* Sun Belt Conference Game

- University of Washington Husky Classic
All Times Central Time

TIPPING IT OFF: The Arkansas State Lady Indians open Sun Belt Conference play Tuesday night against the Owls of Florida Atlantic University. The game is also the conference opener for FAU. Tipoff at the ASU Convocation Center is scheduled for 7:05 p.m. Every ASU Lady Indian basketball game can be heard live on 103.9 Earl FM in Northeast Arkansas. The live audio and video broadcast can also be accessed through the the State-Zone portion of the Arkansas State athletics website, ASUIndians.com.

THE TEAMS: Arkansas State will take the floor Tuesday night at 5-4 on the season after defeating Arkansas-Pine Bluff 73-54 in the Lady Indians' last outing. The Dec. 13 win over UAPB snapped a three-game losing streak following a 4-1 start to the season. Florida Atlantic visits Jonesboro at 3-5 overall, and like ASU, is 2-3 in its last five games. The Owls have won two of their last three, sandwiching victories over Columbia and Eastern Michigan around a loss to St. Bonaventure.

THE SERIES: Arkansas State leads the series 2-0. In Florida Atlantic's first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference last year, the Lady Indians defeated the Owls 80-61 at the ASU Convocation Center. In the only other meeting between the two programs, ASU defeated FAU 100-75 at the Fun in the Sun Classic in Cancun, Mexico during the 2000-01 season.

THE COACHES: Arkansas State Head Coach Brian Boyer is in his ninth season as the Lady Indian head coach. Boyer holds a career record of 137-113 at ASU, and has directed the Lady Indians to the Women's National Invitation Tournament four times, including three of the past four years. The Lady Indians finished the 2006-07 season at 21-13 overall, and advanced to the

HOME SWEET HOME: The Lady Indians have won over 71 percent (78-31) of their games at the ASU Convocation Center under Head Coach Brian Boyer. Over the last four years, the Tribe has lost just eight times on its home court, posting a winning percentage of .862 during that time (50-8). The Lady Indians are currently riding an eight-game win streak at the ASU Convocation Center, and have won 16 of the last 17 games on their home court. ASU's last loss at home was a 64-59 setback against Western Kentucky Jan. 24, 2007. Since then, the Lady Indians have defeated Florida Atlantic, Louisiana-Lafayette, Louisiana-Monroe twice, and Murray State in the first round of last year's WNIT, with Brigham Young, Missouri State and Arkansas-Pine Bluff losing in Jonesboro this season.

MORE SUCCESS AT HOME: Following the Tribe's Nov. 13, 54-53 victory over BYU, ASU is now 6-2 in home openers under Head Coach Brian Boyer, and have won four straight.

SUCCESS IN SBC OPENERS: Since joining the Sun Belt Conference prior to the 1991-92 season, the Lady Indians are 10-6 all-time in SBC openers. Under Head Coach Brian Boyer, the Tribe is 5-3, with victories in four of the last five league debuts. Arkansas State has opened Sun Belt Conference play seven times at home, and boasts a 6-1 record in those games. ASU's only loss when opening the SBC season at home was a 62-59 setback to Louisiana Tech in the 2000-01 season.

PREMIER MATCHUP: Tuesday night's game will feature two of the league's top point guards going head-to-head. FAU's Shuteamia Brayboy and ASU's Jazmine Taylor are 1-2 in the Sun Belt in steals, with Brayboy averaging 2.63 steals per game, and Taylor close behind with a 2.56 steal per game average. Brayboy also leads the conference in assists at 7.5 per game, while Taylor is in fifth place with a 4.56 per game average. Brayboy's assist-to-turnover ratio is 2.07, which ranks her third in the Sun Belt, while Taylor comes in at No. 9 at 1.17.

SCOUTING THE OWLS: In addition to Brayboy's league-leading statistics, three players are averaging double-figure point production for the Owls. Sophomore guard Carla Stubbs is leading the way at 13.1 points per game, followed by freshman forward Jaimie Givens at 12.6 points per game. Sophomore guard Brittany Bowe adds an even 10 points per contest, while junior forward Brittney Crenshaw leads FAU on the boards with a 7.0 average. Junior forward/center Breana Cox is second in the league with 1.38 blocked shots per game, and the Owls lead the Sun Belt at 4.13 block shots per game. FAU shoots 38.8 percent from the floor, 31.1 percent from beyond the three-point line, and 61.0 percent from the free throw line.

