QUICK NOTES

- The University of Kentucky football program returns to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl for the third time in program history to face No. 22 / NR Clemson on Dec. 29, 2023.
 - UK has a 1-1 record in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, defeating NC State, 23-21, on Jan. 2, 2021 after falling to Georgia Tech, 33-18, on Dec. 31, 2016.
- The Wildcats, who have reached a program record eight straight bowl games, are 12-10 all-time in bowl games, while head coach Mark Stoops is 4-3 in bowl action at the helm of the program.
- This season, Kentucky clinched a winning record (7-5, .583) for the seventh time in the last eight seasons. (The exception is the pandemic-altered season in 2020.)
- Kentucky is coming off a school-record six straight triumphs in regular-season finales (2018-2023) after winning at then-No. 9/9 Louisville, 38-31, on Nov. 25.
 - It marked the highest Associated Press-ranked triumph of the Mark Stoops era and it tied for the eighth highest in program history.
 - UK was named the Cheez-It National Team of the Week, Stoops was named the Dodd Trophy Coach of the Week and Barion Brown and J.J. Weaver were named SEC Players of the Week for special teams and defense, respectively.
- Kentucky has won 24 of its last 25 nonconference games, and it has won its last 20 straight nonconference games in the regular season.
 - The regular-season nonconference streak is second in the nation behind Georgia (24).
- Devin Leary, quarterback, concluded the regular season ranked second in the Southeastern Conference in passing touchdowns (23).
 - He was named one of 15 semifinalists for the Comeback Player of the Year Award.
 - Fun Fact: Despite being in his fourth season on a bowl-eligible team, he will play in his first bowl game on Dec. 29.
- Running back Ray Davis leads the SEC in total touchdowns (20) and scoring (120), which also set Kentucky single-season records. Davis is believed to be the first player in history to rush for more than 1,000 yards at three FBS schools (Temple, Vanderbilt, Kentucky).
- The Wildcats' three starting wide receivers all eclipsed 1,000 UK career yards over the past two games this season - Barion Brown (1,067), Dane Key (1,072), Tayvion Robinson (1,004).
- Kentucky is ranked third in the SEC and 24th in the nation in rushing defense, allowing 113.9 yards per game.
 - UK has held eight of its last 13 opponents to under 100 yards rushing.
- The Wildcats have four defensive touchdowns this season, the second most in the nation.

KENTUCKY-CLEMSON SERIES

- Kentucky leads the all-time meetings with Clemson, 8-5, in a series that began in 1925.
 - The Wildcats trail Clemson in bowl games, 2-1, which include matchups at the 1993 Peach Bowl, 2006 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl and 2009 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.
- The two teams have gone back and forth over the last five meetings, with no team winning two-or-more since Clemson won two straight in 1981 and 1982.
 - In their most recent matchup, the Tigers defeated the Wildcats, 21-13, in the 2009 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.
 - The matchup before that, the Wildcats defeated the Tigers, 28-20, in the 2006 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.
- Kentucky's biggest win was a 44-6 triumph (+38) in 1929, while Clemson's biggest wins were a 21-3 victory (+18) in 1981 and a 24-6 (+18) victory in 1982.
- UK current quarterback and former NC State quarterback, Devin Leary, is 1-2 against Clemson, earning a win in 2021 and taking losses in 2019 and 2020.

KENTUCKY-CLEMSON CONNECTIONS

- Kentucky has no players from Clemson on its roster.
- Kentucky has two players from South Carolina -- kicker Chance Poore (Anderson) and defensive back Andru Phillips (Mauldin).
- Clemson has one player from the state of Kentucky on its roster in senior offensive lineman Walker Parks (Lexington, Kentucky; Frederick Douglass High School).
 - Played and started in two games for Clemson in 2023 (limited to injury), while he has played 39 career games with 28 career starts.

KENTUCKY AGAINST THE RANKED

- Kentucky has played 270 ranked teams in the Associated Press poll in its history, while the Wildcats are 52-213-5 in those games.
 - UK is 2-3 against ranked teams in 2023, defeating No. 22/23 Florida at home on Sept. 30 and No. 9/9 Louisville on the road on Nov. 25. UK fell to No. 1/1 Georgia in Athens on Oct. 7, No. 21/20 Tennessee on Oct. 28 and No. 8/8 Alabama on Nov. 11.
 - Please note, Missouri was ranked No. 25 in the Coaches Poll when the two teams met on Oct. 14, but unranked in the AP poll.
- UK's win over No. 9/9 UofL marked the highest AP-ranked triumph of the Mark Stoops era and it tied for the eighth-highest AP-ranked triumph in program history.
- The Wildcats are 7-7 against their last 14 ranked AP-ranked teams, dating back to a win over NC State in the 2020 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl.
 - Since 2018, the Cats are 11-14 against AP-ranked teams.
- Kentucky is 0-2 against ranked Clemson teams (1981, 1993).

A UK WIN WOULD...

- Help UK conclude the season on an 8-5 overall record.
 - It would mark the fourth season since 2018 that UK recorded at least eight wins.
- Help UK earn its fifth bowl win in its last six bowl appearances since 2018.
- Help UK earn its 25th win against its last 26 nonconference opponents since 2018.
- Help UK go 3-3 against ranked teams in 2023.
 - Help UK earn its first ranked win against Clemson in program history.
 - Help UK earn its first ranked win in a bowl game since defeating then-No. 17 Iowa, 20-17, in the VRBO Citrus Bowl following the 2021 season.
 - Help UK go 8-7 against its last 15 ranked opponents.

- Extend head coach Mark Stoops' all-time school records for overall wins (74), wins against ranked opponents (14) and bowl wins (5).

NONCONFERENCE COMPETITION

- Kentucky has won 24 of its last 25 nonconference games.
 - That stretch featured 20 straight nonconference wins, including four straight bowl wins. The streak began in the season opener on Sept. 1, 2018 and ended in the Music City Bowl game on Dec. 31, 2022. It was the longest active streak in FBS at the time.
- The Wildcats have won their last 20 straight nonconference games in the regular season.
 - That streak is second in the nation behind Georgia (24).
- UK has won 18 straight nonconference games at Kroger Field, dating back to the start of 2018.

ALL-STAR GAME INVITATIONS

- East-West Shrine Bowl (Feb. 1 at Ford Center at The Star in Frisco - the Dallas Cowboys World Corporate Headquarters and Training Facility - in Dallas, Texas)
 - Devin Leary (QB)
 - Ray Davis (RB)
- Reese's Senior Bowl (Feb. 3 at Hancock Whitney Stadium located in Mobile, Alabama)
 - Andru Phillips (DB)
- Hula Bowl (Jan. 13 at UCF FBC Mortgage Stadium in Orlando, Fla.)
 - Brenden Bates (TE)

OFFENSIVE NOTES

SIRI, WHO IS LEARY?

- In four seasons at NC State (2019-22), quarterback Devin Leary made 26 starts in 30 games played, connecting on 568 of his 944 passes for 6,807 yards and 62 touchdowns. In that time, he had just 16 interceptions.
 - Between 2021 and 2022, he aided NC State to a 17-4 record, helping him earn ACC Preseason Player of the Year praise in 2022. He got off to a promising start through just six games in 2022, before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury against Florida State.
 - The last time he was healthy for a full season was in 2021, when he threw for 35 touchdowns and just five interceptions. He also added two rushing touchdowns that season. Leary finished that season ranked in the top 25 in the nation in completion percentage, completions per game, passing efficiency, passing touchdowns, passing yards, passing yards per game, total offense, points responsible for and points responsible for per game.
- The signal caller is best known for his timing and precision as a pocket passer, while he also has the ability to break down defenses in play-action and can throw the deep ball when needed.

DEVIN LEARY'S BOWL SAGA

- Despite his tenured five-year career, believe it or not, Devin Leary will be playing in his first bowl game when Kentucky kicks off against Clemson in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on Dec. 29.
- Here is a look back at Devin Leary vs. Bowl Games, the "but..." edition:
 - 2018 - NC State played in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, but Leary redshirted that season.
 - 2019 - Leary played in eight games and had five starts, but NC State did not reach a bowl game that season (4-8 record).
 - 2020 - Leary played in four games and had three starts, but he suffered a season-ending fractured fibula in the second half of the win over Duke, as NC State ironically went on to meet Kentucky in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl.
 - 2021 - Leary had a breakout season, generating 3,433 passing yards, completing 283 of 431 passes for 35 touchdowns and just five interceptions through 12 games, but the San Diego County Credit Union Holiday Bowl got canceled after efforts failed to find a team to replace UCLA, which abruptly pulled out of the game due to COVID-19.
 - 2022 - Leary played and started in the first six games, but he suffered a season-ending

DEVIN LEARY IN BLUE & WHITE

THE STATS

- Following a surgery and almost a year of not playing, Devin Leary has completed 193 of his 343 passing attempts (56.3 percent) for 2,440 yards and 23 touchdowns.
 - He finished the regular season ranked second in the Southeastern Conference and 23rd in the nation in touchdowns passing (23).
 - He finished the regular season tied for eighth on the program's single-season touchdowns passing list (23).
 - He finished the regular season ranked 10th on the program's single-season passing yards list (2,440).
- The Wildcat also has one touchdown rushing this season, for 24 total TDs in 2023.
- For his career, Leary currently has the 13th-most career touchdowns passing among active players in the FBS (85) and the 23rd-most career yards passing (9,247).

THE GAMES

- Devin Leary threw for at least 240 yards and at least one touchdown in each of his first three games in Blue and White. He became the first quarterback to do that in at least two-and-a-half decades.
 - Leary topped off the season opener against Ball State on Sept. 2 connecting on 10 of his last 11 passes in the game.
 - Leary came back the next weekend against Eastern Kentucky on Sept. 9 to throw for 299 yards and four touchdowns. Again, he finished strong by completing his last eight passes of the contest.
 - The next weekend, he connected on 16 of his 25 pass attempts for 315 yards and three touchdowns against Akron on Sept. 16. It marked the ninth game of his career with at least 300 yards, while he became just the 15th quarterback in school history to throw for at least 300 yards.
 - He also became the first UK signal caller to have at least three touchdown passes in consecutive games since Mike Hartline against South Carolina and Georgia in 2010.
- The Wildcat completed 28-of-39 passes for 372 yards in a close game against No. 21/20 Tennessee on Oct. 28, all of which were season highs. He also threw two touchdowns with no interceptions.
 - It marked his second 300+ yard passing game at Kentucky and the 10th of his career.
- Helped Kentucky take down No. 9/9 Louisville in rival territory by throwing a trio of touchdowns passing, which marked his third three-plus touchdowns passing game in 2023.

"SWEET BABY RAY"

- Ray Davis has 1,066 yards on 186 carries and 13 touchdowns rushing. He also has 317 yards on 29 catches and seven touchdowns receiving.
 - He concluded the regular season as the program's single-season record holder in total touchdowns (20).
 - He concluded the regular season as the program's single-season record holder in scoring (120 points).
 - He concluded the regular season ranked 13th on the program's single-season rushing yards list (1,066).
 - He became the 11th player in school history to reach 1,000 rushing yards in a single season. The feat has been accomplished a total of 15 times by 11 players.
- Davis scored at least one touchdown in each of Kentucky's first eight games of the season.
 - He became the only player in program history to score at least one touchdown in each of the first six games of the season (with single-game statistics available to the 1940s).

- He became the first player in program history to score at least one touchdown in eight straight games since Randall Cobb in 2009.
- The Wildcat concluded the regular season ranked toward the top of the Southeastern Conference in numerous categories:

#LAFAMILIA

Kentucky football has several set of sons or grandsons of former Kentucky Wildcats:

- Senior TE Brenden Bates is the grandson of former UK basketball player Gene Neff (1951-52)
- Senior OL Tanner Bowles is the son of Matt Bowles, who played on UK's baseball team from 1991-95
- Freshman DB Ty Bryant is the son of former Wildcat Cisco Bryant (1983-85)
- Junior Dru Phillips is the son of former Wildcat Carlos Phillips (1986-90)
- Junior walk-on WR Trey Dennis is the son of former Wildcat Harold Dennis (1994-96)
- Sophomore walk-on WR Dylan Gary is the son of former DB Willie Gary, who played at UK from 1997-2000 and was a 1997 Freshman All-America First-Team selection by The Sporting News and a team captain in 2000
- Sophomore WR Dane Key is the son of former LB/DE Donte' Key, who played at UK from 1992-95 and was the National Defensive Player of the Week for his performance in the 1994 inaugural Governor's Cup game vs. Louisville
- Sophomore walk-on OL Lucas Padgett is the son of Scott Padgett, who played basketball at Kentucky (1995-99), helping the Wildcats advance to two Final Fours, including national titles in 1996 and '98 ... Went on to play eight years in the pros ... Mom, Cynthia (Dozier), was a four-year letterwinner on UK's volleyball team (1994-97)
- Redshirt freshman kicker Jackson Smith is the son of former Wildcat punter Andy Smith (1997-99), an All-SEC punter whose 42.7-yard average in 1999 was, at the time, the third-best single-season mark in school history
- We have brothers, too. Senior OLB Justice Dingle is the older brother of sophomore TE Jordan Dingle. They are from Bowling Green, Ky.

RAY DAVIS CREDITS THE "BIG BLUE WALL" IN FLORIDA WIN

- Ray Davis had 26 carries for a career-high 280 yards rushing and a career-best three touchdowns rushing, while also adding a nine-yard touchdown reception, in Kentucky's third straight win against Florida on Sept. 30.
 - His 280 yards rushing were the third most in a game in program history.
 - His 280 yards were the second most of any Florida opponent all time.
 - He became the ninth player in UK history to eclipse 200 yards rushing in a game, while it marked the 13th instance in program history.
 - His four touchdowns tied the school record for the most total touchdowns in a game. He became the 13th player in UK history to have four touchdowns in a game, while it marked the 15th instance in program history.
 - It was his second game this season to have a rushing and receiving touchdown.
 - On his second touchdown, he had a career-long, 75-yard scoring dash.
- In his postgame interview, Davis said, "I didn't make history, our O-Line made history. We ran for over 300 yards (as a team). As a collective unit, we made history."

