Five Dollars a year, in advance, when sent by mail, or only Ten Cents a week when delivered by carriers.

ALL of the news and miscellany of our month morning sheet also appears simultaneously in this, the cheap edition. We mention this because some portion of the matter is omitted. The cheap edition contains all the news of the day up to the very hour of going to press, all the river and commercial news, all the new advertisements, and for the quantity and quality of matter it contains, is beyond question the cheapest paper in the West.

Shakespeare a Human. This is an age of infidelity. Our belief in everything is being shaken. There is no such thing as a plurality of worlds, argue some people, and with great force. We are not all the descendants of Adam and Eve, others stoutly contend. Washington was not a good man, say many heretics, who acknowledge his greatness. And so on, through endless chapters of incredulity in old, time-honored beliefs.

The latest assumption concerns the Bard of Avon—the almost divine Shakespeare. A lady, one Miss Bacon, has taken upon herself a mission to prove to the world that Shakespeare was a myth, a man of straw, whose name was used to further the dramatic productions of men of eminent abilities in other departments of literature, in law and in statesmanship. Miss Bacon assumes, and we learn from the New York Courier and Enquirer, that it was impossible, absolutely and utterly impossible, for a man with the limited advantages of Shakespeare's early life, to write thirty-seven plays, exhibiting the marvellous knowledge of men and things, which the plays attributed to him do exhibit. Such a series of performances, she urges, by such a man, would be a series of miracles; and had any man the power to perform the half of them, he would have become one of the most prominent men of his day, and we should have known all about him, instead of having to grope and burrow for a very few personal traits and anecdotes of his life, as we have had to do with regard to William Shakespeare.

Miss Bacon's theory is, that Shakespeare was a dramatic Joe Miller; a good-natured, inoffensive person, who would consent to bear the responsibility of the works attributed to him, and not presume upon the factitious reputation which they brought him. Shakespeare's plays, according to Miss Bacon, were written by Lord Bacon, Sir Walter Raleigh, and one or two others, but chiefly by the former, and she has spent a great deal of time in fruiting a very ingenious and elaborate argument in support of her theory.

Lecture To-Night—Poetry and Its Influence. It has been already announced that Mr. Edward Wm. Johnson, of Virginia, will lecture this evening before the Young Men's Christian Association, in the house of worship of the Second Presbyterian church, Third street, between Green and Walnut.

The subject of Mr. Johnson's lecture is "Poetry and its Influence," a theme that this able writer is very capable of handling in a masterly manner, of close analytical powers, free fancy, keen insight for the beautiful, and a style that possesses many elements of the poetical. Mr. Johnson fails to make an attractive and profitable lecture.

Mansion House, Frankfort. A friend who journeyed at this hotel a few days last week, desires us to say that it is one of the very best kept public houses in the State, and is in every way deserving a liberal patronage. It is in excellent order, everything about it being nice, neat and clean, and Messrs. B. & T. Luckett, the proprietors, are courteous, attentive, and obliging gentlemen, who have a happy knack of making their guests feel entirely at home while in their house.

Excuse Us. Mr. Willis G. Hughes, of Union, who has always been one of the staunchest Whigs in Kentucky, although residing in the Egypt of Loco-focoism, was made a Democrat in the Courier of yesterday by a lapsus penae. We beg his pardon for thus classifying his political sentiments. Mr. H. has, however, seen Sam, and that individual is seriously inclined to send him to Congress.

The House of Refuge. The corporators of the House of Refuge are requested to meet at the office of Boone & Pennekaher, this evening, (January 30th,) at early gas lighting. The object is a conference with the committee appointed to draft by-laws, regulations, &c.

Dyspepsia. Persons afflicted with dyspepsia would do well to avail themselves of Hostetter's celebrated Stomach Bitters. Certainly if the immense sales of an article is an evidence of its efficacy, the above hints have far preceded anything of the kind ever yet produced.

Arkness High School. It will be seen by the notice in another column that the twelfth session of this well conducted and deservedly popular institution will commence on Monday next. It is a school that does credit to Louisville, and we hope it may long continue to prosper.