RAISING THE BAR: Three players finished with career scoring highs in ASU's 73-54 victory over Arkansas-Pine Bluff Dec. 13. Sophomore guard Ebonie Jefferson finished with 16 points, freshman Shay Scott added 14, and junior Brittney Hiles added nine as all three players eclipsed their personal bests. Jefferson also had her best game on the boards, pulling down nine rebounds, while Scott tied her personal best with six. Jefferson recorded three steals in the game to match her career high and also hit a career-high two 3-pointers and three free throws. ...Sophomore guard Jazmine Taylor attempted a career-high seven free throws, sinking four, which was also a career high...freshman guard Rachel Baker hit her first career free throw against UAPB, sinking one-of-two from the line...freshman guard Angie Criner grabbed a personal-best six rebounds, including four on the offensive end...junior forward Kayla Pospisil attempted a career-high four free throws against UAPB.

GETTING OFFENSIVE: ASU's 73 points against UAPB was the Lady Indians' second-highest output of the season, just behind the 74 put on the board in their 74-54 win over Missouri State. The Lady Indians' 28 field goals made and their 71 field goal attempts were also the second highest of the season, behind 31 field goals on 75 attempts against Missouri State. ASU's 28 trips to the foul line was a season-high, and the Tribe's 58 rebounds was also the highest total of the season. The Lady Indians also pulled down a season-high 23 offensive rebounds against UAPB.

GETTING DEFENSIVE: Arkansas State held UAPB to just 17 points in the first half of the Lady Indians' 73-54 victory over the Golden Lions Dec. 13. The 17 points scored by UAPB was the fewest given up in a half this season by the Lady Indians. The figure was just four points shy of the Convocation Center record, set Jan. 9, 1993 when the Lady Indians held Texas Pan-American to 14 points in the first half of a 74-44 ASU victory. The Lady Indians have now held three opponents to 20 points or less in a half this season, holding Alabama to 20 points during the second half of ASU's 49-45 victory at Tuscaloosa Nov. 18, and Weber State to 20 points in the second half of the Lady Indians' 57-44 win at Washington Nov. 23.

NEXT UP: The Lady Indians travel to New Orleans for their second Sun Belt Conference matchup of the season. ASU takes on the Privateers of New Orleans Dec. 22 at 4:30 p.m. in the first game of a double-header that also includes a SBC tilt between the ASU and UNO men's teams.

SUCCESS VS. THE SEC: Following its 49-45 victory at Alabama Nov. 18, ASU is 5-1 vs. teams from the Southeastern Conference under Head Coach Brian Boyer, winning the last five matchups. After losing to Ole Miss during the 2000-01 season, ASU defeated Ole Miss in 2001-02, then defeated Mississippi State and Arkansas in the Women's National Invitation Tournament in the 2004-05 season. In the 2006-07 season, the Lady Indians opened the season with a 73-56 win over Alabama.

EB & FLOW: Sophomore guard Ebonie Jefferson got into the flow of the game in the Nov. 9 season opener at South Dakota State, setting new career highs in points, field goals and field goal attempts. Jefferson scored nine points on 4-of-6 shooting and also notched the first steal and assist of her career. Jefferson's strong play continued against Brigham Young as she again scored a career high - finishing with 13 points. Jefferson also grabbed a career-high six rebounds against the Cougars, then matched that number in the Nov. 25 finals of the University of Washington Husky Classic against host Washington. In ASU's Dec. 13, 73-54 win over UAPB, Jefferson again outdid herself, chalking up 16 points, nine rebounds and three steals in just 20 minutes of action.

GREAT SCOTT: Freshman forward Shay Scott set career highs in points and rebounds Dec. 13 against UAPB, finishing with 14 points and nine boards in 25 minutes of action. The game marked the second time in her short career at ASU that she has scored in double figures.

CRINER DELIVERS: In her first start as a Lady Indian, true freshman Angie Criner led all scorers with 17 points in ASU's 49-45 victory over Al-

Jefferson

Scott

ASU's opening-round victory over Weber State, and 12 in the Lady Indians' loss to Washington in the championship game. Criner was named to the all-tournament team following Sunday's final.

JAZZIN' IT UP: Sophomore point guard Jazmine Taylor continues to be productive for the Lady Indians in her role as starting point guard. Taylor is the only Lady Indian to have started every game this season, and set a new personal career high with six steals in the Tribe's 74-54 win over Missouri State Nov. 20. She also matched her career-high assist mark in the game, dishing out six on the night.

Taylor

MORE JAZZ: After matching her career-high with six assists against Missouri State Nov. 20, Taylor topped that number with seven during the Lady Indians' game at Oklahoma State Nov. 29.

