining example set for them by many generations of fighting men.

But this is not all. The Chinese have this heritage also, and their history goes back much farther than does ours. They should fight better than we do, for they are fighting right in their own back yard, while our men are on the other side of the world from home. Yet we find that Americans, as always, are proving themselves the better fighting men.

The fundamental difference between these fighting groups is the principle for which they are fighting. Never having enjoyed liberty as we know it, the Chinese are fighting under a handicap. Our men are fighting primarily for the liberty of the Korea, but behind it all the shadow of totalitarianism across America. They are fighting to remove that shadow from the homes they know and love.

They are fighting to preserve the American way of life, the way that puts it into the hearts of people to do just such things as the citizens of Lakewood, N. J. have just done in appreciation of a man who gave his sight for the cause of liberty. They know the people at home are trusting them, and they will never let them down.

They are fighting, if you please, for the people who stand ever ready to help a neighbor in time of trouble. They are fighting because of the thousands of husking bees, building bees and other neighborly acts that are done all over the nation every year. They are fighting for the people who raise funds to build homes, churches and other buildings for those who need them.

They are fighting for the neighbor who will gladly loan his lawn mower, or who will, in time of need, borrow from his neighbor. They are fighting for the housewife who loans a neighbor a cup of sugar or flour. These may be little things, but they are a part of the substance that makes this America. They are fighting for America.

Wildlife Conservation.

News items carried by the Quiz and other newspapers of the state tell of sportsmen going to the lakes and rivers and catching good catches of many kinds of fish. Some of these fish were unknown in Nebraska waters in pioneer times. In fact about all that could be caught then were catfish, bull heads, sunfish and chubs. There were no pike, bass, crappie, perch or bluegills.

It is about time the people quit grousing about the regulations imposed by th state game and fish commission and get to appreciating what this same commission has been doing to make the state a better place in which to live and enjoy ourselves.

In the old days, when settlers were scarce and game and fish were plentiful, we had no game laws. Nobody thought it was necessary to protect wild life, which was amply able to take care of itself. About half a century ago the first regulations began to appear, and they were met by vigorous opposition from those who would benefit most from them.

People felt that their personal rights were being imposed upon. There is nothing about which the average man prates more than his so-called "personal liberty." What some people mean is "personal license." Men are prone to forget that personal liberty ends where license begins. What many had in mind was not the right to catch a few fish, but to catch all that would bite, select the best to take home and leave the rest on the bank to die.

In those early days it was not considered illegal to break the hunting and fishing laws. The man who could break the law and get by with it was looked on as the man who was demanding and enforcing his "rights." If he happened to get caught it was just too bad, but it was not considered as a disgrace.

That attitude has changed materially with the passing of the years. First the chronic offenders are nearly all gone and a new crop of sportsmen with a broader point of view have taken their place. Like all laws, there are still a few who will break the game laws, but they are much in the minority. This new group of men has never known what it is to hunt or fish without supervision, and they do not object to it as the older ones did.

It is possible that hunting and fishing will never be quite as good as they were in the early days. There was more of the spirit of adventure to it then. But it is certain that we will still be able to hunt game and catch fish, and there would have been neither if the game hogs had been permitted to continue their depredations. Now we must also consider the many new kinds of fish we can catch, and the lordly pheasant we can now hunt, but which was not native here.

Today we have a very fine variety of game fish, the kind that are a joy to catch and a pleasure to eat. Fish that sportsmen once went hundreds of miles to catch can now be found right at home. Then only those who could afford it could catch trout because of the travel involved. Now for the price of a license you have that privilege.

Our game laws came too late to prevent the almost complete extermination of prairie chickens, grouse and quail in central Nebraska, but these birds are now staging a comeback, and we have the pheasant to take their place. Rabbits, recently so scarce that a bag limit had to be established for them, also, are increasing rapidly and may soon be as plentiful as in the old days.

So the next time you think evil thoughts about the men whose duty it is to enforce the game and fish laws, please remember that they have a job to do and they are doing a good job of it. They are here to make our state a more pleasant place in which to live, where we may enjoy the pleasures the pioneers did without the inconveniences which they had to endure.

think is, but we can't prove it on him."

Mr. William Lee, editor of the South Sioux City Journalistic pride, the Dakota County Star, comes up with what we consider the best observation yet on the R.F.C. (Reconstruction Finance Corporation).

A New Orleans attorney, representing a Louisiana client, called at the R.F.C. office in regard to a loan for his client. Upon being informed that the loan would be granted if title to the property was good and sufficient, the lawyer returned home.

After exhaustive work, he ran the title down to the year of 1803 and sent a rather voluminous but most accurate abstract of title by mail to the R.F.C. along with the application in proper form for the loan. Presently he received a letter from the R.F.C. reading as follows:

"We received today your letter enclosing application for loan for your client, supported by abstract of title. Let us compliment you on the able manner in which you have prepared and presented the application.

"Your abstract clearly demonstrates that you are not without ample experience in the line of your profession. We observe, however, that you have not chained the titles back of the year 1803 and, before final approval can be accorded the application it will be necessary that titles be chained back of that year."