Jessie Deane Married. The profession of the New Orleans Pygmy, concerning the marriage of Miss Jessie Deane, the celebrated actress, has been confirmed. A dispatch from Mobile states that she was married Wednesday, January 24th, to Dr. Hayne, of South Carolina.

Arrived. The Rev. Isaac J. Roberts, accompanied by his wife and child, for many years a Baptist missionary to China, arrived in New York from Shanghai, last Wednesday. Mrs. Roberts is the daughter of a farmer in Fayette county, in this State.

Postponement. Owing to delays in getting the illustrated catalogue ready for circulation, Mr. Derby has been obliged to postpone the annual distribution until the 28th of February, when it will positively take place.

Thanks. The messenger of Adams Express Company continues to favor us with Cincinnati papers. We are indebted to Mr. Tryon of the American Express Company, for late California papers.

Trains Delayed. The various railroad trains coming to the city, were behind time yesterday, both morning and evening. The snow and ice upon the rail, retarded their progress.

The Jeffersonville Railroad Company offers strong inducements to persons shipping goods to or from the East by their road. The route is expeditious, and the rates reasonable. Two freight trains leave Jeffersonville every morning—one at 4 and the other at 6:35 o'clock.

Failure to Indemnify. The Terre Haute Journal says that there is quite a gratifying revival going on in the various religious denominations of that place. More than eighty persons have united with the Methodist church alone.

The Tom Vaine Celebration Yesterday. The memory of that godless, yet talented apostle of free-thinking, liberty, and atheism, was yesterday publicly commemorated in Louisville, for the first time. A long procession of several hundred persons paraded the streets, preceded by music and marshaled by an elegantly equipped gentleman on horse-back. The members of the Turn-Verein arrayed in their linen costume, headed the procession, and presented a chilling appearance upon so wintry a day. Foremost of all was borne a beautiful star-spangled banner, followed by Swis, Bavarian, and French flags.

Having repaired to Apollo Hall, there was an abundance of drinking and speechifying. Vaine's memory was toasted in lager-beer and the Voltaire was smoked over in Rhenish wine. The speeches were of the fiery, red-republican and leveling school. Human institutions, as they exist, were sneered at, and the reverence for divine things scoffed at.

We believe that Louisville has never before witnessed so public a demonstration of infidelity. The religious sentiment of the majority of our citizens was sensibly shocked at this flaring and heaven offending procession. While acknowledging the right of every one to believe as he may choose, it was said to witness so portentous an array of men, who, without the influences of the Bible and its precepts, are almost entirely oblivious to the distinctions of right and wrong. Of course the entire affair was made up of the foreign element of our population. The free-thinkers are chiefly German; those people being the peculiar advocates of skepticism in matters of religion.

A Banker Hires in Effigy—Exclamation at Versailles. The branch of the Commercial Bank of Kentucky, located at Versailles, Woodford county, has been for several months past greatly embarrassed by the constant and heavy drafts of specie made by Mr. Barclay, a Lexington banker, upon its vault. It was a custom with that gentleman to collect all the notes payable at the Versailles branch, and present them at the counter for redemption. This drain upon the bullion of the bank required very skillful financing on the part of its officers to prevent a collapse, and as a consequence it was impossible for the institution to afford merchants, farmers and tradesmen, the desired discounts and other monetary facilities.

Thinking that this draw-gam had been played efficiently, the citizens of Versailles met together on Saturday, passed resolutions denouncing the conduct of Barclay, and then proceeded to hang him in effigy.

The indignation people also promised to make summary work with Barclay, or his clerks, if either ever again molested the vault of their bank. We presume that Mr. B. will henceforth desist trading in Commercial Bank paper.

Death of Col. Martin. We regret that it is our duty to announce the death of that well known newspaper writer, Col. Martin, who died in Newport, Saturday afternoon aged forty years. He was a printer by trade—a reporter by intuition and taste. At the former business he labored assiduously until he was fully developed as the first local editor of the West. In Cincinnati, at the outset of the Commercial, he became its city reporter, contributing by his sprightly paragraphs more than any one else to render that paper popular and give it the currency it now possesses. Col. Martin was indeed the builder-up of the Commercial, and its mainstay during a number of years. His town items, his police reports, his river news were all new things in this latitude when he first essayed them in that paper. How well the public appreciated them is testified to by the attention which was paid those departments in all our papers.

