PURSuing EXCELLENCE AS WE MARK A MILESTONE

JOE STANISLAV AND JIM MILLER

Joe Stanislav

As Our Lady of Peace approaches its 80th anniversary, it continuously aspires to be a leader in end-of-life care. The past year has proved both challenging and inspiring as we pursue this vision. The challenge of course was facing Covid and its effects on operations, and we are sincerely grateful to patients and families for your patience and cooperation during these trying times. Despite the pandemic, we were inspired to plan extensive improvements to the physical environment of Our Lady of Peace Home beginning this fall.

Jim Miller

We are heartened by the staff response to COVID, both by their care for in-home patients with the disease and their safe care for patients in the residence. Creating and implementing protocols for caring for home-care patients while keeping both patients and staff safe was a tribute to the skill and dedication of home care staff. The greatest challenge for residence staff was limiting and screening visitors to the residence while doing everything possible to facilitate patient access to visiting by loved ones. We are pleased that those restrictions have been loosened if not yet removed completely. We are proud that we have a very low rate of staff infections and that our staff vaccination rate approaches 100 percent.

We are in the midst of a capital campaign to raise $4 million dollars to make Our Lady of Peace Home look as good as the care it provides. This project will create all private rooms in the home as well as a new front lobby and waiting space and additional office space for our growing home-care programs. We believe when construction is complete, our patients will enjoy the best care environment available anywhere. We are touched by generous community support so far and hope that with your help we can reach our financial goal and start construction in late fall of 2021.

Though we are still confronting the challenges of Covid, we are confident that our excellent staff are up to the task. We are excited that our Board of Directors and all our stakeholders are committed to our vision of end-of-life-care leadership far into our future. We hope you will join us next year in celebrating our 80th year. Thanks for your continued support.

OLP 2021: 80-YEAR ANNIVERSARY, $4M CAMPAIGN CONVERGE

As Our Lady's first capital campaign draws to a close, its 80-year anniversary is nearing. This season is a poignant time of both remembering the past and imagining the future, staff members say.

The $4 million capital campaign will change the face of Our Lady and fulfill a longtime dream of providing private rooms to patients. It was begun late last year and is already nearing completion.

"We're blown away by the generosity of folks who have given," CEO Joe Stanislav said. "I think everybody has realized what we're trying to do, to improve the facility for years to come and ensure that we're able to continue the model that we've developed here."

Protecting Our Lady's future brings tremendous relief, Joe said. "It isn't just that we're improving the care, it's also ensuring it for the future. We're thrilled."

The campaign went public in July with a widely circulated Pioneer Press article. "We've been so hidden," Joe said. "This is the first capital campaign we've had in 80 years."

The following month Archbishop Bernard Hebda visited to recognize Our Lady's 80-year mission and bless the grounds where construction would soon begin.

It is a time of looking forward and backwards, studying architectural renderings of the new facility along with archival photos of Our Lady in its earliest days, when nine Hawthorne Dominican nuns arrived at the retrofitted telephone building on St. Anthony Avenue.

They had left their New York motherhouse on Nov. 26, 1941 – the day after Thanksgiving – after listening to a farewell address from their chaplain. "That lovely city on the Mississippi is to welcome a band who comes as pioneers, yes, but seeking nothing, begging only to be allowed to give their all," Father Joseph Clune told the nuns. "Like Mary, you are to bring forth Christ in the Bethlehem of the middle west through your lives of service and sacrifice."

The first weeks were marked by great uncertainty. War was looming. Winter was near. But the warmth of the Minnesotans and the depth of the nuns' faith paved the way.

The grand opening for Our Lady of Good Counsel Home was held on Dec. 7 – the infamous day of the Pearl Harbor attacks.

"Everyone saw it was an innovative undertaking – the idea that you didn't have to pay and could come in your last days and get incredible care!" said Ray Wey, 86, a St. Paul resident and former priest who attended the grand opening as a boy.

Architectural rendering of the new private rooms that will be available to patients and their families.

At the time cancer was considered contagious, and early visitors recall a basket with gloves they were advised to wear. But the nuns served unflinchingly, inspired by their foundress Mother Alphonsa, daughter of the acclaimed novelist Nathaniel Hawthorne. In 1900 she founded the Third Order Dominicans. They were called the Servants of Relief for Incurable Cancer – or the Hawthorne Dominicans, named for the location of their motherhouse in Hawthorne, N.Y.