The attorney perused the letter in utter disgust, profaned rather profusely, called his secretary and dictated the following letter to the R.F.C.:

"Your letter regarding titles in Case No. 19198156 received. I note that you wish titles to extend further back than I have presented them. I was unaware that any educated man in the world failed to know that Louisiana was purchased by the United States from France in 1803.

"The title to the land was acquired by France by right of conquest from Spain. The land came into possession of Spain by right of a discovery made in 1492 by a Spanish-Portuguese sailor named Christopher Columbus, who had been granted the privilege of seeking a new route to India by the then reigning monarch, Queen Isabella.

"The Good Queen, being a pious woman and careful about titles, took precaution of securing the blessings of the Pope of Rome upon the voyage before she sold her jewels to help Columbus. Now, the Pope, as you know, is the emissary of Jesus Christ, who is the Son of God; and God, it is commonly accepted, made the world. Therefore, I believe it is safe to presume that He also made that part of the United States called Louisiana, and I hope to HELL you're satisfied."

WILBUR SHAW, AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS DRIVER, DRIVES NEW 1951 CHRYSLER—REPORTS TO YOU ON REVOLUTIONARY FIREPOWER ENGINE AND HYDRAGUIDE POWER STEERING

Here are Wilbur Shaw's reactions—in his own words—as taken down by a recording machine in the car:

"The '51 Chrysler has it! With this new engine and power steering, the first on any U.S. car, it's a whole of an automobile.

"I'm completely bowled over by the ease of steering!

"This steering combined with the automatic transmission . . . is the nearest thing to an automatic pilot for a car I can possibly imagine.

"This engine . . . I can't get over the amount of power and snap in this engine . . . it's incredible!

"I drove 111 miles with the feeling I had expended no more effort than in driving around the block.

"When Mrs. Shaw drove, her comments just about squared with mine. Here's what she thinks of the 1951 Chrysler . . ."

Mrs. Shaw: "At first I could hardly believe the ease with which I could turn the wheel. That's important . . . especially in the summertime.

"Often after I have parked a car in the average parking space, I feel I should taxi home, shower and get dressed again. But with Hydraguide Power Steering I parked it with one hand. It practically drives itself."

Wilbur Shaw: "It's hard to describe this new Chrysler without going off the deep end . . . it has it in every department.

"In fact, I think so much of this car, I've selected it as Pace Car of the 1951 Indianapolis 500-mile race!" (Mr. Shaw's comments are reprinted through the courtesy of Popular Science Magazine.)

*Mr. Shaw refers of course to standard passenger cars—not racing cars or special models.

The Industry's No-Sale-To-Minors Sign Now A Legal "Must"

The improved "No Beer Sales to Minors" law requires that a sign be displayed prominently in taverns to inform minors of the new and larger penalties.

The Nebraska Division, U. S. Brewers Foundation, approves this requirement. In fact, the Foundation, of its own accord, supplied similar signs for years. The industry's sign proved to be so successful that its use has been adopted by the legislature, embodied in the new bill, and is now mandatory.

This is further public recognition of the industry's sincere efforts to operate in the public interest.

Tent Caterpillars Attack Ord Elms, Succumb to Spraying

Aerial Spraying Done at Bussell Park to Save Leaves on Elms.

Millions of tiny worms, known variously as the tent caterpillar and as the cankerworm, this week made their appearance on elm trees in Ord and vicinity and began stripping the trees of their young leaves, on which they feed. Some trees were practically stripped before presence of the pests was noted.

Friday and again Monday the Valley Flying Service, with Jack O'Brien flying the plane, sprayed the Bussell park elms from the air with a DDT solution. This was very effective, as proved by the clumps of dead worms found on the ground around the trees after they had been sprayed.

These worms attack hackberries as well as elms but there are few hackberries here except in shelter belts.

Aerial spraying is practical only over fairly large areas of trees but people in Ord who want to have a few trees sprayed may call Henry Janus or John Skala, who have a ground sprayer.

Even though all the leaves are eaten off elm trees they will not die, experts say, but will gradually shoot a new crop of leaves. The trees will be unsightly for several weeks while the new leaves are coming on.

The infestation of tent caterpillars in central Nebraska has been growing worse for several seasons, though they always have been present here to some degree. Earlier in the spring it is possible to halt their depredations by banding trees with tanglefoot, but it is too late for that now. Spraying represents the only other control method known.

Mustangs to Meet Fast Ravenna Crew Here Sunday Eve

Ravenna Tied for First in Night League; Fast Game Certain.

Baseball fans of Ord and vicinity are assured a treat Sunday eve when the fast Ravenna crew, managed by Art Treischman, comes to Ord for a night game against the Ord Mustangs, starting at 8:30. It will be Ord's first home game under the lights.

Ravenna has been going great guns this year and at present are tied with Shelton for the league leadership, with Loup City a game behind. They are the only team to beat the Red Wings this year.

Art Treischman, who managed the Grand Island Jaycees in the Cornhusker league last season, is pitcher and manager of the Ravenna team. In addition to Ravenna players he has Al Karle, who played 2nd base for Ord part of last season, Ray Johnson, who filled in at center field for Ord, and Knickerbohn, big first baseman and heavy hitter who played a few games in the Ord line-up.

