RIVERTON, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, JULY 4, 1935

PRICE FIVE CENTS

LET CONTRACTS FOR NEW SCHOOL

Bids Barely Enable Board to Let Contracts; Total for Construction $75,521

The Riverton Board of Education awarded contracts for the alterations and additions to its present school building at an adjourned meeting held in the school house Thursday evening. The awards marked the third attempt to secure the desired improvements at the cost approved by the voters, namely $85,000.00.

The low bidders under the various contracts, and selecting the most essential alternates, just barely permitted the board to let the contracts and proceed with the work. The total on all bids and alternates for construction was $75,521.00. The difference between this figure and the $85,000.00 allotment is composed of equipment, architects and legal fees, and miscellaneous items of expense.

The contract for general construction was awarded to the Rafferty-Kennedy Co., of Philadelphia, at a total of $53,148.00. Their base bid was $53,920.00 and the selected alternates as follows: copper drain boxes, add $28.00; boiler room flue openings, lintels, etc., add $100.00; using cast stone in place of quarry stone, deduct $300; and using asphalt tile in place of wood floors in classrooms, deduct $600.00.

The bid for structural, ornamental and miscellaneous iron work was awarded to the Camden Iron Service Co., at a total cost of $5,245.00. Their base bid was $5,265.00, from which a $20 deduction was made under alternate No. 2 for steel lintels in the event unit heating was selected.

The contract for heating and ventilating, mechanical warm air, was awarded to the American Heating and Ventilating Co., of Philadelphia, at a total cost of $8,380.00. Their base bid was $7,495.00 to which $885.00 was added under alternate No. 1 for an automatic temperature control system.

The contract for plumbing and drainage was awarded to Louis Leyman of Audubon, at a total cost of $4,703.00. His base bid was $4,300.00 to which $403.00 was added under alternate No. 1 for fire hose cabinets.

The contract for electrical work was awarded to Roland E. McMahon, of Woodbury, at a total cost of $4,045.00. His base bid was $3,995.00 to which $50 was added for wiring for secondary clocks under alternate No. 1.

Frank A. Mathews, Jr., solicitor for the board, drew the resolution awarding the contracts which are subject to the approval of the state engineer for the Public Works Administration, and which provide that the architect shall draw the necessary contracts and execute the bonds for the successful bidders, all of which shall be referred back to the board and its attorney for final approval as well as the PWA authorities.

The resolution was made by Hilton M. Smith, chairman of the building committee, seconded by Mrs. Yost and passed by the board unanimously.

The meeting adjourned to meet again Friday, July 5th.

I desire to commend publicly Chief of Police William Gootee for his quick action in response to my telephone call Monday night.

FINGERS BURNED

"Betty" Garwood, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart A. Garwood, of 402 Linden avenue, Riverton, burned several fingers of her right hand when a fire cracker, which she was lighting, exploded before she could throw it away.

She was taken to the office of Dr. C. S. Mills for treatment.

RIVERTON MAY GET NEW P. O.

Local Department One of Few Operating at Profit Records Show

Senate approval is expected soon on the second deficiency appropriation bill which provides $58,000,000 for new post office buildings throughout the United States. It is anticipated that at least one new post office will be built in each congressional district.

Forty-three New Jersey cities are expected to be affected by the bill, and Riverton has been included in the list for a building costing $65,000. The survey for Riverton was completed several years ago, but as yet no site has been announced or plans presented.

The Riverton post office, unlike a great many, has been operating at a profit to the department. Last year Riverton turned in a surplus, over and above expenses, of approximately $5,000. This year thus far, the surplus is $3,526.69.

NEW SALES TAX NOW OPERATING

Hoffman's Unpopular Measure Went Into Effect Monday. How It Works

New Jersey's 2 per cent sales tax is now in full force throughout the state, the levy having become effective one second after midnight Monday.

Motor vehicle agents have been ordered to continue issuing of licenses until July 15, an indication that the state tax department, charged with collections under the act and its enforcement, will not "crack down" on tardy applicants until after that date.

State Tax Commissioner J. H. Thayer Martin announced a large staff of canvassers will take the field this week to check every retail store in the state for possible evasion of the tax.

The size of the crew, Martin said, will depend on the difference between the number of applications filed at midnight Saturday and the number of retail stores in the state, about 90,000. All stores included in the discrepancy will be checked first.

All retailers found to be without licenses by the canvassers will be told to acquire licenses at the nearest motor vehicle agency. Shortly afterward a second check will be made, Commissioner Martin said, and if the retailer is still found to be without a license he will be subject to a penalty of $250 for each day he continues to operate his store without the proper certificate.

The tax is estimated to produce $20,000,000 a year, to be devoted to unemployment relief. The tax consists basically of 2 cents on a dollar. However, purchases for fractional amounts, as well as exemption for certain items, purchases on credit or for future delivery are some of the complications about which patrons must be informed.

Retailers are required to pass along the tax to consumers and are charged with its collection.

Stores and other retailers will be required to report gross sales on which an additional tax is payable, as well as the receipts from the direct sales tax. In many stores separate containers will be used and the tax as collected will be set aside at once. Others have elected to compute the tax at the close of the day. Reports are required on the 15th of each month.

GOOTEE ARRESTS NEGRO SUSPECT

Resident Discovers Stranger Prowling in Back Yard and Calls Police

Through the quick thinking of a Riverton citizen and the immediate response of the police, a colored man carrying a loaded revolver was apprehended at 11.40 Monday night by Chief of Police William Gootee.

When William A. Welsh, of Eighth street, opened the back door of his home to let the dog out for a run, the dog growled and went for a man near the property. The man called to Mr. Welsh to call off the dog, and Mr. Welsh asked him who he was and what he was doing. The man replied that he had been walking from Camden and was thirsty and wanted a drink of water. Mr. Welsh asked him if he would like a sandwich, too. While the man was eating the sandwich, Mr. Welsh called Chief Gootee, who responded promptly and arrested the unknown man. Upon questioning, the negro said his name was Franklin Richardson, 5821 Wayne avenue, Philadelphia, and gave his age as 35 years. He said that he had a loaded revolver which he threw in the grass, and took Gootee to the place where he had thrown the weapon. A .22 calibre, seven-shot revolver loaded with bullets was found. When asked what he was doing with the gun Richardson said that it was getting near the Fourth of July and he was going to buy some blanks for it.

Chief Gootee took the gun and put Richardson in jail. He then communicated with the Philadelphia police and found that Richardson sometimes used the name of Grant Johnson, 1117 Lombard street and was known in the neighborhood as "Yellow Rich" and that his home was on the second floor of a Chinese joint.

His finger prints have been sent to Trenton for identification, the report on which has not yet been received. However the following police record has been listed for the prowler:

Five years New Jersey State Prison, Trenton; Ten days Moyamensing prison, Philadelphia; thirty days Camden County jail, and stab marks on the back.

Richardson was given a hearing before Recorder Cecil A. Bowers, 6.30 Tuesday night and was committed to the Burlington County jail, without bail, to await the action of the grand jury, charged with carrying a concealed deadly weapon.

DROWNED AT RIVERSIDE

Frank Link, 20, of Riverside, drowned in Virginia Lake, on the Burlington pike between Bridgeboro and Burlington, last Sunday. Charles Marrin and Charles Shock, both of Riverside, who were swimming with Link, discovered that he was missing after they had dressed to return home. Marrin recovered Link's body after repeated diving and a lifesaving crew from the Burlington station of the Public Service Gas and Electric Company worked over him for several hours before he was pronounced dead.

HESS GETS ONE TO THREE YEARS

Palmyra Man Whose Wife Nearly Died from Beating Escapes With Light Sentence

Ira E. Hess, 39, of Palmyra, was sentenced to the State's prison to a term of from one to three years and fined $1000, on a charge of beating his wife with intent to kill, by Judge Frank A. Hendrickson, in Burlington County Criminal Court, last Thursday.

Hess was accused of beating his wife, Helen, 41, on March 12 while she was preparing to entrain for Philadelphia to undergo an operation. She was taken to the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital following the attack where a head wound required 36 stitches.

Hess at first claimed that his wife had fallen in the bath tub. However, following an investigation by Chief Ellis H. Parker, of the Burlington county detective bureau, he confessed. Hess was imprisoned until May 17 when his relatives in Green Castle, Pa., went his bail to the extent of $4000. On June 13 he changed a plea of not guilty to non-vult.

HOFFMAN'S PLEA FOR COOPERATION

Governor Claims Economy Program Alone Would Not Answer

Officially releasing the sales tax measure on Monday Governor Harold G. Hoffman made a plea to the consumers of New Jersey for cooperation in collecting $20,000,000 through the tax for emergency relief.

The State's Chief Executive said in a statement the tax presented the only sound method of raising the $2,000,000 monthly quota demanded by the Federal Government. He promised to seek a reduction of the quota, pledging that any surplus from the sales tax would be diverted to ease real estate levies.

Governor Hoffman said in part: "Today the sales tax goes into effect. You will all be conscious of it, for there will be daily reminders, and you will regard it—as it probably is—as a 'nuisance tax.' When I was inaugurated Governor of New Jersey last January I advocated this tax. I was firmly convinced of its necessity—not of its popularity.

"In my inaugural message, I said that it was our first obligation, regardless of politics, to furnish food, clothing and shelter for the needy and unemployed. I assure you that without the sales tax, in a comparatively short time, there would have been great distress in New Jersey.

"Some members of the Legislature in opposing this tax, were undoubtedly sincere; they may have believed implicitly in the figures presented by those who for various reasons represented—or rather misrepresented—that twenty-four millions of dollars could be easily obtained through economies in State government and through spasmodic diversion of funds.

"If every diversion and economy suggested by this group could have been effected, regardless of whether they were possible or practical, we would have been short by over five millions of dollars in financing relief up to January 1, 1936.

PIPE EXPLODES

E. K. Merrill had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon when a pipe he had just lighted and was about to smoke exploded in his hand. The pipe was blown to bits and three fingers on his right hand were badly torn and burned.

Mr. Merrill placed his pipe in a desk in the club house while he participated in the canoe events, and apparently some practical joker mixed powder with the tobacco.

CO. HELPS WIDEN RIVERTON STREET

Main Street North and South May Be Widened With Freeholders' Aid

The Burlington County Board of Freeholders passed a resolution agreeing to stand one quarter of the cost of widening the South side of Main street, Riverton, in accordance with a request from a delegation of Riverton citizens attending the meeting Friday morning at Mt. Holly.

The delegation consisted of H. McI. Biddle, mayor of Riverton; E. L. Williams, president of the Cinnaminson Bank and Trust Co.; Hilton M. Smith, road contractor; Arthur W. Lewis, attorney, and Otto H. Nieland, contractor.

Mr. Lewis addressed the freeholders stating that they were a self-appointed delegation without official authority, but several of the citizens were interested in widening Main street on the South side, in the business section.

Street Dedicated 70 Feet

He stated that Main street, a county road, was 37 feet wide at present, but dedicated 70 feet. The present building line as it may be determined is approximately 37 feet from the present curb.

Lewis stated that a petition is being circulated among the property owners affected to have the borough council establish the building line at 27 feet and widen the South side of Main street 10 feet.

If this can be accomplished, he said, the business district will be greatly improved, bringing the fronts of business houses nearer to passersby and providing ample parking facilities.

The area affected by the change, if it can be accomplished, will run a distance of 265 feet South of the railroad and 325 feet North of the railroad on the South side of Main street.

ERA Labor

The estimated cost of widening the street for the distances given is $6,600. The County ERA, through W. Rex McCrosson, has agreed to furnish all labor free of charge, thereby cutting the estimated cost to $3,300.

Mr. Lewis asked the freeholders if they would share equally with the borough government the remaining half, or $1,650 each, which in reality he stated is one quarter of the normal cost.

Director Adams of the Board of Freeholders stated that such things had been done before, and he could see no reason why the county would not be willing to do it for Riverton.

The solicitor for the board, Lester A. Drenk, and Mr. Lewis framed a resolution committing the county for its share of the cost when the funds are available and contingent upon the borough changing its ordinance to make the improvement, which was passed unanimously.

Other Improvements Planned

Mr. Lewis stated that he represented the owner of a property in the affected area who has already started construction and asked for the Freeholder action that no time might be wasted in proceeding with the building. He further stated that his client was planning to erect a building costing between $12,000 and $15,000 which should be quite an improvement to Riverton's business section.

Freeholder Cook offered a resolution authorizing the purchase of a new Ford V-8 truck from Daniel Lemmon, of Browns Mills, and trading in a 1930 Stewart truck, the cost being $871.94 less a trade in allowance of $235 on the old truck.

Lemmon Lowest Bidder

Freeholder Heisler asked why Daniel Lemmon was getting all of the county automobile orders and Cook replied that he gave the lowest figure. The resolution was passed unanimously.

Permission was granted Public Service to erect one anchor guide pole on Burlington avenue in Delanco.

Freeholder Jones offered a resolution recommending the granting of the application of Moorestown Township to open Camden avenue to construct a storm sewer in accordance with their request of the previous meeting, providing that the road be restored to satisfactory condition after the work is completed.

The resolution passed. Freeholder Heisler stated that the county would release moneys due the Delanco school district in proportion to the payment of taxes due the county and by the township. He stated that he would explain the matter to the Delanco board of education.

State Will Bury Veterans

Thomas H. Phares, of Mt. Holly, was appointed County Service Officer to supervise the burial of veterans' remains and all applications for headstones are to be made from the United States Government.

Director Adams reported that at the hearing on the channel deepening project for the Delaware river held in Washington, he had requested that the channel be brought in to the Burlington City piers in order that shipping facilities might be improved for the county.

Adams stated that he had received unofficial notice that the request would be granted.

Specifications Approved

Freeholder Jones reported that the State Highway Department had approved the specification for road materials and that bids would be opened at the next meeting of the board, July 12th.

A letter from the State Engineer of the PWA was read stating that the matter of securing the release of the present grant for the Delanco bridge would be taken up with Washington at once.

A letter was read from the New Jersey State auditor in which he stated that an audit of delinquent accounts at the Sanitorium of Tubercular Diseases would be made at the earliest possible date.

A resolution directed to the Board of Freeholders from the Township of North Hanover was read by the clerk in which it stated that the township would be willing to share the cost of procuring rights of way and engineering fees for the three and one half miles of secondary road known as the Monmouth road, passing through their township, providing the funds are made available from the State allotment on secondary roads. The resolution was received and filed.

Suggests Switchboard System

The clerk read a voluminous report from the engineering department of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company suggesting a new switchboard central system for county telephones. The net saving to the county would be $24.74 monthly but the county would have to employ an operator to run the system. Sheriff Wimer and Louis J. Kiser, county superintendent of schools, objected to the system it was stated.

The matter was held over for a conference with all department heads in the afternoon of the next regular board meeting.

The New Jersey Sanitorium for Tuberculosis at Glenn Gardner asked the freeholders to pay for replacing teeth extracted at the sanitorium for county patients. They stated that the recovery of patients depended in part upon the teeth and while the institution did the extracting free, they felt the county should pay for replacements. The communication was received and filed and the clerk instructed to get an opinion from Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb.

New Members Welfare Board

Freeholder Jones nominated Simon Meyers, of Moorestown, and Wm. S. Freely, of Mt. Holly, to fill two vacancies on the County Welfare Board for four and five year terms respectively. They were unanimously confirmed.

A discussion that consumed the better part of an hour was held on whether the purchase of 14 cows for the supply of milk to the tubercular sanitorium at New Lisbon. Director Adams, under whose department the matter falls, contended that the purchase could be construed an emergency, and as such a note for $2,000 should be issued to make the purchase.

Adams Denied Cows

Freeholder Heisler and Stout both claimed that the item for the purchase of cows had been discussed at the time the budget was made up and Adams wanted to cut his department.

TIPS ON GROWING

BY ONE WHO GREW UP IN THE BUSINESS

J. H. Nicholas, author of "The Rose Manual" and other books on Roses, admiring the new scarlet No. 401-33 in the Rose Trial Garden at Memorial Park last Tuesday, suggested as a good name "Pousse Coillou." This was a trifle too Gallic for the writer and he asked a smiling French friend "how come?"

Monsieur said the name was a good one all right, a slang term for the French point of the old days, referring to their scarlet pants, but he was afraid the American public wouldn't get it.

Being a hardshelled Republican, the writer is swollen with pride at the wonderful showing made by the Rose President Hoover in the garden, but admits that Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt is extremely lovely and well worthy to be named after the First Lady of the Land.

Philadelphians who are not able to make the pilgrimage to Washington in the spring to see the cherry trees in bloom, may in the future view their own private show—two hundred of the Japanese Cherry trees having been planted in Fairmont Park around Gustine Lake.

In the writer's humble belief the outstanding Rose last week in the Great Rose Trial Garden, opposite Memorial Park, was the lovely scarlet and gold variety Hinrich Gaede. And the pin-headed Teuton who indicated that horror of a name on such a beautiful flower should be shot at sunrise.

Some of these days it is said a bright new star will appear in the horticultural firmament—a golden-yellow Wisteria. This really does not seem to be possible, but those who have seen the original plant say it is a true Wisteria (not a Laburnum) and that it is a true golden-yellow. Let's hope it is a fact. Imagine the eaves of a building covered in the spring before the leaves appear with pendant intertwined clusters of blue and gold and ment to the bone.

Adams stated that there was not enough money to make the purchase in his department without overdrawing, and that, he claimed, he would not do.

Adams stated that he planned to have C. A. Thompson, rural farm agent, go to Wisconsin to purchase the cows for the county to be sure of getting good ones.

Freeholder Cook stated that this was a bad season of the year to establish a herd of cows, and that no guarantee of securing a balanced herd could be had. He further stated that the price the county was paying for milk for the institution seemed reasonable enough.

Director Adams called for a vote as to whether or not the matter could be considered an emergency, with the result that his plan was defeated. Heisler and Stout voted in the negative. Director Adams did not vote and declared the motion lost.

