

ROBERTS FAMILY RESEARCH

It is the sincere hope of the compiler of the contents of this pamphlet that the recipient will be helped in his genealogical research. It is felt that some of these names will fit somewhere into some person's problem as yet unsolved. The search still goes on for the parents of John Roberts who married Mary Dalk and who were both born somewhere in Georgia. Your queries are welcome and if at all possible, you will be helped free of charge.

ROBERTS RESEARCH - ALABAMA

Lawrence Co., Alabama:

Major Mathew Roberts, sixth sheriff of Lawrence Co., Alabama was called Major Roberts. He was born 1789 (?) and was 86 in 1899 (There is a discrepancy here as this would make him 110) His father and mother were from Roane Co., N.C. They moved to Giles Co., Tennessee in 1809 and to Alabama in 1817. They were the parents of seven children - three dead in 1899 and four then living. Those living were Major Mathew Roberts, above, Howard, William and Mary. Maj. Roberts m Susan Wells, orphan and grandmother of John Chilcoat. They had 13 children - below is all that is known:

1. John C. Roberts, CSA, had one son also CSA. John C. Roberts was a Baptist preacher as was the son and both lived in Franklin County, Alabama.
2. Thomas Roberts - died in the Confederate Service.
3. Absolun Roberts - " " "
4. Houston Roberts
5. James Roberts - was an M.D. in Kentucky
6. Daughter - m Masterson
7. " m Armour
8. " m Milan

WILLIAM R. ROBERTS - VA. - N.C.

Mrs. C. B. Pulley, 109 Marion Street, Laurens, South Carolina 29360 has furnished the following data on William R. Roberts and is looking for his parents and those of his wife, Sarah _____? She is also working on FULMER and MILAM lines and will exchange information.

From Equity Court, Laurens County, S.C. - Bill shows that William R. Roberts was in his lifetime an American citizen residing in Halifax Co., Virginia for a long time but removed to North Carolina in the time of the Revolutionary War and sometime thereafter died intestate. Letters of administration were duly granted to his widow, Sarah, and to his son, James Roberts of the county of Randolph, N.C. "Sarah Roberts who now (1808) lives in Laurens Co., S.C...." (Sarah Roberts died 1809)

While living in Halifax Co., Va., in 1769, William R. Roberts executed a deed of trust to his son, Samuel Roberts and to his son-in-law, Hamon Miller, who went his bond while he was buying merchandise from Cunningham and Company in Glasgow, Scotland and about the time the note came due, William R. Roberts did not pay up, as war was declared. Thinking that all debts due allies of England had been canceled, William then began deeding his slaves to his children. These being the same slaves used in trust bond to his son and son-in-law, he removed to Randolph Co., N.C. which was not a long distance from his home in Halifax Co., Va. Mrs Pulley says, "I believe he was living on the Dan River across from Roger Shackelford and that he, William R. Roberts, owned a ferry. He died 1784-5. About 1795, times were bitter in North Carolina, and a great migration took place. At this time, too, North Carolina ruled that any debts due England or her allies were collectable, and the firm of Cunningham and Co. then collected William's debts from Samuel and Haman. Then Hamon Miller died and although his wife, Frances (Roberts) Miller, had received her share of her father's estate, Hamon, Jr., grandson of William R. Roberts, stirred the whole bunch up and took them to court. In the Superior Court of Randolph Co., N.C. and the Equity Court of Laurens Co., S.C., the case was thrown out as the Judges ruled all this had happened 40 years before and most of the witnesses were then dead. James Roberts, son of William R. and Sarah Roberts, had died leaving a will in Randolph Co. and who was administrator of his father's estate. Others named as witnesses in this case were: George Lucas of Randolph Co., James Daniel of Rowan, John Latham and Whitlock Arnold of Randolph, Geo. McCullough and Joseph Chambers of Rowan, Frances Arnold of Randolph and the children of William R. Roberts:

1. Samuel Roberts who had settled in Stokes Co., N.C.
2. Peter Roberts of Laurens Co., S.C.
3. George Roberts of Rockingham Co., N.C.
4. James Roberts of Randolph Co., N.C.
5. William Roberts, Jr., of _____?
6. Sarah Roberts, wife of John Stanfield of Randolph Co., N.C.
- *7. Elizabeth Roberts, wife of Isham Fuller of Laurens Co., S.C.
8. Mary Ann Roberts, wife of Rev. Richard Shackelford, Laurens Co., S.C.
(Removed to Alabama)
9. Martha Roberts, wife of Jacob Miller, Laurens Co., S.C.
10. Frances Roberts, wife of Hamon Miller, Sr. of Randolph Co., N.C.

