THE UNIVERSITY CHARTER

The origins of Southern Illinois University Carbondale date to “An Act to Establish and Maintain the Southern Illinois Normal University” approved by the Illinois General Assembly on March 9, 1869.

The act defined the new university’s purpose as “to qualify teachers for the common schools of this state by imparting instruction in the art of teaching in all branches of study which pertain to a common school education in the elements of the natural sciences including agricultural chemistry, animal and vegetable physiology, in the fundamental laws of the United States and of the State of Illinois in regard to the rights and duties of citizens and such other studies as the board of education may from time to time prescribe.”

It included provisions for appointment of a Board of Trustees. One of the board’s first orders of business under the act would be to “advertise for proposals from localities desiring to secure the location of said Normal University.” The act required the board to “locate the institution at such point, as shall, all things considered, offer the most advantageous conditions. The land shall be selected south of the Railroad, or within six miles north of said road, passing from St. Louis to Terre Haute known as the Alton and Terre Haute railroad, with a view of obtaining a good supply of water and other conveniences for the use of the institution.”

The act defines how buildings would be constructed, as well as procedures for selecting students. It assigned a budget of $75,000 for construction of buildings and for furnishings.

The University Charter displayed on the stage today was bound by alumna Wendy Hale Davis, a bookbinder, artist and musician in Austin, Texas.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The ceremonial mace, a decorated staff carried in the commencement procession, is a symbol within a symbol. It denotes the right of the university administration to confer degrees on its graduates. Its place at the head of the SIU procession and carried by the recipient of the Scholar Excellence Award, who serves as the commencement Grand Marshal, conveys respect for the scholarship and dedication of the faculty.

The presence of a mace in ceremonial processions dates to the Middle Ages. The earliest maces were practical items, carried by sergeants-at-arms as part of the royal bodyguards' means of protecting the king and as a symbol of his authority. In time, the mace was adapted to civic use and represented leadership. No longer a weapon, the mace became a work of art, decorated with precious metals and often bearing the seal of the city or university it represented.

Universities began incorporating a mace into their ceremonies as early as the 15th century. In the United States, most universities continue the tradition and incorporate a ceremonial mace into commencement exercises.

At SIU, the mace is very much a product of the university as well as representative of it. Professor Richard Smith, blacksmith and faculty member in the School of Art and Design, was commissioned to create a mace to debut in 2013. He turned to professor emeritus Richard Mawdsley, silversmith, to complete the project. He also enlisted the assistance of alumna Erin Dixon; assistant professor Sun Kyoung Kim; graduate student Patrick Quinn; and undergraduate students Timothy Schaeffer and Daniel Widolff – all from the School of Art and Design.

The mace, constructed of Damascus steel and silver, is 42 inches tall and 1¼ inches wide at its widest point. Design elements incorporate architectural references to Old Main – a campus building when SIU was the brand-new Southern Illinois Normal University, a teachers college, in 1874. Though Old Main was destroyed by fire in 1969, it holds a special place in the collective memory of the university.

Dear Members of the Class of 2016:

Congratulations on your outstanding accomplishments! This ceremony – our 140th commencement – is a special occasion that you will remember throughout your lives.

You and your fellow graduates came to campus from diverse backgrounds and with varying perspectives. Think about how different you are today compared to when you first became a Saluki. Your experiences here have transformed your lives and prepared you to make positive contributions to the global society.

Today's commencement ceremony represents yet another beginning. Perhaps you are planning to pursue your career, or continue your education. No matter the path you choose, I am confident that the skills you have gained, combined with your resourcefulness and commitment, will lead to a very bright future.

You are joining a network of 245,000 proud alumni whose many positive experiences here helped shape their future. Like them, I hope you will serve as a goodwill ambassador for your alma mater.

