Jorge Salcedo

Head Coach

15th Year

UCLA '02

Former UCLA All-American Jorge Salcedo is in his 15th season as head coach for the Bruins, making him the second-longest tenured men's soccer head coach in UCLA history. In 14 previous seasons, Salcedo has led the Bruins to an overall record of 172-80-42.

A product of UCLA's strong soccer tradition, Salcedo has maintained the Bruins' standard for success, winning six conference titles and guiding his team to NCAA Tournament appearances in 13 of the last 14 seasons. Salcedo has signed the No. 1 recruiting class in the nation seven times (2017, 2015, 2014, 2013, 2010, 2006 and 2004), and those players have produced results, advancing all the way to the NCAA Championship game in the 2006 and 2014 seasons, to the College Cup Semifinals in 2011 and to the quarterfinals in 2009 and 2010. Over the last 10 seasons, Salcedo's teams have earned four Pac-12 titles and lost just 23 conference games (63-23-14 record). Salcedo's teams have also lost only 21 games away from home in the last seven seasons, going 37-21-10 in their last 68 road or neutral site matches.

Since taking over the program in 2004, Salcedo has produced 38 Major League Soccer Draft Picks, including 19 first-round selections. Of those 19 first-round selections, 12 were taken within the top-10 picks, including Marvell Wynne (2006), Chance Myers (2008) and Abu Danladi (2017) who were each selected first overall. Overall, Salcedo has tutored 14 players who are currently playing in the professional ranks as of 2018.

The 2014 Bruins posted a 14-5-5 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Championship game for the ninth time in school history, eventually falling in penalty kicks to Virginia. Senior Leo Stolz led UCLA in 2014, racking up a team-high 24 points en route to earning the MAC Hermann Player of the Year Trophy and consensus first team All-America honors. Overall, nine Bruins earned All-Pac-12 honors, including three first team selections.

In 2013, the Bruins finished with an 12-3-5 record overall and was awarded the No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2003. For the third straight year, a member of the UCLA men's soccer team took home conference Player of the Year honors, as Leo Stolz was named the Pac-12 Player of the Year. The Bruins also had six all-conference selections in 2013. The 2012 squad secured UCLA's second consecutive Pac-12 title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the 30th consecutive year. The Bruins also landed a conference-best four players on the first-team All-Pac-12 squad while Salcedo took home his second straight Pac-12 Coach of the Year award. Under Salcedo's leadership, senior Ryan Hollingshead won the Pac-12 Player of the Year, marking the fourth player Salcedo has coached to Conference Player of the Year honors (Patrick Ianni, 2004; Michael Stephens, 2008; Kelyn Rowe, 2011).

The 2011 Bruins ran the table in conference play, going 10-0-0 and allowing just two goals. Salcedo, who earned his 100th career victory when UCLA clinched the conference title on Nov. 4, was named the Pac-12's Coach of the Year. The Bruins then capped off the 2011 season with a long run in the NCAA Tournament that culminated in the school's 13th berth in the NCAA College Cup. The 2010 Bruins won 16 games and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals for the second consecutive year.

In 2009, Salcedo's Bruins won their second-straight Pac-10 Championship, and placed two players on the All-America team. Additionally, a school record-tying five players were selected in the MLS SuperDraft at the conclusion of the season. In 2008, Salcedo guided UCLA to the Pac-10 Championship and was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the second time in his tenure.

The 2006 Bruins faced an uphill battle with injuries to several starters throughout the season, but they fought through the adversity and ended a successful post-season run in the title game with a final season record of 14-6-4. In 2005, Salcedo's Bruins recorded a 12-5-3 record and ranked amongst the best in the nation in team defense, allowing just 14 goals and posting a team goals against average of 0.67. The Bruins also captured the Pac-10 title for the fourth year in a row and earned a No. 5 seeding in the NCAA Tournament.

During his first season, Salcedo earned Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year honors after leading UCLA to its third-straight conference title. His Bruins ended the regular season ranked No. 3 by Soccer America and advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament, where they finished the year with a 14-4-2 record.

Salcedo was UCLA's assistant coach from 2001-03 and helped lead the Bruins to the 2002 NCAA Championship and to two Pac-10 team championships. In 2002, he served as acting head coach in a crucial road victory at Stanford in November that helped the Bruins capture their first-ever Pac-10 title. He also served as acting head coach in the spring of 2002 in the coaching transition between Todd Saldaña and Tom Fitzgerald and had served in a similar capacity after Fitzgerald announced his resignation.

Salcedo, who is a scout for the U.S. National Team, was the head coach of the 2002 U-16 SoCal ODP State team and was also the assistant coach of the U-17 team in 2001.

The Cerritos, Calif. native had an illustrious career at UCLA from 1990-93. Salcedo was a four-year starter, playing 74 games and tallying six goals and seven assists for 19 points. As a freshman, he scored the decisive penalty kick in the shootout during the 1990 NCAA Championship game to give UCLA its second national title. In 1993 as a senior, he earned NSCAA first-team All-America honors. He prepped at Cerritos HS, where he earned two Parade All-America honors. Salcedo played for five years in Major League Soccer (MLS). In his first season in the league, he was a starter for the Los Angeles Galaxy and helped take his team to the MLS Championship game. He also played for Chicago, where he served as team co-captain, Columbus and Tampa Bay before returning to the Galaxy in 1999. Prior to his MLS career, he played with the LA Salsa in the APSL and then for F.C. Morelia of the Mexican First Division. Salcedo was also a member of the U.S. National Team program, earning three caps with the full national team and captaining the U-17 team at the 1989 World Youth Championships and the U-20 team at the 1990 CONCACAF Tournament.

