A spectacular view of the rich cultural mosaic of the North East was showcased by thousands of youths from different colleges of the eight states of the region at the playground of USTM kickstarting the 7th North East Graduate Congress (NEGC)-2023. More than 10,000 students from different colleges gathered at USTM from 7th to 9th April to participate in various sports, cultural, literary, and start-up competitions, as well as sessions on competitive examinations, personality development, and a job fair.

The NEGC is organised to benefit the region's youths by helping them set their vision so that they can shoulder responsibilities and contribute to nation-building. NEGC is the most acclaimed flagship programme of USTM that aims to inculcate the spirit of competitiveness, regional integrity, social harmony and brotherhood among the youths.

Shri Jayanta Malla Baruah, Minister of Public Health Engineering, Assam was a special guest at the event, apart from other dignitaries. The inaugural ceremony of NEGC-2023 was witnessed by a galaxy of prominent personalities ranging from youth icons, academia, politicians, cultural and sports icons, motivational speakers, principals of various colleges, faculty members and many students. Renowned motivational speaker Thomas John Rose took energetic sessions with the participating students of the NEGC.

Attractive awards, including two-wheelers, laptops, tablets, mobile phones and cash prizes will be given to the winners of different competitions. Special attractions in the award category are: 'Best Performing College-2023' and 'Best Magazine Award-2023'. Certificates of participation would be given to all the participants. Prizes worth Rs 50 lakh will be awarded to the winners of various competitions in the event.

IPR Day: USLR holds Debate on Copyright Law

The University School of Law and Research at USTM organized an Inter-Departmental Debate Competition on 26th April on the occasion of World IPR Day. The topic of the debate was “Remixing of Bollywood Songs Is An Infringement Of Copyright Laws.” The students who were in favor of the motion were of the opinion that remixing music is a blatant violation of IPR laws, mostly copyright laws. The ones against the motion were of the opinion that remixing songs per se is not violative of copyright laws as it is an expression of musical creativity. If made with all due consent, it is not violating any law. The Dean of the School of Law, Dr Baharul Islam, gave the introductory speech to mark the event’s commencement. After the debate competition, the speaker of the debate Dr BI Laskar, Associate Professor, Dept. of Sociology, USTM, addressed the gathering.

Recruited Students Shared Their Feelings

Sharing her feelings, Farhina Choudhury, recruited by Bandhan Bank, said, “I completed BSc Biotechnology with certain hesitation where to lead. Deciding to join this prestigious University and, fortunately, to be a student of the Department of Business Administration (MBA) has led me to establish and discover various skills enhancing my academic and interpersonal capabilities and boosting my confidence. The biggest attainment is to get an opportunity to start my career in a reputed organization. I especially acknowledge the most active placement team for constantly mentoring me to achieve my goals”.

Shah Jubin Akhtar, who did BBA and was placed in a global HR company ADP, said, “I feel grateful for the opportunities this university has provided me. From internships to industrial visits, I have gained practical insights into the corporate world. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the Training & Placement Department, USTM, for their dedication and hard work in bringing some of the top companies to the university.”
