the ELEMENTS of CENTRAL

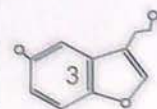

Science tells us that elements are the primary constituents of matter and cannot be broken down into simpler substances. The community

Central has cultivated serves as a perfect parallel to the laws of matter and elements that science so carefully dictates. The foundation of the student body is built on unwavering pride in one existing just how they are meant to exist.

From the basement of band kids and JROTC students to the very top of the fourth floor art rooms and robotics labs, we are content in our individuality and unique roles within the school.

Together, Central students have developed from disconnected elements and atoms to a fully-formed organism that has a life of its own. All around Omaha (and even the country, at times) being an Eagle holds meaning, brings admiration and familiarity. Without the elements of Central, the school becomes an empty shell. It is the unique experiences and the bold personalities and the dozen flights of stairs that define who we are. It is walking half a mile of ice to get into the building and the sigh of relief after finishing a theme and groaning at Dr. Bennett's Dad Joke Wednesdays. While every student has their own identity and path through life, we unite to create a fused community from both the bonds we have formed and our roles as the elements of central.

5. Grant Goding (11), Aidan Murphy (11), Jon Paul (12) and Joseph Winton (12) pose in front of a Renaissance painting. This was one of the tasks given to students in the Louvre, a famous French museum.

6. Sophia Gibson (11) and Goding place a flower arrangement on a headstone in Germany. This belongs to Marion Crandell, a former Central student who played a huge role in the course of World War I.

7. After a long day of travels, the students take a quick nap en route to their next destination. In total, there were 45 students attending.

2. A group of students rides an escalator down to the London Underground, often referred to as the "Tube." These trains were the main mode of transportation on the trip.

3. Cecilia Huber (12) and Madison Gewinner (12) pose for a picture on the train in Paris. "It was a once in a lifetime experience that I'm never gonna forget," Gewinner gushed.

4. The trip took students all across Europe. The group of travelers posed in front of the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France.

SUMMER BLUE JAYS

CREIGHTON INTERNSHIP

By Christina Spomer and Peyton Venneman

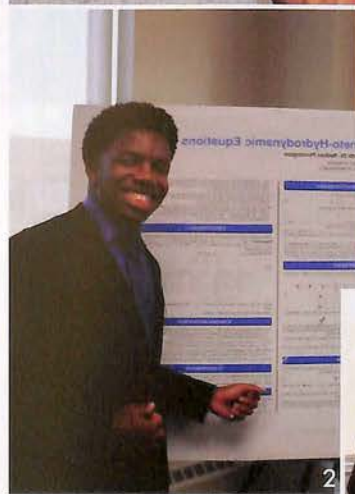

Creighton University offers research jobs every summer for a select few students. Eight seniors were selected to work in a college setting and complete a project for the Haddix program. From quantum computing to PCNA aiding in DNA, the projects covered a wide range of scientific study. At the end of the research period, the students presented their hard work to a group of their peers and family.

1. Hudson Hooper (12) shares his formal college research project on quantum computers with his peers, friends, and family. "My favorite part was presenting what I had worked so hard on all summer," Hooper said.

2. Xavier Herbert (12) poses next to his project after presenting. All of the students participating in the program created and presented their projects to Creighton faculty as well as their family and friends.

3. Sydney Westphal (12), Chloe Jones (12), Bryanna Veach (12) and Madisen Reed (12) celebrate with a some punch after working hard on their Haddix projects. "It was fun hanging out with people from from other schools, as well as my friends from Central," Jones said.

4. Ashari Allen (12) and Jones grin cheerfully after presenting their project on a specific protein that aids in DNA replication called PCNA. Jones and Allen used Creighton's lab to clone and mutate a portion of DNA from the PCNA protein in E. coli cells.

cheer and dance camps

SPIRIT SCHOOL

The dance team placed third out of the 12 teams that were invited to the Universal Dance Association's camp at the University of Nebraska Lincoln. Senior captain Rylee Bonafilla (12) said her favorite part of dance camp is "learning the hip hop performance routine together and getting to perform it in front of the entire camp."

The cheer squad attended the UCA, (Universal Cheerleader Association) camp at UNL, where they spent a week learning, practicing, and performing new cheers. These routines are then used during sports events throughout the school year. In total, the cheer program received thirteen trophies for school spirit, best hip hop routine, best cheer and sideline awards.

First year varsity member Darbie Holmes (10) explains, "My favorite part about cheer camp was the space spirit night and each squad had to come up with a unique space related costume."

FRESHMAN DAY

By Emma Nieland and Jon Savoie

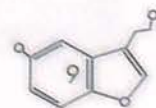

The 2018-2019 school year marks the 50th year of Harry Gaylor's time teaching. Gaylor has been at Central for 36 years. Prior to his career here, he taught at Tech High School. After Tech closed, there were many students being transferred to Central. "My favorite part about teaching at Central specifically has been the demographics and the honor, privilege and pleasure to work with some of the city's best students," remarks Gaylor, "I like to work with students that face great challenges in their everyday lives and to inspire students to succeed. Students motivate me to keep teaching."

MR. GAYLOR'S FIFTIETH YEAR TEACHING

1. Brody Brown (9) tries to escape his opponents during the match. Despite the hectic state of the game, Brown sustains his tight, protective grip on the ball.

2. Abraham Hoskins (11) frantically runs away from his opponent, trying to get as close to the end-zone as possible. This year, Hoskins is the varsity quarterback.

3. Alexander Castillo (10) and Elijah Smith (11) quench their thirst during a time-out. "It gets hot out there in all of your pads, but I love the game," Castillo said.

4. Teammates-turned-rivals face off before a defining play. The ball was seconds from being live, at which point the game would truly begin.

On August 18, the annual Purple v. White scrimmage was held at Seemann Stadium. Players were split into two teams according to jersey color. The white jerseys won with a score of 12-0.

FLYING EAGLES

FALL PEP RALLY By Sedona Cheloha

Just two hours before the first varsity football game of the season, Central's student body gathered in Seemann Stadium to celebrate the upcoming athletic seasons of their fellow Eagles.

1. During their cheer routine, Daija Jones (12) and Aubrey Agosta (11) perform various contortions. Jones is doing a movement called a "toe-touch," with an added boost of pep.

2. Orestes Cooper (12) and Laura Timmins (12) demonstrate a portion of the relay race that included kicking a field goal. Cooper, as the student body president, was also responsible for introducing many sports teams during the pep rally.

3. Before the rally officially began, Lauren Tse (12) and Brent Larson had some friendly banter regarding the upcoming golf meet. "I was annoyed with him," Tse joked, as she has been golfing at Central for four years and has a playful friendship with Larson, her coach.

4. Savanna Vacek (12) laughs as her volleyball coach, Angela Thorn, introduces her. Each senior athlete of a fall sports team earned a special shout-out during the rally.

5. After finishing her cheer routine, Dejanae Young (12) took over the microphone to introduce the dance team. Young is the Student Body Treasurer for the 2019 school year.

6. Austin Gillespie (12) competes in the relay race, which pitted two members of each class against each other. The senior team ultimately finished in first place.

1. Running up, Charles Levy (12) hits a light return from the opposing side. He ended up barely getting it back but still managed to win the point.

2. Srujan Garapati (9) volleys with his opponents in a heated game. He ended up slamming the ball down, resulting in a point for himself.

3. Levy looks back at the court that he had just played a serious match of tennis on. He smirks at the thought of how well he played.

4. Daniel Denenberg (10) returns a difficult serve from his opponent. He ended up winning the match 8-0 due to his speedy forehand.

5. Slicing the ball at the net, Alec Weedman (10) gives it some serious spin. The other player did not know how to respond and lost the point.

PILLAR SIGNING

By Emma Nieland
and
Madeline Jakaha

1. Quinn Eilers (12), student body treasurer, makes his mark on Central's history. "It's really cool to know that I'm part of something that will be in the building forever," Eilers said.

2. The group is led through a construction area by Principal Dr. Ed Bennett. Parts of the trip were spent learning about how elements of the addition, like the new library, will impact student life.

3. Four students pose for a photo after taking time to sign the pillar. Their construction hats were specially designed for this project.

4. Orestes Cooper (12) signs his name on a pillar that will be placed in the new addition. Students had the opportunity to write their names and a short message, many choosing to remark about their time at Central or offer advice to future students.

On Friday, August 24, Central played their opener football game against Benson High School. Because they won, Central earned their first victory in almost two years.

1. Principal Ed Bennett grins while attending Central's first football game. "After not winning a game last year, winning the first game of the season was a great accomplishment," Bennett said.
2. Desi Leeper (12) celebrates Central's victory over the Benson Bunnies. The team won 52-26, bringing victories back to Central.
3. Samuel Levy (10) punts the ball with the help of Nicholas Krivanek (12). This helped lead Central to victory.
4. A Benson Bunny gets tackled before he can make it close to the touchdown by a star Eagle. Robert Boucher (11) is ready to assist.

1. Marisa Perez-Durham (12) inspects her lie in a bunker. Perez-Durham, a three-season athlete, also plays basketball and soccer.
2. Hailey Hutfless (12) winds up to drive. Hutfless moved up to varsity after performing well at last year's junior varsity tournaments.
3. Grace Weberg (9) laughs with a Millard South golfer. This is Weberg's first year playing for Central's team.
4. Between shots, Pangea Kaan (10) considers her strategy for finishing the hole at the Knolls Golf Course. Later on in the day, the Eagles were named the champions of the OPS Golf Invite.
5. Safiyah Abdessalam (11) surveys the path of her putt. "I love golf," Abdessalam said. "I've been playing since I was 9."
6. Megan Moy (10) performs a stroke referred to as "following through." Moy's favorite aspect of the sport is that "golf gives you the opportunity to meet other people."

