DR. JONES DELIVERS ADDRESS AT BUFFALO CONFERENCE SESSION

Wednesday Lecture First Since Series Given Last July

PLANS WINTER PROGRAM

Addressing the Conference on Family Life in Buffalo, New York, last Wednesday, Dr. Rufus M. Jones, professor of philosophy, opened an extensive speaking program planned for the coming winter with a lecture, "The Importance of Religion in Family Life."

Unbelievably Reassuring

"The persons who are saying today they do not believe in God only mean they do not believe in the kind of God they have heard preached about," Dr. Jones said. "It is significant that Sunday school attendance figures were sold last year. Let the churches stop contentions over dead issues and bring serious faith and healing."

PROGRAM OUTLINE

Sunday addresses at college and university chapters will comprise the greater part of Dr. Jones' lecture program for the winter. Among the chapters and which he has planned to speak are the University of Iowa, Cornell University, Wesleyan, Columbia University, Swarthmore, Bryn Mawr, and others.
