Se, "that Charles Frohman, the well-known theatrical manager, inaugurated last week a plan which he has long cherished, that of providing a motor 'bus' for the free carriage of his patrons to the London theatre managed by him.

"The first evening the 'bus' made the trip from Tooting to the Hichs Theatre, carrying a full complement of passengers, each of whom was furnished with a ticket purchased at the box-office.

The next night the trip took place from another suburb, and several pas-sengers were picked up along the route.

"Every night the omnibus will leave from a different suburb, so as to afford all the people living on the outskirts of London an opportunity to enjoy Mr. Frohman's hospitality.

"As soon as the spectacle is ended, the same omnibus carries back its original passengers to their residences free of charge."

SAM G. SMYTH.

Mr. John E. Henshaw had a funny experience, years ago, when at the head of the then well-known Henshaw-TenBroeck Combination. It happened at a dinky little hotel in a small Indiana berg, which city Henshaw's Company played as a filler-in. Henshaw says he always sticks close to his room now when registered in a small city.

It seems there had been committed

It seems there had been committed so many cases of petit larceny at this hotel, that the constable was placed on duty as a waiter, to "ferret" out on duty as a waiter, to "ferret" out the mystery.

Of course, Henshaw was not aware of the fact that the hotel was paraded by a rube Sherlock Holmes, else this tale would never have been born.
Their train out was late and would not reach the berg 'till five o'clock, so, rather than go back to bed for an hour and a half. Henshaw and some of the men decided to stay up and smoke and yarn.

Henshaw had jumped into his pa-Henshaw had jumped into his pa-jamas for comfort and as the "hos-telry" was as quiet as a graveyard, he decided he could easily slip down stairs, buy some cigars and get back to his room without being seen. Four elevated and a score of surface lines between the Brooklyn Bridge and Coney Island, and the mass of people that they transport to the Island on a busy day is difficult to estimate. Thousands of pleasure seekers are inclined to enjoy the delightful sail down the New York Narrows, and so pay a few cents more for a ride on the palatial and commedious boats of the Iron Steamboat Company, which leave Manhattan at frequent intervals.

COOL DREAMLAND.

On at real hot day one of the most enj yable spots in the mammoth amusement resort, Dreamland, where the bathing is immense. Fishing is usually pretty good there, too, and very often the big pler is lined with an invasion of enthusiastic anglers.

There is no derth of amusement in this place for both old and young, and every one of the many attractions are doing a splendid business. Here are some more well-known professional folk who are putting in the summer very advantageously at this resort:

Harry Abbott, business manager of Ernest Hogan's Rufus Rastus Co., is selling tickets and spleiling in front of Ellis' Hell Gate boat ride.

James F. Sulliyan, who was the leading mental summer selling the se and spieling in front of Ellis' Heil Gate boat ride.

James F. Sullivan, who was the leading man last season in Are You a Mason? and who also played a part in Fantana, is again business manager of Ryan's Coasting Thro' Switzerland.

Harry McDermott, who played a prominent part last season in Sergeant Kittle, is selling tickets at the airships or circle swing.

Edward Girard, manager of the Gotham Theatre, in Brooklyn, is looking after Mr. Henry Roltair's interests in front of the Arabian Nights show.

George N. D. Hensey, a well-known outside lecturer, has the management of the front of Roltair's Pharcah's Daughter, and is making openings there. It is scarcely necessary to add that this show is doing a swell business.

The carpenter work at Ellis' End of the

The carpenter work at Ellis' End of the World is being done by C. W. Munnell, who was out with The One Woman show last season. Mr. Munnell has signed to take the road with one of B. E. Forrester's attractions next season. His wife, Etta Munnell, has closed with Pharoah's Daughter and will continue to spend the summer at the Island with her husband. Of course she will go on the road with him in the fall.

Selling tickets at Hell Gate is George Lorraine, who was press agent last season of the well-known vaudeville sketch, Cissy's Dream.
Another ticket seller at this attraction is Sam Mann, the Hebrew comedian, who was with the Hans and Nix company last season. At the close of the park season Mr. Mann will go out with Mittenthal's Singing Girl from Killarney

A familiar figure is missing from the front of the End of the World show. "Major" R. H. McKenzle, the Scotch giant, after managing the front of this attraction for two seasons, suddenly developed a feeling of discontent and dissatisfaction on June 22 and left Coney Island for Baltimore, where he joined the side show of Ringling Bros," circus.

park by Fred Thompson. Assistant Press Agent Fred Schader was assigned to the very important post of escorting the bevy of stage beauties about the place, and in his indomitable Chesterfieldian way he certainly did himself proud. It subsequently developed that the genial Freddle had a personal interest in one of the members of the party, but he proved to be too much of a diplomat to evince any preference for his particular favorite. The fair visitors went back to Manhattan well satisfied that Luna is the one best bet for a good day's outing.

I believe that I have stated that the publicity of Luna Park is in proficient hands and the frequent specials that get space in the metropolitan dailes should bear me out in this contention. Press Agent Shesgreen is the particular chap who makes opportunities, and when he happens to be short on a "thriller," his wide-awake aide, Schader, is invariably able to spring one.

ish author will visit Luna as Mr. Thompson's guest before his return to Albion's shores.

Walter Foote, one of the proprietors of the Brownie Theatre, is the auditor in the Luna administration offices. His partner in the Brownie show is the manager of the New Amsterdam Theatre in Manhattan.

Harrison Armstrong, who is managing the Shipwreck specta-le at Luna, is a thespian of considerable note. He was leading man last season in The Mills of the Gods.

John L. C. Morton, Brooklyn's representative of the Actor's Union of America.

A number of well-known professional folks are employed in the Night and Morning show. Among these may be mentioned John Dillon, second lecturer in the Grotto, who was with In the Bishop's Carriage last season. Mr. Dillon will return to the same company in the fail.

Fred Nathan, treasurer of the Broad Street Theatre in Philadelphia, is aspieling in front of the show.

Ed. Dillon who is working in front of the show, is well known as having staged When Knighthood Was in Flower, and was with Ia the Bishop's Carriage last season. He will be with the latter company again this fall.

Frederick K. Rashland, a well-known at actor, is first inside lecturer. He has pla with William Gillette, Edwin Arden, Roh Mantell, and was a member of Charles For Opera Company twenty years ago. In 1891, Rashland was treasurer of Proctor's Theatre Syracuse. Spending the summer with him Coney is his wife, Annita Leslie, a noted a netist.

ever placed on sale in either of the two latter places. The professional folks down here say that The Billboard's Coney Island Chatter is great, and the boys are all waiting for it on Wednesday.

E. M. Gooper, the well-known skating rink promoter, has a well regulated and thoroughly equipped rink on Sea Beach Walk, near Sorf avenue, which is under his personal management, Mr. Cooper is operating rinks in New York City, Montreal, Rockaway Binghamton, Elmira, Williamsport, Lancaster and Union City, Pa., and has several more under way to be opened early next fall.

Hugo, the giant of the Barnum and Bailey Show, has closed with that circux and was down here on June 19, taking in the sights. It is understood that he will go into vandeville next fall with a midget from the Brownle Theatre in Luns Park.

The Parisian Skating Rink is the name of the latest novelty here in the roller rink line. This contrivance resembles a carousel very much in the way of operation, except that instead of horses or seats, the pleasure seeker puts on a pair of roller skates and is propelled around the circular shaped foor surface by trajege shaped handles that depend from the extended shafts overhead. The device is the invention of Heavy Laiseleur, a Frenchman. His partner and local manager is Charles F. Count, a resident of Coney. The Parisian Rink is located on Kenducton will be limited to three days this rear. It is to open on Wednesday at moon, and is scheduled to close on Friday at midnight. The date of the event has not been definitely decided upon, but, no doubt, it will take place during the week of the final closing of Luna Park and Dreamland for the season.

This device rousists of a large circular drum in which the amusement seeker is strapped firmly and made to revolve down an incline. It is located near the entrance to the long third of a mile pler that extends out to sea from the park.

Ben F. Wolcott, excursion agent last senson for the Wallace Circus, was married here on June 21 to Miss Natalie Wilcux, an estimable young lady of Brooklyn. The courishly seems to have been quite romantle, as he is said to have met Miss Wilcux but five days previous to the tiefing if the nuptial knot. Mr Wolcott was out with Irving Montgomery's production of The Great White Chief last season and previous to his matrimonial venture he was doing a "appir" in front of the Feast of Beisharkar, show in Dresnaland.

WINNINGER BROTHERS IN REP.

Five talented brothers, jointly working towards a common goal since their early boyhood, endowed with talent that has run through a generation of their family, assisted by their indomitable preseverance to not only be successful but to make their name synonynous with the best of repertoire attractions in the west, and finally succeeding, after hard, conscientious work, such is the history of Frank, John, Joseph, Adolf and Charles Winninger, to whom thousands of theatregoers paid their money and respects during the past ten weeks while the brothers with their company toured the diates of Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana. The company closed for the summer, June 16 at Appleton, Wis., and after a vacation of six weeks they will bunch two companies for next season, three of the boys going with one and two with the other. Both attractions are nearly booked solid at this writing.

The book, lyrics and music are by Frederick Chapin. The supposed locale is The Isle of Guam, time the present. But as the program gives this advice, "Don't treat this production too seriously. It is not meant to create any brain storms, etc." So there is no plot to speak a jumble of catchy music, pony ballet giris, a pretty chorus, a really funny comedian and a prima donna who has freshness and charm and who looks very fetching in boys clothes—both a blue serge and white flannels; then, too, she sings well, there being a lot of snap and go to everything she does. Her stage name is Toma Hanlon. She is a summer delight with her good looks, pleasing action and, Ye Gods be praised, she looks pretty when singing for which much credit is due two pretty rows of twories that are seen with her every smile. Her songs were Mary and Her Lamb, My Coney Island and Kitty O'Neill, all of which she sang well but the last named song started every one to whistling or humming.

As the man who has inherited millions, Fred Wyckoff was very amusing, he is a musical comedy comedian who is no funeral but who possesses true humor and the ability to deliver it over the foot lights effectively. The first song he vacinated us with took. It was, Never Had Such A Time. He was accompanied by the pony ballet and the chorus in long gingham sprons and sun-bonnets. Maude Alice Kelley, another principal, also pleased; her numbers were. Merry Go Round and Madaline.

Jno. C. Hart was pleasing vocally, and gave a good account of himself throughout, while Ed. Morton, big baritone and decisive delivery, earned him several hearty hands. His song, Gratitude, and the Biblical base ball parody were both neatly rendered.

The two sailors, Tell M. Strong and Barney Cosgrove, were amusing and petite Lillia Brennen whom, rumor had it, was made up to look like Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, was neither very much of a success in that nor in her singing, as she has such a wee c feurs they were accompanied by rour pretty milkmaids in the number entitled My Little Girlie.

Miss Hanlon was assisted in one of her solos by a cornet player stationed in the balcony on one side of the house and a flute player, who occupied a position high up in the balcony on the left, the effect was very good.

At the conclusion of the performance after the final ensemble had been given the third time, the audience rather reluctant to leave their refreshing drinks and the cool garden in the skies, filed slowly out.

The Maid and The Millionaire added to the pleasant surroundings should be sufficiently amusing to last through the summer. All the roof gardens are doing a thriving business. The managers one and all succeed in making the short season pay exceedingly well.

of grand opera repertoire at the Grand Opera

last week were Faust, Cavalleria Rusticana, Pagliacci, Carmen, La Favorita and Lucia di audience cheered. But too much can hardly be said in praise of Sachetti, a real tenor. He is a find indeed. His voice is true, pure and liquid, the notes flow easily and smoothly like the pure waters of a linquid stream and to the delight of the matinee girls he is good looking and graceful in action. The other parts were creditably sung.

La Facorita was presented on Friday evening with the following cast:

This is the same star awarded to Miss Bonita, the same having been presented to the Actors' Fund Fair by Miss Cayvan's executors. Miss Bonita is the star of Mortimer M. In this opera the honors fell to Mme. Baldini, Fornari and Perrini. The latter sang with the authority of an experienced gifted singer and Perrini's rich full basso was simply delightful. Mme. prices and the enthusiasm of the auditors was unbounded.

Signor D'Amato promises a season of grand opera at prices to suit the masses next season in an opera house of his own. There seems to be an awakening to the delights of better music among the classes in New York, and it surely is possible to bear good music at a price within the reach of all just as they have the opportunity for doing in Germany and other foreign countries. This class of audiences are not unfamiliar with the classic operas. Naturally the Italian Opera Company brought out the Italian element of the city, which filled the large auditorium of the Eighth avenue house with a sea of faces in which beamed musical appreciation and true musical temperament. The promises for the future of the Italian Grand Opera Company will be awaited with expectancy.

ROCKEFELLER IN VAUDEVILLE.

ROCKEFELLER IN VAUDEVILLE.

Something new and unique happened at Keith & Proctor's 58th Street Theatre last Sunday afternoon and evening when James But-ler Haviland gave the first performance of his new sketch, The Mighty Dollar. Mr. Haviland has been in stock for a number of years and at one time he was a member of Henry Irving's company. He was assisted by Alice Thoraton in the character of a little girl.

The idea was to give an entirely different study of the oil king from that which Edmund Breese created in The Lion and the Mouse. It is the first sketch of its kind in the vaudeville field. Mr. Haviland is by nature built on the John D. plan of formation exactly, in fact strikingly so. He is long of limb, long of arm, long of nose, long of chin, in truth long in almost every particular except he does not possess the long green and here comes the mystery. How can a man look so much like Rockefeller in every way even in facial characteristics as he must even without the make-up, without having had any of the financial experiences of the Standard Oil King. for we are prone to believe the experiences of life are what form for the most part pure general characteristics and tendencies.

It was a bold thing to do, but so far as a character sketch went it was a living likeness. With the black skull-cap tightly drawn down over the bald head, a fringe of hair showing around the back, the square mouth with its thin lips, the long-pointed nose, the long, gaunt, tall figure, clad in the loose frock coat, turndown collar, black tie and gray trousers, then every move and gesture was almost spook-like in the perfect resemblance.

The scene is laid in the library of the Rockefeller home, library firmiture and a large safe is conspicious at one side of the room. There's a smash of broken glass and a little ragged waif of a girl leaps into the room. There's a smash of broken glass and a little ragged waif of a girl leaps into the room. BIGELOW'S BRAINSTORM.

Friday evening in the last part of the second act of The Parisian Model, Charles A. Bigelow, the leaning comedian, quit precipitately, took his doll clothes—or rather quickly donned his street attire and left the theatre. What prima donna could have beaten that for a show of temperament. He had appeared at the door of Miss Held's dressing-room before the first curtain and simply said he would not be with her next year as Mr. Ziegfeld had refused him an increase in salary. That he would do anything so rash or unkind as to leave then and there did not occur to her, as Mr. Rigelow had been the only comedian with whom she had played since her Weber and Field days. Silas Goldfinch was played the balance of the evening by the understudy, Clyde McKinley.

It seems that Bigelow had had an offer to become a star under the Shubert regime and not being able to force Mr. Ziegfeld to terms, added to the warm temperature of the evening, gave him a cerebral disturbance. Before going to sleep that night, however, he telephoned the management that he was sorry and that he would gladly resume his position, which he was permitted to do the fellowing Saturday at the matinee. And it all ended happily.

ALBERTA GALLATIN TO STAR.

Eldridge & Meakin have signed a three year contract with Alberta Ballatin by which they agreed to provide her with a new play each year. The first play is to be a dramatization of Judith of the Plains, a novel by Marie Manning. Algernon Fassin and Mary Stone have worked out the dramatization which is said to provide an excellent vehicle for the star who will appear in the principal role of Judith, a balf-breed.

Miss Gallatin has appeared in Ghosts, When Knighthood Was in Flower, Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall and others, throughout the west. Eldredge & Meakin expect to give her a bearing in New York City in the new play before entering her upon a road tour in the middle and far west.

Keith & Proctor's Fifth Avenue.—
For the week of July 1, The Gipsy Sorceress, written by Miss Ullie Akerstrom is presented. The authoress is a well known figure in theatricals. For many seasons the Spooner Stock Co regularly produced at the Bijou in Brooklyn, a number of new and original plays and now that Edna May Spooner and her associates are permamently installed at the Fifth Avenue. Miss Akerstrom will devote a portion of her labors toward writing exclusive productions for the Fifth Avenue. The Gipsy Sorceress was produced for the first time on any stage, July 1, at this house, and Edna May Spooner appeared in the character of Nina, the Gipsy. The cast is as follows: Ben. Wilson as Capt. Ernest Lamont, Arthur Evers as Arquis De Fortorune, Ed. Curtis as Bendito, Harold Kennedy as Pietre, Miss Fox as Marquerite, Olive Grove as Camilla, Jessie McAllister as Louise, and others. Keith & Proctor's Harlem Opera House.—Miss Beatrice Morgan returned to her old position as leading lady of the popular up-town stock (Continued on page 29.)

HERE were four of us in the party that visited White City Park on a pleasant evening recently. Two of the party had never seen this popular resort at night time and consequently the brilliant array of electric lights with which White City is Illuminated were dazgling to their eyes. It is one of the sights of chicago to approach this park on a South Side elevated train and witness the effect of the tall tower studied with thousands of electric lights. It can be seen for miles as far as that is concerned and it furnishes an attraction in itself. On reaching the grounds the party lost notine in starting in on its mission to "do" White City. There was some discussion as to what to do first, but after concluding that we had all evening and that all of the attractions were good, it was decided to initiate the season of pleasure with a ride on the scenic railway. This we did and it is certainly to the credit of the managers of the park as well as to Gerald Berry who built the railway to be able to offer such a pleasing attraction to their patrons. It is unlike all other scenic railways, merely from the fact that Mr. Berry constructs every one differently, taking away that sameness that theracterizes most amusements in parks in which they may be operated.

The trip on the "Scenic" over, every one was delighted and expressions of from "Wann't that great," to "That's the best ever," were coming from every individual in the party. By that time were keyed up for a ride on the chutes; thus we made our way to the inclined waterway and took the first seats in the boat while the attendant shoved us over-board. A ride on the chutes at White City is fast and less time to complete the journey, but the sudden descent into the artificial lake is better for the nerves than all of the tonics that can be prescribed.

Next we witnessed the burning of the Robert E. Lee. This attraction furnishes some of the nerves than all of the tonics that can be prescribed.

Next we witnessed the burning of the Robert E. Lee. This attraction furnishes some of the most natural scenery and incidents common to every day life that can be imagined. The Leve scene, taken from the southern city, with the negroes dancing, singing and making merry is quite as natural as if it were not done for the purpose of imitating a reality. The patent medicine fakir who extracts a molar from a negroe's set of ivories, the crowd of bystanders banging around while he is making his spell, the old street car drawn by a mule and the entire street scene seems very real and typical of the south. The actual burning of the Robert E. Lee and the buildings along the wharf line is quite as exciting as would be a real down-town tenement house fire. The fire laddies are trained to perfection. The art of sliding down a cable carrying a woman who is almost suffocated from the smoke is no little acquirement on the part of those acting as firemen and must represent a great deal of practice before being able to undertake it in a real demonstration of fire fighting.

This show lasts about twenty migutes and part of those acting as firemen and must represent a great deal of practice before being able to undertake it in a real demonstration of fire fighting.

This show lasts about twenty minutes and each succeeding minute grows more interesting. It is one of the best things to be seen in White City and is the original fire show.

I started out to review the evening, mainly for the benefit of some of our readers who may not be entirely familiar with the equipments of White City Park, but owing to the great number of pleasing attractions and the space that would be required to cover them in a comprehensive manner, it will not be possible to relate in detail any more of the evening's enjoyment.

We visited a number of other places including the College lim, just after the conclusions of a banquet that had been held by the Plano Manufacturers' Association. Two of the prominent personages that were speakers at this banquet were Joe Cannon, speaker of the House of Representatives, and George Ade. Unfortunately we got in just a little too late for the Cannon-Ade, but we skirmished around, getting our forces together, and when we left the "field" lamented a number of dead soliders.

