While I don't intend to misplace it, in case I should happen to, this Program Booklet belongs to:

WELCOME HOME!

It has been six long years since our family has been free to gather for an International Conference, and we have missed you, one and all. As you review this program, you will see that we have planned activities and presentations designed to penetrate deeply into your heart, actively stimulate your mind, and nourish your soul's desire for connection.

There is no real substitute for spending time together studying, serving, and interacting. Please enjoy these days reconnecting with long-time friends, making new friends, and strengthening your Urantia family ties.

As a compensation for the recent pandemic isolation, we seem to have been graciously granted a full complement of Celestial Artisans and Reversion Directors. For your pleasure, they have orchestrated a week filled with beautiful music, meaningful silliness, and uplifting frivolity!

All who participated in planning IC23 sincerely hope that you will leave this experience feeling nurtured, loved, and connected in heart, mind, and soul, both to one another and to our entire universe family.

We appreciate your willingness to make the extra effort to get here and be a part of this special event. We look forward to seeing you again, each time we reunite in the joy of the love of our Heavenly Father and His wondrous eternal family!

Gratefully,

The IC23 Planning Team:

Lara Amyx and Lila Dogim, Co-Chairs,
Sally Annabella, Ken Keyser, David Schlundt,
Trudi Cooper, and Jackie Koury

| | | | |
|--------------------|---------------------|------------------------|----------------------------|
| Most Clever | Best in Show | Best Pun | Best Costume Male |
| Best Group | Silliest | Most Believable | Best Costume Female |

All kids who enter will get a prize!

And it was certainly a new sight on Urantia to observe these children of Adam and Eve at play, joyous and exhilarating activity just for the sheer fun of it. The play and humor of the present-day races are largely derived from the Adamic stock. The Adamites all had a great appreciation of music as well as a keen sense of humor.

Living the Supreme Moment of Self-Expression and Connection

A Worship Program

Note: All ages are welcome to our community worship

Worship is the highest joy of Paradise existence;
it is the refreshing play of Paradise.
What play does for your jaded minds on earth,
worship will do for your perfected souls on Paradise.
Paper 27:7.5 (page 304.3)

In these few days, we will gather together to express our devotion and connection to our Divine Parents throughout our Hearts, Minds, and Souls. We will be led to worship through Meditation, Poetry, and Music.

We will start with a short guided meditation, in which the invitation is to open up to the present Moment with all of our senses, no matter what arises, giving us the opportunity to be aware and choose the connection within. In the mornings, after the meditation, we will go into silence for a few minutes, having the possibility to experience the power of staying attuned and listening. In the afternoons, we will be inspired to stay attuned with music playing from our beloved brothers and sisters from the Music Team. We will conclude this precious moment each day with a Prayer.

By connecting to the present Moment and allowing ourselves to be, we can each day at each moment reaffirm our commitment as daughters and sons of God to start to listen to our indwelling Divine Guide, our Thought Adjuster, and to follow our Father-Mother's will. The practice of doing so, each day, is part of our duty and privilege. And throughout this conference, we invite you to honor it once more, before the Plenaries.

Worship is the highest privilege and the first duty of all created intelligences.
Worship is the conscious and joyous act of recognizing and acknowledging the truth and fact of the intimate and personal relationships of the Creators with their creatures.

☿ HEART ☿

9:00 a.m. Tuesday Morning

An Invitation to Wholeness

May we become bearers of joy,
we who are invited to share in the Cosmic Dance!

We pray for the gift of wisdom,
that the motivations of our heart
might be made pure,
that we may recognize the perfect timing of all things and know the seasons
of the heart.

May we walk with faith
all the days of our life—
confident in your Living Presence even in times of trouble, and with assurance for what is
and all that is to be,
May we have faith in the unfolding of our lives, and radical trust in the universe.

by Nan Merrill,
with excerpts from Psalm 106

1:45 p.m. Tuesday Afternoon

Trust

The journey to my center
is more a spiral than beeline, but still it takes me where I most want to be –
that portal into mystery,
the still point where
my soul abides.

From that space which is really more a state of being than a place, I can know what I know with certainty and live my life with an open heart. In the stillness of this moment, the word that slips in is “trust.”
Anchored in trust, rooted in trust, I will know my next step when I need to,
and probably not before.