Work Stopped—Investigation Director Adams reported that there were not enough funds in his appropriation to complete the sewage disposal plant at the almost-emptied plant at the almost-emptied plant that the construction be shut down for further investigation and report, which passed unanimously.

The following department bills were ordered paid: Buildings, $13,018.91; roads, $4,571.15; bridges, $2,208.87; affairs, $3,510.91; revenue and finance, $7,324.65. Total, $30,634.49.

A Dud

At the windup of the county business Director Adams attempted to "start something" by asking Freeholder Stout if he had considered any further "the matter they took up with him at the last meeting" (presumably meaning the alleged misuse of county help on his (Stout's) farm). Stout replied that he had referred the matter to his attorney, and if there was anything further they cared to say about it, they could communicate with him.

perhaps white. The effect would be truly glorious.

A swampy wet spot in the grounds, instead of a weed-infested locality, can be made a place of beauty and interest by setting out plants that are suitable for boggy ground. Even if it is just a low spot in the garden and you would like to try some plants suitable for a bog, dig out a shallow depression and keep the ground thoroughly soaked with a hose. Among the plants which you could grow in such a spot would be: Caltha Palustris (Marsh Marigold), Japanese Iris in variety, Cardinal Flower, Pickering Weed, Sagittaria Mixed, Sarracenia Purpurea, Saururus Cernuus, Typha Latifolia (Cat Tail), Rose Mallows, Buttercup, Loosestrife, and some Hardy Ferns, especially Osmunda.

That lovely house plant handicapped by the unwieldy botanical name Beloperone Gutata and the prosaic popular one of Shrimp Plant is now known, since exhibited in the Horticultural Building at "A Century of Progress," as "The Brazilian Shower Plant." That's better!

AUTOS CRASH INTO R.R. TRAINS

As one indication among many of the extent to which complete disregard of precaution is a cause of railroad grade crossing accidents, an analysis just made of those occurring on the Pennsylvania Railroad System during the first four months of 1935 shows that in one-third of the cases the vehicles were driven into the sides of trains.

These accidents—thirty-two in number and every one entirely avoidable—took a toll of eleven lives and caused injury to forty-six persons.

Exactly half of these accidents took place when the trains into which the motor vehicles crashed were either standing still or moving at less than ten miles an hour. In many of the cases the motorists drove through closed crossing gates. Three-quarters of the accidents occurred when the weather was clear.

Miss Edna Mae Barker, of Camden, former Palmyra girl, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Bell Barker, became the bride of Albert E. Steeb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Steeb, of Philadelphia, in the State Street M. E. Church, Camden.

The ceremony took place at 8:00 o'clock with the pastor of the church the Rev. William Payne, officiating. Clinton D. Lowden, of Camden, played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Joseph Munger in vocal selections.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Andrew Parker, of Cinnaminson avenue. She wore a gown of white satin buttoned down the back and made with leg o' mutton sleeves and a train. Her veil was finger tip length in front and extended to a train in back. It fell from a cap of tulle and orange blossoms. She carried Easter lilies.

Mrs. Paul Land, of Camden, a former resident of Palmyra, was her sister's matron of honor and wore a gown of mouseline de soie in a delicate shade of blue. Her hat was of pink maline, her accessories were of pink and she carried pink roses. Miss Myrtle Perkins, of Camden, and Miss Marie J. Jander, of Horace avenue, Palmyra, were the bridesmaids. Like the matron of honor they wore frocks of mouseline de soie in peach. Their accessories matched their dresses and they wore matching horse hair hats and carried Talisman roses. Edith C. Senate President Prall will name two representatives from that body, and Speaker Clew will designate a like number from the House.

HOFFMAN NAMES COMMISSIONERS

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Andrew Parker, of Cinnaminson avenue. She wore a gown of white satin buttoned down the back and made with leg o' mutton sleeves and a train. Her veil was finger tip length in front and extended to a train in back. It fell from a cap of tulle and orange blossoms. She carried Easter lilies.

Mrs. Paul Land, of Camden, a former resident of Palmyra, was her sister's matron of honor and wore a gown of mouseline de soie in a delicate shade of blue. Her hat was of pink maline, her accessories were of pink and she carried pink roses. Miss Myrtle Perkins, of Camden, and Miss Marie J. Jander, of Horace avenue, Palmyra, were the bridesmaids. Like the matron of honor they wore frocks of mouseline de soie in peach. Their accessories matched their dresses and they wore matching horse hair hats and carried Talisman roses. Edith C. Miller, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Paul Land was best man and the ushers were: Ernest Steeb, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Garriety, of Runnemede.

A reception was held at the Land home, 318 Carteret street, following the ceremony, after which Mr. Steeb and his bride left for a motor tour of New England. They will be at home after August 1, at 32 West Cedar avenue, Merchantville.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Eleanor Frantz, daughter of Harry A. Frantz, of 422 E. Second street, Moorestown, and the late Mrs. Nina G. Frantz, to J. Sharpless Richie, of Cinnaminson, which was solemnized with extreme simplicity on the bride's birthday, Monday evening, June 24th, at the home of the bride. The marriage was performed by the Rev. James F. Boughton, pastor of Broadway M. E. Church, Camden, combined with Friends' ceremony.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's mother, only members of the immediate families were present. Mr. Richie and his bride left immediately for a trip in the Catskill Mountains and will be at home after July 15th at Sunnyslope Farm, Branch Pike, Riverton.

Camp Ockanickon opened its 29th season for boys last Saturday, June 29, with a camp family of 202. This is a very good number for the first week and will be very much larger for the next two weeks, probably reaching a total of 300.

Saturday, July 6, in the evening, there will be the regular stunt night put on by the various tent groups. Camp is running on standard time so those who plan to visit the campers may figure that the various items on the program will be one hour later than usual.

OPEN DURING SUMMER The Emma A. Price Music Studio, 416 Lippincott avenue, Riverton, will be open for pupils wishing to study during the summer months. Miss Price will teach piano and Miss Bennett will teach modern string instruments. Special price for beginners and group lessons. Phone Riverton 806. Adv.it

He Had It Coming to Him

The rebuff which President Roosevelt received (on his holding companies measure) at the hands of the House the first of the week had been coming to him since the first day he occupied the executive chair.

While the depression unquestionably placed him in the saddle, his personal popularity was also a factor not to be denied.

Evidently failing to realize that great power also brought great responsibility, and that grand promises must eventuate in either performance or disaster, the President proceeded to inflict upon a free people a tyranny such as had never been dreamed of in this country.

Many citizens have wondered when they were going to start paying for the New Deal spending spree, the most extravagant peacetime program in the history of our country.

than to gratify a pet peeve of the President. Angered by the refusal of the members of the House to respond to the lash, and thinking many of the members would not dare to stand against his measure in a recorded vote, the President ordered a vote by roll call.

There is a rapidly growing conviction that the only way to secure recovery and at the same time retain our American institutions is to purge the administration of the impractical theorists and worse, whose chief ambition seems to be to ape the dictatorships of Europe, and are willing to sacrifice everything, even recovery, to the accomplishment of that end.

Sales of tangible personal property for resale are not sales with the meaning of the act, said the commissioner, but in order to obtain deductions for such transactions the retailers must support his claim with properly executed resale certificates.

The State Civil Service Commission announced that persons employed in the sales tax division of the State Tax Department will be taken from appropriate employment and re-employment lists.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"God" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 7. The Golden Text is: "There is none holy as the Lord: for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God" (1 Samuel 2:2).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord. Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation" (Zechariah 2:10,13).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "A limitless Mind cannot proceed from physical limitations. Finiteness cannot present the idea or the vastness of infinity. A mind originating from a finite or material source must be limited and finite. Infinite Mind is the creator, and creation is the infinite image or idea emanating from this Mind. If Mind is within and without all things, then all is Mind; and this definition is scientific" (p. 256).

Tremendous Trifles

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON
TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

IN THE spring of 1898 a Swedish tailor in Berkeley, Calif., read an advertisement in a San Francisco paper that said "Tailors wanted for a whaling cruise in Alaskan waters." He applied for the job. A few days later he was aboard the whaler "Helleance."
"Get aloft there and help unfurl them sails!" bellowed the first mate to Eric. "You go yump in the ocean," was Eric's calm reply. But before the mate's fist could crash into his face, the captain, Swedish-born and a kindly soul, interfered. To his demand for an explanation Eric produced a crumpled newspaper clipping and pointed to the "Help Wanted" advertisement.
"The newspaper made a mistake," said the captain with a laugh. "I wanted sailors, not tailors." But Eric was very angry and only the captain's assurance that he could travel as a passenger until they put in at Port Clarence, calmed him.
There he got a boat and started down the coast. At the mouth of the Sitouk river he met with three prospectors who had found a little gold there and they gave him a small nugget. A short time later Eric showed this to an Eskimo chief who pointed up toward the hills and exclaimed excitedly, "Umalaktok, unalaktok emetna!" meaning "much more the same." The chief then took him up the river to where it forked and there by searching in the gravel they were able to pick out large pieces of coarse gold.
At first this place was known as Snake river but later when a horde of frenzied fortune-seekers pitched their tents and built their shacks there it became Nome City. Thus a typographical error launched one of the greatest gold rushes in all history.

12th WARD TRIMS LOCAL TEAM 7-2

Bad Third Inning Gives Strong Camden Nine the Edge on Holiday Game

Clay. Weikman's brilliant relief pitching and hitting failed to turn the tide against 12th Ward before the largest gathering of the season on July 4th. Clay. Weikman, Dusty Coles in the third inning and allowed only one earned run for the balance of the game.

A big third inning in which the visitors took liberties with Dusty's slants put the game on ice. Three hits, two free tickets and two errors with a couple of outs produced the winning tallies.

On Saturday, Riverton will act as host to the strong Philadelphia, Pa., club. Game starts at 3:15.

Next Wednesday evening, Bill Reagle's Palmyra club will be met in the second of a five game series. Palmyra will present a formidable array of Burlington County League players. Those who witnessed the first game played in Palmyra were treated to the best game of the season. Riverton finished on the long end of a 6 to 2 score and are out to make it two straight.

REGARS-TEDELY

Miss Sarah M. Tedely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tedely, of 600 Arch street, became the bride of Frederick C. Regars, son of Fredrick Regars, of 508 W. Broad street, Saturday evening, at 6:00 o'clock, in the Central Baptist Church. The Rev. George Lockett, pastor of the church, officiated.

Miss Mary Tedely, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Gene Portner, a cousin of the bridegroom, was the best man.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's aunt, Mrs. J. A. Davis, of Broad and Arch streets. The young couple are now on a honeymoon in Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home at 626 W. Sixth street.

ADVANCED BY P.S.
Two executive assistants—Philip F. Maguire for the Central Division and William L. Worth for the Southern Division—were appointed, effective June 24, by the board of directors of the underlying companies of Public Service Corporation of New Jersey.

Mr. Worth has been identified with Public Service transportation companies in a supervisory capacity since November 28, 1928. Prior to that he had operated, with his father the Tri-State Passenger Line, Inc., a bus line between Mt. Holly and Philadelphia and the Worth Bus Corporation operating between Burlington and Philadelphia. Both those companies became part of the Public Service transportation system January 1, 1930. Mr. Worth lives in Beverly.

"NEW DEAL" MUD VOLCANO AGAIN IN ACTION
Inactive for several weeks, the New Deal mud volcano erupted again on Friday, bespattering some within reach of its vicious discharge. Final appraisal of the damage done will probably show that the boy Freeholders, who touched off the subterranean batteries and viewed the scene with such obvious glee, have suffered most.

So obvious was the attempt to ruin Charles R. Stout, late Director of County Roads, in their trumped-up attack that the instant reaction throughout the county, among fair-minded people, has been one of hot resentment. Nobody was deceived when Freeholder Jones unctiously deplored the "necessity" of presenting a bill, made out to Mr. Stout, for $4,666 and allegedly representing the latter's indebtedness to the county for materials, labor and use of equipment in improvements made on his farm in Florence township, and covering a span of three years. It was all so plainly a part of the boy Freeholders' obsession against their colleague, that Jones' crocodile tears in engineering this the most dastardly of all the Raw Dealers' attempts to stand-roller over everyone daring to team in their way, has only downed two huckleberry pies with a speed and thoroughness that would shame an ostrich. He received an automatic pencil. His next nearest opponent, Joseph Mathews, won a fountain pen. Burns, the champion, remarked that he swallowed two pies whole which would put him in good shape for the swimming race which followed two hours later.

Clem Lewis, Fred Ulmer, John Lenard and Lloyd Lenard were the winners in the tug of war and each received a tie clasp and pin.

Playground Ball

The Riverton Firemen and the Riverside Firemen representing the soft ball leagues from both towns engaged in a one-and-a-half ball game at Memorial Park at 1:30 p.m.

The local smoke eaters had too much smoke for the visitors and when the conflagration was over the Riverton team had 20 runs piled up against the visitors' 1.

In fairness to the visitors it must be stated that Riverton has four years experience at playground ball to its credit, while in Riverside the sport is just beginning to take hold.

Hundreds of people surrounded the miniature diamond and added much to the fun in the game with enthusiastic rooting, which after all is half the sport in playground baseball.

The Yacht Races

Sail boating as a sport is fast regaining its former place on the Delaware River, especially at the Riverton Yacht Club. This Fourth of July there were more boats in the races than have participated in the last fifteen years. Three classes of races were sailed as well as a free-for-all race.

The first class over the starting line was the Saw and Hatchet design. There were six boats in this race and it was closely contested for the first lap. During the second lap Bert Shoemaker gained an ample lead to finish first. Ted Hunn and his "Sneither" finished second. These boats, painted in various colors, made a very pretty sight.

The next race was the 16-foot class and three boats were entered. The Sala Rias, sailed by Rodman Merrill, was first, and the Viola, sailed by Bill Jackson, was second, the other boat being disqualified because of a foul.

The L. I. class started only two boats but they rounded the course in fast fashion with Mr. Merrill in his "Bob" winning by a small margin. A free-for-all race in which eleven boats were entered was very exciting, with the lead see-sawing between the Sala Rias and the Sneither. The Sala Rias, sailed by Rodman Merrill, came out in the lead at the finish, however.

These races were all special Fourth of July races and do not affect the regular series races which are sailed every Saturday afternoon and witnessed by many who are interested in these contests.

GOODWIN OUT FOR CORONER

Riverton Man Will Be Candidate For Nomination on the Republican Ticket

James J. Goodwin, of Riverton, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Coroner at the Primary Election to be held on Tuesday, September 17, 1935.

Goodwin, who is thirty-four years old, was born and raised in Moorestown until seven years ago, when he moved with his parents to Riverton. He has served as a director and secretary of the Riverton Fire Company for six years. He is also secretary of the Burlington County Fire Police Association, which was organized recently, and the first unit to be incorporated in this state.

served to rally Freeholder Stout's friends to his support more loyally than ever.

Presumably the presentation of the "bill" by Jones, without action of any kind by the Board at Friday's meeting, is to be followed by litigation. It should be, whether Jones, Adams and their puppet, Cook, think better of it or not. One thing is quite certain: Freeholder Stout will not rest under the imputation of the character assassins. Whether or not they, having injected the poison in the public mind, retreat once more to the dark passages where they hatch their plots, the "scandal" is sure to find its way into court. If not on their initiative, then upon Freeholder Stout's demand for a thorough airing of the "charges."

One more thought occurs in this connection: If the young politicians, responsible for the latest effort to fortify themselves in their highly perilous position, think they have created a back-fire which will render them safe from the conflagration fore to follow, they were never before in such a Fool's Paradise.—New Jersey Mirror, Mount Holly.

LET'S HAVE A SHOWDOWN NOW

Charges of grave importance have been made against Freeholder Charles R. Stout, and the need for an immediate investigation is imperative. If the accusations are proved, Freeholder Stout's political career comes to an abrupt and dishonorable conclusion. If they are not substantiated, then the political careers of his accusers are not worth a dime chain letter. Either way, somebody's going to get hurt.

The "New Deal" freeholders, Palmer L. Adams, and Albert C. Jones, have accused Stout of using county employees and paying them with county money for work done on his farm, to the amount of $4,666.68, over a period of three years, 1932, '33 and '34.

The "New Dealers" presented Stout with a bill for the work and Stout refused to pay it, declaring that the charges were false. Adams and Jones insist that they have proof of Stout's malfeasance and threaten suit to collect the money. Stout says, "Go ahead and sue!"

Well, somebody's wrong, decidedly wrong, and it doesn't take any investigation to reach that conclusion. But WHO is wrong? That's what interests the Tribune. That's what interests the taxpayers of Burlington county—after all, it's their money.

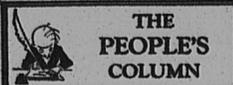

If Adams and Jones cannot prove their accusations they had no right to make them. If they can prove them, it is their duty to present formal charges to sign a criminal complaint against Stout.

And the proper time to do that is not next month or next year. Let's have a showdown NOW.—Triple Towns Tribune, Riverside.

FAIR PLAY

Editor The New Era:

A number of my friends and acquaintances who were employed at the New York Ship are out of work, and fast getting out of funds, owing to the strike, which is depriving them of a chance to make a living.

Since about all you see in the papers is the side of the strike leaders, I thought you might be willing to publish the attached letter, which is one of several similar ones issued by the Company, and which shows their attitude, which seems to me to be a reasonable one.

Interested. New York Shipbuilding Corporation Main Office and Works Camden, New Jersey, U. S. A.

Camden, June 25, 1935.

To the Employees of New York Shipbuilding Corporation:

Since it is impossible to answer each one of the hundreds of written and verbal inquiries and expressions of willingness to return to work, we wish to answer here, in some of the most important questions that have been raised.

It is almost seven weeks since the Negotiating Committee called a strike on May 9th. This strike was called after a meeting between the Negotiating Committee and your General Manager the afternoon of May 9th, at which time the Negotiating Committee refused to submit to you the agreement that the company proposed. Since that time you have lost in pay more than $800,000.