We paid our respects to General Manager Howse and also to Publicity Director Albert, as well as to a number of other attaches of the grounds. White City is an ideal resort and the management seems to take a personal interest in the enjoyment of every person.

MOUNTAIN TORRENT AT SANS SOUCI.

One of the attractions at Sans Souci, The Mountain Torrent, is termed by some as "The Thriller." Indeed it is aptly named because it is a combination of the roller coaster, the chutes and the old mill, and represents an expenditure of money of very great proportions, all of which is necessary for the providing of amusement for the American public. The attraction as it stands, represents an outlay of more than $30,000. The expense of this attraction was increased very much on account of problems of engineering entering into the completion of the production.

The conveyance is a combination coaster car and old mill boat which glides out from the "bally-hoo" through a smooth water run, finally entering the terrible looking jaws of a huge dragon within which is the old mill effect. Foating through the dark passages with the usual scenic effects lining the waterway, the boat is taken up a steep incline, water

Some one has said that the most attractive feature of the Auto Hurdles is the opportunity it gives the feminine riders to scream and the excuse it offers to hold clingingly and confidingly to the arm of her best beau while even the most timid unan will rise to the occasion and clasp his fair companion to insure her safety.

RIVERVIEW'S POPULARITY INCREASES.

The Great Train Robbery has duplicated its Coney Island success. Great crowds throng to Biverview and some of them merely to witness this one attraction. Riverview is becoming more popular with each succeeding week. When we say that all records for attendance were broken at this resort last week, we mean just that and nothing else. The return of Patrick Conway and his Ithaca Band was welcomed and the excellent programs rendered each evening were appreciated. Every feature at Riverview is in running order and the management are preparing to erect some new ones very

From Troy. Joe Whitehead, late of Captain Careless, assisted by eight pretty little dancing girls, gave a singing and dancing specialty. Miss Ida Hawley also a former member of Captain Careless Company, contributed to the musical element of the program with a group of songs. The Vassar Girls, assisted by Jessie Cree, whistler, and Nonette, a talented violinist, gave their specialty including the Electric Ballet. Others on the bill are the Orpheus Comedy Four and Chas. Leonard Fletcher, the impersonator.

ATTRACTIVE BILL AT THE MAJESTIC.

Recruits from Captain Careless also contributed to the bill at the Majestic last week. Miss Tobey Claude, who has become quite popular in the musical comety at the Chicago Opera House, sang several of her character songs. Ben Welch was there in The Dago and the Jew. The headliner was Miss Grace Van Studdiford. Miss Van Studdiford ranks among the first in light opera songs and is very popular because of the engagements she played here during the days when she starred in Red Feather and Lady Teazle. The Grigolatis Flying Ballet were enjoyed for a second week because of the favor accorded this spectacular novelty. Two vaudeville performers, new to Chicago, Ethel Arden and Grace Abel, English Music Hall entertainers, made their bow and a hit. Among others who made up the Majestic bill were Foy & Clark in Under the Sea, Taylor Holmes, monologist, and Ethel MacDonough, the Girl Behind the Drum.

BEAUTIFUL RAVINIA PARK

BEAUTIFUL RAVINIA PARK.

At Ravinia Park each Monday will be Symphony Night, and each Tuesday afternoon and Friday night a Wagner program will be rendered during the remainder of the Deprosch engagement. Each Thursday afternoon a special children's program will be given and on these occasions all children under 14 years of age will be admitted free. The Automobile parties from the city and the north will be entertained by special arrangements. As the facilities were attacked severely during the last week, enlargement was made necessary. During the Damrosch engagement some excellent programs have been arranged including the following numbers: Selections from Il Trovatore, overture; Raymond, Mozart's Minuet from Symphony in E. flat: selections from Mme. Butterfly, LaBoheme, and The Two Doves, and the Tschalkowsky March Slav.

CREATORE AT SANS SOUCI.

CREATORE AT SANS SOUCI.

Following a week's engagement of Quaglia's Band, which aggregation succeeded Ferullo and his excellent organization comes Creatore for a long engagement at Sans Souci. The warmer the weather the more laviting and attractive becomes Sans Souci with its green lawn and flower beds. This South Side resort has favored its patrons since the opening of the season with some of the best bands that are to be had. Ferullo, for instance, has already won distinction for himself and he is only a young man but a master of band music. Creatore, who is a vertiable gymnast, when he leads his band, is rendering choice programs at Sans Souci.

THE ROUND UP ENGAGEMENT ENDS.

THE ROUND UP ENGAGEMENT ENDS

After a successful run of twelve weeks the engagement of The Round Up, at McVicker's Theatre, will end on Saturday evening, July 6. On the occasion of the 100th performance which was given Monday, July 1, rustic ink stands of articit design were distributed to the women in the audience.

THAVIEU AT LUNA PARK

The concerts that have been given twice daily at Luna Park by the Thavieu Band have aided materially this resort in breaking records for attendance. The Beauty Congress remains the particular feature among the special attractions at the park. A trained animal show has also been added.

ANOTHER CHANGE.

On July 8, Richard Golden, in a new farce by Harry and Ed. Paulton entitled Poor John will succeed Miss Pocahontas at the Stu-debaker.

NEW THEATRICAL FIRM.

There was incorporated the past week a new theatrical firm known as Kompfe & McRae Attractions with offices in the Knickerbocker Theatre Building. New York City. They have arranged to place on tour Mr. Oliver Labadie's play, entitled in Louisiana, and have arranged through the Ed. B. Salter Amusement Company to tour through the eastern country, in a sensational melodrama, entitled The Train Robers. They have also placed Her Mad Marriage on the Stair & Havlin Circuit. Negotiations are now pending to star Miss May Clement in John Cumberland's new play. The Chorus Girl. This latter plece had its first production at Worceater last week and was a pronounced hit. Mr. A. R. McRae is the general manager of the new concern.

being carried to the top to represent a mountain torrent. The car is whirled along the top of the incline similar to a roller coaster for a considerable distance. Finally the steep descent is struck and the boat shoots down over a rippling, foaming water fall, ending abruptly, and with a thrilling splash in the smooth waters of the run at the bottom, and thence back through the jaws of another dragon into the starting stand.

Luna Park has an attraction almost identical with The Mountain Torrent, but it is called Shooting Nigara. It is constructed along the same lines and despite its terror is becoming steadily more popular.

AUDITORIUM THEATRE OPENS IN SEP-TEMBER.

A new musical play called Morning Glory, produced under the direction of Geo. W. Lederer, of the Colonial, will open the Auditorium early in September. Information bearing on the new policy of the house given out by Mr. Abraham Erlanger during his brief stay in Chicago recently substantiates this.

After the engagement of Morning Glory, The Grand Mogul will be brought back for a fortnight and given as the annual benefit of the Policemen's Benevolent Association. After this comes the vaudeville season which is definately scheduled to open on Oct. 14. What Mr. Frianger styles as "Metropolitan Vandeville," will soon. One of the newest attractions at the park is Hell's Gate. It represents a miniature whirl pool combined with the most lurid scenic effects. A boat is used which is carried round and round down a gentle inolined waterway until the center of the maelstrom is reached. Suddenly the boat drops in an effect which viewed from the outer edge appears to be preceptious but which in reality is not ungentle. At the bottom of the drop is another expense of smooth water with more startling scenic effects and suddenly the boat immerges from the dark abyas and the passengers are bestowed safe and unwet upon the exit platform.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE REVERTS TO VAU-DEVILLE.

Owing to the recent burning of the Olympic Theatre it was necessary to make some arrangements to take care of the bookings of that popular playhouse. The Majestic continued to do capacity business even when the Olympic was running in full blast and in order to meet the emergency of another vandeville theatre it was necessary to convert the Chicago Opera House from musical comedy to variety. Captain Careless had been doing well with Joe Whitehead as the chief fun maker, but owing to the change Captain Careless will go on the road. For the opening bill, Jas. J. Corbett, who has become a clever entertainer, leads the list, appearing in a farcial sketch entitled Helen

The action of the piece takes place in Paris, where a number of Frenchmen are making love to her fortune. The Marsovian Ambasador, Baron Popoff (George Graves) is determined to prevent her from marrying and to secure Prince Danilo (Joseph Coyne) as her husband. Sonia and the Prince have met long before, and have parted because of his haughty uncle. She now determines to make him say he loves her, and he is anxious not to be thought a fortune-hunter and swears he will not. Her fascinating but unblushing hunt of him is the whole theme of the play. WHITELEY'S PONIES.

Whiteley's Ponics have again taken the road not are delighting large crowds at the parks not fairs where they perform. A feature of his year's act is the charlot races. Sparkle, r., still continues to please and Manager Arbur R. Cunningham says that he is more than leased by the number of flattering offers for he act.

has engaged this sprightly young lady to appear at the Empire Theatre, New York City, next September.

The last weeks of Clancarty, at the Lyric, are announced, Lewis Wallers' arrangements compelling him to close his season July 13. As a consequence W. S. Maugham's modern play. The Explorer, which at one time Mr. Waller contemplated doing this season, is to be kept until later.

The charming play entitled Lady Tatters, now playing to crowded houses at the Shaftesbury Avenue W., is really the best play of its kind in London at the present time. Its success does not depend upon the picture postcard fame of its actresses; it has sterling worth, and an entertainment is given to the English that is perfect in every way. The scenery is cleverly painted to portray the time of Charles I. There is not one incongrous note in the production and everything blends in one harmonious whole. The costumes are the last thing with regard to elegance, and the volces of Miss Louic Pounds and Courtice Pounds are heard to advantage in the various musical Items. Then there is Johnny Danvers, and the inimitable Arthur Passmore, who work hard all through, and the scoring is so fast that there is searcely breath between the laughs. Miss Marie George is a dainty soubrette rejoicing in the name of Polly. She executes some clever and smart little dances and some catchy songs. Last but not least comes the pretty and vivacious young actress, Miss Claudia Lasell, who supports the title role. Miss Lasell, who supports the title role, Miss Lasell, and American girl well known in the States, and I am sure all her friends will be glad friends will be glad to learn of the success she has gained at the Shaftesbury Theatre, London. GREAT POSSESSIONS AT THE ADELPHI.

Great Possessions, translated from the German of Karl Rossler, and produced by Martin Harvey at the Adelphi Theatre on Monday night was a distinct novelty for modern playgoers. It was literally "The Bible on the Stage," Its one scene is a small town on the lake of Gennesarch, and the period A. D. 31. The Messiah has come and is preaching to the poor and afficted. He is not actually seen on the stage, but he is constantly spoken of as being close at hand. The blind are made whole, the possessed are saved, and at last the call comes to Nathaniel, the rich young man. He is the reputed son of Asarja. the hard-hearted usurer. But his father is really Spintharos, the Greek. Poor Nathaniel is a dreamer, and for a while he wrestles with himself as to which way he shall go, whether towards the Spiritual longing, or the vivid attractions of Ruth, the young lady he is betrothed to, the said young lady being decidedly forward in her outspoken declarations of love. Finally poor, miserable Nathaniel is killed and he dies a solemn death at the hands of a murderer hired by Asarja. There was no music to lighten the awful solemnity of the piece, the only addition being the tolling of a bell as the drop act went up after each interval. The production itself—as a production pure and simple—is a triumph of scenic effect, the scenery is gorgeous, and the back cloth representing the Lake of Galilee seems almost to live, so realistically is it painted and a very fine effect of the rising and the setting of the sun is shown.

There never was a finer crowd than that which murmured and fought and struggled on Monday night, and in the midst of the wild, turbulent throng. Martin Harvey, as the Dreamer Nathanial, walked with downheat head. Martin Harvey is always Martin Harvey and English playgoers love him, but some-how one missed him in this simple part, at though it speaks marvelously well for his powers to b

IN THE VAUDEVILLE WORLD.

IN THE VAUDEVILLE WORLD.

The long looked for Horse Show at Olympia eventuated last week, and on Saturday aftermon there was a brilliant gathering headed by the Duke and Duchess of Connaught. The highest interest was shown by the happy and excited spectators, not only in the jumping and other popular competitions, but in the animals which were paraded in the judging rings for class competition. The jumping was very exciting and a diversion was created by Oma Pasha, a cream gelding which systematically refused the jumps. After being disqualified by the judges because of her refusals, she turned and went the course with delightful accuracy. The parade of the four-in-hands, was one of the pretriest and exciting items in the afternoon program, and after long consideration on the part of the judges the winning rosett went to C. Vanderbilt, who was driving four well-matched grays in a sporting turnout. Next came the parade of the heavy pair draft horses, the prize being won by A. C. Sparkes. Alfred Maclay, of New York, took first and second in the class for horses in road rig. The afternoon program concluded with the international high jump, which takes first place easily in the affections of the onlookers.

Frank Parker has decided to engage the dainty young American girl, Miss May Moore Duprez, as his principal lady in the forthcoming fee Carnival, Zuyder Zee, at the London Hippodrome. Miss Duprez is a charming singer and dancer. She also complies with Mr. Parker's requirements in being an actress and a skater. I may add she is just twenty-two and came to England from America seven years ago.

The Sandow Girl is the title of a new musical comedy skit, written by Herbert Darnley, with music by Dudley Powell, which was produced with great success at the Putney Hippodrome on Monday last.

MR. BRANSBL WILLIAMS TO RE-VISIT AMERICA.

Bransby Williams, who is now on the big Moss-Stoll tour, has decided to accept Percy Williams' tempting offer to re-visit America at the end of September. He hopes, however, to be back in time to join the Xmas entertainment at the Hippodrome. The young actor will visit New York, Boston, Brooklyn and Philadelphia. Julias and Agnes Zancig, who have been traveling the English Provinces since Feb. 25, have played to some phenomenal business, and have also been the lucky recipients of much pleasant and honorable courtesy and attention. Lord and Lady Burton came down to Burton on purpose to receive them: Sir William Clayton has shown them his hospitality at both Malvern and Torquay, and Sir Oliver Lodge attended their performance at Birmingham and wrote a special letter to the Liverpool press in which city the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress gave a reception at the Town Hall in their honor. A second tour is being arranged for the Autumn.

Lady Julia, the ape with the human brain, made her debut at Hengler's Circus on Friday afternoon, May 31, in the presence of the Princess Royal and the Duke of Fife with their two daughters. Lady Julia is only two years old and stands two feet high. After six months' training she can put on a coat without any help, then undress altogether, and put on her night-clothes, and get into a little bed that has been made especially for her.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.

BROOKLYN, N. V.

Percy G. Williams' Orpheum Theatre closes a very successful season Saturday night. During the summer the Orpheum will be redecorated and every comfort added which will benefit it patrons. Percy G. Williams is expected back from Europe this week. He has booked many new vaudeville acts for his chain of theatres.

A 103 foot dive at Bergen Beach, by Prof. Jacobsen, a good vaudeville bill at the Casino Pier, a whirl on skates at the skating rink, a dance in the Alhambra, a whiz on the scenie railway, a whirl on the circle swing, a spin on the merry-go-round, and then a visit to the Trocadero, where the man-eating lion is caged, is surely mirth, fun and laughter, and even tragedy sufficient for even those demanding plenty of amusement. Bergen Beach affords all these pleasures. Mr. Williams has cabled from abroad that he had three animal acts which would open at the Trocadero in August, and that prior to their opening at the Beach he would play them through the Western Circuit. In the spectacle, Fighting the Flames, at Coney Island, Manager Hagen has just introduced one of the Ben Hur horses. Mr. Hagen is the master mechanic who originally constructed the Ben Hur effects when it was brought out at the Broadway Theatre years ago. In Fighting the Flames the same effect is obtained when the engines are dashing to the burning building: where the hero fireman's family is in danger as in the Ben Hur chariot race.

The bill at Henderson's Music Hail, Coney Island, last week, was: The B. A. Herr Koenigsberger, one of Bostock's trainers, has recently been training a Bengal maneating tiger and expects to put the new act on this week at Bostock's, Coney Island.

The popularity of Coney Island is on the jump and the records of previous years fall by the wayside each warm day. The advent of the summer weather has proved a magnet for The Heart of Coney Island, and every attraction and alluring feature that the ingenuity of Frederic Thompson has invented draws thousands of people from noon until midnight.

Night and Morning and The Wreck of the Corsair are shows that will bear witnessing frequently, and each time you see them you are more interested. The Days of '49 is an attraction full of vim and atmosphere. The settings are natural, the scenes perfect and the action real.

The Scalator, The Tickler and The Wiggle Waggle are amusing and exhilarating novelties. The free circus gives an afternoon's diversion in The Court of Luna.

The Double Whirl, now in operation at Golden-City, Canarsie, is attracting more attention than any other novelty ride in the park.

King Pharoab, the horse that reads, and is regarded as the equine wonder of the age, is attracting large crowds at Golden City. All the other attractions seem to draw well.

E. C. O'Nell, treasurer of Percy G. Williams' Colonian Theatre, in New York City, has been attracting large crowds at Golden City. All the other attractions seem to three well and only the summer months.

Gounod, the composer of so many delightful operas. There is already a statue to the composer of Faust in the parc Monceau, Paris, and St. Cloude is stirred to perpetuate his memory because it was here that he spent the summers of his active life. It was here that the happiest inspirations came to Gounod, and some of his choicest melodies were written when he occupied the Villia of Montretout.

M. Gaibard left Paris for Toulouse, accompanied by MM. Afre. Note and Mmes. Margyl, Flahaut, Sandrini, Salle, and other members of the opera, to organise a gala performance in honor of the Spanish visitor, now being entertained in this town. The program will include the second act of Samson and Dellia, and the second act of the ballet, Copelia, and some Spanish dances arranged by M. Paul Vidal, who will conduct the orchestra.

At the Galety Theatre La Fille de Madame Ankot continues its success with the talented artist, Mile. Gabrielle Dziri, as Clairette, who is supported by a strong cast. The sparkling music of this operetta of Charles Leccoq is as popular now as when in years gone by it first was heard.

In the ring around the band stand we have the quadrilles. can-can, cake walks, etc., danced by the usual clever troupes. The Americans, Luis and Milly Russel, in their clever American dances, deserve special mention, and are the great features of this part of the bill. They are scoring big. The circus performance and varied side shows form another interesting part of the evening amusement, which is enjoyed heartily by the fashlonable crowd.

Mile, Merelli and the lion tamer, G. Marck, in their sensational performance, as described in my last letter, prove great attractions at the Folices Bergere. A SPLENDID BILL

A SPLENDID BILL

Many attractive turns are presented this month at the Apollo Music Hall. Tony Wilson and La Belle Heloise, in a fine bar act, are the headliners, and fully deserve the position. They are followed by the Darras Brothers, equilibrists, who are deservedly applauded. The Patty-Frank Troupe perform some daring acrobatic feats. The Serenadas. Italian singers, in ancient Venetian costumes, are good. The Amoros Sisters do excellent dancing, juggling and acrobatic work. Others on the same bill are: Mado Minty, dancer; The Eight Apollo Girls, in songs and dances, and Mile. Lucette de Verly, who sings her songs in a charming style. Miss Whitner, a smart American lady, has several parts attributed in the new rerue at the Alcazar d'Etc. She was successful here in the production of The Country Girl at the Olympia, and is making a big hit in the revue as an English barmaid and suffragette. A new dance, called the Todo-Kama, is performed by Miss Cocktail and Tod Cams. The Eight Lorrisons, dainty English dancers, prove most diverting.

The Marigny revue is the most brilliant spectacle in Paris just now. Crowded audiences nightly is tax result. During the entre acts, the outside promenade is literally crowded with smart English and American people listening to the string band. The singing and acting of the revue is excellent.

Miss Lawler, the English actress, who was so successful in the Revue du Centenaire at the Varietes, has made satisfactory arrangements with the Palace Theatre, London, where she will introduce on June 22 some of her latest Parisian successes, and a big American number, something especially catchy in the way of a chorus.

ber, something especially catchy in the way of a chorus.