🌀 MIND 🌀

9:00 a.m. Wednesday Morning

Secret Portal

The secret portal into truth never closes. Sometimes
I move through it with ease, while other days I can't even see it. Knowing it is still there, and open wide,
a silent invitation into light,
nothing keeps me separate except my old beliefs
in what I can and cannot be.
It's really just a choice between awakened strength
and all-consuming doubt.
So which will it be?
I'm not stopping until I'm on the other side, right in the midst of the mystery.

by Danna Faulds

1:45 p.m. Wednesday Afternoon

A Daily Miracle

It's not that my mind
has gone quiet,
or my old conditioning
has simply disappeared.
It's not that life's usual
ankle-biters aren't here,
but I've found a place
of peace inside them.
There's space to breathe
and heal and be myself, even in the midst of imperfections and an endless array of unknowns.
I've grown in my ability to let peace be a present reality, but it still occurs
to me as a gift, a grace,
and a daily miracle
to be here.

🌀 SOUL 🌀

9:00 a.m. Thursday Morning

The Interconnected Whole

I pray to rest awhile
in that inner space
where Self and soul and source all radiate their light.
May I know, if only for a fleeting moment, that the interconnected whole leaves nothing outside its warm embrace. It's love that joins,
love that strengthens bonds,
love that illuminates and takes me on a sacred journey.
May I open to the mystery and silence from which this love arises and know it as my home.

by Danna Faulds

1:45 p.m. Thursday Afternoon

Psalms for Praying

Awaken us to the Oneness of all things, to the beauty and truth of Unity.
May we become aware of the interdependence of all living things and come to know You in everything and all things in You.
For as we attune to Your Presence within us, we know not separation and joy becomes our dwelling place.

by Nan Merrill
with excerpts from Psalm 106

🌀 HEART, MIND, and SOUL 🌀

9:00 a.m. Friday Morning

Right Here

It's all right here,
even if there are no words
to adequately describe it.
The All. The Everything.
The Big Love.
The open invitation
to be free.
Mystery. Silence.

Harmony. The Shining.
God's truth and the truth of me intersect
at a point of knowing that what I am at my core is not separate from the whole.
It's all right here.

Possibility. Presence.
Essence. Joy.
Where else could divinity be but right here?

ADULT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED DAILY:

To serve with the Children + Teen Program, please contact Aprilhelen: (870) 414-3341

Children are naturally trustful, and parents should see to it that they do not lose that simple faith.

Children are normally kind and sympathetic when old enough to appreciate actual conditions.

Children can easily be taught to function as peacemakers.

They enjoy team activities...

The Prevalence of Nonsense: A Perspective on Race

Location: Pebble Beach

Presenters: Gard Jameson along with Sherry Cathcart Chavis, Ariana Horn, Richard Jernigan, Al Lockett, André Radatus, David Schlundt, Cristina Seaborn,

The Urantia Book’s treatment of race using language of the early 20th century has been problematic for many. Using presentations and discussion, the intent of the revelation will be framed as antiracist. The concept of race will be examined through today’s understandings of history, evolution, genetics, politics, and social science.

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

Presenter: Andrea Barnes

Location: Clarendon Hills

Simon Peter asked Jesus. “James claims you teach that the Father forgives us even before we ask him, and I maintain that repentance and confession must precede the forgiveness. Which of us is right? what do you say?” Paper 174:1.1 (page 1989.1) In this workshop we will explore how the unchanging love of the Father gets reconciled out here in time and space through the agents of our Mother Spirit.

Tuesday Morning Workshops (continued)

Planting Seeds of Meanings and Values in Young Children via the Best of Children’s Literature

Presenter: Ted L. Blaney

Location: Doral

Helping parents and grandparents learn additional ways to assist children in their balanced brain, mental, and spiritual development starting at a young age.

Self-Mastery and Psychic Circle Attainment

Presenter: Michael Hill

Location: Western Springs

Emotional maturity, self-control, and self-mastery are essential components in Psychic Circle attainment, our goal of mortal personality realization. With recognition and acceptance of our mammalian heritage, the addition of spirit-led mind guides us to harmonize our dual natures and successfully earn our circles, achieve better Adjuster attunement, and actualize divinity attainment in our daily lives through service.