Salcedo has had extensive ties to the Bruin program for many years. He graduated from UCLA with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and was part of three of the Bruins' four NCAA Championship teams. He was a ball boy for UCLA during its first championship year in 1985, scored the game-winning penalty kick in the 1990 Championship game and was an assistant coach for the 2002 squad. In addition, his father Hugo was a UCLA assistant coach from 1978-79 and member of the 1972 U.S. Olympic team, and he also served as the FIFA Chairman of the 2014 World Cup. Jorge's brother Eddie was a UCLA letterwinner in 1995.

Salcedo and his wife Rebecca have been married for 14 years, and they have four children, Matteo (11), Malea (9), Marco (7) and Macsen (3).

Jose Lopez

Volunteer Assistant Coach
UCLA '73

UCLA Hall of Famer Jose Lopez returns to the men's soccer staff as a volunteer assistant coach for the 2018 season, having previously served in the same role from 1995-2007.

In 1993, Lopez became the first-ever soccer player to be inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame.

He was a four-year letterwinner from 1970-73 and two-time team captain who led his teams to NCAA Championship games in 1970, 1972, and 1973 and to the NCAA Quarterfinals in 1971. His 1970 and 1973 teams held undefeated regular season records, and his teams never lost a home game in his four years as a Bruin.

After earning two all-conference honors and being selected to play in the 1973 Senior Bowl, Lopez became the No. 1 draft pick in professional soccer by the Los Angeles Aztecs of the North American Soccer League in 1974. In his rookie season, he helped the Aztecs win the NASL title, and in his second year he was selected Aztecs' Midfielder of the Year. Lopez has played with and against soccer legends like Pele, Franz Beckenbauer, and George Best.

Lopez also played three years on the Bruin baseball team and was a placekicker on the 1969 freshman football team.

A 1973 graduate (B.A. in Spanish) of UCLA, Lopez previously served as a volunteer assistant for the Bruins from 1995-2007 and aided the program with video from 1987-1994. He taught AP Spanish Language and Literature at Santa Monica High School for many years after his playing days.

Bruins in the Conference

Men's soccer is in its 19th year as a Pac-12 (formerly Pac-10) Conference sanctioned sport. Six teams comprise the Pac-12 Men's Soccer Conference - UCLA, California, Oregon State, Stanford, Washington and 2005 addition San Diego State.

The Pac-12 branched out of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) after the 1999 season to form its own conference. Since 2000, the conference has had at least two teams advance to the NCAA Tournament in every season but one. In 2002, UCLA and Stanford faced each other in the Championship match, marking the first time two schools from the same conference have battled for the NCAA men's soccer title.

The Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions ®," claiming an incredible 185 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including a nation-leading 10 in 2015-16, an average of nearly 10 championships per academic year. . Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 29 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 53 of the last 58 years.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 488 NCAA Championships (295 men's, 164 women's, 29 combined).

In 1993, Jose Lopez became the first-ever soccer player inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame.

Lopez was a four-year letterman from 1970-73 and a two-year team captain who led his teams to the NCAA Championship games in 1970, 1972 and 1973 and to the NCAA Quarterfinals in 1971. His 1970 and 1973 teams held undefeated regular season records, and his teams never lost a home game in his four years as a Bruin.

After earning two all-conference honors and being selected to play in the 1973 Senior Bowl, Lopez became the No. 1 draft choice in professional soccer by the Los Angeles Aztecs of the North American Soccer League in 1974. In his rookie season, he helped the Aztecs win the NASL title, and in his second year he was selected the Aztecs' Midfielder of the Year. Lopez has played with and against soccer legends like Pele, Franz Beckenbauer and George Best.

Lopez also played three years on the Bruin baseball team and was a placekicker on the 1969 freshman football team.

The 1973 graduate (B.A. in Spanish) was a volunteer assistant coach for the Bruins from 1995-2007 and had previously aided the program with videotaping from 1987-1994. He taught AP Spanish Language and Literature at Santa Monica HS for many years and has returned as a volunteer assistant for the Bruins this season.

Paul Caligiuri
Hall of Fame
Class of

One of the all-time greats in UCLA and U.S. soccer history, Paul Caligiuri was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1997.

Caligiuri was a two-time NSCAA All-American (1985 and 1986) and the 1986 Soccer America Player of the Year. He led UCLA to the 1985 NCAA title, the program's first-ever in soccer.

Caligiuri followed his successful collegiate career with a legendary career as a member of the U.S. National Team. In the 1990 CONCACAF World Cup Qualifying Tournament, he scored the historic goal against Trinidad & Tobago that earned the U.S. a World Cup berth for the first time in 40 years, a goal that is known as "The Goal Heard Round The World". Caligiuri played in the 1990 and 1994 World Cups, as well as the 1988 Olympics, and logged 114 caps with the U.S. National Team.

A trailblazer for American soccer players, Caligiuri was the first U.S.-born player ever to play in the top-flight division in Germany, playing with SV Meppen and then St. Pauli in the German Bundesliga. He returned to the U.S. in 1996 and played six seasons with the Columbus Crew and Los Angeles Galaxy before retiring in 2001. In his last professional game, he and the Galaxy won the 2001 U.S. Open Cup title.

Caligiuri was the head men's soccer coach at Cal Poly Pomona from 2002-08. He was elected into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame in 2004 and the AYSO Hall of Fame in 2002.

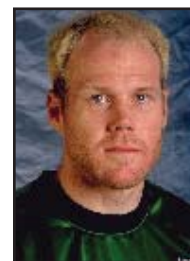

Cobi Jones
Hall of Fame

Perhaps the most recognizable figure in U.S. Soccer, Cobi Jones went from walk-on freshman in 1988 to UCLA Hall of Famer in 2002.