The Printania, Paris' favorite summer music hall, has opened its season. An attractive program, provided by the manager, M. Paul Ruez, was enjoyed by a fashionable crowd of well-known society people. Among the good turns on the the bill are: Etoced, with his clever trained dogs; Senlez and Nazir, in a smart wire act: a troupe of Chinese princesses, performing some daring acrobatic feats: The Teddy Trio, acrobats which scored a success; The Troupe Freire, clever risley performers. Miss Marquis Dassle, with her six trained ponies, is a capital turn. Auto and Mobil placed the house in a merry mood with their amusing eccentricities. The Itrams, in their original perch act, and the Guy-Gontran, comic acrobats, are the star turns at the Kursaal. The closing performance of this hall is announced for June 16.

A capital bill is presented at the Etolle Palace. The star turn here is the American, Belle Braham, who charms her hearers with her illustrated songs. She is gaining hearty applause and numerous calls before the curtain. Hunter and Maris, eccentric comedians, perform a laughable turn, in which they are most successful. Mile Lea, ventriloquiste, gives an entertaining and enjoyable number. Miss May, in a wire act, shows marked ability. The Three Joaquins are good dancers. Others who contribute include Anits and Lopes, Spanish dancers, Yreth, comedian; Senorita Melero, contortioniste, and the performance is concluded by a fine display of moving pictures by the vitagraph.

Author of The Builders, now playing at the Astor Theatre.

Miss Knott has demonstrated that she is not only an actress of great dramatic force, but is further a very clever comedienne. Her manager, Ernest Shipman, will retain this play for the early part of her next season's tour, and will later present her in a new play by a well-known author.

The Chappell-Winterhoff Company The Chappell-Winterhoff Company is putting on some very clever productions on the Bell-Olendorf Airdome Circuit. The company is headed by Carl A. Winterhoff and he is ably supported by Miss Sarah Marion and Katherine Currier in the leads. Miss Ethel Jordan in the heavies, and Miss Ethel Holer in specialties. Several other first-class performers are with the company which makes it a first-class organization.

Ernest Shipman has contracted for Ernest Shipman has contracted for two new and complete productions for When Knighthood Was In Flower. The bookings that have been made for the two companies, which Mr. Shipman will send out in this everlasting success next season consist largely of city engagements, and it is, therefore, Mr. Shipman's intention to furnish each company with most elaborate costuming and stage equipment.

J. E. Cline, who has directed the tour of May Stewart for the past two seasons, is now in New York City completing arrangements for next season. He expects to surround Miss Stewart with the largest and strongest company she has ever had. After a brief stay at the Jamestown Exposition he will go to his ranch in Texas where he will spend the greater part of the remainder of the summer.

Milton Schuster is playing his sixth sek at the Palace Theatre, Boston, Mass. He engaged to play the Hebrew comedy part with ark's Runaway Girls next season.

Hamilton, Carmen being the property of the Opera Comique. At last she got the permission, and played Carmen under the title of The Spanish Gypey Girl. Miss Nethersole was called before the curtain several times after each act, and at the end of the play she received an ovation which she fully deserved.

Miss Nethersole is negotiating with a Berlin theatre to give a number of performances with her compsny in July or August.

La Fille de Roland, the opening performance of the new open air theatre at Perigueux, was attended by nearly five thousand spectators, MM. Paul Mounet, Frenoux, Delauney, Ravet, from the Comedie Francaise, enacted the principal roles and were heartily applauded.

Evidences of the fast-approaching end of the theatrical season are perceptible in many ways. Expositions

ITH all the glory of the presence of the President and his entourage, and its attendant pomp and panoply of war department, the Jamestown Exposition, like the good old mother dews and pelting rains of Jupiter Pluvius, who just now—in fact—all this week, seems to have been working in "cahoots" with Neptune, to dreuch and drown out all of the ardour caused by the "doins" of last week. Verily, the Jamestown Exposition, this week, is in a damp, bad way. Attendance is at the lowest ebb since the opening. Vegetation, in this fertile region grows like the grass in the middle of an Arkansas railroad track, and "bloomers" are beginning to make their appearance on the Warpath. Everything green grows here like the weeds and tares in a scriptural wheat field, but none of that "long green" variety, that brings surcease to penury. If it did, some of the accrued and unpaid bills of the exposition, now amounting to the neat little sum of $750,000 could be easily met.

the accrued and unpaid bills of the exposition, now amounting to the neat little sum of $750,000 could be easily met.

It is discouraging, but the weather is to blame. The start gained last week was a good one and with the proper change to pleasant skies and warm weather, the exposition will bloom and flourish as superbly as the beautiful hedge of wild rose and honeysuckle that encloses it. There is a world of good things to commend the exposition and the finish of it will put many of the wiseacres that predicted failure for it, out of business.

Just now it wants encouragement. The changes of the directory will bring confidence. Director-General James Barr has brought with his assumption of control a great deal of this essential desideratum and with the newer exploitation now being set in motion by Director of Press and Advertising Stephen J. Bolles, great good will come.

The first concession to succumb to bad business is General Robert E. Lee and his generals. This exhibition consisted only of a painting. Why its exploiters expected it to live passes all understanding. Its demise created no flurry on the "street of fancy" whatever, but when rumors are rife that so important a show as Ranch No. 101 will depart for Brighton, to begin an indefinate season there in two weeks, the situation becomes most uncomfortable. This is one of the few enterprises among the amusenent features of the exposition that has lent it dignity. The fair can ill affort to lose the Miller Brothers' big wild west company. The rumor came to your correspondent in quite a direct way and as news it must be reported.

All of the bodies of the lil-fated mid-shipmen and seamen who went down in Hampton Roads recently, save those of Mid-shipman Murfin and Ordinary Seaman F. R. Plumlee, have been recovered. The Government has posted a reward of fifty dollars for the recovery of each of these bodies.

Concentration of authority is the object behind the election of James M. Barr to the post-tion of Director-General of the Jamestown Ex-reward of fifty dollars for the recovery of each of these bodies.

Concentration of authority is the object behind the election of James M. Barr to the position of Director-General of the Jamestown Exposition, the present Board of Governors, necessary under the Commonwealth laws, having proven entirely too cumbersome for the rapid dispatch of business. Retrenchment is now the slogan.

Thousands of the Travelers' Protective Association attended the exposition last week, as well as the Chiefs of Police of the United States and Canada. The Warpath was enlivened by the presence of Chicago's famous chief, George Shippy, and Captain Bob. Pinkerton, the noted detective. Both were guests of urbane Sam C. Haller, director of press, for Ferari's Jungle.

The Aeronautic Exhibit in the buildings of the Aeronautical Congress is assuming an interesting shape. M. Eugene Godet, the great French aeronaut, has been busy reconstructing his favorite airship badly damaged when in a flight last week, he was carried over Hampton Roads and rammed against the Battieship Alabama. Lampson's kites are shown here. The big aeroplane is now nearly completed. It was built under the direction of Israel Ludlow, of the New York Aero Club. The Von Zepplin ship excites admiration. M. Godet is using the Lebaudy fish tail rudder in his latest build. His new frame is made of cypress instead of bamboo, and weighs only forty-two pounds. Leo Stevens is exhibiting an aerial screw that is much thought of.

There is to be a reunion of the Jaquelin and Cary descendants at the exposition on Aug. 13-14. They are to meet every year hereafter to perpetuate these old distinguished colonial names.

Innes' Band is to furnish music for the month heginning Monday, June 24. He brings fifty-seven artists and will have as soloist, Miss Virginia Listeman, a fine soprano. The great director is arranging a spectacular performance in music, for July 4. The Kreutzer Quartet, a high-grade musical organization from New York, will give concerts at the exposition's auditorium July 4 and 5. Beginning June 21 Fablen, the planist, will entertain with a series of recitals. Phinney's Band, under the conductorship of Frederick Phinney, continues to delight the crowds with a program of both popular and classis music.

THE WARPATH.

THE WARPATH.

Pre-eminent as leading feature—the Battle of the Merrimac and Monitor continues to draw the big crowds. Like all successes the big McConnell Marine Battle Spectacle is threatened with a counterfeit imitation said to be in process of construction for Coney Island. Its too bad that an originator of a great idea can not enjoy the fruits of his labor and skill without some knavish imitator trying to pilfer it.

The Battles of Manassas and Gettsyburg are doing well.

Ferari's Jungle is well to the front among the carners here.

Akoun's Beautiful Orient, with the Oriental dances, is thriving.

Trixle, Barne's equipe wonder is a sort of Mecca just now for the men of the 12th Cavalry Regiment.

The Phillippine Reservation is doing splendidly under the management of Fred Sargent and William Alex. Sutherland. It would pay these gentlemen to look into the possibilities of taking over Ranch No. 101 should the rumor of their changing base prove true. The lot is admirably located for business—much better than the present location of the village of the little brown men.

AT PINE BEACH.

The fracas between the county constabulary and the men of the United States Regular regiments, quartered at the exposition, and which finally culminated in the arrest of a licutenant who was trying to reason with a constable, threatens the very existence of this beautiful seaside resort. Active efforts are being made to close down every semblance of a show out there, and the matter has gone before Governor Swanson, who seems determined to rid the place of the short card men or close it up tight on Sunday. As this day's take-off represents two-thirds of the week's business it can easily be seen what hardships it will work for deserving showmen. The investments in shows and their buildings now can be set down at over $800,000, and to deprive them of an existence is unfair. While 'tis true that much disorder exists—there is no more of it at Pine Beach than at Coney Island. What the settlement wants is a good set of police laws, strictly enforced—this done, the place will flourish as its site deserves. Let Mr. Crawl and others find a Captain Dooley. Bostock's big Jungle is located at Pine Beach and is a big thing. Mr. Bostock should take up the matter with Mr. Crawl. The big showman's advice to the latter gentleman will be sound and logical and much benefit would come from such a conference.

EXPOSITION NOTES.

EXPOSITION NOTES.

The Negro Building, which has just been completed, has been declared by the critics to be one of the finest structures upon the exposition grounds, and by some it is said to be the finest building of all the buildings now situated upon the exposition site. The establishment of this warpath will make the Negro Department the most attractive feature of the exposition. Aside from the main building adjacent thereto, there a dozen or more buildings erected by the Negro upon this reservation which makes its attraction almost inexplainable. It is noted that there are thousands of white people that visit the Negro buildings daily, all of whom express admiration and surprise at the successful exhibits contained in this building. There are several bands of music from different colleges, etc., who have volunteered their services to take part in the musical program of this department. It will be a treat for any one to visit the Negro Reservation which is situated at the western side of the exposition grounds, entrance 103 street. Giles B. Jackson, a noted lawyer of Richmond, Va., who secured the appropriation of $100,000 from the Government of the United States, to ald the Negro in making this exhibit, is director general of the Negro Department, and has displayed remarkable tact and energy in producing one of the grandest exhibits that has ever been produced by the colored people in this country; in fact, this exhibit in the Union.

Pleasure Resorts Summer Gardens

MANCHESTER'S (ENG.) WHITE CITY.

Whatever may have been said in the past, reflecting upon the want of outdoor ambaement in England and the Continent, it will be soon out of place, for, at the present time, the White City of Manchester is the location of one of the handsomest, attractive and most complete summer resorts of the world.

This colessal undertaking was commenced March 4 and eleven weeks after the signing of the losses, was opened to the public on May 20, which is indeed a record in park construction. The architects were Mears. Chas. Heath cote & Sons, and it remained for J. Calvin Brown, the managing director here, and one of the ploneers of the amusement park enterprises in America, to personally supervise and bring to completion this gigantic work. During this period over fifteen tons of white paint, 27e tons of white plaster and 360,000 cubic feet of timber were used and nearly 1,000 workmen employed day and night. Everything used upon the grammis for construction, etc., has been furnished by Messers. Heathcote and Brown, and it may not be amiss in this connection to add that the same firm are preparing plans for the construction of eleven more White Cities which will be located at London, Leeds, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Birmingham and Cardiff in Great Britain, while in France, Bordeaux, Lille, Marselle and Nancy have been selected and in Belgium, Brussels, and Leige, thus placing Heathcotes and Brown in full control of the American Annuement Fark business on this side of the Atlanticit has proved an instantiancous success, to attraction too good, no show too great for them to handle, and they are always open to any proposition for park shows and open-air attractions.

to handle, and they are always open to any proposition for park shows and open-air attractions.

For the present season, attractions were brought from America and the Continent as well as all of Great Britain has been secured to bring everything up-to-date. Mr. J. Calvin Brown, the managing director, has by his energy and tact, gained the respect and confidence of all with whom he has come in contact. It was he who first realized the splendid opportunity and possibilities of outdoor amusement parks in that country, and after making most minute as well as exhaustive and careful study of everything in the amusement line both in America and Europe, we are safe in saying that no one has a more practical knowledge of the subject—with its remarkable faculties for detail, his wonderful executive ability and untiring energy. In this his first White City in England as well as the eleven others which will be opened next season. It must also be considered that in this work he has had the hearty co-operation of the architects as well as his assistant manager. Arthur Ellis, as he is familiarly known, will be well and favorably remembered for his work in connection with the Barnum & Bailey Shows, Earl's Court Exhibition, etc., etc.

In the decorations the familiar color scheme of white has been faithfully followed with a slight touch of gold here and there, which adds the property of gardens, bowers of beauty, sgivan retreats, etc., etc. A general renovation of what was formerly the Royal Botanical Gardens. engagement of ten days, commencing July 3.

A deal is now being completed whereby eight or possibly ten summer parks in the middle west will be formed into a circuit to play the big summer attractions. The negotiations are being conducted very secretly but it is understood that parks in St. Louis. Toledo, Columbus and other cities are included. Attractions like Amelia Bingham. Joe Weber, Katherine Osterman, Virginia Harned and other stars who do not leave New York during the summer will be secured and will play a week in each city. It is expected that the papers for the circuit will be signed this week at Toledo, O.

Ferris Giles, manager of Sheelpot Park, Wilmington, Del., is working on a proposition to build a new park on the bank of the historic Brandywine River to be known as the White City-on-the-Brandywine. The plot consists of one hundred and sixty acres of ground and is within walking distance of all parts of Wilmington. It is only a thirty-minute car ride from Philadelphia, and one and one-half bour ride from Baltimore, Md.

The Coliseum Park, Hamilton, Ohlo, opened June 29, together with the theatre which has a seating capacity of eighteen hundred. Several free attractions including Hornberger, slack-wire roller skater: Montezella and Tokka, aerial revolving ladders: Luella, child wonder, serpentine dance and serial ladder act, and Eruption of Mt. Pelee, were given and met with instant favor by the great crowd.

Mile Corvince and her wild animals

Mile, Carrine and her wild animals are engaged as a special feature attraction at Codar Point, Sandusky, O., for the entire summer season. She has added a number of new animals to her already large collection and will have one of the strongest wild animal exhibitions before the public.

The continued spell of hot weather played sad havoc with the calculations of managers who contemplated keeping open all summer and three of our theatres will close on June 29. Business has fallen off considerably since the weather got so warm and as people have now gotten a taste of outdoor amusements, they will not hanker after the theatres. The Lyric has Sothern and Marlove week of June 24, and business has been fair. The house will close on the same date. Cole and Johnson had two weeks of good business at the Casino but it has fallen off considerably the past week. Business at both of the vaudeville houses still keeps up to a paying basis. The matinees are a little light, but at night the houses are alwaye good. Keith's Theatre is doing a better business than it did at the same time last season and that certainly means something, for the house has never had a losing week. MUSICAL.

The New Jefferson Theatre reopens Oct. 10 with Marie Cabill in her musical success, Marrying Mary. The sale of seats has reached four thousand dollars at five and ten dollars each and before the house opens, the amount is likely to be raised to five thousand. Among the later bookings are Hattle Williams, Kathryn Osterman and Kyrle Bellew.

Charles Frohman has engaged Eugene O'Rourke and Bessle DeVole, for The Dairymaids, the musical play he is to produce early next season.

MINSTREL.

Dracula, the frolicsome demon, has been engaged by Al. G. Field for the Donnelly & Hatfield Minstrels. He is playing this week at the Grand, New Castle, Ind., next week at Pastor's, New York City.

The touring right to Brewster's Millions has also been secured by this firm. It will open its season Sept. 1, and will be seen in all the principal cities as far as the Pacific Coast. The play scored one of the most pronounced bits of last season in New York, where it ran nearly an entire season at the New Amsterdam and Hudson Theatres. It is now being presented for the summer at the Colonial Theatre, Chicago, where it has duplicated its New York success. The yacht scene showing a storm at sea has been described as the most realistic stage picture ever presented. The mechanical devices for this scene alone are the most elaborate and heavy ever carried on tour by a theatrical attraction. For the cast of this play, Cohan and Harris are engaging a superier company, and have already secured the services of Robert Oher for the role of Monty Brewster.

Geo. Washington, Jr., in which Mr. Cohan has been starring for a year and a half past and which has thus far only been seen in a few of the principal cities, will also make a coast to coast tour. The cast will include Carter be Haven, Flora Parker, Willis P. Sweatnam, Lola Hoffman, John Boone, Jack Raffael, Olive North, Harold Forbes and a singing and dancing company of sixty-five people.

Cohan & Harris have also assumed the management of Thos. E. Shea, who has proved for the past few years one of the most profitable stars in America. Mr. Shea will be seen in only the largest cities and will present his standard repertoire consisting of Othello, Jekyll & Hyde and The Bells. He will also present a new play, of which he is the author, entitled A Soldier of the Cross.

Mr. Cohan's next most important production will be made about Sept. 1, when he will pre-

Mr. Cohan's next most important production will be made about Sept. I, when he will present for the first time, a new play he is now writing for Victor Moore which he has named Kid Burns, Eaq. It will be a musical comedy with, of course, the usual Cohan trimmings.

Mr. Cohan is at present appearing with his usual success in The Honeymooners at the Aerial Gardens in New York. At the conclusion of this engagement on Sept. I, he will indulge in his first real rest and vacation in several years. He will tour Europe and will not be seen on the stage again until January.

During the summer, Mr. Cohan will marry Miss Agnes Nolan, of Brookline, Mass., so his European trip will be in the nature of a bridal tour. While abroad Mr. Cohan will write a new play for his own use and this will be the opening attraction of the new Cohan Theatre, 40th street and Broadway, New York City, about Jan. 1. This theatre will be devoted exclusively to Mr. Cohan's plays and a permanent musical steck company will be installed there under the management of Cohan & Harris.

HUBERT HEUCK DEAD.

Hubert Heuck, of the Heuck & Fennessy Circuit of theatres and one of the oldest and best known men in the profession, died at his home in Cincinnati Sunday, June 30. Mr. Heuck had been ill for several months, suffering a general breakdows. The direct cause of his death was uraemic poisoning. The deceased was seventy-two years and seven months of age.

Hubert Heuck was born in Germany, Nov. 1, 1834, and was one of six children. His father was William Heuck, who held a commission as notary public under the Government. Hubert was given a splendid education in his country and at the age of twenty he came to America. His presence in Cincinnati was early felt and he proved himself to be a man of extraordinary enterprise and business shillty.

In 1875 he built the old Heuck Opera House which is now known as the People's. In 1882 he remodeled the Collseum into what is now known as Heuck's Opera House. Here for a time the first-class attractions played a hen at Cincinnati. Some of the most notable productions of a quarter of a century ago played at Heuck's. Later Mr. Heuck formed partnerships with James E. Fennessy and theatres in other cities were acquired. Last year this enterprising firm built the Lyric Theatre, Cincinnati, which opened in November with Shubert attractions.

The Harvey Dramatic Company, after closing their road show, are now playing at the Bush Temple of Music at South Haven, Mich., opening July 1. The company will produce nathing but high-class royalty pieces at popular prices, among which are Howard Hall's romantic drama, A Soldier of Fortune: Hal. Reid's Roanoke and Daly's, A Night Off, as well as others of equal merit. The roster of the company is as follows: Harvey D. Orr, proprietor and manager: Jack Harlowe, agent: Harry Delphos and Dorothy Kenyon, leads; Katherine Selsor, beavies: Evelyn Russell, characters; Lola Stuart, soubrette; Revelle Urghart, heavies: Herbert C. Pardey, characters: J. Wendel Davis, juvenile; Harry Wright, light comedy; Robert Winters, general business manager: Dow Reynolds, property man, and H. B. Lewis, carpenter.