THE RUNNING BACK ROOM

- For the past few years, there has been little doubt as to who would be the featured running back at Kentucky, from Stanley "Boom" Williams to Benny Snell to Chris Rodriguez Jr. However, prior to the start of this season, there was no clear starter to Big Blue Nation. Instead, numerous exciting prospects that have all expected to play a part in 2023.
 - Ray Davis, a senior transfer from Vanderbilt, already had success at Kroger Field before arriving to UK, when he rushed 129 yards and earned one touchdown there, helping Vanderbilt defeat Kentucky in 2022. He led the Commodores in rushing with 1,042 yards on 232 carries and five touchdowns last season, producing five 100-plus yard games.
 - Ramon Jefferson, who is in his seventh year of college football, returned for an additional season after suffering an injury to the knee in 2022. He amassed 2,954 yards rushing in his career before the season began, and prior to last season in 2022, was ranked fifth on the Division I active career rushing yards list. Jefferson went past the 3,000-yard mark in his career with a 74-yard run vs. Alabama on Nov. 11.
 - JuTahn McClain, a senior, has gotten better with each season in the Bluegrass, including his most productive season yet in 2022. Then, he was the second leading rusher for Kentucky, racking up 278 yards on 59 attempts.
 - La'Veil Wright, a sophomore, is young but provides great size at 6-foot, 214 pounds, and is growing in experience after seeing action in all 13 games in 2022, rushing 120 yards on 39 carries.
 - Demie Sumo-Karngbaye, a junior transfer from NC State, already has a connection with quarterback Devin Leary in Raleigh. Last season, he was the Wolfpack's second leading rusher thanks to 305 yards on 55 carries and three touchdowns.

TRIPLE THREAT

- The Wildcats returned one of the most exciting wide receiver corps in the Southeastern Conference in sophomores Barion Brown and Dane Key and redshirt fifth year Tayvion Robinson.
 - In 2022, all three of those guys were new to the program, but you wouldn't guess it, as the trio combined for 127 catches for 1,644 yards and 13 touchdowns.

How Many Times They've Led Kentucky in Games in 2023 (as of Nov. 26)

Player	Rec.	Yards	TD
Barion Brown	5	2	2
Dane Key	5	5	4
Tayvion Robinson	3	2	3

THREE GRAND

- Dane Key and Barion Brown eclipsed 1,000 yards receiving in their two seasons at Kentucky at South Carolina on Nov. 18, while Tayvion Robinson eclipsed 1,000 yards receiving in his two seasons in the Bluegrass at No. 9/9 Louisville on Nov. 25.
 - Brown currently has 1,067 receiving yards, after he became the 33rd player in program history to eclipse 1K.
 - Key currently has 1,072 receiving yards, after he became the 34th player in program history to eclipse 1K.
 - Robinson currently has 1,004 receiving yards, after he became the 35th player in program history to eclipse 1K.
 - Robinson also played three seasons at Virginia Tech before transferring to Kentucky, so he has 2,559 career yards.

GREAT DANE

- Dane Key had a career performance against No. 21/20 Tennessee on Oct. 28. He had a career-high seven receptions for a career-high 113 yards, including a seven-yard touchdown receiving.
 - The touchdown reception marked his third this season and the ninth of his career.
 - It marked his first 100+ yard receiving game of his career.
 - His seven receptions marked a single-game best.

THE YOUNG ONES: BARION BROWN & DANE KEY

Just one season removed from leading the receiver room in both yards and touchdowns as freshmen, wide receivers and True Freshman All-Americans Barion Brown and Dane Key returned to the program for anticipated sophomore seasons. In 2022, Brown and Key each set their share of freshman school records:

MILESTONES REACHED IN 2023

- Coach Mark Stoops has the most victories (73) in Kentucky history, most SEC victories (35), most home victories (50) and most victories against ranked opponents (13).
- Senior QB Devin Leary surpassed 9,000 career passing yards against South Carolina on Nov. 18.
 - He has thrown for 9,247 passing yards and 85 touchdowns in his career.
- Senior RB Ray Davis rushed for 280 yards against Florida on Sept. 30 to surpass 3,000 for his career.
- He has rushed for 3,563 yards in his career which ranks fourth nationally. Vidal Kimani at Troy is third with 3,698.
 - He has rushed for 1,066 yards this season, becoming the 11th UK player to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season. To date, the feat has been accomplished 15 times by 11 players.
 - He now owns the UK single-season records for total touchdowns (20) and total points (120).
 - Davis is the only active player – and believed to be the only player in history – to total at least 1,000 career rushing yards at three Division I FBS schools (also Temple and Vanderbilt).
 - Davis is the first player in SEC history to have 1,000-yard seasons at two league schools, also running for 1,042 last season for Vanderbilt.
- Senior RB Ramon Jefferson ripped off a 74-yard rush versus Alabama to surpass for 3,000 rushing yards for his career. He has rushed for 3,129 in his career.
- Sophomore WR Dane Key has gone over 1,000 career receiving yards. He now has 1,056.
- Sophomore WR Barion Brown has gone over 1,000 career receiving yards. He now has 1,067.
 - Returned a kickoff for a TD vs. Louisville. The TD return is his second of the season (also 99 yards vs. Ball State) and the third of his career (100 vs. Miami-Ohio in 2022).
 - He is tied for two school records – Craig Yeast for most kickoff return TDs in a career and Derek Abney for most KO return TDs in a season.
 - He is tied for the most kickoff return TD by an active FBS player with three.
 - He currently owns the school record for kickoff return average (min. 30 returns) at 29.54/return.
 - He owns a streak of 25 straight games with a reception, which is every game of his college career.
- Senior WR Tayvion Robinson has gone over the 1,000-yard mark during his time at Kentucky (1,004).
- Sophomore CB Maxwell Hairston returned two interceptions for touchdowns at Vanderbilt on Sept. 23, becoming the only player in school history to have two INT returns for TD in same game. He also tied the SEC single-game record.

BUT WAIT, THERE'S MORE!

- Barion Brown also returned as one of the nation's leaders in kickoff returns.
 - In 2022, he concluded the regular season ranked 31st in the nation and fifth in the Southeastern Conference in kickoff return average at 28.3 yards per runback. He was also ranked 13th in the SEC in all-purpose yards per game (88.17).
 - The rookie was also the only player in the nation with two 80-plus yard kickoff returns (vs. Miami (Ohio), at then-No. 14/11 Ole Miss).
 - He made a stunning debut against Miami (Ohio) on Sept. 3, 2022, taking the opening kick of the second half back 100 yards for a touchdown in the season opener. Brown took the kick, sliced to his left, found open space and then outran everyone down the visiting sideline.
 - It was the first Kentucky kickoff return for a score since Derrick Locke went to the house vs. Louisville (100 yards) in September 2009.
 - Brown was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for his efforts.
- Well... he did it again... and again.
 - In the season opener against Ball State on Sept. 2, Brown took a kickoff return 99 yards back for a touchdown.
 - He became the fourth player in school history with multiple career kickoff return touchdowns, and he became the third player in school history with a kickoff return touchdown in consecutive seasons.
 - In the regular-season finale at No. 9/9 Louisville on Nov. 25, Brown returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter.
 - He tied two school records – Craig Yeast for most KO return TDs in a career (3) and Derek Abney for most KO return TDs in a season (2).
 - He had 250 all-purpose yards on the day, too - 180 on kickoff returns, 48 receiving and 22 rushing.

- Brown concluded the regular season ranked first in the Southeastern Conference and second in the nation on 31.7 yards per kickoff return.
 - The Wildcat concluded the regular season as the only player in the SEC and one of five players in the nation to have recorded two KO return TDs in 2023.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?

- You already know about wide receiver Barion Brown, but be on the lookout for wide receiver Anthony Brown-Stephens.
- The freshman from Springfield, Ohio, received some preseason praise from the coaching staff after fall camp, and it has nothing to do with his famous uncle John Legend.
 - "He's everything everybody thought of him. He's poised, he's a good route-runner, he's smart. He takes coaching." - Tayvion Robinson
 - "I thought he's handled this go-around extremely well, in terms of being somebody we can count on to go play, somebody we can be able to push the ball down the field to. Diligent worker, smart kid. Bright future ahead of him." - Liam Coen
- He has played in each game this season, recording five receptions and a touchdown thus far. His lone touchdown came in his seventh game of 2023, thanks to a four-yard catch against RV/No. 25 Missouri on Oct. 14.
 - He also had a 64-yard touchdown reception against Akron on Sept. 16, but it was called back because of a holding penalty.
 - He also had a career-long, 20-yard reception against No. 21/20 Tennessee on Oct. 28, which set Kentucky up for a first down inside touchdown drive.

HERE'S TO YOU, MR. ROBINSON

- Tayvion Robinson, a redshirt fifth year, returned to Kentucky for a second season in Lexington in 2023. Last season, he finished second on the team in catches (40) and third on the team in yards receiving (497) and touchdowns receiving (3).
 - Before Kentucky, he spent three seasons at Virginia Tech (2019-21), recording 113 catches for 1,555 yards and eight touchdowns. He also averaged 11.4 yards on punt returns, including a 60-yard touchdown jaunt.
- Despite missing two games in the back half of the schedule due to injury last season in 2022, Robinson had numerous standout performances that revealed his potential here.
 - He began last season with at least six receptions in three of the first four games in 2022. That includes making a career-high seven catches for a career-high 147 yards and a career-high two touchdowns in Kentucky's triumph over Northern Illinois on Sept. 24. In the game, he had a 69-yard catch-and-run in the second quarter, which was the longest play of his college career and his first touchdown in Blue and White.
- He concluded the regular season with 37 receptions for 507 yards (13.7) and four touchdowns.
- Robinson is currently ranked high on a couple of active career leader lists:
 - Tied for the 20th-most career receiving yards among active players in the FBS (2,559).
 - Tied for the 22nd-most career receptions among active players in the FBS (190).

START ME UP

- Kentucky outscored Vanderbilt, Florida, Missouri and Mississippi State, 58-0, in the first quarter, this season, allowing UK to play from ahead in those games, instead of the unenviable task of trying to mount a comeback in the rugged league.
 - UK was 3-1 in those contests.
- On the road at Vanderbilt on Sept. 23, the Wildcats mounted a 21-0 edge out of the gate, which tied a school record for most points in the first quarter, then followed that up with 16 unanswered points in the first quarter against then-No. 22/23 Florida on Sept. 30.
- Kentucky has scored on its opening drive in six of 12 games this season, including a touchdown in four of those games.

RED, WHITE & BLUE

Kentucky is tied for first in the SEC in red zone touchdowns passing with 17 in 2023.

Red Zone Touchdowns Passing in the SEC

Rank	Team	Value
1.	Kentucky	17
	Arkansas	17
	LSU	17
4.	Florida	15
	Georgia	15

A HOT OFFENSIVE START TO THE SEASON

- Kentucky scored at least 28 points in its first five games of 2023, which marked the first time it scored at least as many through its first five games since 2007.
- The Wildcats scored at least 26 points in each of their first four games for three consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.
- UK won its first five games of the season by at least 11 points for the first time since 2018.
- Kentucky tied the school record for the most points scored in the first quarter in program history with its 21 points in its Southeastern Conference opener at Vanderbilt on Sept. 23.
 - It marked the eighth instance in program history and the first since 2016 against Southern Mississippi.

BRICK-BY-BRICK

- The Big Blue Wall, who was named to the Joe Moore Midseason Honor Roll on Oct. 17, went under construction in the offseason, and players have referenced its rebuild as a brick-by-brick process.
- The Wildcats brought in veteran transfers Tanner Bowles (Alabama), Courtland Ford (Southern California), Marques Cox (Northern Illinois), Dylan Ray (West Virginia) and Ben Christman (Ohio State), who is out for the season after suffering an injury in fall camp.
- Those transfers, combined with veterans such as Jager Burton, Eli Cox, Kenneth Horsey and Jeremy Flax, UK had one of the most experienced lines in the nation entering the season, ranking in the top 25 in career games played and the top 15 in career games started.
- Wildcat O-Linemen have received awards following two games this season:
 - Eli Cox was named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week after the win over EKU. Following the season, he was named second-team All-SEC by SEC Coaches.
 - Jeremy Flax was named Outland Trophy National Player of the Week and SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week after the win over Florida.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

WHITE-OUT

- Brad White is in his fifth season as the defensive coordinator, and his sixth season overall at Kentucky, since Mark Stoops plucked him from the NFL in 2018. He became defensive coordinator in 2019 and UK has steadily become more stout on that side of the ball.
 - Other programs have taken notice, too, as White has turned down several other coaching opportunities in that time.
- Kentucky's defense has remained constant under White, and that is evident by the benchmarks he continues to reach year-in and year-out.
 - The UK defense has held opponents to 30 points or fewer in 50 of 62 games with White as the defensive coordinator (2019-present).
 - The UK defense has held opponents to 24 points or fewer in 22 of the last 29 games.
 - Kentucky allowed 28 points or less in its first five games of the season, for three straight seasons (2021-23), for the first time since 1960-62.
 - This is the second season in a row that UK held its first three opponents to 17 points or fewer, which marked the first time UK has done that since 1949-50.

- UK allowed 26 or fewer points per game in four straight seasons (2019-22), the first time that had been accomplished since 1986-89.
- For the first time since 1959-62 it has yielded 160 rushing yards or fewer per game for four straight seasons (2019-22).

RUSHING DEFENSE

- Kentucky concluded the regular season ranked third in the Southeastern Conference and 23rd in the nation in rushing defense, allowing opponents to just 113.9 yards per game in 2023.
 - The Wildcats held each of their first five opponents of the season to under 100 yards rushing for the first time in program history, based on game-by-game stats available since the 1940s.
- The Wildcats have held eight of their last 13 opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, a streak dating back to the final game of 2022.

AN APPETITE FOR TURNOVERS

- UK has forced 17 turnovers through 12 games, which ranks second in the SEC.
- UK forced at least one turnover in each of the first seven games for the first time since 2014. UK forced a turnover in 11 consecutive regular-season games for the first time since a 15-game stretch in the 2007 and 2008 regular seasons.

FOUR DEFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS IN 2023

- Kentucky has four defensive touchdowns this season, tied with seven others for the second most in the nation.
 - UK got a 69-yard fumble return touchdown by Jalen Geiger in the season opener against Ball State on Sept. 2.
 - Maxwell Hairston tallied two pick-sixes (29 and 54 yards) at Vanderbilt on Sept. 23.
 - D'Eryk Jackson had a 28-yard pick-six at Mississippi State on Nov. 4.
- Kentucky has shown a penchant for delivering pick-sixes in recent seasons. In fact, UK is tied for first amongst FBS teams in interception returns for touchdown since the beginning of 2020, including two each in two different games.