Jones eventually won a scholarship with his outstanding play and blossomed into one of UCLA's all-time greats. He was a catalyst to UCLA's 1990 NCAA Championship run and was selected by the NSCAA as a second-team All-American in 1991 after setting a UCLA record with 18 assists. The three-time All-Far West performer was twice named UCLA's Offensive MVP (1989, 1991) and finished his career with 23 goals and 37 assists. His 37 assists rank second on UCLA's career list.

Since leaving UCLA, Jones has enjoyed a successful professional and international soccer career. He became the youngest player to reach 100 caps for the U.S. National Team and was one of only two players to play in every game of the 1994 and 1998 World Cups for the United States. Jones, who has a team record 164 National Team caps, also played in the 2002 World Cup.

After playing professionally in England and Brazil, Jones returned to the U.S. to play for Major League Soccer in the league's inaugural season. After playing in the league with the Los Angeles Galaxy for 12 seasons, Jones retired in 2007 a nine-time MLS All-Star and 2002 and 2005 MLS Champion. He is now the associate director of soccer with the New York Cosmos.

Brad Friedel
Hall of Fame
Class of

Brad Friedel, who is recognized as one of the best goalkeepers in the world, entered the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2003. Friedel played keeper for three seasons (1990-91-92) on UCLA soccer squads that amassed a record of 50-8-7 during his tenure.

As a freshman, Friedel was named the Soccer America Freshman of the Year, first-team All-Far West and UCLA team MVP while leading the Bruins to the NCAA Championship. The following season, he was named All-Far West and All-American. In 1992, Friedel received a myriad of awards, including All-Far West and All-America honors, UCLA team MVP, ISAA Goalkeeper of the Year and the prestigious Hermann Trophy, given to the nation's top collegiate soccer player.

Friedel, who still holds UCLA's school record for career goals against average (0.60), recorded 82 international caps for the U.S. National team before retiring from international play in 2005 and has participated in two Olympiads (1992, 2000). In 2000, he started all six games to help lead the U.S. to a semifinal appearance, its highest ever finish at the Olympic Games. Friedel has also been a member of three U.S. World Cup teams (1994, 1998, 2002) and played a major role in leading the 2002 U.S. World Cup team into the quarterfinals, its best showing in 72 years. Friedel twice earned Man of the Match honors in the first round of play, including a 2-0 shutout of Mexico. Friedel's stellar play led to his selection as the 2002 Chevy Male Athlete of the Year for U.S. Soccer.

Professionally, Friedel has played with Columbus of the MLS and for Liverpool, Blackburn, Aston Villa and Tottenham Hotspur in the English Premier League. In 2002, he became the first American player picked for the English Premier League team of the year when he was voted the top goalkeeper by his peers. He was also selected the MLS Goalkeeper of the Year in 1997.

Friedel is the co-founder and director of Premier Soccer Academies, the first full-scholarship youth soccer academy in the United States.

UCLA Hall Of Fame Inductees

Sigi Schmid
Hall of Fame
Class of

The winningest coach in UCLA Soccer history, Sigi Schmid was elected into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2004. Schmid led UCLA to NCAA titles in 1985, 1990 and 1997 and was the national Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1997.

Schmid was a former four-year starter (1972-75) at midfielder for the Bruin soccer team and was selected All-Far West in 1975. He played in two NCAA title games and in the NCAA semifinals during his playing career.

After graduating in 1976 with a B.S. in Economics, Schmid became a UCLA assistant coach in 1977 and in 1979 before beginning a most successful 19-year career as head coach in 1980. Schmid coached the Bruins to a 322-63-33 record, 16 consecutive post-season appearances and three national titles.

He was also an assistant coach on the 1994 World Cup team and the head coach of the U-20 National Team at the 1998 World Youth Championships. Many of Schmid's former Bruins have gone on to World Cup and Olympic success, including fellow Hall of Famers Paul Caligiuri, Cobi Jones, and Brad Friedel. In 1996 Schmid was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame as one of the first members of the American Youth Soccer Organization (AYSO).

In April 1999, Schmid left UCLA to become the head coach of the Los Angeles Galaxy, where he coached until 2004. Schmid led the Galaxy to the title of every major club championship in the United States, including the 2002 MLS Cup Championship. He was named the 1999 MLS Coach of the Year.

Schmid returned to the helm of the U-20 National Team in 2005 and led the squad on a historic run at the World Youth Championships. With four UCLA players in the starting lineup, the U.S. went undefeated in group play and did not give up a goal until losing in the quarterfinal match. Schmid's team finished 2005 with a 9-2-1 international mark and a 14-3-4 record overall.

Schmid, who led the Columbus Crew to the 2008 MLS Cup Championship, is currently in his fifth season as the head coach of Seattle Sounders FC.

Dennis Storer
Hall of Fame
Class of

The late Dennis Storer was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2006, a year before his passing.

Storer came to UCLA from Britain in 1966 and began an extraordinarily successful career as a UCLA faculty member, as well as the head coach of Men's Soccer and Rugby programs.

In soccer, Storer was named UCLA head coach after soccer was elevated to NCAA status in 1967. Storer's soccer teams compiled a remarkable 103-10-10 record while he was at the helm from 1967-73. Although the soccer team did not field any scholarship players under Storer, UCLA had three NCAA runner-up finishes, three West Coast Championships and five All Cal titles.

In rugby, Storer's teams compiled an outstanding 362-46-2 record against collegiate, major club and international teams during the period of 1966-1982 and included three National Championships ('68, '72, '75). UCLA Rugby also won every All-Cal title and 16 Southern California division championships. While at UCLA, Storer also served as U.S. National Coach in rugby from 1976-82, and 14 of the first U.S. National team players were Bruins.