To the best of our ability we have in letters addressed to you at your homes aimed to give you the truth about the whole situation and the position it has been necessary for us to take in the best interest of all concerned. In talking with the Negotiating Committee we have at no time said anything that would in the least lead them to believe that we would change this position, and of which you were advised in our letter of May 2nd where we stated that the Corporation cannot agree "to the demands of the Union for a preferential or closed shop; interference with piece work by which employees can earn more money; nor the demand for raises in wages."

Every possible attempt has been made by the Negotiating Committee to bring such influence to bear that would force us to accept the terms and conditions that we know would ruin this yard. These attempts naturally were unsuccessful.

Although we pay more than other shipyards and the highest wages in the district, as reported by the Metal Manufacturers Association of Philadelphia, we have no intention of reducing our present hourly rates. Regardless of age we will take back our employees and, if the work is available, place them in the same jobs at the rate in force before this strike.

Recognizing to the fullest extent that satisfied employees are its most valuable asset, the management will protect the men's interest. By protection we mean that we will deal fairly and squarely with everyone, and all alike, and will not discriminate against any man of any association if otherwise he is honest, capable and worthy. We will also give you full protection against discrimination and blacklisting that you may have been threatened with because of lack of active interest in the strike.

You no doubt know that every possible effort was made to call a strike at Quincy by the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America at the Bethlehem Fore River Plant. Demands, the same as those submitted to this company, were submitted to the management of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation and were refused by them. On June 11th a meeting was held at Quincy in order to take a strike vote to enforce the Union's demands. Van Gelder and Green, as you can well imagine, put forth their best efforts in their endeavor to persuade those in attendance to vote for a strike. The best that they were able to accomplish was a vote not to vote on a strike. At the plant of the Newport New Shipbuilding Company similar

Vice President National Republican Builders

Roosevelt Revealed

Since the Supreme Court's decision of May 27, President Roosevelt has, I think, hurt himself more in the eyes of the people than he has done in all the two years before it. He has revealed himself in a way that has made clear to a general audience the defects and dangers which have been steadily charged efforts to bring about a strike failed. In view of the fact that we have had two strikes and there has been no strike at the Bethlehem Yard or the Newport News Yard, it is very questionable whether we will secure any of the new contracts that will be given out this year, even though we may be the lowest bidder. Thus you can see that this directly affects your chances for steady employment.

We are again enclosing a copy of our agreement and are appealing to you to read it over carefully. If there should be anything in this agreement that is not understood, do not hesitate to discuss such points with someone who is disinterested. If you finally decide that you have been led, or rather misled, into a situation that is ruinous both to you and to the Company, and that in the interest of everyone concerned you should return to your jobs where you have been earning a good wage, then make it clear to the Negotiating Committee what your real wishes are and request them to call off the strike. Although you have been told that it is our intention to "break the Union," we want to repeat that we have no such intention or desire, but on the other hand we cannot permit the Union to ruin the Yard and thereby hurt your chances for permanent employment.

Very truly yours, J. F. Metten, President.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Editor The New Era:

As I mingled with the crowds yesterday, it seemed to me that people this year celebrated Independence Day—not just the Fourth of July. There was, of course, the bang of fireworks, the flare of skyrockets and all that, but the serious expression on many of the faces I observed seemed to indicate a growing consciousness on the part of the masses that since the last observance of this day which has come to be taken as a matter of course, much has transpired to seriously threaten that liberty which we have believed was firmly secured by that immortal document upon which our government is based.

America has flourished under that form of government whose basic inspiration was the simple word "liberty." It has been a land of equal opportunity for all, and individual initiative has been encouraged and rewarded, rather than stifled. We believe that the desire for personal liberty that inspired the signing of the Declaration of Independence 159 years ago is just as strong in the hearts of the American people today. And if necessary, they will resort to similar methods to preserve or restore it, should it be taken from them.

When a government, republican in character becomes distorted to the point where its sovereignty no longer resides in the people but is lodged with an individual—then are the individual rights and liberties of its people threatened. The delegation of unprecedented powers to an individual by the Congress of the United States carried a serious threat, the importance of which few people realized until the recent Supreme Court decision in the case of the NRA awakened them to the fact that the United States has a Constitution.

America has been awakened to a new consciousness concerning its constitutional rights, and if its people place the same value on liberty that the signers of the Declaration of Independence did, they must be prepared to defend it as vigorously as their forefathers fought to secure it. Patriot.

important and intricate that Congressional leaders were free to pick their own time for action upon it. The About Face Counter-Blow No. 2 was the about-face of Monday in which Mr. Roosevelt ordered that this paramount change in a great national policy be whipped into bill form and rushed through Congress by Saturday night.

Misstep No. 2 was revealed by the opposition of the country and the rebellion of Congress. Half-recovery may come, before this is printed, in some form allowing the President's "sincerity" to be upheld without the egregious unfairness of passing the tax bill now.

There was there, amongst Republicans, a fresh and deep distrust of Mr. Roosevelt's personal and political stability. RIVERTON WINS 3 BALL GAMES

Palmyra, Maple Shade and East Falls, Snowed Under an Avalanche of Hits

Dusty Coles continued his brilliant pitching against the pick of the Burlington County League, representing Palmyra when he held the heavy hitting clan to four hits and one earned run last Friday evening.

Trailing by a two to nothing score going into the sixth inning Riverton's heavy guns found the range of Schiele's slants and pushed across four tallies when Bill Baker walked, Conway singled, Jack Easley doubled, Foulke walked, Jim Reeves singled and Wagner's inglorious miff of Wolfe's tall fly to left field. Riverton pushed across two more runs in the eighth on an error, double and two singles.

Scoreboard for Riverton vs Palmyra. Going into the last of the seventh trailing by five runs, the Knights were refreshed by a downpour of rain (with the sun out) which left the air full of ozone. The ozone inspired the Knights to further deeds of valour, but they fell two runs short of tying the score. Buivadas for the Knights had four hits, while Smith of the Whitman team had three, each man leading his respective side. The feature of the game was a nine-run Whitman rally in the initial frame. Knights 250 001 021-12; Whitman 900 030 20x-14.

Led by the diminutive Art Terrell Riverton buried Maple Shade under an avalanche of hits and walked off with a onesided victory, score 12-2, Saturday. "Jiggy" Foulke had things very much his own way and was never in danger of dropping the decision.

Josh Bartley came through with three resounding doubles, two of which would have been good for home runs if it had not been for the soft ball backstop in left center field.

Climaxing a week of winning ball Riverton journeyed to East Falls on Sunday and romped off with another onesided victory, score 8-3. "Sluggo" Terrell again led the procession with five out of six and had hit safely ten straight times. His last trip found the home clan third sacker coming up with his hot smash along the foul line and tossing him out at first to snap one of the best hitting streaks ever performed by a Riverton player.

Freddie Conway and Bill Baker each broke off three hits to clear the way for Clayt. Weikman's seventh straight victory. He has yet to be charged with a loss.

Whitman 14-Knights 12. July 24. Tonight's game was a rather Ivanhoe-ish affair with one Knight, Whitman pitcher, taking on a whole slew of Knights (of Columbus) and setting them on their beans' ends to the tune of fourteen to twelve on the field of valour at Asby-de-la-Riverton. Fortunately no one was injured, altho Peter Malone got a nasty kick when he tried illegally to cover first.

Not that I want to rake any skeletons out of the closet, but the thought just struck me about two inches above the base of the brain that here in tonight's game played the two teams that several years ago had the post-mortem experts going on the episode of the loaded bat. Now that the Wesleyans are largely absorbed into Scherings, the other teams had better look out or they will try to ring in a length of pipe instead of a bat.

Sometime along about now a word of appreciation should be said for Scorer Mathews who does some nimble and accurate work with the scorebook and pencil, and who has been doing it faithfully for quite a while.

Whitman 11-Tak-Aboust 3. July 1. Come up to the field, father, here's a package from Dick. Thus we might paraphrase Walt Whitman's poem to describe how he might have felt had he known of his team's upsetting victory over the Tak-Aboust team at the field this evening. The final score was 11 to 3.

Athletics 12-Drereers 5. July 2. Getting back somewhat into their old form, the Athletics this twilight laced out twenty-seven hits and harvested twelve runs to defeat the Dreer ten on the East diamond. They would probably have done the same thing on the West diamond. In fact, they might even do it on the North or South diamond, except for the unfortunate fact that there are no such.

Shea and Williams of the Farmers and S. McDermott, Perucci and Tony Gonteski of the Nurserymen each smote three hits each, leading their teams at bat. Tony also hit a home run, as did Cad Schaefer of the A's.

At this juncture, it might be polite to thank the Broadway movies at Palmyra for their generous offer of Switzerland 8-Firemen 1. July 1. The Scherwing team gave the Firemen's hope for a second half championship a deft kick in the head by knocking off what is generally considered to be a strong Hose Company team by a tally of eight to one. Horace Finney, Jr., and George Long, erstwhile teammates on the defunct Wesleyans, were pitted against each other on the hurrying mound, and notwithstanding Finney's long experiences as a soft-ball pitcher, Long won. He pitched a steady game; his team's hits were well placed, and potential base knocks off his deliveries stuck fast to his colleagues' mits.

Kersey, the State Teachers' College flash, and Leebler led the Hard-way batting attack with two safeties each, while Finney, with a like number, topped the Hook and Ladder attack.

ROGERS PERFORMS IN ACROBATICS

In Will Rogers' latest Fox Film, "Doubting Thomas," coming Wednesday at the Walt Whitman Theatre, he was required to fall down a flight of stairs. In making the film Rogers was directed to sink down out of camera range and a double was to complete the roll down the stairs.

Everything was in readiness and Director David Butler gave the signal for the camera to "shoot." When the proper time arrived, Will hunched one shoulder and took the entire fall, hitting each step separately and bouncing down to the very bottom of the flight.

According to the script, Will lay there until other members of the cast picked him up and carried him to a couch. As soon as the shot was complete, Butler and Producer B. G. DeSylva rushed over expecting to find an injured star.

But Rogers arose and inquired whether it had to be done over again and if so, he was ready. When asked if he was hurt, he replied, "You boys seem to forget I play polo once in a while, where the horse doesn't ask you when he should fall and everybody has mallets, too!"

HEPBURN CO-STARS WITH CHAS. BOYER IN CRITERION FEATURE

Thrilling human emotions are blended in a symphony of love and drama in "Break of Hearts" which brings together on the screen for the first time the fascinating Katherine Hepburn and the dashing Charles Boyer.

Love, glorified through sacrifice, is the theme of the story, which runs the scale from laughter to tears in inspiring harmonies. The film tells the story of a young composer who marries a great orchestra leader but leaves him thru pride when she believes her love is only an incident in his career. Later they both come to the realization that their love for each other is the only worthwhile thing in their lives. The man's inspiration leaves him with the loss of her and she forgoes wealth, position and security to join him in poverty and hardship and help him win back his high place in the world.

Masterful direction is supplied by Philip Moeller, noted New York Theatre Guild director, and by Jane Loring.

Myers Denies He Will Raise Criterion Prices

An emphatic denial that the price of admission to the Criterion Theatre, Moorestown, will be raised, was made by Manager Simon Myers this week. Mr. Myers states these rumors have been circulating for some time but wishes his patrons to know they are absolutely erroneous, that the admission charge will remain the same.

HOFFMAN OUT TO GET NEWCOMB

Newark Evening News Says Governor Will Oppose Re-election of Popular Assemblyman

According to the Newark Evening News Governor Hoffman will oppose Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb's re-election to the New Jersey Assembly.

The move, it is said, is in line with the governor's plan to oppose those not responsive to his wishes in legislative matters. Dr. Newcomb, it was said, incurred the governor's displeasure by opposing the sales tax.

The News said: "In line with his plan to oppose those not responsive to his wishes in legislative matters, Governor Hoffman is expected to take more than a passive interest in the Burlington county primary election."

"Although he has not yet announced his candidacy, Dr. Marcus Newcomb, House Republican leader at this year's session, will seek re-election."

"Dr. Newcomb allied himself with the Essex County Clean Government forces against the sales tax and thereby encountered the governor's displeasure. If he returns to the Assembly, Dr. Newcomb would be in line for the post of speaker, precedent calling for the advancement of the majority leader, and this does not fit into the program the governor has in mind."

"The campaign in Burlington is under way. Ellis Parker, chief of county detectives, is reported active against Dr. Newcomb, to whom he attributes responsibility for the defeat of the bill to create a State Department of Criminal Investigation. Parker, who is close to the governor, was to have been the director of the department."

"When the showdown comes, Senator Clifford R. Powell is expected to side with the governor against Dr. Newcomb. The term of the senator expires next year and Dr. Newcomb has indicated he will make a bid for the seat now held by Powell. By eliminating the doctor this year the threat he constitutes to the senator would be considerably minimized."

"The first task of the governor and his advisers will be to find an opponent of some strength. The name of Dr. J. W. Bowley, of Burlington, has been mentioned, but he suffers the disadvantage of having been defeated last year in the primary. "Announcement of Dr. Newcomb's candidacy is anticipated within a week, and then the battle will begin in earnest."

It is the opinion of some pretty acute political observers that if the governor tries to turn the voters of Burlington county against the straight-shooting and fearless doctor, because he opposed the infamous sales tax and voted against the creation of another "bureau" he is liable to get his fingers burned.

WALLACE WINS CLUB CHAMP TITLE

Defeats "Ed" Lippincott in Thirty-Six Hole Match Sunday

Under blue skies and a hot sun C. Brook Wallace, of 102 Midway, won the Riverton Country Club Golf Championship by defeating Ed Lippincott, of Main street, by 5 and 3 in a 36 hole match.

One of the high lights of the match was when Wallace drove the 10th green, a distance of 357 yards. Wallace's score for the morning play was 73 with Lippincott holding a 74. In the afternoon Wallace was even par to the 15th hole, where the match ended.

TO ASK COUNCIL FOR SURVEY FUNDS

At a meeting of the Lake Committee of the Riverton Town Meeting Monday evening a resolution was passed to ask the Borough Council to appropriate a sum not exceeding $200 for a survey to be made by the borough engineers showing how rise of water caused by the construction of the proposed dam at Memorial Park, for the purpose of forming a lake, will affect abutting properties.

After a thorough discussion of the matter, the Lake Committee is of the opinion that such a survey is the next step, in order that property owners who are asked to give permission for the construction of the dam may be able to see just how far the water will back up on their lands.

The request for funds will be made at the meeting of the Borough Council tonight.

CAR OVERTURNS, THREE INJURED

Car Turns Somersault When Tire Blows Out at East Riverton

Another accident caused by a blow-out happened on River Road at Pampus avenue, East Riverton, Tuesday evening at 6:15.

Mrs. Catherine A. Hobensack, of 1919 Sigarom street, Haddon Heights, lost control of her car and upset in a complete somersault. Riding with Mrs. Hobensack were Mrs. Frank Blair, of 700 Station avenue, Haddon Heights, and Mrs. Mary Mickle, of 105 Poplar avenue, Merchantville.

Mrs. Hobensack suffered a crushed hand, necessitating the amputation of one finger, and lacerations of the left arm and leg and Mrs. Mickle lacerations of the head, right arm and left leg.

The injured were taken to the Zurburg Memorial Hospital, Riverton, in the Palmyra ambulance.

Mrs. Hobensack and Mrs. Mickle are being detained at the hospital for observation and Mrs. Blair was taken to her home in Haddon Heights.

Chief Dorworth, of Cinnaminson Township, investigated the case.

TOWNSEND IN REVERSE

We don't claim a great deal of credit for it, but the fact is that we have a Townsend plan all our own. What we propose is simply to stand the Townsend plan on its head.

Instead of paying pensions to everyone over sixty, we suggest that a pension of $200 a month be paid to each person between the ages of 20 and 50 who will agree to stop work at once and devote his entire time to spending his money.

This is not so crazy as it sounds. The object of the Townsend plan is to put money into circulation and everyone knows that the young can spend twice as fast as the old. Furthermore, our plan would enable Americans to complete their education, marry, travel and practice the fine arts of living while they are still in the prime of life.

Along with these features, our plan would put the work of the world into the hands of those best able to handle it. Citizens over fifty can work longer and harder than the young, never come to the office with a hangover, are not upset by love affairs, and have long since outgrown the idea that they are smarter than the boss.

RIVERTON UPSETS PHOENIXVILLE 10-4

Homers by Easley, Baker and Reeves Clinched Game for Locals on Saturday

Jack Easley, Bill Baker and Jim Reeves laid down a barrage of home runs in the hectic fifth inning to produce six runs, turning a pitchers' battle into a rout for the home clan and afforded easy sailing for "Rubber arm" Weikman for the balance of the game, Riverton coasting to a one sided victory over Phoenixville by score 10 to 4.

Jack, first up, pummeled the ball to the lily pond in far-off right field, and Bill blasted the next pitch to distant centre for their round trippers. Foulke, H. Baker and Wolfe hit dapper singles to produce another tally, and with two runners on the paths, Jim Reeves' smash carried to the tennis courts in left field to produce the final three runs of the inning.

With the visitors threatening to score in the sixth inning, "Jiggy" Foulke furnished the fielding gem of the day when he made a sensational stop of a difficult chance and turned it into a double play via the second to first route.

PHALANX AT TAYLOR'S CABIN

Omega Chapter Meets at Cabin of Howard Taylor, Cliff Ergood a Visitor

On Monday evening, July 8, the Omega Chapter, Phalanx Fraternity held its eleventh meeting at Taylor's cabin. Through the courtesy of Howard Taylor, the fraternity had available sailboats, canoes, swimming, and other forms of entertainment.

Clifford Ergood met with the fraternity and offered some very helpful suggestions for activities during the summer. Mr. Ergood also told of an interesting book, "Equality," by Edward Bellamy. This book was written around the time of the "Gay Nineties," but applies to present-day situations.

Inasmuch as the Federal government has inaugurated a Council of Youth similar to the Palmyra-Riverton Youth Council, the Quaster was instructed to write to Washington to see what information and help could be secured from this source.