The Hawthorne Dominicans proceeded to open seven free cancer homes – the last one being in St. Paul. It was an uphill climb, but the public showed a "daily mercy," as Mother Alphonsa said, and donations poured in when they were needed most.

REMEMBERING BELOVED OLP SUPPORTER SANDY KLAS

VOLUNTEER PROFILE

The passing of Sandy Klas leaves an irreplaceable hole at Our Lady of Peace, where the luminous philanthropist served as a board member, a generous donor and a loyal supporter. Sandy died on May 31, at age 90, surrounded by family.

A mother of six and active volunteer based in Mendota Heights, Sandy served on countless committees. She was often described as “a force of nature” and is remembered for her infectious joy.

At Christmas Sandy would host a holiday breakfast for the board and dress as Mrs. Claus in an elaborate red costume trimmed in white fur, calling herself “Sandy Klas,” or Santy Claus.

“She had huge pockets on her Mrs. Claus apron which were full of candy she would hand out,” said fellow OLP board member Stella Lundquist. “She was generous and humble.”

Sandy’s Christmas cheer left a vivid memory, said CEO Joe Santislav. “I hear her effervescent, slightly hoarse, ‘Merry Christmas, boys and girls!’ and see her greet each person and make them feel like the most important person in the room. She lit up every room she entered.”

And Our Lady of Peace is just one of many causes she supported, both through hard work and monetarily. I know she supports us all still.”

That includes her final donation: the lead gift for OLP’s capital campaign. For Director of Development Lisa Sweeney, Sandy was an invaluable mentor. “She always challenged me to be on top of my game,” Lisa said. “She would encourage me when things got tough: ‘You can do it!’ She amazed me with all of her accomplishments and inspired me to do the same – give 110 percent and then you can never say you failed, because you gave it your all and then some. She always humbled me with her generosity, not thinking twice about it. She was a true role model in every aspect.”

Sandy Klas was an ardent supporter of Our Lady of Peace and a beloved friend of the community.

“Sandy’s impact on Our Lady of Peace spans three decades and her legacy will live far into the future. If she believed a cause was worthy, she supported it through all its ups and downs.”

Joe Stanislav, CEO

It is difficult to overstate Sandy’s influence at Our Lady, added Joe. “Sandy’s impact on Our Lady of Peace spans three decades and her legacy will live far into the future. If she believed a cause was worthy, she supported it through all its ups and downs.”

The compassionate end-of-life care provided at Our Lady resonated with Sandy. “Sandy Klas’s belief in the mission of Our Lady of Peace caused her to champion the improvements now in our future to the day she died,” Joe said. “She lived her faith, not quietly but unpretentiously.

Other local leaders have joined in paying tribute to this amazing woman. “Sandy was simply one of the best people I have ever met,” wrote Tim Wynes, former president of Inver Hills Community College. “She was gracious and tough and funny.”

She is remembered as the dynamic counterpart to her husband, Bob, CEO of Tapemark Company in West St. Paul. The two had been married for 68 years when he passed away March 8, 2019.

20 YEARS OF COMMUNITY HOSPICE AND HOME HEALTH

Not everyone can stay at Our Lady of Peace on St. Anthony Avenue, but thousands have received its signature care from the comfort of their home, thanks to Our Lady's Community Hospice and Home Care. The program just marked its 20th anniversary.

Director Nancy Larson joined the team in 2007, back when the staff consisted of two nurses, a nurse's aide, one social worker and one chaplain. Their offices, at the time, were on the second floor of an old house next to St. Mary's Nursing Home in St. Paul, and they didn't go far beyond a couple block radius, typically walking to their patients, Nancy said. They served four or five Hospice patients and four to five Home Care patients per day.

Today the staff serves 70 or 80 patients a day and reaches five counties – Ramsey, Hennepin, Anoka Washington and Dakota. Nancy estimates that the program has served 3,000 patients over the years. The staff now consists of 11 RNs, four full-time social workers, one casual social worker, three full-time chaplains, six nurses' aides and a three-person bereavement department.

"Sometimes we hear from families we helped 10, 15 years ago," Nancy said. "When you know that your care really helped people during a challenging time, it's humbling and meaningful."

Compliments trickle in years later, when someone lights up at the mention of the program. "Oh, my neighbor So and So says you took great care of her mom 10 years ago," Nancy paraphrased. "That's the best compliment!"

Each family served by the program fills out a survey afterwards. The percentage who say they would recommend the program is incredibly high – right around 98 percent. It's a stark contrast to the state average.