Most Interception Returns for Touchdown (2020-Pres.)

Rank	Team	IRT
1	KENTUCKY	10
	Pitt	10
	Iowa	10
	Ohio State	10
5	Utah	9

SCOOP-AND-SCORE

- It was a special season opener for defensive back Jalen Geiger, whose season was cut short last season after suffering a knee injury at Florida on Sept. 10, 2022, which required surgery.
- Big Blue Nation welcomed him back to the field in the season opener against Ball State on Sept. 2, even more so after he scored his second defensive touchdown of his career.
 - Geiger recovered a fumble at the UK 31 in the second quarter and ran it 69 yards for a touchdown.
 - It marked the first defensive touchdown in a season opener for UK since Sept. 2, 2017 at Southern Miss and it marked the longest fumble returned for a touchdown since CJ Johnson against Tennessee on Oct. 31, 2015 (77 yards).

MAXWELL HAIRSTON TIED THE SEC RECORD

- The Wildcats had two interception returns for touchdowns in their Southeastern Conference opener at Vanderbilt on Sept. 24, both by Maxwell Hairston.
 - It marked UK's first pick-six since Keidron Smith at Florida on Sept. 10, 2022.
 - It marked UK's first pair of pick-sixes, and first pair of defensive touchdowns, in the same game since Kelvin Joseph and Jamin Davis both had pick-sixes in 2020 at Tennessee.

- UK has had at least one pick-six in the last four seasons.
- The two interceptions marked Hairston's second and third of this season and of his career, while the touchdowns are the first and second of his college career.

MAX-WELL DONE

- Maxwell Hairston, who received AP Midseason All-America Second Team praise, intercepted the fifth pass of the season and fifth of his career against RV/No. 25 Missouri on Oct. 14.
 - He is tied with eight other players for second in the nation with five interceptions.
 - Four of his five interceptions came in Southeastern Conference action this season.
- He has totaled 131 interception return yards this season, the most since Greg Long had 176 return yards in 1981.
- The Wildcats also has the third-most total tackles of anyone on the team in 2023 (64).

DEONE WALKER ANCHORING THE LINE

- Playing at every position in the defensive line at various times, Deone Walker, a sophomore defensive lineman, is an impact player for the Wildcats.
- Often battling double-team blocks, while playing with a quickness that belies his 6-6, 348-pound frame, he is the team leader in tackles for loss with 10.5 (-42 yards), quarterback sacks with 5.5 (-32 yards) and quarterback hurries with seven.
- The Wildcat was named first-team All-SEC by The Associated Press and Pro Football Focus. He was on the watch lists for the Lott IMPACT Trophy, Nagurski Award and Outland Trophy.
 - He also was named an All-America Midseason Honorable Mention by College Football News.

DON'T HIT THE WALL-ACE

- Trevin Wallace, a junior inside linebacker who was on the 2023 Butkus Award Watch List, is second on the team in tackles for loss (7.5, -55 yards) and total tackles (69).
 - He also is third on the team in sacks, (4.5, -33 yards).
- Wallace earned the second SEC Player of the Week honor in his career after the season opener against Ball State on Sept. 2, thanks to his career-high tying 12 tackles.
 - He made the initial tackle on a play that became a Ball State fumble that UK returned 69 yards for a touchdown.
- He had his first interception of the season and the third interception of his career against Florida on Sept. 30, returning the ball 21 yards, which set up UK for its first touchdown of the game.
- The team captain eclipsed 100 total tackles in his career after making seven against Eastern Kentucky on Sept. 9.
 - He concluded the regular season with 144 total tackles in his career.

HOMETOWN HERO

- J.J. Weaver, a senior outside linebacker, had a picture-perfect performance in the last regular-season game of 2023.
 - Playing in his hometown at Kentucky's in-state rival then-No. 9/9 Louisville, Weaver played a critical role in the 38-31 triumph.
- Weaver, a native of Louisville, Kentucky, turned the game on its head with game-changing defensive plays on consecutive possessions.
 - First, he chased down Louisville running back Jawhar Jordan from behind late in the third quarter, stripping the football and then recovering his forced fumble, leading to a game-tying field goal.
 - Minutes later, he fell on a fumble caused by teammate D'Eryk Jackson to set up a fourth quarter touchdown by Ray Davis to give the Wildcats their first lead.
- Weaver was honored with the Howard Schnellenberger Award as the Governor's Cup's Most Valuable Player, and he was later named the Southeastern Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Week.

- He totaled eight tackles, two fumble recoveries, one caused fumble and a quarterback sack that also came in the fourth quarter.

J.J. WEAVER NAMED TO 2023 SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM, JASON WITTEN COLLEGIATE MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD SEMIFINALIST

- J.J. Weaver, a senior outside linebacker, was named to the 2023 Southeastern Conference Community Service Team and one of 20 semifinalists for the seventh annual Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year award.
- Weaver, who was born with polydactyly, a condition in which a person or animal has more than five fingers or toes on one, or on each, hand or foot, has had to face many obstacles in his lifetime. With six fingers on his right hand, he was bullied and ridiculed in grade school for being different. But that obstacle was nothing compared to what he was about to face during his collegiate years.
- From July 2020 to August 2021, Weaver lost his father to homicide, sustained a season-ending knee injury and then lost his beloved high school football coach to cancer.
- Inspired by the help he received, J.J. has become an outspoken advocate for mental health and counseling. This fall, with help from the Kentucky Center for Grieving Children and Families, he started a peer-led grief counseling group on UK's campus, the first of its kind.
- Furthermore, Weaver's non-profit organization, "The Perfect Fit," which he started in high school, has organized several community service projects, including one this summer, "The Perfect Fit Bike Drive." Weaver and his family donated 111 free bicycles for kids in his hometown of Louisville.

LEADERSHIP ON THE DEFENSE

- Despite losing seven of the top players on the defense from 2022 -- who totaled 20 seasons as starters in the Southeastern Conference -- still numerous names returned this season that are primed to bring a unique level of leadership.
 - "It's huge when the older guys take charge because when they do, it shows you that they have assumed ownership. They don't just rely on the coaches to make all the corrections because at that point, they have passed along the ownership to the coaches (that means players think) 'I only worry about myself.'" - Brad White
- The top two leaders in tackles from last season returned in 2023, including middle linebacker D'Eryk Jackson (67 tackles) and free safety Jordan Lovett (62 tackles). Outside linebacker J.J. Weaver, who was the sack leader last season, also is back after deciding not to pursue the 2023 NFL Draft. Inside linebacker Trevin Wallace, who had 54 tackles last season, returned to the Bluegrass, while defensive linemen, both young and old, Deone Walker and Octavious Oxendine are expected to be leaders on this year's defense.
 - "The old guys help correct old guys. Old guys have to correct young guys, then they ask good, quality questions of the coaching staff. Practice would be really hard and dull if the coaches were the only ones coaching." - Brad White

LOOKIN' BACK

The Wildcats' defense finished last season in the nation's top 10 in two categories and in the nation's top 25 in seven categories at the end of 2022.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

RAYNOR'S RECORD

- Kentucky brought in a senior transfer from Georgia Southern to help bring consistency to the program's kicking game, Alex Raynor.
- He shined in his Kentucky debut against Ball State on Sept. 2, connecting on all three of his field goal attempts, all of which were more than 40 yards, and on all five of his extra point attempts.
 - Raynor became the first Kentucky player with three made field goals in their UK debut since Taylor Begley against Louisville on Sept. 1, 2002.
- For the season, he is 10-of-11 on field goals and 43-of-44 on extra points.
 - He earned a career-long, 50-yard field goal against Florida on Sept. 30.
 - He is 9-of-9 on field goals between 0 and 49 yards, including 4-of-4 on field goals between 40 and 49 yards.
- The Wildcat's first field goal against No. 21/20 Tennessee on Oct. 28, a 28-yard field goal, made him 7-of-7 on the season at the time.
 - With that, he broke the school record for most consecutive field goals made at the beginning of a career. The previous record of six was held by Joe Mansour (2013) and Miles Butler (all four in 2015, first two of 2018).

GENERAL NOTES

QUICK, TELL ME ABOUT KENTUCKY!

- The Wildcats are in their 133rd football season in 2023.
- The Wildcats are celebrating their 50th anniversary of the opening of Kroger Field this season, which was formerly named Commonwealth Stadium (1973-2016).
 - The Cats are 186-144-4 (.563) all-time in Kroger Field, including 50-28 (.641) under Mark Stoops.
 - The Cats have won 17 of their past 24 games at Kroger Field.
- UK was picked to finish fourth in the SEC Eastern Division in a 2023 SEC Preseason Media Poll, behind defending national champion Georgia, then Tennessee and South Carolina. Kentucky ended the '23 tied for fourth in the division.
 - Three Wildcats were named to the 2023 Preseason Media Days All-SEC Teams, including sophomore Deone Walker (Second Team Defense), graduate students Eli Cox (Third Team Offense) and J.J. Weaver (Third Team Defense).
- The Wildcats have won their last 20 straight nonconference games in the regular season.
 - That streak is second in the nation behind Georgia (24).
- UK head coach Mark Stoops is in his 11th year at the helm of the program in 2023, the longest in program history, which was an accomplishment he set last season. He also is the second-longest tenured active head coach in the SEC, behind Alabama's Nick Saban, and he is the seventh-longest nationally.
 - In that time, Stoops has accumulated a 73-64 overall record.
 - Stoops became the winningest head coach in program history last season after No. 20/20 Kentucky upset No. 12/19 Florida in Gainesville, 26-16, on Sept. 10, 2022. Stoops passed former UK head coach Bear Bryant (1946-53), who set the previous record at 60.

- Stoops began his tenure in Lexington 12-26 (.316) (2013 - through first two games of 2016). He has since gone 61-38 (.616) (2016 - present).
- Stoops has guided UK to three second-place SEC East finishes in the last eight seasons, which are the program's only second-place SEC East finishes in program history.
- The Wildcats returned 36 letterwinners, including 13 offensive and defensive starters, in 2023. The Cats also bolstered the roster with the addition of 16 newcomers from the transfer portal.
 - The offensive starters who returned include wide receivers Dane Key and Tayvion Robinson, offensive linemen Jager Burton, Kenneth Horsey, Eli Cox and Jeremy Flax, and tight ends Brenden Bates and Jordan Dingle.
 - The defensive starters who returned include linemen Deone Walker and Tre'vonn Rybka, inside linebacker D'Eryk Jackson, outside linebacker J.J. Weaver, and defensive back Jordan Lovett.
 - The specialty starters who returned include punter Wilson Berry and kickoff man Chance Poore.
- Other updates that occurred during the offseason include the renovation of Nutter Field House, with the help of a lead donation from Brett and Billie Jo Setzer, allowed the playing surface inside the facility to be named Rich and Karen Brooks Field, and a the new turf at Kroger Field.
- In 2022, UK earned a 7-6 record overall and a 3-5 record in the conference, reaching its school-record seventh consecutive bowl game (TransPerfect Music City Bowl).
 - It marked the sixth time in the last seven seasons that UK won at least seven games, with the lone exception being the COVID-shortened season in 2020.
 - In 2022, Kentucky concluded its regular season with a win over in-state rival Louisville, 26-13, which marked the Cats' fourth-straight win over the Cards. It was also the Cats' fifth-straight triumph in the regular-season finale, which marked the first time in program history that has been accomplished.
- Former quarterback Will Levis was selected No. 33 overall in the 2023 NFL Draft, marking the fifth straight season Kentucky has had one or more players selected in the first three rounds. In his NFL debut for the Tennessee Titans on Oct. 29, he completed 19 of 29 passes (65.5%) for 238 yards and four touchdowns
 - He became the first quarterback to complete 65 percent of his passes for 225+ yards and four touchdowns in his NFL debut.
 - He became the first former Kentucky quarterback to throw four touchdowns in an NFL game since George Blanda in 1968.
 - He became the first former Kentucky quarterback to start an NFL game since Tim Couch in 2003.

KENTUCKY PILED UP AWARDS AFTER DEFEATING FLORIDA

- The awards piled up for Kentucky after defeating then-No. 22/23 Florida on Sept. 30.
 - Running back Ray Davis earned the SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week, the Doak Walker National Player of Week, the Maxwell Trophy National Player of Week, the

- Hrine Bowl Breakout Offense Player of Week and CFPA National Performer of Week Honorable Mention.
- Right tackle Jeremy Flax was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week and the Outland Trophy National Player of the Week.
- Head coach Mark Stoops was named the Dodd Trophy Coach of the Week.

KENTUCKY IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

- The Wildcats have a 193-406-12 (.326) all-time record in Southeastern Conference games.
 - UK head coach Mark Stoops has a 35-55 (.389) all-time record in SEC games.

PORTAL PICKUPS

Mark Stoops took advantage of the NCAA Transfer Portal to fulfill needs in key positions in 2023, welcoming 16 new Wildcats to the program. In fact, Ray Davis, a running back who spent last season at Vanderbilt, was named to The Athletic's Midseason All-Transfer Portal Team prior to Week 8.

CATS IN THE NATIONAL POLLS

- Kentucky was ranked for two straight weeks, Week 6 and Week 7, in both the Associated Press Poll and the AFCA Coaches Poll, before dropping out after its loss to RV/No. 25 Missouri on Oct. 14.
 - The Wildcats began the season receiving votes in both polls and remained there through Week 5. It marked the second consecutive season UK has been ranked or receiving votes in the preseason edition of both major polls.
 - Three of UK's remaining opponents are ranked in the AP Top 25 in Week 7 (Alabama, Louisville and Tennessee).
- Just last season, for the first time in program history, UK was ranked in both preseason polls, checking in at No. 20 in the AP poll and No. 21 in the coaches poll.
 - The Wildcats wound up being ranked for the first nine AP polls in 2022. That stretch included three straight weeks being ranked in the AP Top 10.
- Between the 2021 and 2022 seasons, Kentucky was ranked in one or both of the major polls for 12 straight weeks.
 - It marked the second longest streak in program history, only behind the 21 weeks UK spent in one or both of the major polls between 1949 and 1951.