ROBERTS FAMILY RESEARCH

William R. Roberts married Sarah _____ ? (It is not known for certain if Sarah was the mother of all the children), had dau., Elizabeth Roberts who died in Laurens Co., S.C. in 1797, the wife of Isham Fuller. Sarah Fuller, daughter of Elizabeth and Isham, m in 1799 to John Milam. Sarah was born 1783 and died 1845 and John Milam born 1772, died 1857 - both buried at Old Providence Church cemetery, Laurens, S.C. Nancy Milam, dau of Sarah and John was b 1816, d 1902, married William Wesley Bryson and had daughter, Laura Jane Bryson, born 1852, d 1911, who married Lewis Simmons Madden. Their son, Alsey Fuller Madden, married in 1910 to Millie Corbett who are the parents of Mrs. Pulley (Laura M.)

Mrs. Pulley has a copy of the deed made in 1784, by William R. Roberts to his daughter, Elizabeth (Roberts) Fuller who then lived in Randolph Co., N. C. Defendants in the equity court were John and Sarah (Fuller) Milan, who had inherited slaves from her mother, Elizabeth, these being the same with their increase, as deeded by William R. Roberts. She further states, "There was one Rev. Jacob Roberts in Laurens Co. and I do not know where he fits in but think he belongs to this family as it seems that Rev. Jacob Roberts and Rev. Richard Shackelford brought all this group from N.C. to Laurens County, S.C. about 1795, although the preachers were here earlier. Nor do I know any more about the brothers of my Elizabeth (Roberts) Fuller. Isham Fuller was from Randolph Co., N.C., the son of Captain Jones Fuller. Ezekiel Fuller, great-grandfather of Isham, died 1723 in Isle of Wight Co., Va. William R. Roberts had lived in Halifax Co., Va. a long time before moving to North Carolina."

ROBERTS FAMILY RESEARCH - S.C. - GEORGIA

Line of L. E. Addison, 1608 East Park Ave., Valdosta Georgia 31603. He gives the following information:

John Roberts, born in Charleston District (Edisto) of South Carolina, the only son of Lewis Roberts, Revolutionary Soldier, about 1797-1800. He and his father moved to Georgia and settled first in McIntosh County and then moved to Liberty County.

In 1803 they moved across the Altamaha River into Wayne County as some of the first settlers. In 1811, Lewis Roberts (John's father) was elected coroner of Wayne County. He died there in 1823.

John Roberts married Phoebe WEEKS (In some places her name is recorded as O'STEEN but that was her stepfather's name) in 1798, probably in McIntosh Co., Georgia. She was born 1785 in North Carolina. They had eleven children:

| 11. | " Mary           | b 1826 m Josiah Sirmans                     |

John Roberts, with all his children, moved to Lowndes County, Georgia in 1827. After living in Lowndes County for about 11 years, he moved to Columbia Co., Florida in the part that is now Union County, Florida. He lived in that area until his death 14 May 1854. His wife had died in 1851. Both are buried in "Swift Creek" cemetery, north of Lake Butler, Florida. His grave is marked, but hers is not.

His sons, John J., Nathan, Stephen, George, and Lewis Roberts, had moved to Columbia Co., Fla. before their father. His son Enock and daughter, Phoebe moved there about the same time as their father. They all lived in the same general area. George Roberts later moved back to Georgia. The other children, William P., Reuben, and Bryant J. Roberts, and his daughter Mary (No. 11 above) remained in Georgia.

Mr. Addison is a descendant of Enock Roberts (No. 10 above). Enock's full name was Nathaniel Enock Roberts - he died about 1870. Mr. Addison will appreciate any information on the above ROBERTS and will gladly exchange data.