Storer was widely recognized internationally as a coach and a great sportsman, as well as for his commitment to helping underprivileged youth. From 1968-82, Storer also served as Director of UCLA's National Youth Sports Programs, and during 1982-84 he served as British Olympic Association Executive Director and Attache in USA for the L.A. Olympics. Dennis was honored by Queen Elizabeth II with an OBE in 1994 for services in British/American Education, Sport and Commerce. He became a Fellow of the Royal Society in 1999. Storer, a former captain in the Royal Engineers of the British Army, was also well-known as a television commentator for both soccer and rugby, covering international rugby from England and World Cup soccer from Mexico.

Storer passed away at his home in Los Angeles on Sept. 8, 2007 after a battle with cancer. He was 75 years old.

Carlos Bocanegra
Hall of Fame
Class of

An impact player from day one, Carlos Bocanegra helped lead UCLA to the 1997 NCAA Championship and 1999 College Cup.

He earned All-MPSF first-team honors three straight years, was selected one of 11 Soccer America Collegiate MVPs in 1998, and was an All-American and Player of the Year candidate in 1999.

As a freshman in 1997, he was named to Soccer America's All-Freshman team and was rated by Soccer News as the No. 10 defender in the nation on its Elite Eleven team. Bocanegra was the only freshman to be named to the All-MPSF Pacific Division first team and was named to the Final Four All-Tournament team as UCLA won its third NCAA Championship. Additionally, he led a UCLA defense that shut out 14 opponents, including four of five in the NCAA tournament.

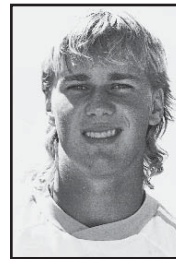

After earning first-team NSCAA All-Far West honors in 1998, Bocanegra was selected as a nominee for the Hermann Trophy and the Missouri Athletic Club Player of the Year Award in 1999. He was named a second-team NSCAA All-American, first-team All-American by College Soccer Online and first-team NSCAA All-Far West selection as he led UCLA to the College Cup that same season.

Bocanegra turned pro after his junior year and was selected the No. 4 overall pick in the MLS SuperDraft. He was the MLS Rookie of the Year in 2000 and a two-time MLS Defender of the Year.

He moved on to a successful career overseas, playing for Fulham in the English Premier League from 2003-08, Rennes and Saint-Etienne in the French Ligue 1, Rangers FC in the Scottish Premier League and Racing de Santander in Spain. He currently plays for Chivas USA of the MLS.

A fixture on the U.S. National Team and the U.S. team captain since 2007, Bocanegra was a key member of two World Cup teams, starting two games in the 2006 and playing every minute for the U.S. in the 2010 World Cup.

He earned his 100th international cap in 2011.

Chris Henderson
Hall of Fame
Class of

U.S. National Team standout Chris Henderson is the eighth men's soccer player to earn induction into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame.

Henderson was selected to Soccer America's All-Freshman team in 1989, and as a sophomore in 1990, he earned first-team NSCAA All-America honors while leading the Bruins to their second NCAA title.

He was one of just three collegiate players to earn a spot on the 1990 U.S. World Cup team and was the youngest player in the tournament. Henderson, who totaled 79 caps for the U.S. National Team, was also a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic team and an alternate for the 1994 and 1998 World Cup squads.

After playing professionally in Europe, Henderson played in Major League Soccer from 1996-2001 and retired as the league's all-time leader in games played with 317. He still shares the MLS single-game assist record with four, and his 80 regular-season assists rank No. 10 all-time. The two-time MLS All-Star won the 2000 MLS Cup with the Kansas City Wizards and was named the MLS W.O.R.K.S. Humanitarian of the Year in 2004.

He has been the Sporting Director for the Seattle Sounders FC since 2008 and helped guide the club to four Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles, including three consecutive from 2009-11.

Boldface indicates current Bruins

NCAA Champions

The 1985 Bruin squad won its first NCAA title with a record-setting eight overtime 1-0 victory over American University in the NCAA Championship game at the Kingdome in Seattle, WA on Dec. 14.

UCLA lost just one game in 1985 - a 2-1 loss against Fresno State in September. The Bruins, however, never looked back, winning or tying the remaining 13 games of the regular season. In the NCAA playoffs, UCLA, as the Far West's top seed, defeated California, 3-1, in the first round, UNLV, 1-0 in overtime, in the second round, and SMU, 2-0, in the quarterfinals.

In the Final Four, the Bruin defense, led by Paul Krumpe, Eric Biefeld, Paul Caligiuri and goalkeeper David Vanole, was masterful, allowing just one goal in 256 minutes. UCLA's offense, led by Dale Ervine with four post-season goals and Mike Getchell with four assists, was opportune. After first defeating Evansville, 3-1, in the semifinals, UCLA advanced to the finals for the first time since head coach Sigi Schmid's playing days.

The championship game turned out to be one for the ages, as the Bruins and American University battled it out for a record 166 minutes, five seconds. Both defenses were impenetrable despite the two teams combining for 47 shots. American dominated in the first half, outshooting UCLA 10-2. All-American forward Michael Brady came closest to scoring in the first stanza, but his shot from 25 yards out went just wide right. Vanole also made critical saves during that shot barrage and had six total saves in the game.

The Bruins controlled possession in the second half and gained a big advantage in the second half when Eagle defender Serge Torrelles was ejected for violent conduct, but UCLA was unable to capitalize.

Fatigue, coupled with a slippery AstroTurf field, played a major factor in the game. Short sudden death overtime periods of five minutes each prevented any opportunity of establishing rhythm. Finally, nearly four hours after the initial whistle blew, opportunity struck.