Pictured in both Rumbaugh's AP biology class and the library is Anna Stavneak (11).

5th Period 11:05 am
Abigail Finch (11) smiles in her AP biology class, taught by Rumbaugh, and on the front steps of Central.

6th Period 11:54 am
Eliese Ueding (10) likes getting food from the vending machine to eat during her AP biology class.

7th Period 12:43 pm
Devlin McCann (9) is all smiles in both the honors biology classroom and the courtyard during lunch.

8th Period 1:32 pm
Posing both outside Central and in her honors biology class, Corian Collier (10) enjoys all environments.

9th Period 2:21 pm
Max Carter (10) is pictured in both his honors biology class and the library computer lab.

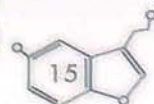

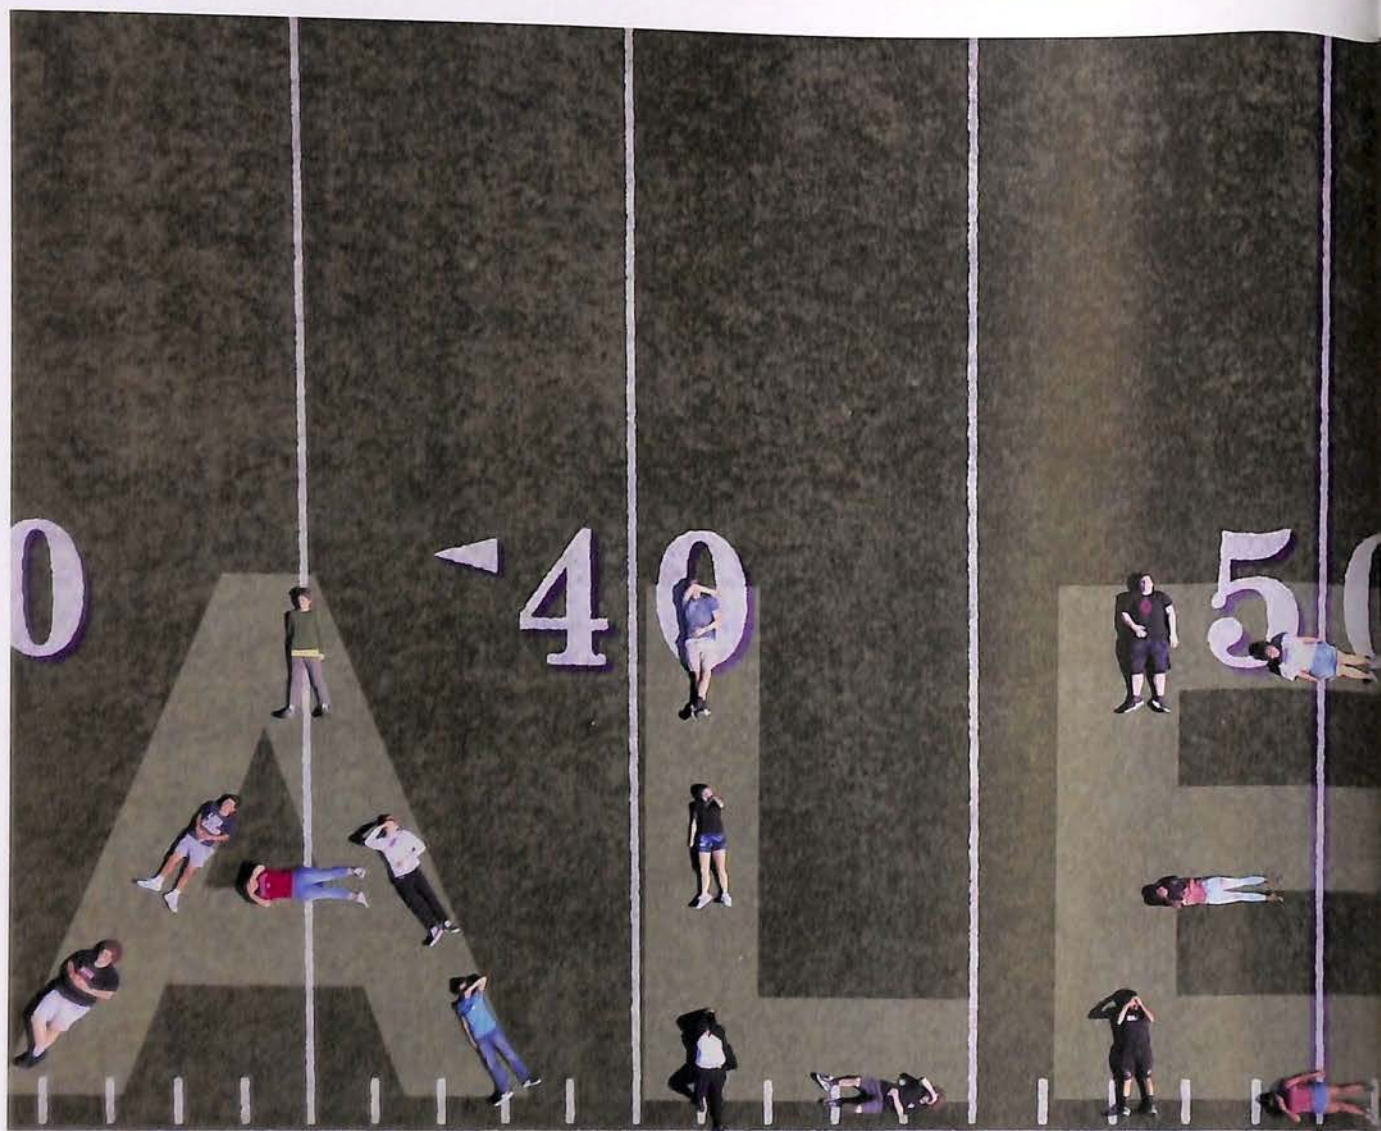

Despite well over 2,000 students and 100 classrooms, Central still manages to show each student individualized attention. Many of them may migrate to the same seats throughout the day, but each person has a unique story and personality. Here's a look at ten students (one for each period) from Room 342 throughout the day - and their favorite spots.

In a school with over 2,500 students, it makes sense to have a few students who share names with their classmates. However, the amount of students named A/ex accumulates to a number of over 31. A/ex accounts for any Alexandras, Alexises, Alexanders and even Alexandrias that attend Central, regardless of whether they actually use the nickname. That is not to say this is a truly comprehensive look at the A/ex population. Not included are students whose given name in Central's database is different from the name used by them in real life. If you use the name A/ex, welcome to the family! People named A/ex are in good company, joining a club with members such as Omahan director Alexander Payne, Gilmore Girls actress Alexis Bledel, original secretary of the treasury Alexander Hamilton, and Amazon assistant Alexa.

"My mom was going to name me Alex even if I was a girl," explains Alexander Kay (11).

"My namesake is a burnt library!" gushes Alexandria Schmidt (10), referring to the Library of Alexandria.

"My parents named me Alexander but picked 'Alec' as a quirky nickname," reveals Alec Harrison (12).

"No, I don't like my name. People get confused about gender," said Alexis Molina-Biviano (12).

"My mom calls me Lexi Loo Loo," recalls Alexis Walker (10) fondly.

Alexis Blankenfeld (11) prefers to use the nickname "Lexi" as opposed to her full first name.

1. Jada Johnson (10) sprints from base to base. "It takes hard work and dedication to run the bases," Johnson said.

2. Piper Demman (9), Jessica Blankenfeld (9), and Andrea Ruvalcabra (10) get ready for the next play to start as they do their handshakes. Every new inning, the girls repeat this maneuver as a good luck ritual.

EX-FACTOR PAST COUPLES

By Kaelynn Caldwell

Peyton Preston & Aaron Ramsdell (4 months)

Peyton: "If I could change one thing, I would make more time and be more sensitive and understanding about where Aaron was coming from".

Aaron: "My advice for future couples would be to keep an open mind and embrace each others' differences to avoid unnecessary arguments."

Anne Gallagher &

Anne: "The biggest benefit of staying friends after breaking up is figuring out how to become a better person after and still having your best friend by your side."

FUN IN FIELDS

AP BIOLOGY FIELD TRIP By Emily Hodges

From teaching in barns to catching butterflies, the AP Biology field trip was full of good times. On Thursday, Sept. 9, students had the chance to explore the plains of Glacier Creek Preserve instead of going to a regular day of school. Tracy Rumbaugh's biology students were able to experiment with new technology including heat lasers and density measures.

3. Pitcher Grace Titus (9) throws a fastball to strike out the competition. "I love pitching because it is all about performing well under pressure," Titus said. "It's never boring."

4. First baseman Jalygn Ignowski (10) steps up to bat. In the game against South, Ignowski hit a single during her first time at bat.

5. Alexis Blankenfeld (11), a varsity starter, gets in position to catch. "I'm a 5'1" catcher," Blankenfeld said. "It has been my passion since I've stepped on the field."

6. Placing the barrel on the ball, Ashley Cordes (10) hits a double. When she is not batting, Cordes is catching or playing first base.

7. Brynn Nelson (10) and Jada Johnson (10) pose for a photo during their varsity game. The team loves to show off their eagle pride.