The next meeting, Monday, July 22, will be held at John F. McVaugh's. Publicity.

BENJ. FARNER SUFFERS STROKE

Former Coroner Benjamin Farnar suffered a stroke of paralysis early Tuesday while at his home on Cherry street, Mt. Holly. His condition is said to be serious.

Mr. Farnar, who is 62 years old, was a warden at the county jail until recently when he accepted the post of warden at the Four Mile Colony, New Lisbon.

He had two days' leave and was spending the time at his home. Farnar served as coroner and later ran for sheriff of Burlington County.

OPEN HOUSE FOR YOUTH AT METHODIST CHURCH

Between the hours of 9 and 12 on Tuesday evening, July 16, the Young people of Palmyra and Riverton are invited to attend an "open house" at the Palmyra Methodist Church.

BIDDLE WINS NET CONTEST SUNDAY

Top Ranking Player in Memorial Park Tennis Tourney by Victory Over Hagstoz

In contrast with the temperature upsets of the previous rounds of the men's ranking tournament at Memorial Park, the finals provided slow tennis. Robert Biddle played an excellent game of fast tennis to outsteady George Hagstoz 6-1, 6-2, 6-4.

Biddle stroked the ball cleanly and well throughout the match, but there were only two extended rallies. Hagstoz was definitely off form and seemed only to win when he ceased trying.

The first three games gave promise of a close match as the score went to 2-1, however, Biddle found top control of the ball and lost only 4 points in the rest of the set.

The second set was more closely contested, for there was but six points difference in the score; but Biddle seemed fully able to win when points were most needed. His placements were superb in this stanza especially.

Hagstoz appeared to lose hope in the final set as Biddle won the first three games, but he pulled up to 5-4 only to have 40-0 against him with Biddle serving. Then Hagstoz forced Biddle out of position three times, but drove an easy kill into the net on the last shot.

The point score follows:

First Set Biddle 6 6 4 4 4 4-32-6 Hagstoz 4 2 6 1 0 1 2-16-1

Second Set Biddle 5 5 0 4 3 4 5 6-32-6 Hagstoz 3 3 4 2 5 2 3 4-26-6

Third Set Biddle 4 4 4 2 2 4 0 4-30-4 Hagstoz 0 1 2 4 0 4 1 4 2-22-4

Not a seeded player succeeded in reaching the semi-final round of the men's tournament. Robert Borer, second ranked, was defeated by George Hagstoz in the round of eight in a very close match 7-5, 7-5. Hagstoz placed the ball neatly, and Borer drove the ball inches over the baseline many times.

Howard Barto accounted for the third ranked player, Clyde Ellzey, 6-3, 6-3. Barto played remarkable tennis, placing the ball with splendid depth. Barto's game was faultless while Ellzey hit erratically. Barto was beaten in the following round by Hagstoz, 6-1, 6-1.

The final seeded player to be eliminated was George King. Making the mistake of pressing behind a game that was badly off form, King never had a chance against Robert Biddle, who returned the ball and waited for the errors which seldom failed to come. The score was 6-0, 6-2.

Weiford Junior Victor

Playing a game similar to that which brought Biddle the senior tennis crown, Richard Weiford waited for his opponents to make the errors as he methodically kept the ball in play. Weiford's victim in the final round, Tyler Vile, was the third ranked junior player to fall before his racket. Weiford showed extraordinary strength in his backhand shot as he won his matches. In the final Vile scored mainly by placing the ball where Weiford could not reach it rather than because of any defect in Weiford's game. Weiford was behind only in the third set, which he won after trailing 4-2. The final score was 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

Robert Stover, favorite to win, was easily eliminated in the semi-final round of the tournament by Tyler Vile 6-1, 6-2, as was his seeded teammate, Frederick Freeman. Freeman lost 6-3, 3-0, default.

Tennis Schedule Announced Robert Borer, who is in charge of the schedule for both senior and junior teams, announced the following (continued on page 4)

ESSO CRUISER COMING HERE

Safety Program Arranged With Local Officials; Movies etc., Tuesday Night

The Esso Cruiser, Standard Oil Company's big land boat, which has just completed tours in sixteen states including the flood-stricken area of Mississippi, is scheduled for an appearance in Riverton and Palmyra next Tuesday, July 16th, according to B. C. Horner, local "Standard" representative.

This amazing highway dreadnaught has been the center of attraction wherever it stops, and has already carried a valuable message of safety to motorists and pedestrians alike in its crusade of safety throughout the states.

An interesting program of safety promotion is being arranged with the Mayor of Palmyra, Walter D. Lamon, and Chief of Palmyra police, C. Morris Beck, at Broad street and Garfield avenue, Palmyra, next Tuesday evening at 8.45 o'clock.

The mayor and police chief will address those assembled from the glass-enclosed cockpit of the cruiser. Motion pictures will be projected upon a screen at the rear of the cruiser by a machine located within its spacious quarters. The films will illustrate the safety movement, and in addition there will be features of entertainment. The duration of the show will be one and a half hours.

This interesting highway cruiser will make courtesy stops at the "Standard" stations of H. B. Williams in Palmyra and Clinton B. Woolston's garage in Riverton, where it will be open for public inspection.

This unique land boat was built at an approximate cost of $50,000. It has a crew of five, sleeping quarters, hot and cold running water, a complete kitchen, including electric range and refrigerator, a tiled lavatory, lounge, and observation platform. Its pilot's compartment, completely enclosed in glass, is high above the street and resembles the cockpit of a transport plane.

Their message of safety is highly instructive and is consistent with the "Standard" slogan "Happy Motoring." If the work of this land cruiser succeeds in reducing the number of highway accidents, then it will have served a useful purpose to motorists at large.

TIPS ON GROWING

To rid your Nasturtiums of the little black insects which cluster around the leaf stem on the under side of the leaves, spray with Black Leaf Forty or some tobacco solution, forcing the spray on the under side of the leaves.

The Poppy of Flander's Field (Papaver Rhoeas), according to the English "Gardeners' Chronicle," is widely distributed over Europe and the Belgians know it under the French name of Coquelicot or by the Flemish name of Kohlbloem. It is a weed usually found among wheat, and in soil that contains more than 25% of chalk. Its reason for having sprung up in such quantities on the Flander's battlefield is said to be because the soil became rich in lime and building rubble by the destruction of many thousands of buildings of all kinds in the line of fire. It is also said that it was this circumstance that caused the outbreak of blood-red Poppies so suggestive to the superstitious of the rivers of blood that had been shed. The chalk, however, by now is gradually disappearing by the disintegrating forces of nature and the Poppy is dying out in the battlefield area.

For the control of Hollyhock rust Dr. Dodge of the New York Botanical Gardens recommends the burning of all plants after blooming, so as not to infect the leaves of the new plants coming from the base. Dusting with sulphur is a good preventive for all fungous troubles.

Usually when a new plant is introduced which is an improvement on a previous existing type, the latter disappears from the plant catalogues as soon as the new variety is sold at a popular price. A very decided exception, however, is the bright cerise-red climbing Rose Bess Lovett. This is a much-improved Climbing American Beauty, better formed, having a greater number of petals and the color is much brighter and does not "blue"—a bad fault of Climbing American Beauty. The old variety, however, still remains

MODEL RAILROAD CLUB FORMED

Model railroad fans in this vicinity will be interested to know that a South Jersey Model Railroad Club has been formed recently, meeting every Monday night at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. Manning, 100 Ardmore avenue, Westmont, New Jersey. Organized early in May, the club already has a large "platform" constructed and is at present progressing rapidly on the construction of the track and roadbed. The right of way will be "0" gauge, 1 1/2 inches, but it has not as yet been definitely decided whether the power distribution will be two rail or outside third rail.

Anyone interested in joining the club or in being a visitor at one of the meetings should get in touch with William Schopp, 711 Lincoln avenue, Palmyra.

One of our friends who went down to Washington on a little business with the government says that he was sent to fifteen different departments in fourteen different buildings but didn't see a single inch of that official red tape they talk so much about.

THE "NEW DEAL"

BY JULIAN MASON

Vice President National Republican Builders

The "Death Sentence" Blunder

It was worse than a defeat, it was a blunder. This may well be said of the overwhelming defeat of the President's "death sentence" utility bill in the House of Representatives.

"Smearing Lindbergh" Has the hand of the Master Politician lost its cunning, and is that loss due to the illness and withdrawal of Colonel Louis McHenry Howe?

Are we now seeing proof that the counsel of his wisest tactician is a necessary element in Mr. Roosevelt's ability in the art of politics?

Or are we seeing a not unfamiliar phenomenon, in which a man is considered a marvelous politician when things go right, but a poor one, when they go wrong?

Chairman Henry P. Fletcher, of the Republican National Committee, long ago said that we might see this phenomenon in connection with Franklin Roosevelt.

More Blunders

Have we not seen it in the blunder of the "horse-and-buggy" attack on the Supreme Court and the Constitution; in the blunder of the "five-day" tax program, and now, again, in the tactics on the "death sentence" utility bill?

The House bill, which the President fought tooth and nail, gave him every reasonable power he could ask. It really gave his commission power to pass the "death sentence" upon holding companies.

Was it good sense to stake everything upon a fight for so small a difference? Was it sound politics to risk a disastrous rout for so narrow a reward?

It seems to me that there should have been some one around headquarters to say "no." And Colonel Howe used to say "no," to just such impractical schemes.

Was it good sense to stake everything upon a fight for so small a difference? Was it sound politics to risk a disastrous rout for so narrow a reward?

And the second is this:

The President's soak-the-rich tax message, it is revealed, long ago, and was held up in his sleeve to be produced when his political strategy needed a turn in popular attention.

The tax message had the most profound governmental and economic importance. As Arthur A. Ballantine, former Under Secretary of the Treasury, said of it: "With a limit set by the Supreme Court on government experimentation with industry by regimentation, the President has made a sudden turn to experimentation through taxation."

A Broken Promise

So important a proposal as this, one contrary to the President's express promise to Congress, was held back by him merely as a pasteboard card, to be played when needed, in the game of politics.

Arthur Krock, of the New York "Times," has well said that the country was shocked by this "brutal opportunism."

Are we to have further examples of it? Is this new fear to be imposed upon business? Is recovery, for the sake of Mr. Roosevelt's personal politics, again to get the kick down-stairs which the tax message gave it?

Church Notices

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. George Lockett, B.D., Pastor Rev. George W. Tovey, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Cheltenham, Pa., a former classmate of Pastor Lockett, will exchange pulpits with him this Sunday at the morning service at 11 o'clock.

The Bible School will convene at 10 o'clock as usual. It is hoped that while this is vacation time of the year all members will endeavor to be present in order that we may excel our attendance average last year.

The Philathea Class will also hold a picnic on the lawn of Mrs. Elias Toy on Wednesday afternoon, July 17th. The program to be quite a novel affair as the class is looking for a large attendance. Come, and bring your friends.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH "Sacrament" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 14.

The Golden Text is: "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" (I Corinthians 10:31).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful who promised); And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works" (Hebrews 10:23,24).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "As a material, theoretical life-basis is found to be a misapprehension of existence, the spiritual and divine Principle of man dwains upon human thought, and leads it to 'where the young child was,' even to the birth of a new-old idea, to the spiritual sense of being and of what life includes" (p. 191).

A BIBLICAL RIDDLE

To the Editor of "The New Era": I was many years ago a prominent merchant in Taunton, Mass., promissed to an eccentric old woman named Lucy King, living in the neighborhood, prize, if, taking her subject from the Bible, she would compose a riddle he could not guess. She won the prize with the following:

God made Adam out of dust, But thought it best to make me first; So I was made before the man, To answer God's most holy plan. My body God did make complete, But without arms or legs or feet; My ways and acts He did contrive, But to my body gave no soul. A living being—I became, And Adam gave me my name; I from his presence then withdrew And more of Adam never knew. I did my Maker's law obey, Nor from it ever went astray; Thousands of miles I go in fear, But never on the earth appear. For purpose wise, which God did see He put a living soul in me— A soul from me my God did claim, And took from me that soul again. For when from me that soul had fled I was the same as when first made; And without hands, or feet, or soul, I travel on from pole to pole. I labor hard by day and night, To mortal man I give great light— Thousands of people young and old, Will by my death great light behold. No right nor wrong can I conceive; The scriptures I cannot believe; Although my name therein is found, They are to me an empty sound. No fear of death doth trouble me; Real happiness I shall never see; To Heaven I do not ever go, Nor to the grave, nor Hell below. Now when these lines you slowly read, Go search your Bible with all speed, For that my name recorded there, I honestly to you declare. Can any of your readers tell me what the answer to the riddle was? L.

It is stated that Milo Reno, the Western farm leader, called the Secretary of Agriculture "Lord Corn Wallace" in a speech recently. We don't think the play upon words is appropriate. Remember that Lord Cornwallis knew when it was time to quit.

On Sunday Riverton will travel to Royersford, Pa., and next Wednesday will play the formidable Landreth Seed Company of Bristol at Memorial Park. Each of these clubs will present an array of former college and minor league players.

Bankers 6—Tak-Aboust 5 July 5. A thrilling last-ditch rally fell short when Rarig popped to the hot corner with the tying run on base; wherefore the Bank went into a tie with Broadway for the first half lead, beating Tak-Aboust six to five.

This game was postponed from the last week in June because of (1), on June 27, rain, and (2), on June 28, not enough players.

Shut out by Hubbs, Sr.'s nifty pitching up to the eighth inning, the Beverage Batters managed to push over five tallies in the last two frames and to throw a panic into the ranks of the Bankers.

There were three Hubbs in the contest; L. Hubbs and Hubbs, Jr., fought on the side of the Tak-Aboust while Hubbs, Sr., threw 'em at that team for the Bank. Tak-Abousters Carpenter and Sherman had two hits each, and Banker Jack Easley had three hits.

Bankers—000 000 032—5 Bankers—101 103 00x—6 Woodward and Mathis, Hubbs, Sr., and Bonatelli

Bankers 9—Broadway 5 July 8. If Friday night's playoff of the first half tie between the Bank and the Movies turns out the way this game did, then the Bankers will be first half champs of the soft ball league; for tonight the Tellers told off the Broadway boys to the tune of nine to five.

Neither records of errors nor of individual hits were kept, altho the total number of blows for each team was set down: fourteen for each side.

Evans 9—Whitman 7 July 8. Wood floats; so the Evans' Lumbermen were able to make a raft and keep above water during the intermittent showers that swept across the field during the game.

At the risk of strangling on my own metaphor, I might say that Evans' let Whitman make the raft for them and then in the end shoved the Walters off into the briny deep. But then that metaphor would require explanation; to be frank about the whole thing, the Whitman team lead thru most of the game only to be beaten out by Evans' who made five runs in the last two innings to forge ahead.

Whitman 024 000 001—7 Evans 001 030 23x—9 Knight and Ball Richman and Speer

Schwering 7—Athletics 2 July 9. It was rather a surprise victory tonight as Schwering's bombarded the slants of Haines, Athletic pitcher, to take the game by the comfortable margin of 7 to 2.

A big five-run second-inning spurt during which triples were hit by Kersey and Kennedy of the Hardware team, did the trick. Another long hit took the form of a home run from the bat of Swain, Farmers' third-sacker.

The two Schaefers, F. and J., led the Appleknockers' attack with two blows each, while Kersey and Reynolds, smiting three each, did the most potent work with the stick for the Schwering team.

Schwering 050 001 100—7 Athletics 100 100 000—2 Long and Pack Haines and Stockton

Knights 6—Tak-Aboust 5 July 9. The fans are beginning to wonder whether the Tak-Aboust team should change its name to Need-Aboust, for tonight they lost a close decision to the Knights of Columbus by the count of six to five, again failing to knot the count when opportunity knocked in the late innings.

Three hits for Bob Fry, manager of the Boosters, led the team, while several of the K. of C. lads had that number; Peter Malone, Buivadas, Dougherty, Casey, Bud Malone, H. Davis and pitcher Adolph Strohlein.

It was probably the most colorful game of the year. The Boosters' red and yellow jerseys looked quite handsome, as did the purple and

RIVERTON AGAIN DEFEATS PALMYRA

Shuts Out "Bill" Reagle's Nine in Six Frames 3-0 Wednesday Night

In an abbreviated contest Riverton again took Bill Reagle's Palmyra club over the hurdles by the tune of 3 to 0.

"Rubberarm" Weikman turned in his ninth straight victory and he was in danger only once, that being in the third inning when the visitors had runners on first and third with nobody out. Clayt, was equal to the task and retired the next three men on easy chances without giving the runner on third a chance to score.

Riverton put the game on ice in the fifth inning when Bill Baker led off with his third straight hit, a single to right. Josh Bartley walked and was forced at second by Eisher.

Leon Sloan singled sharply to left which admitted Bill and sent Eisher to third. Wolfe singled to center to score Jack and Sloan was thrown out at the plate by Coyle on a perfect peg.

Baker, Bartley, Sloan and Weikman turned in perfect cards for their efforts at the plate.

Short-cuts to the Dinner Table

Fortune Cake Portells Fate! The articles a "Fortune Cake" should contain, Emily, are a ring, a thimble, a button and a dime.

The one who gets the ring is destined to marry. She who gets the thimble is doomed to spinsterhood; the button means bachelorhood, and the money wealth.

And may I suggest, Emily, my dear, that you wrap the articles before placing them in the batter? You may follow any cake recipe you wish for the fortune cake, but in the event you do not have a good recipe handy, one is given below.

White Layer Cake 1 cupful butter 2 cupfuls sugar 4 eggs—beaten separately 3 cupfuls flour 4 teaspoonfuls baking powder 1/2 teaspoonful salt 1 1/2 cupfuls milk 1 teaspoonful grated nutmeg 1 teaspoonful vanilla Cream butter, add sugar and beat until light and creamy. Beat egg yolks until light and thick and add to butter mixture. Blend thoroughly. Sift flour, salt and nutmeg and baking powder together. Add milk and flour mixture alternately to the creamed butter and sugar. Mix thoroughly but do not beat. Add vanilla and lastly fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in three eight inch layer cake pans in a 375 degree oven. Spread with butter cream icing between layers and on top.