And for this Hollywood team, it was only fitting that the hero was seldom-used defender Andy Burke. Injured for most of the season and nearly redshirted, Burke was making his first NCAA Tournament appearance of the year, entering during overtime. In the 167th minute, he worked himself free to receive a pass from Krumpe, caught the American goalkeeper cheating to the near post and scored on a far-post shot from 13 yards out. The goal was his first ever as a Bruin.

Recalled Schmid, "Andy hadn't played much that year. Before the game, his dad had read an article in the Wall Street Journal that talked about how the last guy, the most unexpected person, is the one who makes the biggest contribution sometimes. He had relayed that message to Andy the day before, and the next day Andy went out and made the biggest contribution."

"Anytime you win a championship, it obviously takes a special place," he continued. "This one ranks right up there with all of the other championships. The first one is always a little special, though, because it's the first one. As a player, I played in three Final Fours but never won it, so it was especially satisfying to win it the first time as a coach."

Much like the 1985 national championship team, the 1990 squad won UCLA's second NCAA championship with defense, posting 300 minutes of shutout soccer in a span of two days at the Final Four.

The season began rather ignominiously for the Bruins, who gave up a goal just 30 seconds after kicking off opening day. The defense improved as the season went along, ultimately proving to be the team's best asset in the NCAA playoffs.

The Bruins blazed into the post-season having outscored opponents, 14-3, in the final three regular season games. After a first round bye, they defeated San Diego, 2-1, on a Joe-Max Moore goal in overtime. In the quarterfinals, UCLA, behind redshirt freshman goalkeeper Brad Friedel, shut out SMU, 2-0, to advance to the Final Four.

Once in Tampa, FL for the Final Four, however, UCLA's, as well as its opponents', offense vanished. Despite being outshot, 33-14, by its semifinal opponent North Carolina State, UCLA held ground and kept the game scoreless after regulation play and two 15-minute overtime periods. This was done even while playing the final 28 minutes down a man after senior defender Ray Fernandez was ejected. In the penalty shootout, UCLA scored on penalty kicks by Tim Gallegos, Moore, Sam George, Chris Henderson and last-minute substitute Mark Sharp. The Wolfpack converted three kicks, with Friedel deflecting a shot by Scott Schweitzer for the game-saver.

The Bruins advanced to the championship game the next day against a more rested Rutgers squad, one that had earlier in the season handed UCLA its only loss of the year. 2-1. As in the semifinals and in UCLA's last championship match appearance, a defensive battle ensued. Each squad recorded 22 shots in the game, and each had chances to score late in the contest. The Bruins' Billy Thompson hit the near post in the 84th minute, and he was unable to connect on the rebound, shooting high. Near the end of the first overtime, Rutgers nearly went ahead, but Alexi Lalas' header hit the crossbar.

In the penalty shootout, Rutgers' Lino DiCuollo connected in the first round, and Rutgers appeared to be in control after Bill Andracki stopped George's shot. UCLA pulled even when Steve Rammel was saved by Friedel and Moore converted. Dave Mueller also missed, and Tim Gallegos connected to give UCLA the advantage. Maurice Mazzocchi scored for Rutgers in round four, but Henderson put UCLA back ahead, 3-2. A Chris Beach make tied the score at 3-3, setting the stage for a Bruin freshman for the last kick of the round.

Freshman Jorge Salcedo, who had missed three times in high school in penalty kick shootouts, stepped up to the mark with a chance to win the championship for the Bruins. Salcedo studied Rutgers' keeper Andracki prior to his turn and noticed a trend.

"I usually go to the left," Salcedo said after the game. "But on the first four shots, I saw the goalkeeper was guessing. I waited and hit it to the opposite side."

Salcedo coolly made his shot, giving UCLA its second NCAA title.

NCAA Champions

"You Gotta Be a Soldier" — UCLA's adopted theme for 1997 was most appropriate considering the rash of injuries to key starters the Bruins had to endure at the Championships. Despite playing without co-captain and Player of the Year candidate Sasha Victorine for most of the season, senior All-MPSF defender Kevin Coye for the bulk of the playoffs and team MVP Pete Vagenas for the Final Four, head coach Sigi Schmid's troops prevailed and reeled in the third NCAA Men's Soccer Championship in school history.

UCLA cruised through the post-season, allowing just one goal in the MPSF Conference Championship match and five NCAA games. The Bruins posted a 3-0 NCAA first-round win over Santa Clara and shut out Washington in the second round, 1-0. In the quarterfinals, Clemson jumped ahead, 1-0, before UCLA rallied to win, 2-1.

The Bruins faced top-ranked and undefeated Indiana in the semifinals in a rematch of the 1994 NCAA Semis which saw the Hoosiers pick apart redshirt freshman goalkeeper Matt Reis to win 4-1. But Reis gained redemption for that night in 1994 and was more than outstanding, stopping everything shot his way. Indiana could not find a way to figure out Reis, who made a school record-tying 11 saves on 25 shots on goal.

Over 131 scoreless minutes after kickoff, a UCLA corner kick found its way to Josh Keller, who then passed it to Ryan Lee. The freshman took a shot that was deflected by an Indiana defender. However, the deflection went right to Indiana native McKinley Tennyson, Jr., who tapped it into an empty net for the 1-0 win in sudden death overtime.

A matchup with a powerful Virginia team playing in its home state loomed next for UCLA in the Championship game. With playmaker Vagenas unable to play, Schmid was forced to adopt a more defensive, counterattacking style that frustrated Virginia the entire game. Although the Cavaliers had their chances in the game - they had 15 shots on goal, nine of which were stopped mostly in spectacular fashion by Reis - they could not capitalize. One of those saves came early in the second half, when Reis slid out of the box about 22 yards out and beat a streaking Jason Moore to the ball.