1. Three students travel from the newly refurbished barn to collect data from their plots. Kimberly Kathka (11) carried a butterfly net in hopes of catching some unique fliers.

2. Hanna Leslie (11) catches a very alive butterfly in her hand as the students explore the scenic aspects of nature. "I really enjoyed learning about controlled burns and how they affect an ecosystem," Leslie said about her experience on the trip.

3. As students move further into the field, they grow more and more ready for a break. Mekenna Whitney (11) sat down for a few minutes while she wrote down a few observations.

Ethan Kilton (1 1/2 years)

Ethan: "The hardest part of our relationship was helping her get through anxiety and depression and helping her feel more comfortable whenever we went out to dinner."

Molly Vickery & Max Polk (10 months)

Molly: "I don't regret our relationship and have grown by getting to know people more in depth before I get into a new relationship. I also can let my feelings out better in a less argumentative way."

Max: "Our relationship started to fall apart because we were too young and did not know how to communicate well, so it always left one of us upset or arguing."

Eagles win, eagles soar, and they definitely know how to set the score. The junior varsity team went up against the Northwest Huskies and demolished their team, with a final score of 45-0.

1. Xavier Wade (10), a lineman, shows his offensive skills after the ball is snapped. He immediately jumped to protect the quarterback.

2. Alexander Castillo (10) waits patiently after the Huskies call a time out. He glares hard at his opponents to intimidate them.

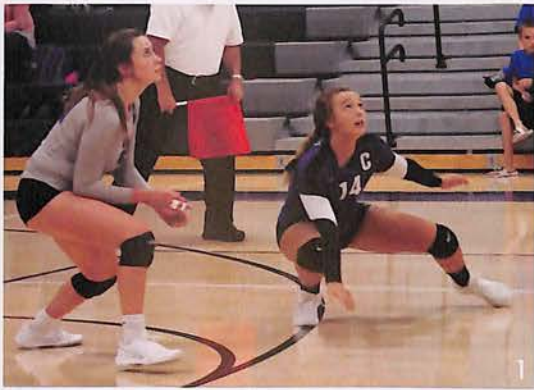

3. The Eagles "post up" before the ball is live, while staring deep into the eyes of the Huskies. This is an attempt to mess with their heads.

4. During a decisive play, Northwest is forced to punt. Jadae Moore (10) retaliates, taking the punt at the 45-yard-line, returning it for a touchdown.

5. Brody Brown (9) has his arms open wide, inviting the football into his hands. Brown caught the ball and scored the first touchdown of the game.

SPIKE IT!

ju and freshman volleyball By Emma Miller

The freshman and JV volleyball teams put up a fight against Millard North High School. They pushed themselves, fought hard and showed their opponents exactly how much talent Central truly has.

1. A high and off the net pass by Quinn Kay (9) gives other players like Angelina Baratta (11) the opportunity to pass the ball. Kay is one of the three freshman on the varsity team.
2. A light tip of the ball wins the point for Central. Bianca Martinez (9) is responsible for bringing her team to victory in this play.
3. Sofia Castro (9) moves on to the court, trading spots with Haley Brutsche-LaBreck (9). A switch in position gives one player a quick break and the another a chance to shine.

AROUND THE world

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS By Brianna Collins and Carolyn Dillman

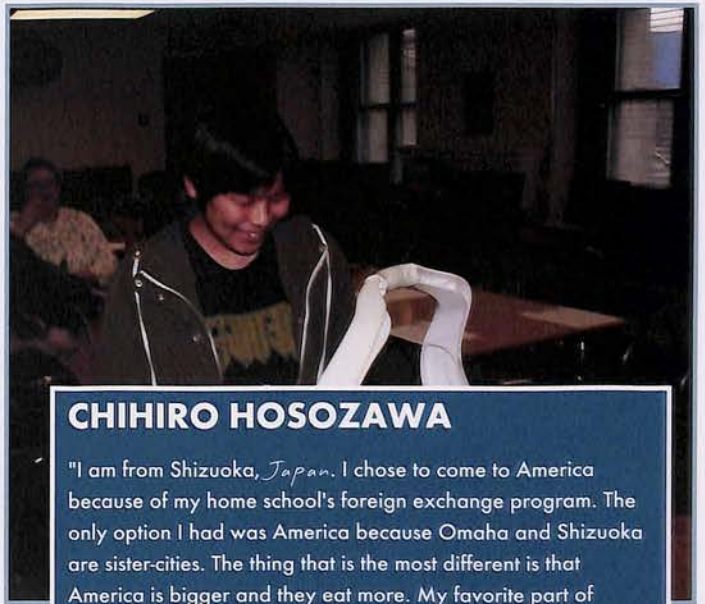

LARISA HURTADO PORRAS

"I am from Barcelona, Spain. I like the culture of America, and the things America does, like Prom and Homecoming. The biggest difference is that American people aren't as close as the Spanish. For example, in Spain people would kiss each other on the cheek rather than shaking hands. Another difference is that there is more advertising and the clothes are cheaper. My favorite part of Omaha so far is downtown. It is more quiet in Omaha than Barcelona. You can listen to nature here and in Barcelona all you could hear was the cars. What I miss the most about Barcelona is my family and the sea."

ELEONORA SANNA

"I'm from Cannigione, Italy. I came to America because I wanted to learn English, but I didn't want to go to Great Britain because it's too close to Italy. The biggest difference between Italy and America is the food. My favorite part is the different teams and sports through school. In Italy, you would have to join a club outside of school if you played sports. The thing I miss most is the beach."

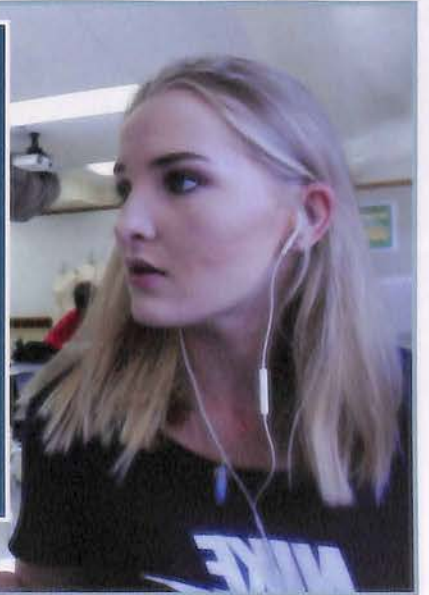

CHIHIRO HOSOZAWA

"I am from Shizuoka, Japan. I chose to come to America because of my home school's foreign exchange program. The only option I had was America because Omaha and Shizuoka are sister-cities. The thing that is the most different is that America is bigger and they eat more. My favorite part of Omaha is that the houses are bigger than they are in Japan. The thing I miss the most about Japan is my friends."

CHIARA DUNSKUS

"I am from Berlin, Germany. It has always been one of my dreams to come to America and live here for a year. I am used to living in a huge city with many people, so Omaha is very different for me. There are just some huge cultural differences. I really like Central because I'm not used to being involved in school so much and having a community like this. The thing I miss most is probably Berlin itself, because it's a great city with a lot of great people."

3. All those present at the walk raise their red pinwheels in support of the cause. Each spin represented being one hope closer to finding a cure.

4. The Mickelianus family poses with their certificate awarded for being the top fundraising team. They hosted a variety of events, such as a bake sale to help raise money for hemophilia.

5. Mickelianus' daughter was given the honor of cutting the ribbon. This signified the start of the walk, which was either one mile or five miles.

Joseph Winton's (12) Subaru certainly has more bark than its bite. These bumper stickers clearly tell the story of a politically active dog owner.

This junior is clearly a fan of peace and piercings. This car has a little extra spice than the average cherry red ride.

This luxury vehicle belongs to Dawson Weedin (11). The black Lexus has an assortment of bright red and yellow stickers associated with JROTC.

This black beauty is the pride and joy of Sydney Westphal (12). Her rear stickers are the real show stopper, displaying a myriad of interests to the world.

A spunky senior expresses their love of art, surfing, and music through multiple bumps on their rump. This Nissan Ultima is the ultimate ride for your hide.

CLOSE THE GAP

Hemophilia walk By Emily Hodges

One of Central's social studies teachers, Joseph Mickelianus, has been very open about his son's struggle with a rare form of hemophilia. Hemophilia is a blood disorder, one that causes the smallest cut in his skin to continue bleeding until a special medicine is applied. This is because his blood lacks clotting proteins. One way to support in Omaha is the Unite Walk, which students have enjoyed volunteering at for years.

LOWER LEVEL FOOTBALL

1. Making a break-away, Nate Byrd (9) scores the first touchdown of the game for Central. Central won with a final score of 31-6.

2. Cody Shanahan (9) stands on the side lines eagerly waiting for his turn to play in the game. As he stood, Shanahan motivated his team.

3. Looking back at the scoreboard, Ke'Ron Simmons (9) rises from a completed tackle. He dusts himself off as other team mates recover from the earlier play.

4. Jackson Page (9) protects the ball from Omaha South player by blocking him. This block led to a first down.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

1. Delaney Demman (11) moves to spike the incoming ball, while her teammate, Rayann Hawkins (11), prepares to finish the play. "It's fun playing with your best friend," Peyton Preston (11) gushed about Demman.
2. The CHS Singers are conducted by Lyn Bouma. The group performed the National Anthem for the volleyball game.
3. Preston serves up the ball during the third set of the game. This was the last point in Preston's 16-serve-streak, which was second only to teammate Demman's 20-serve-streak during the previous set.
4. Varsity players form a circle between the second and third sets, supporting each other with the help of their coach, Angela Thorn. "We are so passionate, diligent, and quirky that our bond is unlike any other," libero Savanna Vacek explains, describing the team's camaraderie.
5. Thorn and her fellow coach laugh together before the game begins. They are donning 2018 Leap for A Cure shirts, which are worn by all volleyball players and coaches on the school day leading up to the game.