ROBERTS FAMILY RESEARCH - GEORGIA

Mrs. Charles B. Newton, Jr. of Forsyth, Georgia sends the following ROBERTS family history, copied from the Macon Telegraph and News of 31 July 1966: (Section Two, page 19)

Descendants Still Occupy Homes Two Roberts Brothers Built

With houses more than a century old becoming scarcer with every new highway and apartment project, and many being abandoned by long-time inhabitants because of up-keep, it's real news to find a matched pair of 120 year old houses still being lived in, and loved, by the descendants of the builders.

Such is the case with two homes in Jones County, Georgia not far from the Bibb County line. Nearly a century and a quarter ago, two brothers, Green Roberts and William Roberts, built their homes just a mile or so apart. (See page 4-A) Today the great-granddaughter of Green Roberts, Mrs. George Hadaway, and Mr. Hadaway live in his home on Garrison Road, a short distance off Old Milledgeville Road - Route 49 now- and on Old Milledgeville Road, Williams's grandson, A. L. Roberts who is called "Gus", lives in his home.

According to Mrs. Hadaway and Mr. "Gus" Roberts, their ancestors built the places, and Mr. Roberts says from what his father, who was "Little Bill", told him, his home is 120 years old, although others have thought the houses are older.

Both houses are one-story, slightly raised over partial cellars, solidly constructed with huge hand-cut beams and sills pegged together with big wooden dowels, so solid by now that when Mr. and Mrs. Hadaway did some remodeling it was almost impossible to saw through one. Each home has a wide center hall with two 17 X 17 foot rooms on each side, each with a simple old mantel, the same simple woodwork.

Dr. James Jones, Confederate Soldier, who died at 28 in 1877, made a handsome cherry secretary, which his granddaughter, Mrs. Hadaway still uses. Dr. Jones was the husband of Amanda Roberts, daughter of Green Roberts; their son, Carlton C. Jones, born in 1876, was Mrs. Hadaway's father.

William Roberts (1818-1905) built his home, always occupied by his family. His son, "Little Bill" (1854-1938) lived there; his grandson, "Gus" Roberts, lives there now, having returned to the old home in 1932, after living in Macon.

Carrington's "Halifax County History" shows that the will of James P Roberts is recorded (1866). Mentions wife, no name given. Names following children: Daus: Margaret T. Watkins, Patty C. Faulkner and Anna G Walthall. Same book shows marriage 25 Dec 1850, William Walthall to Ann G. Roberts.

J. R. Baldrige, Dyer, Tenn., feels sure that the widow, Mary ROBERTS, shown in the 1840 Census, is widow of Wm. Roberts, Sr., who died in 1820. Before marriage she was Mary CAMP, dau. of John CAMP, Jr. By 1850 Mary and some of the children had moved to Tenn. She d. in 1864, 88 yrs of age, and grave stone is R.F.D., Sharon, Tenn. Many of her descendants are in West Tenn., and a son of hers, Geo. Joshua Armistead ROBERTS, went to Texas around middle of the century.

Children of Wm and Mary Camp ROBERTS:
William Camp Roberts m. Narcissa Jeffress
John Thomas m. Nancy Ann Milner

We have not learned who parents of Narcissa Jeffress are. Any help appreciated. She and William Camp ROBERTS were married in Halifax Co., Va., in 1833. She was b. 1819. Believe she may be sister of one Drury Jeffress, who m. Parmelia Davis in Halifax Co., in 1835. He and Parmelia were in Weakley Co. Tenn., soon after marriage. (Goodspeeds)

ROBERTS FAMILY RESEARCH

History of Adams County, Ohio - pages 846-7:

Lincoln Johnson Roberts, of Seaman, Scott Township, Adams Co., Ohio was born 1 Jun 1865, in Winchester Twp. His great-grandfather, Stephen Roberts, was born in Bucks Co., Pa., 29 Aug 1762. He moved into Fairfax Co., Virginia when a child. There he married Deborah Williams, who was a member of the Society of Friends. They had eight children, six sons and two daughters, all of whom grew to maturity, married and reared families. John Roberts, the third child, was the grandfather of our subject. He was born 29 Aug 1772. On 13 Apr 1813, he enlisted in Captain Loudon Osborne's Company of the 5th Reg., Va. Militia, and served for six months in the vicinity of Norfolk, Va. He came to Adams Co., Ohio in 1835 and died there.