NEW FACTOR IN COUNTY POLITICS

Organization Will Promote Interests of Ex-Service Men in County

A few weeks ago at a meeting of several ex-service men a suggestion was offered that Ex-Service Men form a new organization in Burlington County for action in the political field, and a temporary chairman and secretary were appointed at that time.

The temporary chairman, at this time, extends an invitation to every Veteran of all Wars, as well as peace-time service men, to attend the organization meeting to be held at 47 Main street, Mt. Holly, Sunday afternoon, July 14th, at 2 o'clock, in the post room of the Becker-Marg-Caldwell Post.

The purpose of this organization is for the recognition of ten thousand veterans in Burlington County, as the War Veterans are increasingly bearing the responsibility of citizenship and becoming the bulwark of the American Constitution, which they fought to preserve.

The temporary chairman is Edward Leon, and the temporary secretary R. G. Mack, both of Riverside.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

RIVERTON'S 4th OF JULY

Once again Riverton lived up to its reputation for putting on a big celebration on the 4th of July. In addition to fine weather everything was carried out according to schedule, and one of the largest crowds in the borough's history enjoyed the day, from the parade in the morning until after the fireworks at night.

The success of the celebration was made possible by the response of our citizens to the requests of the Town Meeting committee for funds to pay the expenses. Fully 90% of the people contributed, and the members of the committee who canvassed the town take this means to think the people for their fine support.

Another matter that the town should be proud of was the manner in which the police department handled the traffic situation, before and after the fireworks at night. By actual count there were nearly 2,000 cars, most of them from out of town, parked in the streets between the railroad and the river.

In the past there used to be such a bad jam after the fireworks were over that it took over an hour for some of the cars to get out of town. Owing to the efficiency with which the police handled the traffic, the cars were all out of town within a half hour on this 4th. The crowd on the River Bank at night was conservatively estimated at 10,000 people, and Riverton should be proud that they were able to uphold the

YWCA NOTES

Camp Opens

The Burlington County Young Women's Christian Association opened its first summer day camp Monday morning on the White estate along the Rancocas creek at New Lisbon.

The camp is being undertaken as an experiment this year, and if successful will be continued in succeeding summers. As with similar projects in other parts of the country its program has been planned to provide real camping experience for girls between the ages of 10 and 18 years at very low cost. The daily rate of 35 cents not only entitles each girl to participate in all activities but also includes bus transportation from and to Mt. Holly, with each girl providing her own lunch.

On the opening day, the bus and private cars brought campers from Columbus, Beverly, Hainesport, Masonville, Moorestown, Mt. Holly and Tabernacle.

In addition, a group of girls from Bustleton, near Burlington, who have arranged to camp for the first week at the site, are attending the sessions of the day camp, beginning Wednesday.

MONTHLY RALLY OF CO. BIBLE CLASSES

The monthly rally of the Burlington County Federation of Men's Bible Classes will be held at the Delanco Camp Meeting Grounds, Delanco, Sunday, July 14, at 2:30 p.m. Raymond Warner, of Palmyra, is president of the Federation.

SUNDAY DRIVERS IN COLLISIONS

Sunday, July 7, a car driven by John Kurowski, of 4510 Almond st., Philadelphia, ran into a pole on River road near Zeisner avenue, East Riverton.

Kurowski was attempting to pass a car on the right hand side of the road. No arrests were made.

At 10:15 on the same day at Burlington Pike and Church Road, a car driven by Arthur Thorne, of 472 N. 36th street, Camden, made a left-hand turn in front of a car driven by Frank Donahue, of Church Road and Vincentown Road, Moorestown. The front of Donahue's car was slightly damaged but no arrests were made.

Chief Dorworth investigated both of these accidents.

Tremendous Trifles

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON
FIG TO FORK BARREL

ON A brisk October day in 1687 a pig belonging to Mrs. Sherman, a good wife of Boston, wandered into the garden of a wealthy and wrathful gentleman named Capt. Robert Keayne, who killed the wandering porker. Mrs. Sherman sued him for damages and lost—in a gentleman's court. She had done a lot of talking, so Keayne sued her for slander. He won again.

Then there was turmoil. Boston rocked with indignation—that part of it composed of the common people. The case was carried to the legislative assembly, then known as "The Great and General Court." It was composed of the governor, magistrates and deputies from the several towns, but the magistrates, who were gentlemen, although outnumbered, held the balance of power through a rule which said that no act should pass unless approved by the majority of magistrates!

Mrs. Sherman's pig became the symbol of fair play and equal representation for the common people. The controversy raged for seven years. The upshot of it was that, instead of having a single legislative body controlled by a select group as the magistrates desired—or by a majority vote of all, as the deputies desired—Massachusetts got an assembly of two co-ordinate branches. This was instituted the system of checks and balances later incorporated in the provisions for our national congress and state legislatures.

So Mrs. Sherman's martyred pig, after a century and a half, found an appropriate repository—in a branch of government often noted for "pork barrel" legislation!

What Would the Founders of Our Country Say to THIS?

LET HONEST MEN SHAME LOAFERS

The so-called relief worker has been cuddled long enough. The time has come when the lazy and shiftless, the trouble-makers who try to unionize unemployed, should be shamed by the decent men who don't want charity.

The Roosevelt Administration has pictured those who have lost their jobs as martyrs, when they are nothing more than what men and women have been since civilization invented jobs to be lost. The Administration has labeled a man out of a job as a "client" whose pride must not be hurt. He has been given more than he ever had when work was plentiful.

The Administration has encouraged the growth of loafers far beyond what is normal, and the loafers have discouraged honest men from working.

Everybody is striking these days. Let honest unemployed men strike against being classed with loafers, by putting the loafers to shame. Let them show they are tired of making a farce out of the work allotted them. Then let the "softies" who are operating relief, get busy and find some way to put the shameless loafers to work.

A good thing can be spoiled and lazy men, careless of where money comes from, encouraged by the idea of some fools that relief money can be provided forever, feeling no gratitude for what is being done for them are trying hard to spoil the best thing ever provided by any country for people who cannot find employment.

That attitude is unnatural, its effect destructive. We have been going along—all people with any idea of proportions and obligations—expecting that the demand for relief would decrease; instead it increases. We have been willing to see gestures instead of labor where something was provided to keep men busy, in lieu of something in which work counted. But when it comes to a point where there is a worthwhile job, and relief workers refuse to give any satisfactory return for what they get, it is time to remedy this condition.

If the "softies" running the relief game have no nerve, let the honest American workman show he is tired of being a loafer and shame those who are foolish enough to believe in Santa Claus.

A New 10c Baltimore Postmaster

In the days before postage stamps in the United States, postmasters added to their revenue by selling special stamps for use only in their postoffice. These stamps indicated that the postage was prepaid and are known today as "postmaster provisionals."

The provisionals printed in Baltimore by James M. Buchanan (not the president) are now among the rarest of this type of stamps. The 5c denomination, which has been known for many years, is valued at $1,000. It was printed on white and blue paper. Forty years ago 10c copies were found on white and blue paper also, but are valued at $10,000, the blue paper being a little more. Six copies are known in white, while only two in blue. A copy of the blue paper was on cover in the famous Hind collection.

The same postmasters issued envelopes containing his stamped signature, the word "PAID" and a figure of value in a large oval. Judging by the valuation of these which appear to be somewhat scarcer, but this is much doubted.

Quite recently a cover has been found not far from New York City bearing, "James A. Buchanan," "Paid" and "10c" with a blue Baltimore postmark, "Baltimore, Md., Feb. 17."

The letter enclosed was written in 1847 by A. Hussey, the famed issuer of Hussey's local. The letter is of great interest as it was sealed with the old-fashioned wafer and addressed. It was then placed in a provisional envelope and sealed again with the wafer and re-addressed and sent. The provisional envelope had the markings in the preceding paragraph.

New Issues

NIUE—The Royal Jubilee issue consists of three values of the current postage series reissued in new colors and overprinted as follows: "Silver Jubilee of King George V. 1910-1935." The values are 1p deep red and maroon type A25, 2 1/2p dull blue and blue type A27, and 6p orange and green type A29. The overprint on the 2 1/2p is red and the other two were black.

SAMOA—Three values of the current postage series of the Hut type A22 have been overprinted in black "Silver Jubilee King George V. 1910-1935."

UNLICENSED DRIVER JAILED

"Daring Young Man" at Criterion Theatre

The disclosures that followed a surprise raid last year by civic officials and reporters on one of New York's biggest penal institutions, prove that nothing is too wild or too improbable to occur in an American jail. Racketeers in expensive clothing, waited upon and valeted by fellow inmates, were running the entire penitentiary and dominating the warden and his staff.

In writing the original story and screen play of "The Daring Young Man," the Fox Film coming Saturday to the Criterion Theatre, authors Claude Binyon and Sidney Skoloky and the scenarist, William Skurlbut, had no need of exaggerating these disclosures in order to write one of the funniest sequences in modern picture offerings.

When the new Fox picture reveals a jail with radios and curtains in every cell, poker games going full blast, and gangsters feeding pigeons as they give orders over their private telephones to have some annoying competitor "rubbed out," the spectators may rest assured they are seeing nothing imaginary whatever; every incident in the prison sequence is taken from real life.

James Dunn and Mae Clark are featured in "The Daring Young Man" at Broadway.

SCHOOL CONTRACTS SIGNED BY BOARD

Final Step Taken at Meeting Held Thursday Night: Bonds Approved

Walter K. Woolman, vice president of the Riverton Board of Education and William H. Bottger, district clerk, signed all the contracts for alterations and additions to the school building at an adjourned meeting of the board last Thursday night.

The board's attorney, Frank A. Mathews, Jr., in a communication to the board approved the forms of contracts and bonds issued in each case. Upon motion of Harry E. Moyer and seconded by Karl W. Latch the communication was ordered spread upon the minutes.

A resolution accepting the contracts of the low bidders and authorizing the officers of the board to execute the contracts was offered by Hilton M. Smith and seconded by Everett O. Wolcott and passed unanimously.

The district clerk was authorized to write the State Teachers' Trustees Fund that the board would require $15,000 on September 1st, the letter to be sent upon final approval of the project by the PWA.

Mr. Woolman offered the suggestion that the building committee meet with the architect and contractors at frequent intervals during construction to effect economies in construction where possible.

Mr. Moyer offered a resolution which was unanimously passed: that the Building committee of the Board of Education of the Borough of Riverton, N. J., be authorized to hold meetings and keep a separate book of minutes for the purpose of recording all changes or extras necessary during the course of construction of the new building, and report and present to the board for its approval before any changes or recommendations are made during the progress of the construction.

The district clerk was authorized to return all certified checks of the bidders upon final approval of the PWA authorities.

The meeting was adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.

DRIVE FOR FUNDS ENDORSED BY BORO COUNCIL

Owing to the fact that the drill and competition put on by the Drum and Bugle Corps of the American Legion the last two years failed to meet expenses, the Riverton Borough Council has made the following endorsement of a drive that will be made to collect funds to meet the deficit.

Whereas, Palmyra Drum and Bugle Corps held a competition last year, in conjunction with the Transportation Committee of this Borough, to advertise the additional train service to and from Philadelphia; and

Whereas, said Drum and Bugle Corps held a competition this year in connection with the dedication of the Palmyra Borough Park; and

Whereas, each said competition was a civic service rendered to advertise our Borough; and

Whereas, at each of said competitions said Drum and Bugle Corps was compelled to incur large obligations which it was unable to meet by reason of weather conditions last year and the small attendance this year;

Now, Therefore, by reason of each of said competitions being of civic interest and advantage to this Borough, we, the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Riverton, suggest favorable consideration for the solicitors who will call on the citizens of Riverton for subscriptions at an early date, in order to meet the deficit incurred by the said Drum and Bugle Corps in holding said competitions.

TWO INJURED IN COLLISION

Joseph Whitehead, well-known Palmyra mail carrier, suffered shock and his daughter, Dorothy, suffered lacerations of the leg, when the car in which they were riding collided with a truck at Broad street and Leconey avenue, Palmyra, Tuesday afternoon.

The truck, which was driven by Peter Juliano, of the Haddonfield road and Burlington Pike, was traveling West on Broad street, when the Whitehead machine came out of Leconey avenue. Juliano drove to the left of the road to avoid striking the car and Whitehead crashed into the front of the truck.

The driver of the truck was uninjured and Whitehead was ordered taken to Zurburg Hospital, Riverside for observation. He was suffering from shock and was later allowed to return home, when it was found that no injuries had been sustained.

Palmyra police investigated the accident and Whitehead was taken to the hospital in the police car.

COMMITTEE PLANS DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Joint Celebration Committee Will Endeavor to Make Up Old Deficit

The Joint Celebration Committee, composed of citizens from Riverton and Palmyra, who conducted the last two American Legion drum and bugle corps competitions, are planning a drive for contributions in both towns. The deficit incurred for both events totals approximately $1200.

The committee suffered heavy deficits largely through insurance premiums with the weather stacked against the committee on both occasions. The first celebration was rained out, and for the second it was terrifically hot. Heavy premiums were incurred for the payment of liability insurance to protect the citizens in each town where public property was used to stage the events.

Next Monday letters from the Joint Celebration Committee will be left at every home in both Riverton and Palmyra. With the letter will be an envelope for the contribution. On July 25th Legionnaires will collect these envelopes in both communities.

A small contribution from everyone will soon wipe out the entire deficit and restore the credit of the committee, the American Legion and the communities themselves.

RIVERTON MEN EMPLOYED ON SCHOOL WORK

Work on the alterations and additions to the Riverton Public School began with a vim this week when the general contractors, Rafferty and Kennedy Company, of Philadelphia, began preliminary work on Monday.

The contractors began to hire labor on Wednesday and by today (Thursday) twenty-two men, mostly Rivertonians, were at work on the project.

Some little difficulty was experienced at the beginning of the week over the labor situation. The misunderstanding has been cleared up and Riverton unemployed are being given preference.

It is necessary for Riverton men desiring work to register at the office of the National Re-employment Service, 55 Main street, Mount Holly, with W. E. Darnell, manager.

Mr. Darnell will have a representative of his office at the school building Monday morning at 8 o'clock to register those who apply. The resident inspector for the PWA has reported for duty and is on the job.

COUNCIL TO AMEND ZONING ORDINANCE

Resolution Passed at Special Session Allowing Some Property Extension

A petition from the business people situated on the South side of Main street was presented by D. D. Bastian to the Riverton Borough Council who met Wednesday evening in a special session to consider the re-establishment of a building line on that street.

The text of the petition is as follows: July 10, 1935. To the Honorable Mayor and Council of the Borough of Riverton:

We the undersigned residents and property owners in the borough of Riverton, especially situated on the south side of Main St., in block between fifth and Broad streets.

Whereas we are advised that a special meeting is called to consider (or reconsider) a justification for re-establishing the established building line.

We protest to this being enacted at this time. First: We consider it rank favoritism, inasmuch, as the general economic conditions will not allow any of the other property holders to follow suit. Second: It would hide the business houses below this proposed building and create an unfair advantage.

We the undersigned ask your Honorable body to disallow this request and stand by your first issued permit.

Signed: D. D. Bastian, 512, 512 1/2 Main street. Daniel M. Clifton, 504 Main street. Joseph W. Friday, 502 Main street. Mrs. Alfred Smith, 500 Main street.

The seven contracts totalled $52,199.28. An eighth contract, for broken stone, is yet to be signed.

The contracts awarded were: Lumber, the Atlantic Cresscott Co., New York, $3071.53 as compared to last year's total of $7035.50. Pebbles, Mercer Sand and Gravel Co., Trenton, 1800 tons at 50 cents a ton, with 70 cents a ton paid last year.

Slag, DuQuenne Slag Co., Philadelphia, 2000 tons at $1 a ton, the same as paid in 1934.

STEADY DECREASE IN ELECTRIC RATE

Cost of electricity in the State of New Jersey has gone steadily lower during the past two decades, while the cost of local, state and municipal government reflected in increased taxes has grown greatly, statistics compiled by the National Industrial Conference Board reveal.

In the period between 1912 and 1934 Federal taxes collected from New Jersey citizens have grown from $10,582,000 in 1912 to $99,769,000 in 1934 an increase of 843 per cent; state taxes collected have mounted from $13,324,000 in 1912 to $67,116,000 in 1934 or 403 per cent and local taxes from $33,091,000 to $214,060,000 or 547 per cent.

In sharp contrast with the increase in taxes collected has been the cost of electricity in New Jersey which has decreased from an average of 6.12 cents per kilowatt hour in 1912 to 3.8 cents per kw h in 1934, a decrease of 38 per cent.

WILL NOT BACK BETTING BILL SAYS HOFFMAN

The beaten racing measure, hope for the passage of which was revived on Monday when it was believed that Governor Hoffman had in mind the calling of a special session of the Legislature in its behalf in November, met a further setback when the Governor made a complete denial of the report from his Trenton office.

Hoffman said he had no idea of interfering for the passage of pari-mutuel resolution making legal horse race gambling in New Jersey, nor did he have plans for acting upon the Wolber municipal budget bill designed to put local government on a cash basis.

It was pointed out that bringing the matter of the racing bill up in the Autumn would be too late, anyway. The Constitution provides for publication of any constitution change prior to submission to the voters and the time for the intervention would be too short to meet the requirements.

Mr. Knight also reported activities for the month as follows: Six arrests, 2 boats stolen, 2 bicycles stolen, and recovered; 22 complaints investigated, 7 complaints about dogs, 7 calls from other police departments, 1 door found open, 4 cats and dogs gassed, 19 homes

Petition for Building Line Mr. Biddle further stated that E. L. Williams had placed in his hands petitions to have the building line established 27 feet from the present curb line on the West side of Main street, signed by all the property owners affected except the Messrs. Parry, D. D. Bastian, the Sun Oil Station and William H. Stiles. Mr. Stiles was not opposed to the improvement, but wanted to see the widening go to Seventh street.