The addition, which is located off the east side of the school facing 20th Street, is estimated to cost $20 million. The funds were donated by generous alumni and other private donors.

Limestone from the same Indiana quarry that made the current building is being used for the addition. Planners worked hard to keep Central's history intact.

The addition will house a new library along with music, art and drama rooms. The current library, vocal music and drama spaces have not been significantly updated since the 1930s.

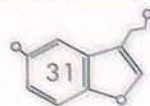

After transitioning to the new addition, the current library and other classrooms will be repurposed for Special Education and ELL programs. 25,000 square feet will be freed up in the existing building.

ZOO ACADEMY By Madeline Jaksha

1. Zoo academy students assist a head keeper in obtaining algae samples from the Scott Aquarium's main walk-through tank. Keepers at the aquarium work year-round to keep water chemistry in balance. All zoology students pick a shadow area which they stay in through the year. 2. Conservation students conduct research on tissue samples in the zoo's CCR (Center for Conservation and Research). Not all zoo academy students study strictly zoology, there are also programs in conservation and veterinary science.

3. Instructor Pat Purkhiser helps first-year students memorize scale patterns. Teachers at the Zoo are adept at creating an exciting and stimulating environment for their students.

4. Zoo student performs a routine health check on one of the stingrays used in the interactive pool. All animals undergo regular screening to ensure they are healthy and thriving.

5. A student shadowing in the Hoofstock area prepares leaves for the giraffes. Many students work at the zoo after school simply because they enjoy being around the animals.

6. A first year zoology student works inside the aquariums of the Wild Kingdom pavilion. The zoo academy prepares students for real world jobs and experiences by providing hands-on learning.

7. A zoo kindergarten student learns about frog life cycles. The activity was designed by a Zoo Academy student as part of a year-long service learning course..

8. A zoo administrator shows potential new students around the Academy. Students were thrilled to meet Sid, one of the most iconic animals at Henry.

9. A second-year zoo student awaits the arrival of a tour group in the Scott Aquarium. Community outreach is one of the zoo's pillars, a group of objectives that outline key principles incorporated into every aspect of the zoo and visitor experience.

DIFFERENT FACES, DIFFERENT PLACES

STUDENTS WHO IMMIGRATED TO THE UNITED STATES

By Christina Spomer and Carolyn Dillman

Klo Ku Say

Klo Ku Say (12) was originally born in Burma, then later moved to Thailand. His family went to a refugee camp for about 13 years in Thailand because of the war in Burma. Say then moved to Omaha when he was 15. His family was worried about the future, so they came here for a better and safer life.

Mahasim Ahmed

Mahasim Ahmed (12) was originally born in Sudan, but later moved to a refugee camp in Kenya. She moved to Omaha because it was where the United Nations placed her family when they left Kenya. In Ahmed's country, she didn't have the opportunity to go to school, and moving to America gave her that.

Ahmad Al Ramaden

Ahmad Al Ramaden (11) was born in Syria before moving to Georgia when he was 10. Then, he later moved to Omaha. Al Ramaden left Syria due to the war. His father wanted safety for him and the rest of their family.

Gisselle Anicacio

Gisselle Anicacio (11) was originally born in Alanta, Georgia. Her family is from Mexico, so they moved back when Anicacio was little. She came back to the United States to live with her aunt while the rest of her family remains in Mexico.

Agsam Abakar

Agsam Abakar (11) was born in West Sudan and moved to the United States when he was 11. He moved from Sudan to Chad due to the Sudanese civil war. His father came here before the rest of his family to find a safe place for them to live.

2. Members of A Cappella hold their music high and perform selections of "Elijah." For the closing piece, the singers performed "Salvation is Created" with alumni in attendance.

3. Annie Hekl (12) is reading the origins of the next song, "Little Birds," which is the second piece performed by Bel Canto. "We wish to bring the message of 'Heiwa' to everyone who heard us sing and through Sadako Sasaki's story," Hekl said.

4. Kween Alabi (11), along with A Capella, performs the first selection of "Elijah." These selections of music would later be used to sing with the Omaha Symphony.

5. Stephen Bouma and Gabriella Rock (12) sit at the piano during the CHS Singers' time on stage. The two are very focused during the performance, with Rock waiting for a page turn and Bouma accompanying.

6. The girls of Bel Canto - Genevieve Lewis (10), Hekl and Evelyn Hill (10) - sing their closing piece at the foot of the stage, giving many singers a chance to shine. Hill said, "Being able to perform the pieces you and your classmates have been working on for others, is such a rewarding experience."

HEMOPHILIA BENEFIT CONCERT

By Sedona Cheloha

On Oct. 28, Central's performing arts and marketing departments teamed up for a fundraising concert benefiting the National Hemophilia Foundation. This issue is of particular interest because of social studies teacher Joseph Mickelianus' son, who has severe hemophilia A. In total, the event raised nearly $600 for both the foundation and the Mickelianus family.

1. Lily Weak (12) performs "Burn" from Hamilton, which she sang for Central's Roadshow during her sophomore year. "Performing was exhilarating," Weak explained. "I got to perform one of my favorite songs again."
2. Drummer of Bad Self Portraits Jesse White (12) sings back-up during his band's performance. They performed for about an hour, with the set including both covers and original music.
3. Rachel Ross (11) performs an improv act with alumni. "Mr. Mick is one of my favorite teachers," Ross explained. "It was really special to perform to support him."
4. Colin Suey (12) and Colin Burk (12) point at the raffle table in the back of the coffeehouse. "The Colins," as they were affectionately referred to, were the night's emcees.
5. Freshman singers Flora Griffith and Grace Titus perform "Landslide" by Fleetwood Mac together. The two had only started singing together a few weeks prior.

6. Senior Connor Paintin was taught by Mickelianus for two years, nearly as long as his band Bad Self Portraits has been performing together. "Being able to raise funds for his amazing family... and being able to perform on stage with him was a huge honor," Paintin said.

7. Two instrumentalists perform as Willa Rauch (10) sings original songs written for the event. Another of Rauch's songs was written to honor survivors of gun violence.

GIRL POWER

GIRL UP By Olivia Drobny

1. Omaha club leaders Quincy Carlin (12) and Olivia Drobny (12) began Central's branch of Girl Up in August to empower girls and spread love and positivity in the community.
2. Girl Up Nebraska coalition leader Ina Bhoopalam and leaders from all over Nebraska met in Lincoln to celebrate the launch of a new drink in the name of Girl Up.
3. Grace Harbour (12) poses as Rosie the Riveter to celebrate International Day of the Girl.

1. After leaving the school from a basement exit, Dahly Long (10) gazes back towards it. The students were instructed to disperse as far across Dodge as possible.
2. Emily Hodges (11) looks away from the fire in terror. She explains that fire is one of her top fears in life, because her past self died by being burnt at the stake.

Girl Up teams up with Yuda Bands to raise money for students in underdeveloped countries to help pay for their education. Each bracelet is made by students who have graduated with the help of Yuda Bands. The club sold nearly 200 bands to sponsor student Tishah Bhebe for its first project. English teacher Anna Wiksell shows her support with her bracelet.

PHOTOJOURNALISM PORTRAITS

In the photojournalism class at Central, students are tasked with taking portrait shots of their fellow classmates. It requires aspiring photographers to play with lighting, composition and focus. These are some of the most successful portraits from the fall semester.

3. Gage Sutherland (10), Jesse White (12), Brenton Reffett (12) and Collin Burke (12) talk about where to host the crap game. They have to keep it quiet so the detective doesn't come.

4. During the Havana scene, Orestes Cooper (12) and Bria Gilmore (12) had the opportunity to dance a duet together. Hours of practice and pushing through injuries made their dance come to life.

GUYS AND DOLLS

fall musical By Christina Spomer, Emma Miller, and Avery Schlote

5. One of the hot box dancers, Leora McNamara (10) said, "It was really fun and I loved how close the cast got. Everyone should try out for the musical. It's so much fun."

6. "The bond in the cast this year was the strongest its ever been. I'm proud of the underclassmen who stepped up," White said. Evelyn Hill (10) plays a gimmick filled hot box dancer who is too blinded by her love for her fiance of 14 years to see what is happening before her.

1. After returning from Havana, Henry Wisneski (12) and Lilly Weak (12) share a passionate kiss. After being in her last Central High musical, Weak said, "Getting to be in the show was a dream come true. I loved being in a cast where it felt like family."

2. Mila Herszbaum-Harding (10), Peyton Venneman (11) and Claire Bouma (10) dance and sing to "Bushel and a Peck." This is the first hot box dance in the show.

7. Gage Sutherland (10) and Ethan White (10) lift Jesse White during their song and dance to the "Oldest Established." The song was about New York.

going green GARDENING CLUB By Emily Hodges

1. A newly committed member of garden club, Sophia Gibson (11), wipes the sweat away from her forehead as she contributes to the plants' health. She enjoyed the opportunity to make the school more plant friendly.

2. The plants' thirst is quenched as the water trickles down their leaves. It is good for the plants to be watered twice a week to sustain a healthy growth.

3. Garden club's first task was giving the courtyard some life. Luckily, devoted garden club members have been able to keep the plants alive.