In-Depth Study: Experiencing God through Personality Integration – Part I

Presenters from the Fellowship Education Committee:

Location: Oak Brook

Marilynn Kulieke, Barbara Newsom, and Mike Painter

This participative workshop explores one of the most intriguing concepts in The Urantia Book: personality. When we strive to integrate material, mindal, and spiritual work in concert with our human will, personality can exponentially bring us Godward. Our focused readings, to be completed before the workshop, prepare you to explore in greater depth how we can experience the God of Personality, a changeless and perfect personality, through our own personality identity and unity of will in a changing world. Advance preparation is required; therefore this workshop is limited to IC23 participants who pre-registered for it. For information about this program, please contact the Education Committee Chair at: Jackie.Koury@urantiabook.org. (Part II will be held on Tuesday afternoon)

Let’s Go Fishing! How the Center for Unity Engages Young Truth Seekers

Presenter: Gabriel Rymberg

Location: Hinsdale

This workshop will provide a demonstration of the Center for Unity’s new online app, soon to be renamed “Discover Jesus.” A group discussion will focus on how we can engage and serve young people with the Fifth Epochal Revelation using modern technology and methods of communication. Please bring your ideas and comments.

Authentic Unselfish Service: The Value of Your Unique Contributions

Presenter: Steven Sawyer

Location: Ballroom A

Living the teachings requires many decisions including the choice to lovingly serve others, bonding us to each other and to the Divine Presence within. Quotes, presentation, and discussion will explore loving service now and in eternity.

The Role of Poetry in Spreading the Teachings of The Urantia Book

Presenters: Duane Johnson, Byron Belitsos, and Peri Best

Location: Ballroom B

A panel discussion involving poets, artists, and musicians will consider the contribution of the arts to complement the Urantia Book teachings. Themes will include personal motivations to create art, the effect of art on others, and art as self-exploration and spiritual growth.

Don't Invent, Discover – Connecting in the Moment – Heart, Mind, and Soul

Presenter: Carol Schindler

Location: Ballroom C

Using improvisation techniques, participants will express the concepts of The Urantia Book. A series of interactive exercises, followed by discussion, will be used to build trust, observation, and responding to what is happening in the moment.

Forgiveness

Presenter: Patricia McGrath

Location: Ballroom D

Mercy and forgiveness of self and others are paths to spiritual strength and healing in our less-than-perfect world. The challenges of practicing forgiveness in daily life will be explored including the importance of daily time spent with our Thought Adjuster.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 25

12:30 to 1:30 p.m. – Lunch Served

Location: Marquis Tent

1:45 to 2:45 p.m. – Plenary

Location: Ballroom E-J

Worship and Music (see page 7)

Presentation on HEART – Sally Annabella

“Do It with Heart” (see page 34)

2:00 p.m. to 5:05 p.m. – Children + Teen Program

3:00 to 5:00 p.m. – Workshops

Playmaking

Presenter: Peri Best

Location: Pebble Beach

To enhance expressing our spiritual selves in a creative way, using the input of participants and some spiritual “nudges,” a play will be created on the spot and performed.

Jesus’ Inner Life through Breathing and Movement in Spirit

Presenter: Jimmer Prieto

Location: Doral

This workshop will use presentation, discussion, and exercises to explore Jesus’ teaching on Meditation, Prayer, Worship, and Communion. Participants can continue to enrich their inner life with new spiritual insights on Breathing and Movement, and the guidance of the Spirit of Truth.

Knowing Jesus by Heart

Presenter: Sally Annabella

Location: Clarendon Hills

Take a deep breath and dive in! Immerse yourself in the sea of living water that is the spoken word of the Son of Man. Come and listen, or come prepared with your favorite Jesus quote, whether one line or an entire parable or sermon. Participants will take turns reciting, facilitated by the host. There will be a human prompter and also pre-printed quotes for brave, spontaneous souls who wish to participate.

The Great Challenge

Presenter: James Johnston

Location: La Grange

Starting with “The great challenge to modern man is to achieve better communication with the divine Monitor...” we explore the meaning of self-consciousness, soul consciousness, and spirit consciousness considering times when we may have experienced any of these forms of consciousness.

Tuesday Afternoon Workshops (continued)

Marriage and Parenting with Heart, Mind, and Soul, as Inspired by The Urantia Book

Presenter: Tom Vasile

Location: Hinsdale

Using quotes from The Urantia Book, parents and couples will examine translating knowledge of The Urantia Book into growth and understanding; relationships filled with love, goodness, and service; and using divine guidance to benefit themselves and their children.