In private life, Col. Martin was a friend, sincere and manly. In his public newspaper life he was candid and outspoken. Peace to his manes. After life's fitful fever may he sleep well.

Necessaries of Life Advancing. The most unpleasant, and that which promises to be the most disastrous result, from the intense degree of cold now being felt, is the advance made in the prices of the different necessaries of life. Coal has already gone up two cents per bushel, holders yesterday demanding sixteen cents. As the weather grows colder, and the suffering of the poor become severer, the coal dealers will further increase the price of fuel.

Corn, hay, oats and similar articles have an upward tendency, consequent upon the threatened suspension of navigation. But perhaps the most serious evil growing out of the late freeze is the appreciation upon the hen-furture market. Eggs are really in reality now, and a dozen cannot be had for less than twenty cents. On Saturday a weather-wise speculator bought up all the eggs in the market at fifteen cents per dozen, and is now selling them at twenty cents—quite a profitable investment, as must be acknowledged.

The Mail. We had no Eastern mail by the railroad yesterday, or rather none was received in the city, although the mail reached Jeffersonville, from which place it was not removed—the weather being too inclement, we suppose, for the delicate organs of the agent to allow him to venture out.

Adams' Express Messenger, however, was not delayed by any such trivial cause. Finding it impossible to cross the river at Jeffersonville, he came around by New Albany with his packages, and reached here in good time. Why cannot the government calculate private enterprise.

We are indeed glad to see the young friend, Eugene Bradley, of the Lexington cars, for a Cincinnati paper of yesterday. This was delivered to us last night in advance of the mail or any other conveyance, and came by Wood-Allen's train to Lexington, thence to this city by way of Frankfort.

It is not singular that half of Kentucky can be traveled over, and two or three hours spent in Lexington, and yet papers brought us in advance of any other route. Uncle Sam must look to speed and promptitude in the transmission of his mail matter.

Mr. C. C. Spencer sells this morning at 10 o'clock at auction rooms, a large lot of mahogany and other furniture, piano, glassware, groceries, liquors and India rubber goods; also a 7 o'clock P. M., a large collection of medical, law, theological, classical books and physicians' instruments. Law and medical students, as well as merchants will bear these sales in mind.

The special attention of clothing merchants is called to the annual sale of Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co., this morning, Tuesday, at their auction room. They sell by order of assignment, on four months credit, an invoice of heavy cloth and blanket overcoats. Also, for each, an invoice of gentlemen's furnishing goods, with a line of coat buttons.

"The Child's Faith in God, or the Poor Widow," is the title of a beautiful piece of music just published by the enterprising house of Mr. D. P. Fatus, Main street, to whom we are indebted for a copy. It is dedicated to Mrs. C. A. Withers, of Covington, and the words are by Rev. F. L. Hawke, D. D.

Failure to Indemnify. J. L. Abernathy, dry goods merchant of Rushville, Indiana, is announced by the Republican to $18,000.78. His schedule of credits amount to $17,000.40, of which $10,000 is referred to his assignees.

BURGLARY, LARCENY, &c. R. K. Calvert was arrested a few days since in McLean county, Ky., and charged with all of the above offences. On the 19th the case was examined before Justices Landrum and Little, whereupon the prisoner was held to answer at the next circuit, in the penalty of $500. The counsel for the prosecution were Judge Singleton, of McLean, and Chas. Eaves, of Muhlenburg; for the defense, A. J. Harrison, of Calhoun, and Judge Ricketts, of Greenville.

Virgilia. The Washington Sentinel of Thursday morning, states that the Grand Juror, known-Nothing, recently in session at Candia, nominated or expressed a preference for James P. Strouther as a candidate for membership of Virginia.

