But it is utterly inconsistent with his avowed position and purpose. If it is not, we will thank the Democrat, or some other party friend of Colonel Jacob's, to point out the consistency. We, however, should be much more thankful for some atthoritative assurance that Colonel Jacob never sent advance-sheets to the radical press at all. But this assurance we cannot expect to receive. The Press, theugh intensely radical, is a respectable journal, and it expressly acknowledges the tavor. It was in this way that slavery was brought into politics, and it is, and always has been, my firm conviction that Southern proslavery political agitators were more efficient in the destruction of slavery than the Northern funatics. The agitation was settled and unsettled, just as often as man-Ution. Consent was the heauty of the old Ution, force is the power of the new. The proof that the Radical leaders were not sincere when they professed to wage the war to preserve the Union, is the fact that when the war has paded they will not admit the Union is preserved. With this idea an association was formed in this city in the fall of 1-65, and an agent and surveyor were sent to the fur country to acquire all the information necessary, and to make a map. So veral months were spent in this labor, which involved consid-erable expense. An intimate kaowledge of the trade and territory as well as of the relations of a formidable British monopo-ly to the Russian ("ompany and hody of trad-rs and trappers, was obtained, and

KENTUCKY POLITICS -We have rec NATURY FullTICS.—We have received the advancessheets of an address to the bemocracy of the North by Lieutenaut-Governor Jacol, of Kentucky, a paper re-plete with acted luxian politics. The ad-dress attempts to convey an idea of the political situation of the Scate of Nas'y, and lucidly starts out with the structurent that there are 'as the time in the State of Kentucky three martices —the color of a structure. that there are 'as this time in the stolement that there are 'as this time in the state of Kentucky three parties—the rail cal, whi h is not necessary for me to apeak of, the Southern-rights bemoera y, and the Jacob or self-styl d Luion Demoera y. Now this is exactly the tr while with Kan-tucky, that they do not kn w or will not know anytheng of the great radie al luion war party. They relues to re ognise the fact that there his heen a war, and conse-querely that 1d things, and among them the leemocracy have passed away. The endy thing which can respected withing which can respect at di-waken Kentucky from her 18 p Van Win-kle sheep, which can bring her out of the eighterenth century and into the num-teenth, is the radieni party. Mr. Jacob might as wel have a losed his address at once after that sapient remark.

Mr. Jacob might as well have slosed his address at once after that sapient remark. All that follows is obsidet, and has no practical meaning. He proceeds, in two lengthy color mus of platitude, to describe the difference b tween site tweell-dum Democrats and the tweed eise Demo rats of Kenucky-those that wear the blue above the gray, and those that wear the gray above the blue. It makes no matter what they say or call themselves-there is no difference eitwen the two. Both are, by there own conference. Itemocrats-wings of a party which as that clear-sighted Southern soldier.
