In April 1935, the Senate Select Committee to Study Government Operations with respect to Intelligence Activities published their Final Report (Part II) which in essence faulted the CPT and to some extent for its error of omission in not informing the Warren Commission of the Agency's ongoing plots against the Cuban government in Cuba and ~~its~~ ^{its} ~~personal~~ attempts on the life of ~~the~~ ^{the} premier, Fidel Castro. Yet, they duped their subordinates to conduct an investigation without telling them of these vital facts. CIA Plots to Assassinate Fidel Castro

The genesis of the ^{utilization} ~~use~~ of the United States ~~ground~~ syndicate of the CIA ~~to~~ attempt to assassinate Castro is of the 1967 Inspectors General's Report as occurring during a conversation between the Deputy Director of Plans, ~~was~~ Richard Bissell, and the Director of the Office of Security, Colonel Sheffell Edwards.⁺

[1967 IG Rpt. p. 74; Intern Rpt p. 74; Sec. 1.1]

Edwards assigned the specific task of beating the right party to "eliminate or assassinate" Castro, to James "Big Jim" O'Connell, who was the Chief of the Special Support Division of the Office of Security. Both men agreed that Robert H. Mahon ⁺ who ~~has~~ had been previously utilized by the Agency in several sensitive cover operations, would be contacted to recruit the necessary personnel.

⁺ [Mahon's CIA history and relationship to O'Connell are detailed on pp 74-75, Intern Rpt.]

0002181 Although Mahon and O'Connell differ as to who initially brought up John Rosselli's name for consideration there was a meeting between Mahon and Rosselli at the Brown Duty Restaurant in Los Angeles in early September 1968 [Intern Rpt. p. 75] logical person to have thought of and contacted Roselli for several reasons. In an office of security file on SA Morgan, Mahan's attorney, there is a memo to the DCP dated 19 November 1970 which reviews the mafia operation. Paragraph 5 states that "Mr. Mahan advised that he had met one John Roselli on several occasions while visiting Las Vegas. He only knew him casually through other clients, but was given to understand that he was a high ranking member of the syndicate and controlled all the ice-making machines on the Strip! Mahan advised that, if Roselli was in fact a member of the Club, he undoubtedly had connections leading into the Cuban gambling in Las Vegas."

Rosselli, although apparently skeptical at first, agreed to a meeting in New York City with Mahon and Council to discuss further details.

[Fitzsim Report p 76; Office of Secret Memos from Morgan file, dated 19 Nov. 1970]

Although the Dujean's personal Report places the meeting at the Playa Station on 14 September 1960, Rosselli recalled that the ~~event~~ discussion took place during Castro's visit to the United Nations which began on September 18, 1960.

Comment

Tony de Varona admits going to NY at the time of Castro's visit, but it is unlikely that he was in contact with Rosselli at this time or [Fitzsim of de Varona] that his visit had an assassination motivation.

According to a 19 Nov. 1970 memo to the D.C.I., it was at this September meeting in New York City, that Rosselli "agreed to introduce him (Mahon) to a friend, 'Sam Ford', who knew the Cuban crowd."

Conflicts appear also on ~~a number of~~ several related minor points surrounding the September 1965 meeting in N.Y.C. and Miami. For instance:

1) Did Rosselli learn from the reporting that ~~that~~ the operation was CFTA?

a) O'Connell stated that Mahan told Rosselli that they were representing international business interests whereas Rosselli testified that Mahan told him that O'Connell was CFTA [Internum Report 70 Abs., footnote 1 on p. 26 indicates that Rosselli told O'Connell "about 3 weeks after the New York meeting", which is during the Miami involvement of Bourassa, that "I am not kidding, I mean what you work for".

The importance of Rosselli's recognition of CFTA ~~is~~ ~~in~~ ~~that~~ ~~it~~ ~~is~~ ~~doubtful~~ if ~~concerned~~ ~~participants~~ could have been enlisted unless they could be sure of government protection. This theme will be developed more fully below.

2) Roselli told his Cuban contacts that he was an "agent of some summer interests of Wall Street that had... nicht interests and properties around Cuba.... (Roselli, 6/24/75 pp 9, 17)

CF. Jack Anderson column of Jan. 19, 1971, which stated that (4) "Could the plot against Castro have backfired against President Kennedy? ... None of the assassination teams, however, had direct knowledge of the CIA involvement. The CIA instigators had represented themselves as oilmen seeking revenge against Castro for his seizure of oil holdings."