The Ord Mustangs though playing largely home boys are conceding nothing to anybody and expect to win Sunday. With Bill Novosad and Bill Beasley the Mustangs have the finest pitching staff in the league. Bill Dugan is now playing shortstop which permitted moving Bud Novosad to 2nd, his natural position. Jack Koll is being tried at third and looks good there but Manager Roll Johnson will take over the position if necessary.

John Finley has 1st base sewed down, and in Dan Dills, Bob Philbrick, Dick Beran, Ken Collins and Rol Beran. Manager Johnson has a good outfield. Stan Johnson behind the plate is playing the best game of his career.

Fans who haven't seen the Mustangs in action should plan to attend Sunday night's game. They will be well rewarded. Club president Jim Gilbert has arranged for a loud speaker with Bruce Covey to announce and a band will be present to furnish music.

Odd Fellows Encampment Here Friday

Park Opening Draws Largest Crowd of Years

Picnickers Fill Park; Even a Few Swimmers Enjoy Day.

One of the largest crowds in years, gathered in Ord's Bussell Park Wednesday afternoon for the formal opening of the park and the summer recreation season.

Picnickers filled just about every available corner of the park; and the golf course was busy from shortly after Memorial Day exercises to dusk.

Even a score of swimmers braved a somewhat chilly day and wind to inaugurate the swimming season here. Sixteen season tickets were sold on the opening afternoon, according to Merritt Little, pool manager.

Notable was the large number of out of town and out of state cars in the park area, with many families here for the Memorial Day holiday.

—Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Skala, who were recently married, were honored at a charivari dance at the National hall. A nice crowd attended.

Moss Warns of Jealousy of High Living Standard

Memorial Day Speaker Says Others Envy Us.

Melvin Moss, Memorial Day speaker here Wednesday, said that other nations of the world had developed a high degree of envy and jealousy toward the United States.

"Some of this is hatred, some is honest envy," he said. "But there is no question that our high standard of living—the American way of living—has earned us the envy of the less fortunate nations."

The speaker said that a strong United States, and a reeducation of principles on the part of American citizens is the only answer to the hostile forces of the world.

Moss asked that citizens become aware that they deserve an honest government, and that they also deserve the right to have leaders in government who are above reproach in their honesty of dealing.

Memorial day services here Sunday were attended by a large audience, although not as large as in some former years. Services began with a formal march to the outdoor amphitheatre. In the line of march were the Ord high school band, the national colors and color guard, and members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion. As in former years, the services were in charge of the two organizations.

The rites, in addition to the address by Moss, included brief ceremonies by the Ladies of the G.A.R. and the Auxiliaries of the Legion and VFW. Rev. Allan Strong gave the prayer, using as a theme, Kipling's "Let Us Forget."

A firing squad of the VFW and Legion gave the salute to the dead and "Taps" ended the ceremony.

Bill Philbrick, 48, Dies Suddenly of Heart Attack

Body Found Monday in Bedroom of Farm Home North of Ord.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the Ord Methodist church for William Everett "Bill" Philbrick, with Rev. Walter Grantham of Scotia conducting the last rites.

Miss Valborg Aagaard and Jim Aagaard sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Rock of Ages," accompanied by Mrs. Orin Kellison.

Burial was in the Ord city cemetery. Pallbearers were Richard Albert, Fred Clark, Tom Williams, William Darges, Mart Beran and Howard Bodyfield. Honorary pallbearers were Lee Mulligan, Frank Kasal, Paul Madsen, Lind Nelson, Albert Wilson and Herschel McGrew.

For many years Mr. Philbrick had suffered from a heart ailment which curtailed his activities greatly but he seemed in good health and spirits Saturday evening when he left Ord friends after a game of pool to drive to his home. At 10:30 Sunday morning his sister Della, going to his bedroom to call him for breakfast, found the body on the floor, still fully dressed. Evidently he was suddenly stricken after he reached his bedroom and before he could retire for the night. Others in the house heard no unusual cries or sounds.

His cheerful manner, readiness to talk, a wide interest in sports, especially baseball, and love for traveling helped him to make friends far and wide.

Bill Philbrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Philbrick, was born August 4, 1902, and died at the age of 48 years, 8 months and 23 days.

He attended Dry Cedar grade school and Ericson high school. It was during the years from 1916 to 1921 that Bill was stricken with inflammatory rheumatism, confining him to his bed for a total of 14 months and leaving him with a heart condition that caused his death.

Bill has lived with his parents on farms near Ericson and North Loup and the past six years he lived on a farm north of Ord.