WESTERN MANAGERS MEET.

"Bum shows must go" is the slogan of the Kansas and Missouri Theatrical managers who held a meeting last week at Kansas City. The main subject of discussion was the matter of attractions. These managers believe they are not getting the best class of shows and they will make an effort to get them. They also discussed the matter of unreliable agents and of agents representing unreliable attractions. Hereafter, they say, only one manager will be fooled. All theatrical contracts will be signed subject to the approval of the Missouri and Kansas Managers' Association. When a show is put on and does not come up to the standard set by the advance notices, all other managers in the association will be given notice of that fact.

SAYS THEY SOAKED HIM, TOO.

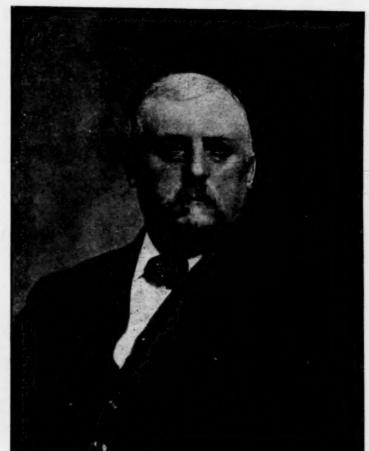

I have read the wall of Mr. Allen in last week's issue of The Billboard. I have had similar trouble of my own. A short time ago when I got ready to start out with our outfit, after trying for three months for a suitable rate our agent informed us that he had secured a rate through the passenger department thus: We were to get a rate of two cents per mile mile for twenty-five passengers, with free car for our property. We made arrangements that way and when we applied for the transportation we were informed that "party rates" had been withdrawn as a result of the two cent fare legislation in Missouri. As a consequence they seaked me $38 for a twenty-five ride.

MISS LYLLIAN LEIGHTN.

The beautiful woman whose picture adorns the title page of The Billboard this week, is Miss Lyllian Leighton, well-known in the vaudeville and dramatic world. She is making her way to the front with meteoric rapidity. Less than five years ago she did not know what a theatre looked like from the stage. By the merest accident she was called upon to take a part with a company appearing in the town in which she lived is Northern Wisconsin, and scored a success. Since then she has held engagements as leading woman with several well-known stock companies and last summer headed her own company for a successful period in Albuquerque. N. M. She has been with the Metropolitan Stock at St. Paul. terminating her engagement there the latter part of June. Miss Leighton has been appearing in vandeville for the past two years, staring in the one-act playlet A Matrimonial Revolution, written for her by the well-known comedian and monologist, John H. W. Byrne.

She will resume her vandeville engagements in September in a new one-act playlet, entitled Rowsertown Junction, written by Mr. Byrne, which will be produced with new scenery and mechanical effects. Previous to entering the theatrical profession, Miss Leighton was engaged in journalism and in soite of her many accomplishments, is one of the most difficent and modest laddes whom you would wish to meet. She has a large circle of friends in the social world and is one of them set difficent and modest laddes whom you would wish to meet. She has a large circle of friends in the social world and is one of these delightful personages who have the hampy faculty of making and retaining friends. Since this article was written we are informed that she makes her first New York appearance at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, week of Sept. 23, and it is devoutly hoped that she meets with the success she deserves.

The warm weather is now with us and the rush is on at the parks. Rose and Lemon, in their sensational Globe of Death, are the big drawing card at Wonderland.

Wheelock and his Indian Band are drawing Milwaukee music lovers to Pabst Park.

White City is also doing its share of business. It is the only free gate we have and the concession people all seem to be well pleased. Cardona and his lions draw big business to the Crystal.

The Corvict's Daughter, one of the best melodramas seen at the Bijou this season, is meeting with its usual success.

The premiere of The Needle's Eye was given at the Davidson Theatre last Monday night, with Foster Platt in the leading part. It is a comedy drama, handsomely staged and the plot is well worked out. The cast is good. The piece was accorded much favor.

The Liberty Girls are meeting with splendid success at the new Star Theatre. The opening piece this week is a dramatic burlesque, entitled Monte Christo, Jr., and is being well received. Too Much Bibbs is the closing burlesque. The ollo is good, including Miss Lena La Convier, Maddox and Melvin, Kresko and Graves and Miss Louis Dacre.

Arnold A. Graves and Judey Fields, both members of the Barnum & Bailey Circus, which will be seen here July 1, are to be married during the engagement in this city. The prospective bridgeroom has been at Trinity Hospital here for some time, being treated for injuries austained in a severe fall.

The members of the Garrick Stock Co., recently disbanded, with the exception of John Junior, Robert Rogers and Louise Mackintosh, will leave Milwaukee where several of them have won a large personal following of admirera during their short residence here.

Miss Adelaide Nowak goes to her home in Chicago and while her plans are indefinite she expects to play six or eight weeks more of stock before beginning rehearsals for the coming season. Owing to the retirement of Richard Mansfield from the stage for the coming season of the plays which the Garrick Company's productions. Howard Gould

John Junior has joined the Pabst English Stock Company as leading juvenile and will remain in Milwaukee until Sept. 1, when he returns to New York to be featured in a forthcoming Broadway production. Miss Mackintosh and Mr. Rogers, who are Mr. and Mrs. Rogers in private life, will play in vaudeville for a while, going out into the state this week and returning to Milwaukee for next week at the Crystal.

Schedules in bankruptcy filed by the Hippodrome Amusement and Construction Company, against which involuntary proceedings were started several weeks ago, estimated the linbilities of the concern at $67.752 and the assets at $79.765. Of this amount, $75,000 is represented by the building at Seventh and Wells streets. The secured claims are $50,000 in bonds and these claims, with the liens now filed against the building, it is said will practically wipe out this asset.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The long delayed summer has at last put in its appearance and consequently the parks have been benefited very materially, notwithstanding the increase patronage of the outdoor resorts the different stock companies are still enjoying capacity business.

The success of the summer opera at the National has been phenomenal; the entire house has been sold out at each and every performance.

Wilton Lackeye has closed with the Columbia Theatre Company, but as the management still have Hilda Spong and Charlotte Walker in the cast the attendance at this popular house will probably be sustained.

Miss Amy Ricard made her first appearance as the new leading lady of the Edwin Arden's Company at the Belasco this week. She is very popular with the playgoers of this city, having appeared here during the past season in several very important roles. Next season she has been engaged for an important part in Wright Lorimer's new play.

Manager Goodfellow, of Luna Park, knows how to give the public what they want, by engaging the best hands and hippodrome acts obtainable. As an extra attraction for Fourth of July week he has engaged the Beachey Airship.

The Engineering department of the district positively states that the new Union Station will be in full operation by September 15.

Guy Harris has leased the candy privilege in the new Gayety Theatre which will be opened early in September.

Joe Beymer, one of Al. Woods' agents, is summering near here on a farm.

All arrangements have been completed whereby W. D. Fitzgerald will present Miss Kathyrin Purnell and Company at the Majestic for a season of forty weeks, beginning about Aug. 1.

Mr. Fitzgerald will surround Miss Purnell with a strong company and produce only high-class royalty plays, together with at least three big vaudeville acts each week.

At a recent meeting of the United Singers they decided to build a music hall in this city, which will be a model in every respect.

THE MONEY OF THE YEAR.

Magnet

Money.

RCADE owners who are looking for a money making novelty, need look no further. The "Sibille" is an Oriental Fortune Teller which will charm the money away from anybody. No one can resist playing this fascinating machine. Nothing like it ever before on the market.

In the upper cabinet is the veiled figure of "Sibille" the Queen of Hearts, beautifully moulded and painted, handsomely gowned, ornamented with jewels, etc. When coin is dropped in slot she turns her head to right and left, bows, returns to first position, bows, moves her right hand, which reveals a hand of playing cards through an opening in the floor of the cabinet. Simultaneously, a card is thrown out in the cup in front of the machine on which is printed a similar hand of playing cards, and on the back a fortune, such as a clairvoyant would read from the cards shown. These readings were prepared for the "Sibille" by a famous clairvoyant and are thoroughly trustworthy. There are 60 combinations of these playing cards, giving a wide range of fortunes, so that there is small possibility of the players ever receiving the same fortune twice.

The "Sibille" is lighted by means of a colored globe in the top of the cabinet and an incandescent light is thrown on the fortune revealed by the hand of "Sibille."

The case is finished in mahogany with a highly polished piano finish, and is attractively embellished with nickle plated ornaments of knights and shield, at the top, furnished with convenient handles at the side. These and the legs are also nickle plated.

60. Jactes

President.

The upper cabinet is enclosed with engraved glass on three sides and the top is supported by handsome fluted Doric columns. The unusually beautiful design and construction of the "Sibille" make it easily the most attractive machine any arcade owner ever put on exhibition. It always gets the play; never gets out of order because there is nothing to get out of order, and is a money making fortune teller without an equal.

Cut out and mail the attached coupon today and let us tell you more about the "Sibille."

The weather man has at last satiated

The weather man has at last satiated his grudge against the outdoor amusement interests. It would seem even that he has some compunction for the trouble of Change he caused early in the season, and is now trying to make amends, climatic conditions are now generally excellent and open air amusement folk are rejoicing in consequence. The general effects of the change may be measured by the results at the big amusement resorts of metropolitan calibre. The change in the weather sent people flocking to New York's playgrounds in numbers that promise to make up, before very long, the early falling off in attendance over other years. At Chicago's several resorts, conditions have undergone a proportionate degree of improvement.

The big circuses also report large increases in attendance.

The big circuses also report large increases in attendance. The prospects are now altogether roseate.

CINCINNATI. O.

Cincinnatians deplore the death of Hubert Heuck, the pioneer theatrical manager of Cincinnati, who passed away at his home Sunday, June 30. Mr. Heuck was regarded as the deam of Cincinnati theatrical managers, and was very popular. His latest achievement was the building of the Lyric, the handsome new Shubert theatre in the Queen City.

For Fourth of July week our park managers have planned something extraordinary, and every summer resort has features that will attract the elite as well as the multitude. The weather is ideal.

The vaudeville bill at Chester is advertised as a dollar show for nothing. It consists of Nelle Melvin, Burk's Musical Dogs, Ames and Lamb, Byers and Hermann, and others.

The Chester Park Opera Co., headed by Marlon Stanley, is seen in the delightful comedy, Dolly

Varden. This company is seen weekly by its old friends and it is making new ones at every performance. Coney always has a ble Poweth This Varden. This company is seen weekly by its old friends and it is making new ones at every performance.

Coney always has a big Fourth. This year's event will be greater than ever. It is advertised as a truly western Fourth, the western flavor being added because of the engagement of the Kennedy Wild West Show. Col. Englebreth has arranged a splendid bill at the open air Bijou Theatre and it looks auspicious for Coney this week. The Sunday crowd was big. Haley's Washington Band is the attraction at the Zoo. Rice's Dog and Pony Show is an extra attraction at this famous resort this week. By the way, what is so rare as a day in July at the shady Zoo?

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucier played a return engagement at Coney last week under the direction of Col. Englebreth, the popular amusement manager of that resort. This team recently spent two weeks at their old home in Nicholasville, Ky., renewing acquaintances. It was their first visit there in fourteen years. Mr. Lucier has booked the act well up into the season at the big parks. Mrs. Lucier pass the talk of Cincinnati last week, during its engagement at Coney.

Mr. W. W. Brown, of Brown & Robert's Pavilion Theatre, was in Cincinnati last Sunday, the guest of Julius Thompson, of Thompson & Vandiveer, the tent makers. Mr. Brown reported good business for his show and he said that despite the bad weather they had had good business ever since their opening in April. This attraction is now showing the mining district of West Virginia.

It is safe to say that Kenney's Wild West will be the talk of the town before its engagement, but it has a clientele among the better class that is envisible. This season's sensation is the performance of Hy Nichols, a Mexican buil fighter who rides a bucking buil at each performance.

Charles Bisbop has resigned as plano player for the Coney Island Co. He will be succeeded by Will Waterworth.

MAJOR GOSNEY'S CONDITION.

Kansas City, Mo., June 28, 1907. Editor The Billboard, Cincinnati, O.

Cincinnati, O.

Dear Sir:—Your very appreciative letter containing check for $15 received this a. m. and I am more than grateful for the favors extended to me through the columns of The Billboard.

My health is not improving very fast and the chances are I will have to go back to the hospital. I have had several good positions offered me lately, but had to decline them all on account of my bad health. Mr. Sells, who I was in advance of last season, offered me a good position, but when a person has poor health he is lost to the world, though I still look on the bright side of life and hope for the future.

Once more I wish to thank you and my many professional friends for their liberal courtesies extended to me this dark hour of sickness and distress and hoping that some day in the near future I may be able to reciprocate, I remain.

MAJOR E. J. GOSNEY.

WM. MORRIS INCORPORATES.

William Morris the vaudeville booking agent, has organized and incorporated the William Morris Amusement Co. with a capital of $500,000, and the power to own and operate theatres. The real backer of the enterprise is not disclosed. The new company will obtain houses in intermediate towns not covered by the Klaw & Erlanger vaudeville combination.

It is generally accepted that Morris has taken this step in order to secure his own position in the vaudeville field.

CHINESE THEATRE DESTROYED.

Advices from Hong Kong announce the destruction of a Chinese Theatre by explosives, and the death of five hundred Chinese including ten Chinese actors. Some explosives concealed underneath the floor of the theatre were lighted.

CIRCUS NOTES

The city fathers of Pittsfield, Mass., have passed an ordinance that will keep out of that city all circuses and wild west shows that do not give a parade. No license will be issued to any tented show unless it is specified that a parade will be given. Buffalo Bill made the city this year and did not give any parade, to the disappointment of many. In the same city the business men's associations have petitioned the Mayor not to issue a license to any circus for the week end. They say that Saturday shows kill their trade. The Mayor, it is said, will grant their request.

All their actions seem useless when it is considered that Pittsfield is without a show ground. The Cole Brothers showed there July I, and now the old show lot has been cut up into building lots and sold. It was two miles out of town and a spongy spot even in the dryest of weather. There is no other available lot near the city, so Pittsfield can be cut out of circus itineraries in the future.

Cole Brothers, with Sells-Forepaugh, Buffalo Bill and the Ringling Brothers in opposition through New York State, did a land-office business. In fact the show has not had a losing stand, even in the worst of weather, this season. In towns where night stands are unheard of, the Cole Brothers got them, making evident the fact that the performance is of such extreme merit that the afternoon performance advertises the night show.

Sells-Forepauch's connection, brigade started ston, Troy and even Albany. This, despite the fact that Buffalo Bill was billed for Troy and the Sells-Forepaugh Shows for Saratoga.

"Doc" Ogden is on a fair way to be ader among the side show managers. "Doc" Ogden is on a fair way to become a leader among the side show managers. He can clean up a lot at an opening in good style. There are only a few get away from him at the blow offs. The side show with the Cole Broth-ers' Shows is well put together and stronger in features than many of the much larger shows.

A PLAYER'S MEMORIES

By JOHN W. BLAISDELL.

The Boston Museum had, for years, the leading stock company in America. In those days each actor was engaged for a line of business beginning with the general utility man; next came the first and second old man, juvenile, leading juvenile, heavy and leading man. The indies were first and second walking lady, first and second soubrette, first and second old woman, juvenile lady, heavy and leading lady, first and second soubrette, first and second old woman, juvenile lady, heavy and leading lady. These I have named with the least first and the best last, taking note of that promised day of Holy Writ, when the first shall be last and the last, first.

We played stock plays which included comedies, farces, tragedies and melodramas. At times stars would come—the better class of stars, and then the young men and women of the companies who supported them, had an opportunity of seeing the methods, and studying them, of the best actors and actresses on the stage. These opportunities, together with the strict dicipline of the stage director, were sure to make something out of even medicore talent. After I had been five years with the company at the munificent salary of $3 a week, our efficient manager, W. H. Smith, retired, and E. F. Keach became our manager for the season. A benefit was given at our theatre, for Mr. Bass, a very noted actor of the time, and who appeared on this occasion as the principal character in the "Last Man." Mr. E. L. Davenport appeared in the double bill, playing the leading part in The Honeymoon, and I had the small part of Lopez. Before the night of this performance I had asked Mr. Keach for an increase of salary, but had been refused. After the day Mr. Davenport took me aside, and asked me if I was engaged for the following season. He was at that time the manager of the Howard Athenaeum. The next morning I again asked Mr. Keach for a raise in salary, which he again refused. I then called upon Mr. Davenport playing the part of Damon.

So I got'a chance to play a characte before the curtain, patted me on the head, and said. "This is my boy," and from that moment I feit as one inspired in my art.

John McCullough was a member of the Howard Athenaeum Company under Mr. Davenport's management, and here he got his first start on the road along which he traveled so far, toward the heights of his profession. Mr. Davenport was playing the part of Robert Laundry, in The Dead Heart, and during the run of the play he was disabled by a severe attack of the gout. He contemplated closing the theatre for a few nights, or until his recovery. John McCullough, who was a minor member of the company, asked Mr. Davenport to allow him to play the part, saying that he was perfect in the lines. Lawrence Barrett, who was the Abbe Latour of the cast, interceded in McCullough behalf, and Mr. Davenport gave his consent. McCullough made a decided impression upon his audiences, and from that time his rise was rapid. Edwin Forest, a few weeks later, engaged him to play opposite parts to him. After Mr. Forest's death McCullough secured many of his plays, giving them with great success. His brilliant career was ended during an engagement at McVickar's Theatre, in Chicago, where he was stricken with paresis.

During the Civil War I remained with Mr. Davenport, and played such parts as were given me, a round of characters embracing almost everything, from the pollshed villian to the injured, and magnanimous hero. Just before the end of the war we produced a play called the Battle of Bull Run. I was cast for the character of Sergeant Frank Bromwell, the avenger of Colonel Elisworth, who was shot at Alexandria, Va., by a man named Jackson, early in the war. I was to make up to look as much also sosible, and with the assistance of Bromwell himself. Mr. Davenport sent me to his dressing room for a light wig, which he said I could find in one of his boxes. I was to take this wig, and go to the barber, with Bromwell himself, and have the wig cut to look as much as possible like the hair as worn by Bromwell. I did so, a worn by Bromwell. I did so, and on the night of the performance my likeness to Bromwell was so startling that bets were made that it was Bromwell himself who was playing the part.

This was all very well, but some two or three weeks after this. Mr. Davenport had occasion to use a certain light wig, which could not be found. It turned out that instead of taking the one he intended. I had selected a most costly one, which had been made for the character of Sir Thomas Clifford in The Hunchback. My glory was gone, also my salary, which was forfeited until Mr. Davenport could buy a new wig with the mosey. This he never did, to my knowledge, but the incident never passed from his mind, as he showed in the following season. While playing in the great combination at Niblo's Garden, New York, I was surprised, when I called for my salary, to be handed a note from Mr. Davenport, in which be thanked me for my close attention to business, and inclosed $20 in gold, the price of the wig.

E. L. Davenport was one of the greater of American actors.

closed $20 in gold, the price of the wig.

E. L. Davenport was one of the greatest of American actors. He was of the old school, of course, and his broad and strong method and his original personality filled the stage. His influence, upon those playing with him, was telling. He saw the beginning of the line of American tragedians that was to follow him. McCullough, Edwin Booth, Barrett and was one of Forest's early contemporaries. In character he was lovable. I have given an instance or two of his dealings with me, when I was an obscure member of his company. To him I look as the most inspiring among the stage people with whom I came in contact in my early years, if not in all of those I passed upon the boards of the theatre.

ENCORES NUISANCES.

C. J. Bishenden, in a recent number of The Troubador, London, says:

"Encores at both opera and concerts are nuisances from two points of view.

"In the first place, the audience, especially those who live at a distance, have a printed program put before them, and reckon upon having the opera or concert over by a certain time, so as to enable them to catch their train or tram. But this is all upset by a few noisy and greedy people who nearly double the program by insiseting upon having as much as they can for their money, and never thinking of the inconvenience they cause to the audience or to the performers.

insiseting upon having as much as they can for their money, and never thinking of the inconvenience they cause to the audience or to the performers.