Virginia stepped up its pressure near the end of regulation, but the Bruins picked their opportunities to counter and took advantage of a miscue in the 80th minute. After Keller's sliding pass to Bruno beat Cavalier defender Scott Vermillion, the Bruins had just one defender to beat by the penalty area for the game's first goal. Bruno hooked a no-look pass to an open Seth George, who beat goalkeeper Brock Yetso for the go-ahead goal.

Two minutes later, Virginia played with fire again while trying to equalize. With most of the Cavaliers up front, the Bruins again took advantage. After Tennyson fired a shot that Yetso stopped, no Cavalier defenders were there to clear, and George, the tournament's Offensive MVP, easily hit the deflection into the empty net to put the game away.

A new era in UCLA soccer could not have gotten off to a better start than it did in 2002. Under first-year head coach Tom Fitzgerald, the Bruins captured its first Pac-10 championship and its fourth NCAA title, making Fitzgerald only the second coach in NCAA soccer history to win a Division I title in his first year with the program.

The Bruins made it to the College Cup thanks to a blistering offense that scored 14 goals in three games but then won the championship thanks to a stingy defense that shut out Stanford in the title game.

A 13-3-3 regular season record and the team's first-ever Pac-10 Championship led to a No. 3 seeding in the NCAA Tournament and home field advantage until the College Cup. The Bruins' path to the College Cup ran through two teams that had beaten them earlier in the season. UCLA first disposed of Loyola Marymount, 4-2, in the NCAA second round, avenging a 2-0 loss in September. California, who had earlier defeated UCLA, 1-0 in a controversial overtime decision, was the Bruins' next victim, by a 3-2 mark in the third round. A 7-1 drubbing of Penn State in the quarterfinals landed the Bruins in the College Cup for the second time in four years. Matt Taylor recorded a hat trick in the contest, and Tim Pierce added two goals of his own, while Cliff McKinley tied an NCAA Tournament record with three assists.

UCLA's prolific offense would next face top-seeded Maryland in the semifinals, and like in the other two matchups against top-ranked teams during the season, the Bruins were up for the challenge. UCLA got on the boards first with a Taylor goal off an Adolfo Gregorio assist in the 75th minute, but Maryland came back to equalize in the 81st minute. Just one minute later, McKinley was taken down in the penalty box by Maryland keeper Noah Palmer, and Gregorio scored the ensuing penalty kick and game-winning goal.

In the championship game, UCLA had another matchup with conference rival Stanford, the two teams' third meeting of the year. This game would be no different, as the Bruins won by the same 1-0 score they had won by in the previous two matchups.

Both teams had good scoring opportunities in the game. Stanford had a header cleared off the line by Jimmy Frazelle in the early minutes, and Ryan Futagaki had a hard shot ricochet off the left post in the 31st minute.

But all things changed in the 89th minute. Ty Maurin was fouled near the left corner with the Bruins on the attack and earned a free kick for UCLA. Futagaki's perfectly-placed free kick found Aaron Lopez, who one-timed the ball past Stanford goalie Robby Fulton into the top right corner with 1:02 remaining on the clock for the championship-winning goal.

Lopez was named the MVP of the College Cup, and teammates Zach Wells, who earned the shutout in the title match; Gregorio, Taylor and Scot Thompson received All-Tournament acclaim.

NCAA Tournament Results

Since 1968, UCLA has participated in the NCAA Tournament 43 times (including 33 consecutive years from 1983-2016), winning national championships in 1985, 1990, 1997 and 2002.

In 1985, the Bruins defeated American University in eight over-times for their first NCAA championship. In 1990, the Bruins defeated Rutgers in a penalty kick shootout for their second title. In 1997, Bruin forward Seth George scored two goals in the last 10 minutes of the game to defeat Virginia 2-0 in the championship game. An Aaron Lopez goal with 1:02 to play in regulation gave the Bruins the 2002 title, 1-0 over Stanford.

UCLA has also finished second five times (1970, '72 '73, '06 and '14), third four times (1984, '94, '99, '11) and fourth once (1974). UCLA has advanced to collegiate soccer's Final Four 14 times and has a record of 13-11. The Bruins' all-time NCAA record is 73-40.

UCLA's National Team Connection

Jonathan Bornstein

With such national soccer stars as Cobi Jones, Brad Friedel, Paul Caligiuri, Frankie Hejduk and Carlos Bocanegra having once donned a UCLA uniform, it has become obvious that UCLA Soccer breeds national and international caliber players. Past and current UCLA players have made over 2,400 appearances for various U.S. National Teams.

UCLA's influence on U.S. World Cup teams is most notable. In all, 15 Bruins have participated in the last seven World Cups. Three of those players — Friedel, Jones and Joe-Max Moore — have participated in three World Cups apiece, and Jones set a U.S. record for career World Cup appearances with 11, a record that has since been broken by Landon Donovan.

UCLA had a nation's-best three players named to the 2010 U.S. World Cup Team - two-time World Cupper and team captain Bocanegra and first-timers Jonathan Bornstein and Benny Feilhaber. The U.S. squad made history by becoming the first U.S. team to ever win their group in a World Cup.

In 2006, the Bruins once again led all colleges with four selections - three-time team member Frankie Hejduk, two-time team member Eddie Lewis and World Cup rookies Carlos Bocanegra and Jimmy Conrad. An injury took Hejduk out of the World Cup a day after being selected to the team, but the other three Bruins played and even started alongside each other in the United States' final game.