Another point of pride: the lack of turnover on the staff. "We have a lot of people who were with us back in those early days," Nancy said.

The team has a deep bond – given both the length of time they've served together and the nature of the work they do. The families of their patients are quick to express their thanks.

"The wife of a patient recently contacted me and said, 'There's no way to ever repay you for all that you've done,'" Nancy said. "You hope people feel your care is compassionate, that we are sensitive to them not only as caregivers, but how they're doing. A lot of healthcare is patient focused. The distinction that hospice has is that we're equally focused on family and friends and work to support them."

Merging with Our Lady of Peace Home – formerly Our Lady of Good Counsel – in 2009 was a natural fit, and Nancy said she's proud the program is now part of this remarkable 80-year-old institution. "It has a great legacy, and to be part of that is very touching."

Sometimes that still requires a bit of education, she added. "So many people know of the residential hospice and all it has to offer, but it's equally important for people to know that before you come to the residential hospice or in lieu of coming to the residential hospice, we have this fabulous team that can help you wherever home is."

UNBREAKABLE TIES: HOW THREE GENERATIONS OF THE GEIS FAMILY GIVE BACK

DONOR PROFILE

The five Geis kids grew up at Our Lady of Good Counsel, where their dad, Dr. LeRoy Geis, served as a volunteer doctor for 25 years.

They have vivid memories of playing at the hospice, where their dad made rounds every week. Juliann, David, Michael, Steven and Brian brought youthful, unbridled energy to the building.

“We’d go running and then slide underneath the beds,” recalled Steven, who is now a father of four and the principal of North Trail Elementary in Farmington. “Once we hit medical equipment and made a mess. That habit came to a screeching halt.”

Sister Imelda used to roller skate down the halls – to make travel more efficiently and to amuse patients. Juliann would stand on her skates, sailing along with the nun. “I fondly remember skating patient to patient to say hi,” said Juliann, a mother of two who works as a florist in Mendota Heights.

The kindness of the Hawthorne Dominican nuns left a powerful impression, the Geis siblings say. “When we would arrive for rounds, Sister Patrick always had a sandwich and some fresh fruit and chips before Dad started seeing patients,” Juliann said. “The sisters were like my aunts, and as I grew up, they became dear friends.”

Dr. Leroy’s expertise in end-of-life knowledge was matched by his wife. She was an RN with a background in end-of-life care and an intuitive grasp of the spirituality of death. Dorothy shared her insights over the years, making a powerful impression on the staff and the relatives of dying patients.

The Geis family volunteered at Our Lady every Sunday. They celebrated every holiday by attending Mass with the nuns in their chapel. “The sisters always served a large meal at noon, and we would help serve the other patients,” Juliann said.

The experience shaped their young hearts.

“Our parents were very insightful: ‘We want to expose our children to this place,’” Steven said. “We learned so much. My dad said it was the closest thing to heaven.”

Over the decades, spending Sunday afternoons at the front desk, greeting visitors and answering the phone, became a touch point in each week, he said.

Once the Geis siblings had kids of their own, it was only natural to involve them at Our Lady. Steven named his firstborn after the inimitable roller-skating nun, choosing the name Faith Imelda.

“When we started having children, we asked the sisters, ‘Can we bring our kids?’” Juliann said. “We wanted them to have the same experience.”

The third generation started early. Some were baptized at Our Lady. As young kids, they continued the family tradition of volunteering, and they have helped in various capacities over the decades.

AMBITIOUS CAPITAL CAMPAIGN NEARS THE FINISH LINE

What an exciting time at Our Lady of Peace! Currently the parking lot overhaul, our first project, is almost complete. Instead of 13 spaces, our guests will have access to 41 parking spaces directly in front of our building with improved drop-off locations.

Construction on our beautiful new private rooms and renovation of our first-floor rooms will begin soon. In order to keep our patients as comfortable as possible during transition, we have consolidated care to one floor.

We are thrilled to report that 80 percent of our campaign goal has been met and the finish line is in sight. This wouldn't have happened without your support. Our gratitude runs deep. Thank you!

Watch for additional campaign updates on our website ourladyofpeacemn.org.

Starting as toddlers, Juliann's daughters came to visit patients, deliver mail and decorate for holidays. Once they were older, she invited their Girl Scout troop to Our Lady on Halloween to hand out candy. The Girl Scouts would also come over to sing for patients. Before Covid, Juliann loved to donate floral arrangements and flowers to the sisters who adorned the chapel.