Left to mourn are his parents, Mrs. and Mr. Dave Philbrick, three sisters, Mrs. Sadie Robinson of Reseda, Calif.; Mrs. Helen Ackles and Della Philbrick of Ord; one brother, Ray, of Ericson and his fiancée, Agnes Manchester, of North Loup.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

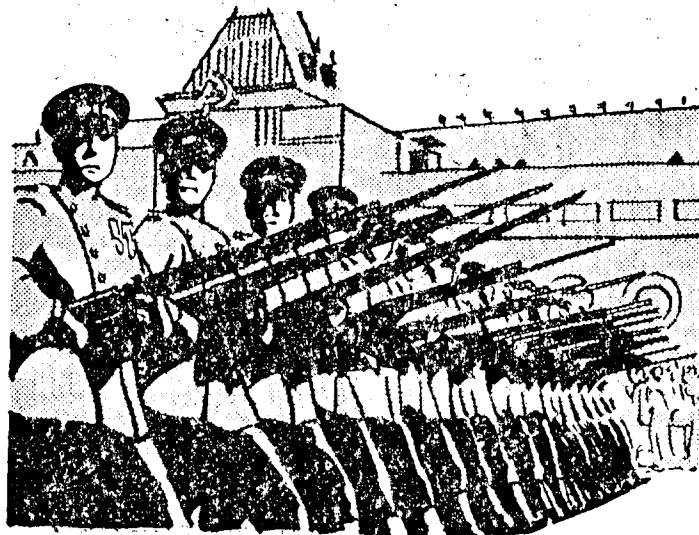

Q: How can one save money building a house?

A: A house you build with your own hands costs half as much as one you have built to order, according to Paul Corey in a condensed article from his book, "Homemade House." In the past 20 years Corey and his wife have built, by their own labor, and without any previous building experience, four attractive, livable houses. Corey makes the work sound like fun. He claims that previous experience and skill are not the prerequisites to building a homemade house; all you need is the real desire for a home and the ability to plan and work.

Q: How smart can a dog be?

A: T. H. Tracy in a condensed story from his "Book of the Poodle" tells us that there is little truth in the story of the actor who played cards with his dog, yet didn't believe the canine smart because it brought down a dining room table and kitchen drainboard without a single error. This poodle was a paiter entertainer, a hunter and a watchman and romped off with top dog honors in all-breed shows throughout the country.

Q: Why isn't Stalin assassinated?

A: No one gets the chance, according to Ellsworth Raymond, in his American Magazine article which explains the rotated guard under which no sentry knows his station in advance of taking it. Streets are cleared when Stalin's armed motorcade rolls by; visitors, even high Red officials, are searched, and men, planes and equipment on occasions of Red Square parades are scrupulously disarmed. Troops may have guns but no ammunition, Raymond says.

Q: Do American Indians have a sense of humor?

A: In an article in The Survey, Joseph Stoker tells of an official politician who became an Indian. Agency superintendent, and asked his Indian charges the meaning of the name they had given him, "It means," the Indians explained, solemnly, "The Man Who Scratches His Belly When He Walks." Affronted and indignant the disliked agent demanded it be changed, so the Indians obliged with another, which when translated meant: "The Man Who Does Not Scratch His Belly When He Walks."

No Damage Done by Magpies Here

The magpie, a slender, long-tailed black and white bird seen in pastures and around buildings is becoming a real nuisance in Custer County, reports the Custer County Chief. They feed mostly on carrion and in this way often spread disease. They also get baby chicks and game bird nests. They often kill baby calves by picking holes in their backs or picking at the brands on cattle until they bleed.

During the big snow storm of 1949, several reports came in of cattle that were marooned in snow-banks having to be killed because magpies had eaten holes in their backs. True, these birds eat some insects but this is only a minor portion of their diet.

Although reports of damage have come from other counties, County Agent C. C. Dale stated Monday, "As far as I know there hasn't been any damage here and I hope there won't be."

Magpies nest in low trees or shrubs by building a house of twigs and small sticks about the size of a bushel basket, usually containing a roof and two openings.

Fifteen years ago there were only a few colonies of these birds in the county, but today they may be found in almost any clump of trees. Destroying the nests at this time of year is a good way to control them and if everybody would do this within the next few weeks it would get rid of a lot of young ones and discourage their nesting again.

Ord, St. Paul, Rained Out Wednesday Eve.

The Ord Mustangs had a good game started against St. Paul on the latter's field Wednesday evening but in the second inning umpire Jack Hulseisen called time when a rain swept the field, later developing into a 5 inch downpour. If weather and field conditions permit the game will be played off at St. Paul, Friday evening of this week.

In Ord's half of the first inning Finley and Novosad struck out, Bill Dugan hit safely through second and Dilla fouled out to end the inning. In the bottom half Beasley struck out 3 St. Paul batters in a row.

Dugan will be at shortstop for Ord hereafter, which permits Manager Johnson to send Bud Novosad to 2nd, his natural position.

In the only other Mid-Nebraska Nite league game played Wednesday Loup City beat Shelton 5 to 0, getting 10 hits off Ellis while Krueger was limiting Shelton batsmen to 2. Each team made 2 errors. Krueger hit a home run for Loup City in the second inning. The Havanna-Wood River game was rained out.