After some discussion it was decided to treat the widening of the street and the establishment of a new building line as two separate affairs so as to expedite as much as possible the arrival at some decision regarding the building line in order that the new $15,000 building operation, which has been temporarily suspended, might be resumed without unnecessary delay. To that end, the matter of the building line was continued with instructions to secure from the borough attorney an opinion as to council's authority to establish a building line contrary to restrictions in existing deeds, and what procedure could be followed to permit resumption of construction on the property at 526-528 Main street in accordance with the proposed plans which seem to be contrary to the provisions of the zoning ordinance.

To Oil Streets Councilman Sylvester, reporting for the highway committee, stated that it was expected to start oiling the streets which had been selected for treatment within a few days. It had been planned, he said, to have the work done before now, but that weather conditions had interfered. His recommendation that some additions be made to the work was approved by council. The streets added to the schedule are as follows: Cedar street from the railroad to Eighth street, Seventh street from Cedar to Cinnaminson, 180 feet on Thomas avenue, starting at Bank avenue, Broad street, south side, from Elm Terrace to the Palmyra Borough line.

Dogs Registered Councilman Knight, chairman of the police committee, reported that all but three dogs in the recent survey had been registered, and that owners of two of the remaining three had promised to take out licenses. The mayor complimented the police department on the thoroughness and efficiency of its work in this matter. Mr. Knight also reported activities for the month as follows: Six arrests, 2 boats stolen, 2 bicycles stolen, and recovered; 22 complaints investigated, 7 complaints about dogs, 7 calls from other police departments, 1 door found open, 4 cats and dogs gassed, 19 homes

Keen Competition of Large Field of Bidders Results in Low Prices This Year

Bids for road and bridge materials for 1935 such as slow curing oil, asphalt, lignite binder, slag, cro-

Keen competition in business this year brought out an unusually large number of bidders and in some cases record low bids were offered. Over fifty firms submitted prices on the various items.

Following the opening of the bids Freeholder Jones stated that the bids would be tabulated and awarded at a subsequent meeting.

A resolution by Freeholder Cook was passed approving the payment of $3,000 on account of a $7,136.57 bill due the Kolyn Construction Company, contractor on the River-

Freeholder Cook offered a resolution authorizing the payment of $107 to Laura H. Andrews for damages to her car which was driven into an unguarded county ditch along the Moorestown-Cox Corners road. The matter was referred to the board's solicitor and the director of highways for investigation and report.

A letter was read from the Prudential Insurance Company asking for the release of life insurance monies in the case of Mary E. Crane, county indigent patient who died in the hospital for the insane. The county lien amounts to but $11 and was referred to the solicitor for an opinion.

Three communications were read from the New Jersey Highway Department, one approving the specifications for highway materials for the year 1935; the second approving the schedule of improving township and borough roads for 1935; the third approving the county road schedule for 1935.

A letter was read from Sheriff Wimer stating that in making payment of salary due the deputy who replaced Benjamin Farmer, resigned, the treasurer had deducted $20 monthly from the pay check for rental of living quarters in the sheriff's headquarters. Sheriff Wimer's letter stated that the new deputy was not occupying these quarters and that he would like to have the man's $20 remitted.

The following department bills were approved for payment: Roads $6,035.27; buildings $14,349.95; bridges $3,382.68; affairs $18,288.80; and revenue and finance $6,967.26. Total $49,023.96.

EXHIBITION OF RELIEF SEWING ROOM WORK

Through the fine cooperation of merchants in the various towns in the county, an exhibition of women's and children's dresses and boys' suits made by Relief workers in E.R.A. sewing rooms are now on display to the public.

The work done by these workers is of the highest type and is personally supervised by a woman in charge of each sewing room.

All styles and colors are made up by the workers, who many times receive orders for extra large sizes which are also taken care of.

This movement of displaying the work of the dressing rooms is but one of several arranged by W. Rex McCrosson, county relief director, to show the general public some of the work done by the Relief organization.

The first of the dressing room exhibits was made at the drug store of S. F. Sachs, Riverside, on Monday of this week. Exhibits will be made in other communities just as soon as arrangements can be made.

Towns where the exhibits will be shown each containing a sewing room: Marlton, Moorestown, Maple Shade, Palmyra, Burlington, Florence, Bordentown, Mt. Holly and Bass River.

Twenty-five Foot Oval Track Nearly Completed at Westmont

Work on the "O" gauge model system of the South Jersey Model Railroad Club is progressing rapidly. All ties and some of the rail for an oval 25 feet long and 10 feet wide; the completion of this loop is being hindered only by the non-arrival of a shipment of rail which was ordered several weeks ago. As soon as this loop is finished and in operation, the club will start work on another division which will be tangent to the oval at one end and will run down the length of the cellar, about forty feet, loop around and return.

Since steam type equipment will be used, it has been definitely decided to have a two-rail system. In this, also there is a slight additional initial expense, for insulating the wheels on one side of the train, this is more than repaid by more realistic operation. In order to get the system in operation as soon as possible, the club will lay the large oval with an outside third rail, but this will be removed, it is expected, when all equipment has been changed over for two-rail operation.

Many people get model railroading confused with the "tin-plate" railroads so prevalent at Christmas time. In real model railroading, the track is built up in much the same way as a full sized railroad; ties are laid and aligned, rail is put in place and spiked down, fishplates are used to connect lengths of rail, and curves are made of large radius, never less than three feet. Model railroading is not particularly for children, altho they enjoy it; it is for adults.

Anyone interested in joining or visiting this live-wire model railroad club, the only one in this part of the state, get in touch with William Schopp, 711 Lincoln avenue, Palmyra, N. J. If you have a "tin-plate" system of your own, do not hesitate to join this club on the grounds of inexperience, since most of the members use "tin-plate" on their home roads.

The meeting place of the club is the home of Mr. Manning, 100 Ardmore avenue, Westmont, N. J., and, incidentally, when we say Westmont, we mean Westmont, not Haddonfield, where there also is an Ardmore avenue.

Some listeners complained that they couldn't hear Gen. Hugh Johnson's radio speech the other night because of static. A few months ago you couldn't hear the static for the General—El Dorado, Kansas, Times.

The origin of ice cream is unknown, but varieties of frozen compounds are said to have been served in Italy as early as 1500 A.D. or a little before. The first factory for manufacturing commercial ice cream was established in Maryland in 1851, of which Mrs. Maria Shelmire is supervisor.

ESSO CRUISER IN SAFETY PROGRAM

Hundreds Gathered to Witness Safety Drive Sponsored by Esso Marketers

The Esso Cruiser, Standard Oil Company's huge highway dreadnaught, visited Palmyra and Riverton, Tuesday afternoon and conducted a program of safety instruction before an audience of over a thousand people in the evening at Broad street and Garfield avenue in Palmyra.

This gigantic land boat, equipped with an amplification system and talkie movies, delivered an interesting and instructive message of safety.

Mayor Walter D. Lamon of Palmyra cooperating with the Cruiser's safety personnel, delivered the following message via the Cruiser's amplification system:

"Because street and highway safety is a problem that intimately concerns every resident of Palmyra I feel that I, in my capacity as mayor can heartily and fully endorse the efforts of the Esso Marketers in sending the Esso Cruiser on this Safety Tour of New Jersey. Palmyra like practically every city, town and borough in the United States, has a traffic and a safety problem that is of great concern to every man, woman and child in the community, as well as to your city officials. This problem of street and highway safety is one that costs thousands and thousands of lives every year, as well as one that consumes an untold army of dollars that might well be directed into more pleasant channels. This is to say nothing of the sufferings of those injured, and the grief that comes to those who lose loved ones so needlessly.

"What is the reason for all this? It is probably due in large measure to the fact that motorists versus pedestrians, and motorist versus motorist relies too heavily and completely on the other fellow's conducting himself along safe lines. "Probably no one thing will remedy this situation. I firmly believe, however, that a marked improvement will be shown if each of us, motorist and pedestrian, takes just a little extra time to be safe. A few seconds at a stop light. A short pause before stepping off the curb. They will cut down on accidents. The various departments of your local government are making a united effort to prevent accidents and to make our streets safe. However, no amount of effort on our part can hope to succeed without the full cooperation of the people who operate automobiles.

"Before we can be safe, we must be SAFETY CONSCIOUS, and I sincerely trust that the visit of this beautiful and unusual Esso Cruiser to Palmyra will make all of us more deeply conscious of our responsibility to drive carefully at all times. We enlist your cooperation for HAPPY MOTORING."

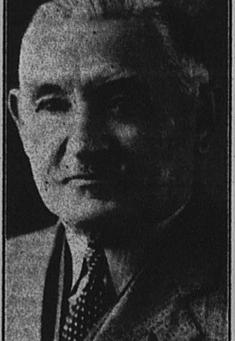

Four talkie films were shown, one a cartoon for entertainment purposes, another the hazards of the roadway entitled "Saving Seconds" which graphically demonstrated the right and wrong way to drive a car, the third a "Traveltalk" picture for entertainment purposes only, and the fourth a picture of Monsieur De Troyat, French war ace piloting an Esso-powered airplane in a hair-raising exhibition of stunt flying.

Following the safety program, the Esso cruiser was thrown open to the public for inspection and hundreds of people enjoyed an interior glimpse of the unique $50,000 land boat.

Courtesy stops were made at the "Standard" stations of H. B. Williams and Clinton B. Woolston where again the land boat was open for inspection.

WHY STAINLESS STEEL IS RUSTLESS The reason stainless steel does not rust is that a thin, "self-healing" film of oxygen constantly coats the metal. If the blade is scratched, the "wound" is closed instantly. The film is so fine that it can only be measured by X-ray. To the lay mind such a degree of fineness seems incredible, but scientists maintain that a single sheet of paper is 83,000 times as thick as this oxygen layer.

FOR SHERIFF

ANNOUNCEMENT

I hereby announce my candidacy for the Republican nomination for Sheriff of Burlington County at the Primary Election, September 17.

JOHN M. CHANT, Riverside, N. J.

Mr. Chant has been a Republican all his life and has worked for the success of the party for more than forty years.

He was born in Beverly Township and devoted himself to farming in Edgewater, Delanco and Willingboro Townships until fifteen years ago when he retired from active work on his farms and took up his residence in Riverside.

While a resident of Willingboro Township Mr. Chant served two terms as member of the Board of Education and also two terms on the Township Committee. He was recently a member of the Burlington County Board of Taxation for a term of three years and was president of the board for one year.

When the First National Bank of Riverside was organized nine years ago, Mr. Chant was elected president by the Board of Directors, which position he still holds.

Mr. Chant has frequently been urged by his friends to make the race for sheriff in recent campaigns, but each time has stepped aside for the sake of party harmony. He is now regarded as the logical candidate for the office, because of his many years of sincere work in the interests of the party and the splendid record he has made in the offices he has held heretofore.

He has pledged himself, if elected, to conduct the sheriff's office economically, efficiently and with fairness to all.

Ordered and paid for by John M. Chant.

Efficient Handling of Traffic Speaking of the Fourth of July celebration, Mr. Knight said that 1790 cars were parked between the railroad and the river in the evening, and that every car was on its way within 35 minutes after the end of the fireworks, without confusion or accident.

And while the Fourth of July was before the body, Councilman Stroheim took occasion to say that he wished to express through council his appreciation of the assistance of all who helped to make the celebration one of the most successful ever held in Riverton, and especially to commend the committee from the Town Meeting which rendered such valuable service.

Street Lights Cost Less Councilman Steidle, chairman of the lighting committee, submitted a report from Mr. Fuller of the Public Service, showing how the reduced rates recently put in effect made a saving of about $40 a month to the borough in its lighting bill, and making some suggestions for a revised arrangement of lights which would give greater efficiency.

Councilman Merrill, chairman of the fire and water committee, reported that the statement made at the last meeting that the car for the salvage corps had been withdrawn from service without authority, and that he had replaced the insurance on the car, which had been cancelled.

The report of the building inspector showed operations amounting to $1200, and fees of $5.00.

The report of the medical inspector included fees of $12.00.

The borough clerk reported the customary resolution for the monthly payment of $73 to the county welfare headquarters.

Will Finance Survey

Edwin S. Parry, president of the Town Meeting, appeared before council with a request for an appropriation to cover the cost of making a survey of the area which would be affected by the construction of a dam to create a lake at Memorial Park, and submitted a letter from Benjamin A. Sleeper, of the firm of Sherman & Sleeper, borough engineers, offering to do the work for a sum not to exceed $200. Since Cinnaminson township had already signified its willingness to contribute $50 toward this expense, Mr. Parry asked council to provide $150, which was done under a resolution by Mr. Knight.

In presenting the matter to council, Mr. Parry gave a brief outline of the project so far, and paid tribute to the efficient work done by the Lake Committee and by R. M. Fuller and Mr. Sleeper in particular. Mr. Fuller was present and read portions of the correspondence which had passed in the matter, and which gave a very clear picture of the procedure up to date.

Drive Approved

Mayor Biddle stated that he had been requested to ask council to pass a resolution similar to one passed by the Palmyra Borough Council recently, recommending to the generous consideration of the citizens of Riverton, the solicitors who will call on them to collect funds to meet the deficit incurred in the two Drum and Bugle Company competitions held in Riverton and Palmyra last Fall and this Spring. Such a resolution was unanimously adopted, and is published elsewhere in this issue.

Julius Woidill, 506 Main street. Mrs. Howard Pardy, 518, 520, 522 Main street. Mr. Sylvester asked Mr. Bastian if he did not think that an extended building line would enhance the value of the business properties on the street. Mr. Bastian replied that it would undoubtedly have that effect, but the main objection was that there was not a business person along the street who could at this time afford to extend his building out to a new line. In the meantime the view to their present properties would be obstructed by the proposed extended building owned by Donald R. Taggart, of Audubon.

After a lengthy discussion between the councilmen and their solicitor, Frank A. Mathews, Jr., a compromise plan was advanced that met with the unanimous approval of council. A resolution was drawn authorizing a change in the zoning ordinance which in effect permits the following: A second story may be extended into the front yard of a property a distance not exceeding eight feet, and may be enclosed in either double hung or hinged windows. The first floor may have bulk windows of clear glass on all sides and extending into the front yard a distance of not exceeding four feet. This resolution passed unanimously.

The borough attorney, upon examination of the application for and the building permit issued to Donald R. Taggart, passed the opinion that the permit was automatically invalidated by the conditions of the progress on the building to date. The original permit was given for alterations to the McCombs building and since it has been completely demolished it will be necessary for the owner to secure another permit for a new building project. The clerk was instructed to advise the owner to that effect.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Riverton, N. J. July 12, 1935.

Editor The New Era: The news item which appeared in The New Era this week, reporting that our astute (?) governor, of the firm of H. & H., was ready to exert his tremendous influence to oppose the return to the Assembly of Dr. Marcus W. Newcomb from Burlington County, is without doubt the finest tribute and endorsement which Dr. Newcomb could possibly secure, and should go far to insure his reelection.

My district in Burlington County is one which gave to Hoffman the large majority of 782 to 268 for his opponent, but which only elected a Republican mayor by a majority of six votes, 527 to 521. Yet if Hoffman should be voted upon now, it is very unlikely that he would receive a tenth of the votes we gave him last year.

Dr. Newcomb is an able man, independent of any political pressure, but always considerate of the interests of the party which elected him, where such consideration is not against the public interest. While not a poor man, he is simple in his tastes, and is never tempted by opportunities to make money through his position. No job that the governor could offer him would compensate him enough to make him give up his independence.

He is one of those few New Jersey Assemblymen who realized that Dr. Cleo and his Clean Government League, in their efforts to have our expensive and inefficient State Administration reduce expenses, really sensed the desires of the citizens, and because he refused to join with the governor in the effort to build up a job machine, all the pressure which the jobholders and the opportunists can exert will be used against him.

The wonderful opportunity which the governor had in a national sense, when he was one of the few Republicans to be elected in a Democratic year, has been frittered away by a picaresque effort to build up a party machine which might possibly insure him a lucrative job for the balance of his political career.

Still A Republican.

COUNTY RELIEF SHOWS SAVING

A decrease of $7,601.88 was effected during the month of June in the cost of Relief administered by the Burlington County Emergency Relief Administration over the previous month of May, according to W. Rex McCrosson, County Relief Director. The cost of operation in May showed $88,666.56 while that of June was $80,974.70.

Families on relief in May were 3483 compared to 3220 in June, showing a decrease of 263, while the persons on relief in May were 13,473 with June showing 12,498, a decrease of 975. McCrosson states that wherever possible savings have been effected without causing any unjust hardships on any individual or family, always keeping in mind the fact that each case is thoroughly gone over by a staff of supervisors.

Several of the major savings helping to make the decrease were, cash, showing May at $47,057.67 while June was $40,910.30; food, May, $15,461.85, June $14,717.09; clothing (cash purchased) May, $11,538.71, June, $527.57; physicians' service, May, $4,627.84, June $3,943.16; milk, May, $8,494.69, June $7,896.03; dental service May, $482.50, June $386; glasses (eye) May, $66, June $19.25; coal, May $85.59, June 8.27; medical supplies, May $785.96, June $716.90.

For with thee is the fountain of life" (Psalm 36:7).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life" (John 5:24). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I Am, the being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (p. 289).

HOLC "CHATTEL" MORTGAGE CLAUSE

Congressman Powers Warns Borrowers to Get New Mortgage Minus Clause

New Jersey property owners who have unknowingly given chattel mortgages to the Home Owners Loan Corporation deserve to be immediately given new mortgages without the chattel clause.

That is the opinion of Congressman D. Lane Powers, Representative of Mercer and Burlington Counties, as expressed in a letter sent to the Honorable John W. Childress, Assistant to the Administrator of the HOLC in Washington, on Monday of this week.