MY KIND of TOWN

JOURNALISM TRIP TO CHICAGO By Sedona Cheloha

1. Staff members Simret Habte (11) and Emily Hodges (11) mimic the infamous American Gothic painting by Grant Wood. "It was surreal seeing all of the paintings in person," Hodges gushed.

2. Lauren Anderson (11) touches a plant for the very first time. "Plants?" she asked. "I heard of them."

3. First year staff member Isabelle Sgourakis (11) enjoys the beauty of Millennium Park's Crown Fountain.

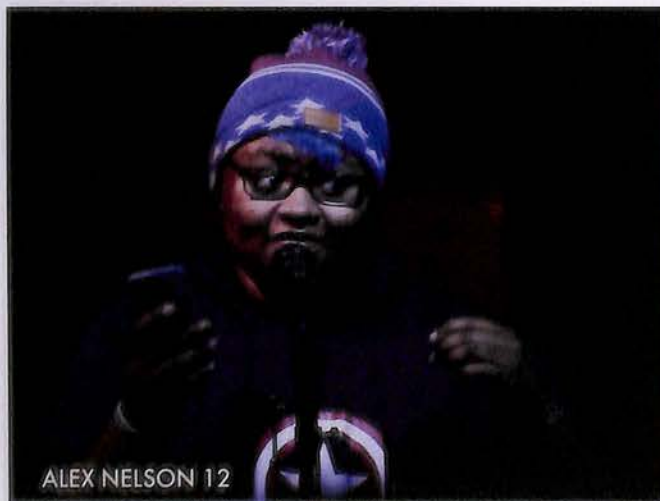

Sgourakis stands between two large faces, becoming a piece of the artwork herself.

4. Before heading to breakout sessions, Madeline Jaksha (11) stops for breakfast at Stan's Donuts. This restaurant is a staple of Chicago culture among tourists.

5. Anne Gallagher beams while The Register editor Molly Ashford (12) cuddles up in the cold weather. "I learned a lot while having so much fun with my journalism family," Gallagher said.

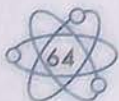

With the help of the Nebraska Writers Collective and Nicolas Bell, who coaches the students, the poets of the school are able to express themselves through their writing. Bell also spends time with prisoners to teach them how to express their emotions through poetry. This has proved to be loved, not only by the inmates, but also by many students around the district. The monthly event, "Lettuce Turnip the Beet" gives the opportunity and space to share their work with people. This vegetable named event occurs October, November, January and February. Next year, the sponsor, Michelle Sueck, is expanding the club into a class dedicated to expressing oneself through poetry.

1. Wrestler Emilio Haynes (11) takes an 11-6 victory over the defending state champion. This secures him a first place spot in the Madison High tournament.
2. KaRon Davis (12) slams down Ja'Lyn Corner (11) eventually leading to a pin during the Purple White scrimmage at Central. "The Purple and White scrimmage is definitely a highlight of the year, it brings the competitive side out of us and helps the team grow closer," Davis said.
3. Focusing intensely, Jacob Hilding (12), Haynes and Davis show support to their teammates by cheering and coaching them on the sidelines. The three have participated in the sport throughout high school.

1. Hannah Green (11) practices her speech she plans on delivering to the middle schoolers. "It was a really exciting project to be a part of," Green said.
2. Olivia Theophilus (10) and Carolyn Dillman (10) work the registration desk located at the entrance to the courtyard. Dillman said, "It was really stressful but at the end of the night it was really rewarding."
3. Thinking hard, Emiliano Altuzar (11) tries to figure out the answer to a joke asked by Sedona Cheloha (11). Altuzar was the emcee for the night and cracked jokes about math as the middle schoolers walked in.

4. A group of enrichment math students awaits the arrival of middle school math teams. As the middle schoolers walked into the courtyard the group cheered and welcomed them to Central.

AP PHYSICS SPRINGS LAB

By Sedona Cheloha

1. Prior to starting the lab, Kyle Parkhill introduces the topics of springs. These materials interact with potential energy differently than the average object, as change in length is more important than height.

2. Daniel Denenberg (10) observes his group's spring with intense focus. "Labs are innovation through experimentation and analysis," Denenberg explained.

3. Multi-tasking, Lillian McEvoy (10) attempts to both complete the lab and the write-up simultaneously. Each lab in Parkhill's class requires a full report.

4. Aaron Ramsdell (11) carefully measures the change in his springs extension, according to the class rules. "Parkhill is my king," Ramsdell explained about his favorite physics teacher.

5. Taegen Swanson (11) giggles as he and Alexander Kay (11) measure their spring lengths. "Physics is so engaging, especially with my best friend," Swanson said.

WORLD RELIGIONS

Gary Groff's 3rd and 4th hour ventured on their first field trip of his 2nd semester class. Studying the Judaism unit, they went to Temple Israel for a tour.

1. After the field trip came to an end all the students gathered in the Temple's courtyard. "The field trip was enjoyable, Scott did a good job of showing people what Judaism is," Ari Saltzman (11) said.

2. Anne Gallagher (12) and Jeremy Davis (12) stop to talk in front of a beautifully colored mosaic in the temple's courtyard.

3. Scott Littky leads the tour of Temple Israel. He took the students on a journey through the Jewish culture.

2. Avery Tilley (12), Chloe Jones (12) and Caroline Carter (12) celebrate their induction with cupcakes. This is their second year being a part of the club.
3. Victoria Shradar (12) and Madelynn Vasquez (12) welcome the next generation of O-Club inductees.

O-CLUB INDUCTION By Pono Biven

4. Sara Evans shares the history and importance of O-Club alongside Luke Dillon and Ed Bennett. Together, they thanked the students for their dedication to the school and their athletic careers.
5. Safiyah Abdessalam (11), Lauren Tse (12), Charles Levy (12), Arthur Brown (12) and Marisa Perez-Durham (12) represent the golf team at the induction. "We weren't that successful, but it's nice to be recognized for our dedication," Tse said.

LIFE OF A STUDENT ATHLETE

Chloe Jones (12) is part of the varsity swim team.

She not only has to balance the weekend meets and practices that come with the sport, she also has to manage her rigorous IB schedule. While she does admit that it can be difficult at times, it is worth it in the end for her. She does advise other student athletes to take time off for themselves every once and while though. "You don't want to burn yourself out by working too hard," Jones said.

4. Larisa Hurtado Porras (12), Alison Doady (12) and Sophie Walenta (12) rest up before their next race. The girls team has won the Benson invite for a consecutive eight years.

5. Adithya Gurumurthy (11) and Negil McPherson (11) cheer alongside members of the varsity swim team. These two are some of the only students who enjoy supporting the swimmers at meets.

6. Grace Weberg (9) breathes heavily as she sprints down the lane during the 100 backstroke. "I chose swimming because everyone was so welcoming and fun to be around," Weberg said.

CONCERT SQUADS

CONCERTS By Sofia Gibson and Emily Hodges

Gianna Venditte (12) and Olivia Harbour (12) traveled to the Midwest's not-so hidden gem, Chicago for Lollapalooza last summer. "My favorite concert we went to together was the Arctic Monkeys because it was at Lollapalooza which is where we saw most of our concerts," Harbour said.

Vanessa Amoah (11) and Adah Gibson (9) have been going to concerts together for some time now. So far Adah's favorite concert has been their most recent one, seeing Peach Pit at the the Slowdown. "It had a smaller venue and it was more personal, we got to meet them also."

Kaya Koraleski (11) and Ryin Hink (11) have been concert buddies almost as long as they have been friends. "My favorite concert we have gone to together was Vance Joy because we got to travel to Kansas City," Koraleski said.

ROCK ON ALTERNATIVE SPORTS

Rock-climber Michael Pavel (12) scales an unsecured wall in training. Committed practice has led him to many divisional titles.

Abbey O'Brien (12) began cycling at age 7, while living in California. She inherited her competitive spirit from her father.

Carolyn Dillman (10) has been participating in the challenging sport of Irish dance for five years. She enjoys how it pushes her to do her best.

Tariq Douglas (11) spends his weekends shredding the powder at the local Mt. Crescent. He has been snowboarding since he was young.

4. Staying wary of Elkhorn South players, Alahna Davis (9) sprints down the court "[The season] was very hard, but we managed to push through. In the end it turned out how we wanted it to."

5. ShyAnne Mayhue (9) surveys the court for an open teammate to pass the ball to. "It was a rocky season at the start, and I got hurt three times. But overall this season was a great experience," Mayhue said.

1. A'nya Jones (11) shoots a free throw as her teammates and opponents watch anxiously. Jones is grateful and ambitious, stating "my favorite part of playing this year was the connection I had with my teammates. I hope in the future we will be able to get a district title."

2. Before Elkhorn South's defense can prevent her shot, Skye Giddings (9) aims for the basket. Racking up points during a game often boosts the team's morale.

3. Sophia Sgourakis (10) evades a defender's block. "I enjoyed welcoming all of the new freshmen. It gave us a good look into the future," she said.

lower level boys basketball By Dahly Long and Brynn Nelson

1. Cameron Lawrence (10) starts the game by winning the jump ball against Omaha Bryan. This move helps determine which team earns possession of the ball first.
2. Malaby Byrd III (11) shoots his second free throw of the game. These points added to the lead the team had already gained.
3. Marcus Baptiste (10) braces himself to make a three pointer. His strong grip on the ball proved successful, even against the opposing team.
4. Alexander Castillo (10) aggressively readies himself to shoot a lay up with the pressure of the opposing team right on his back. "Sometimes before every game I get butterflies in my stomach because I want to live up to my teams expectations."
5. With a look of determination, Joseph Craig (10) defensively picks off the opponents. "My teammates became my family this season," Craig said.
6. After being fouled, Anthony Lind (10) shoots a free throw. The other team looks on in defeat.