Love-Based Living

Presenter: Dave Tenney

Location: Western Springs

The workshop explores basing one's life on the principle, power, and presence of Love and how that can foster our individual and collective well-being in seven interrelated aspects of life: the spiritual, mindal, physical, relational, emotional, behavioral and environmental.

In-Depth Study: Experiencing God through Personality Integration – Part II

Presenters from the Fellowship Education Committee:

Location: Oak Brook

Marilynn Kulieke, Barbara Newsom, and Mike Painter

This participative workshop explores one of the most intriguing concepts in The Urantia Book: personality. When we strive to integrate material, mindal, and spiritual work in concert with our human will, personality can exponentially bring us Godward. Intergenerational Circle of Fellowship: Sharing Our Spirit Journey with One Another

Presenters: Paul and Jorgey. Krupa

Location: Ballroom A

In a circle of fellowship, we will share stories of living the teachings, expanding our understandings of each other and our relation with God who exists beside us and within. We encourage all ages to join in an intergenerational dialogue.

Amplified Voices of The Urantia Book: A Living Revelation Instrument

Presenter: Matte Jockas

Location: Ballroom B

The Urantia Book reassures that “...certain victory will crown the efforts of every human being who will run the race of faith and trust...” Paper 32:5.8 (page 365.4) This workshop argues that because truth is both innately valuable and directly connected to human flourishing, the development of truth seekers should be a principle aim of individuals and society.

The Poetry of K. Brendi Poppel

Presenter: William “Sonny” Schneider

Location: Ballroom C

Exploring how poetry can uplift the soul through an exploration of the divinely-inspired poetry of K. Brendi Poppel includes sharing her poems and stories of her life. Participants will receive a free CD of her audio and video performances.

Prisoners Have Value Too!

Presenter: Mark Kurtz

Location: Ballroom D

Many childhood influences can lead to crime and imprisonment, with some incarcerated people sincerely experiencing remorse and desiring change. The workshop focuses on loving those who have erred and on how The Urantia Book and prison ministry might serve these children of God.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 25

The Seven Adjutant Mind Spirits: A Revelation for a Scientific Explanation of Mind

Presenter: Bruce Johnson

Location: Pebble Beach

Using presentations and discussion based on a 2016 Urantia Foundation “Scientific Symposium,” we will explore using the revelation of the seven Adjutant Mind Spirits to develop a scientific understanding of mind.

The Importance of the Preservation of History

Presenter: Jacob Matthew Dix

Location: Doral

Contemplating the history of The Urantia Book from the perspectives of heart, mind, and soul, we will present and discuss how the Urantia Book Historical Society preserves this history and makes it available to others.

Wednesday Morning Workshops (continued)

Face-to-Face Groups and Virtual Groups: The Development of Fellowship (English and Spanish)

Presenters: Xóchitl Quintero and Agustin Arellano

Location: Clarendon Hills

The advantages and disadvantages of both face-to-face groups and virtual groups at Urantia Book readers meeting will be discussed, in addition to the importance of living together, sharing, and supporting each other as Urantia Book readers.

The Melchizedek Schools and The Celestial Overseers: Applying Paper 37:6 (page 412)

Presenter: Calvin Len McKee

Location: La Grange

Each epochal revelation has been accompanied by some type of schools, with some directed by celestial personalities (e.g., Planetary Prince, Melchizedek). We will examine the Melchizedek training schools in Paper 37, and consider how these schools could be implemented as part of the Fifth Epochal Revelation.

Whetting the Mind's Appetite for Truth

Presenter: Jack Miller

Location: Hinsdale

A history of water from the standpoint of The Urantia Book. Defining the recently discovered 4th phase of water and why I believe water is both the sender and receiver of consciousness. Building a greater appreciation for water and life, and how to improve health, planetary protection, and spirit communication.

The Discovery of Values and Meanings: The Seven Psychic Circles and How We LIVE These

Presenter: Miranda Clendening and Tommie Clendening

Location: Western Springs

Learning about the Seven Psychic Circles and mind and how they are related; how they have implications for how we live our lives; how we can progress toward spiritual maturity and stability of character; and how we can cultivate amazing relationships as faith-brothers and faith-sisters.