Dedicated to Father

Our dear husband, precious father Has laid down this earthly life And has gone to be with Jesus, where there is no sin and strife For beyond this world of trouble Where the blessed angels stay And where none grow old and feeble And no head is ever gray. He was kind to all his children, To his friends and neighbors, too; Had for them a deep compassion, As true hearted Christians do. Loved to bless them with his presence, With his prayers and helpful deeds, With his words of blessed council, With his principles and creeds. Now that he has gone from us, How we miss his friendly face, Miss the sunshine of his presence, And his Christian love and grace. But we do not mourn his going, As we would if hope were dead; For he told us on departing, That for death he had no dread. Since his faith and hope were anchored In the atonement Jesus made. Some bright day we'll meet, dear father, Up above this world of fear, Where no death can bring bereavement And no eyes are dim with tears, There to praise our Lord and Master Where the praises never cease, And where sin can never enter To molest our perfect peace.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks to the many friends who in any way assisted us during the illness and after the death of our husband and father.

VFW Midgets Trip Loup City, 8 to 7

The Ord VFW Midgets tripped Loup City Midgets 8 to 7 in a hotly contested 7 inning game on the local diamond Wednesday afternoon.

The Ord Midgets took an early lead but Loup City knotted the count in the 5th. A three bagger by Slobazewski in the last of the seventh, who scored on a single by Falter, ended the game.

Gdanitz of Loup City hit the single home run of the game and was awarded a case of Wheaties. Falter won seven innings on the mound for Ord.

Next Sunday will see both the Ord VFW Midgets and American Legion teams in action in a double header against the St. Paul midgets and Legion teams at St. Paul.

Walleye Fishing Good at Maloney

Lincoln, Neb. — Probably the most outstanding fishing of 1951 was reported at Maloney lake last week. Leo Jensen, reporting warden, said walleye fishing was the best in years at Maloney. Fishing for all other species was good.

From Jensen's report it appeared that almost every angler was catching fish—and large fish. H. C. Stancliff of North Platte took a 10-pound, 5-ounce walleye, Mrs. Leonard Laywer of North Platte a 19-pound, 8-ounce catfish, John Peters of Omaha a 6 1/2-pound rainbow, A. W. Anderson of North Platte a 14-pound northern pike and John R. Moore, also of North Platte, 10 white bass and a crappie.

Stancliff's walleye was the second largest walleye ever reported at the state. The 19-pound record walleye was 10 pounds but since that time a 11-pound walleye was taken and accepted as the new Nebraska record.

The state record for northern pike was tied by O. D. Moon of Sterling, Colo. Moon landed a 25-pounder while fishing in McCannaughy, the same place the record 26-pounder was caught two years ago.

Following is a list of good fishing waters as reported by the district fishing wardens last week: Sand pits north of Minden (black bass, bullheads, perch), Republican river (catfish), McCannaughy (white bass, bullheads, trout, catfish, walleye), Crystal lake (crappie, carp), Dewey lake (crappie, bullheads), Trout lake (black bass, bullheads, bluegill), Shell lake (crappie, bullheads, perch), Willow lake (bullheads), Kimball reservoirs (black bass, crappie, trout), Lake Minatare (northern pike, walleye).

Cub Scouts Hold Circus

With acts ranging through tight rope walkers, wild animal trainers, and the world's only living two-headed boy, Cub Scouts of Ord presented a circus for enthusiastic parents at their regular pack meeting Wednesday evening.

All three dens participated in the circus theme which had side shows, a midway of skill games, and refreshment stands in addition to the main event and grand parade.

Cubs will not suspend activities for the summer but will "take it easy" for the vacation months. Instead of regular cub lessons and meetings, emphasis will be on hikes, picnics and camping.

Twin members of the Cub pack, Dennis and Donald Vasicek, were given their Webelos of graduation Wednesday night and were welcomed into the ranks of the Ord Boy Scout troop. Adolph Sevensker, Cub Master, and Merritt Littrell, assistant Scout Master, were in charge of the graduation ceremony.

Mustangs Drop 4-2 Decision Wednesday to Shelton Colts

Webben's 8th Inning Homer Gave Win to Ord's Opponents.

The Ord Mustangs played a good game against Shelton Wednesday night on the Shelton field, leading 1 to 0 from the second inning until the sixth and then giving the score at 2-2 in the top half of the eighth, but Bill Beasley made the fatal mistake of strooving one for Webben, and the result was a 500 foot homer that scored Hadenfeldt ahead of him and gave the game to Shelton by a 4 to 2 score.

Beasley went the route for Ord, striking out 14 and giving up only 5 hits, but Bud Ellis was almost equally effective for Shelton as he whiffed 10 and allowed 7 hits.

Jack Koll scored Ord's first run when he was safe on a fielder's choice, went to third on a hit by Finley, and scored on Nelson's brounder to second. In the sixth Shelton used 3 hits, a walk and an error by Bud Novosad to send two men across the plate and take the lead.

Ord tied it up in the 8th. In this frame Koll struck out but Finley got a blooper over short for a safety. Then Verlin Smith, out in as a pinch hitter for Nelson, struck out, but Manager R. Johnson, pinch hitting for Philbrick, singled to advance him to third. Beasley almost knocked the Shelton pitcher's leg off with a hard smash through the box and Finley scored but Johnson trying to score from 1st, was cut off at the plate.

In the 8th, after Brady fanned, Hadenfeldt singled and Webben homered to make the score 4 to 2. The Mustangs went down in order in the 9th and the game ended that way.