1. Idreis Bari (12), Will Beiermann (12) and Marie Ervin (12) crowd excitedly around a computer. The three are intent on succeeding in competitions this year.
2. Wearing the new AcaDeca t-shirts, Alexandria Schmidt (10), Ervin and Mary Lonergan (11) smile wide for the camera. The animal on these shirts stems from the official Academic Decathlon company always sending a stuffed toy with the year's course material.

3. Taking a study break, Colin Burk (12) and Gianna Venditte (12) pose excitedly. Although Academic Decathlon can be stressful, the students find plenty of time for fun.

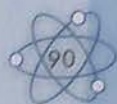

4. Beiermann and Ervin review content and converse. After three years in the class, Ervin claims that "Central definitely takes the award for the best team."

1. Cameron Bahl (9) programs a microbit, which is a microchip with LED lights. It was designed to play rock, paper, scissors.
2. Marcell Mitchell (9) enters the world of virtual reality. He escaped reality in order to test his light saber skills.

3. Reshma Abusadr (11) and Milvian Lopez Chajon (11) use Javascript to create a snowman. Javascript is computer language used to make websites interactive.
4. Students attended the AIM Brain Exchange to learn with technology. They also filmed and edited videos with a green screen wall.

BUFFER LAB By Brianno Collins

1. Arthur Brown (12) bends down at eye-level to focus on the materials in the dropper dripping into the beaker.
2. Inside the beakers are different materials, like vinegar and sodium acetate. When the buffer, along with metacresol purple dye, is added to the liquids, the materials will change into different colors.
3. "This lab helped me visualize the reactions we were discussing in class," Nora Graham (12) said, dropping her solution into the buffer.
- 1 "Specifically the principle of buffers and their capacity."

4. Victoria Shradar (12) said, "It is really interesting to have labs that replicate natural processes and the subjects we study." There are a total of three students in the class, Shradar commenting, "We are the chemis-TRIO!"
5. Brown uses a dropper to mix his solution with the buffer. The purpose of the lab was to observe the effects of strong acids and strong bases on the buffer solutions.

RINGING IN THE SEASON

By Isabelle Sgourakis and Sedana Cheloha handbell choir

1. The concert begins with a special rendition of "Deck the Halls" featuring Anna Massey (11). "Bell choir is a great way to get involved and try new things," Massey said.

2. Seasoned bell-players Mila Herszbaum-Harding (10) and Jalen Moore (11) wait intently for their cue. In such a complicated piece, layering the sounds with care is of utmost importance.

3. Holly Kerr (12) strikes the bells during a tune. Despite the name "handbell," other instruments and tools are fair game while playing.

4. Lilly Weak (12) carefully chimes her instruments mid-performance. The show was held in the atrium of the Joslyn Art Museum.

5. During a piece specifically composed to include alternate tones, Shane Waits (10) plays the chimes. "It was my first time doing bell choir, and it was an awesome experience," Waits explained.

6. Handbell instructor Lyn Bouma smiles with pride following the completion of piece. Bouma is the conductor of the choir.

ARTS COMPETITION

By Emma Miller and Naomi Weak

1. Out of all the high schools in the Omaha area who participated, Central received the best overall score. This was the first year of the competition and Central was the first school to have its name proudly engraved on the trophy.

2. With Dr. Bennett in attendance, he spoke about the achievement in high regard. He expects the trophy to return again next year to keep the title Social Justice of the Year.

3. "It was very hard to write your own song and perform it in front of a lot of people," Morouj Zenbaara (11) said. She sung a song called "I Cry Over The Looking Sham" which detailed the awful events occurring in her home country and how it is not being reported on.

4. "I wrote about how people say awful things about my limitations that come with having a disability, when they don't know the full story," Naomi Weak (10) said. This was her first time performing in front of an audience.

5. Franklin Thompson, organizer of the Martin Luther's King Living the Dream Competition introduces the winning school. He also explains how the competition came to be and the importance to the community.

6. Willa Rauch (10) sang an original song about gun violence and her feelings about the school shootings last year. "Experiences like this are like those that make you feel like your apart of something greater. I'm so fortunate to be able to share something that matters so much," Rauch said.

7. Cecilia Huber (12) participated in the first poetry section and won first prize for her piece "Breaking Ignorance." Her poem detailed the struggle of being with someone from a different race when people are stuck in their ways.

1. Aniah Wayne (9) reaches past the defense to shoot a basket. Her timing is important as to not get blocked by the opposition.
2. While searching for teammates, Dayzaneque Haynes (12) does not allow the loud crowd to distract her. Haynes has been on the team for three years.
3. With intense determination, Wayne dribbles down the court in an attempt to score. Basketball requires both quick feet and careful execution of strategy.
4. Claire Williams (9) takes a moment to recollect herself mid-game. She understands that the basketball team is "improving and learning how to work together," and knows to take a deep breath every once in a while.
5. Evading the defense's blocking attempt, Aaniya Webb (9) aims for a teammate in hopes to advance the ball down the court. This season was viewed as a rebuilding for the program as the girls learn to grow into their skills.

SEVENTEEN AN

NHS BABYSITTING By Pono Biven

1. Kaelynn Caldwell (12) joins the kids working crossword puzzles. "Hanging out and helping kids paints pictures for their parents was definitely a night well spent," she said.
2. Elaine Velez (12) and Sydney Westphal (12) celebrate their victory in volleyball. They won the game 37-11.
3. Carlee Thompson (12) helps feed one of the children.
4. Carolina Castro (12) gives a high-five after scoring a goal for her teammates. "I honestly don't know who had more fun, the kids or me," Castro said.
5. Madelynn Vasquez (12) colors Valentine's Day themed pictures with some of the children. The kids were very excited to show their parents their artwork.

3. Lydia Baum (12), Lilly Weak (12), Jesse White (12), William Svolos (12), Connor Paintin (12), and Joseph Winton (12) laugh while performing in study hall. They agreed, "it was fun to sing to people in front of others because they looked embarrassed".

KISS & TELL

Savanna & Sedona

"We would go to the Pizza Machine and ride go-karts. First, we'd go in the car for two people, but then we'd race so one of us can establish dominance. Maybe if we had gone on that awesome date, we'd actually be dating by now."

Savanna Vacek (12) & Sedona Cheloha (11)

Dylan & Tysa

"Our dream date would begin with dinner at Chick-fil-A. Our meal would consist of every single menu item combined. After eating as much as possible without dying, we'd head to an open field and frolic with wolves."

Dylan Baker (11) & Tysa Dethloff (11)

Nick & Marisa

"We'd wake up at 3 a.m. and hit the gym for seven hours. While still sweating, we'd head to a romantic dinner and only pay for water. It'd be expensive water. Like Fiji brand. After tipping 50 percent, we'd then go get ice cream at Ted & Wally's and swim in a pool of baked Hot Cheetos before passing out until the next workout. End scene."

Nicholas Krivanek (12) & Marisa Antunez (12)