A Cosmic Destiny of the Human Race: The Universal Nature of Our Divine Potential

Presenters: Paulette Suzanne and Gordon Lent

Location: Oak Brook

This workshop has a beautiful multi-media entertainment experience to offer everyone. It is centered around the vast scope of the Urantia Book's description of the cosmos and a wonderful take on the cosmic destiny of our human race. This presentation is guaranteed to be an expanding and visionary journey into the field of human possibilities.
(Will be offered on Thursday afternoon also.)

Wednesday Morning Workshops (continued)

Revelation and Revival

Presenters: Steve Sawyer and Pamela Chaddock

Location: Ballroom A

We will focus on the recent Revival event that occurred at Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky. We will also focus on the experience of participating in a revival in light of the Urantia Book's teachings referenced in: After Pentecost, Paper 195 (page 2069), and The Faith of Jesus, Paper 196 (page 2087).

Physiology of the Brain that May Facilitate Thought Adjuster Communication

Presenters: Geoff Taylor and Susan Meyers

Location: Ballroom B

We examine the mechanisms that facilitate communication between the spirit, mind, and brain with the Thought Adjuster to create a "... mind of perfect poise, housed in a body of clean habits, stabilized neural energies, and balanced chemical function..." Paper 110:6.4 (page 1209.4) <https://tinyurl.com/27xbyapk> for Geoff and Susan's Workshop Handout.

The Big Picture – The Foreword for Advanced Students

Presenter: William "Sonny" Schneider

Location: Ballroom C

Providing guidance to the understanding of the importance of the Foreword and the related subjects: trinities, triunities, triodities, Absolutes, universe ages, and our Father as Infinite, to develop a better understanding of our Father's purposes universally and for us personally.

Urantia Jury Duty: The Teachings in Action

Presenter: Serge Jusyp

Location: Ballroom D

What would it be like to serve on a jury and be able, legally, to apply the teachings contained in The Urantia Book? This workshop will present fact situations (based on real events) and ask reader-jurors, in groups of five or six, to deliver verdicts applying the teachings, followed by discussion.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 26

12:30 to 1:30 p.m. – Lunch Served

Location: Marquis Tent

1:45 to 2:45 p.m. – Plenary

3:00 to 5:00 p.m. – Workshops

The Mind of Ganid, the First Disciple of Jesus

Presenter: Dennis Kersey

Location: Pebble Beach

We will explore how the mind of Ganid was shaped by intimate personal contact with Jesus over 17 months and the implications this may have had for the rise of Mahayana Buddhism with its emphasis on loving service and the Inner Enlightened One or Buddha as the divine presence.

More than Meets the Eye: The New Testament Gospels and the Writing of Part IV

Presenter: Merritt Horn

Location: Doral

We’re going to take a new look at the relationship between Part IV of The Urantia Book and the New Testament gospels. It is not what you think it is! If you ever mention Jesus when talking about The Urantia Book, you’ll want to come and join this surprising conversation... I guarantee that you’ll learn something new.

The Art of Soul-Making in a Perilous World

Presenter: Byron Belitsos

Location: Clarendon Hills

Have you fully entered the path of soul-making and self-perfecting? In this workshop, learn how to more skillfully engage in these practices, especially in the face of great adversity. Discover also how these teachings are better understood in the light of current psychology and Christian pneumatology. Based on Byron’s book Your Evolving Soul (2017)

Wednesday Afternoon Workshops (continued)

Help the Book “Fall off the (Internet) Shelf” for Truth Seekers

Presenter: Jena Lassiter

Location: La Grange

We need writers! The Urantia Book Fellowship is working to create new content on its site to satisfy actual web searches truth seekers are looking for. We will work through an example of how to create these articles for our favorite Urantia Book topics.

Creativity of the Inner World

Presenter: Linda M. Huff

Location: Oak Brook

The topic will cover the relationship between creativity and the inner and outer worlds, and the different set of values of each, to develop a better understanding of what types of thinking and values need to be cultivated across generational lines that will prepare leaders to deal with society’s future. See “The Inner Life.” Paper 111:4 (page 1219) This workshop is appropriate for all generations.

Identity Boxes and the Seven Psychic Circles

Location: Western Springs

Presenters: Peter Laurence, Eileen Laurence and Vipin Thekkekalathil

Through interactive exercises, participants will reflect on the major religious/spiritual identities they currently hold, explore the way our identities create “boxes” within which we live, and analyze the relative value of those boxes and how we can make choices based on universal spiritual values.

