TUESDAY MORNING—MAY 16, 1861.

FOR ALDERMAN IN THE 7th WARD, PHILIP SPEED.

PHILIP SPEED, at the request of many citizens, has become a candidate for Alderman in the Seventh Ward, at the special election on Saturday, May 18th, 1861.

Notice to Daily Subscribers in the Country.

It is useless, perhaps, to repeat it; but, nevertheless, no paper in arrears will be forwarded. It will be stopped to the day. It is impossible for us to continue to those causes of their account.

Those who fail to receive their paper hereafter, upon taking the trouble to ascertain, will find that their subscriptions are in arrears.

CHEER UP.—In these days of wars and rumors of wars, of political and pecuniary distress, it is quite natural that a settled gloom and melancholy should pervade the whole community. Each man condones with his neighbor on the dreadful condition of affairs, and each parts from the other more gloomy and miserable than before. This is natural, but it is not true. This gloomy state of mind does not relieve the causes of disquiet; but, of itself, adds to the general discontent which pervades all classes of society. It is time that this should be relieved. Croaking must cease. Whining and moaning will not help masters. It is of no use to emulate the example of the girl in the fable—"crying over split milk"; will not restore the lacidal fluid to you can. If the country is about to be ruined, if your business is about to be destroyed, you cannot save the one or restore the other by whining and wailing over the excesses of fate. The very state of mind which makes of you a miserable croaker, incapacitates you for the exigencies which surround you. Never give up! It is wiser and better always to hope than once to despair. And the best maxim in all your distresses is the stout watchword of "Never give up."

Meet your friends with a smile, as of old; grasp their hands firmly; throw the "state of the country" aside for the hour and give some time to the relaxations of pleasure. That dear woman and those pretty prettlers, who meet you at the close of every day, look to your face in vain for the smile that was wont to greet them when they met you on your return. What right have you to disappoint them of the little sunshine your presence used to bring? In place of coming like the gay, auroral flush of day, you bring with you into your sweet home a gloomy, murky cloud, that settles like a pall over your heartstone. Shame upon your weakness! God has given you those dear ones to comfort, cheer, and make glad. And because you fear a possible harm to you and them, you move sadly in your corner, checking their innocent mirth, and sniveling over wrongs which may come to you and them. Cheer up, man! Keep a stout heart and a smiling face! All may yet go well. And if it does not, the best weapon against all adversity is cheerfulness. This cloud cannot forever lower. The storm must break it up, sooner or later, and then the blue sky, beautiful and studded with stars, will overshadow us, glorious in its gorgeous beauty. Let us think ever of that good time and work cheerfully and with light hearts to bring it about.

CITY COURT—May 15th.—Wm. Little, Frank Davis and Wm. Fry were before the Court, charged with being drunk and disorderly conduct; each held to bail in the sum of $100 for three months.

Commonwealth by Mrs. Ann Rogers vs. Bridget Lofton, charged with stealing various articles; discharged.

Commonwealth by Mrs. Dyke against Charlie Travis, for an assault; bail $100 to answer.

A grand Jury was impaneled and sworn, and entered on the discharge of their duty.

The blockading of provisions, marketing, &c., no longer exists between New Albany and Louisville. Market wagons, drays, &c., pass freely without intermission between the two cities.

ATTENTION, COMPANY D, HOME GUARD! Every member is earnestly requested to attend the company meeting and drill this (Thursday) evening, at 7 o'clock, at the armory, Concert Hall, Fifth street. By order of company.

EXCITEMENT ON THE BORDER.—The New Orleans Picayune learns by the steamer J. M. Sharp, which arrived at New Orleans on Saturday morning from Jefferson, Texas, that news reached that place Tuesday last by express, in a letter to J. M. & C. J. Murphy, that Montgomery, of Kansas territory, at the head of 8,000 men, had taken Fort Donelson. Messengers had been sent to Marshall and other places for men, money, guns, powder, and lead. Captain Bill Young, with about 600 men, was on the march, trying to oppose Montgomery. This news was corroborated last Wednesday at Shreveport. The greatest excitement prevailed throughout the country. The bells were ringing when the Sharp left Jefferson, for the purpose of calling a town meeting. Already a large meeting had been held at Shreveport.

WIGFALL'S FAMILY.—Mrs. Senator Wigfall and sister have taken a cottage for the summer in Dorchester, Mass.—Evening.

So the doughty Texan Senator having little confidence in his secession friends at home, has sent his family into the camp of his adversaries for safety and protection. Just so, here in this city, some of the leading Diunionists and ultra Secessionists propose to render their valuables, together with their wives and children, to the North for safety. Now, is this, and what does it mean? Are we to expect more civility from our Union-loving neighbors North, than from our Diunion friends and neighbors at home? What, if they of the North should assume to hold our wives and children as hostages for our peaceful conduct?

AMOR PACIS.

THE OPENING DAY.—The spring races over the Woodlawn Course will be inaugurated on Saturday with a race for the challegee value, valued at $1,000, dash of four miles, plow or pray. There are four subscribers, and the race will be one of the most interesting that will occur during the meeting. The second race on Saturday will be mile heats, the entries for which will close at the Galt House on Friday evening.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT—CRIMINAL TERM.—Wednesday, May 16th.—William Lowry, larceny. Not guilty.