SIMPLY STOOPS-ENDOUS

UK head coach Mark Stoops has proven to be an excellent hire, turning around a struggling program and making him the first UK coach to lead the program to a eighth consecutive bowl appearance in 2023. He also has erased numerous of the long-standing hurdles and streaks in the program's history. A partial accounting of Stoops' achievements features:

- 47 wins since 2018, which is the fourth-most in the SEC and is tied for the 19th-most among Power Five programs.
- Winning the regular-season finale six years in a row for the first time in school history (2018-23)

- First top-10 ranking in each the Associated Press poll and the coaches' poll since 2007 (Sept. 11, 2022)
- First consecutive top-10 rankings in each poll since 1977 (Sept. 18, 2022)
- His 61st coaching victory win, breaking the school record held by Paul "Bear" Bryant (Sept. 10, 2022)
- First home win over Florida since 1986, also marking the first win over an Associated Press top 10-ranked opponent since 2010 (2021)
- First win at Tennessee since 1984 (2020)
- First New Year's Day Bowl win since 1951 (2018 season)
- First 10-win season since 1977 (2018)
- First SEC Coach of the Year since 1983 (2018)
- First final poll ranking since 1984 (2018)
- First bowl win since 2008 (2018 season)
- First win vs. Florida since 1986 (2018)
- First bowl appearance since 2010 (2016)
- Stoops began his tenure in Lexington 12-26 (.316) (2013 - through first two games of 2016). He has since gone 61-38 (.616) (2016 - present). Overall, Stoops is now 73-64 at Kentucky, surpassing Paul "Bear" Bryant's 60 victories to set a school record.
- Off the field, Stoops is a staunch supporter of the Kentucky Children's Hospital, helping raise more than $500,000 annually for the kids. He was named the Honorary Coach of the 2022 AFCA Good Works Team.
- Kentucky's football team has fared well academically under Stoops, as each year UK's football score in the NCAA Academic Progress Rate has been well above the benchmark of 930.

STOOPS PICKED AMONG NATION'S TOP-20 COACHES

- Prior to the season, four national writers ranked the nation's top-20 coaches and Mark Stoops was in all four listings:
 - No. 18 Max Chadwick, Pro Football Focus
 - No. 18 Tom Fornelli, CBS.com
 - No. 18 Bruce Feldman, The Athletic
 - No. 20 Stewart Mandel, The Athletic
- It's not the first time that Stoops has drawn national acclaim for his accomplishments. In December 2021, longtime college football analyst Tom Luginbill noted, "I think Mark Stoops is the best program builder in all of college football right now."

Now in his 11th season at Kentucky, Stoops is one of only 23 football coaches who have coached at least 11 seasons at SEC schools since the league's first season in 1933.

KENTUCKY'S YOUNGSTOWN BOYS

- A neighbor of Pittsburgh, a.k.a. Steel City USA, Youngstown, Ohio, has a reputation as a blue collar community defined by hard work and relationships forged over generations that are stronger than steel. Kentucky's football program is, in many ways, defined by that bond as it creates a southern alumni club from Youngstown, the hometown of head coach Mark Stoops and his brother Mike Stoops and several other key members of the program. Below is a list of staffers and players from Youngstown:
 - Mark Stoops - Head Coach (Cardinal Mooney High School)
 - Mike Stoops – Inside Linebackers Coach (Cardinal Mooney)

- Vince Marrow – Associate Head Coach/Recruiting Coord./ Tight Ends (Cardinal Mooney)
- Frank Buffano – Safeties (Cardinal Mooney)
- Courtney Love – Grad Assistant (Cardinal Mooney)
- Luke Fulton – junior, inside linebacker (Cardinal Mooney)
- Tino Merlo – freshman, offensive lineman (Cardinal Mooney)

COACHING CHANGES

- Daikiel Shorts Jr. is the newest member of UK's coaching staff. He was hired Dec. 19 as the wide receivers coach after spending the last three seasons as the wide receivers coach at Houston.
- Jay Boulware was named the running backs coach and special teams coordinator on Dec. 12, 2022. He brings more than 25 years of coaching experience to Lexington after most recently serving as an offensive intern in the National Football League for the Pittsburgh Steelers, working specifically with the running backs, including UK's all-time leading rusher Benny Snell Jr. Before the Steelers, he served as the associate head coach for special teams and tight ends coach at Texas, his alma mater.
- Liam Coen returned as Kentucky's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on Jan. 10. He previously served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kentucky in 2021 before spending 2022 as the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams.
- Stoops also announced during the offseason the hiring of quality control coach for special teams Mike Priefer Jr. Priefer's name might be familiar to National Football League aficionados as his father Mike Priefer has almost two decades of pro coaching experience, including the last four as the special teams coordinator for the Cleveland Browns. His grandfather, Chuck Priefer, was a longtime college and NFL coach, including a special teams coach with the San Diego Chargers and Detroit Lions.

WILDCATS IN THE NFL DRAFT

- Kentucky had three selections in the 2023 NFL Draft - Will Levis (2nd Round, Tennessee), Chris Rodriguez Jr. (6th, Washington) and Carrington Valentine (7th, Green Bay). All three have earned a place on opening day NFL rosters.
- In total, 25 players have been drafted under head coach Mark Stoops since 2013, including 14 defensive players in Avery Williamson, Bud Dupree, Za'Darius Smith, Josh Forrest, Josh Allen, Lonnie Johnson, Mike Edwards, Jamin Davis, Kelvin Joseph, Quinton Bohanna, Brandin Echols, Josh Paschal and Carrington Valentine.
- Kentucky has totaled four or more players selected in the first five rounds three times in school history, including twice in the last four years under Coach Mark Stoops - 2022, 2019 and 1966.
- Kentucky has had a player selected in the first three rounds in five consecutive drafts.

DID YOU KNOW?

- A picture of longevity, UK Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski enters his 46th season in that role. He also was a student manager in 1974-77, now marking his 50th year in UK football. He has worked more than 500 consecutive games. In honor of his 50th season, Kalinowski was named an honorary captain for the home finale vs. Alabama.
- UK is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship, while also having a claim on a national championship in football.

- UK is one of only seven universities in the U.S. that have programs in agriculture, engineering, law, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 24 national cheerleading championships at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.

HEAD COACH MARK STOOPS / 11TH SEASON / IOWA, 1989

"I think Mark Stoops is the best program builder in all of college football right now."

-- Tom Luginbill, ESPN National Recruiting Director and on-air game analyst, in December 2021

The 2023 season marked yet another year of achievement for Coach Mark Stoops and the Kentucky football program.

Upon receiving a bid to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, UK extended its school-record streak of eight consecutive bowl games, all under Stoops. Kentucky finished the regular season at 7-5, the seventh-consecutive season (not including the Covid-shortened 2020 season) that UK has won at least seven games.

Stoops has personal milestones as well and is in his 11th season at Kentucky, longest term of any coach in school history. The Wildcats' victory at Florida in 2022 was Stoops' 61st win, breaking the school record of 60 held by Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Since then, Stoops has lengthened his school-record wins total to 73 and also holds the UK marks for home wins (50), SEC wins (35) and wins over ranked opponents (13).

Called "the best program builder in all of college football" two years ago by ESPN analyst Tom Luginbill, Stoops' success hasn't come easily.

Inheriting a program that was 2-10 the year before he arrived, Stoops' rebuilding efforts took time. Two games into the 2016 season his record was 12-26. He has since gone 61-38 (.616) (2016 - present).

In addition to this season's achievements, a partial accounting of Stoops' exploits features:

- Four straight bowl wins – the Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 2022, the 2020 Gator Bowl, the 2019 Belk Bowl and the Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019 – first time in school history that UK won four straight bowls
- A school-record 20-game win streak against nonconference competition (2018-22), which was the nation's longest active streak at the time.
- Winning the regular-season finale for six straight seasons (2018-present)
- First win at Tennessee since 1984 (2020)
- First New Year's Day Bowl win since 1951 (2018 season)
- First 10-win season since 1977 (2018)
- First SEC Coach of the Year since 1983 (2018)

STOOPS AND CO. MAKING A HIT IN RECRUITING

Now in his 11th season at the helm of the Kentucky football program, head coach Mark Stoops and his staff have been making noise on the recruiting trail. Kentucky's 11 classes under Stoops have ranked in the top 50 by all four major recruiting services. Below is a look at UK's recruiting success under Stoops and Co.

Kentucky's Signing Day class for 2022 was UK's highest-rated class in the available history of recruiting rankings. (Note: these rankings are based on UK's 20 signees, 19 high school and one junior college, and did not include four-year college transfers Tashawn Manning and Tayvion Robinson.)

Several of Stoops' players have also won All-America accolades, along with honors such as the Bronko Nagurski Award, Chuck Bednarik Award, Paul Hornung Award, Ronnie Lott Trophy, Ray Guy Award, Danny Wuerffel Trophy, Jason Witten Man of the Year, Pop Warner Award, Academic All-America and National Good Works Team.

Off the field, Stoops has been active in fundraising and events for the UK Children's Hospital and he was named Honorary Coach of the 2022 National Good Works Team.

The bountiful crop of victories and honors are the fruit of the last eight seasons, but the harvest didn't come easily. Arriving in 2013, taking over a team that had gone 2-10 the season before, it took three years of plowing, planting and growing before the results came.

Stoops earned his first bowl game as head coach in 2016, when the Wildcats overcame an 0-2 start to go 7-3 down the stretch and advance to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. UK duplicated seven wins in 2017, playing in the Franklin-American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

Led by linebacker Josh Allen, the National Defensive Player of the Year, and Benny Snell Jr., the school's all-time leading rusher, the 2018 squad went 10-3. It was UK's best season in 41 years, topped by a win over Penn State in the VRBO Citrus Bowl. It was only the third 10-win season in school history.

In addition, the 2018 campaign featured a win at Florida -- the Wildcats' first victory over the Gators in 32 years -- resulting in UK being named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America. The regular season concluded with a 56-10 win at in-state rival Louisville, the largest margin of victory in the history of the Governor's Cup series.

UK was No. 11 in the final USA Today coaches' poll and No. 12 in the final Associated Press tabulation, the school's first appearance in the final rankings since 1984. The 2018 season also continued a remarkable trend -- since Stoops took over as coach of the Cats in 2013, UK was the only school in the nation that tied or improved its win total in six straight seasons.

CollegeFootballNews.com listed Stoops as the best coaching performance of the season and he was named Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by The Associated Press, Athlon Sports and the league coaches.

The 2019 season was one of the most unusual in school history. A succession of injuries decimated the quarterbacks and Stoops turned to wide receiver Lynn Bowden Jr. to man the QB position. Running the ball almost exclusively, UK went 6-2 down the stretch and closed the season with four straight wins, topped by a dramatic come-from-behind Belk Bowl win over Virginia Tech when Bowden threw the game-winning touchdown pass with only 15 seconds remaining.

Stoops followed with the Covid-shortened 2020 season that was capped by a Gator Bowl win over No. 23 North Carolina State.

The momentum continued in 2021 with another 10-win season -- the second under Stoops and only the fourth in school history -- capped by a dramatic come-from-behind win over Iowa in the Vrbo Citrus Bowl.

How has Stoops accomplished all of this? The coach would tell you that there's been nothing magical about the process.

True to his blue-collar roots in Youngstown, Ohio, the methodical advancement made by Stoops' teams is a reflection of the coach's rock-steady work ethic, tireless recruiting, and ability to adapt.

Stoops came to Kentucky from Florida State, where he was defensive coordinator from 2010-

12. He inherited a unit ranked 108th in the nation in total defense and turned it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation's top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornelius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year. The Seminoles' prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops' defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarter-back sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades. During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Mark and Mike are also brothers of Bob Stoops, who spent 18 years as the Oklahoma head coach and has been elected to the College Football Hall of Fame. The eldest Stoops brother, Ron Jr., is retired after coaching at Youngstown State. Mark and Mike have reunited in Lexington, as Mike joined the UK staff in 2022 as inside linebackers coach.

Prior to Arizona, Mark Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft – seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. As did brothers Bob and Mike, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Stoops has two sons, Will and Zack.

ASSISTANT COACHES

FRANK BUFFANO

SAFETIES

Frank Buffano was hired in March of 2020 after serving seven years as the director of football operations at UK. He assists Chris Collins with the defensive backs and works primarily with the safeties. In 2022, he also was the co-special teams coordinator.

Prior to Kentucky, Buffano was a secondary coach and linebackers coach at Youngstown State. He began his career at Arizona under Mike Stoops, serving as a defensive graduate assistant coach his last two seasons after three years of working as a video graduate assistant with the Wildcats.

JAY BOULWARE

RUNNING BACKS/SPECIAL TEAMS

Jay Boulware is the newest member to Kentucky's coaching staff. Hired on Dec. 12, 2022, he brings a plethora of success to the Commonwealth as he has more than 25 years of coaching experience and has been a part of 16 teams that advanced to bowl games. Most recently, he served as an offensive intern in the National Football League for the Pittsburgh Steelers, working specifically with the running backs, including UK's all-time leading rusher, Benny Snell Jr.

Before the Steelers, he served as the associate head coach for special teams and tight ends coach at Texas, his alma mater, helping the No. 19 Longhorns finish 7-3 overall and capture the Alamo Bowl title in 2020.

He also spent seven years at Oklahoma, working under then-head coach Bob Stoops from 2013-16 and Lincoln Riley from (2017-19) and had stints at Auburn, Utah, Stanford, Arizona and Northern Illinois.

Boulware was an offensive lineman at Texas before entering the coaching ranks.

LIAM COEN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QBS

Liam Coen is in his second season at Kentucky, the first in his current term as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He returned to the Bluegrass in 2023 after serving one season as the offensive coordinator with the Los Angeles Rams.

Before Kentucky, Coen spent three years on the Rams' staff from 2018-20. He served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2018 and 2019 before taking on assistant quarterbacks coach in 2020, when he helped Jared Goff post his fourth-consecutive season with 3,800 or more passing yards.

Coen played collegiate football at UMass and had an illustrious career as a four-year starter at quarterback from 2005-08. He set nearly every career UMass passing record, including most yards gained (11,031), highest passing efficiency (152.92), completion percentage (63.9), completions (830) and touchdowns (90).

VINCE MARROW

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Vince Marrow, aka the "Big Dawg," enters his 11th season at Kentucky, currently handling the duties of associate head coach/tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator/NFL liaison.