The Role of Philosophy in The Urantia Book

Presenter: Mike Painter

Location: Hinsdale

We will explore the role of philosophy in The Urantia Book, considering questions such as: Why is philosophy important? Can philosophy help us discover patterns of thought in The Urantia Book? What has human philosophy contributed to understanding The Urantia Book? And, what is the relationship between philosophy and the mind?

Happy Dream Cult

Presenter: Trudi and Eric Cooper

Location: Ballroom A

Happy Dream Cult is part street theater and part life coaching. By means of an in-depth interview process, we help the participants discern their dreams, passions, skills, and talents that make them unique and special in all the universes.

The Need for Socio/Religious Organizations

Presenter: Tom Allen

Location: Ballroom B

The origin, history, and destiny of religious social organizations will be explored using “The Ghost Cults” Paper 87 (page 958) and “The Social Problems of Religion” Paper 99 (page 1086). How can a social organization maximize the values of living the teachings and what does the future hold for Urantia Book students?

The Foreword of The Urantia Book for Beginners

Presenter: William “Sonny” Schneider

Location: Ballroom C

Using materials and verbal instruction, this workshop will provide basic information on how to create a simplifying path to the understanding of the Foreword.

Passing the Torch of Religious Culture from Parent to Child

Presenters: Ruthie Wilde Wenger and Brad Garner

Location: Ballroom D

“In this work of passing on the cultural torch to the next generation, the home will ever be the basic institution.” Paper 81:6.23 (page 909.4) Urantia Family Life (UFL) invites you to an ongoing exploration of how religious culture passes through generations. Come hear the vision of a newly married Millennial and Gen Xer couple, and share your own thoughts in facilitated discussions.

Soul Identity and Personality Unification – part 1 of 2 (see Thursday afternoon)

Note: You are welcome to attend either one or both of this two-part workshop.

Presenter: Patrick Yesh

Location: Pebble Beach

Our soul is a real part of ourselves now! Through our personality choice, we will follow instructions from The Urantia Book, meditate, and create soul art with our Father Fragment. We will transfer our identities to our soul, use our dual soul mind, and activate His perfect paradise plan for us.

The Seven Psychic Circles of Attainment and Guidance on How to Achieve Them

Presenter: Mike Schneider

Location: Doral

Using The Urantia Book and The Keys of Jeshua by Glenda Green, I will describe the seven dimensions or spiritual domains of the heart: Unity, Love, Life, Respect, Honesty, Justice (or Mercy, as we know they are the same), and Kindness, and consider how they are comparable to attainment of the seven psychic circles. Paper 110:6 (page 1209)

Thursday Morning Workshops (continued)

The Role of Physical Health in Spiritual Progress and Adjuster Communion

Presenters: Sharri Gaines and Richard Rosen

Location: Clarendon Hills

Our bodies are temples of the spirit of God within—the Thought Adjuster. Caring for the body’s health is an integral component of Adjuster communion and spiritual progression, as indicated by the Revelators. We will cover “Seven Pillars of Health” designed to improve and enhance divine living here on Urantia.

Living the Teachings: Principles and Practices

Presenter: Chuck Thurston

Location: La Grange

The objective of this workshop is twofold. First, to develop a deeper understanding of what is meant by the formulation of principles and standards, and how they relate to heart, mind, and soul. And, secondly, to explore how these can find fuller expression through our habits and practices.

Communion with God: How to Begin a Daily Practice of Communion with God

Presenter: Michael Painter

Location: Hinsdale

This workshop examines beginning a daily practice of communion with God; why it is important; how to get started; overcoming the obstacles to starting and continuing this practice; realizing the benefits of a daily practice; along with how to know if this practice is helping.

Accomplishing the Extraordinary on Urantia

Presenter: Timothy Hobbs

Location: Western Springs

How do we take what we have learned from The Urantia Book and create the extraordinary on the planet by bringing together advisors, providers, and driven individuals to take us toward Light and Life? We will talk about existing projects, and nurture, grow, and empower our journey on Urantia.

Hope Road: View and Discuss the Documentary on Child Sexual Abuse

Presenter: Eileen Laurence

Location: Oak Brook

Hope Road is an hour-long PBS documentary about the sexual abuse of minor children. After watching the film, there will be a discussion time, the length of which will be determined by the number of attendees.