A collegiate-best five former UCLA players were on the historic 2002 World Cup team - Friedel, Hejduk, Jones, Lewis and Moore. All five played major roles in the United States' best World Cup showing in 72 years, as the U.S. advanced all the way to the quarterfinals and won an elimination game for the first time in World Cup history. Friedel emerged as one of the top goalkeepers in the world, shutting out Mexico in the second round and twice earning Man of the Match honors in the first round of play. In his first World Cup start, Lewis contributed an assist in the win over Mexico. Friedel, Jones, Moore and Hejduk also started for the U.S. team at the 1998 World Cup.

Five former Bruins captured the country's attention as part of the 1994 U.S. World Cup team which advanced to the second round for the first time in World Cup history. Caligiuri started in all four games for the U.S., and Jones appeared in four with one start. Other former Bruins on the team were Friedel, Moore, Mike Lapper and assistant coach Sigi Schmid. In the first round of the 1994 World Cup, the U.S. team tied Switzerland 1-1 then upset Colombia 2-1 at the Rose Bowl in what was then the biggest win in U.S. soccer history.

In 1989, Caligiuri, who made over 100 international appearances for Team USA, became one of the United States' most famous players after scoring the historic goal in the CONCACAF qualifying round. His 35-yard dipping volley gave the U.S. a 1-0 victory over Trinidad & Tobago and placed the U.S. in the 1990 World Cup for the first time since 1950. At the 1990 World Cup, he started all three of the U.S. team's games and scored the country's first World Cup goal in 40 years. Three other Bruins played in the 1990 World Cup — Chris Henderson, Paul Krumpke and David Vanole.

UCLA soccer players have made their mark in the Olympic Games as well. Three Bruins - Feilhaber, Patrick Ianni and Marvell Wynne - were on the 2008 U.S. team, while a fourth - Hejduk - was an alternate. Four Bruins - Friedel, Hejduk, Pete Vagenas and Sasha Victorine were key contributors on the U.S. team that finished a best-ever fourth at the 2000 Games in Sydney. In 1996, former Bruins Hejduk and Chris Snitko competed for the United States in Atlanta, and the 1992 Olympic team included six former Bruins — Friedel, Henderson, Jones, Lapper, Moore and Zak Ibsen — on its roster, the most from any collegiate institution. Other UCLA Olympians include Caligiuri, Krumpke and Vanole (1988) and Jeff Hooker (1984).

Several Bruins were instrumental to the United States' gold medal win at the 1991 Pan American Games. Friedel tended goal for the U.S., while Moore nailed the game-winning goal in overtime in the gold-medal match against Mexico. Jones scored one goal and an assist against Canada. A Bruin-dominated U.S. team won a bronze medal at the 1999 Pan Am Games. Team captain Vagenas was the team's leading scorer with two goals, including the game-winner against Cuba. Bocanegra and Victorine also contributed a goal apiece in the tournament. Also on the team were Steve Shak, Ryan Futagaki and Nelson Akwari.

A number of U.S. National Team players began their National Team participation after coming to Westwood, including World Cup players Conrad, Lewis, Hejduk, Jones, Moore, Lapper, Krumpke and Vanole.

UCLA attracts some of the nation's best talent as well, becoming a hotbed for Youth National Team members. The 2013 UCLA squad consists of five members who have earned at least one international cap and several others who have been in the national team pool.

In 2005, the U.S. Under-20 National Team, coached by Schmid and featuring Bruins Chad Barrett, Feilhaber, Ianni and Wynne in the starting lineup, made history at the World Youth Championships by becoming the first U.S. team and only the 12th team ever to record three consecutive shutouts at the WYC. The Under-20s advanced even further in 2007, making it all the way to the quarterfinals after posting wins over Poland, Brazil and Uruguay. Bruins Sal Zizzo and Tony Beltran started in all five games for the U.S., and goalkeeper Brian Perk earned an overtime victory in the round of 16 against Uruguay.

Also in 2007, three other Bruin players participated in the Pan American Games - U.S. captain Greg Folk and three-game starters Michael Stephens and Chance Myers.

UCLA - No. 1 Producer of Pro Talent

Once again proving it is one of the top producers of soccer talent, UCLA has 17 former athletes on Major League Soccer (MLS) rosters in 2017, including No. 1 overall draft picks Marvell Wynne, Chance Myers and Abu Danladi.

Overall, 76 Bruins have played in MLS in the league's 20-plus years of existence, more than any other school in the nation by far. Every starting UCLA goalkeeper from 1990-2003 played in the league. Some of the most successful MLS players came from UCLA, including 2009 MLS Cup MVP Nick Rimando, 2006 MLS Rookie of the Year Jonathan Bornstein, 2005 Defender of the Year Jimmy Conrad, two-time Defender of the Year and 2000 Rookie of the Year Carlos Bocanegra, 1999 MLS Goalkeeper of the Year Kevin Hartman, and 1997 Goalkeeper of the Year Brad Friedel.

UCLA alumni have won MLS titles in 12 of the last 13 years, with a total of 29 former Bruins winning the MLS Cup all-time - Chandler Hoffman, Brian Perk and Brian Rowe with the LA Galaxy in 2014; Chance Myers and Benny Feilhaber with Sporting Kansas City in 2013; Kyle Nakazawa, Brian Perk, Brian Rowe, Michael Stephens with the LA Galaxy in 2012; Sean Alvarado, Chad Barrett, Frankie Hejduk, Perk and Stephens with the LA Galaxy in 2011; Marvell Wynne in 2010 with the Colorado Rapids; Rimando and Tony Beltran in 2009; Hejduk and head coach Sigi Schmid with the Columbus Crew in 2008; Patrick Ianni and Zach Wells with the Houston Dynamo in 2006 and 2007; Mike Enfield, Hartman, Cobi Jones and Pete Vagenas with the Los Angeles Galaxy in 2005; Rimando in 2004 with DC United; Adam Frye, Hartman, Jones, Matt Reis, Vagenas and Sasha Victorine in 2002 with the Schmid-coached Galaxy; Conrad and Zak Ibsen in 2001 with the San Jose Earthquakes; Tahj Jakins in 2000 with the Kansas City Wizards; and Josh Keller and Ante Razov with the Chicago Fire in 1988.