Several months ago Congressman Powers brought to the attention of the HOLC that the mortgage forms then being used in New Jersey were not only real property but also chattel mortgages. Those who signed them believing they were only mortgaging their real estate to the HOLC were actually, in the opinion of several county clerks whom the Congressman consulted, mortgaging also their household chattels. Any one whose mortgage fell into default could have not only his property seized, but also his furniture and all household goods.

Due to the Congressman's insistence on a clarification of this situation the HOLC, new mortgage forms have been issued for New Jersey which make no mention of chattels. Anyone who signs the mortgages, the Congressman believes, will be signing over only their real property.

The point that concerns Congressman Powers is what relief the HOLC will give those who signed mortgages before the new form was issued. He asked Childress to answer that question. "My only purpose is to protect my constituents," the Congressman declared today. "I would not want to see the Government seize the rugs off the floors and the dishes from the cupboards of those who default on their HOLC mortgages. The new forms are entirely safe but they should be substituted for all of the old forms which have been issued."

RIVERTON AGAIN IN TWIN VICTORY

Chestnut Hill and Royersford Fall Before Locals With Scores 9-3 and 6-4

Riverton brushed aside another formidable opponent last Saturday when they defeated Chestnut Hill, score 9-3.

Leon Sloan, Bill Baker, Jack Easley and Jim Wolfe furnished the artillery which allowed Dusty Coles to coast to an easy victory. As early as the third inning the home club put the game on ice when they scored 5 runs on a single by Sloan, Bill Baker's double, Easley, Foulke, H. Baker and Wolfe singled, and walks to Coles, Terrell and Sloan. The last two runs were forced over the plate on the free tickets.

On Sunday, Riverton travelled to Lakeview Park, Royersford, Pa., and handed the home team its fourth defeat in twenty-seven starts in a fast and exciting game, score 6-4.

Backing the steady pitching of Clayt Weikman with brilliant fielding and timely hitting, Riverton eked out the victory in the eighth inning with a three-run rally when Jim Reeves led off with a single to centre, and promptly stole second.

Bartley was equal to the occasion and singled to right, scoring Reeves, and Josh went to second on the throw home. Easley was purposely passed and then Jiggy Foulke singled with much gusto to centre, admitting Josh and sending Jack to third and when the homester's catcher threw wild to second trying to head off Foulke, Easley easily scored with the third run of the inning.

Jack Easley hit one high and far to left field in the second inning, but was held to a two-base hit on account of ground rules.

Playground Notes

To date the registration list is 279 with an average daily attendance of about 100 children. Those living in the more distant parts of town are urged to come to the park so that sectional competition may be organized. It is pointed out that if the children cross the railroad at Main street, they will be protected in doing so. While a corner lot may be handier, the danger of accident and injury by passing cars is always present.

There is ample room on the park for almost any activity, and children who already have teams are invited to use the park. To do this get in touch with the supervisor so that time arrangements may be made.

There'll be SNOW On the Roof Tops!

That's not a prophecy; it's a fact—a cold fact that must be reckoned in dollars and cents.

We don't relish talking of furnaces and fuel bills when we are trying to be cool in July—but we wish to be considerate of our fellow man and thus pass this information on.

Gas house heating will be cheaper next winter—about 22%. This should completely change your idea about automatic gas heat and make you cool to all other methods of heating.

Another piece of information of interest even in the heat of July. You can install automatic gas heating now and pay for it over three years. Thus you can solve your heating problem without putting your August vacation in jeopardy.

Another thing—we have a plan by which you may budget the annual fuel bill in 10 equal monthly payments. This permits you to know just what your monthly outlay for heat will be and will prevent the ups and downs in billing due to ups and downs of weather.

Let us help you solve this heating problem by making a survey of your home and an estimate of the cost to heat it by gas. Our experts will be glad to do this for you at once. Use the coupon.

Tremendous Trifles
By ELMO SCOTT WATSON
SILICON
SILICON is the most abundant solid element in nature. Young James Abbot MacNell Whistler, a cadet at the United States Military Academy, may have known that once. But if he did, he forgot it. One day in 1854, when he was writing an examination in chemistry and was called upon to define silicon, he just had to "make a stab at it." His guess wasn't a good one. He was "found" in chemistry—that's West Point phraselogy for "found deficient." Also he was "busted out" of the academy, thereby ending what should have been a promising military career.

But as it turned out, the distinguished cadet won even greater distinction in another field. He became one of America's finest artists—the painter of the world's most famous "Mother" picture. Perhaps there were other errors in his chemistry examination paper. But we have Whistler's words for it that "if silicon had been a noxious gas, I might have been a famous general today."

Russia is considering the construction of a bridge across the Bering strait, which at its narrowest point is 30 miles wide.

PUBLIC HERO NUMBER ONE

Dramatic details of the Government secret service in its war on organized crime; the heroism of the Federal men in their perilous work, and the trailing of a public enemy, in a story based on actual facts and cases, are the thrills of "Public Hero Number 1."

A drama immortalizing the unknown soldiers of peace in their relentless war against organized criminals, the story is, aside from being breathless entertainment, an eye opener to the public, in showing intimately what goes on in the struggle on the side of the law daily.

Chester Morris as the adventurous Jeff Crane, and Joseph Calleia as the fugitive crime overlord, are the centers about which the amazing plot revolves. Lionell Barrymore adds both comedy and pathos in the principal character role, as the strange old physician, tool of the underworld, and blonde Jean Arthur with Morris, provides the romantic interest.

WEREWOLF AT WALT WHITMAN

The old expression, "A wolf in sheep's clothing," becomes a reality in Universal's new horror film, "Werewolf of London," which is coming Saturday to the Walt Whitman theatre with Henry Hull, Warner Oland and Valerie Hobson in the leading roles.

Or, rather, instead of being a wolf in sheep's clothing, Henry Hull becomes a wolf in the clothing of a respected English scientist. Hull actually out-Jekylls Mr. Hyde in this role, for by day he is a man and by night he turns into a savage wolf that roams the darkened streets turning the night into a savage hell as his baying sounds through the silence and he satiates his bloodlust by murder and cannibalism.

CUP TOURNAMENTS START MONDAY

Entries Close Sunday for Men's Singles and Doubles; Team Lunas Twice

The fifth annual men's singles and doubles cup tournaments will get under way at Memorial Park Monday, July 29, with the finals scheduled for Saturday, August 24. A sheet has been posted on the bulletin board by the courts, and entries will be accepted in both divisions of play until 6.00 p.m., Sunday. The women's cup tournament will begin on Monday, August 5, and anyone wishing to enter may do so after the men's contest has gotten under way.

The Junior singles and doubles competition is listed to open on Monday, August 12. The exact dates upon which each round must be concluded will be announced later.

Riverton Loses to Beverly

After having swept through Palmyra and Delanco without the loss of a match, a Riverton team, much weakened by the absence of Biddle, Robbins, Caldwell, and Loney dropped two matches on the park courts during the past weekend. The home aggregation was defeated by Beverly 7-1 on Saturday and again on Sunday could eke out but one point as Bordentown triumphed 6-1.

Robert Borer, playing No. 1 singles for Riverton, dropped his match with Kunsel, of Beverly; 6-3, 6-4. There were but few rallies, for each player pounded the ball as hard as possible. Neither could hold service consistently, but Kunsel proved to have the more trustworthy ground strokes.

Barto Plays Well

Howard Barto, who has been playing excellent tennis all summer, showed his best game Saturday, only to have his opponent be the steeper at the crucial moments. The Riverton player lost by a 6-3, 1-6, 6-4 count. Barto's strokes are probably the best-executed at the park, but severity is lacking.

George King, ranked No. 3, put up a splendid battle in the second set of his match with Sever but was to erratic from the baseline and succumbed 6-1, 8-6. Richard Woodward and Richard Allen were defeated by the identical scores 6-4, 6-1 in their fourth and fifth singles contests respectively.

Schmierer Singles Victor

Wilson Schmierer, last representative of Riverton, won the Park's only point when he downed Butler, of Beverly, 6-4, 6-4. Schmierer's service, which breaks to the back hand, completely fooled the Beverly player, who erred frequently on backhand shots as well.

The Riverton doubles teams showed flares of good tennis; but none were close to winning, although King and Schmierer were tied at one set all as a high wind called a halt to the match. Borer and Buhler lost 7-5, 6-1, and Woodward and Barto were beaten 6-3, 6-4.

Bordentown Triumphs 6-1

In a contest cut to four singles and three doubles matches Riverton only managed to emerge victor in the second doubles match. Robert Borer and William Collier, of Bordentown staged a very close contest which went to the latter 7-5, 6-2. Both players engaged in extended rallies through the two sets with little to choose between them until Borer could not get the proper depth to his drives. Collier quickly took advantage of this and placed the ball well, forcing Borer out of position.

Snyder, borrowed from Palmyra along with Hammur, was unable to fathom Bergland's forcing attack and lost 6-2, 6-1. Most of the games (continued on page 3)

Miss Steele was proceeding east on Broad street when she struck Mr. Thatcher who was crossing Broad street just in front of his home.

REPUBLICAN RALLY AT SYLVAN LAKES

Big Get-together, Opening Fall Campaign, Planned for August 5th

A grand rally will be held by the Associated Republican Clubs of Burlington County at Sylvan Lakes, near Burlington, on Monday evening, August 5th.

This meeting is expected to be the largest affair of its kind ever held in the county and a committee of 12 active Burlington Republicans, headed by Thomas Coburn, is making arrangements. The committee will hold its final meeting next Monday evening at which time further details will be announced.

The Republicans will convene in the dance pavilion at the Lakes and the business session will be concluded early in the evening, so there will be plenty of time for the big program of entertainment and dancing which will be provided. A popular five-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Since the time for the fall campaign is drawing near, all the leading candidates and possible candidates will be on hand, as well as county office holders and political workers from far and near. Every Republican in Burlington County is invited and urged to attend.

MANY OFFICES TO BE FILLED IN RIVERTON

Riverton will have quite a crop of candidates in the primary election on September 17. There will be a mayor to elect for a full term, two councilmen for full terms of three years, and one for an unexpired term of one year, and a justice of the peace.

The term of C. Kenneth Davis, collector and treasurer, does not expire until next year. The term of Robinet Cole, assessor, would have expired this year, but recent legislation increased the term of assessors to five years, which gives him three more years to go.

H. McVain Biddle's term as mayor will expire. The terms of Robert W. Knight and DeWitt Steele, councilman, expire and there will be two full terms of three years to be filled.

J. Wilson Sylvester has served one of the two left by the resignation of Councilman Howard D. Sordun, which creates a vacancy of one year to be filled.

Petitions for municipal offices must be filed with the borough clerk on or before August 22. In addition to these, there will be male and female members of the county committee for both parties to be elected in all districts.

Seven thousand miles of highways radiating from Berlin and linking every corner of the country are to be constructed in Germany.

NO MORE WORK PROJECTS FOR ERA

Since Organization of WPA and NRS Employment Will Go Through New Set-up

In view of the fact that numerous applications for employment on works projects continue to be received by the State Emergency Relief Administration, that organization has sent out word that with the establishment of the Works Progress Administration and the operation of its activities, no works projects will be carried on by the ERA. The relief administration will operate solely as a relief body. It will thus re-assume its original status, that which it held before it undertook the employment of its clients and before the various Federal agencies to provide work were developed. Its duty will be to care for those who are unable, either through unemployment or other causes, to obtain the necessities of life.

With the absorption of the great part of the relief load by the Works Progress Administration on paid work projects, thereby taking clients of the ERA off relief, the ERA will develop opportunities to study the problem of those who cannot be employed and who must therefore continue as public charges. These studies are to be undertaken with the view that relief work possibly may be transferred ultimately to county or municipal governments, as future legislation may determine.

The ERA will continue its co-operation with both the Works Progress Administration and the National Re-employment Service as far as this is required. The NRS is the agency set up to register unemployed men and women—both those on relief and those who are not—for employment in either private industry or on projects of the Works Progress Administration.

The Emergency Relief Administration certifies the National Re-employment Service the relief status of its clients. All its clients who are employable must be registered with the NRS. This latter organization, not the ERA, makes all placements. The Works Progress Administration, which will operate all works projects—including those which were formerly handled by the works division of the ERA—occupies the position of an employer. It is subject, however, to the restriction that at least 90 per cent of those it employs must come from relief rolls, with the certification by the ERA that each person certified was actually a bona fide recipient of relief as of May, this year.

All the labor it employs must be requisitioned by the Works Progress Administration from the offices of the National Re-employment Service. The Emergency Relief Administration will have no relationship in this connection.

Chief of Police George Dorworth, of Cinnaminson Township, was notified of the accident and took charge of caring for the injured.

Shortly after the crash the Palmyra ambulance passed the scene on its way to Riverside with Jacob Thatcher, of Palmyra, who had just been struck by an automobile and seriously injured.

The ambulance driver hastened to Riverside and returned with the Riverside ambulance and the victims were taken to Riverside.

Chief William Voshell and Patrolman Louis Harris, of Riverside, assisted with the ambulance work.

Dr. Harry L. Rogers, of Riverton, was called to assist the hospital staff in caring for the injured.

An inquest by C. Walter Green, of Florence, was held after which Miss VanDever's body was removed to the Murray funeral parlors in Camden. Norwalk was held for manslaughter by automobile by Recorder Cecil A. Bowers who was taken to the Zurbrugg by Chief Dorworth.

MAD DOG BITES THREE CHILDREN

Canine Owned by Charles Taylor Attacked Children Last Week, Pronounced Mad

Another mad dog put in appearance last Wednesday, July 17, when a canine owned by Charles Taylor, of 116 Oxford road, Palmyra, extended, bit three children.

Dr. Zurbrugg was called and waited one day before making final diagnosis. He pronounced the dog rabid and had the animal killed and his head sent to Trenton, where the authorities sent back a report confirming Dr. Zurbrugg's diagnosis.

The children bitten were: Charles Taylor, Jr., Wilbur Bland, 115 Oxford road and Paul Kane, of 504 Malburn street, Beverly.

Dr. Bauer is giving treatment to the Taylor and Bland boy.

ONE KILLED, FOUR HURT IN CRASH

Girl Pinned Under Car Dies Instantly. Two More Near Death

A young woman was killed and two men seriously injured when two automobiles collided on the river road at Taylor's Lane early Saturday evening.

The dead woman is Miss Alice VanDever, 285 Haddon avenue, Camden, and the men are Howard VanDever, 626 State street, Camden, and William Sheppard, Sixth street below Allegheny, in Philadelphia. The men are in critical condition at the Zurbrugg Memorial Hospital, Riverside.

The accident happened about 7 o'clock when a Cadillac owned and driven by VanDever was struck by a Pierce Arrow operated by Robert Norwalk, 1429 Chew street, Philadelphia, who was driving his wife's car.

VanDever had crossed the railroad tracks and reached the middle of the highway when the Norwalk car crashed into him, hurling the Cadillac into a corn field 75 feet distant.

Miss VanDever was pinned under the car and killed instantly. In the car with VanDever was James Shinn, of 428 Haddon avenue, Camden, who was cut and bruised about the head and suffered a broken left leg.

VanDever's chest was crushed and he suffered internal injuries. Riding with Norwalk was Montell Williams, 2607 Roberts avenue, Philadelphia. He was cut about the face and head and was allowed to go home after being treated at the hospital.

William Sheppard suffered a fractured skull and was pronounced in a serious condition at the hospital. Norwalk had a broken left leg.

Chief of Police George Dorworth, of Cinnaminson Township, was notified of the accident and took charge of caring for the injured.

Shortly after the crash the Palmyra ambulance passed the scene on its way to Riverside with Jacob Thatcher, of Palmyra, who had just been struck by an automobile and seriously injured.

The ambulance driver hastened to Riverside and returned with the Riverside ambulance and the victims were taken to Riverside.

PALMYRA SEEKS STATE ROAD AID

Mayor Lamon and Councilman Engle Call on D. Sterner, New Commissioner

At a meeting of the Palmyra Borough Council last Thursday evening, Mayor Walter D. Lamon and Councilman William Engle gave an account of their visit to State Highway Commissioner Donald Sterner at Trenton in regard to Palmyra's request for a share of the state funds offered to municipalities for local street improvement. The Commissioner gave a very friendly reception to the Palmyra officials and it is expected that some concrete results of the visit may be announced later.

A copy of one of the new state laws was read, containing the information that the terms of municipal assessors are to be extended to five years. This means that Palmyra Assessor James H. Hartley will not have to run for re-nomination this fall and that he will have two more years to serve.

Seek Lower Rates Mayor Lamon announced that as the result of his activities looking toward reduced fire insurance rates for Palmyra, Hugh V. Keppers, of the Insurance Rate Schedule Department in Newark, had made a survey of the town, in which his attention had been directed to the splendid fire department, the hydrant system and other municipal features for lessening fire risks.

A letter from Furman A. Wood suggested that council consider making a garden or playground site of the vacant lots lying between Third street and the Temple Boulevard.

ERA figures for July were announced as follows: 125 families, 462 persons, total cost $3320, borough's share $270.

Councilman Carl Thomas was authorized to draft a set of rules and regulations for the borough playgrounds, to take care of certain conditions which have arisen. Thomas also was authorized to make necessary changes in the lighting system throughout the town.

A contribution of $10 was made to the South Jersey Mayors' Association to aid the campaign for high speed transportation.

Further action is planned by council immediately toward the demolition of several dilapidated buildings about the town.

To Prevent Rabies Councilmen Charles Mervine, George Luce and others urged that steps be taken to prevent in the future such happenings in local barrooms as the one which recently ended in a manslaughter charge.

It was decided to place the matter in the hands of the police committee for appropriate action.

Borough Clerk George J. Spencer reported that virtually 100% of the dogs in Palmyra have been registered as the result of the campaign carried on by the local authorities this year, backed up by the activities of a dog catcher.

The total dogs registered to date is 510.

LOWER RATES ON TIME DEPOSITS

Head of N. J. Bankers Assoc. Says Government Forced Interest Down

Lower interest rates on time deposits in banks, were forecast in an address to the Palmyra-Riverton Rotary Club at its dinner at the Porch Club last Thursday night by Leslie G. McDouall, president of the New Jersey Bankers Association. Mr. McDouall, who is trust officer of the Fidelity Union Trust Co., Newark, is leading a good-will tour of the officers of the New Jersey Bankers Association among the banks of the State.