Thursday Morning Workshops (continued)

Deep Dialogue: Principles for Interreligious Discussions

Presenter: Thomas Pirie and Barbara Newsom

Location: Ballroom A

Interfaith Deep Dialogue provides new space to understand and deepen our own faith while providing ever-unique opportunities to appreciate the faiths of others. It can help us intentionally move from tolerance, to exploration, to a breakthrough experience of love for a sister or brother on this shared journey. It challenges us to stretch our understandings of values and meanings held by others and harmonize those beliefs in mutually resonating tones. Please join us as we discover common ground and a common voice that gently and compassionately speaks to each one of us and all of us in spiritual sisterhood and brotherhood.

Answering the Call Within: Living a Life of Service – part one of two (see Thursday afternoon)

Presenter: Al Lockett

Location: Ballroom B

“Answering the Call Within” will focus on a sense of mission and how you can become more effective in demonstrating God’s will and purpose in your life. Part one is on Servant leadership and will help participants to become more effective in their daily lives as they take on leadership roles.

Be of Good Cheer

Presenter: Jill Strunk

Location: Ballroom C

We will focus on Jesus’ constant exhortations to “Be of good cheer” and his watchword “Fear not.” The class will use The Urantia Book, as well as psychological wisdom, to increase the capacity for and habit of experiencing joy, while limiting fear and anxiety.

What Prayer Was to Jesus—and Is to Us

Presenter: Kurt Ciria

Location: Ballroom D

In this workshop we will dive into a single paragraph in The Urantia Book, Paper 196:0.10 (page 2087). We will take a look at each of the 22 benefits of prayers, what each of them means, and the values they bring to us. I will share the spiritual practice I have developed that includes my prayers for myself and my prayers for others.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 27

12:30 to 1:30 p.m. – Lunch Served

Location: Marquis Tent

1:45 to 2:45 p.m. – Plenary

Location: Ballroom E-J

Worship and Music (see page 9)

Presentation on SOUL – Chuck Thurston

“Morontia Now—the Key to Eternity” (see page 34)

2:00 p.m. to 5:05 p.m. – Children + Teen Program

3:00 to 5:00 p.m. – Workshops

Soul Identity and Personality Unification – part 2 of 2 (see Thursday morning)

Note: You are welcome to attend either one or both of this two-part workshop.

Presenter: Patrick Yesh

Location: Pebble Beach

Children, youth, and parents will develop a new self-image, a soul identity. We will meditate, create soul art, journal, and share. With our soul mind we will create affirmations to our Thought Adjusters to activate His perfect divine plan for us.

If I Only Had a (Morontial) Brain

Presenter: Tim Duffy

Location: Doral

In this workshop we will seek to understand some of the potential characteristics of our future morontia minds. How might our morontia minds differ from our mortal minds? How can we best prepare ourselves to think like a morontian?

Sharing Our Lives with the Divine

Presenter: Tom Choquette

Location: Clarendon Hills

How to recognize and respond to communion with the Divine through love, mercy, and ministry. A powerful way to do the will of God in our lives by consciously connecting to those spiritual forces around us, to grow in ways illustrated by the life of Jesus and the teachings in The Urantia Book.

Thursday Afternoon Workshops (continued)

Having a Urantia Book Dream: The Search for the First Garden of Eden and Finding It

Presenter: Robert S. Bates

Location: La Grange

This is an interactive workshop for an adventure suggested by The Urantia Book that stimulates the mind to search for clues that are mentioned and explore those that physically exist. We will compare the physical arrangement of the first Garden of Eden found in The Urantia Book to the results of the 2004 and 2006 History Chanel expeditions.

I'm Knitting You a Soul, Hand Me More Yarn: The Psychology of Spiritual Growth

Presenter: David Schlundt

Location: Western Springs

Seeking experiences that foster spiritual growth is like handing the Thought Adjuster more yarn to knit our souls. The challenge is how to balance the various tasks of living on a material world. I will use the happiness equation to help guide us toward living a satisfying, healthy, productive, and fulfilling life.

Living the Urantia Adventure

Presenter: Neal Waldrop

Location: Hinsdale

Using "Planetary Mortal Epochs," Paper 52 (page 589), the challenges of growth of a civilization that embraces the full range of human life will be explored through presentation and small group discussion. How can we contribute to advancing both the evolution of our civilization and the growth of the Supreme?