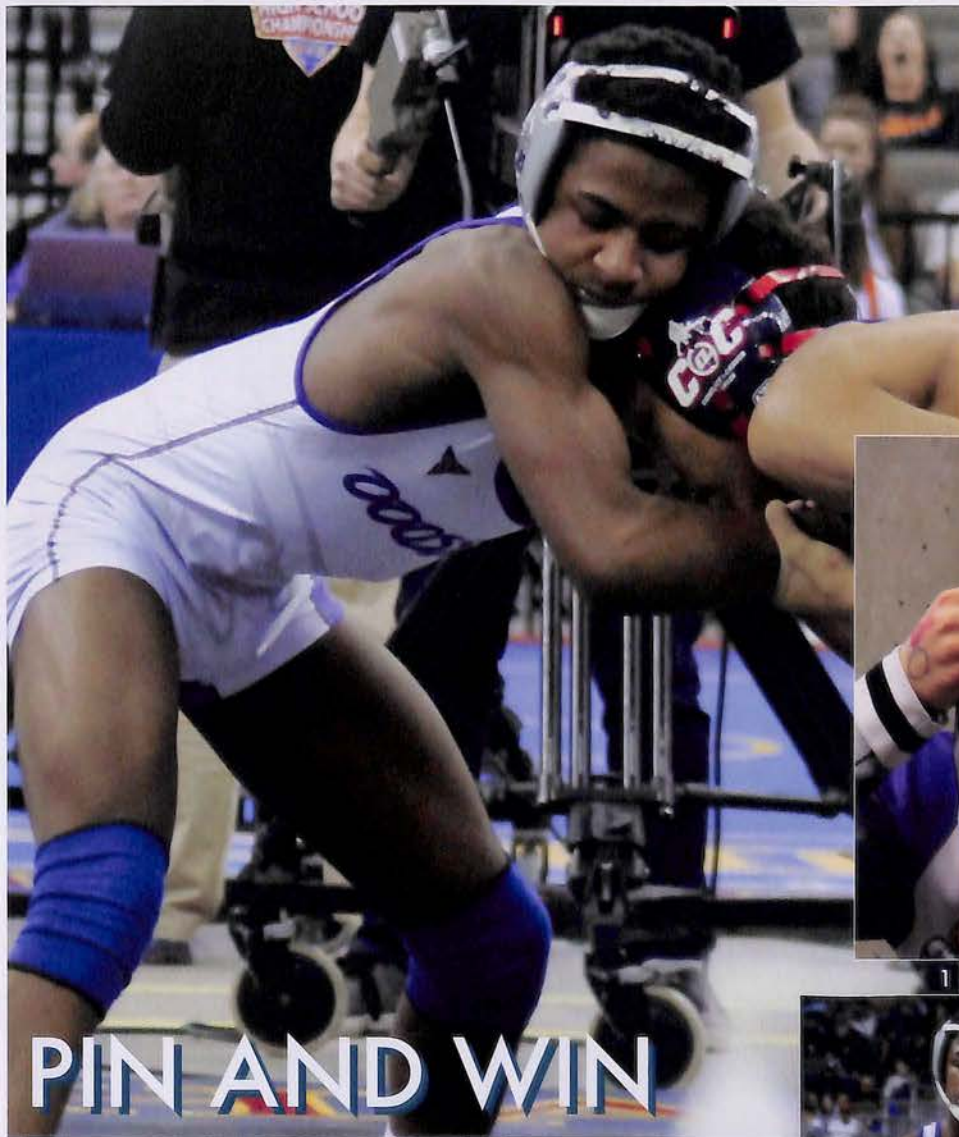

Dahly & Alex

"Our ideal date would be thrift shopping downtown. We'd buy matching scarves. Then we would go eat Blue Sushi and have a contest to see who can finish eating faster. To finish out the night, we'd take the Heartland Park ferry at sunset."

Dahly Long (10) & Alexander Castillo

1. With a look of concentration on his face, Emilio Haynes (11) pushes back his opponent. Haynes placed 2nd at the state meet.

2. Jacob Hilding (12) proudly displays his state medal after a successful day of wrestling. Although the sport is demanding, Hilding claims that "if you're willing to put in the work, you will definitely reap the rewards."

PIN AND WIN

STATE WRESTLING By Orestes Cooper III and Lauren Anderson

3. The wrestling team is trained in efficiently taking down the opposition. Despite their efforts, it is common for participants to receive injuries during a struggle.

4. Haynes takes a deep breath before reentering a match. He considers one's mentality "95 percent of wrestling", whereas the physical side is only the remaining 5 percent.

Officially opening after spring break, the $20 million dollar addition will feature a new library and music, art and drama rooms. The funds needed for this extensive addition were donated by alumni and private donors.

1. Leading off the 200 freestyle relay, Aaron Ramsdell (11) prepares to swim the first leg. This is his third year competing in state.

2. Quinn Williams (12) breathes heavily after swimming the 100 backstroke in consolations. "The right song always put me in the mood to stunt on everyone," said Williams.

3. Making up the 200 Freestyle relay, Abigayle Craig (12), Christina Spomer (10), Millicent Young (9) and Valeria Welk (9) place fifth in finals. "I love relays because I get to swim with amazing people and become closer with my team," Spomer said.

4. Dahly Long (10) completes a 104c (double front tuck) scoring 42 points. Long also placed 5th at state with a total score of 371.25 points, highest scoring female diver in Central history.

5. The state team cheers on their team captains as they walk down the pool deck. This allows for the teams to be introduced as well as show their leadership.

6. During prelims, Austin Gillespie (12) sprints down the pool for his 100 freestyle. "Shoutout to Elmwood recreation swim league for building my fins and gill," said Gillespie.

7. Cormac O'Brien (12) completing a 201b (back dive pike). O'Brien finished 21st in the state.

1. Mia Wicken (9), Hannah Brown (11) and Alexis Blakenfeld (11) pose together while enjoying pizza. While they enjoyed their food, the students listened to speeches given by the club sponsors and then discussed their reactions.

2. Aalyiah Thompson (11), Evan Stephens (10), Blakenfeld and Grant Goding (11) are all in line to grab pizza and drinks. "It's a good place to find God in public school and to talk about athletics," Stephens said.

IN GOD WE TRUST

Sophia Gibson (11)
Gibson poses with her dad, who recently retired from the military after being active for 21 years. She was born in Montana and has lived all over the country in places like California and Kentucky, but Nebraska is now home for her.

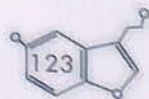

Emma Nieland (11) and Luke Nieland (9)
The two pose with their uncle, who now lives out in South Carolina. He was a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army until he retired in 2018.

Brianna Collins (11)
Collins smiles during a holiday outing with her dad, who is currently deployed in Afghanistan. "It's hard; I hardly see him because he was stationed in Texas," Collins explained. "On the bright side, when he comes back to the States in March 2020, he's moving to Omaha."

The background of the page is a hand-drawn illustration. At the top, there are several large, rounded green shapes representing bushes or trees, each filled with a stippled or textured pattern. In the bottom left corner, there are several long, thin, curved lines representing blades of grass. The entire scene is set against a light blue background. In the upper right corner, there is a simple drawing of a yellow sun with rays.

Spring

1. Mia Spencer (11) and Larisa Hurtado Porras (12) discuss with their team their possible answers regarding a question about 80's music. "It's a fun night to be with your friends," Spencer said.

2. Jamming out on stage, Jesse White (12), along with other band members, entertain the competitors. White can often be found supporting the school with his music.

3. Abraham Hoskins (11), Christian Simmons (11) and Logan Simmons (9) contemplate their answers. There are a multitude of categories that required knowledge over topics such as superhero's and movie sequels.

BRAINIACS

rock the nest By Emma Nieland

1. John Tonje (12) recovers the ball on the tip-off, allowing the Eagles to take the ball to the hoop.

Tonje will be going to play for Colorado State next year.

2. Abraham Hoskins III (11) charges down the court after stealing the ball from a defender. Hoskins was able to score a series of three pointers helping the Eagles take the lead.

3. Coach Eric Behrens calls a timeout to discuss the game plan with the team. The boys are always training to become better than everyone else.

By Emma Nieland, Dahly Long, Brynn Nelson and Dillon Galloway boys golf

SWING OF THINGS

1. Trae Brown (12) prepares to hit the ball. He has to make sure to grab the right club, otherwise his shot could be too short or too long.

2. Jaxson Fullerton (10) hits the ball with his iron. This is Fullerton's first year playing for the golf team.

3. Seth Tejral (11) looks out on the hole carefully determining how he will play. It is key to plan out the hole, otherwise they could go over par.

4. Fullerton returns his club to his bag. Fullerton is an athlete who knows how to balance his sports with school-work, as he also plays basketball for Central.

ROAD TO SUCCESS

STATE BASKETBALL By Dillon Galloway and Peyton Venneman

4. Maxwell Polk (11) takes a shot over the head of a Packer. This shot came at a pivotal moment in the final game.

5. John Tonje (12) awaits the beginning of the second half of the semifinal game of state. Tonje has been one of the many keys to Central's success.

6. Latrell Wrightsell (11) holds up one finger to signify winning the semi-final game against Bellevue West. The Eagles won the game 71-57 to face Omaha South in the finals.

7. Tonje scores a basket after out-running the Warrior defense. He will play at Colorado State after graduation.

Newspaper editors Molly Ashford (12) and Anne Gallagher (12) admire their publication. It was displayed with other competing schools' papers for comparison.

After learning about yearbook layouts in a breakout session, Sophia Gibson (11) and Emily Hodges (11) applaud. "The workshops were interesting," Gibson said.

The newspaper staff earned many awards, including Best of Show. "We won thanks to the tireless efforts of our editorial staff," says Malcolm Durfee O'Brien (11).

Simret Habte (11) and Emma Nieland (11) watch the winning broadcasting videos. Though neither create video news, they both appreciate the craft.

ON TRACK

boys track

By Dahly Long, Dillon Galloway and Lauren Anderson

1. Alex Castillo (10) and Abraham Hoskins IV (10) vault over high hurdles as spectators watch excitedly. "I push myself hard everyday to achieve the times I want," Castillo said.
2. While sprinting the 200 meter race, Torrence Jackson (12) hikes his knees and arms up to maximize speed. Jackson's performance earned him a medal at the Benson Invite.

1. Olivia Theophilus (10) battles for the ball during the Duchesne vs. Central game. Theophilus stated, "Being a part of the team has allowed me to benefit both on and off the field in many ways."

2. Carlee Thompson (12) and Rayante O'Neal (12) run towards a Duchesne girl to block her from scoring a goal. Working together allows them to team up on the girl as well as quickly get the ball away from the goal and down the field.

3. Natalia Shradar (9) quickly dribbles the ball down the field. Shradar stole the ball and would help set her team up to take a shot at the goal.

4. Payton Haliburton (12) dribbles down the field to get closer to her team and the goal. As one of the captains on the varsity soccer team, Haliburton is in charge of leading her team using what she has learned playing for Central all four years.

3. Joseph Mayberger (12), Matthew Glissman (12) and Julio Dominguez (11) push through the pain during a distance race. The trio participates in cross country as well.

4. Ashton Hagen (11) enters his final skip during the triple jump. This requires great focus.

JUST FOR KICKS

GIRLS SOCCER By Christina Spomer

1. Collin Galligher (11) gets ready to pitch to the opposing team. This is his third year of playing baseball at Central.
2. Kean Allen (11) winds up and throws a pitch towards the opposing team's batter. Pitchers require a lot of power and technique to throw a great pitch.

BLACKOUT

NEW BLACK BOX THEATER

The new addition included the much anticipated Black Box Theater. The theater will allow for students in music classes to perform for larger audiences with better acoustics. The theater has already hosted NFL player, Amser Abdullah.