Manager Johnson had to use a makeshift line-up in this game due to the absence of Rolfe Moore and Dan Dilla. Jack Koll took over at second and did a nifty job, handling four ground balls without a bobble but he was weak at the plate—something shared in by other Ord players. Collins and Vol Beran, recently returned from Peru Normal, divided Dilla's outfield job but neither got a fielding chance and neither got a hit.

Bud Novosad, at shortstop, booted two and was out of position on a pop-up bunt which went over Beasley's head as he rushed in to field a ground bunt, the ball landing safely in front of Novosad for an infield hit with an important run scoring on what should have been a double play.

Manager Johnson proved with his pinch hit that he retained his old batting ability and probably he should be in the line-up more of the time.

Decoration Day.

The first printed account of the observance of Decoration Day appeared in the Ord Weekly Quiz for July 4, 1886. This may seem a little late for such a report, but it was nothing unusual to print items as much as a month old then. The local papers had little or no competition from dailies, and the public was glad to get the news whenever the editor had the room and the time to print it. It is probable that other reports were printed in former years, and it is known that many celebrations were held in observance of Decoration Day in the early history of the country and state. The object of the day then was to decorate the graves of the soldier dead, especially of the Civil war and of the Northern armies. The following is the story of that early event as it appeared in the Quiz:

"A large concourse of people assembled on Monday to witness the decoration ceremonies. The exercises were begun at the band stand, the meeting presided over by Capt. S. H. Webster. Prayer was offered by D. N. McCord, chaplain, after which Rev. George O. Ferguson delivered a splendid sermon which everyone pronounced the best speech of the kind ever delivered in Ord.

"A selected poem was read by W. A. Witherspoon, and the little folks sang 'The Star Spangled Banner' which was followed by a procession to decorate the grave of the one soldier buried there. The Memorial sermon was preached on Sunday, the day preceding, by Rev. George O. Ferguson of the Methodist church.

"The Webster mentioned above was Captain S. H. Webster, who at the time was commander of Foot Post No. 40, Grand Army of the Republic, located at Ord, and M. E. Getter, who recently went to his reward at Jujungs, Calif., was the adjutant. Only a few years later, in 1890, Capt. Webster left for the Indian wars with his company of the National Guard.

It is a peculiar thing that a custom first started out by the women of the South in memory of their dead heroes of the war, should later turn into a Northern observance, when John A. Logan, then national commander of the G.A.R., in 1868 proclaimed May 30 as the official memorial day. For a long time the southern states refused to recognize this day, but it is now nationally observed.

Since that day in 1886 the people of the Ord territory have gone to the cemetery once each year to decorate the increasing number of graves. The last of the members of the G.A.R. has long been laid to rest in Ord, but the custom now includes the casualties from the two more recent wars, as well as the decorating of the graves of all loved ones gone before.

The contrast between that first Decoration Day observance and those held this year is rather startling. In those early days there were very few tame flowers and the people went into the fields and meadows and gathered wild flowers which to decorate. Few if any tame flowers were used, for there were few to be had. This year there were an abundance of lovely tame flowers growing in every yard.

The little folks sang the "Star Spangled Banner." That was really a tough assignment for the kids, when we consider that not one person in a dozen has range enough to handle the lyrics. This year in most observances the young people played the national air, bands that received their training in music in our public schools.

In those days people did not take up music at an early age, and the bands and orchestras were made up of people of mature years, with the youngster the exception rather than the rule. Also, the gorgeous costumes of the musicians would have been a distinct shock to the pioneers, in a day when none but military uniforms were worn.

Then the program preceding the march to the cemetery was held from the band stand, which in those days stood at the southwest corner of the square. At the end of the program all who desired fell in line, doubtless behind the men in uniform, and marched all the way out to the cemetery. The route of march then led through the north part of town near the Catholic church, out past the Joe Prince place, then west to the southeast gate of the cemetery, the only gate there was then (if there was any gate).

For many years the program at the Ord cemetery has been held in one of the finest natural amphitheaters in the country, with a public address system carrying the words of the speakers and the music of the band to all parts of the cemetery. The band often marches out from the high school, through the splendid Bussell park that was a cow pasture then, and beneath towering trees where in that day there were no trees at all except the scrubby willows growing along Dane creek. Perhaps it does not occur to those who pass through the fine park on the way to the cemetery, or who may pause to eat a lunch beneath those fine trees, that the park was the gift of Uncle Jimmie Bussell, whose body now rests in the Ord cemetery. Part of our heritage is this park, his gift, made beautiful by the labor of those who followed him, and still tended by one of the last of the pioneers of Ord.

In the rush of making a living it is good for us to pause, once each year, to consider how much we owe to those who have gone before. Comparisons are so futile. How can we compare the lives we live today with the rough and simple life of the pioneer? The least we can do is to acknowledge a full measure of respect for those who made it possible for us to live as we do today. Decoration is the day for us to put our noble thoughts into action.

Inflamy Is Fleeting.

Ten years ago there died at Doorn, Holland, a broken old man. Because, when he could not do otherwise, he became resigned to his fate, William Hohenzollern is usually remembered as a mellow old man, neither haughty nor austere. That is some description to be given to the once haughty war lord of Imperial Germany.