A Cosmic Destiny of the Human Race: The Universal Nature of Our Divine Potential

Presenters: Paulette Suzanne and Gordon Lent

Location: Oak Brook

This workshop has a beautiful multi-media entertainment experience to offer everyone. It is centered around the vast scope of the Urantia Book's description of the cosmos and a wonderful take on the cosmic destiny of our human race. This presentation is guaranteed to be an expanding and visionary journey into the field of human possibilities.

(Will be offered on Wednesday morning also.)

Evil and the God of Love: How Christians and Urantians Handle the Problem of Evil

Presenters: Byron Belitsos and Gard Jameson

Location: Ballroom A

How do believers in an all-powerful and loving God come to terms with the suffering caused by the evils all around us? This workshop draws from the newest book by Byron Belitsos, Truths about Evil, Sin, and the Demonic (Wipf and Stock, 2023) and aims to help us minister hope and consolation to those we love and serve.

Thursday Afternoon Workshops (continued)

The Ordination, “You Are the Salt...” – part two of two (see Thursday morning)

Presenter: Al Lockett

Location: Ballroom B

“You Are the Salt...” will strive to re-ignite the charge Jesus gave to all who are “...aspiring to represent him in the world...” Paper 140:4.1 (page 1572.1)

We Mortals Are the Sons of God

Presenter: Patty McGrath

Location: Ballroom C

How do we learn to live that reality in each of life’s various challenging situations? This workshop will stress the importance of truly realizing the incredible worth of each personality that the First Source and Center creates. Spending time with God, daily, will also be stressed.

Is Your Love Dangerous or Wise?

Presenter: Ruthie Wilde Wenger

Location: Ballroom D

Jesus once counseled a young man that, “Love...is the supreme reality of the universe when bestowed by all-wise beings, but it is a dangerous and oftentimes semiselfish trait as it is manifested in the experience of mortal parents.” Paper 177:2.3 (page 1922.1) Urantia Family Life invites all Urantia Book students to participate in discussion and activities designed to challenge existing notions of love, and practice the most powerful love of all: Fatherly love.

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 27

OUR PLENARY SPEAKERS

André Radatus “Give God Your Heart and You Will Have a Heart to Follow”

Once we give God our heart, we are led from who we think we are to being the true child with whom God will transform the world.

Sally Annabella “Do It with Heart”

Our loving Father in heaven has gifted us a divine spark of Himself to dwell within our hearts. We are taught in The Urantia Book that loving service brings not only us, but also those we are serving, closer to knowing our Father in heaven. So as we serve, let us do so wholeheartedly.

Brad Garner “An Unwitting Geologic Misadventure into the Secular Wastelands”

This talk recounts how an earnest second-generation reader was deceived by his own mind. While pursuing an advanced geology degree he became a lost sheep, in the pantheistic mists of the New Age movement. Only by the grace of God was he found again. He repented. It's a cautionary tale for anyone living in “the barren times of a materialistic and secular age.”

Gloriann Harris “The Journey”

Experiencing, eventuating, evolving, growing.

Seeking the path, following the path, losing the path, finding the path.

Travel advisors. Travel guides. Travel companions.

Sherry Cathcart Chavis “Living the Teachings from the Soul”

Jesus answered: “There is but one commandment, and that one is the greatest of all, and that commandment is: ‘...you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength.’ “ Paper 174:4.2 (page 1901.2)

Chuck Thurston “Morontia Now—the Key to Eternity”

Imagine if you had the opportunity to discover a “vast level” of reality manifestation that had never previously been detected due to the “utter ignorance” of its existence.

See Paper 0:5.12 (page 9.2) and Paper 103:6.7 (page 1136.2) What would it be like to be among the first pioneers to explore this newly revealed dimension of reality? The morontia concept finally gives us a way to understand how it is possible to evolve a soul that can survive physical death and be reawakened on the next world of our heavenward ascent!

Gary Deinstadt “The Invisible Made Visible”

As we creatively strive to live the teachings with a whole heart, mind, and soul, our branches naturally begin to bear fruit. What does that look like exactly?

Carol Schindler, MC

Our MC, Carol Schindler, is a communication coach and an improv teacher. She has been a student of The Urantia Book since 1984. Carol lives in Louisville, Colorado, with her husband and their German shepherd, Ginger. She is thrilled to be participating in this international conference with all her heart, mind, and soul, and we are thrilled to have her with us.