Isaac Roberts, the father of our subject (Lincoln Johnson Roberts), was born in Loudon Co., Va. 16 Aug 1818. He, as a boy, was apprenticed to a millwright in Washington Co., Maryland, for three years and learned that trade. On 18 Oct 1846, he married Lucinda E. Wince, of Loudon Co., Va, the daughter of Phillip and Catherine (Shaffer) Wince. Isaac Roberts came to Adams County in 1850. He had eleven children, but he lost two sons and a daughter in childhood. He died, 1885. Lincoln Johnson Roberts began his career as a teacher in Adams County and taught until 1897. He was a resident of Portsmouth and engaged in the grocery business. In 1899 he owned and lived on a farm on Buck Run in Scott Township. He was married 11 May 1887 to Irene Chaney of Hillsboro, Ohio, daughter of Adam L. Chaney. He had three children at the time this was written (about 1900): Irving Roberts, 10, Ralph W. Roberts, aged 4, and Virginia Roberts, aged two years.

Goodspeed's History of Tennessee - 1887:

H. W. Roberts, born 15 Dec 1835 in Henderson Co., Tenn. was the son of John and Unity (Rogers) Roberts, both born in North Carolina. He married on 22 Jan 1867 Susan Vaughn who died 10 Sep 1879. They had the following children:

1. Horace Roberts; 2. Fannie Roberts; and 3. John Roberts.

H. W. Roberts married second to Lucy Moore, 7 Jul 1881. She was dau of John Moore. (No other information)

Walter Ellsworth Roberts, born 24 Feb 1870. He was the youngest son of a family of 11 children, born to Isaac and Lucinda E. Roberts (see above) His ancestry is same as his brother, Lincoln J. Roberts. He united with the Seaman, Ohio, Methodist Episcopal Church in 1893 and was licensed to preach in January 1894.

Clay County, Kentuck - 1810 Census:

The following Roberts are listed: James, Jesse, Moses and Ellender ROBERTS as heads of families. (Source: The East Kentuckian, Box 107, Stanville, Ky. 41659.)

Mr. Bill Medsker, Rt. 4, Box 334, Lot 15, Savannah, Georgia 31405 sends the following query: "Seeking information on Ephraim ROBERTS, b 3 Apr 1818, Ohio, but near Wheeling, W. Va., d 21 Feb 1899 at Maitland, Mo. He m Elvina DAVIS 28 Apr 1844 in Ohio. She was b 1 May 1826 in Ohio and d 11 Sep 1895 in Missouri. The ROBERTS moved to Whig Valley, Mo. in 1866 - they had 13 children: Thomas, died in infancy; Newton; William; Ephriam; Ellis; Lucinda (MEDSKER); Jane (BENDER); Margaret (BURRETT); Hannah (BENNET); Anna (McQUARY); Candace (SAMUELSON); Ella, remained single; and Francis (remained single). Ephriam's parents were Thomas ROBERTS, native of Wales, and Hannah BURGESS, of Highland Co., Ohio. Elvina's parents were William DAVIS, of N.C. and Mo., and Elizabeth ELLIOT, b Pike Co., Ohio.

ROBERTS FAMILY RESEARCH

The following Roberts data comes from Mr. Ben L. Cash, 211 Montclair Dr., N.E., Albuquerque, New Mexico 87108:

"Family tradition says that Lewis Roberts was born 1796 in Ohio and died at Newcomerstown, Ohio in 1857. He married Catherine Neighbour, b 30 Sep 1794, German Valley, New Jersey and died at Topeka, Kansas, May 1896 at 102 years. She was a daughter of Nicholas and Elisabeth Catherine (Sharp) Neighbour." ## ROBERTS FAMILY RESEARCH - ILLINOIS - MISSOURI

George Washington Roberts, b 29 Sep 1831, d 22 Oct 1887, son of John and Sarah Roberts (maiden name unknown) married Elizabeth Jane Lenox, 21 Aug 1854, dau of Jonathan and Pricilla Lenox. (Probably Crawford Co., Illinois) Their children as follows: (all probably born in Crawford Co.)