Explaining that investments are the chief source of present income to banks, Mr. McDouall stated that the average bank has close to one third of its funds invested in government securities. Whereas the government paid approximately four per cent on its obligations at the time President Roosevelt took office, he said, it now pays slightly in excess of two and one half per cent despite the fact that the government debt has risen eight billion dollars since the New Deal began.

Banks must have a spread of at least one per cent between their rate of earnings and the rate they pay out in interest, Mr. McDouall explained. The policy of the United States Treasury Department has forced a condition of low money rates, he pointed out, which he said he expects will continue for a long time to come. In such a situation, he stated, it will be impossible for banks to continue paying their present rate of interest on deposits.

Understandable Statements Mr. McDouall called on the bankers present to publish more complete and understandable bank statements. "We must clearly set forth the amount of time and demand deposits," he said, "the amount due to banks, trust companies and other bankers. We must tell the public more of the details regarding our investment portfolios."

Mr. McDouall revealed that conversations are being held with appropriate state authorities looking to the collection of the sales tax by banks in order to prevent the high cost which it is being freely predicted will accompany the collection of this tax, in order that every cent possible may be devoted to the purposes for which the tax is intended, namely relief.

Mr. McDouall made it clear that the bankers of the state vigorously opposed the sales tax or any other form of increased taxation, taking the position that additional relief funds should be derived from economies in the state government. The State Bankers Association finally agreed to go along with the sales tax as an emergency measure only for one year, he said.

May Collect Sales Tax Now that the sales tax is on the statute books he urged his hearers to take a constructive rather than a destructive attitude toward it. As for the bankers of the state, he reported that if the present conversations result in action the banks will probably volunteer their services as tax collection agencies to which merchants may come to pay their sales tax receipts. This will be the contribution of the banks of the state to the economy movement they have been demanding, he declared.

Mr. McDouall called attention to the fact that there are approximately 600 boards of tax assessors in New Jersey, all following their own bent and employing their own personnel. He urged that serious consideration be given to a proposal by Governor Harold Hoffman in his inaugural address that these boards of assessors be reduced in number to 21. Such a forward step might eventually lead to the establishment of one taxing board for the entire state, he added, with one uniform tax system.

Mr. McDouall was accompanied by Garret A. Denise, of Freehold, vice president of the bankers association, Armitt A. Coate, secretary and Lester Gibson, associate editor of the American Banker, New York.

THE "NEW DEAL" BY JULIAN MASON Vice President National Republican Builders

A Dangerous Game

A sound barrier of American shrewdness and American common sense intervenes between a "horse-and-buggy" denunciation of the Constitution and the adoption of a constitutional amendment embodying that denunciation.

Is this fact not being lost sight of in the threat of "the Roosevelt myth" and the apparent political effectiveness of a Roosevelt determination to "put the Supreme Court in a hole"?

I think it is. Putting anybody "in a hole" is one of those political maneuvers that usually defeats itself by being too clever by far.

It defeated its own end. It did so year after year while Smith was governor. The reason was that the people saw through it. They recognized the policy as one of tactics, no matter what sincerities might lie behind it.

They saw the use of methods that were fundamental falsities. And the man against whom these methods were directed became the object of the people's sympathy and support.

MOORESTOWN TO VOTE ON LIQUOR

Wets, Who Lost By Only Forty Votes Three Years Ago Hope to Win

The five members of Moorestown township committee voted unanimously Monday night for a referendum on the saloon question at the general election in November.

In a special executive session after its regular meeting, the committee approved a motion by Fred P. Smith calling upon Lawrence Mingin, Burlington county clerk, to place on the township ballot the question whether the committee shall be authorized to grant permits for the sale of beer and liquor within the township.

Moorestown is traditionally dry. The wets lost out by only 40 votes in a referendum on the question three years ago, when the dries were led by Mrs. Nina G. Frantz, state president of the W.C.T.U., who since has died. The township committee's vote, taken after all citizens had left their meeting chamber in Town Hall, caused a mild sensation when the news got out. It is certain to cause repercussions among the dries, and not a little jubilation among the damper elements.

Cup Tournaments To Start Monday

Hannum Loses Close Match Until his chop stroke struck a wild streak Jack Hannum held control of the third singles match over VanNess; however, the Bordentown player would not give up and was rewarded with a 7-5, 6-5 victory.

George King could not gain command of his forehead stroke until the second set in the fourth singles contest. King went down 6-0, 7-5, but showed remarkable courage as he fought to make an effective weapon of a stroke which was obviously having an off day.

Voorhees and Collier, of Bordentown, blazed through Snyder and Hannum for the fifth straight point for Bordentown. The score was 6-2, 6-3. The Riverton pair were out-manuevered but stuck gamely to their task.

Borer and Buhler called a temporary halt to the barrage of Bordentown wins by upsetting Deacon and Pley 4-6, 7-5, 6-3. It was not until the third set that the home combination really fell into its stride, but once this had occurred, there was little doubt as to the ultimate outcome.

King and Woodward were defeated in the last doubles match by Crockett and Godfrey. The Riverton pair won two games in each of the sets.

Country Club Rival Sunday This Saturday afternoon the Senior Tennis Team journeys to Burlington to play at the Roseview Tennis Courts. On Sunday the Park team will play Riverton Country Club at Memorial Park. An extremely interesting match is promised to the fact that stress had kept the wizardry of Col. Louis McHenry

A Quick Drial

It happened that in the Sunday Herald Tribune, Mark Sullivan, Theodore Wallen, head of the Herald Tribune Washington Bureau, as well as this column commented upon the recent tactical blunders of the administration. I ventured to ask whether this record might not be due to the fact that stress had kept the wizardry of Col. Louis McHenry

DO SOMETHING

The following article, written by the manager of the Tacony-Palmyra bridge, and published in the Philadelphia Inquirer, is commended to the consideration of those who believe we should "do something" about the drift of the present Administration away from American principles.

A COMMITTEE OF ONE

Thinking people must realize the calamity if the present Administration should remain in power for four more years after 1936. The country will be fortunate to survive until 1936, but I am afraid our entire economic system will have collapsed by 1940.

What can we do about it? I suggest that every man and woman of the conservative type, regardless of political parties, the people opposed to the present Administration, consider themselves as "A Committee of One" and convert at least one of the radicals. If you succeed in showing some one voter the complete ruin that we are facing today, under our present Administration, and cause that one vote to be cast in the right direction, you will have rendered a real service to your country.

Many people are being led blindly, and, not being able to do much thinking of their own, are hoping and trusting that all of the false promises of the Administration may come true. That the Administration is not to be trusted is best demonstrated by the repudiation of nearly all their campaign promises. The slogan is "Get at least one Vote. If you are dissatisfied with present conditions, you should be willing to contribute something towards bringing about a change.

Be a WORKER. Arthur A. Niessen Philadelphia, July 16.

Service, Please!

Relief "clients" down Maple Shade way are getting particular. Last week one of these "gentlemen of leisure" wrote a letter to the local paper demanding the dismissal of one of the county relief workers because... well, here's what he says, in an open letter addressed to W. Rex McCrosson, County Relief Director:

"As an unemployed citizen of Maple Shade I would like you to inform me along with the rest of the unemployed as I have been told all orders go out from your office, but it seems to me your "smart visitors" exercise an extra measure of false authority, now you have a relief worker here whom I think should be reprimanded, as she is very discourteous. I would call her extremely unfair.

"At a recent gathering here in Maple Shade I was surprised to learn that practically all of her relief clients would appreciate it if you, as Director in Burlington County and her superior, would remove her as she has worn out her welcome in Maple Shade.

"This visitor drives up to a house in her car and sits there and blows her horn till someone comes out after their order. Her bluff is she is afraid of dogs. As you no doubt know, the majority of dogs here are supposed to be tied during the summer months. This lady has inquired of her clients as to whether they are members of the unemployed union in this town. I wonder if this is any of her business, or is she told at the Moorestown office to find out who belongs to our union and then cut down on them?"

"The latest joke this person has tried to pull is to demand she be shown rent receipts before she leaves the order. Yet some people can have members of the family working and purchase a new radio and keep the front porch lit up half of the night, as the ERA pays the bill, but they must suck in with the visitor and squeal on someone else to get theirs.

"I suggest Mr. McCrosson send a woman down here to take her place, one who has common sense and is broadminded enough to perform her duties on the square, as the above woman is absolutely not qualified for the job when she shows partiality.

"I would request an answer." B. B. Beideman, Workers' Alliance of Burlington County, Maple Shade.

(And so, it has come to this! This splendid specimen of American manhood, who is living on the labor of his neighbors, not only wants his living free, but demands that the relief worker, who is a woman, shall carry it into the house for him! These creatures have been coddled and pampered by the New Deal Administration until what little vestige of manhood they might have once had is fast disappearing. Talk about "preserving their morale!"—Editor, The New Era.)

RIVERTON LOSES TWO AND WINS ONE

Narberth and Chestnut Hill Victorious; Locals Take East Germantown

In the fastest and most exciting game of the year Riverton lost to Narberth by score 6-5 at Memorial Park last Friday evening.

It was a nip and tuck affair with both teams making some thrilling plays. Clayt Weikman went the distance for the homesters and although he was touched for 11 bingles, he was tight in the pinches and it was an unfortunate break in the ninth inning that lost the game.

With men on first and third an attempt to steal was successful when the reliable Art Terrell dropped a perfect throw from Wolfe which allowed the runner on third to score.

Freddie Conway and Jim Wolfe led the home club at bat, with three and two hits respectively while T. Ralston's three hits showed the way for Narberth stickers.

Next week there will not be a game on Wednesday evening at Memorial Park. The game has been moved back to Friday to allow the Riverton Club to play a return game at Narberth, Pa. On Saturday of this week Riverton will be host to the strong Towanda Club of Philadelphia. This club has defeated some of the best teams in the east and Riverton will have to be at their best to win.

DREER'S THROUGH NEW ENGLAND EYES

The following is taken from a column written by Edward C. Vick, and published in a recent issue of the Boston Sunday Advertiser: "One of the largest test gardens of roses in the East, that of Henry A. Dreer, Riverton, New Jersey, where hundreds of plants are grown, including the newer varieties from all over the world, is in charge of James A. Clark, a Scotsman, a most practical gardener of life-long experience, and J. L. Legendre, a Frenchman, who knows roses as few others.

"On a recent visit to the garden it was said that the most important feature was the constant attention it received. The hoe was kept going daily from early in the season until late and I doubt that that frugal Scotsman and careful Frenchman expend money except where the returns fully justify the outlay."

Supplied with current by a dry battery to be carried in a pocket, an electric light has been invented that can be clipped to a finger to leave both hands free to use tools at night.

TIPS ON GROWING BY ONE WHO GREW UP IN THE BUSINESS

For several weeks the horticultural press has been commenting very favorably on the Dreer Trial Garden of Roses opposite Memorial Park, and which has attracted many famous rosarians this summer.

At the firm's Riverview Nursery another extensive trial garden has been inaugurated this season which may, before the season is over, arouse quite as much interest. This is the New Gladiolus Trial Garden where over three hundred varieties are now in bloom, and as nine plantings have been made at different times there should be an unbroken succession of bloom throughout the summer.

It is doubtful if there is another "Glad" trial garden so complete and extensive in the country, as Mr. Michel, the "big boss" at Riverview, has combed the wide world for bulbs of every variety with a claim of merit that he could buy, big or borrow (I don't think he stole any), from the best amateur and commercial growers.

Red Phipps is another fine red. Corypheus, a pink with the stem curved like a saxophone. The old-time popular favorite, Mrs. Francis King, still holds its own with the best of them. They have some great names in Glads—witness Angle's Dream, Gate of Heaven, Taurus, La Paloma, Lavender Delight, Little

Tremendous Trifles by ELMO SCOTT WATSON TINY URGE, GREAT ADVENTURE

THROUGHOUT his boyhood Randall McDonald listened to the sailor's tales of Japan and made up his mind to go there. So, on a June day, 1848, he sat in a small boat rolling in the wake of the whaler Plymouth, off the northernmost coast of Japan.

On July 2, near the village of Notsuka, McDonald capsize the boat deliberately, feeling sure that no race would mistreat a shipwrecked sailor. But he was imprisoned for ten months. He put in his time to good account, however, learning their language and teaching them English. McDonald was freed from captivity on April 6, 1849. His adventure bore fruit in a strange way. One of his pupils was a youth named Moriyan who became interpreter for Townsend Harris, the first minister from the United States to Japan. Harris' task was one of the most difficult in the history of American diplomacy. The trail that McDonald had blazed into Japan resulted in the rise of an Oriental nation to a world power.

BROADWAY THEATRE SATURDAY

Victor McLaglen and Heather Angel in "The Informer." Radically different than anything heretofore shown on the screen, already rated as one of the best ten of the season.

Outboard Races at Irish Wharf Sunday

Everything is in readiness for the outboard motor races to be held on the Rancocas creek at Irish Wharf on Sunday afternoon, sponsored by the America Fire Company of Mt. Holly and sanctioned by the National Park Outboard Association.

There will be classes for C hydroplanes and F boats, also runabouts, while the closing event will be a free-for-all with a handsome trophy presented by E. Budd Marter, of Beverly, president of the Affiliated Sportsmen's Clubs of New Jersey.

Some of the best known drivers in the eastern part of the country have entered their boats and will positively appear in one or more of the half dozen events, and these include Bill Howe, Tom Cundey, Jim Shannon, Cox Bros., Frank Smitz, Earl Phillips, James Priestly and others.

Competent judges have been secured to take charge of the course, which is admitted to be one of the best in the state, while a natural grandstand along the half-mile speedway gives all an opportunity of witnessing the events under ideal conditions.

Entrance to the starting and finishing point at Irish Wharf is from the Mount Holly-Rancocas road, a short distance west of Rancocas. A small admission fee will be charged, the proceeds to go for the benefit of the fire company, whose committee is composed of Harold F. Powell, chairman; Ernest Mellon, James T. Anderson, Dennis Green and Howard Nixon.

This committee is working harmoniously with representatives of the National Park Outboard Association.

The races will start at 2 p.m., and it is expected that they will be completed by 5 o'clock, thus permitting all to reach home in time for their Sunday dinners.

ROARS GREET CHILD COMIC IN NEW FILM

A bundle of sure-fire, top-notch comedy entertainment began an engagement, yesterday, at the Walt Whitman theatre. The picture, "Ginger," boasts the talents of little, nine-year-old Jane Withers, an expert comedienne who is remembered for her part as the little meanie in "Bright Eyes."

"Ginger" boasts the world's champion small girl and boy heavies of the screen—Jane Withers and Jackie Searl. There's a swell clash, with a world of comedy, when these youngsters get together, although they're not heavies in this picture.

You'll enjoy the manner in which the talented, little, orphan Jane, denied the love and care of a mother and father, herself looks after O. P. Heggie, gives him lectures, loves him, defends him and keeps house for him. When Jane is taken into the Park avenue home of the pampered Jackie Searl, trouble and fun are certain to follow and they do.

THE MARINES ARE COMING!

William Haines, world famous wisecracking Mascot star laughs and loves his rollicking way through "The Marines Are Coming," which opens on Friday and Saturday at the Criterion Theatre. Esther Ralston, Conrad Nagel, Armida, Edgar Kennedy and George Regas are included in the cast.

AT WALT WHITMAN THEATRE NOW

Jane Withers, as a lovable tenement tomboy, and Jackie Searl, as the pampered son of a Park Avenue family, are featured in "Ginger," Fox Film's latest laugh riot.

ROOSEVELT vs. ROOSEVELT

THE PROMISE

"Let us have the courage to stop borrowing to meet continuing deficits. Stop the deficits! * * * Revenues must cover expenditures by one means or another: Any government, like any family, can for a year spend a little more than it earns. But you and I know that a continuation of that habit means the poorhouse."—Gov. Roosevelt, Albany, N. Y., July 30, 1932, in nationwide radio address endorsing the Democratic national platform.

THE PERFORMANCE

During its first two fiscal years, ending June 29, 1935, the Roosevelt administration piled up a deficit of $7,564,853,998. It has contracted the habit Governor Roosevelt stated "means the poorhouse." During the first 12 days of the current fiscal year it piled up an additional deficit of $355,310,000.

To meet these deficits the Roosevelt administration has in two years' time borrowed over $7,000,000,000.

granted and conveyed unto Maurice S. Mench and Emma Mench, his wife, in fee. Decree approximately $9098.67, besides interest, costs and fees.

R-S OIL BURNERS SHOW BIG GAINS

Only Domestic Oil Burner Made In Phila. Offers New Sturdy Models

F. J. Ryan, president of the R-S Products Corporation, oil burner manufacturers on Germantown avenue at Wayne Junction Station, has announced a 250 per cent increase in sales of domestic burners in the Philadelphia area so far this year compared with the like period of 1933.

The organization is the only manufacturer of domestic oil burner equipment in Philadelphia, Mr. Ryan said. Since it began their manufacture in 1924, sales have shown consistent gains.

At the same time Mr. Ryan announced introduction of a new model burner which burns No. 5 oils, a heavier and cheaper fuel. He stated it is adaptable for larger homes, apartment houses and stores, saving about 40 per cent in fuel costs over many gun-type burners using lighter oils.

Mr. Ryan stressed the fact that buyers in the Philadelphia district get expert installation and servicing by the plant.

"In 1920, the R-S Products Corporation began manufacturing commercial oil burners and other equipment, such as ovens and furnaces for steel mills, metal fabricating plants and other industrial organizations. The latter work still constitutes a great deal of its business.

"The R-S domestic oil burner was introduced in 1924, backed by extensive activities in the industrial field, which demands the utmost in efficiency."

The South Jersey Supply Company in Palmyra is the distributor for R-S oil burners in this vicinity.