SHOOTING STARR: After hitting just three 3-pointers in ASU's first three games, junior guard Caroline Starr caught fire in the second half against Missouri State Nov. 20. Starr sank two from long range in the first minute of the second half, then added another later in the game to give the Lady Indians their first 20-point lead in the 74-54 win. Starr got hot again in the second half of ASU's Nov. 25 game at Washington, draining five 3-pointers in the final 20 minutes to finish with a season-high 17 points.

THE BRIAN BOYER SHOW: Head

Coach Brian Boyer's television show airs Mondays at 8 p.m. on Suddenlink Cable channel 22 in Jonesboro, and Mondays at 9 p.m. on Paragould Cable channel 6. The show can also be viewed on-demand beginning on Tuesday of each week on the StateZone portion of ASUIndians.com.

HURST HURTING: Freshman guard Shania "Ne-Ne" Hurst will not play this season after suffering a torn ACL in her left knee during ASU's 82-33 exhibition victory over Ouachita Baptist Nov. 5. Hurst scored 16 points in the Lady Indians' 103-75 win over Harding in the Tribe's opening exhibition game.

LAST TIME OUT: JONESBORO (12/13/07) — Ebonie Jefferson and Shay Scott both had career nights to help lead the Arkansas State women's basketball team (5-4) to a 73-54 victory over Arkansas-Pine Bluff (1-7) Thursday night at the Convocation Center.

Jefferson and Scott scored a career-high 16 and 14 points, respectively, and both added a career-high nine rebounds to pace the Lady Indians' attack. Caroline Starr added 11 points to finish as the only other ASU player scoring in double figures.

"Every day this week, hands down, the two best players in practice have been Shay and Ebonie," said ASU Head Coach Brian Boyer. "They turned it on tonight just like they have been. I think Shay Scott all week has competed so hard. She has all year, but she has gotten into games and been a little tentative, so it was good to see her not be tentative. She played just like she has been working all week."

"The same thing with Ebonie," added Boyer. "She has given us such great effort and hustle all week. The stats for her literally just come off of hustle and effort. The way she gets things done – all those numbers are because of that."

Jefferson got ASU off to a quick start, scoring eight of the Lady Indians' first 10 points as they jumped out to a 12-0 lead just over five minutes into the game. ASU's defense gave the Lions trouble throughout the first half, holding them to a .222 shooting percentage and just 17 points. The Lady Indians 38-17 half-time lead matched its largest advantage of the game.

UAPB increased its shooting percentage to 41 percent for the second half to help it cut ASU's lead to 57-45 with 5:16 remaining in the game, but it couldn't get any closer as ASU responded with a 10-2 run over the next four minutes to put the game out of reach.

The Lady Indians finished with a season-high 58 rebounds, 11 more than the Lions, and shot 39 percent from the field in comparison to UAPB's 33 percent. ASU scored 20 points off 22 UAPB turnovers, while limiting the Lions to just six points off turnovers.

UAPB was led by two players scoring in double figures, including Arica Green with 15 points and DeLores Hughley with 12. Ciara Shields led the Lions on the boards with a game-high 14 rebounds.

The Lady Indians' 72 points were their second most of the season and they matched their season highs for assists (15) and blocks (5). UAPB's 17 points were the fewest allowed by ASU in a half this season and marked the third time this year the Lady Indians held an opponent to 20 points or less in a half.

"Certainly glad to get this win and get it out of the way after the layoff," said Boyer. "I thought the start to the game was great, and I thought we came out with the energy that I had hoped we would."

ASU PICKED FOURTH IN WEST:

The Arkansas State Lady Indians have been picked fourth in the Sun Belt Conference West Division pre-season basketball poll, voted on by the league's coaches. The Lady Indians received two first place votes and 58 points overall in the poll, while UALR was the preseason pick to win the division with 76 overall points and six first place votes. Denver was tabbed second, followed by North Texas in third place.

Louisiana-Lafayette was picked to finish fifth in the West, followed by Louisiana-Monroe and New Orleans.

Western Kentucky received nine first place votes to finish at the top of the polling in the East, followed by Middle Tennessee and Florida International. South Alabama and Troy tied for fourth in the poll, and Florida Atlantic finished sixth.

LOCK TO MISS SEASON: Forward Kelsey Lock, the only senior on the Lady Indian roster, will not play this season after suffering what proved to be a career-ending knee injury last year. It was the second major knee injury in as many years for the Republic, Mo. native.

Lock averaged 8.7 points for the Lady Indians during the 2005-06 season, starting all 23 games in which she appeared.

Last year, Lock averaged 1.7 points in nine appearances, including a season-high nine points in ASU's 80-73 victory over Oklahoma State.