She and her mom and her brothers were key supporters of Our Lady's annual luncheon, serving as table hosts and introducing many friends to their father's former workplace. "We have spread the word about Our Lady of Peace to everyone we know, for we feel it is such a treasured gem," Juliann said.

Their father died in 1995, and their mother passed away last December. Now that both of their parents have died, their connection to Our Lady endures.

"Even though our mom passed away last year, we would always want to be involved with Our Lady – rather the opposite," said Juliann. "When I pull into the newly expanded, wonderful parking lot, I feel so happy to be there! It feels like coming home."

And she looks for a sign. "A part of me hopes for a mini miracle, that I might get a sign from my mother, father or deceased brother [David], all of whom loved the home. When I see butterflies greet me in the garden, I accept that as the sign and feel their continued love for the home."

DAVE DAHL HOSTS VIRTUAL LUNCHEON

OUR LADY OF PEACE LUNCHEON

May of 2021 was still too soon to bring our family of donors together in person to celebrate the annual Friends of Our Lady Luncheon. So once again, we relied on video and loyalty to pull off our second virtual version of this much-loved event. Hosted by Twin Cities media celebrity Dave Dahl, the video presentation used a question-and-answer format to create an opportunity to learn more about services provided at OLP's residential home and through our Community Hospice and Home Health Care program. All proceeds raised were allocated to direct patient care.

CELEBRATION OF LIFE REACHES THOUSANDS ONLINE

The glow of hundreds of candles, each representing a life, lit up the chapel at Our Lady of Peace during a special Celebration of Life tribute to patients cared for during 2020.

As Covid restrictions prevented gathering in person, this special memorial service was honored through a beautiful online video presentation that reached thousands of OLP families and supporters. Names of those who passed were read aloud by care team members: Tom Cassidy, RN; Natalie Wick, RN; Kelly Pietrzak, LSW; and Janie Sydor, RN.

A SPECIAL BLESSING FROM ARCHBISHOP

On Aug. 12, Archbishop Bernard Hebda recognized the 80-year mission of Our Lady of Peace and blessed the grounds where private rooms, a protected entry, lobby, family waiting room and much-needed additional parking and drop off space will be built. He also blessed the caregivers who will care for patients and families of all faiths in these spaces and current patients who were near the end of life.

After a year and a half of providing care during a pandemic, the staff of Our Lady of Peace welcomed the opportunity to take part in a ceremony that recognized the value of the meaningful work they do every day.

SISTERS' CORNER

*Editor's note: Our Lady of Peace is blessed to have four Franciscan Clarist nuns who live on site at the hospice residence and have dedicated their lives to providing physical and spiritual care for our patients. Their gentle, steady presence is a gift to our organization, and although they typically are loath to spend time in the spotlight, they agreed to let us share their stories in The Sisters' Corner, which will be a regular feature in The Journey.*

Sister Palsy, Sister Jenny, Sister Gracelet and Sister Metty are originally from Kerala, India, which is located in the southwestern part of the Indian peninsula along the Arabian Sea. They are members of the Franciscan Clarist Congregation, an order founded in Kerala in 1888 by Bishop Charles Lavinge. The order draws inspiration from St. Francis and St. Clare of Assisi. The mission of FCC is to spread the kingdom of God through prayer, humble loving service to all – especially the sick, poor and downtrodden – total trust in the providence of God and leading all people to the love of God by bearing witness to the Gospel values, even being ready to be martyred for the sake of Jesus.

Sister Palsy and Sister Jenny have served at Our Lady of Peace Home since 2003, Sister Metty since 2011 and Sister Gracelet since 2014.

Her love for cancer patients – those without money or cure – ran deep. “God surely loves them better than He loves us unless we love them,” Mother Alphonsa wrote.

Staying true to her vision feels like a sacred duty, Joe said. He has researched St. Dominic, who founded the Dominican order, and St. Francis, who inspired the Franciscan Health Community that merged with Our Lady of Peace in 2009.

“When I think about the legacy of the sisters and their foundress – they were true to the saints that founded their orders,” Joe said. “I want people to look at this organization as a culmination of hundreds of years of founders. We could go back to Christ, if you want to go back to the very beginning. That’s where these saints and sisters came from. There’s a long support for that legacy.”