1. ROBERTS, Alexander Lewis b 4 Jun 1855 d 23 Feb 1890
2. " Eliza Jane b 25 Jun 1856 d 17 Feb 1900 m D. B. Tolbert.
3. " James William b 2 Oct 1858 d 12 Mar 1912
4. " John Wesley b 5 Jun 1862 d 10 Nov 1881
5. " Alice Emaline b 21 Mar 1865 d 5 Oct 1866 (Twin, d young)
6. " Adda Josephine b 21 Mar 1865 d 18 Nov 1866 (Twin, d young)
7. " Awsher Johnathan b 5 Dec 1867 d 8 Sep 1868 (died young)

Sometime between 1867 and 1869, Elizabeth Jane (Lenox) Roberts died. George Washington Roberts, married 2nd, on 26 Sep 1869 to Adaline Bratcher from Leitchfield, Ky. They were married in Crawford Co., Ill. by J. Lenox (possibly the father of Elizabeth Jane). Re: Record & File, Vol. B, p 243, #2450, M.L. The following were born of this second marriage:

1. ROBERTS, Parmer Woodworth b 6 Jul 1870 d 3 Nov 1871 (died young)
2. " Leander b 16 Nov 1872 d 13 Oct 1899
3. " Fanny Crosby b 6 Apr 1875 d 22 Nov 1949 m Chas. Emery Baxter.
4. " Bonnie Luvina b 22 Aug 1877 d 28 Aug 1964 m Wm. Spitzmiller
5. " Ida Mae b 25 Nov 1880 d 14 Dec 1937 m Robert Hampton
6. " Uriah Gilbert b 31 Aug 1885 d 31 Aug 1895 (died at age 10)

George Washington Roberts and wife, Adaline, moved from near Oblong, Crawford Co. to Butler Co., Mo. about 9 miles east of Poplar Bluff. He was a boot maker and made fine ones. He often received $25.00 a pair - an enormous price but were of fine quality and workmanship. He often served as choir director in the Baptist Church. He was a religious man and raised his family to be the same way.

John Roberts was raised in Liverpool, England, Lancashire Co. (possibly born there) John's family all died in an epidemic - only he survived. He was bound to a sea captain as a young man. When his ship came to America, he jumped ship. He never returned to England because he was afraid to. There was a sum of $50,000 left in trust for him but he could never claim it, due to the fact that he could never find his mother's or his grandmother's maiden name, even though he tried. John and Sarah Roberts had at least four children:

1. John Roberts; 2. Thomas Roberts; 3. George Washington Roberts (above); and
4. Henry Roberts - (Henry had two children, Henry, Jr., called "Little Henry" and a daughter, Isadora. The name of Henry's wife is not known.)

There are no known birth dates for any of the children of John and Sarah Roberts or death dates, except for George Washington Roberts, whose daughter could not recall that he ever spoke of any sisters in his family.

The birth and death dates, also marriage dates of George Washington Roberts and his children by both wives are from the bible he owned and which is now in the possession of his grandson, William Clay Spitzmiller, 6764 Edison Ave., Normandy, Missouri 63121. Mrs. Spitzmiller has sent the compiler the above information and she says in her letter: "Am sending this on my husband's ROBERTS line, hoping that it will help someone. The little historical account was told me by Bonnie Luvina Roberts Spitzmiller, daughter of George Washington Roberts..."

Mr. Rodney D. Veitscheggar, Box 367, Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, Kentucky 42101 writes as follows: "My mother was a Roberts from Washington State and I am doing research into her family history. They lived in Logan, Wyoming, and McDowell Counties of West Virginia, and before that in Pike and Floyd Counties of Kentucky. Before that in various counties of southwestern Virginia.

"The earliest ancestor I have recorded is a Cornelious or Cornelius ROBERTS who was scalped by Indians in Russell Co., Va. in 1788. His son, James Sr., settled in what is now Pike Co., Ky. and has many descendants. The name Cornelious or Neil was quite persistent up to the present day in our set. Also Daniel, Isaac, Masten, Owen (Ody)." Mr. Veitscheggar will exchange data.