Marrow's tight ends have been a big factor in UK producing six consecutive seasons of 2,000 or more rushing yards with at least one 1,000-yard rusher in five of those (Stanley "Boom" Williams -2016; Benny Snell Jr., - 2017, 2018; Lynn Bowden - 2019; Chris Rodriguez Jr. - 2021). Marrow also has been instrumental in UK signing 10 straight top-50 recruiting classes, including the highest-rated class in UK history in 2021.

Marrow had a professional playing career as a member of NFL rosters on five teams, including Buffalo, Carolina, New York Jets, Chicago and San Francisco. After his NFL days ended, Marrow played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1998, earning all-league honors with 32 receptions for 345 yards. He also played for the Orlando Rage in the XFL in 2001.

He began his collegiate playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to Toledo. Marrow played two seasons at Toledo, earning second-team All-MAC honors in 1991 before being drafted by the Bills in 1992.

ANWAR STEWART

DEFENSIVE LINE

Former Wildcat Anwar Stewart was named the defensive line coach at Kentucky in January of 2020. He returned to the Bluegrass after one season as the defensive line coach at Appalachian State.

Stewart is quite familiar with the Kentucky football program after playing linebacker/defensive end from 1996-99 under head coaches Bill Curry and Hal Mumme and having served as a student assistant and defensive assistant under head coach Mark Stoops from 2017-18.

During his playing days at Kentucky, he totaled 64 tackles, including nine tackles for loss and eight sacks, playing both linebacker and defensive end.

MIKE STOOPS

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Mike Stoops, a 35-year collegiate coaching veteran who is the brother of head coach Mark Stoops, was named the inside linebackers coach in January of 2022. He replaced Jon Sumrall, who was named the head coach at Troy.

Mike Stoops most recently was at Florida Atlantic where he spent the 2021 season as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach. Prior to that, he spent two seasons (2019 and 2020) at Alabama as an analyst on Nick Saban's staff, highlighted by the 2020 national championship. He also was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Oklahoma from 2012-18 and was the head coach at Arizona from 2004-11. He had a first term at Oklahoma from 1999-2003, including the 2000 national championship season.

BRAD WHITE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Brad White is in his sixth season at Kentucky as the outside linebackers coach and fifth as the Cats' defensive coordinator. He was elevated to the DC position by head coach Mark Stoops in February of 2019.

White came to Kentucky after spending six years at the outside linebackers coach with the Indianapolis Colts.

A graduate of Wake Forest, White started at linebacker and finished his playing career with 227 tackles, 19.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks and eight passes defended, while starting 34-of-35 games played. White was a three-time Academic All-ACC selection and was named to the 2004 CoSIDA Academic All-District III team.

ZACH YENSER

OFFENSIVE LINE

Zach Yenser was named the new offensive line coach at Kentucky in February of 2022 after three seasons as the assistant offensive line coach with the San Francisco 49ers.

Yenser, originally from Fort Mitchell, Kentucky, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater Troy University in 2007, working with special teams and the offensive linemen under former Wildcat and beloved UK assistant coach John Schlarman.

As a player at Troy, Yenser earned a starting spot at center from 2003-06. In 2006, as a senior team captain, he helped the Trojans win the Sun Belt Conference and the New Orleans Bowl, and was named a First-Team All-Sun Belt selection.

KENTUCKY 44, BALL STATE 14

SEPT. 2, 2023 • LEXINGTON, KY. KROGER FIELD (58,286)

Kentucky scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams, beating Ball State 44-14 in the 2023 season opener at Kroger Field.

Quarterback Devin Leary, making his first start for Kentucky, connected on 18 of 31 passing for 241 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Running back Ray Davis, also wearing blue for the first time on Saturday, rushed for 112 yards and a pair of scores for the Cats.

Kentucky (1-0) had 357 yards of total offense in the game compared to just 295 for Ball State. The Cardinals actually had more first downs than the Cats (18-16) but the Cats took advantage of both BSU turnovers, converting those into 10 points.

The Cats also got a defensive score on a 69-yard fumble recovery and return by Jalen Geiger, as well as a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Barion Brown. Defensively, Trevin Wallace led the Cats with 12 tackles, while Alex Afari, Maxwell Hairston and D'Eryk Jackson each had eight stops.

On the first play from scrimmage, Leary connected with Dane Key over the middle for a 44-yard completion, quickly getting the Cats into BSU territory. But the drive stalled and UK settled for a 41-yard field goal from Alex Raynor, which was good, and Kentucky took an early 3-0 lead.

Ball State went three-and-out on its first drive but the Cardinals' punt pinned the Cats at their own six. Kentucky quickly dug itself out of that hole on a 26-yard run by Davis. But Kentucky was forced to punt, giving the ball back to Ball State with 8:40 still to play in the first quarter.

On the ensuing possession, the Cardinals drove into UK territory for the first time. Ball State would march 73 yards in 13 plays, ending with a one-yard quarterback sneak touchdown run by Layne Hatcher. Jackson Courville added the extra point and Ball State led 7-3 with 1:35 to play in the first.

Kentucky wasted little time getting into the Ball State red zone early in the second period. A 27-yard connection from Leary to Key, followed by a 16-yard completion to Tayvion Robinson, got the Cats to the BSU four yard line. A couple of plays later, Davis scored on a two-yard rush, his first touchdown as a Wildcat, to give UK the lead. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-7 with 11:31 to play in the half.

Ball State drove into UK territory on its next possession before the UK defense made a big play. Hatcher completed a pass to Tanner Koziol, who was hit by UK's Afari, resulting in a fumble that Geiger scooped up and took 69 yards for a Kentucky touchdown. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky grabbed a 17-7 advantage with 6:58 left in the half.

The UK defense forced another three-and-out on Ball State's next possession, forcing a Cardinals' punt. Kentucky took over at its own 45 with 4:35 to play in the half.

Kentucky would get into Ball State territory but, on fourth and three from the BSU 33, Leary was intercepted by Ball State's Tyler Potts to end the threat and give the Cardinals the ball back with 1:37 left in the half.

The UK defense would make another big play before the end of the half. BSU's Malcolm Gillie caught a pass from Hatcher but was hit by UK's Hairston, causing a fumble that was recovered by Jordan Lovett, giving Kentucky the ball at the BSU 31 with 1:22 left in the half.

Kentucky could do nothing with the ensuing possession, but the Cats got a 46-yard field goal from Raynor with 1:08 to play in the half to make it 20-7 UK.

Ball State got the ball back but Kentucky used its timeouts wisely and forced a Cardinals' punt. The Cats took over on their own 45 with 31 seconds to play. On the second play of the possession, Leary hit Barion Brown for 26 yards, getting the Cats to the BSU 29 with 17 seconds left in the half. On the final play of the half, Raynor connected on a 46-yard field goal, giving Kentucky a 23-7 lead at the half.

The Cardinals got the ball first in the third quarter. BSU got one first down and drove near midfield before being forced to punt. UK took over at its own 11 with 9:29 remaining in the third quarter.

Kentucky took over and put together an impressive scoring drive. The Cats marched 89 yards in seven plays, culminating when Leary found Key in the back of the end zone for a five-yard touchdown pass. Raynor added the point after and Kentucky led 30-7 with 6:43 left in the third.

Ball State answered with a scoring drive of its own. The Cardinals went 75 yards in 10 plays. The drive ended with a touchdown pass from Kaydin Semonza to Ty Robinson. Courville added the PAT to make it 30-14 with less than a minute to play in the third.

On the ensuing kickoff, Brown fielded the ball on the right hash at the one, went up the middle, and was off to the races, covering 99 yards for a kick return touchdown, the second of his young career. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky led 37-14 with 28 seconds left in the period. That would be the score after three quarters.

In the fourth quarter, Ball State drove deep into Kentucky territory, eventually getting to the UK one yard line. But on fourth and goal, Semonza tried a quarterback sneak and was stuffed by UK's Keaten Wade and Trevin Wallace, foiling the scoring opportunity and giving the ball back to the Cats with 9:57 left in the game.

Kentucky would add a late score when Davis scampered 30 yards for his second touchdown of the game with just six seconds remaining. Raynor added the PAT to provide the final margin of victory.

KENTUCKY 28, EASTERN KENTUCKY 17

SEPT. 9, 2023 • LEXINGTON, KY.
KROGER FIELD (61,876)

Devin Leary threw a career high-tying four touchdown passes, including two to Tayvion Robinson, as Kentucky rallied past Eastern Kentucky 28-17 at Kroger Field.

Leary connected on 24 of 38 through the air for 299 yards and the four scores with an interception. Robinson caught six passes for 136 yards and a pair of scores.

Barion Brown also had a big day for the Cats with 152 yards of all purpose offense and a score. Ray Davis led the Cats with 52 yards rushing on 12 carries. Davis also caught a touchdown pass from Leary.

Andru Phillips and Trevin Wallace led the Cats with seven tackles each, while Jordan Lovett, D'Eryk Jackson and Deone Walker each had five stops.

Kentucky (2-0) got the game's first possession but the Cats were unable to make a first down and were forced to punt. Wilson Berry's kick was blocked by EKU's Cornelius Evans and the Colonels took over on the UK 30 yard line.

The Colonels would take advantage of the short field. After making a first down, EKU got on the board when quarterback Parker McKinney scrambled 14 yards for a touchdown. Patrick Nations added the extra point and Eastern Kentucky led 7-0 with 10:46 left in the first quarter.

On the ensuing possession, Kentucky got three first downs, crossing the 50 into EKU territory. But the drive stalled and, on fourth and nine from the EKU 33, Leary was sacked by the Colonels' Albert Nunes and the Cats turned the ball over on downs with 4:30 to play in the first.

EKU took the ball and got into UK territory before the Kentucky defense forced a punt. The Cats would take over at their own seven yard line with 1:40 remaining in the period. The Colonels would hold a 7-0 lead after one quarter.

Early in the second quarter, Kentucky was forced to punt and EKU took over deep in its own territory. On the second play of the drive, UK linebacker Trevin Wallace hit EKU's Braedon Sloan, causing a fumble that Kentucky's Alex Afari recovered at the EKU 24.

The EKU defense would step up on the drive, as Frank Lee tipped a Leary pass, then intercepted it at the EKU 39. The Colonels took over with 10:39 left in the half.

Again, EKU would get into Kentucky territory, but this drive would be stopped when McKinney's pass over the middle was intercepted by UK's Maxwell Hairston at the UK four yard line. Kentucky took over with 10:00 left in the half.

Kentucky was able to make a pair of first downs on its next drive, but the Cats would be forced to punt again and EKU took over at its own 13 with 7:17 to play in the half.

EKU took its next possession and again drove into UK territory. But the drive stalled and the Colonels tried a 48-yard field goal. But Nations' kick came up short and the Cats took over at their own 31 with 4:40 to play in the half.

Kentucky would make one first down before being forced to punt again. EKU took over at its own 3 yard line with 3:30 left in the half.

The Colonels punted and Kentucky got a 36-yard return from Barion Brown, giving the Cats the ball at the EKU 24 with 48 seconds left in the half. And the Cats immediately took advantage when Leary hit Tayvion Robinson in the left corner of the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown pass. Alex Raynor added the PAT and the game was tied 7-7 with 42 seconds left in the half.

EKU had the first possession of the second half and the Colonels wasted little time getting into the UK red zone. The Colonels got inside the UK 10 before the Kentucky defense got a stop and forced a 21-yard field goal attempt. Nations would make the kick and the Colonels grabbed a 10-7 lead with 9:41 left in the third quarter.

Kentucky would answer with a scoring drive of its own. UK got a 25-yard pass from Leary to Robinson, followed by a 26-yard run on a reverse from Brown to get inside the EKU 10. Then, on third and goal, Leary connected with Robinson for the duo's second touchdown of the game. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky led for the first time, 14-10, with 5:47 left in the third.

On the next possession, EKU would get one first down before being forced to punt. Kentucky would take over at its own 15 yard line with 3:47 to play in the third period. The Cats again would turn to Robinson, this time on a reverse, that the super senior took 56 yards deep into EKU territory. Two plays later, Leary hit

Brown in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown. Raynor added another PAT and Kentucky led 21-10 with 1:47 to play in the third period.

Eastern Kentucky quickly responded. McKinney hit Joshua Carter over the middle for a 39-yard game. McKinney then scrambled for six yards on the final play of the third quarter, getting EKU to the UK 24 yard line. The Colonels would get to the nine and that's when McKinney hit Sloan for a nine-yard touchdown. Nations drilled the PAT and Kentucky's lead was cut to 21-17 with 12:04 to play.

Kentucky responded with an efficient, six-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Leary throwing his fourth touchdown pass of the day, a 24-yard wheel route to Davis, to increase the UK lead. Raynor added another PAT and the Cats led 28-17 with 8:08 to play.

KENTUCKY 35, AKRON 3

SEPT. 16, 2023 • LEXINGTON, KY.
KROGER FIELD (59,456)

Devyn Leary passed for 315 yards and three touchdowns and Ray Davis had 169 all-purpose yards as Kentucky blasted Akron 35-3 at Kroger Field.

Leary hit on 16 of 25 passing in the game, connecting on touchdowns to Josh Kattus, Tayvion Robinson and Davis.

Davis rushed for 72 yards on seven carries and caught three passes for 97 yards in the game. Kentucky ended the game with 450 yards of total offense.

On defense, Maxwell Hairston led the Cats with seven tackles, while Trevin Wallace had five, including a pair of sacks.

Kentucky got the ball first and the Cats got off to a very good start. Leary connected with Davis for a 39-yard completion to get UK into Akron territory. A Leary scramble earned the Cats another first down, as did a completion to Barion Brown. The drive would end when Leary connected with Kattus on a six-yard touchdown pass. Alex Raynor would add the extra point and UK grabbed an early 7-0 lead.

The UK defense forced Akron into a three and out on their first drive and the Zips were forced to punt. Kentucky would take over at its own 30 with 9:06 still remaining in the first quarter.

Kentucky would punt on its next possession, but Akron would muff the punt and UK's Zion Childress recovered at the Akron 36 yard line. But the Cats were unable to move the ball and, after a delay of game penalty foiled a potential field goal attempt, UK punted the ball away.

Akron would punt again on its next possession and UK took over at its own 19 with 1:37 to play in the first quarter. The Cats would end the period with a 7-0 lead.

On the second play of the second quarter, Kentucky got a big completion from Leary to Jordan Dingle, covering 59 yards to the Akron 11 yard line. But as Dingle fought for extra yards, Akron's Shammond Cooper forced a fumble that the Zips recovered in the end zone.

