A mighty an_gry quar_rel rose, A_mong the Ta_riffs friends and foes. And South Cal_li_na in a fit, De U_nion vow to curse and quit. But save de U_nion old folks young folks, Save de Union old folks young folks, Old Virginny never ti — er

Virginny love her sister state,
And much like her, de Tariff hate ;
But while de Tariff she despise,
De Union very much she prize.

So save de Union & c.

She send her son, Mas. Watkins Leigh,
De South Callina folks to see;
To tell 'em just to wait a while,
And better times will on us smile.

So save de Union & c.

At last a man name Henry Clay —
Who love de Tarriff much, dey say,
Begin to fear its danger great,
And say, I joins my native state.

To save de Union & c.

Calhoun, a great Callina man,
Abominate the Tariff plan ;
But he too say, "O yes 'tis right,"
And, Clay let's, me and you unite —

To save de Union & c

Macduffie too, when he see dat,
Off hand begin to smell a rat;
He say, no "doubt Calhoun is wise",
And we must do what he advise —

To save de Union & c

And when Callina hear de news,
She come into Virginny's views ; —
She smile upon Mas. Watkins Leigh,
And, say my nullies all agree —

To save de Union & c.