It is now six years since Hitler went to his end in a cellar where he had hoped to be safe from the invading conqueror. It is six years since the body of the small but chesty Mussolini (rotator of the balcony) hung in the market place for all who came that way to see and take warning of the fate that always comes to those who would trample the rights of their fellow men.

In this world a man lives just about as long for his misdeeds as another man lives for his good deeds. Had the Kaiser or Hitler succeeded in their efforts to dominate Europe, their names would have found a place among the immortals of history. They kept Europe in a turmoil for many years each, yet today their names are almost forgotten.

Today another man, or group of men, is embarked on a rule the world or ruin policy. They are determined to gain control of the whole world, by peaceful means, if possible, by force if necessary. They will not stop until compelled to do so by force of arms. That day will come to Joe, as it always has and always will come to men who try to rule the world. No man has ever stifled completely the desire for liberty in the hearts of mankind.

Compared with Stalin, Hitler, had much to recommend him, and it is also true that Hitler suffers by comparison with William Hohenzollern. Thus we find that each dictator has become just a little more ruthless than the man he followed. But they are alike in one respect. They will occupy a very small space indeed when the history of eternity is written.

++ Something Different ++

Quite a few lucky Ord people, among county people, too, have been enjoying some wonderful meals of channel catfish, freshly caught and dressed from our North Loup river, quickly fried to a luscious golden color fore and aft, and devoured with delight—almost quicker than I can write about it!

Our catfish have none of that muddy taste that catfish have so many times, when caught in bigger, muddier streams.

It has got so the fishermen are about ready to mortgage their homes to get hold of some frogs or big minnows for bait.

It seems the catfish are a little choosier.

Perhaps that's why they're so tasty!

Come now the worms and bugs for their spring feasts?

Out at the park the beautiful archway of trees that I keep telling you about, over the drive, is badly threatened by an infestation of tent caterpillars.

A few mosquitoes are on the prowl.

A few leaves of fancy flowers are curling up and needing spraying.

Dandelions are being dug, sprayed, tormented in one way or another by most everyone, the past couple of weeks.

Spring, beautiful spring, like most everything else, has her wormy side.

Out at the cemetery Guy Burrows is working an impossible number of hours in the day in an effort to meet a Memorial Day deadline (no pun intended here), with every blade of grass just as he wants it. He is mowing madly, clipping and trimming.

Out at the park Bud is burning, weeding, tractoring, hauling and mowing, trying his best, with his helpers, to put the best possible face on Bussell Park for its big opening day.

Big crowds are expected at the park for Memorial Day, to picnic and to play. To play or to watch, golf, tennis, horseshoes, baseball between nidget teams.

To swim in the newly opened pool, where Manager Littrell and his aides are tarring and swabbing, filling and clearing, hurrying for the hordes of kids who are sure to overflow the pool that first day, whether the weather is hot or cold! (Temperature is something youngsters know nothing about, until informed by some bossy adult!)

Bands are gonna play, two of 'em. One of them ours, about one o'clock, after the band and their families have picnicked together. Mr. Nelson and his able Ord crew, in other words, who will also play for the Memorial Day ceremonial in the morning, the marching and what-not.

One of the bands will be the CooStock group, trained by Glen Amble, and said to be very capable. We'll now have a chance to hear them.

Then, baseball, too. Midgets, is it? The most fun of all to watch, and they play the hardest, so don't miss their game at 2:30 p.m.

Many out-of-towners will golf. There will be some excellent golf, which you may watch free. In fact, everything is free. Except the pool. You must pay for your swimming.

King Solomon's Mines: That was the name of the motion picture the Mrs. and I had the doubtful pleasure of seeing recently. I hardly know whether to say I was disappointed or not. I had already figured that it was greatly over-advertised, and it was. From the spectacle point of view it was all that could be desired, but the African veldt does not lend itself as well to colored pictures as many other places do. Except for the necessary flora and fauna, much better scenery could have been found right here in the good old Ord.

I knew something was wrong when they advertised Deborah Kerr (pronounced Carr, if you please) as leading lady. She did her best, but the trouble is that there was no woman in the picture. The motion picture people evidently figured that it would not do to put on a picture exactly as that master of English, H. Rider Haggard, wrote it. In giving his reasons for writing the book, the author says: "Fourth reason and last: Because I am going to tell the strangest story that I know of. It may seem a queer thing to say that, especially considering that there is no woman in it—"

Personally I see no sense in putting a woman into one of the grandest adventure stories ever written when the author did not think it necessary to put one in. As well argue that "Treasure Island" would need a woman and a love affair. That was one of the finest color films I have ever seen, and it didn't take a skirt to put it across. If they had to have a love affair, why have Allen Quatermain as the lover? He was a widower, it is true, but he had nothing to do with the women in any of the Haggard stories in which he appears.

