

Dr. Orenstein is born in New York City, New York to Louis Glass and Gertrude Feman.

Dr. Orenstein graduates magna cum laude from Brandeis University, receiving a Bachelor of Arts in romance languages and literature.

Dr. Orenstein receives a Master of Arts in Slavic languages and literature from the Radcliffe Graduate School of Harvard University.

Dr. Orenstein receives a Graduate Fellowship for Women from the Danforth Foundation.

Dr. Orenstein receives a Doctor of Philosophy in Comparative Literature from New York University.

Dr. Orenstein authors "The Theatre of the Marvelous and the Contemporary Stage."

Dr. Orenstein serves as a coadjutant in English and Women's Studies at Douglass College of Rutgers University.

Dr. Orenstein co-founds the Women's Salon for Literature in New York City.

Dr. Orenstein becomes an assistant English professor at Douglass Residential College.

1938

1959

1961

1965

1971

1974

1974

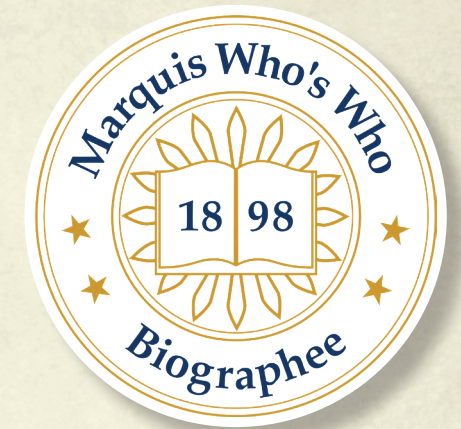

1974

1975

Gloria Feman Orenstein, PhD

Comparative Literature Educator

A timeline of professional milestones

1976

1978

1979

1982

1985

1990

2003

2018

2018

2018

Dr. Orenstein is appointed Chairperson of the Women's Studies Program at Douglass College.

Dr. Orenstein is appointed director of The Rutgers Junior Year in France at Douglass College.

Dr. Orenstein co-creates the Ecofeminist Conference at the University of Southern California.

Dr. Orenstein becomes a tenured Professor in the Department of Comparative Literature and Gender Studies at the University of Southern California.

Dr. Orenstein is appointed President of the Division on Relations of Literature and the Other Arts of The Modern Language Association.

Dr. Orenstein authors "The Reflowering of the Goddess" and "Reweaving the World: The Emergence of ECO-Feminism."

Dr. Orenstein receives a Medal and Certificate of Honor from The Veteran Feminists of America.

Dr. Orenstein receives the Lifetime Achievement Award from Women's Caucus of the College Art Association and "Gloria's Call," a film about her research on the women of Surrealism, is launched at the WCA Conference. The film is shown at many film festivals, in places such as Los Angeles, California and Vienna, Austria.

Dr. Orenstein gives a speech to launch the opening of the Leonora Carrington Museum in San Luis Potosi, Mexico. She also presents at the panel for the Leonora Carrington Exhibition in Mexico City at the Museo de Arte Moderno.

Dr. Orenstein is honored with the Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award from Marquis Who's Who.