"For instance, how absurd it is at the opera in the finish of an effective scene, when the singer has just sung 'I bid thee a long farewell,' for the performer to resppear and sing again, just to please a few selfish people. They can not possibly be genulae sunde lovers, or they would not cause this interruption.

"When a program is arranged for a concert in a given time, if each piece is to be repeated, independent of the waits in between each item, everything is upset, to say nothing of great annoyance to many who have calculated to hear certain pieces, which in consequence of the loss of time, they are obliged to forego. The performers are also inconvenienced, as they often have to keep other appointments elsewhere. All this trouble just because a selfish minority can, if they make noise enough (which they generally manage to do) get double for their money.

"In many cases the so-called honor of an encore is not deserved, for a tricky singer may minder a song till the last note, an dthen haul on that for an encore, and the same with some instrumentalists, who will play anything but artistically, and then reserve some well-known encore tricks for the finish. On the ether hand, a good performer, singer or player will give an excellent performance throughout, but just because the noisy part of the audience can not appreciate it, very little appliause follows. This state of things is not so much encouragement to the conscientious artist.

"Encores are a mistake, and very misleading to the general and unthinking public, who as a rule imagine that they mean ability, when very often it is just the reverse. It abould be understood for the future, that if the audience wish to show their appreciation of a good performer, one return to the audience and a bow should be all that is necessary, and if performers make a stand now, the encore injustice will be ended."

THE PRIDE OF THE WEST.

Norris & Rowe are Breaking all Records on the Coast. Only one Rainy Day in Twelve Weeks.

Ords on the Coast. Only one Rainy Day in Twelve Weeks.

Twelve weeks out of winterquarters and but one rainy day, is the unheard of record which it has been the good fortune of the Greater Norris & Rowe Show to enjoy.

During this time we have been almost daily reminded of our good luck by letters, newspapers and reports in general telling of the inclement weather and rough experiences of our friends in the east. This unprecedented record is in extreme contract to our experience of last season when during the same period, we were confronted by a combination of the most adverse conditions imaginable, including almost incessent rain and wind storms, blow-downs, washouts, railroad wrecks and finally the terrible San Francisco earthquake which paralized business for two weeks.

This season there has been no accidents, no delays or misfortunes of any kind. The overwhelming crowds which have applauded the performances daily and the unstinted praise of the press are pronounced evidence of the growing popularity of this show with the people of the Pacific Coast and demonstrate that it has been justly termed "The Pride of the West."

Never during the remarkably successful career of this show has business been so good. During the past fortnight people were turned away at Aberdeen. Tacoma, Everett, Seattle (three straight nights), and at both performances at Vancouver, B. C.

Our seating capacity is twelve lengths of eight ther portable grandstand with chairs, sixteen lengths of nine tier folding back reserved seats and forty lengths of twelve tier blue seats.

Vancouver was our last stand on the Pacific Coast and we are now headed east via C. P. Ry., with good prospects in view for a continuance of our remarkable success.

The price of admission for the next thirty days will be $1, with 50 cents for grandstand seats.

A car load of fine baggage horses were purchased at Seattle and Bellingham, Wash., and a span of the most handsom hearts.

Reserved seats and to cents for grands asseats.

A car load of fine baggage horses were purchased at Seattle and Bellingham, Wash., and a span of the most handsom Arabian stallions ever brought to this country.

These horses are to be used in the Roman charlot races, together with six others of the same breed. On May 24 five lion cubs were born and just one week later a pair of baby tigers put in their appearance. The nursery department of our menageric also boasts of five Shetland colts and a baby baboon.

At Seattle, Hugh Harrison was a daily visi-

At Seattle, Hugh Harrison was a daily visi-tor. He expressed himself as astonished at the growth of the show. Since Mr. Harrison's retirement from the circus world, he has been engaged in the jewelry business at Seattle. His sales of diamonds and jewelry to the Nortis & Rowe people amounted to nearly five thousand dollars. I think that Hugh made them a pro-fessional rate.

DOLLY VARDEN'S LETTER.

My Dear "Billy Boy." Neb., June 23, 1907.

My Dear "Billy Boy."

I am back with the show again. Even the horses know it. I am good to dumb animals and give them nice things for their sweet teeth every day. The "Ten Big" caught up with me at Des Moines. A cracker jack parade was given there. Thousands saw it and it seemed all of them bought tickets to the big show. Business was tremenduous, proving that the first show in gets the dough and especially when its the John Robinson Circus. The day was cloudy. The town of Perry turned out almost en masse. Perry people are brisk movers, rain or shine.

nrst show in gets the dough and especially when its the John Robinson Circus. The day was cloudy. The town of Perry turned out almost en masse. Perry people are brisk movers, rain or shine.

Fred Buchanan was in evidence at the circus. What a whopper he is getting to be! He had a whole section to himself. After the performance he placed an order with Billy Curtis for the Curtis Truss seats. Later in the evening Buchanan received a wire that stated his show, the Yankee Robinson Circus, was stuck in the mud un in the Northwest. Next year that circus will be a railroad show.

June 18 was the Des Moines date. Just 30 years ago to the very day the John Robinson Circus exhibited in that city as a wagon show and gave five performances in the one day. Forty-five years ago when in Des Moines, the late Colonel E. H. Hooker, owner of the stage coach line out of Des Moines, honored the Robinsons and their performers by hitching 30 horses to his largest conch and hauling them from there to Indianola. Last Tuesday the show people, while the crowds were surging on the down-town streets, headed for the circus, were at Woodland Cemetery holding memorial services in remembrance of Colonel Hooker and his ide-partner. Dick Lonsberry. These two men were beloved by the Robinsons and in the Robinson book of record is written opposite their names: "Gentlemen of the old school. True blue frienter. Men and playing Noarer My Gol to Thee and the circus folk singing it. Rev. J. Stanley Wellington. minister with the circus, spoke as follows:

"We stand on sacred soil. We are gathered in remembrance of two characters dear to those thantic, lowa, was the Wednesday date, is 19. The day was bright. Two big audities turned out. One of the Minerva Sisters

t a cuff button. It fell from her costume when she was being spun faster than the 18-hour train goes to New York. The newspapers had it that Miss Minerva fell and was dying. She was awfully alive the last time I saw her. Oh, how she scorched the press agent! And don't you know it never flazed him. Another story was that a woman disguised as a man got work as a waiter in order to nearly kill another waiter who had promised to marry her. The papers stated that both worked in restaurants in every town in the west. For several hours that night reporters were busy searching the restaurants for information. It made quite a stir.

Council Bluffs was Thursday, June 20. Old Sol was good to us. The largest audience ever to a circus in the afternoon here was recorded. The night house was as large. Many came over from Omaha. A goodly number of circus people went across to Omaha after the night show. "Pig" Emmert, formerly the "Wait for Me" clown with the "Ten Big," is in the jewelry business there. He passes the time away nicely, and Bobby Reed, Billy Rice, Bobby Launder and Billy Day let too many of the moments go by and got back to Council Bluffs too late for the last section. Darting around in the dark in the railroad yards drew the attention of the local sleuths and they nabbed the four clowns. Taking them to a street lamp they pulled out old Police Gaszettes and a hunk of postage stamp pictures of crooks. The cops identified them as "Hungry Mike," Lean Tom," "Mutton Sam" and "Chunky Morgan." The wagon came and they were paraded up town. The boys pleaded and said "Yea," "Yea" and made all kinds of signs. Finally the Eagles came and release followed. It taught them a lesson—"Never tarry when the train is near the lot."

John Churchill, aged S2, was the guest of Ed. Cullen at Council Bluffs.

came and release followed. It taught them a lesson—"Never tarry when the train is near the lot."

John Churchill, aged 82, was the guest of Ed. Cullen at Council Bluffs. They were together on the original survey of the Union Pacific Railway. Mr. Churchill crossed the plains 15 different times and was one of the first "Pikes Peak or Bust" squad.

George Holland had as guest here, John Higby who drove the first stage Buffalo Bill ever had. He is one of the old boss hostlers.

It was at Council Bluffs in 1864 that the Mabee Show met up with a cyclone and the canvas was lifted right up over the audience and in its flight took fire and burned.

Friday, June 21, found us at Nebraska City, Neb., and it proved a very peculiar day. It would rain a while and then the sun would come out. The big top was packed in the afternoon and at night business was good. One of the Ellet Troupe got a fall, but the next day he was working.

Saturday, June 22, we woke up at Lincoln, Neb. The business exceeded that of last year. The clouds of the morning gave way to sunshine in the afternoon. The sunset was golden and the people streamed into the tents for the evening performance. A storm came up and the show was cut. It was a fierce bombardment of the elephants. The rain almost strangled person. The wind was a gale, like belt turilly love. Trees were torn up by the root. Billy Curtis again demonstrated his administration of the elephants. The rain almost strangled person. The wind was a gale, like belt turilly Curtis again demonstrated his administration of the Frank Sisters and ran. Chief Detective Harry Exley got bot on his trail and caught the "inigger" and locked him up. He had thrown the purse away. It contained dlamonds and money. When the show left town a search was being made for it.

Governor Sheldon, of Iowa, and party, were honored guests, as were the wife and family of Hon. William Jennings Bryan. William wuld have been present but he was away at even things. During the day Madame Mabel's big bon constrictor shedded and as it did so with the sheded skin it spelled or wrote this: "B-NXT-P." which according to scientists, is a prophesy, meaning "Bryan Next President." On the Lincon statesman.

Pat Fitzgerald did a funny stunt at Council Bluffs. He hitched up his trained geese and drove over to Omaha.

Sidney, the colored trick mule rider, is back with the "Ten Big." He has been with Clark's Wagon Show for a long time.

Claude Orton is doing nicely as train master. He loads and unloads (not himself) in quick fashion.

George S. Cole was quite ill for several days, but is right side up with care now. Golly, but he does land those banners for the elephants. Ed. Hol

"Who discovered seam squirrels "" is the Jamestown Exposition in full blast?" "Who was the first circus man to save money and buy a home?" "Who bought the first circus ticket?" I just know I got the poor men stalled. When they grow up I will tell them all about it. Keep smiling and "Just plug along."

P. S.—In the Lincoln storm "Fatty" Wallace cried for belp. He swore rain drops as big as himself hit him. He lost his hat, one trouser's leg, and his shoes. He had fixed up for a banquet after the show. George Atkinson didn't mind it. He's so tail he looked over the whole business. Mrs. Wm. Curtis fell in a sewer. P. S. CIRCUS GOSSIP.

Notes from the Hagenbeck-Wallace Advertising Car No. 1: At our last regular meeting, June 23, W. E. Burkart was elected stewart, to relieve Brother Dave Jarrott, as he has closed with the advertising car and will go back to the show and do his duty as twenty-four hour man. W. S. Jackson has been appointed boss billposter on the car which has twenty-four men in it. Ed. Ansten is a new addition to the force. O. Connelly and E. C. Dond were released at Oleon. Manager Reese claims to have the best bunch of billposters on the road. Several of the boys took advantage of a lay over at Cleveland, to take a ride on Lake Erie, a friend of theirs furnishing the launch. Ben Hasselman and Homer Ingersol, of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Advertising Car No. 2, will put in a moving picture show at Burlington, Iowa, next winter. They have leased a large store-room, and it will be remodeled throughout. The contract has been given and the contractors will begin work at once. They expect to open about Oct. 15.

W. C. Boyd, for many years railroad contractor and general agent for leading circuses, was a Billboard caller, June 27. He is looking fine and feeling young. "Bill," as he was widely known in the show business, is now connected with Edw. H. Wagner, the big importer of fireworks and novelties at 50 Broad street, New York City.

"Punch" Wheeler got some good notices in the papers at Dillon. Col. It was all about a bold attempt of some bold robbers to silently steal away with some of the fine horses carried by the Tammen aggregation. If the people of the west don't get plenty of Sells-Floto show gossip it won't be "Punch's" fault.

F. D. Whetten writes that he and his wife have closed with the Fashion Plate Shows. They will rest up a while after a somewhat strenuous tour because of the inclement weather and will play the parks booked by the Western Vaudeville Association.

James A. Morrow, manager of the side show of the Sells-Floto Shows, writes that he has just received the largest snake on record in this country. Prince Otimo, a genuine Zulu warrior, has charge of the monster.

Walter J. Ashborn, with his troupe is new in his fourth season with the Sun Broth-ers' World's Progressive Shows. His somer-sault dog. Toledo, is turning some high ones this year.

Mile. Brachard, LeGrand Heaton and Rathel LaCroix joined the Monarch Shows of acrobatic canines and educated pony, Rex, June 19 at Covington, Ind.

The John Robinson Show left out the evening performance at York, Neb., June 24. A beavy windstorm was the cause of it.

Because of the unsatisfactory actions of one of the big shows in Duluth last year, the City Council of that city increased the circus license to $500. General Agent Cook sent R. M. Harvey, of the Barnum & Bailey staff, to wrestle with the license problem. So sincere and convincing were the arguments of the circus agent that they won the aldermen who had been disposed to favor high licenses for circuses, voluntarily espoused the reduction asked by Barnum & Bailey and which carried after a two hours' debate by a vote of 10 to 5. According to the Duluth Herald. Alderman Moore, a banker, one of the high license men, complimented Mr. Harvey, on the council floor as follows: "This matter has been put up to us fairly. The circus men have come here, have tried to conceal nothing, have given us all the information we ought to have, have not attempted threatening or bull-dezing methods and have acted like gentlemen in every respect. They have shown, to my satisfaction, at least, that we are charging more than most of the cities of our class in this country are doing."

The J. G. Lombard Imperial Shows continue to do good business despite the weather. The show has not been turning them away, but it has been doing a paying business and is leaving a favorable impression. They have added another thirty-foot middle piece and three new lengths of blues so that their top will seat one thousand people comfortably. The show is playing three night stands with a change of program nightly. Prof. Harry H. Belmont's Silver Concert Band and Orchestra is making the natives sit up and take notice. The attraction will go into halls about Sept. 20, and will work west.

The C. M. & St. P. railroad recently The C. M. & St. P. railroad recently issued some drastic and arbitrary orders regarding the handling of circus advertising cars and advertising matter. Most of the circuses accepted the order as a matter of course, but J. P. Fagan, traffic manager of the Barnum & Bailey Show, literally camped in the general offices of the road at Chicago, until he secured not only a revocation of the obnoxious order, but gained other concessions for the shows. Another star in Fagan's brilliant crown.

H. G. Wilson writes very enthusiasth. G. Wilson Writes very enthusiastically of the manner in which the Pawnee Bill Show is being received in the Northwest. W. C. Thompson is personally handling the press as is evidenced by splendid notices in every paper in every town. Opposition has been plentiful. The Barnum & Balley Show gave them a rub. The Great Far East is proving a decided success.

Owing to the death of Ed. Florence, manager of the Florence Troupe, whose demise occurred in New York City, June 25. Al. Florence and wife are now at their home in Kansas City, Mo. They will shortly Join the Will H. Welder Carnival Co. On their way to Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Florence paid a call to The Billboard.

Oliver Lester's car of the Barnum & Bailey Show, which has been working six weeks in advance on the regular route all season, has been doing some great work. Billing double and triple deckers off that car on excellently located walls is a daily occurrence.

Strange how anxious many cities are to have a big circus on a holiday and how firmly other cities may oppose a tented show on a holiday, and it generally happens that the circus is routed into one of the latter class on holiday.

Henry W. Link, who is at Mt. Clemens, Mich., writes that he is improving as nicely as could be expected from the injuries he received several months ago in a rallroad wreck. He will be in Cincinnati about July 15.

Fred Morgan, contracting agent for the Forepaugh-Sells Show, recently resigned sud-denly. Conditions became such with a "rep." company of which he is the proprietor, that he was compelled to join his company immediately.

Fire destroyed the stables at the fair grounds at Kingston, Ont., during the engagement of the Forepaugh-Sells Show there, June 27. The showmen lent assistance and saved the show property from harm.

Gus Banks and wife, who retired some time ago to enter business at Providence, R. I., entertained the members of the Lom-bard Imperial Shows at Central Falls, R. I.

Eighteen Indians joined the Riggs Wild West at Columbus, O. "Buckskin Pete," the cowboy who was recently shot during one of the performances, has returned to the show.

A. R. Strain, who had the paper on Oliver Lester's car, of the Barnum & Bailey Show, is no longer with this car.

WHAT TOWN CAN BEAT THIS?

Elgin, Ill., has a well-known citizen, Si. A. Benham, residing at 423 Ball street, who is an enthusiastic lover of the circus and keeps track of circus happenings in The Billboard. Mr. Benham first saw the light of day in Elgin about 60 years ago and says about the first thing he recollects is his mother took him to the circus. Since this time, during a period of some fifty years, Mr. Benham has the record of not missing a circus in Elgin, sometimes in Chicago, for over 50 years. The employers of Mr. Benham always cheerfully give him a leave of absence every circus day, and he is about the first at the yards at dawn of day to see the circus come in and unload; sees the parade, takes his estimable better half to the abow in the afternoon, and in the evening watches the loading of the circus paraphernalia.

Mr. Benham says as he grows older in years his love for the circus instead of diminishing grows keener, and during the parade can hardly keep from following the circus band around the streets just like he did when a boy; in fact he feels just like he did when a boy; in fact he feels just like he did when a boy; in fact he feels just like a boy again. He has seen the circus grow from one-ring wagon show to the big five-drain, three-ring monster show of the present day. Mr. Benham says he believes if others would follow his example who are a little over middle-age and become circus admirers, it would be the means of prolonging their lives. He also says if every business man and mechanic would take a day off occasionally and indulge in a little circus pleasure they would be better off.

Mr. Besham is well preserved for a man of his age and in all probability will see many circuses come and go.

BOGUS AGENT IN FLORIDA.

The following letter from G. A. Knight & Sons, of Dallas, Texas, to Manager H. H. Tammen, of the Sells-Floto Show, is self explanatory:

Dallas, Texas., June 21, 1907.

Mr. H. H. Tammen,
Denver, Col.

Dear Sir:—Replying to your letter of the 19th inst., referring to telegrams exchanged recently, beg to enclose you herewith contract signed by Chas. McDonald, which explains itself.

recently, begt to enclose you herewith contract signed by Chas. McDonald, which explains itself.

The person representing himself as your representative was about 5 ft. 9 in. in height and weighed 180 to 190 pounds. He was very dark and rough featured. He was drinking at the time he was here, and also made contracts with Swope & Mangold and Swift & Co., of this city. He showed no credentials to indicate to us that he was in your employ and that caused our wiring you. On receipt of your wire we advised the detective department and we are in hopes they will be able to locate him.

Had we known that he was in your employ

Had we known that he was in your employ as advance purchasing agent we would have been glad to fill the order and we trust that the next time you come through Dallas that we will be favored with your business.

Yours fruly,

G. A. KNIGHT & SONS.

WANT CIRCUSES TO PARADE.

In Springfield, Mass., the merchants have signed a petition to the amusement committee of the City Council asking that no more licenses be granted to circuses unless a parade is made a part of the day's program.

The merchants claim that the omission of the parade means the loss of hundreds of dollars to them, and instead of bringing money to the city the circuses takes thousands of dollars away. When there is a parade the people living in the surrounding towns come to the city in the morning and spend the day, but without a parade the country people omit the circus altogether or make a hurried trip either in the afternoon or evening.

WANTS RECEIVER FOR CIRCUS.

Clifford M. Tappen was last week appointed by Judge Chatfield, in the United States Dis-trict Court, Brooklyn, N. Y., as receiver, under a bond of $1,000, of the John D'Alma Shows. The action was taken on petition of James E. Armstrong.

"Strange things are happening," remarked Mr. Stubb, as he dropped his paper, "It won't be long before we will be able to see an elephant farm in "Texas," "Sakes silve," gasped Mrs. Stubb over her knitting, "What is the elephant going to farm at—raising peanuts?"—Chicago News. "We will now," said the clownish member of the vaudeville musical team, "do a noc turne." After which he knocked his fellow player down with a slapstick and turned shandspring,—Chicago Record-Herald.