Quatermain, the comparatively insignificant member of the cast, is played up, while Sir Henry Curtis, the hero, is given so small a part that he hardly counts at all. Finally, to save space, I sup-kind had never shaved, we might not have such heavy beards today. Whiskers are like dandelions and a thousand other weeds that pester humanity, the more they are cut off, the more and heavier they grow. The Indian never shaves, and the Indian never has enough whiskers to bother him much. But, so long as there are manufacturers of safety razors and face lotions mankind is doomed to torture himself several times every week.

To change the subject, the rain let up the first of the week, and we jumped on our big garden with all six feet. We did so because the garden needed working, and also, we had plans for a week-end at Lake Ericson. In fact, we had planned for a full week, but we soon saw that so much time taken out in the spring would put us too far behind with the garden, and the garden has to come first. If we don't take care of it, it won't feed us later on. I note we are not the only people who are working overtime to get caught up with the work. The farmers are using every daylight hour in the fields with their tractors, and some of them are using their headlights and working far into the night.

One of the usually unconsidered advantages of tractor farming is the fact that the tractor can go on hours the next day after day, and never get tired or have to stop to be fed. The feeding is a short operation. It don't take long to put in a few gallons of fuel and what water is needed, and the tractor is ready to go right on. In the old days the farmer usually could waste out and horses, but these days the tractor is just as fresh in the evening as it was at the start of the day, and the farmer is worn out. Tractor farming may be easier than the old way, but I fail to see it, what with the average farmer farming about three or four times as much ground as they farmed in the old days.

Another real advantage is the fact that when the emergency comes as it did because of the rains this spring, it is possible to get a lot of work done in a short time. Corn put in immediately after the ground is prepared will keep well ahead of the weeds and grass. Most farmers are taking advantage of this fact, and are drilling their corn instead of using the old and now cumbersome checkrow. It saves time in planting and it also saves time in cultivating to have all the work done in the same direction.

He was preceded in death by one son, Edward, and a daughter. He is survived by his wife, Rose of Ord, a son, Leo, and a daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Gillen, both of Lincoln; a step-daughter, Hope Rott, of Spalding; two brothers, James of Loup City, and Frank Recently Ray Drawbridge had another birthday and Ray and Annie reached another milestone in their married life. In honor of the occasion all the children and grandchildren and other relatives got together at the Drawbridge home in North Loup. They had a big family dinner and everybody had a wonderful time. That is one of the many things that we can have and enjoy here in America, something that we know we could not have and enjoy in a totalitarian country. In the first place, under the present system in Russia, family life is broken up early, the children are educated away from home, their work often takes them hundreds of miles from the place of their birth, and all too often they never are given the opportunity of seeing each other again. The Drawbridge reunion is typical of thousands of such occasions that are being held from time to time all over America. It will always be, so long as the government is built from the bottom up. Let us keep it that way.

He also gives me the following news item: "Rita came back to this country, leaving her Alley Khan—says she prefers to live here, where there are modern ones." I am inclined to the opinion that this young man ruined a perfectly good writer by going into the construction business. This way he's not so good on construction and doesn't have time for writing. Anyway, I should be thankful that he gives me something to write about from time to time.

Anton Bartunek, third child of Joseph and Katherine Bartunek, was born May 8, 1873, in Czechoslovakia, and died suddenly on the streets of Ord, May 23, 1951, at the age of 78 years and 15 days.

In 1892, at the age of 9 years, the Bartunek family migrated to America, coming directly to St. Paul, Nebr. Anton's older brother, Joe had settled at Farwell, and soon thereafter the family homesteaded at Wolbach.

William Halsey Schultz, Sr.
William Halsey Schultz, Sr., was born Jan. 10, 1856 to John Deniston and Martha Phillips Schultz, in Ogle county, Ill. When about 12 years of age, his family moved to Marshall county, Iowa where he grew to manhood. Mr. Schultz came to North Loup, Neb., in 1890, bought a farm in Barker District 3, joining his brother Clint. He married Jennie B. Preston Jan. 10, 1894. Four children were born to them: Ruby McMillan, Torrance, Calif., Olive Milligan, Los Angeles, Calif., Halsey, Omaha and Duane, Torrance, Calif.

He accepted our Heavenly Father's way of redemption from sin through the atonement at Calvary and became a member of the Body of Christ. He with his family worshipped at the Friends' Church in North Loup, as long as it existed, then dividing his interest and contributions between the Baptist and Methodist churches in North Loup, and not being able to attend services for some time, he listened to sermons over the radio. He was a faithful husband and father trying to set a good example for his children and rear them in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. His last audible prayer was for them.

When You Fed GOOCH'S BEST
Last Spring!

Here's the proof! Last spring, 1,107 GOOCH feeders over a 10-state area kept an 8-week growth record on 315,783 baby chicks. At 8 weeks there remained 306,155 sturdy, well-developed birds... a livability of 96.90. The average 8-week weight of all the birds was 2,007 pounds. This was the highest livability and fastest chick growth and development ever recorded by these poultry raisers! Yet these outstanding results were achieved at an amazingly low feed cost—at a feed efficiency of 3.21!—just over three pounds of GOOCH'S BEST and farm grains for every pound of live bird. In view of these accurate, verified figures, can you afford not to feed GOOCH'S BEST?

Get your supply of feeder-proved GOOCH'S BEST today!