Lock

"As a coaching staff, we totally support Kelsey's decision," said ASU Head Coach Brian Boyer. "As much as we would love to have her competing this year for us, we've also been beside her the last two years to see what she has gone through. This decision did not come as a surprise to us. Kelsey has done a great job of communicating with us throughout this process, and we feel that this is the best decision for her future."

"We are going to keep Kelsey involved with the program," added Boyer. "She is still going to be a valuable part of this team from a leadership and maturity standpoint, but in the end, this is in the best interest for Kelsey physically."

HOT SPRINGS NAMED FUTURE SITE FOR SBC BASKETBALL TOURNAMENTS:

The Sun Belt Conference announced at its annual media days that Hot Springs, Ark., renowned for its appeal as a great tourist destination across the state and the country, was selected by the Sun Belt Conference Executive Committee as the host for league's annual men's and women's basketball tournaments from 2009-2011.

Head Coach Brian Boyer

Through eight seasons as head coach at Arkansas State University, Brian Boyer's name has become synonymous with success and the women's basketball program. Entering his ninth season as head coach of the Lady Indians, Boyer has climbed to second place on the ASU career win chart with a record of 137-113.

Under Boyer's guidance, the Lady Indians have reached the Women's National Invitation Tournament four times, including three of the past four seasons. He led the Lady Indians to the 2003-04 Sun Belt East Division Championship, the program has produced 16 All-Sun Belt Conference players with Boyer at the helm, and Boyer was named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year following the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons.

His 66 career Sun Belt Conference victories heading into the 2007-08 season rank him sixth all-time in career conference wins. Last season, the Lady Indians finished 21-13, advanced to the second round of the WNIT before falling to eventual tournament runner-up Wisconsin and continued to build on their already-impressive home record with a 14-2 mark at the ASU Convocation Center. The Lady Indians posted home victories over NCAA Tournament participants Oklahoma State and Louisiana-Lafayette, Southeastern Conference member Alabama and WNIT participants South Dakota State and Murray State. In all, 14 of the Lady Indians' 34 games during the 2006-07 season were against teams that played in the NCAA or WNIT tournaments. The 2006-07 Lady Indians also reached the 10-victory milestone quicker than any other team in ASU history, picking up their 10th win of the season Jan. 3, 2007, and their 21-win total equaled the highest in Boyer's eight seasons.

Under Boyer's guidance, several individual records fell during the 2006-07 season as well. Seniors Adrienne Davie and Rudy Sims rewrote the Lady Indian record books, with Davie shattering the career blocked shots record with 132 and the career rebounding record with 1,147. Sims set a new mark in career assists with 548, and became the first ASU player in over a decade to record a triple-double when she scored 14 points, grabbed 11 rebounds and handed out 10 assists in a 65-58 overtime victory at Louisiana-Lafayette.

Davie was named All-Sun Belt Conference for the fourth straight season, while Sims earned the honor for the third straight year. Senior Ali Carter became the 16th member of the career 1,000-point club.

During the 2005-06 season, the Lady Indians posted a 15-15 overall record against a schedule that included nine NCAA Tournament teams and three that participated in the WNIT. The Tribe advanced to the semifinals of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament, and Davie earned first-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors for the third straight season. Davie also joined the ASU 1,000-point club, along with Sims and senior Amber Abraham.

In the 2004-05 season, ASU put together a program-best 10-game Sun Belt Conference winning streak, part of an 11-game win streak that was the fourth longest in Lady Indian history. The Lady Indians finished the season 21-11 overall and in second place in the Sun Belt East Division at 11-3, giving Boyer his first 20-win season as head coach. The Tribe advanced to the quarterfinals of the WNIT, defeating SEC powers Mississippi State and Arkansas along the way. The second round victory over Arkansas was played in front of a Convocation Center record crowd of 10,892. The team's success earned Boyer his second straight Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year Award.

Boyer joined former Lady Indian coach Jerry Ann Winters as the only two ASU women's basketball coaches to win back to- back coach of the year honors. Davie, Sims and Carter all earned All-Sun Belt honors following the 2004-05 season, marking the first time in Lady Indian history that three players earned all-conference honors in a single season.

The 2003-04 season culminated with the program's first-ever regular season conference championship and a return to the WNIT. The Lady Indians finished 19-10 overall and 10-4 in league play, earning a share of the Sun Belt East division title as they posted one of the top turnarounds in Division I, picking up seven more wins than the previous season.