Riverview, which is fast becoming the premier park of the country, bas launched on its sixth week. In fact, the immense attendance continues at the top notch and the park is daily proving to be the biggest proposition in the amusement park line in the world. Every day a new riding or amusement device is thrown open to the public. One of the latest additions is an automobile course which is claimed to be second to none in any park. Records have been broken for speed in the roller rink and that pavillon is filled to its utmost nightly. The throngs of people that visited the park this week were not slow to recognize the cool riding devices. The Train Robbery is scoring as big - hit as it did at Coney Island. Conway and his band carry off with honors the musical end of the program. One of the features of this band is Arthur Hahn, a seleist whose deep bass voice pleases the music loving public.

OVERHEARD IN THE LOBBY OF THE GAR-

RICK.

Jane Peyton of The Three Of Us Company, is mourning the loss of her maid, who was formerly her nurse. Bridget had been with Miss Peyton But the faithful servant was taken very ill during the run of The Three Of Us at the Madison Square Garden, New York City. She had a doctor in daily attendance, until one day Miss Peyton was called to the telephone and told by the physician that Bridget had preemptorially ordered him never to call again. "Why did you tell the doctor you wouldn't see him again? You know you are very iil," said Miss Peyton. "Well Ma'am." answered Bridget, "he says to me, says he, 'that in about a week he hoped to send me to a warmer climate."

A theatrical voting machine is to be installed in the lobby of the Garrick when the season opens next spring. It resembles a penny in the siot machine. Every person in the audience on buying a ticket will receive with it a metal disc, which, at the end of the play or earlier, may be dropped into either of the slots marked "Saccess" or "Fallure." The total number of votes is simultaneously recorded. An illuminated sign in front of the house will indicate to the public the verdict of the audience within.

Henry Kokler of The Three of Us Company, now playing at the Garrick, will have a company of his own next season in a floating theatre on Lake Michigan. The boat will carry a well equipped store, a company of 25 and will seat about 500 or 700 people and a fine orchestra. It is said that it will be fully in accordance with its name—Floating Palace.

BREWSTER'S MILLIONS TO BE TRANS-

BREWSTER'S MILLIONS TO BE TRANS-LATED.

BREWSTER'S MILLIONS TO BE TRANSLATED.

Universally popular and fascinating in its theme and treatment the stage story of George Barr McCutcheon's famous novel, Brewster's Millions, is being given at Chicago's beautiful theatre, the Colonial, with a degree of effectiveness in every sense that makes it one of the most successful productions in the modern history of the American Stage. It is not surprising that it is to be translated into the foreign languages and played in various European countries next season, for the aristocrat and the peasant, the business man and the sallor, the financial potentate and the modest clerk, the society woman and the seamstress, young and old, all turn with curiosity and interest to the story of a young man compelled to spend a million dollars in a year. It would not be so interesting it is not only an immensely funny and wonder-young Monty Brewster, of Chicago, to do all this extraordinary thing without divulging his purpose even to his most intimate friends, and it is noot only an immensely funny and wonderfully amusing performance, but demonstrates at times the fickleness of speculation, where the wise, shrewd and careful experts loose at the game and the man actually trying to get rid of his money finds bilmself on the other side winning great sums. The play is presented in admirable completeness, and the opportunity is afforded of demonstrating the claims of Edward Abeles as a finished and competent comedian of the first rank. Mr. Abeles is supported by a splendid company, with Mary Ryan, George Probert, Cecile Breton, Sumner Gard, Rosalind Cophlan, Jack Devereaux, Grace Arnold and several more. Nothing equals in realistic and genuinely life like detail the yacht seene in the third act, Frederic Thompson's wonderful achievement in the art of stage mechanics, and this interesting character has become world famous for its accuracy and the sensational character for he reproduction of the storm at sea. A number of special events have been arranged for the early part of the engag

BISMARCK GARDEN IN FULL BLAST.

BISMARCK GARDEN IN FULL BLAST.
Chicago's old established and delightful summer garden, Bismarck Garden, delightful and pleturesque, is providing recreation, entertainment and refreshment for great throngs of music lovers and others who enjoy the best of good things at the spotless white tables under the trees, and with the increased capacity this year all previous records for attendance are easily being broken. Professor Carl Bunge, always a great favorite, and his well disciplined band, including several splendid soloists, are giving the regular concerts every evenng and Sunday afternoons, and the new vocal soloist is Miss Elda Dushoff, a soprano singer of rare quality, who took high honors at the leading conservatory in Berlin, and has made an enviable name for herself with several leading opera organizations in this country since her return.

is the celebration of Fourth of July, with a number of elaborate demonstrations and exhibitions, but the great big event of the season is the sham battle and pyrotechnic display by the Second Regiment of Chicago on the grounds immediately adjoining White City on the south. The most abitious attempt of Pain, the celebrated originator of all great things in the pyrotechnic line, this exhibition is called The Fighting Second Regiment in Battle, with everyone of the thousand members of the regiment participating, and in addition will be a $5,000 display of fireworks, including a sensational railroad collision of two engines: a reproduction of Niagra Falls, and many novelties. The Second Regiment Band will play during the performance, and it is announced that all its realism and brilliancy will be given on the nights of both the 3rd and 4th of July, and ample provisions have been made for the free accommodation of several thousand spectators. Among the principal outdoor attractions is Chevalier Gargiulo, the famous Italian musician, and his famous band, in a series of concerts embracing the entire range of high class and ropular music. Among the new performances for the general spectator are Captain Webb's wonderfully trained seals: the Onetti Sisters in a slack wire performance, and several more big acts.

NEARLY A PANIC IN THE CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE.

A panic was narrowly averted last night at the Chicago Opera House when a fuse in a Kinetoscope blew out, sending a tongue of fame out into the darkness that prevails when the picture machine is working. The few persons in the gallery at the time stampeded for the exist and the noise of their feet so aroused those on the other floors that a wild scramble for the doors was feared. The prompt turning our of the lights and the lowering of the steel curtain seemed to caim the fears of the audience and injury thus was averted. The operator of the Kinetoscope was painfully burned.

LATE EXPOSITION NOTES.

HE present week at the Jamestown Exposition and in its immediate vicinity, so far, is one full of excitement and disaster. Atternance keeps at a low ebb and many of the concessioners are becoming disheartened. To-morrow is Baltimore Day, and Friday being South Carolina day-both big special days—it is hoped that attendance will increase to something like world's fair business. The one big redeeming feature of it all lies in the proportion of spenders to the number of admissions. There is no denying the fact that the ratio of spenders to the number of admissions. There is no denying the fact that the ratio of spenders at this exposition is greater than at either Buffalo or St. Louis. The principal item of interest developed so far is the movement set on foot the reduce the present cumbersome directorate of the exposition to a smaller and more mobile force. With this in view, a meeting of the Board of Governors was held last night, whose object was to talk over methods of borrowing an additional $100,000 to push things along and to throw the multiple number of boards into four, the director of each to be in direct touch with the new Director-General, James M. Barr, who is certainly stirring up the drones of the greatest borrowing exposition ever held in the country. It is to be hoped that the new Director of Press and Advertising Exploitation, Mr. Stephen J. Bolles, will be furnished with the proper sinews of war. The work of this remarkable clever world's fair exploiter is already being felt. Just now he is hot on the trail of some Baltimore nincompoop who vows he was taxed in Norfolk the other day eightycents for a single tomato. Now, if it had been a lemon there would have been cause for the kick. These julev tomatos are no ordinary fruit. Early this morning Pine Beach was visited by a terrible conflagration that swept the greater portion of it away. The burned portion is known as the West End. The burnt area comprises four blocks that was built up with many hotels and not a few show places. That section of it fying herself of the satety to the collection by a visit to the scene of the disaster.

The Baltimore people are streaming in tonight from boats and railroads and it looks as if the showmen out at the grounds are to be made happy to-morrow. The Merrimae and Monitor, the leader here, closely followed by Ranch 101, Ferari's Animals and Trixie, are all getting good money. The rumor concerning "the blowing" of Ranch 101 has simmered down to a supposed division of the show, one half going to Brighton Beach, the other half remaining here.

Col. Ferari is in New York, waiting the arrival of a big shipment of animals now on the way from Europe. On their arrival he will divide them up, putting part of them in his Jungle here, and the balance will help fill his big road show, which will take to the steam cars soon. The wagons, vans and carnival fronts have all been regilded and decorated and are now looking like a Ringling Show out-fit.

A. K. Barkcote, well known in carnival fir-fit.

A. K. Barkoote, well known in carnival circles, has gone into the exposition business, having three large restaurants and The Streets graceful act for the Exposition Press Agents' of Seville, the latter being on the Warpath, the rest distributed over the grounds.

Fred B. Sargent, of the Philippine Reservation, struck a happy inspiration when he hit upon bringing over of a real live native Mora prince, the Datto Prince Sansaluma. Sargent looks particularly natty in Manilla white duck and a real English Havelock.

Doc. Flag, the best hustler for a once dead thing, has brought up the Beauty Show to a winner.

There is a rumor to the effect that Billy Layton, the old carnival and fireworks man, has been granted a concession for an exact reproduction of the Darktown Fire Brigade, which has been made familiar through the old-time cartoons of Joe Jump.

Will J. Davis, manager of the Illinois Theatre, of Chicago, and his bride, were visitors here last week, as was also Fred Nixon-Nird-linger, of the Nixon-Zimmerman theatres, of Philadelphia.

L. J. Buckley, "the irresistable Louie," got the Expo. fever, and dropped in on us this week, and was entertained by the Exposition

Association of the Warpath, by devoting the entire edition of his valuable Norfolk Record, the magazine for June, over to the editing of same by that useful body. A symposium of brilliant literature followed that will do much good, as the magazine has a circulation of 100,000 copies. These are being mailed all over the country.

FASCINATING FLORA VISITS FAS-CINATING LUNA.

A score of girls from the Fascinating Flora Company were the guests of Frederic Thompson at Luna Park, Coney Island, Friday afternoon, June 21. The girls left the Casho Theatre at 10 o'clock in an electric rubber-neck coach, under the chaperonage of Ada Donnolly, the Casino wardrobe mistress. In the party were Edith Gervan, May Willard, Edmund Danton, Mae Murray, Clara Whitford, Elsie Davis, Freda Linyard, Ethel Wheeler, Mae Carlisle, Edna Chase, Florence Ravel, Julia Mills, Dorothy Berating passengers, in order to reach the Casino for the evening performance.

Topic and

As they departed, Mae Carlisle threw a slipper at Frederic Thompson for good luck, and Edith Gervan led off the entire chorus with For He's a Jolly Good Fellow, as the machine rolled away.

WHITE CITY BY NIGHT.

White City, Chicago by night is a blaze of gorgeous spectacle and a continuously changing glitter of every multicolored glow contained in a million spectrums.

Millions of candle power of soft glowing light are reflected against the chalky white towers, minarets, cupolas, and the fronts of the majestic marblesque amusement palaces.

So great is the amount of light reflected and counter-reflected in the clear night air and against the sky that from a distance, White City appears to be cradled in a brilliant halo of a thousand milky ways.

At night the beautiful spectacle that greets one's eye far surpasses that of any ever seen on the Midway at Buffailo, the Pike at St. Louis, the Midway at Buffailo, the Pike at St. Louis, the Midway at Chicago's World's Fair and the Trail at the Portland Exposition.

The boardwalk (the half-mile promenade around the music concourse and lagoon, presents a kaleidoscopic review of cosmopolitan and Bohemian life that can be seen nowhere else in the western country. And it is with a sense of keen enjoyment that one who is interested in unusual sights, stands and actually drinks in the pleasant sight and listens to the continual hum of the thousands of voices, the music of the bands, the distant roar of the wild animals of the soo, the noise of the ballyhoos and the toms-toms of the head-hunting and doy-eating Igorrotes. White City by night is a scene no one can afford to miss seeing and it is worth going thousands of miles to gaze upon.

Kiralfy's Pocahontas, at the Horse Show, has made a tremendous hit, and if the crowds only come to Norfolk, will make a fortune.

The Academy remains closed.

The Granby Theatre will close its long season this week with Lincoln J. Carter's Down in Mobile, exploited by the Hon. James D. Barton, of the National Printing and Engraving Co., New York and Chicago.

The Colonial will have one more week of Viett's early Virginia romance of Pocahontas, and then close. It is said it will open again shortly with a musical review.

On their arrival at Coney Island, they were entertained at luncheop at the Scaborn Hotel as the guests of Miss Dorothy Bertrand, whose generosity is said to have been the result of her winnings on Nealoh, the winner of the Suburban Handicap, on Jube 20.

After luncheon the girls marched through the Court of Luna, singing selections from the Casino show.

"We want to see all the good things in the place," said Alice Clifford, and the girls certainly did see all. The Scalator and The Tickler were strong favorites with the fascinating chorus, and Gyp, the elephant, came in for generous patronage. Fifteen girls on an elephant's back is certainly going some, but Gyp carried them gracefully under the guidance of Cynthia Morse, the Luna Park mascot.

Night and Morning was given a special performance for the girls, and Elsie Davis and Edaa Chase had a heated discussion with Senator Dough in the Chamber of Skeletons on the future of the "Show Girl." There were no favorites played in the thirty-one Luna attractions from one o'clock until five, when the rubber-neck departed from Luna with its fascin-

WASHINGTON, D. C.

A week of fine weather has made the attendance extraordinarily large at the pleasure resorts and rehabilitated Luna Park, the best equipped and most accessible of Washington's summer playgrounds, has reaped a rich harvest. Lincoln Beachey and his wonderful airship will be the leading feature for a fortuight, beginning Wednesday, the 3d, and with a big display of fireworks and Pat Conway's Ithaca Band, it would appear that Manager Charles J. Goodfellow has scored a knockout is his bookings for Fourth of July week.

Wilton Lackaye has closed his special engagement with Hilda Spong and the Columbia Stock Company, but Charlotte Walker still remains with Miss Spong as co-star, and last week, in Clyde Fitch's comedy. The Stubbornness of Geraldine, were still attracting good houses. This week they are presenting Moths, and camphor bags are at a premium.

Edwin Arden and his excellent stock at the Belasco are attracting good summer audiences. A much appreciated innovation is the roof garden, where holders of orchestra seats are served with cooling drinks free of charge between the acts. A special orchestra furnishes music on the roof. When the Belasco was built the roof garden was originally designed for theatrical entertainments.

At the National Theatre the Aborn Opera Colast week presented The Chimes of Normandy, and this week opened well in The Fortune Teleter. A special matinee is announced for the Fourth.

The summer burlesque stock company at the Lyceum is in its fourth week. Two performances daily are given, and usually attract big crowds.

The new Gaiety, on the Eastern Wheel, is rapidly nearing completion, and a merry war in the burlesque ranks is the outlook for next season, and this, coupled with the prospective invasion of Klaw & Erlanger's advanced vaudeville, promises a season in which Washington's amusement patrons will be the gainers.

Mayor Garrett and Marshall Collins, of Glen Echo Township, Md., world-famed terrors of automobile scorchers on Condult Road, last Sunday descended with their minions on Glen Echo Park and closed the resort on a charge of Sabbath breaking, using as their weapon one of Maryland's old blue laws. No one was overlooked, from the manager and members of the band, down to the car motormen and soda dispensers. At the hearing much merriment was elicited through the efforts of these amateur Hawkshaws to prove a case against the proprietors and publicity makers of an amusement termed What Is It? and this title is still a conundrum in their rural craniums. Fines ranging from $2 down were imposed on many, and with the admonition, "Go and sin no more," all were allowed to depart the clutches of grim law.

J. B. Hoellman, formerly manager of Tumbling Run Park, Pottsville, Pa., is the popular manager of the financial department of Luna Park, and it is a common sight to see him conducting parties of his friends en route to Jamestown through its beautiful confines.

Washington and for miles around is heavily billed for Beachey and his airship, together with Weaver's American Regimental Band, both of which attractions are leading features at Luna Park. James W. Gamble, who is responsible for this splendid showing, is to be strongly commended for his industry.

A big baby contest, a feature arranged by Manager Goodfellow, proved a tremendous big success last Saturday afternoon at Luna Park's dance pavilion. This was a new idea in Washington, and with over a hundred babies entered, and the attention secured in the papers by Press Agent William D. Hall, the occasion was one to be long remembered.

The professional ranks are well represented at Luna Park, and include Charles J. Goodfellow, Fergus McCusker, William D. Hall and S. H. Macfarlane, all Philadelphians, and George S. Leonard, C. H. Dikeman, Clarence Harris, P. P. Craft, Fred May, Clarence Hutchinson, James W. Gamble, Charles Porter, J. W. Lyons, Chris. B. Carlisle, most of whom are operating well paying concessions at this place.

Athletic Park, Kokomo, Ind., is one of the few parks in the middle west that has met with success this season despite the unfavorable weather conditions. The park, which is operated by the Kokomo Amusement Park Co., has been drawing large crowds for all attractions. The DePew-Burdette Stock Company has just closed one month's engagement in the new summer theatre, said to be the biggest and best in Indiana, and the balance of the summer is now being booked by General Manager Henry K. Burton. The musical feature of the season thus far was Weber's Prize Band of America, which broke all records at the park on June 20. All the parks on the Ohio and Inter-

All the parks on the Ohio and Inter-urban Line, including the following: Mounds Park, Greenfield, Ind.; Buckeye Lake Park and idlewild, Springfield, O., and Lindenwald Park, Hamilton, O., are doing extremely good busi-ness. Bryant's Minstrels, under the sole ownership of G. Wellington Englebreth re-open their season at Cincinnati, O., July 8 for a run of five weeks. Some of the foremost minstrels are still under the personal call of Manager Englebreth. The scenery and first part hangings are truly grand and the costumes are of first reach.

Hafer and Love, managers of Fern Lake Park at Fort Scott, Kan., have completed arrangements for the largest Fourth of July celebration in the history of the town. Danc-ing, speaking and a gorgeous display of fire-works at night, beades a long list of attrac-tions will entertain the visitors.

Aeronautics at Jamestown.

HE first airship flight made at the exposition was by Lincoln Beachy. He succeeded in making four very successful trips landing back inside of the aeronautic concourse each guide his ship with ease, sail against a moderate breeze and in other ways show that he has a "real ship" in every sense of the word. One of the secrets of his success is the lightness of the material used in construction; his ship is the smallest ever built—the net used to fasten the car to the balloon weighing only a little over three pounds. This may not seem to be out of the ordinary unless you are aware of the fact that the net in common use weighs from 00 to 150 pounds.

Beachy is a mechanic from start to finish and everything connected with his outfit shows why he is so successful. He was here week of 20th and then left to fill engagements elsewhere.

and everything connected with his outfit shows why he is so successful. He was here weeks of 20th and then left to fill engagements elsewhere.

Notwithstanding the fact that a ship was never seen here before and that flights were made that show positively that aerial navigation is in a high state of perfection as far as control, sailing against a wind and returning to starting point is concerned, the press here so far failed to publish the news of the attraction that only ten per cent. of the people knew a ship had sailed at all.

Now we have M. Godet, from Parls, with his French Military dirigible and by the Pourth he expects to have shown something of the progressmade in France in this line. I happen to know Mr. Godet well and when he told me that he was here to break the world's long distance record, I know he means it. This record is held by a ship built by myself two years ago and judging by the clear cut lines of his ship I think I will have to get busy. He certainly has the ship and I have already admitted defeat. Mr. Godet has made this subject a life study and without saying it right out loud, I happen to know that the French Government owes him much that he gets no public creditor. I knew him in Parls some years ago and at that time he was consulting expert on thingsarousutic to the Government. Instrumouts insed on Government work here were made its France and several were designed by him. He will be here as the chief attraction for some time and later says he may be induced to make flights at parks and fairs.

Among the photographs displayed at the aerodrome, I find those of myself and wife also several of different ships I have built or perfected.