1. Blythe Peterson (12) finishes a serve. Blythe is ranked #1 on the team and serves as a role model for the younger players.
2. Lucy Stavneak (11) swings deep to return a serve from her opponent. Many girls spend hours after school training in hopes of becoming a top player.

BASEBALL

3. Allen stands near second base he awaits for the ball to be hit. He is on constant alert for grounders

4. Brock Lakin (11) bunts a ball at one of Central's baseball games. "The baseball team is a family and each of my teammates are my brothers. Central baseball is coming back," Lakin said.

5. Thomas Sullivan (11) hits a single, exciting his teammates and family. Sullivan earned many more hits that game.

6. Jacob Roberts (11) is the catcher for the varsity baseball team. He warms up with the pitcher getting ready for the oncoming batters.

3. Rushing forward, Greta Bullerdick (10) ties the match. Tennis is a game of skill, requiring excellent footwork and a deep knowledge of the sport.

4. Stavneak waits for her opponent to serve. It takes patience and time to become a top player, especially on a team as competitive and successful as Central's.

GAME, SET, MATCH

1. Elaine Velez (12) and Madeline Krause (11) smile after receiving their medals for the two mile race. Both are experienced distance runners and run cross country in the fall.

2. Vernetta Stennis (9) keeps her form tight during a race. Track members are taught to not compromise arm positioning even when exhausted.

3. Sticking to a North runner's hip, Claire Williams (9) navigates the mass of people running the 800 meter. Williams enjoys "the friendly atmosphere that track provides."

4. Nora Graham (12) paces alongside a South runner during the 3200 meter. Graham is known for smiling even mid-race.

1. Koy Letham (11) searches for an available teammate to pass to. Letham has been the team's goalie since his first season.

2. Team captain Mumin Aden (11) successfully evades defenders with a hard kick. Captains are marked by their bright orange arm bands.

3. Taban Jock (12) wrestles the ball away from an Elkhorn South player. Central eventually won this game in overtime.

4. Cesar Mejia Tenorio (12) prepares for a throw-in. Ball shaggers are nearby, waiting for the ball to be kicked off-field.

BALLIN' BOYS SOCCER

NEW ARTS
ADDITION

NEW BEGINNINGS

By Emma Miller, Avery Schlote and Dillon Galloway

The addition was funded by the Central High School Foundation. It includes four different art rooms and a new library (media center). The art rooms moved from the fourth floor down to the third floor of the new addition, which is easier on the students' calves. Students began using the new rooms after spring break. The new library grew three times the size of the old one, and there is plenty of room for the media collection to expand. The rooms, while already large, appear much larger due to the new windows allowing light to pour in from the outside. Old rooms will be converted to "swing spaces" during construction on the main building.

1. Leora McNamara (10) performs a ballet as Ilana McNamara (12) and Jackson Farho (10) accompany her. "It was so special to perform with my sister before she leaves for college."

2. Taijah Carlisle (12), Bria Gilmore (12), Bailey Hosey (11), Tay Johnson (12) and Aaliyah Thompson (11) dance to a medley of soul. The songs played between messages of empowerment lip-synced by the dancers.

3. The CHS Singers perform "Linus and Lucy." Traditionally, this is a piano number, but they used their vocal instruments instead.

4. Daniel Denenberg (10) passionately performs a Billy Joel classic, "New York State of Mind." His act was beloved by fellow performers and audience members alike.

5. Connor Painfin (12) blows his saxophone with intensity. "The sax is my best friend and only companion."

a NIGHT at the MUSEUM

The 105th Road Show was no different from past years in that it allowed the numerous talents of Central students to be showcased in a non-competitive environment. Although performers had to audition, the night is about showing off your passion and having fun with friends and family. The auditorium was filled with laughs and smiles. The acts varied from a short film by Ben Lane (12) to a barber shop quartet featuring Jesse White (12), Colin Suey (12), Henry Wisneski (12) and Colin Burk (12). The show also included original songs, one by Grace Titus (9) and Flora Griffith (9). Roadshow is a tradition that cements Central's legacy in history.

6. One of the night's emcee's, Lydia Baum (12), presents an act by pretending it is a museum exhibit. This is Baum's second year hosting.

7. Lula Gout (12) embodies Beyonce as she performs "Pretty Hurts." The sunny shade of the dress was inspired by the album Lemonade.

8. Willa Rauch (10) and Mila Herszbaum-Harding (10) portray two gator hunters in the deep south of Nebraska. The skit was written by the actors, including the news reporter not pictured, Claire Bouma (10).

9. Rachel Ross (11), the other emcee, portrays a student lost in the museum. She later performed with the jazz band.

YEARBOOK STAFF

It's hard to believe our baby boy is graduating high school. Where has the time gone? You have grown up to be such a smart, handsome and wonderful young man. Whatever you decide to do, make sure it makes you happy. Always remember to keep God first and everything else will fall into place. Know that we are always here for you. Good luck son.

2019 Graduate Ms. Ashari Allen!

Your family loves you and we are proud of your accomplishment.

From Granddaddy, Nana, Kenyatta, Nazir, Joshua, Asha, Tarik, Akeem, and Kalila

Son, it has been a pleasure watching you grow from newborn, toddler, grade school, middle school and now a senior in high school. You are a very smart, intelligent and inquisitive young man, and I am excited to see what your future holds, me (mom). Grams and Grandpa and Family are all very proud of you and I want to let you know I may fuss, but through ups and downs in your life and whatever you go through, I'm here every step of the way and got your back.

I love you son.

Love your mom, and family

Deja'nae,

You have exceeded all expectations not only of your family, but society. As you step out into the real world there is no doubt in our minds that you will continue to do so. With your attitude, determination, & grace you will definitely go far and we're all here to see it! Love you.

~From All of Us

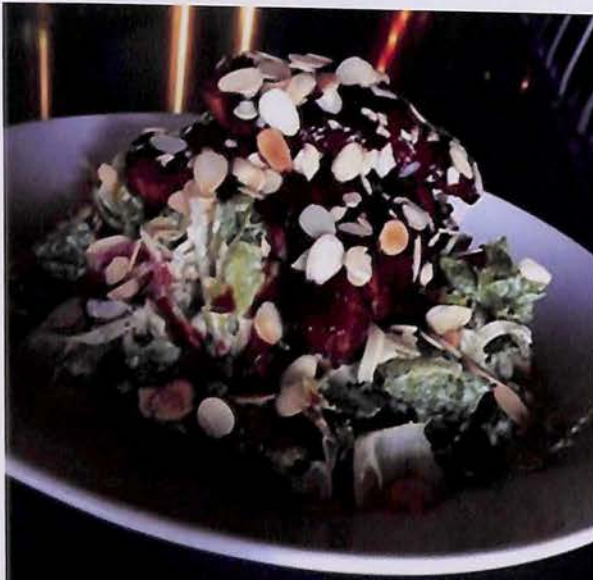

Jake,

Since the day you were born, we knew you were a great kid. What we have learned along the way is that you have integrity, courage and an incredible work ethic. You are an amazing person and we are so proud to call you our son.

LETTER FROM THE EDITORS

This publication marks the first yearbook at Central to be edited by a duo of juniors. During our sophomore year, we individually fought to earn the coveted position of Editor-in-Chief. In an attempt to diffuse the building tension, Emily Hodges rambled off a list of theme ideas, one of which was very familiar to us as sophomores: the Periodic Table of Elements from chemistry class. The familiar subject, along with the announcement that we would serve as Co-Editors, was enough to bring peace back to 029 and evolve into the theme it has become. The Elements of Central is a love letter to the student body and what makes all of us unique. Yet, we are still able to put aside our differences and form a united school. It is our hope that your reading of the yearbook will reveal the passion and dedication that we, along with our wonderful staff, poured into the book. A formal "thanks" is in order: to our teachers, for letting us skip class to work on the yearbook; to the students, for being active in their school; and to you, for taking the time to read and appreciate all of our hard work and also forgiving any typos we may have made along the way.

EMMA NIELAND AND SEDONA CHELOHA

COLOPHON & EPILOGUE

All pages of this O-Book and Epilogue were printed by Walsworth Yearbooks. Fonts used include Handschrift, Function Pro, AVANTGUARD, and Primer Print. Senior photos were taken by photographers in the Omaha and Council Bluffs area and various student photographers. Underclassmen, staff and some senior photos were taken by Scholastic Photography. Photos in this yearbook were taken by members of the O-Book and The Register Staff. Credit is given to pictures that were not taken by Central journalism staff members. All layouts were made by Editors-in-Chief Emma Nieland (11) and Sedona Cheloha (11), along with staff members Christina Spomer (10), Dahly Long (10) and Emily Hodges (11). The editing of this publication was conducted by yearbook advisor Hillary Blayney and previously mentioned editors. Official members of the 2019 Yearbook Staff created this yearbook: Sedona Cheloha (11), Emma Nieland (11), Dillon Galloway (11), Madeline Jaksha (11), Orestes Cooper (12), Pono Biven (12), Lauren Tse (12), Olivia Drobny (12), Kaelynn Caldwell (12), Brianna Collins (11), Emily Hodges (11), Peyton Venneman (11), Lauren Anderson (11), Sophia Gibson (11), Isabelle Sgourakis (11), Dahly Long (10), Naomi Weak (10), Jamie Reiff (10), Emma Miller (10), Brynn Nelson (10), Avery Schlote (10), Carolyn Dillman (10), Na'Kishay Perry (10), Christina Spomer (10), and Jon Savoie (10).