Bruins have also been very successful in MLS drafts. Three times in the last 11 years, a Bruin has been the No. 1 draft pick - Abu Danladi in 2017 (Minnesota) Chance Myers in 2008 (Kansas City) and Marvell Wynne in 2006 (New York). Other No. 1 picks were Tahj Jakins (1997, Colorado) and Steve Shak (2000, New York/New Jersey). Two Bruins were Top 3 picks in 2008 - No. 1 Myers and No. 3 Tony Beltran (Real Salt Lake). A school record-tying five players were chosen in the 2010 draft, including a record-tying three in the first round. UCLA also had five draft picks in 1996, 2000 and 2004.

Other former MLS Bruins have been successful overseas as well. Four Bruins played in the English Premier League in 2007-08 - Friedel (Blackburn), Bocanegra (Fulham), Lewis (Derby County) and Benny Feilhaber (Derby County). Friedel became the first American player picked for the 2002 English Premier League team of the year when he was voted the top goalkeeper by his peers. Several others played in Europe before returning to the U.S. to play in MLS. Paul Caligiuri, the first American-born player ever to play in the top-flight division in Germany, first played abroad with SV Meppen and also played with St. Pauli in the German Bundesliga. Hejduk also played in the German Bundesliga with Bayer Leverkusen, and Jones (Coventry City), Joe-Max Moore (Everton) and Adolfo Gregorio (Darlington) enjoyed stints in England.

Westwood has also been a German pipeline, with three Bruins recently playing in the German Bundesliga - Feilhaber with Hamburg SV, Kamani Hill with VfL Wolfsburg and Sal Zizzo with Hannover 96.

Dan Guerrero

Director of Athletics
17th Year
UCLA '74

Sixteen years and 30 NCAA Championships later, Dan Guerrero's mantra of 'image and substance' has clearly been established at a level that few others in his profession can approach.

At the department's helm when UCLA

Athletics became the first to 100 NCAA team championships, the Bruins' current total of 113 NCAA titles is a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. While UCLA teams have indeed won 27 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, they have also finished second 26 times and have enjoyed an additional 56 Top Five finishes.

In fact, more than 80% of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA post-season competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in 12 bowl games, while the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08 and has made five trips to the Sweet 16. The program has also won 62 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 600 All-Americans and featured eight Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Guerrero, recently named the 2014 NACDA Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award, is the only athletic director at the NCAA Division I level (FBS, FCS and NCAA Division I-AAA) to earn three such awards (2006-07 at UCLA, 2001-02 at UC Irvine). In his 14 years at UCLA, the Bruins have finished second four times and third four times in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.

While success on the playing field with 27 NCAA Championships in 14 different sports and 26 second-place finishes during his tenure are extraordinary numbers, UCLA's academic success under Guerrero is equally noteworthy. Over 14 years and 42 quarters, student-athletes have earned nearly 9,500 spots on the Director's Honor Roll. UCLA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and Academic Progress Rates (APR) continued to remain high nation-wide. The Bruin student-athlete GSR is currently at 86%, and every Bruin team maintained multi-year APR rates over 960, including three who achieved perfect scores of 1000 (women's golf for the seventh consecutive year, men's water polo and men's volleyball).

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002), helping to elevate that program to unprecedented success. Prior to arriving at UCI, Guerrero worked at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

A proud alumnus of UCLA, Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from the University in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. Known as "Warrior" during his playing career, he was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero was raised in Wilmington, CA. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello, and they have two grown daughters.

Gavin Crew

Associate Athletic Director
3rd Year
UCLA '99

Gavin Crew was named Associate Athletic Director for Sports and Administration in April 2016. He has spent over a decade with the Bruins, from 2001-2005 and 2008-present.

Crew oversees eight sports in his role - men's soccer, women's soccer, men's cross country, women's cross country, men's track & field (indoor and outdoor) and women's track & field (indoor and outdoor). Additionally, he supervises the Camps & Clinics office and serves as tournament director for NCAA, Pac-12 and MPSF Championship hosting. Crew is a member of Athletic Director Dan Guerrero's senior staff.

In his first stint in the UCLA Athletics Department, he oversaw the expansion of the Camps & Clinics office to a year-round business operation, managing the growing demand for athletic camp operations in Westwood. From 2005-2008, Crew worked with Excel Sports Officiating to help train and work with officials, umpires and referees in all sports and at all levels. Upon his return to UCLA in 2008, Crew once again oversaw the camp office and added championship coordinator to his plate. In addition to continuing the growth of the camp operation into a $4 million revenue generator for the Athletic Department, he has also executed several major NCAA, Pac-12 and MPSF Championships on campus, including the 2013 NCAA National Collegiate Gymnastics Championship, 2013 NCAA National Collegiate Men's Volleyball Championship, 2015 Pac-12 Track & Field Championship, 2014 and 2016 NCAA Women's Basketball 1st/2nd Rounds, 2015 NCAA National Collegiate Men's Water Polo Championships, and the 2016 NCAA National Collegiate Women's Water Polo Championships. Crew graduated with a degree in Political Science from UCLA in 1999.

Originally from Irvine, Calif., Crew lives in the Silver Lake neighborhood with his wife, Cassidy.