The Captive, at the aeronautic concourse, built by Chas. K. Hamilton, is a winner. It is an exceptionally good balloon and a new patent car, side entrance. The cable is a twisted to a this car and care to the care and care

The Captive, at the aeronautic concourse, built by Chas. K. Hamilton, is a winner. It is an exceptionally good balloon and a new patent car, side entrance. The cable is a twisted steel wire one and about 1,000 feet long. The view is great at this height and I wouldn't be a bit surprised if I found myself sending. Ohl Billy Boy" a real bird's eye view of the big show for publication.

Capt. Lovelace, who is prominently connected with the aeronautic concourse, will take views in a day or two for this purpose. The Captive at Pine Beach is getting money on Sundays, that being the day when the concessionairs there get their best chance at exposition visitors and excursionists—although their balloon is not quite as well built, as easy to get in and out of, and has the old style hemp cable, still it is quite good enough and is doing good business.

The new feature here in aeronautics is the

it is quite good enough and is doing good business.

The new feature here in aeronautics is the Endlow Aeroplane; it is not quite complete but will be in a few days and then amusement managers will hear of the new one. This is no pipe dream. Nearly every one who reads has heard of Israel Ludlow and his man-carrying aeroplane (or kite) and is on the order of what we airship men all know the ship of the future will be. Mr. Ludlow is chief of the aeronautic concourse and aerodrome and has made the problem of mechanical flight applied to "heavier than air machines" a study for some years. I have great faith in his new machine—which is not exactly new, but an evolution on his previous experiments.

DILGER.

Biff and Bang, acrobats, opened at the Tivoli Theatre, Missoula, Mont., June 24 for a four weeks' engagement and their act is the headliner. That they sustained their repu-ation as the greatest of all knockabout come-dians was attested by the fact that they were forced to return to the stage and bow acknowl-edgements after having retired to their dress-ing-rooms.

"Laughing Mirror" Show GREATER NEW YORK RESORTS AND PARK NOTES AND COMMEN

By GUS H. FISHBACH.

The extremely late but welcome arrival of the real summer weather is conspicuously noticed at the various resorts and parks, especially at North Beach, Canarsie and South Beach, and all are reporting "business good." e arrival of the cuously noticed

NORTH BEACH-STELLA PARK

NORTH BEACH—STELLA PARK

The new Stella Park at North Beach is daily gaining in popularity and drawing big crowds. Manager L. A. Munger is well satisfied with the general run of things at the park, this, it's initial, season.

The leading feature, Claude L. Hagen's fire show, The Fireman's Christmas Ere, has been completed and is drawing to capacity. A. G. Kelly, former manager of The Girl Patsy Company, is manager for Mr. Hagen at Stella Park, and will act in that capacity until September, when he will manage The Pawnbrokers for Mittenthal Brothers. The fire show has a cast of forty people, and the story as well as the production are excellent.

The Far East is now under the park management, and The Seven Whirlwinds head a bill of good variety. The Great La Blanche, in her fire and serpentine dance, is the leading feature of the Radium Theatre, and, being an act of exceptionable merit, fills the house at every performance. This act will in all probability remain permanently at the Radium Theatre.

The Koninofsky Troupe of five Russian dancers ability remain permanents atre.

The Koninofsky Troupe of five Russian dancers are the headliners at the Theatro Russe, which is rapidly gaining popularity among the park patrons. Their dancing is clever.

The Knights of Arabia presented The Flying Lady illusion this week and the act made a lity.

GALA PARK

During the winter months Russell B. Schaller, secretary of the North Beach Amusement Co., and W. S. Wright, general manager of Gala Park, promoted and directed many innovations on the beach and directed many innovations on the beach and within the park.

Chief Engineer Bechol, commanding a corps of electricians, installed many additional lights, which gives the entire length of the beach front and park a most brilliant appearance.

Under the personal supervision of General Manager W. S. Wright, who has acted in the same capacity for the past ten years, land-scape artist Henry Klasset has produced for the lovers of natural art a thing of beauty and a joy for the current season in the form of green-swards and hedges, potted plants and many artistis floral designs.

Scenic Artist Bill Vaden and his staff of painters have decorated the park in a manner that is pleasing to the eye and admired by those who frequent the resort.

Master Mechanic Hetzel has made many additions and improvements to buildings chutes and boats, making everything inviting and comfortable.

Captain Charles Wagner has shipped a crew of seasoned chute sailors, thus assuring the shooters sensational amusement with safety. Orchestrion Director Otto Lents has been furnished with a choice selection of musical gems that embrace rag-time, sentimental and classical numbers.

All the old attractions remain: Chutes, Zip-Zeo, Happyland, National, Ball Game, Stock Farm of High-Breds, Duck Ponds and several new attractions not yet completed.

Special Feature Acts.

Special Feature Acts.

Young Ajax, Slide for Life. Supended by the teeth, he slides a distance of 600 feet on a slack wire, from the top of the Chute tower to the lower end of the lake, dropping off into the water below. Young Ajax, who is better known as Mr. P. Jorgensen, champlon Greco-Roman wrestler of Mexico, issues a challenge through his personal agent and manager, W. S. Wright, to wrestle at 190 pounds Greco-Roman any man in the world.

man any man in the world.

Dare-Devil Hurley shooting the chutes on a blcycle, forwards and backwards. On reaching the bottom of the chute slide, Hurley, who is a mere boy, mounts an incline at an angle of 45 degrees, which forces him to leave his wheel in mid-air, making a flying dive through twenty-five feet of space into three feet of water.

Young Ajax and Dare-Devil Hurley are trying out a new and novel combination act that has already sent them on one occasion to the hospital for repairs.

Hurley, mounted on a bleycle with concave tires, which fit over the slack wire cable, carries Young Ajax suspended by the teeth from a pendant attached to the bicycle. Leaving the top of the chute tower they rush at mile a minute speed down the wire incline. At a given signel Ajax drops into the lake. On being released from the weight of the human pendulum Hurley shoots forth like a ball from a cannon only to topple over into the water below.

Pretty Miss Stella Armstrong, the well-known soubrette, who was with H. C. Miner's Burlesquers last season, has charge of the gate tickets. Miss Armstrong has also been with A. G. Davis' Stock Company, of Philadelphis, Pa., and will return to the boards at the close of Stella Park. Mr. Paul Baxter is at the gate and is bound to gain in popularity.

C. C. Call is assistant manager of Stella Park and can be found everywhere. The park management could not have chosen a better man for this position. He knows his duties and is capable of performing them.

The Stella Park Mnusement Co. is contemplating many changes for next season. Manager funger has placed this clever sign directly over the main entrance: "Notice!—Stella Park is not as yet completed, and never will be, as the management will improve it annually."

Max Stark has the Palm Garden and J. E. Madden the Electric Theatre.

The Haunted House and the Garden of Mystery is operated by J. Whitfield.

Rosenberg & Parsons have the Skating Rink and Joe Eppstein The Beautiful Orlent.

J. G. Murphy has the Carousel. It carried 7,000 on Sunday last.

Victor D. Levitt has the Foolish House and D. B. Cascambas the Penny Arcade.

Hergenhand Bros. have the Candy and Wm. Parker, Jr., Ice Cream Cones.

The Park operates the Scenic Railway, Miniature Railway, Grand Ball Room, German Village and Novelty Stands.

Brady's Military Band plays the promenade and free circus music, and Rudolph's Band plays for the dancing. The Royal Hungarian Band is also at Happyland. All bands are good.

The vaudeville in the German Village is changed weekly. This week's bill is headed by the Epps-Loretta Troupe of sixteen dancers, and the R. Le Berti Troupe of Russian singers and dancers. The bill is excellent and refects credit on Thos. Brady, who does the booking.

The free circus in the Hippodrome this week is exceptionally good. The headliners are: Fisher and Berg, is a swell bicycle act; The Zarnes, The Picchiani Troupe and Wahlund and Tekla Trio. Rich & Plunkett do the booking.

Tekla Trio. Bitch & Plunkett do the booking.

J. Ferari's Trained Animal Show is also among the park's leading features. The show has a fine front and a swell Gaviolo organ. Mr. J. Ferari was busy breaking a group of five hyens, which he will put on in a new act within a few weeks. The menagerie contains some fine stock and the program is excellent, consisting of T. Cardona with a group of Teddy bears. Romeo Sebastian with trained ponies, Mme. Zanoni with a combination group of leopards, pumas, bears, lions and boar hounds; Winona, Snake enchantress, Mme. Thelma gives some elegant poses with four beautiful lions, terminating with a spectacular dance in cage. The electrical effects used are good.

Happyland's leading attraction for the week is Lincoln Beachey in his sirship. Mr.

Beachey's airship is one of the few that act-usily dy. The attraction is good and the best drawing card Happyland ever had. Mr. Beachey makes two ascensions daily and visitors pack the park at each performance.

CANARSIE

Galden City is the name of the new park, under the management of Messrs. Traver & Uzzell, at Canarsle, and seems a very profitable investment, as great crowds flock to the park daily and business is excellent.

The Press Department is in the hands of Mr. Geo. Wotherspoon. Mr. Lloyd Jeffries is assistant manager and excursion manager, and a man more capable of filling these duties certainly could not be found.

The shows owned by the park are: Robinson Crusoe, managed by F. Sibley; The Traver Circle Swing, managed by Albert Malvin. Horace Gould is manager of the beautiful roller conster and Cyrus B. Gale is manager of the skating rink, which is built on a pier overlooking Jamaica Bay. The miniature railway is also owned by the park company, and the excursion launch, Golden Hour, is doing a land-office business whenever the weather is favorable.

Helen May Butler was a caller at the Cincinnati offices of The Billboard Saturday, June 29. Miss Butler was paying her first visit to the Queen City, this being one of the very few cities, large and small, in all the United States that her band has not played. It seems a strange coincidence that the composer of the greatest success Miss Butler's Band has ever had, is a native of Cincinnati. He is Henry Kloh and he wrote The Billboard March.

HE carnival companies, like the circuses, make for the same territory at the same time. Phil Ellsworth says the earnival managers think there is only one piece of pie, and all of them make for it like school boys for the base in a game of tag. Just now three of the biggest carnival companies in the country are in the vicinity of Buffalo. The Robinson Amusement Company made Warren, Pa., last week, under the auspices of the Eagles, while the Hatch show is there this week, under the auspices of the Merchants' Association. The Parker Carnival Company, managed by Con Kennedy, is at Eric, Pa., this week.

Business has been only fair with these shows. The fact is, none of the carnivals have had a wonderful business this season. The weather has been against them up to date, but the managers think business will become normal after July 4.

W. C. Gaskill's trained wild animal show is the big feature with the Robinson Amusement Company and has had big business everywhere in spite of weather conditions. Howard H. Hogan is the orator with the show, and his convincing talks are largely responsible for the interest being taken in this attraction. Millie Florine does a dance in the lion's den, Mons. Lorenso works the big act, and Master Frances has the troupe of trained goats.

Lorento works the big act, and Master Frances has the troupe of trained goats.

It is said George W. Rollins will bring his trained wild animals from Luna Park in Pittsburg to the Hatch Show, which feels the need of a feature of this kind. The Parker company mentioned above also has a trained wild beast feature.

Howard Hogan bills "Wallace," the untamable lion, very strong by means of sidewalk ads, and is regretting a hard night's work in Warren, Pa. He decorated all the sidewalks with signs such as "See Wallace," 'See the Big Show," etc., and the people took the work to be for the Wallace-Hagenbeck Circus, which played there Monday, July 1, and C. A. Berger, dramatic critic of The Times even came out and gave the circus billers credit for "enterprise."

The Sunflower Bells, an extravaganza, is widely praised by people who have seen the Parker show. A score of pretty girls are introduced who would do credit to an Anna Held show.

widely praised by people who have seen the Parker abow. A score of pretty girls are introduced who would do credit to an Anna Held show.

Harry Bryan is general agent of the Dan Robinson Amusement Company and is doing some splendid work. The only thing anybody can say against him is that he comes from Ashland, ky.

Nat Reiss, who took more money than any other carnival man up to his temporary retirement last season, is in the carnival business again, out West, and letters from people connected with the show say that his tireless energy just forces big attendance of people with money to spend.

Sam Ash, one of the promoters with the Robinson Show, says that Frank Hatch has offered him $15 a week to make a change. This is mentioned to give an idea of the big salaries being paid to capable men.

Eight members of the Parker Amusement Company were injured at Sharon, Pa., June 23, while the train of twenty-two cars was being switched. The injuries were not particularly serious.

Manager Works, of the Robinson merry-goround and one of the minstrel maids figured in a pretty romance of ten days' duration which ended in a marriage at Dunkirk, N. Y., recently. The couple were united by Adele Rafter's father, which lent additional interest to professionals.

The Will H. Weider Carnival Company got a fair week at Sistersville, W. Va., June 24-29.

Al Whitney's Buckskin Ben Show is playing the smaller towns through Oslo and is reported to be getting some money.

Confetti men say that some towns are good, others bad, but offer no explanation. They coin money one week and starve to death the next two.

"Doc" Barry, recognized as the ablest orator in the show business, is now exhibiting a petrified giant through Ohio and his talks are being favorably commented upon everywhere. "Deacon" Delmore is pretty bandy with a line of talk. Walter Shannon takes a back seat for no one when it comes to heart-to-heart conversation. Phil Elisworth is a rival of William J. Bryan, and if he shaved his mustache the resemblance would be remarkable. There are many others who deserve mention in this connection.

The Elks of Dunkirk, N. Y., have the Parker Carnival there this week. Ed Talbott landed this, and the inquiry on every lip is: "How did he do it?"

The Eagles are having carnivals all over the country. Half of the contracts are with the logges of this order.

lodges of this order.

"A carnival must be clean to succeed," said a well-known manager, "and mirth, mystery and sensation should be the prevailing features." This manager insists that graft does not pay in the long run, but there are others who say he has it figured out wrong and have the money to prove it.

RINK NOTES.

Prof. L. W. Wastell and Miss Louise White played at the Highland Park Rink, Jackson, Tenn., last Monday and Tuesday and their performance was entirely satisfactory and very highly appreciated by the large audiences present. Manager H. P. Browne has closed the rink for the summer, but will re-open in the fall.

Lake Como Rink, Birmingham, Ala are offering base ball games on roller sk as an attraction and capacity business is rule.

In Cincinnati this week was opened a new moving picture headquarters, known as the Nolan Film Exchange. It is under the manage ment of T. A. Nolan, well known to the moving picture realm by reason of inventing a project ing machine on which a patent has been applied for. The offices at No. 11 Fountain Square have been fitted out nicely and present a cognumerance.

At St. John, N. B., there are two moving picture houses operating side by side on one of the busiest thoroughfares in the city. They are the Biograph, Edward Auger, manager. These people are operating 19 similar resorts throughout Canada, and expect to shortly add seven or eight more. The other house is the Unique, the Bennett Amusement Co., proprietors, and Mr. Melody, manager. The latter's admission prices are 5 cents and 10 cents, while the former charges an inkel. A rushing business is done at both places.

Jones, the popular manager, is making a specialty of high class musical features and has engaged Mr. Harry McKenna, baritonist, to sing illustrated songs, and Miss Flo. Nichol, planist, and Gus O'Brien, operator.

The Electric Theatre at Fairmount, W. Va., has undergone quite extensive improvements, having been enlarged to about twice its original capacity. The capacity now is about three hundred. W. J. Aldinger is now booking vaudeville for the bouse and only first-class acts go for him.

The Royal Film Exchange, a new meern located at 261 LaSalle street, Chicago, L. is now in the field with a complete line the latest films out.

The first moving picture show for Gastonia, N. C., was opened June 13 and has been enjoying capacity business. They change twice a week.

The above Rheostat is the result of a series of careful experiments and tests aimed to produce an apparatus to meet every requirement of Municipal Authorities and Motion Picture Exhibitors. The resistance is built up with individual coils of "Climar" wire, and any single coil may be replaced without disturbing any other coil, by simply loosening four set screws. A heavy, perforated sheet steel casing thoroughly protects and ventilates the coils. Terminals and adjustable switch are mounted on a non-conducting slate base protected by a sheet steel automatic closing cover. Asbestos covered copper wires connect the various coils with which contacts, and all connections are solderless. A convenient handle facilitates handling, especially when Rheostat is hot. All parts are made with, jigs and templets, insuring interchangeability.

The above Rheostat is adapted for all models of Edison Projecting Kinetoscopes, and for either 110-125 volts direct current or 104-110 volts alternating current, and 25 to 30 amperes without excessive heating.

The above features, combined with the best materials and workmanship, superior design and construction, have produced a PERFECT RHEOSTAT.

Union Workers Spoil the Food. FRENCH CAUMONT.

Contemporaneous Comedy, Length, 527 ft.

(Vive le Sabotage.)

The Unionist in France dearly loves the doctrine that he has the right to spoil his own work when his employer is under the ban, and while the workman has not quit his job; the baker's man spoils the bread—the barber cuts his customer—the hatter smashes the customer's hat, and the downtrodden laborer indulges in other galeties which finally drive an innocent oid couple to suicide by means of a charcoal fire. But Fate decreed that even the charcoal worker had spoiled the charcoal, which gave off no gas, and the couple was saved.

Soldier's

FRENCH CAUMONT.

NEW COMEDY. Length, 577 ft.

Shows how a bit of deviltry can force an onest soldier to go to bed with his shake a his head, and yet sober; also how the unning dector, by a masterly stroke of coins, separates the soldier from the helect.

Scratch My Back.

ENGLISH GAUMONT.

Excellent Comedy, Length, 317 ft.

Shows what an angel child can do—when the angel child is a boy of the period, who knows what itch pollen will do to a man when dropped down his back. The victim backs into innumerable difficulties while looking for relief, but reaches the limit and arrest when he scratches himself against a policeman.

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBI-TION.

TION.

The Canadian National Exhibition of 1907, at Toronto, will be a revelation to its patrons. Never content to let well enough alone, the Board of Directors, thanks to a great fire last winter, has gone in a single season years beyond its plans, and is expending more money for betterments this year than the capital stock of many of the international expositions held in the United States following the Chicago World's Fair. As an annual event, there is nothing on this continent in the same class with Toronto's colossal enterprise, and President George and that able executive officer, Manager J. O. Orr, with the enthusiastic co-operation of the board, are making history for their beautiful city in this year of Grace, 1907. Nearly three decades ago, a great main building was erected to house the Toronto Industrial Exhibition, and has been used annually since as one of the exhibit halls, scores of other structures having been added from time to time. At last this great building has been wrecked, and on its site a beautiful building, or group of buildings so connected as to be practically one, now rears its stately front. The new Horticultural Building it is called. It is designed in the Pree Classic style, with an imposing showing of Ionic columns along the main front. Back of the front hall are three others, all connected and surmounted by a great dome of glass, more than one hundred feet high. There are 45,000 square feet of exhibition space, and not a dark spot in the building. Built of stone, brick and steel, it is an important contribution to the general grouping. The cost is $85,000, real money, exclusive of architect's fees.

Another new building, remarkably handsome in its design, and of the same permanent construction as the Horticultural Building, is the Canadian Railways' Exhibits Building, the joint contribution of the Canadian Pacific, Chicago & Grand Trunk, and Canadian Northerroads, where each will vie with the other in displaying the material resources of the wonderful territory traversed by these great roads. The title to the building now rests with the city, as do the titles to all the other structures on the grounds.

roads, where each will vie with the other in displaying the material resources of the wonderful territory traversed by these great roads. The title to the building now rests with the city, as do the titles to all the other structures on the grounds.

But the greatest single improvement for this year is the Grand Stand. It will be worth a trip to Toronto just to see this Grand Stand. It is 725 feet long, 110 feet in depth and 65 feet high. Fifteen thousand people can be seated in individual chairs, and 500 more in the boxes. The arrangements for the handling of the crowd are entirely adequate. It is built of brick, steel and re-enforced concrete. Woodwork is conspicious by its absence, though in order to have it ready for this year's exhibition it has been necessary to depart from the original plans and install a wooden roof, which later will give way to one built of concrete. Beneath this impressive structure, the immense space will be used to display wheeled vehicles of all kinds. I have seen the grand stands at nearly all the ball parks and race tracks of the country, but nothing finer than Toronto's new acquisition is to be seen.

