DIVINE WORD MISSIONARIES and SISTER SERVANTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT 800-553-3321

ON THE OTHER HAND...

The scribes and Pharisees are focusing on the disciples' failure to properly wash their hands prior to eating. But nowhere in the biblical texts of the Law are there regulations regarding the washing of hands before or after meals. These regulations, as described by Mark, are merely practices like those that arise in all societies; if they continue long enough, they can seem like sacred duties, sanctified as "the traditions of their elders."

This distinction is the source of the tension in these three readings. Moses and James both tell their people that they are recipients of a divine gift that requires special care, while Jesus is practically livid when the scribes and Pharisees react harshly to the disciples' failure to wash their hands according to Jewish practices. Such a distinction between divine law and human practices is valuable for our own lives. When we hear of another's misdeeds, we should evaluate the seriousness of the offense before forming our own impression. Is this truly a serious moral matter? Or something less weighty? Carefully discerning the seriousness of such matters might reveal that things are not as grave as they first appear. Such care is an exercise in Christian charity, one way of acting on the word we have received as members of the Body of Christ.

CARE OF CREATION

The Church has a responsibility towards creation and she must assert this responsibility in the public sphere. —Pope Benedict XVI

DOERS OF THE WORD

The second reading for today begins a five-week series of selections from James, a letter that is classified among the so-called "catholic" (or universal) epistles because they are addressed to a general audience rather than to one particular community. Today's text offers important advice for Christians of every generation. God is first cited as the author of all gifts, and in particular, reference is made to the gift of baptism by which we have been made the "first fruits" of the new creation.

What follows is advice based on a very Jewish understanding of the "word" as an active force, operative in the world. We are reminded that unless we, too, become "doers" of the word, our claim to faith is empty. Today and in subsequent weeks the author reminds us that it is equally important to do the "works" of love, for example, by caring for the "orphans and widows in their affliction." Copyright © J. S. FIESTA DE LA FE El Amén y la Doxología

La Plegaria Eucarística concluye con una doxología o palabra de Gloria para Dios y es la forma tradicional en la que se concluye un himno litúrgico. En la celebración eucarística esta es la doxología principal mediante la cual, quien preside la liturgia, expresa la glorificación de Dios. El pueblo ha de responder con un rotundo amén que haga honor no sólo a la doxología misma, sino también, a lo que significa Amén. La palabra Amén es una expresión de firmeza, de total convencimiento de que todo lo que se ha dicho y hecho es verdadero, que se cree profundamente, a prueba de todo. Es mucho más que la conclusión de la mayoría de nuestras oraciones, es la asimilación misma de nuestro compromiso a vivir conforme a lo que hemos celebrado u orado. Por eso que nuestro amén tiene que ser verdadero, no sólo al concluir la Plegaria Eucarística sino al comulgar el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Al hacerlo, decimos "sí" a lo que verdaderamente somos: el cuerpo místico de Cristo. Nos hacemos uno con él en comunión y formamos un solo cuerpo en comunión con Dios. ¡Amén!

29 de Agosto – 22 Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario Reflexión Vocacional:

"Pongan, pues, en práctica la palabra y no se contenten con oírla." La recepción de la Palabra de Dios exige una respuesta viva, porque la Palabra es activa y viva, impulsándonos a la acción.

PRACTIQUEN LA PALABRA

La segunda lectura de hoy comienza una serie de cinco semanas de selecciones de la Carta de Santiago que se clasifica entre las epístolas llamadas "católicas" (o universales) porque están dirigidas a un público general y no a una comunidad en particular. El texto de hoy ofrece consejos importantes para los cristianos de todas las generaciones. Dios es citado por primera vez como autor de todos los dones, y en particular, se hace referencia al don del bautismo, por el que somos las "primicias" de la nueva creación.

Lo que sigue es un consejo basado en un entendimiento muy judío de la "palabra" como una fuerza activa, operativa en el mundo. Se nos recuerda que a menos que nosotros también nos convirtamos en "practicantes" de la palabra, nuestra profesión de fe no vale nada. Hoy y en las próximas semanas el autor nos recuerda que es igualmente importante que hacer las "obras" del amor, por ejemplo, cuidar de los "huérfanos y las viudas en sus tribulaciones". Pray for Priests and Vocations

"Now we ask you to respect those who work hard among you. Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work."

FEAST OF FAITH

What Jesus Did, What Jesus Said

The oldest account of what happened at the Last Supper comes to us not from the Gospels but from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians: "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me' " (11:23–24). In our celebrations of the Eucharist, we are obedient to Christ's command to "do this." The priest, acting in the person of Christ, does what Jesus did and says what Jesus said. He takes bread, gives thanks, breaks it, and gives it to the Lord's disciples. He takes wine, gives thanks, shares it with us. We believe that the entire Eucharistic Prayer is consecratory, but we continue to hold these words of Jesus in special reverence. They are called the words of consecration, and the elevations of the host and chalice, the genuflections of the priest, and the optional ringing of a bell and use of incense remind us that we are in the presence of the Lord.