TAKING FUN SERIOUSLY

Adding joy to the workplace is always a good idea, but not necessarily easy, especially when the workplace is a hospice organization. Our Lady of Peace employees Kim Cash, Aaron Drake, Amy Koehler-Killeen, Brian Kroger, Kelly Pietzrak and Janie Sydor met this challenge head on by forming the Fun Committee, a group that brings staff from all departments together in the name of simply having a little fun and getting to know one another.

Events and projects have included a spring yard clean-up for community hospice patients, a garden party barbeque with live music, Wellness Bingo, a Little Gratuities mailbox for sharing peer-to-peer compliments, thanks and recognition, and a Get To Know You wall featuring photos of employees and answers to creative biographical questions such as: What is your favorite band? If you could go anywhere in the world, where would it be? What is something no one knows about you?

According to pharmacist and Fun Committee ringleader Aaron Drake, employees have welcomed opportunities to engage.

“Our goal is to foster relationships amongst staff members,” he said. “People seem really happy about it. They loved the summer barbeque party, and I’ve heard a lot of great comments about the Get To Know You Wall.”

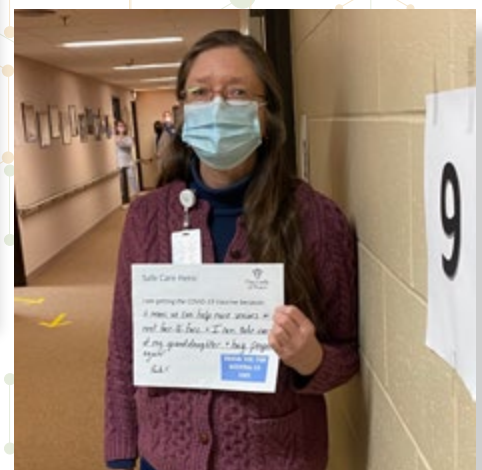

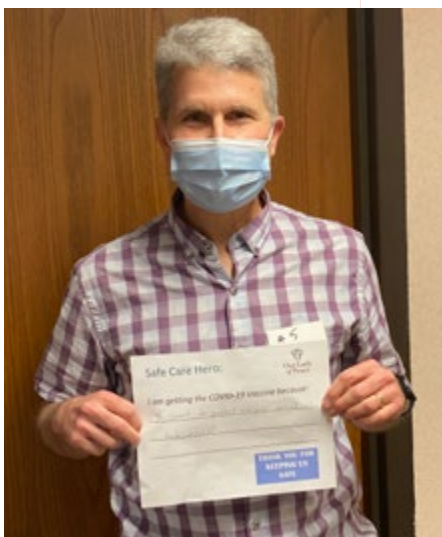

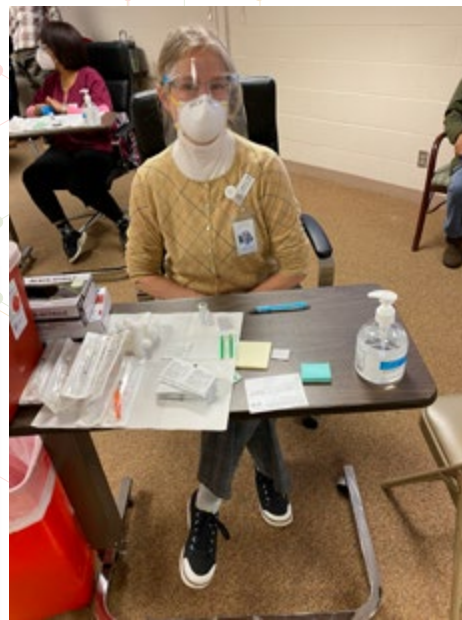

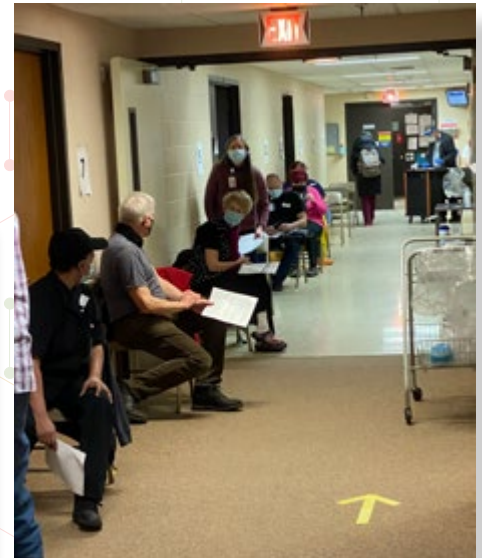

Fun Committee members extend their thanks to Nancy Larson and Kathy Wedemeyer for their support and to Fun Committee Emeriti Natalie Wick and Liz Hetmes.