Akron would assemble a solid drive on the ensuing possession. The Zips would get inside the UK 30 but Kentucky's defense forced a 47-yard field goal attempt from Noah Perez that came up short and the Cats maintained a 7-0 advantage with 5:39 left in the half.

Kentucky took advantage of the possession, and the Cats would drive deep into Akron territory, getting inside the 10. But a bad snap cost Kentucky 21 yards. However, just before the half, Leary found Robinson in the back of the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown. Raynor added the PAT and the Cats led 14-0 with eight seconds to play in the half. That would be the halftime score.

Akron got possession to start the second half. The Zips would get near midfield and appeared to have converted a fourth and short to keep the drive going. But an ineligible receiver downfield penalty negated the play and the Zips were forced to punt. Kentucky took over at its own 22 with 11:24 to play in the third quarter.

Kentucky appeared to stretch the lead on its next possession when Leary hit Anthony Brown-Stephens for a long touchdown. But the play was called back due to a holding penalty. On the very next play, Leary was intercepted by Akron's Tyson Durant and the Zips took over at the UK 47.

Akron would drive into the UK red zone but on a third and four from the 19, Wallace came up with the sack, forcing Akron into a 36-yard Perez field goal, which was good, and the UK lead was trimmed to 14-3 with 3:27 left in the third period.

The play of the game came on the next UK drive. With Kentucky facing a third and 11, Leary was under pressure and looked like he would be sacked. But at the last minute, he got the ball to Davis, who scampered 58 yards down the left sideline for the touchdown. Raynor added the PAT and the Cats extended the lead to 21-3 with 1:38 to play in the third quarter. That would be the score at the end of the period.

After another Akron punt, Kentucky was able to extend the lead on its next possession. UK needed just three plays to cover 73 yards, the final 55 coming on a Davis touchdown run. Raynor added another PAT and the Cats led 28-3 with 13:47 to play.

Akron would drive into UK territory on its next drive but Perez would miss a 38-yard field goal and the score remained 28-3 with 10:31 to play.

Late in the fourth quarter, Kentucky added to its lead. Demie Sumo-Karngbaye rushed for 42 yards to get the Cats deep into Akron territory. Two plays later, Sumo-Karngbaye scored from six yards out for his first touchdown in a Kentucky uniform. Raynor added the extra point and the Cats led 35-3 with 3:04 remaining.

KENTUCKY 45, VANDERBILT 28

SEPT. 23, 2023 • NASHVILLE, TENN.
FIRSTBANK STADIUM (26,279)

Maxwell Hairston had a pair of interception returns for touchdowns as Kentucky topped Vanderbilt 45-28 at FirstBank Stadium in Nashville in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

Hairston had a 29-yard pick six in the first quarter, then did it again with a 54-yard interception return for a touchdown in the final stanza.

Kentucky (4-0, 1-0 SEC) got 78 yards rushing and a pair of touchdowns from Vanderbilt transfer Ray Davis. Quarterback Devin Leary connected on 15 of 29 through the air for 205 yards and a touchdown, with two interceptions.

Barion Brown caught four passes for 105 yards to lead the Cats in receiving.

Octavian Oxendine led Kentucky with six tackles and Andru Phillips had five for Kentucky.

Vanderbilt (2-3, 0-1) got the opening possession and, after making one first down, the UK defense forced the Commodores to punt.

Kentucky took over on its own 17 yard line and the Cats quickly moved into Vandy territory, aided by a targeting penalty on the 'Dores. Leary connected with both Dane Key and Brown for first downs before JuTahn McClain took a handoff up the middle and scampered 36 yards for the Kentucky touchdown. Alex Raynor added the PAT and the Cats grabbed a 7-0 lead with 9:51 left in the first quarter.

On Vanderbilt's next drive, the 'Dores were facing a second and 20 when quarterback AJ Swann was under pressure from Trevin Wallace and JJ Weaver. Swann tried to hit receiver London Humphreys but UK's Hairston stepped in front and intercepted the pass, then returned it 29 yards for the touchdown. Raynor made the point after and Kentucky led 14-0 with 8:14 still to play in the first.

The Kentucky defense forced a three and out on the next Vanderbilt drive and the 'Dores were forced to punt again. The Cats took over at their own 30 with 6:32 to play in the quarter. On the second play of the drive, Leary tried to connect with Brown on a deep ball but Vandy's John Howse intercepted it and the Commodores took over at their own seven.

Again, Kentucky's defense forced a three and out and a punt. Kentucky took over at its own 31 with 4:00 left in the first period.

On UK's ensuing drive, Leary connected with Brown for 56 yards to get the Cats to the Vandy two yard line. Two plays later, it was Davis with the touchdown rush, expanding the Kentucky lead. Raynor made another extra point and UK led 21-0 with 1:56 left in the first quarter. That would be the score at the end of the quarter.

Early in the second quarter, Vanderbilt was forced to punt again and the Cats took over at their own 11 with 14:45 left in the half. The Cats went three and out and UK punted for the first time in the game. Vandy took over at its own 32 with 12:32 left in the half.

The 'Dores again went three and out and were forced to punt it away. UK took over at its own 16 with 11:18 to play in the half.

Kentucky would put together a long drive with the ensuing possession. The Cats used 13 plays to cover 74 yards, taking 6:25 off the clock. The drive would end with a 27-yard Raynor field goal, increasing the UK lead to 24-0 with 4:53 to play in the half.

Vanderbilt would have its best drive of the first half on the next possession. The 'Dores would get to the UK 23 yard line before the drive stalled. Jacob Borcila would convert a 41-yard field goal to cut the UK lead to 24-3 with 2:51 left in the half.

Kentucky punted on its next possession and Vandy got the ball back at its own 43 yard line with 1:58 left in the half. The 'Dores appeared to score on a touchdown pass but the play was called back due to a holding penalty. However, Vanderbilt would continue to drive and, with 20 seconds left in the half, Sedrick Alexander scored from seven yards out for the first Vandy touchdown of the game. Borcila added the PAT and the UK lead was cut to 24-10. That would be the halftime score.

In the third quarter, the teams exchanged punts on their first possessions. On Kentucky's second possession of the half, Leary was hit and intercepted by Vandy's Jeffrey Ugochukwu and the 'Dores took over at the UK 16. But the Kentucky defense stood tall and forced Vandy into a 32-yard Borcila field goal, which was good, and the UK lead was 24-13 with 11:25 left in the third quarter.

Kentucky went three and out on its next possession and was forced to punt. Vandy took over in good field position at its own 48 with 9:49 left in the third quarter.

On Vandy's next possession, Swann was intercepted by UK linebacker D'Eryk Jackson, who lateraled the ball to defense back Andru Phillips, who took it back to the Vandy 21 yard line. A penalty moved the ball to the VU 12, where the Cats started their drive. Four plays later, Davis scored on a one-yard rush, his second touchdown of the day, extending the UK lead. Raynor added the extra point and Kentucky grabbed a 31-13 advantage with 6:44 still left in the third.

Vandy got a pair of first downs on its next drive before being forced to punt. Kentucky took over at its own 12 yard line with 2:15 left in the third. Kentucky would lead 31-13 through three quarters.

Early in the fourth quarter, Kentucky was deep in its own territory before Davis broke off a 38-yard run to get UK near midfield. Later in the drive, the Cats got on the board again when Leary connected with Key on a fade pattern in the left corner of the end zone for a 22-yard touchdown. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky led 38-13 with 10:35 left in the game.

Vanderbilt would respond with a scoring drive of its own. The Commodores covered 66 yards in just seven plays, ending with a two-yard touchdown run by Patrick Smith. The 'Dores went for two, and Swann hit Quincy Skinner to convert, making it 38-21 Kentucky with 8:00 to play.

On its next drive, Kentucky quickly got into Vandy territory when Leary connected with Brown on a 37-yard completion. But the drive stalled and UK punted it away with 5:09 to play.

Vanderbilt was moving the ball on its next possession before Hairston did it again. He intercepted Swann at the UK 46 and took it back 54 yards for his second pick six of the game. Raynor added the PAT and UK led 45-21 with 4:15 to play.

Vandy added a late touchdown to provide the final margin.

KENTUCKY 33, #22/23 FLORIDA 14

SEPT. 30, 2023 • LEXINGTON, KY.
KROGER FIELD (61,699)

Ray Davis rushed for a career-high 280 yards as Kentucky rolled past No. 22/23 Florida 33-14 at Kroger Field.

Davis carried the ball 26 times for 280 yards and three rushing touchdowns. His rushing total was the third highest in UK history, just 19 yards short of Moe Williams' record, set in 1995. Davis also caught a pass for a touchdown. His four touchdowns tied the most in Kentucky school history.

Kentucky (5-0, 2-0 Southeastern Conference) had 329 yards rushing in the game, compared to just 69 for the Gators.

Defending National Defensive Player of the Week Maxwell Hairston continued his big play, leading the Cats with 10 tackles. Alex Afari had nine.

Florida (3-2, 1-1) had the first possession of the game and the Gators went three and out, aided by a sack from UK's D'Eryk Jackson. Florida punted and Kentucky took over at its own 12 yard line.

Kentucky went immediately to the ground with Davis, who carried for 10, 19 and four yards on UK's first three plays from scrimmage. The Cats continued the drive and got inside the Florida 10 yard line before the drive stalled. Alex Raynor came on for a 24-yard field goal, which was good, and UK led 3-0 with 7:13 left in the first quarter. The scoring drive covered 81 yards in 12 plays and took 5:02 off the clock.

On Florida's next drive, the Gators faced a third and five when quarterback Graham Mertz was intercepted by UK's Trevin Wallace, who returned it to the Florida 15, setting up Kentucky in prime field position.

The Cats took advantage of the Florida miscue. Just two plays later, Leary connected with Davis, who made one move then scored on a nine-yard touchdown pass to extend the UK lead. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky led 10-0 with 5:37 to play in the first quarter.

Florida faced a third and six on its next drive when Mertz connected with Kahleil Jackson for 13 yards Florida's initial first down of the game. The Gators would cross midfield but were eventually forced to punt and UK took over at its own 10 yard line with 57 seconds left in the first.

Kentucky went three and out on the ensuing possession but Florida was flagged for a penalty on UK's punt attempt and the Cats kept possession. And on the very next play, Kentucky cashed in. Davis went up the middle, virtually untouched, and rambled 75 yards for his second touchdown of the game. The PAT was blocked by UK led 16-0 with 23 seconds left in the first.

Florida would be forced to punt again early in the second quarter and UK took over at its own 20 with 12:50 left in the half. The Cats went back to the ground and Davis gained 16 yards on the first play of the drive, then 33 on the following play.

The drive would continue, with Davis eclipsing the 200-yard rushing mark along the way. Davis would score on a three-yard rush to complete the possession, extending the UK lead in the process. Raynor's PAT was good and UK led 23-0 with 8:54 left in the half.

Florida would make one first down on its next drive but the Gators' progress would be stopped by penalties and the Gators were forced to punt. Kentucky took over at its own 20 with 5:01 left in the first half.

The Cats got one first down on their next drive before being forced to punt. Florida took over at its own 25 with 2:49 to play in the half.

The Gators had their best drive of the half with the ensuing possession. Florida would get inside the UK five and the Gators got on the board when Mertz connected with tight end Hayden Hansen for a four-yard touchdown. Trey Smack added the point after and Florida cut the UK lead to 23-7 with 34 seconds left in the half. That would be the halftime score.

Kentucky got the first possession of the second half and the Cats went back to Davis, who ripped off a 31-yard run to get UK deep into Florida territory. After a pass interference penalty got the Cats to the Florida two yard line, Davis scored on a two-yard rush. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky led 30-7 with 10:54 left in the third quarter.

Florida took the next possession into UK territory. And, on a fourth and three from the UK 43, Mertz somehow got the ball to Trevor Etienne who took it 10 yards for a first down. On the next play, Mertz connected with Ricky Pearsall for a 33-yard touchdown. Smack added the PAT and the UK lead was cut to 30-14 with 7:17 left in the third quarter.

Kentucky would get one first down on its next drive before being forced to punt. Florida took over at its own 20 with 4:49 left in the third quarter.

The Gators were forced to punt again on the ensuing possession and the Cats took over at their own 25 with 2:41 left in the third quarter. But the Cats went three and out and punted the ball back to Florida, who took over at their own 13 yard line with 1:10 left in the third. The quarter would end with Kentucky leading 30-14.

As the fourth quarter began, Florida drove near midfield. On fourth and four from their own 43, Mertz hit Arlis Boardingham but Afari brought him down short of the line to make and UK took over at the Florida 47 with 11:24 to play.

The Cats went to the ground with Davis again. Rushes of five, nine, two and one got the Cats to the 30 yard line. But the drive stalled and Raynor came on for a 50-yard field goal attempt, which was good, giving UK a 33-14 lead with 7:44 remaining.

Florida took the ensuing possession into UK territory before the Cats got a stop on fourth down to get the ball back with 4:03 to play.

The Cats went back to the ground on the next drive and would eventually get deep into Florida territory. The Cats would run out the clock before scoring.

#1/1 GEORGIA 51, KENTUCKY 13

OCT. 7, 2023 • ATHENS, GA.
SANFORD STADIUM (92,746)

Devin Leary passed for two touchdowns but No. 20 Kentucky lost at top-ranked Georgia 51-13 in Sanford Stadium.

Leary went 10 of 26 through the air for 128 yards and the pair of touchdowns. Ray Davis rushed 15 times for 59 yards and caught two passes for 36 yards and a touchdown in the game.

Kentucky (5-1, 2-1 Southeastern Conference) got 11 tackles from linebacker D'Eryk Jackson and eight tackles and an interception from Maxwell Hairston.

Georgia (6-0, 3-0) had the first possession of the game and the Bulldogs wasted little time getting on the board. Georgia went 75 yards in seven plays, ending with a 40-yard touchdown pass from Carson Beck to Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint. Peyton Woodring added the PAT and Georgia grabbed a 7-0 lead with 11:26 to play in the first quarter.

Kentucky got a pair of first downs on its first drive and got into Georgia territory before being forced to punt. Georgia took over at its own 18 with 8:06 left in the first. The Bulldogs again marched down the field and Beck connected with Rara Thomas for a 15-yard touchdown, extending the UGA lead. Woodring added the PAT and Georgia led 14-0 with 4:25 left in the first.