SEABOARD ADVERTISED TO LEAVE THIS DAY

FOR PARTICULARS SEE ADVERTISEMENTS. JACOB STRADER, Steamship Agent, Cincinnati, Ohio. EMPIRE, Monday, New Orleans. IRISHMAN, Wednesday, New Orleans. LANDIS, Wednesday, New Orleans. J. H. HARRIS, Wednesday, New Orleans. MONARCH, Wednesday, New Orleans.

THE RIVER—NAVIGATION SUSPENDED BY ICE. The river was falling yesterday, with less than a half foot water in the canal, and the river full of floating ice above the falls, and navigation entirely suspended for ascending boats. The weather is exceedingly cold, with a prospect that by this morning the river will be entirely blocked by ice at all points above this city.

The mailboat Jacob Strader made no effort whatever to start to Cincinnati yesterday morning, but paid off her crew and laid up. About the same time a despatch was received from Cincinnati, announcing that the river was blocked with ice, and navigation above that point entirely suspended. The same despatch stated that the mailboat Telegraph No. 3 had been laid up, and would not start to Louisville until the weather moderated and the ice became less formidable.

Despatches from Pittsburg yesterday, at noon, report the river frozen over and navigation entirely suspended. Quite a fair number of boats arrived here yesterday from various points, but today the list will be very small, perhaps none at all. The river below the falls, though somewhat obstructed by floating ice, continues in fair navigable condition. The K. M. Patton arrived here yesterday in forty-eight hours from Tennessee river. She reports the V. W. Thomas, for New Orleans, had arrived at Three-Mile Bar.

Steam was raised on the Virginia yesterday, and she was brought over to this side of the river, from Jeffersonville, to meet the ice. The tugboat Windstar, yesterday, was finally engaged towing flatboats back and forth in the harbor to quarters beyond the reach of the floating ice in the river. The Jeffersonville ferryboat made but a very few trips yesterday, and one of them, the Black Locust, laid up at the wharf each day in the day. The regular boat filed to reach Jeffersonville in time in the morning to connect with the railroad train for the East, and the passengers were compelled to wait an hour late evening, and passengers from the boat would be compelled to go to New Albany to get across there.

The Duchess, once the pride of the Cincinnati "short-horned stock," has been recently "ditch-tubed," is now lying up above Jeffersonville. She has been shored off her upper works and cabin, and converted into a tug-boat, to tow coal flats from Pittsburg, Pomory and other places.

RAVIER RISING.—A despatch was received yesterday, stating that, on the 10th inst., Red river had risen nine feet opposite Silverport, and was slowly rising there.

EXCITEMENT ON THE ALABAMA RIVER.—Yesterday afternoon, says the Mobile Advertiser, of Jan. 23, the wharves presented quite a stirring aspect, caused, in part, by the departure of three boats for Montgomery, crowded with passengers. The opposition caused the fact of Montgomery to be postponed to $2, and at that rate the three boats, the Magnolia, the Jones and the Frontiers, were down. It would not be surprising if there was some of the latest kind of running down this trip, if the water suffices, as we hope it may.

FOR EVANSVILLE.—The Faun, is the regular packet for Evansville and all way places, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, from Portland. She is a staunch boat, her officers persevering, and being a good ice boat, with a nice crew, she will be very apt to go through.

THE GREAT DON FRANKLIN, one of our floating palaces, was due from New Orleans last night. She was advertised to leave that port last Monday.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The Eclipse, no wonder of the West, and the fastest, staunchest, best and most complete boat in the world, is advertised for New Orleans this evening. Her granite, superior built and immense power, are sure guarantees that the canal will bid defiance to all impediments, ice included.

THE PENNY BALLET has, we are informed, laid up, and for the present abandoned going to New Orleans.

MORE COAL BOATS LOST.—We learn by private dispatch from Memphis, that Mr. Cahoe lost one of a pair of coal boats in a terrible storm on the Mississippi. They were bound from Pittsburg for New Orleans.