Our dedicated faculty and staff join me in thanking you for your many contributions to our university and in wishing you continued success.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Brad Colwell". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Brad Colwell

Interim Chancellor

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn by faculty during commencement is based on attire from 12th- and 13th-century universities. Academic dress and accoutrements of this type have been used in the United States since colonial times. To maintain tradition and the conformity of academic symbols, little has changed in the symbolism of pattern and color since the Middle Ages. In 1895 an intercollegiate commission in the United States adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods and caps, which included regulating the cut, style and materials of gowns. In addition, colors, which were to represent the different fields of learning, were prescribed. Over the years, only minor revisions have been made to the code, which is followed by the majority of colleges and universities in America, including Southern Illinois University Carbondale.

GOWNS

The bachelor's gown is a comparatively simple style that falls in straight lines from an elaborate yoke and has pointed sleeves. The master's gown is similar to the bachelor's except for its peculiar arrangement of the long sleeves with square ends that hang below the elbow. The doctor's gown is elaborate, full-cut and flowing, and is distinguished by velvet panels down the front and around the neck, and by three velvet bars on the bell-shaped sleeves.

HOODS

Historically, the academic hood was literally a garment to protect the wearer from foul weather. Today, it is the identifying symbol of the degree, and the length indicates which degree it represents: 3½ feet for the master's and 4 feet for the doctoral degree. Hoods are lined with the official color of the college or university conferring the degree. The color of trimming identifies the major field of learning: maize for Agriculture, orange for Applied Sciences and Arts, brown for Architecture, drab for Business, light blue for Education, orange for Engineering, brown for Fine Arts, purple for Law, white for Liberal Arts, blue for Mass Communication and Media Arts, pink for Music, dark blue for Philosophy, peacock blue for Public Administration, salmon for Public Health, gold for Science and citron for Social Work.

CAPS AND TASSELS

The mortarboard is the cap generally worn with academic regalia. A long tassel is fastened to the middle point on the top of the cap. The tassel is usually the color appropriate to the subject. There is no general rule on the position of the tassel on the mortarboard. However, numerous institutions have adopted a practice of requiring candidates for degrees to wear the tassels on the right front side before degrees are conferred, and to shift them to the left side when the degrees are awarded to them.

Agricultural Sciences, maize
Applied Sciences and Arts, orange
Business, drab
Education and Human Services, light blue
Engineering, orange
Liberal Arts, white
Mass Communication and Media Arts, blue
Science, gold
Social Work, citron
Master's, black
Ph.D., gold
J.D., purple

STOLE OF GRATITUDE

Southern Illinois University Carbondale has incorporated the custom of the Stole of Gratitude since the 2012 commencement ceremony. This custom offers an opportunity for graduates to pay thanks to anyone who has helped them attend or excel in college. This stole is worn during the commencement ceremony or at another occasion where a presentation is appropriate. After the ceremony, the new graduate presents the Stole of Gratitude to someone who provided extraordinary help or support.

GONFALONS

Another symbol used in commencement is the gonfalon. The gonfalon is a flag or banner that hangs from a crosspiece or frame. It originated in the medieval states of Italy as an ensign of state or office. The gonfalon is used in the Southern Illinois University Carbondale ceremony to designate the various colleges and schools of the institution. In the ceremony, the gonfalon for each college is carried by the student marshal for that college or school.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER AND HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Howard A. Peters III

Doctorate of Humane Arts

Howard A. Peters III, who earned his master's degree in guidance and educational psychology from SIU Carbondale in 1971, has a long history of public service that includes two Cabinet positions under former Illinois Gov. Jim Edgar.

Peters served Edgar as the first secretary of the Illinois Department of Human Services from its inception July 1, 1997. Under his leadership with a staff of 20,000 employees and an annual budget of $4.5 billion, the Illinois Department of Human Services provided state-administered human services, including mental illness, developmental disability and alcohol and substance abuse services, as well as vocational rehabilitation services for people with disabilities. In addition, the department provided cash assistance, food stamps, employment programs, child care, youth services programs, health-related direct service and prevention programs, as well as the WIC program. Under Peters' leadership, Illinois became a leader among all states in the area of welfare reform, moving 120,000 families from welfare to work.