TAKING THE LEAD ON COVID VACCINATIONS

As soon as a Covid 19 vaccine was available, Our Lady of Peace employees and volunteers were quick to literally roll up their sleeves to make a difference. Through several onsite clinics offered by Ramsey County and Rx Express and coordinated by OLP staff, employees and volunteers were offered the Moderna vaccine starting in January 2021.

The basement of the residential home was converted into a temporary vaccination clinic where people could be safely and quickly accommodated. By early summer, leadership was proud to report a 95 percent vaccination rate for the organization. Our thanks to everyone for doing your part to help.

Who are you getting vaccinated for? The reasons people rolled up their sleeves varied, but the goal was the same: get that immunity! Whether it was to protect an immunocompromised loved one, help slow the spread Covid, or for self-protection, it was powerful to see their smiling faces and handwritten reasons.

THE BLUEBIRD SINGS AGAIN

Writing helped Kristy Boike process her grief. Then it led to a picture book.

Kristy Boike's journey through grief has led her to unexpected places. The latest surprise: She is now a published author.

Rise Up, Little Bluebirds tells a sweet tale of grief and community through the eyes of a bluebird family that is searching for ways to keep the memory of their dear Grandma Bluebird alive. The picture book was written by Kristy, whose mother Pat Rudolph was cared for at Our Lady of Peace.

With tender text and vibrant illustrations by British artist Kathryn Inkson, the book enables parents, professionals and educators to help children see grief through a lens of hope and to give them a language to talk about difficult emotions.

times that though we might be separated from the ones we care for, love is the unending connection that binds us all," said Kristy, a Minnesota mother of four who turned to writing to help process her grief.

The book is receiving widespread praise from grief counselors. "This lovely children's book is the embodiment of how one can heal by telling their story, by helping others and by continuing legacy," said Carolyn Kinzel, president of Brighter Days Family Grief Center.

This isn't the first time Kristy has embraced a creative outlet to honor her beloved mother. She also helped her father Ron Rudolph turn his grief into a beautiful tribute by creating bluebird houses in Pat's memory. Bluebirds were her favorite bird.

Rudolph's Bluebird Houses are now sold worldwide on Facebook Marketplace, with a portion of the proceeds being donated to Our Lady of Peace.

"My mom continues to shine through me in this way," Kristy said.

FULFILLING A LONGTIME DREAM

BY LISA SWEENEY

*Lisa Sweeney,
Director of Development*

What a time to be at Our Lady of Peace!

The Covid-19 pandemic upended our operation, requiring our staff to step up in a profound new way. Now an ambitious capital campaign is underway, enabling us to provide the unthinkable for a free hospice: private rooms for each patient, at a first-rate standard. This has been a lofty dream, and we are so excited it is now within grasp, thanks to the incredible generosity of our friends and donors.

We officially began fundraising last December. Much to our delight, we raised more than 80 percent of our goal in less than eight months!

The silent phase of the campaign ran through June, providing an opportunity to meet with key supporters. Then a terrific Pioneer Press article announced our campaign. Frederick Melo did an excellent job telling our story, beginning with the account of a resident who led kung fu classes from his wheelchair here a week before his death. It garnered multiple donations, sight unseen.

Right around this time, The Wasie Foundation notified us of a $400,000 match they would provide. We were beyond thrilled!

The campaign hummed along, and in August, we received an anonymous gift of $100,000. It is incredibly touching to receive such a large donation anonymously. Someone, somewhere wanted to make a big impact and receive no credit. I pray for this person, who inspires me to give more of myself every day. The donation is being matched this fall, doubling its impact.

The finish line is near! We hope to conclude our fundraising at the end of the year. Soon we'll be celebrating our 80th birthday with spectacular entertainment and speakers. You're invited! Watch our website for updates. It will be a joyous occasion.

I commend the development team for working around the clock. Debbie Swanson and Heather Zenk are incredible colleagues! I also owe a huge thanks to my wingman Father John Malone, who knows everyone and can always crack a joke. At every turn, his wisdom and wit have lent momentum to this ambitious campaign.

This is a remarkable time for Our Lady of Peace, when our history feels so alive and our future is clearer than ever. I will always be grateful to be right here, right now.
