

ACE Award Sample Nomination

I am thrilled to nominate my outstanding colleague, Jane Doe, for the Be Proactive ACE Pillar Award. Jane's proactive approach was instrumental in the success of the "Building Bridges" fundraising campaign, which aimed to raise funds for a new interdisciplinary research center that would bring together scholars from diverse fields to address pressing societal challenges.

As a project lead, Jane proactively identified potential donors and developed a comprehensive engagement plan to secure their philanthropic support. She worked tirelessly to build strong relationships with these donors, communicating the vision and goals of the research center with passion and conviction. Through her tireless efforts, Jane secured significant philanthropic gifts that exceeded the campaign's initial goal by 75%, allowing the University to realize its vision of establishing a cutting-edge interdisciplinary research center.

Jane's proactive approach, leadership, and dedication are truly deserving of the Be Proactive ACE Pillar Award. I wholeheartedly recommend her as an outstanding candidate for this honor.