ASU's 19 victories that season were the most since the 1997-98 season, sparked in part by the best start in ASU women's basketball history – a seven-game win streak to open the season. The strong start carried over into Sun Belt play as the Lady Indians held the top spot in the East division from start to finish. Davie earned honorable mention all-conference honors as a true freshman, and Boyer was rewarded with his first conference Coach of the Year Award.

The 2002-03 season capped a pair of rebuilding years and resulted in a strong finish and a trip to the semifinals of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament.

In his first season as head coach of the Lady Indians, Boyer led ASU to its first-ever Top 25 national ranking, 18 victories and a trip to the WNIT. The Tribe's 18 victories gave Boyer the most wins by a first-year coach at ASU since Sara Wooley won 19 games in her first season in 1979. The Lady Indians opened the season by winning 10 of their first 11 games, including road wins over Southern Miss and nationally-ranked Kansas, giving ASU a No. 25 ranking in the Associated Press poll the following week. The Tribe finished the season at 18-12 overall, ending the year with the program's second straight invitation to the WNIT.

Boyer came to ASU in 1995 spending four seasons as an assistant for former head coach Jeff Mittie, who is now the head coach at TCU.

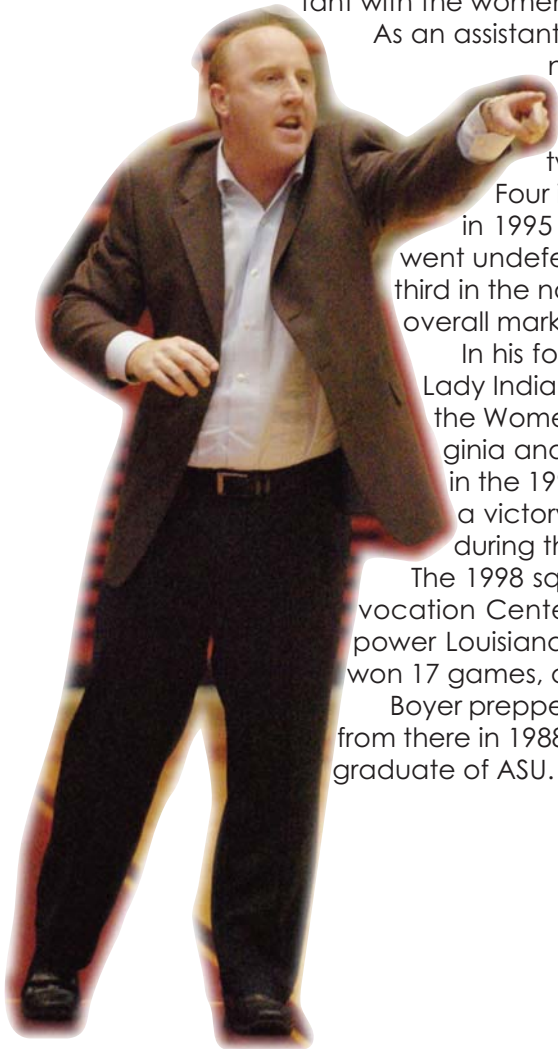

A graduate of Missouri Western State College in St. Joseph, Mo. with a bachelor's degree in education, Boyer was an assistant coach for the men's program for six seasons, including the last three, which he spent as an assistant with the women's program as well.

As an assistant to the men's team, Missouri Western was an NCAA Division II Tournament participant five years (1990, 1991, 1992, 1994 and 1995) and won two conference championships. The team made the Sweet 16 in 1990. As a women's assistant, Boyer and Missouri Western made two NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Final Four in 1995 and the Elite Eight the previous season. The team went 31-3 in 1995 and made it to the Final Eight of the national tournament. It also went undefeated through its MIAA schedule at 16-0. In 1994, the team finished third in the nation, losing in a national semifinal contest and finishing with a 29-3 overall mark.

In his four seasons at Arkansas State as an assistant coach, Boyer and the Lady Indians earned a 75-42 mark. The 1998-99 team went 18-14 with a trip to the Women's NIT. In the process, ASU earned wins over nationally-ranked Virginia and Kansas. The Lady Indians won 20 games in back-to-back seasons in the 1996-97 and 1997-98 seasons. The 1997 team opened the season with a victory over nationally-ranked Illinois and had a 12-game winning streak during the season, the second longest in school history.

The 1998 squad knocked off nationally-ranked Western Kentucky at the Convocation Center and came within four points of scoring an upset over national power Louisiana Tech at home as well. In his first season at ASU, the Lady Indians won 17 games, despite having just seven scholarship players.

Boyer prepped at Scotland County High School in Memphis, Mo. and graduated from there in 1988. He is married to the former Rhonda Lane of Marked Tree. She is a graduate of ASU.