The same dispatch announces the loss of a pair of boats belonging to Maurice McCleary. McCleary & Co. had also lost a pair of boats. We fear that is but the commencement of a series of disasters to the flat-bottomed craft on the Ohio and Mississippi.

The steamer John Simonds took on one thousand bushels of tobacco at Henderson last week, for New Orleans.

A flat boat load of corn was sunk at the wharf in Henderson on Sunday, containing several thousand bushels. It belonged to Mr. A. B. Barrett.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTS EXPRESSLY FOR THE LOUISVILLE COURIER. THIRTY-THIRD CONGRESS. SECOND SESSION. WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Senate.—The Secretary of State transmitted to the Senate a communication from Prof. Casford, containing an analysis of guano.

Mr. Foster introduced an order to print 5,000 extra copies of Lieut. Gill's "South American Astronomical Report," which was referred to the Committee on Printing.

Mr. Mallory reported a bill to compensate Lieut. W. F. Murray, for his wind and current charts.

Mr. Douglas, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill to extend the provisions of the Judicial Fee bill of 1853, to all Territories of the United States, except the Territory of New Mexico, which he decided it limited to the State of Oregon Territory.

The bill was amended and passed unanimously. Mr. Gwin, from the Naval Committee, reported adversely to various memorials, which had been referred to that committee, including that of the purchase of submarine armor to be placed on vessels of the Navy.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to get up the Bonty Land bill and the French Spotation bill. The discussion was rather sharp for the favor of the latter, when the Army Appropriation bill was taken up.

Mr. Hunter offered an amendment as a substitute for the reported bill, providing two regiments of cavalry, and 500 volunteers, to be raised as rangers, scouts, and guides for twelve months. The appropriation contemplated by this substitute is about $4,000,000.

Mr. Shields proposed an amendment—two regiments of cavalry, two of cavalry. This was taken up when Mr. Houston got the floor and spoke at length, taking the part of the Indians showing that the white men almost always have been the aggressors.

Mr. Cass spoke in advocacy of the bill, and continued to speak until the Senate adjourned. House.—The speaker laid before the House the resolutions of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, asking an expedition to be sent to the Arctic seas in search of the Kane and party. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

On motion of Mr. Chandler, the House took up the Senate resolution, authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to select the steamer "Fleet" for the relief of Dr. Kane. He briefly explained that the men composing the expedition are in danger of starvation, as their provisions will not extend half way through the coming summer, and owing to South Polar ice not being open they cannot return. The resolution passed.

On motion of Mr. Breckinridge, the Texas credit bill was taken up. Mr. Taylor, of Tennessee, introduced a bill establishing a national bank, and repealing certain acts heretofore passed on that subject for other purposes. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Hoffman offered a resolution, which was carried, directing the Committee on Commerce to inquire what legislation was needed to prevent fraudulent invoices.

Mr. Wallbridge offered a series of resolutions tendering the thanks of Congress to Commodore Perry for his successful negotiation of the treaty with Japan, and to the Government for its ratification, and for its ratification with a view of benefiting our commerce in the East.

Mr. Boeck asked to be excused from serving in the Naval Committee, alleging that he had been engaged in the examination of the committee, and that he could not attend to his duties.

Mr. Cutting, from the Judiciary Committee, introduced resolutions disapproving and declaring void the action of the Minnesota Legislature in chartering the Minnesota and North-Western R. R. and the Chicago and North-Western R. R. He largely denigrated by these grants, and further that the District Attorney had already been removed for his action in the matter. Passed.

The House then went into committee on the bill to enable Oregon to form a constitution, which was passed, and also the bill establishing military posts in the Territory of Nevada, Minnesota, and Nebraska; after which the House adjourned.

Anti-Know-Nothing Convention, &c. Rochester, Jan. 26.—A large and enthusiastic Anti-Know-Nothing Convention was held at Rochester today. All the towns in Livingston county were represented, and the Know-Notings denounced all parties joining in the meeting.

Cavalry.—The Michigan military to-day, who proceeded with a large force to the scene of riot, and arrested about forty ring leaders, and brought them to this city. Several severe storm storms have been raging here all day. Snow is about a foot deep.