Manager Orr was in genial mood when I called to pay my respects. He had just concluded alotting space in one of the biggest buildings, and there is nothing better calculated to produce ease of mind in an exposition executive than to finish this task and find that there are yet on hand applications enough to fill another building just as large. It shows that the enterprise is appreciated. I asked Dr. Orr what would be the overshadowing feature of the exhibition this year. "Easily the exhibits They will be beyond anything we have ever had before. Exhibitors like to show their products here. In the first place, aside from the advertising benefits, they book large orders, so that both in direct and indirect results it pays them handsomely to participate. Then again, every exhibitor gets a square deal. A director of the exhibition stands no better chance of obtaining a preferred locatio

DR. ORR, SHOWMAN.

Dr. Orr throughly understands what I may call the psychology of show business, and when I asked him what he would show in front of that great grand stand, be fairly beamed. "The best show you ever saw," he answered, and then went into particulars.
"We are bringing over as the stellar musical attraction the Coldstream Guards Band, from the King's household. Our spectacle will be in several parts, beginning with great outside acts. We have engaged the Cottrell-Power equestrian act. Adgie's Lions, the Four Melbournes, Demonello, the Human Skyrocket, Eph Thomson's Elephants, the Great Chick, the Lorrie Troupe, the Abolette's, the Max Smith Duo, Rice Brothers, Etta Victoria, Zingarelia and the Gaudier Pantomime Troupe. Is that variety and contrast enough for you? You see with a grand stand 725 feet long we have to run a vort of three-ring circus with a stage between so that everybody can see a good show, even if they can't take it all in at once. And the acts that they can't see are so good that there is a fine chance to get them to come back again. "The Military Tattoo follows and will be participated in by eight bands. Each band in turn will march into position, playing its regimental air. As the second band takes position, the first will join it in playing, and when seven bands are in position, the Coldstream Guards Band will march on playing its own air, and as it wheels into position all the other seven bands will join in. Then will follow a well selected program of musical numbers, played by the massed bands, 240 men, under the direction of the leader of the Coldstream Guards Band.

"A shot is then heard, the bands all retreat to the rear, and then will follow a reproduction of the Battle of Badajos, one of the big fights of the Peninsular War, participated in by 600 soldiers. As usual we will close with a fine display of fireworks."

IMPROVEMENTS ON THE MIDWAY.

The Midway has been the weakest link inte strong chain forged by the exhibition builders of Toronto. In the language of the poet it has been rotten. Last year there was a marked improvement. This year, stimulated by the success of Mills' Roller Boller Coaster, a fine merry-go-round, shooting the chutes (a facsimile of the one at Dreamland. Coney Island), a $22,000 Electric Scenic Railway, a tine circle swing, a Ferris wheel 125 feet high, a Bump the Bumps and a mechanically operated Sea Wave, are among the permanent features, built on contracts running for a term of years. There will be as many shows as the space will admit, besides the usual cane racks and the thitypist, who pictures you in a "reel automobile." And you can bet your last dolar that, having in mind the positive hankering of the bucolic visitors for freaks, Dr. Orr, who is undoubtedly an universal provider in the line of amusement, will have a choice collection of freaks.

"Your roads were not at all what they should." IMPROVEMENTS ON THE MIDWAY.

of amusement, will have a choice collection of freaks.

"Your roads were not at all what they should have been last year, Dr. Orr," I ventured.

"Quite true, but this year there will be a notable improvement. The comfort of our patrons always receives a lot of consideration by the board, and now our roadways are to be parked. We have averaged an annual increase of ten per cent. in our attendance for five years, and the crowds have grown so great that the board-walks and cement sidewalks are not sufficient. Our broad roadways will have to be made as good as sidewalks."

EXHIBITION PAYS ITS WAY.

"Does your exhibition receive appropriations from the Provincial or Dominion Governments?"
"Not a dollar." said Manager Orr. "Once upon a time we got an appropriation of $50,000 but we had to give it away in premiums. Now we do not seek appropriations. The City of Toronto finances the exhibition, and the exhibition pays it back every dollar and a profit besides."

oltion pays it back every donar and a sides."
The Toronto Exhibition is a great object less, and a study of it and the conspicuously le management which makes it great could pursued with profit by the "representative itsens" of the ambitious towns in the United ates which project World's Fairs and Intertional Expositions on a "shoe string," and ace in charge of important departments men narrow view with about enough ability to anipulate a cash register in a cheap resurant.

The Hypnotist's Revenge!

A Psychological Farce-Comedy in Biograph Pictures.

LENGTH 1,030 FEET.

An exponent of the mysterious art of hypnotism, while giving an entertainment in a public hall, is challenged by one of his auditors, who would brand him a fraud. To prove his ability, he hypnotizes the incredulous gentleman, who takes his conviction with such an ugly grace that the professor swears to get even, and so follows him for some time, putting him through all sorts of antics and in most embarrassing positions. This is truly a screamer.

By ETHEL POWERS.

AVE you signed yet?" asked the ingenue of the comedian whom she met in front of a Broadway restaurant.

"I'm rehearsing with a melodrama called Killed But Not Dead or How Jack Rawlston was Brought back to Life," sighed Mr. Caraway.

"Is the part good?"

"Well, I play a detective, make ten complete changes wearing seven different shades of whiskers and every known stage disguise from a linen duster to an ear muff. I save the herolne's life five times by opportunely appearing on the scene from behind clocks, planos, sideboards, curtains and from under the safe. I am the middle man in the human chain that swings the hero scross the yawning chasm. That act has stretched my arms and legs until my clothes don't fit me and my stomach has parted company with my chest. I arrest every one in the play and finally do a double and arrest myself. Oh, yes, the part is a good one, like—Muriel if you weren't a lady I'd use a curse word."

"Go as far as you liks, Mr. Caraway, don't mind me."

curse word."

"Go as far as you liks, Mr. Caraway, don't mind me."

No, but it makes me wild when I think to what depths our drama is being degraded. Ye Gods, why will men write such plays?" moaned the comedian.

"Because certain patrons of the public demand them now-a-day. The successful playwright does not try to educate people, he simply expresses life or characters as he finds it or as he sees it," ventured the ingenue.

"If such is the case the authors of these plays belong to another age," replied the comedian.

"Well, you should take this into consideration," commented the ingenue. "We are working for money because we can't live on fame alone. The popular melodrama is successful. Now why are you kicking, the salary is sure."

"And so is death for that matter," rejoined the comedian. "Why shouldn't I deplore the decadence of the drama. I, a legitimate who have been brought up as it were on Shake-speare."

"Make the best of it. You are lucky to have have been brought up as it were on Shake speare."

"Make the best of it. You are lucky to have an engagement. I haven't. But tell me, who is directing your show?"

The author bimself. He is very much of a gentleman but knows very little about acting; and that reminds me: he called me down the other day. It was funny. He said: 'My dear Mr. Caraway, this is not a society drama nor are you playing to Broadway audiences. You are playing entirely to a lot of low browed, ignorant people, so you must land it to them. No confidential drawing-room conversation, but shout your lines; the louder the better.'"

"'My dear sir,' I replied, 'I am only a defenseless comedian. I am not a human megaphone.'" renseless comedian. I am not a human megaphone."

"Well,' he remarked, 'your audiences won't know the difference, so don't be particular.'

"Oh, and another thing, he didn't like my reading of these lines: 'Bill Turbet, your time has come and I am going to kill you.' He said, 'You must read it thusly;' and he commenced swinging his arms around like a wind mill, yelling and twitching his face into all manner of impossible expressions.

"'Well, really sir,' I ventured, when he finished, 'you don't want an actor but a chimpanzee for this part.'

"There, there, Mr. Ceraway,' he said to me gently, 'you are tired and worn out. Suppose you take a little walk down to the second-hand store and get a sword for your fight in the third act. The rest will do you good.'"

"Where did you go to get it?" asked the ingenne.

"Down to Rowberstayers," continued the co-third act. The rest will do you good."

"Where did you go to get it?" asked the ingenue.
"Down to Rowberstayers." continued the comedian. "'Madam," said I to the woman in charge, 'have you a second-hand aword?
"'Papa, papa,' she exclaimed, 'come here quick. These man; he want a svord.
"'Not a svord, madam, but a sword; a weapon men use to fight with,' I corrected.
"'Ya I know,' said the old man. 'I got him in a box.' With that he mounted a stepladder and rummaged through piles and piles of bundles and papers. I became impatient and the old lady said: 'Papa, papa, you sure you know we have a svard.
"'Not a svard, madam,' I corrected again, 'but a sword, a weapon men use to kill each other with.'
"'Ah you want to kill a man ain't it?' cried the old gentleman, jumping off the stepladder, 'then I sell you a fine revolver var't a quicker.

other with."

"Ah you want to kill a man sin't it?' cried the old gentleman, jumping off the stepladder, 'then I sell you a fine revolver vat is quicker yet already."

"Well, did you get the sword?" asked the ingenue, laughing.

"Not yet, but I expect it soon."

"Well, so long, little girl, and the best of luck," continued the comedian, touching his hat. "If I hear of anything in your line I'll let you know."

The season at the Academy, Saginaw, Mich., closed last week with the Earl Burgess Stock Company as the attraction to good business. It was Mr. Porter's first season in Saginaw as manager and he made a wide circle of friends and has proven to be one of the most popular managers ever connected with the above house. Next season he will manage both the Academy and Jefferson Theatres.

Wasson's Theatre, Joplin, Mo., is one of the coolest theatres in the country. The roof has a sprinkling device by which it is thoroughly cooled and the theatre has enjoyed prosperous business since the opening on May 26.

The Dream, Macon, Mo., has opened

The Dream, Macon, Mo., has opened under the able management of H. E. Logan. He has spared no pains and expense in building a summer garden for the first-class, and good vandeville and moving pictures will be featured each week.

The Crystal Theatre, Logansport, Ind., is the only house in that city playing vaudeville. Business has been good.

Frank Holliday, last season with Beach and Bowers Minstrels, is now working at the Bijou Theatre, Grand Forks, N. D.

DRAMATIC.

B. H. Mills, general agent of C. G. Phillips' Big Uncle Tom's Cabin Company reports good business throughout Ohlo, though they have closely followed several circuses in the larger towns. Indications are that with the advent of warm, dry weather this season will prove a record breaker.

Silent Mora is still with the Graham Stock Co., as the feature of the show presenting six feature specialties. After a short season in vaudeville beginning at Pastor's, New York City, Aug. 5, he will return to the same company for the winter acting in the capacity of treasurer.

of treasurer.

Marie Sterling has placed the agency of all her plays with the Edward R. Salter Amusement Company. This includes, Only A Shop Girl, On the Swance River and her new play, In Southern Tennessee, which was produced the past week by a stock company in Bridgeport, Conn. It was a big success.

Gordon Eldrid, who has been play-ing the leading comedy with The Eye Witness Company has been re-engaged to play the com-edy with Lincoln J. Carter's new production, The End of the Trail.

Sheldon's Comedians will close a forty-three weeks' run at Hagerstown, Md., July 28, after which they will open in the south for a run over the J. W. Heisman Circuit.

At Ionia, Mich., June 12, the Austin and Cole Dramatic Co., presented their manager, Al. A. Jack with a fine seal skin suit-case and a toilet set as a token of their appreciation of his generosity.

The Malcolm Williams Stock Com-pany closed their season at Worcester, Mass., June 29, after several successful runs in that city.

Laurence Gordon, leading man for Miss Frances Swartz in her playlet. The End, is taking a two weeks' vacation after a sea-son of hard work. Miss Swartz will open the first of July for the summer season.

ALBERT LEA MEET NEXT MONTH.

Plans are being rapidly perfected for the summer meeting of the Albert Lea (Minn.) Driving Club, and the dates are July 16.18. The entries closed July 3, and indications are that there will be a very large field of horses, as the Grand Circuit races are open then and the fast ones will be there, while the slower ones will come to Albert Lea and get the money. The Albert Lea Derby is the only running race and it is expected to draw a large crowd of the gallopers.

BOOSTS FOR BILLY BOY.

W. V. RATHBONE.

The profession in general will be interested to know that W. V. Rathbone, whose likeness appears above, has again taken charge of the Harrisburg, Ill., Opera House, and is now booking some of the best companies on the road for next season. Mr. Rathbone has grown up in the business and a more congenial and upright gentleman can not be found anywhere, as those of the theatrical profession who know him will testify. The house is located in a rich mining center and the S. R. O. sign is used pretty regularly. Mr. Rathbone is a reader of "Ohi Billy Boy," and says much of his success is due to the interesting matter found in its columns.

Ableus, ...

Cincinnati, O.
Gentiemen:—I have taken The Billboard for four years and couldn't possibly do without it, as the Parkerites, while waiting their "turn," must have "Old Billy Boy."

M. L. DOBKENS, of Barber Shop and Bath Rooms.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 23, 1907.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 23, 1907.

Cincinnati, O.
Gentlemen:—After twenty years of life in the circus and theatrical business without a rest. it will seem good to have a little diversion. I would like to have all my old friends, when in Minneapolis, to look me up, as they will always find "Old Billy Boy" on file. He has been a friend to me, and I have watched his growth with great interest.

Yours truly, "HAL" T. GOODWIN.

1907 MODELS. AUTOMATIC PARISIAN

ATTENTION, CONE MEN!

You can't afford to overlook this 1907 Model. It does the work perfectly, cooking a beautiful, crisp, artistic cone throughout. Don't blister your hands and work yourself to distraction day after day using the flat styles, when it can be so easily avoided. Buy an automatic outfit that is a pleasure to operate; the cost is a mere bagatelle compared to its value as a money-getter. No rolling cones. Dip Core in batter, insert in oven. Presto! Out comes a true cone ready for use. Shipping them everywhere. Come-back orders in every mail.' Write quick for circulars and prices.

We invite the attention of Southern managers to our superior Film Service, in which is included the best prints and all new subjects of practically every film manufacturer in the world. This is not a boast, or catch advertisement, but a plain statement of facts which we can substantiate. If the price you are paying is satisfactory, if the quality of film you receive is all you desire, and your deliveries are prompt, you can have no reason to investigate our service. If the above is not the case, let us know your requirements, and we will be glad to let you know what we can do. It may interest you.

Attention! Streetmen.

We have in preparation FOR YOU the finest and most complete Catalogue ever issued. It's chuck full of REAL BARGAINS that mean a saving of dollars and cents for you, and every page is an eye-opener that will make you sit up and take notice.

When we say it's a BARGAIN CATALOGUE we mean bargains of the kind that are backed up with A-1 goods, and get the money for you. It's for you, MR STREETMAN, MEDICINEMAN, CARNIVAL WORKER, KNIFEBOARD MAN, NOV. ELTY DEALER, AUCTIONEER and CANVASSER, and it talks business on every page. It's so interesting you'll read it from cover to cover, and make selections from it before you place your next order. Send us your permanent address or route list, and we'll mail you this Catalogue when ready. In the meantime let us quote our prices on the goods you now use. It will convince you that we are "The House Whose Word is Law." That we are prompt shippers any Streetman will tell you.

"THE HOUSE WHOSE WORD IS LAW"

106 Canal Street, NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

The average town or city will readily support as many "Automatic Vande villes" as it does theatres. Dozens of Arcades were opened last year, by men of no previous experience with coin-operating machines. Do you know of a good location? If so, don't hesitate. We have a splendid new model Mutoscope at $50.00, and bargains in used machines as low as $28.

THE DANCER AND THE KING

Again we have another Spooner to write of, and this time it's Cecil Spooner, in the premiere of The Dancer and the King, at Blaney's Lincoln Square Theatre, which occurred the evening of May 27. Under the management of Charles E. Blaney, Cecil Spooner has been starring all season with much success in The Girl Raffles, Mr. Blaney has lately leased the Lincoln Square for a term of years, and renamed it Blaney's Lincoln Square Theatre. Mr. Blaney and J. Seari Dawley collaborated in writing the play, which partakes of the nature of a musical comedy, a comedy and a melodrama. The sprightly, versatile little star is given a medium that is just suited for the display of her dancing, singing, fencing and playful comedy. She was showered with foral offerings the opening night. One lady enthusiast following the Spanish custom, threw her flower-bedecked hat upon the stage. According to the program the leading character, Lola, the dancer, was inspired by certain incidents in the career of the celebrated Lola Montez.

The locale is Baysare, at the present time. Louis 1., the king, has fallen in love with Lola, the dancer. He determines to overcome all opposition and to make her his queen. The Prime Minister (Homer Barton) and his colleagues conspire to defeat the dancer, even going so far as to place polson in her glass of wine. She thwarfs all their schemes in true melodramatic fashion, as well as defeating the the villainess, Countess of Augsburg (Ella Cameron) in their struggle to have the King pass a labor bill that will help the laboring classes on the one hand and the monarchy on the other. The dancer's trlumphs are complete; she defeats the conspirators and is made Countess of Landsfelt, which sounds prosperous, and marries the handsome King (a handsome king, too, as impersonated by George Palmer Moore). Lola's friend and "first aid to the injured" was Gilles and Dutch wooden shoes. In this get-up she does her German specialty, consisting of Heinrich von Gretchen, her own words, and music by Ted Coleman. It is one of the best things she does and very clever, indeed. Not content with all these changes described, she lastly appears in regimentals of white cloth, high black boots, black cap and gold trimmings.

As the Countess, Ella Cameron was stately in a court dress of black velvet, with a touch of white lace, long black gloves and a large black velvet hat surmounted by white plumes. And again she wore a pink velvet of the same design without hat or gloves, having a bit of oreen velvet on the bodice and a trimming of bands of black fur. Next season Miss Spooner will again be seen in The Girl Raffles and in a new production of Mr. Blaney's, The Child of the Press.

WOMAN'S LEAGUE RECEPTION

The Professional Woman's League beld their annual reception to meet the newly elected officers in their club house, 108 West Forty-fifth street, Monday afternoon, May 27. The guests were received by Mrs. Fred Ross, the hostess, who was looking very charming in black chiffon cloth over white, with trimmings of black satin and hand-made lace, long white gloves and a black hat covered with a shower of pink plumes. Mrs. Suzanne Westford, the re-elected president, reviewed the work of the League for the past year in a very happy speech, complimenting the various officers and committee women for their helpful support, and while telling of the wide extent of assistance they had been to the women of the profession, emphasized the fact that the League was not a charitable organization, as it's members paid back at one time or another as they could every cent borrowed from the League's Benevolent Fund.

She then introduced the newly-elected officers, the greater number of whom were present, seated on the platform, as follows. Dr. Ida C. Nahm, first vice-president; Mrs. E. L. Fernandez, second vice-president; Mrs. E. L. Fernandez, second vice-president; Mrs. White vice-president; Mrs. Sam Schiff, sixth vice-president; Madia Craigen, chairman of the executive committee; Estella R. Bach, recording secretary; Nellie Howes, corresponding secretary; Lizzie R. Rochelle, treasurer; Mrs. Boyd L. Delibridge, assistant treasurer, Mrs. Boyd L. Delibridge, assistant treasurer, Mrs. Boyd L. Delibridge, assistant treasurer in the second preservance of the second program was provided by the chairman of press committee; Mrs. L. T. Schmidt, photographs; Mrs. Augusta C. Regers, supplies; Kate Bell, visiting; Mrs. Pauline Colell Mrs. L. C. THE DOMINANT is a Monthly Journal for Bands and Orchestras. It was established 1893. To live up to its pretensions, it provides features such as long experience has proven to be of value.

Roughly speaking, it is divided into four departments.

(1). Literary; comprising Articles on Music and Topics of Timely interest for all Musicians.

(2). Items of News of the Doings of Bands and Orchestras everywhere.

(3). Music for Bands and Orchestras of an aggregate value of $15 to $20 yearly.

(4). Advertisements of the Latest and Best in Music, Instruments, Uniforms, etc., by the most reliable firms in the trade.

THE DOMINANT is conceded to be the best Journal of its kind published and is highly appreciated for intrinsic value by all intelligent and ambitious musicians. You can not afford to be without it.