The Cats were able to quickly get into Georgia territory on the ensuing possession. Leary connected with Dane Key on a 36-yard completion to cross midfield but a pair of penalties stalled the drive and UK punted it away again. The Bulldogs took over at their own five with 2:01 left in the first. Georgia would lead 14-0 through 15 minutes of play.

Early in the second quarter, the Cats appeared to have Georgia stopped but a personal foul penalty kept the Bulldogs' drive alive. UGA proceeded to drive 95 yards in 13 plays, ending with a Beck to Oscar Delp touchdown pass. Woodring made the PAT and Georgia led 21-0 with 11:03 left in the first half.

Kentucky again moved the ball on its next drive. Leary connected with Davis, then with Key to get the Cats to midfield. UK would face a fourth and three when Leary hit Tayvion Robinson for a first down. Leary then connected with Josh Kattus to get the Cats to the UGA 14. Davis would rush for 10 yards to get to the Georgia four. On the next play, Leary hit Kattus again for a four-yard touchdown. Alex Raynor added the extra point and the Georgia lead was cut to 21-7 with 6:44 left in the half.

Georgia would respond with another scoring drive. This one ended with a Woodring field goal, stretching the lead to 24-7 with 5:15 remaining in the half. The Bulldogs would add another touchdown and a field goal late in the half and would lead 34-7 at the break.

Kentucky got the first possession of the second half but the Cats went three and out. However, on Georgia's next drive, Maxwell Hairston intercepted Beck and returned it to the Georgia 28. Two plays later, Leary connected with Davis for a 26-yard touchdown pass. The Cats went for two, and it failed and Georgia led 34-13. With the touchdown, Davis became the first Kentucky player to ever score a touchdown in each of UK's first six games in a season.

Georgia would add a field goal, then a touchdown and would lead 44-13 after three quarters. The Bulldogs added a score in the fourth quarter to provide the final margin of victory.

#RV/25 MISSOURI 38, #24/23 KENTUCKY 21

OCT. 14, 2023 • LEXINGTON, KY.
KROGER FIELD (61,654)

Ray Davis rushed for 128 yards and caught a touchdown pass but No. 24/23 Kentucky lost to Missouri 38-21 at Kroger Field.

Kentucky (5-2, 2-2 Southeastern Conference) got two touchdown passes from quarterback Devin Leary.

Daveren Rayner, playing in place of the injured Trevin Wallace, led Kentucky with 10 tackles, while D'Eryk Jackson added nine.

Missouri (6-1, 3-1) got the first possession of the game and the UK defense allowed just one yard in the process of forcing a three and out. Missouri punted and Kentucky took over at its own 35 yard line.

Kentucky went immediately to the ground game to move the ball. UK's first five plays were rushes, which got the Cats into the Missouri red zone. The Cats appeared to score on a Leary rush but the play was called back due to a holding penalty. Then, on third and five from the seven, Leary hit Davis for a touchdown. Alex Raynor added the point after and Kentucky led 7-0 with 8:32 to play in the first quarter.

Missouri made a first down on its next drive but the Tigers were stopped when Maxwell Hairston intercepted MU quarterback Brady Cook at the UK 37 yard line.

The Cats would again roll with the hot hand, Davis, to get into Missouri territory. Kentucky would get into the red zone and then Leary would run up the middle for a 13-yard touchdown, his first rushing score of the season, to extend the UK lead. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 2:09 left in the first quarter.

The Tigers would again go three and out on their next possession, punting it back to the Cats with 58 seconds left in the first quarter. Kentucky would run three plays to end the quarter, which saw the Cats leading 14-0 after one period.

As the second quarter began, Kentucky punted the ball to Missouri, which took over at its own 36 yard line. The Tigers would get a 25-yard scramble from Cook to get to the UK 39 yard line. The drive would stall and Missouri lined up in punt formation. But punter Luke Bauer took the snap and threw the ball to Marquis Johnson down the left side for a 39-yard fake punt touchdown. Harrison Mevis added the extra point and Missouri cut the UK lead to 14-7 with 11:38 left in the half.

Kentucky went three and out on its next possession and the Cats were forced to punt it back to the Tigers. Missouri would take over at its own 36 yard line with 9:39 to play in the half.

Missouri would put together another solid drive and would get into the red zone due to a UK penalty. The Tigers would get to the UK six but the Cats would hold and Mevis would convert a 25-yard field goal to cut the UK lead to 14-10 with 4:44 left in the half.

Kentucky would make one first down on the ensuing drive before Leary was sacked and the Cats were forced to punt. Missouri would get the ball back at its own 39 with 1:40 remaining in the half.

Missouri would take advantage of the extra possession, driving 61 yards in eight plays, culminating with an 18-yard touchdown pass from Cook to Theo Wease. Mevis added the PAT and Missouri led 17-14 with 15 seconds left in the half. That would be the halftime score.

Kentucky got the first possession of the second half but on the initial play from scrimmage, Leary connected with Barion Brown, who fumbled and Missouri recovered. The Tigers could not take full advantage of the field position. However, Missouri did get a 31-yard field goal from Mevis to extend the lead to 20-14 with 11:54 left in the third quarter.

After a Kentucky punt, Missouri started on its own 45 and the Tigers drove into Kentucky territory. But the drive stalled and Mevis attempted a 46-yard field goal, which was blocked by Tre'vonn Rybka and UK took possession.

On the ensuing drive, Kentucky faced a third and 15 when Leary scrambled for 19 yards, and a 10-yard penalty against Missouri took the ball across midfield. After a 13-yard rush by Davis, Leary hit Jordan Dingle for 31 yards, getting the Cats to the Missouri two yard line. Two plays later, Leary hit Anthony Brown-Stephens with a four-yard scoring pass. Raynor added the extra point and Kentucky re-took the lead, 21-20, with 3:39 left in the third period. That would be the score after three quarters.

On the second play of the fourth quarter, Cook went around right end for a two-yard touchdown to give Missouri the lead 26-21. The Tigers went for two, but the pass failed. However, Kentucky was penalized on the play and Missouri got a second chance and Cody Schrader took it up the middle for the conversion, giving the Tigers a 28-21 lead with 14:14 to play.

Kentucky went three and out with its next possession, then a short punt and a penalty gave Missouri the ball at the UK 34 with 12:04 to play. The Tigers would take advantage of the short field, with Schrader rushing for a 19-yard touchdown. Mevis added the point after and the Tigers led 35-21 with 11:07 to play.

The Cats quickly struck back. Leary connected with Dane Key for 21 yards, then the Tigers were called for pass interference, getting the Cats to the Missouri 20. But later in the drive, Leary was picked off by Missouri's Marcus Clarke and Missouri took over at their own 14 with 9:28 to play.

Missouri would add a late field goal to provide the final margin of victory.

#21/20 TENNESSEE 33, KENTUCKY 27

OCT. 28, 2023 • LEXINGTON, KY.
KROGER FIELD (61,665)

Quarterback Devin Leary passed for a season high 372 yards and a pair of touchdowns, but Kentucky lost to No. 21 Tennessee 33-27 at Kroger Field.

Leary had his best game as a Wildcat, connecting on 28 of 39 through the air with no interceptions. Sophomore Dane Key was on the receiving end of seven of those passes, covering a career best 113 yards and a touchdown.

Kentucky (5-3, 2-3 Southeastern Conference) was not as effective in the run game as it had been in recent weeks. Ray Davis rushed 16 times for 42 yards and a touchdown but Kentucky had just 72 yards rushing as a team.

Freshman Ty Bryant led the Cats with a career high 12 tackles, while linebackers D'Eryk Jackson and Trevin Wallace each had 11.

The Cats got the ball first but went three and out and was forced to punt. Tennessee took over at its own 30 with 12:35 to play in the first quarter.

Tennessee (6-2, 3-2) wasted little time in getting on the board. Tennessee needed five plays to cover 70 yards, ending with a 52-yard touchdown run by Jaylen Wright. Charles Campbell added the point after and UT led 7-0 with 10:47 still to play in the first period.

The Cats went for a fourth and one on the ensuing drive and did not make it, giving the Vols the ball at the UK 35 yard line. But Tennessee was not able to do much with the possession and was forced into a 44-yard Campbell field goal, which was good, and the Vols led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the first.

Kentucky had its best drive of the first quarter on the next possession. On two occasions, Leary was able to find tight end Jordan Dingle, once for 22 yards and later for 16, to get the Cats into UT territory. Leary would connect with Tayvion Robinson to get the Cats to the UT 11 yard line. The quarter would end with UK threatening but with UT holding a 10-0 lead.

In the second quarter, the Cats got on the board when Alex Raynor made a 28-yard field goal, cutting the UT lead to 10-3 with 14:51 left in the half.

Tennessee would answer on its next drive. The Vols would use 10 plays to get into UK territory but the UK defense would hold and Tennessee would settle for a 49-yard Campbell field goal, extending the lead to 13-3 with 11:13 to play in the half.

Kentucky would respond on its next drive, when Leary connected with multiple receivers to get the Cats into the red zone. Leary hit Barion Brown for a 32-yard pickup and later connected with both Robinson and Dane Key, setting the Cats up in prime scoring position. Kentucky scored its first touchdown of the game when Leary found Brown again, this time for an 11-yard touchdown. Raynor added the PAT and the Cats cut the UT lead to 13-10 with 7:38 left in the half.

Tennessee responded very quickly. The Vols needed just five plays and 1:22 to cover 75 yards. The final play was a 39-yard touchdown pass from Joe Milton to Chas Nimrod. Campbell added the point after and UT extended the lead to 20-10 with 6:16 to play in the half.

The Cats answered with a methodical, 10-play drive that mixed both the run and pass. Davis got involved early and late on the drive. In fact, Davis would rush eight yards to get the Cats to the UT seven, then would score on a seven-yard rush. Raynor added the extra point and UK cut the Tennessee lead to 20-17 with 1:46 left in the half.

Tennessee would get one more opportunity to score at the end of the half. The Vols would get a 34-yard field goal from Campbell with five seconds left in the half, giving UT a 23-17 lead. That would be the halftime score.

The Vols got the first possession of the second half and UK was able to force its first three and out of the game. UT punted and the Cats took over at their own 30 with 13:55 still remaining in the third quarter.

Kentucky would take the next possession into Tennessee territory before a sack of Leary put the Cats behind the chains. UK would eventually go for it on fourth down from the UT 34 but Leary's pass for Demie Sumo-Karngbaye would fall incomplete and Tennessee took over with 10:29 left in the third.

Tennessee would cash in on the ensuing possession. The Vols drove into UK territory but the Kentucky defense held, forcing a 35-yard field goal attempt from Campbell. The ball hit the right upright and bounced through, giving UT a 26-17 lead with 6:49 left in the third period.

Again, Kentucky responded with a big drive. Leary connected with Brown for 12 yards and, later in the drive, with Key for 34 yards, getting the Cats to the UT 14. Leary would then scramble for eight yards. Two plays later, Leary hit Dane Key with a seven-yard touchdown pass. Raynor added the PAT at UK cut the UT lead to 26-24 with 2:39 left in the third.

Tennessee got one first down on their next possession but on the final play of the third quarter, Milton was sacked by UK's Josaih Hayes and Octavious Oxendine, leaving the Vols facing a fourth down as the third period ended with UT leading 26-24.

The first play of the fourth period was a punt that Robinson took on a fair catch at the UK 20. The Cats took over there.

UK was able to move the ball on the arm of Leary. He hit Davis for 10 yards, Key for 21 yards and Sumo-Karngbaye for 15 to get UK into striking distance. But the drive stalled and UK was forced to try a 53-yard field goal that Raynor pulled left. UT took over, after a penalty, at their own 20 with 10:57 to play.

Tennessee would extend its lead on the following drive. The Vols marched 80 yards in 12 plays, ending with a Dylan Sampson touchdown run. Campbell added the PAT and the Vols led 33-24 with 7:30 remaining.

Kentucky would get closer on its next drive, which ended with a Raynor field goal from 28 yards out, cutting the Vols' advantage to 33-27 with 4:24 to play. That would be the final score.

KENTUCKY 24, MISSISSIPPI STATE 3

NOV. 4, 2023 • STARKVILLE, MISS.
DAVIS WADE STADIUM (52,329)

Devin Leary passed for 156 yards and two touchdowns and the Kentucky defense had a huge game as the Cats beat Mississippi State 24-3 at Davis Wade Stadium in Starkville, Mississippi.

D'Eryk Jackson had a 28-yard interception return for a touchdown and the UK defense had five sacks and eight tackles for loss in the game. UK held MSU to just 218 yards of total offense.

Kentucky (6-3, 3-3 Southeastern Conference) got 80 yards on the ground from Ray Davis. Both Dane Key and Demie Sumo-Karngbaye had touchdown receptions for UK.

Mississippi State (4-5, 1-5) had the game's opening possession and the UK defense immediately forced a three and out. MSU would punt and the Cats would take over at their own 38 yard line.

Kentucky was able to get a first down on a Tayvion Robinson reception from Leary. Then on the following play, those two connected again, this time for 37 yards, getting the Cats to the MSU 14. UK would get another first down on an eight-yard reception by Key, getting the Cats to the MSU four yard line. On first and goal from the four, Leary hit Sumo-Karngbaye for a touchdown. Alex Raynor added the point after and Kentucky led 7-0 with 10:11 left in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs went three and out again on their next possession and MSU would punt it to the Cats, who took over at their own 32 with 8:42 still to play in the first period.

On the first play of the ensuing possession, Leary hit Barion Brown for 16 yards. But the Cats would not cross midfield and would be forced to punt. MSU took over at their own five yard line with 6:20 to play in the first.

The Bulldogs got first downs on the first two plays of the ensuing drive. MSU would keep the ball on the ground to get into UK territory as the first quarter ended with UK holding a 7-0 lead.

The Mississippi State drive would continue with the Bulldogs going to the air to get inside the red zone. But the UK defense held and forced the Bulldogs into a 25-yard field goal by Kyle Ferrie, which was good, cutting the Kentucky lead to 7-3 with 8:51 left in the half. The MSU drive was 20 plays long and took 12:29 off the clock.

Kentucky would get a first down on its next drive on a completion from Leary to Key. But as the Cats got near midfield, the drive stalled and UK punted it away. MSU took over at its own 23 with 6:43 left in the half.