James W. Basye, obtaining a horse from Mrs. Riddle under false pretenses. Not guilty.

James Clark, obtaining a horse under false pretenses. Acquitted.

John McDonald, stealing a watch and money from Mrs. St. John. Penitentiary three years.

Francis J. Smith, killing his father. Acquitted upon the ground of insanity, and ordered to be sent to the Lunatic Asylum.

N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

The pump on the corner of Jefferson and Tenth streets is out of repair. Will the proper authorities see to it?

BOARDING.—Mrs. Barnes, Fifth street, between Green and Walnut, has vacant a handsome room front, suitable for a family. Also, small rooms for young men. Prices to suit the times. 3d.

We would call the attention of the public to the sale, at auction, of A. D. Mansfield's fine farmlands goods, this morning. His will offer shirts, drawers one half size, etc. Great bargains will be offered.

The Rev. W. C. McBeth, of the Methodist Church, fell overboard from the Prince of Wales near Memphis, on Wednesday, while in the act of drawing a bucket of water, and was drowned. He was on his way, with his family, from Illinois to Arkansas.

MUSTERED INTO SERVICE.—The companies from Kentucky, at Harper's Ferry, have all been mustered into the regular service by Captain Carr, of the regular army. The commands of Captains Harvey, Cross and Lapelle, and probably that of Pope, will act as a battalion under Colonel Duncan.

The Union citizens of the Fourth ward have done well in selecting Mr. Alvin Wood as their candidate for the Council. Let them turn out on Saturday, and give a large vote. He has experience as a councilman, strong common sense, integrity of character, and devotion to the cause of Union.

THE BELL RINGERS—Masonic Temple was crowded again last night. The performance was varied and of the most pleasing character. "Home, Sweet Home," performed on the bells, was excellent; while the singing of Mrs. Kneass and Miss Annie delighted all present. Herr Kneass, the violinist, has certainly mastered his profession. We have never heard anything that surpassed his solo last night. Near the close of the performance, a request was made to Miss Annie to sing "Dixie's Land," which she did in a style which received a hearty round of applause. Then came the soul-stirring "Star-Spangled Banner," by Mrs. Kneass. When she appeared on the stage, in costume, a cheer arose from the audience to greet her, and she sang as though her heart felt every word she uttered. The Bell Ringers will remain three nights more, and will give an afternoon performance on Saturday for schools and families. If our readers wish to spend a pleasant evening, the sweet voice of Miss Annie and the chime of the bells will do much to drive away the monotony produced by the present dull, gloomy times.

A letter from Harper's Ferry, dated May 12th, to a gentleman in this city, says that in a difficulty between Sam Moore and a man named Murphy, from this city, both of Col. Blanton's Battalion, the latter was shot and probably fatally wounded, though at the writing of the letter there were slight hopes of his recovery. Moore will be court-martialed. Colonel Duncan concluded Murphy by saying to him that if he died his remains should be forwarded to Louisville, and that he would support his family for one year.

At a meeting of the citizens of the Fourth ward, last night, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Council, Thomas Shanks was called to the chair, and Harry Stuckey, appointed secretary. Mr. Shanks explained the object of the meeting, when they went into the most votes, was declared unanimously elected as a candidate to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Dr. Marshall.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A time when there is great fear for the stock of dry lumber, such, doors, blinds, &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville. It will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co., have enlarged their factory and have now on hand several million of dry lumber. Call at their office on Main street, nearly opposite the Galt House, or at their factory in Fulton, above Preston street.

J. N. Lewis sells the best of coal at his office, Third street, between Market and Jefferson. Give him your orders.

DR.

HORNBECKEN, Kt. August 21st, 1861.

SHALEBREGEN—Dear Sir: I have to state that your Fever and Ague Antidote is daily growing into favor, and needs no putting to recommend it, as its own merits are sufficient, wherever a man has been made. I believe it has never failed where the administration has been proceeded with in accordance with the directions. It is a pleasure to sell medicines that meet the expectation of purchasers and give satisfaction, and as such I am proud to recommend your Pills.

R. J. DUCK, Physician and Druggist.

Dr. McLean's Strengthening Cordial is receiving the unanimous recommendation of the Press, not only at St. Louis, but all over the country. This result is evidently the result of close observation and study. Whenever it has been used it has been recommended with the highest encomiums of praise. Persons can have no conception of its efficacy, without giving it a trial. Once more we warmly recommend this "remedy" as a superior tonic and alterative.

HOME PHARMACY.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Aug. 20, '61.

Dear Sir: For the past several months I have been laboring under great weakness and general debility, much of the time confined to my bed, and from which I received no benefit from my physician. After using some of your blood pills and blood purifiers, purchased of your agent, Mr. Wm. H. H. Plummer, I feel as a new person, almost entirely free from disease, and would recommend your medicines to all who are in need of so invaluable remedies.

Yours truly, MARY T. HOPKINS.

JACOB FRIEND & CO., Proprietors.

WE HAVE A PROFESSIONAL FORM OF FIRE INSURANCE, that has been taken from the hands of Mr. Vass. It has been entirely revised in detail, and is now in full force and effect. Located in the central and business part of the city, it is the only one that can be had. Our proprietors will make it convenient to visit Louisville, during the summer, and can easily get to the market and the river, and the bar will be blocked with only the best.

We respectfully wish the patronage of the old people, and those of the young.