From January 1995 through June 1997, Peters served as deputy chief of staff to Edgar and was responsible for overseeing the operation of Illinois' human services, public safety and government administration agencies. Before joining the governor's office in 1995, Peters served from March 1991 to March 1995 as director of the Illinois Department of Corrections. Before being appointed director, he had more than 22 years of experience in the Department of Corrections, serving as warden at the Pontiac, Sheridan and Centralia correctional centers, and as superintendent of the Illinois Youth Center at St. Charles, the state's largest juvenile facility.

Following Peters' 28-year career in public service from January 2000 until July 2012, he served as executive vice president of policy and advocacy for the Illinois Hospital Association. Peters worked at the state and federal levels to ensure hospitals received the kind of support they needed, particularly as it related to providing service to poor, disabled, elderly and uninsured persons.

Peters is president of HAP INC., a consulting, strategy and advocacy service that assists clients in pursuit of their business goals, primarily in the areas of criminal justice, human services and health care.

Peters has a strong commitment to volunteerism and serves on several boards and commissions. These include, among others, Springfield Memorial Health System; The Paul Simon Policy Institute; The Illinois Governor's Commission on Sentencing and Criminal Justice Reform; AARP; and the Illinois Medicaid Advisory Committee.

Peters is assistant pastor of Fresh Visions Community Church in Springfield, Illinois, where he regularly preaches and teaches.

“THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER”

O say can you see,
By the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
Through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780

“SOUTHERN ALMA MATER”

Hail Alma Mater
Southern to thee
Strong thru the years you
stand triumphantly
Beacon to guide us
Over life's sea
Light that can never fail us
Hail, Hail to thee

Lyrics and music by Grover Clarke Morgan
Written as a sophomore while attending
SIU Carbondale in 1934.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

The following lists contain the names of candidates for degrees, the granting of which is contingent upon completion of all requirements for the degree.

- (*) University Honors program member (undergraduate students only)
- () Multiple degree candidate
- (†) Posthumous degree
- (⊗) Interdisciplinary degree

University Academic Honors listed to the right of the name are as follows for undergraduate students:

cum laude	3.5–3.749
magna cum laude	3.75–3.899
summa cum laude	3.9–4.0

The grade point averages above apply firstly to all work taken at Southern Illinois University Carbondale and then, in the case of transfer students, to the total work as an additional, but secondary, qualification.

Note

The list of graduates in this program is not intended to be an official certification of the completion of a degree. The diploma of Southern Illinois University Carbondale or an official transcript, signed by the appropriate officials, is the official record of graduation.

WHY JOIN THE SIU ALUMNI ASSOCIATION?

HAIL ALMA MATER SOUTHERN TO THEE

Joining your SIU Alumni Association is a show of support and loyalty to Southern. We welcome and value all alumni, students and friends who love SIU. Membership is the easiest way to give back.

TRADITION STRONG THRU THE YEARS

The memories and experiences of alumni are the interwoven threads in the tapestry of Southern's story. We carry forward and share their traditions, for in this legacy and history a strong future was born. Share your stories with us.

BEACON TO GUIDE US PRIDE

Enthusiasm never runs short whenever and wherever Salukis gather. Dozens of chapters and clubs nationwide, as well as several alumni groups, are open for you to share in this pride. Let it show at our events afar and when you return to campus for Homecoming.

OPPORTUNITY LIGHT THAT CAN NEVER FAIL US

You are a connection that builds the SIU network and reputation – a link to opportunities for fellow alumni and students. Your membership contributes to more than $150,000 in scholarships each year and helps us professionally connect students in their chosen career paths.

WELCOME TO THE SIU ALUMNI FAMILY

Redeem a one-year complimentary membership in the SIU Alumni Association, our gift to you!