But on the first play of the ensuing drive, Jackson intercepted a Mike Wright pass and took it 28 yards untouched into the end zone for a touchdown. Raynor added the PAT and the Cats led 14-3 with 6:35 left in the first half.

The Kentucky defense forced another three and out on its next drive and MSU was forced to punt. The Cats took over at their own 37 yard line with 4:46 left in the half.

Kentucky went to the ground with Davis on the next drive. The senior carried the ball on five consecutive plays to get the Cats into MSU territory. Then a reverse to Brown picked up 22 yards to get the Cats to the MSU eight yard line. Two plays later, Leary connected with Key on a four-yard touchdown pass. Raynor added another point after and the Cats led 21-3 with 52 seconds left in the half. That would be the halftime score.

The teams would exchange punts to start the second half before Kentucky got the offense moving on its second drive of the third quarter. The Cats got a 14-yard run from Davis, then a long completion to Robinson on a scramble for 28 yards. Another Leary to Robinson connection, this one for 19 yards, got the Cats into the red zone. But the drive stalled and UK settled for a 32-yard field goal from Raynor to take a 24-3 lead with 5:51 to play in the third.

The UK defense forced another three and out on the next possession and the Cats got the ball on the Mississippi State 44 yard line after an MSU punt.

Kentucky was not able to take advantage of the good field position and was forced to punt near the end of the third quarter. Kentucky would close the period with a 24-3 lead.

As the fourth quarter began, the Kentucky defense forced yet another three and out. The MSU punt gave Kentucky the ball at their own 49 with 14:47 left in the game.

After Kentucky failed on a fourth down conversion, MSU got the ball back and got into UK territory on a 34-yard completion from Chris Parson to Lideatrick Griffin. Later in the drive, Parson scrambled for a first down, getting the Bulldogs into the red zone. MSU would get to the UK five before a penalty set them back 15 yards. MSU would get back inside the UK five but the Cats would hold and would take over after a failed fourth down attempt.

#8/8 ALABAMA 49, KENTUCKY 21

NOV. 11, 2023 • LEXINGTON, KY.
KROGER FIELD (61,936)

Ray Davis rushed for a pair of touchdowns but Kentucky lost its 2023 home finale, falling to No. 8 Alabama 49-21 at Kroger Field.

Quarterback Devin Leary completed 17 of 31 through the air for 158 yards and a touchdown for the Cats.

Kentucky (6-4, 3-4 Southeastern Conference) got a game-high eight tackles from freshman Ty Bryant.

Alabama (9-1, 7-0) had the game's first possession, and the Tide wasted no time getting on the board. Alabama covered 80 yards in 10 plays, ending with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jalen Milroe to Amari Niblack. Will Reichard added the point after and Alabama led 7-0 with 9:38 to play in the first quarter.

Kentucky went three and out on its first possession and the Cats punted the ball back to the Tide, who took over at their own 45 yard line with 7:23 left in the first. Alabama would score again, this time on a 40-yard pass from Milroe to Kobe Prentice. Reichard added the PAT and the Tide led 14-0 with 5:32 to play in the first quarter.

On Kentucky's first play from scrimmage on the next drive, Leary connected with Barion Brown, but the UK receiver fumbled and Alabama's Terrion Arnold recovered and took it to the one yard line. From there, Milroe scored on a one-yard touchdown run, Reichard added the PAT and the Tide led 21-0 with 5:12 left in the first quarter.

Kentucky punted again on its next possession but All-American return man Kool-Aid McKinstry muffed the kick and UK's Nasir Addison recovered at the Alabama 32, giving UK its best field position of the quarter. UK would take advantage of the good field position, scoring its first touchdown of the day on a six-yard pass from Leary to Tavynon Robinson. Alex Raynor added the point after and the Alabama lead was cut to 21-7 with 1:30 left in the first.

Early in the second quarter, Alabama added to its lead when Milroe hit Roydell Williams with a 26-yard touchdown pass. Reichard added the PAT and the Tide led 28-7 with 10:14 left in the half.

From there, neither team scored for the remainder of the half and the Tide took a 28-7 lead into the break.

Kentucky started the second half in fine fashion. The Cats got the first possession of the third quarter and promptly marched 75 yards in 10 plays, concluding with a two-yard touchdown run by Ray Davis. Raynor added the PAT and the Alabama lead was trimmed to 28-14 with 10:53 still to play in the third quarter.

Alabama responded with a touchdown drive of its own. This time, a three-yard touchdown run by Milroe added to the Alabama lead. Reichard added the point after and the Tide led 35-14 with 6:29 left in the third. The Tide would be knocking on the door as the third quarter ended with Alabama leading 35-14.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Milroe scored on a one-yard rush, adding to the Alabama lead. Reichard added the PAT and the Tide led 42-14 with 14:48 remaining. The Tide would score again to make it 49-14 before Kentucky responded with Ramon Jefferson scampering 74 yards to the Alabama one yard line. Three plays later, Davis scored his second touchdown of the day. Raynor added the point after, cutting the Alabama lead to 49-21 with 7:46 to play.

SOUTH CAROLINA 17, KENTUCKY 14

NOV. 18, 2023 • COLUMBIA, S.C. WILLIAMS-BRICE STADIUM (77,788)

Ray Davis rushed for 61 yards and a touchdown and the Kentucky defense had a big effort but the Cats lost to South Carolina 17-14 at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia.

Devin Leary was 17 of 34 through the air for 171 yards and a touchdown and an interception. Dane Key caught four passes for 51 yards and Barion Brown caught four for 30 yards and a touchdown.

Sophomore Deone Walker led the UK defensive effort with nine tackles, two tackles for loss, a sack and a quarterback hurry. Linebacker D'Eryk Jackson also had nine tackles for UK.

Kentucky (6-5, 3-5 Southeastern Conference) got the ball first and the Cats appeared to have a first down but a penalty negated the play. The Cats were forced to punt and South Carolina took over on its own 31.

The Gamecocks would turn their possession into points. South Carolina covered 69 yards in 11 plays, ending with a 13-yard touchdown pass from Spencer Rattler to Xavier Leggette. Mitch Jeter converted the extra point and the Gamecocks led 7-0 with 7:27 left in the first quarter.

Kentucky went three and out on its next possession and South Carolina took over at its own 44. The Gamecocks put together another long drive, 12 plays worth, but the Cats' defense held and forced South Carolina into a 23-yard field goal from Jeter, which was good, giving South Carolina a 10-0 lead with 13 seconds left in the first period.

The Cats would get things going on the next drive. Leary connected with Tayvion Robinson for 18 yards to get UK into South Carolina territory. On a third and eight, Leary hit Izayah Cummings for 12 yards to get Kentucky to the Carolina 12. After Davis rushed for five yards, Leary hit Brown in the back of the end zone for a seven-yard touchdown. Alex Raynor added the PAT and the Cats cut the deficit to 10-7 with 10:52 left in the half.

Kentucky's defense forced a three and out on the next South Carolina drive and the Gamecocks punted for the first time in the game. The Cats took over at their own 30 with 9:26 left in the half.

Ramon Jefferson ripped off a 21-yard run on the first play of the ensuing drive to get the Cats across midfield. Leary would scramble for eight yards and South Carolina was penalized on the play to move the ball to the South Carolina 27. But Leary would be forced out of the game and Kaiya Sheron came on at quarterback.

Three plays later, Leary came back into the game, facing third and nine, and connected with Brown for a 14-yard completion. But two plays later, Leary's pass to the end zone was intercepted by South Carolina's Nick Emmanwori, thwarting the drive and giving the Gamecocks the ball with 5:35 to play in the first half.

South Carolina's drive went nowhere, thanks to a 17-yard loss by Leggette, who was stopped for the big loss by UK linebacker Trevin Wallace. The Gamecocks punted and the Cats took over at their own 42 with 3:31 to play in the half.

On Kentucky's next drive, Leary hit Key on third and two for an apparent first down but Key fumbled and South Carolina recovered at their own 34 yard line. The Gamecocks would do nothing with the drive and punted it away. The Cats took a knee and went to the half trailing 10-7.

South Carolina took the ball to start the third quarter and the Gamecocks got one first down before being forced to punt. The Cats were forced to start from their own eight yard line.

The Cats benefited from a penalty on South Carolina to get a little breathing room. The Cats would get into South Carolina territory on receptions by Cummings and Key before Davis took a handoff up the middle and took it to the house for a 31-yard touchdown, giving UK its first lead of the game. Raynor added the PAT and Kentucky grabbed a 14-10 lead with 8:42 left in the third quarter. The 92-yard drive was Kentucky's longest of the season.

The teams would exchange three and outs but South Carolina gained some field position, starting its third drive of the second half at their own 46 with 4:08 left in the third quarter. The Gamecocks would get into UK territory but a sack by Octavious Oxendine foiled the drive and forced another South Carolina punt.

Kentucky took over at its own seven near the end of the third quarter, a stanza that ended with Kentucky ahead 14-10.

As the fourth quarter began, Kentucky was forced to punt and South Carolina took over at its own 26 with 13:16 to play. The Gamecocks were able to move the ball into UK territory and would find the end zone on a 17-yard touchdown pass from Rattler to Legette. Jeter added the point after and South Carolina led 17-14 with 7:44 remaining.

Kentucky was able to get the ball to midfield on its next drive but would eventually punt and South Carolina took over at its own one yard line after a 53-yard punt by Wilson Berry. Kentucky would force another three and out and would get the ball back on the South Carolina 49 with 2:10 remaining.

However, on the first play of the ensuing drive, Leary was intercepted by South Carolina's Tonka Hemingway. The UK defense forced another three and out and South Carolina punted it back to the Cats. UK took over at its own 20 with 57 seconds left and no time outs remaining. UK was able to get the ball near midfield but could get no further.

KENTUCKY 39, #9/9 LOUISVILLE

NOV. 25, 2023 • LOUISVILLE, KY.

L&N FEDERAL CREDIT UNION STADIUM (59,225)

Devin Leary passed for three touchdowns and Ray Davis scored three touchdowns, including the game winner, as Kentucky upset No. 9 Louisville 38-31 at L&N Stadium in Louisville.

Leary was 12 of 22 through the air for 206 yards and three scores, with one interception. Davis carried the ball 14 times for 76 yards and a touchdown but also caught four passes for 51 yards and two scores.

UK also got a 100-yard kickoff return from Barion Brown in the victory, Kentucky's fifth straight in the Governor's Cup rivalry.

Defensively, Kentucky got 11 tackles from linebackers D'Eryk Jackson and Trevin Wallace, as well as eight tackles, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries from J.J. Weaver.

Kentucky (7-5) got the ball first and the Cats were able to get one first down, getting the ball near midfield, before punting. Louisville took over at its own 30 yard line.

The Cards would go on a 14-play, 70-yard drive, ending with a Jawhar Jordan touchdown rush from one yard out. Nick Lopez added the point after and Louisville led 7-0 with 3:40 left in the first quarter.

Kentucky's next possession would see the Cats crossing midfield for the first time. Leary connected with Brown on a 25-yard completion to get UK to the Louisville 46. On the next play, Brown rushed around left end for 11 yards and another first down. But on a third and nine, Leary was sacked and the drive ended, as did the first quarter.

As the second quarter began, the Cards went three and out and were forced to punt. Kentucky took over in excellent field position, at its own 47 yard line.

Kentucky would take advantage of the field position. Leary connected with Khamari Anderson for 11 yards and with Dane Key for 16. Then, on third and nine from the Louisville nine, Leary and Key hooked up again, this time for a touchdown. Alex Raynor added the point after and the game was tied 7-7 with 8:07 left in the first half.

Louisville (10-2) would re-take the lead on the next drive. The Cards, however, had to settle for a 46-yard field goal from Brock Travelstead. The kick gave the Cards a 10-7 lead with 4:25 remaining in the half.

Kentucky got one first down on its next drive before being forced to punt. Louisville got the ball back at its own 20 with 2:27 to play in the half. Louisville would get near midfield just before the half but the Cats' defense stood tall. U of L would lead 10-7 at the half.

On Louisville's first possession of the third quarter, the Cards went to the ground game. Louisville assembled a 15-play scoring drive and 14 of the plays were runs. Jordan scored his second touchdown of the game and Lopez made the point after, giving U of L a 17-7 lead with 5:50 remaining in the third quarter.

Kentucky answered in a big way. Brown took the ensuing kickoff from about two yards deep in his own end zone and returned it 100 yards for the UK touchdown. Raynor added the PAT and quickly, it was 17-14 Louisville.

The Cards answered back with another scoring drive. Louisville covered 51 yards in five plays, with Jack Plummer hitting Joey Gatewood with an 11-yard touchdown pass. Lopez made the point after and U of L led 24-14 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

Kentucky quickly answered. UK needed just two plays, a 55-yard completion from Leary to Izayah Cummings and a 20-yard touchdown pass from Leary to Davis, to cut into the deficit. Raynor made another PAT and the Louisville lead was cut to 24-21 with 1:49 left in the third.

U of L appeared to be driving again on the ensuing possession. But at the end of a 17-yard run, Jordan was stripped by UK's Weaver, who also recovered the fumble, giving UK the ball at the Louisville 48 with six seconds left in the third quarter. U of L would lead 24-21 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kentucky faced a fourth and two on the next drive and Davis was hit in the backfield but got away and earned the first down, keeping the drive alive. The Cats would get deeper into Louisville territory before the drive stalled. Raynor would convert a 46-yard field goal to tie the game at 24-24 with 10:21 left.

On Louisville's next possession, Jackson forced a fumble from Plummer and Weaver recovered again, giving UK the ball on the Louisville 22. Two plays later, Leary connected with Davis for another 20-yard touchdown. Raynor's PAT was good and UK led 31-24 with 8:37 to play.

The UK defense stopped Louisville on the next drive and the Cards turned it over on downs. But on the ensuing UK possession, Leary was intercepted. Four plays later, on fourth and six, Plummer hit Ahmari Huggins-Bruce for a 21-yard touchdown. Lopez added the PAT and the game was tied 31-31 with 2:33 left.

Kentucky responded in a big way. Davis rushed for 15 yards on first down. Two plays later, Leary connected with Brown for 23 yards. Then, it was Davis taking the pitch left and scampering 37 yards for the touchdown. Raynor made another PAT and UK led 38-31 with 1:02 to play.

Louisville would manage to get into UK territory on the final drive of the game but a Jordan Lovett interception sealed the game for the Cats.