If Anderson's source for this article were Roselli and ~~William~~ William Henry, who was not privy to the details of Phase F, it is another ~~example~~ ^{instance} of serious discrepancies between the CIA, Senate, and Anderson versions which all purport to depend, in varying degrees, upon Roselli.

3) The alleged ~~discovery~~ "surprise discovery" by Mahon and O'Connell as to the ~~possible~~ identification of "Sambo" and "Joe" is really suspect. First, ~~all~~ although it is

~~All of the information also~~
Whether Roselli received a message from Brancosi's murder four days before Roselli's Senate appearance is open for question. J. Roselli's characterization of Brancosi's role as minor is in contrast to his alleged ^{recruitment of} ~~description of~~ Brancosi's "knowledge of the Cuban word" used in the 19 Nov. 1970 memo recorded.

Trafficante's involvement in Phase I is even more justified by the available evidence. The 1967 Feb. Report and Senate Intern Report ~~also~~ state that "bold" identified "Joe" to Mahan as a man who would serve as a courier to Cuba and make arrangements there. (Feb Report p. 19; Intern Report, p. 775. To support the description of Trafficante as a courier, the ~~1967 Feb. Report~~ Intern Report quotes p. 19 of the 1967 Feb. Report in stating that, "At that time, the gambling casinos were still operating in Cuba and Trafficante was making regular trips between Miami and Havana in syndicate business."

0062150 Comment ^{partially}

This unsupported assertion runs contrary to the evidence available through official government records ^{of other agencies}. As an example, State Department files reflect that Traffante applied for a passport ^{in Havana} on October 4, 1959 and received that document in Havana on February 2, 1960.

(See Traffante file, State Dept). ~~None~~ ~~is~~ ~~recorded~~. No records available to the Committee from DNS, State Department or FBI record any later 1960 travels even though the Bureau ~~and~~ maintained decent surveillance on Traffante during the period. In recalled

his Committee testimony, Traffante ~~repeatedly~~ stated that he made two trips to Cuba after his release from prison in August 1959 and placed those sojourns within two or three months after his release. ^{from prison} Testimony, pp 4-53, Oct 2, 1978

in Havana

His testimony has some logical credibility in that all of the casinos were either closed or operating in the area by mid-1960, and law enforcement reports placed him in the Tampa-Miami area consistently ~~in~~ during the pre-Bay of Pigs period.

By the time of the Senate testimony of Roselli, however, Traffante's role had diminished to a joint even below Biancanis. He had been reduced ^{from "courier"} to a mere "translator" and was needed only to facilitate ~~communications~~ ^{been} Roselli and the Cubans who had been recruited for the actual assassination. Speculation concerning Oates arose during the Agency's 1977

address a problem raised by an April 23, 1975 article, concerning Frank Stupis, written by Paul

Stupis was quoted as saying,
"The third (assassination) scheme involved planting a bomb in Castro's office. I had access to the Prime Minister's office," Stupis said. "I knew Fidel's private secretary, Juan Ota.
I recruited him to work with the

What was his ~~role~~ ^{part} in the writings of the 1977 Report was the fact that Onta's name had surfaced in connection with a Castro assassination plot, before revelation of the CIA-Mafia connection by the Senate Intelligence Committee. The Report references news stories linking Stuzis with Trepicante and with a "gamby partner" of Trepicante, Norman Rothman. (See Rothman's pupils. Coupled with Stuzis' ~~alleged~~ ^{alleged} relationships, is the allegation that Stuzis had a role in ~~an~~ inspecting the gamby casinos in Cuba on behalf of the Castro government and could have developed an contact with Onta in seeing gamby "high roller".

A second aspect of Maschil's ~~the~~ news series concerned a claim by Maitha Joerny that she had acted on behalf of Stuzis in 1960 in attempt to poison Castro when dove tailed with the 18 October 1960 FBI memorandum in Barcelona electronically surveilled curriculum in which he stated that "the assassin had arranged with a girl, not further described, to drop a 'pill' ^{SECRET} some drink or food of Castro" (Miami, Havana to DCI, SA, D.D. 10/19/60).

The tentative conclusions advanced in the 1977 Report are as follows:

It is obvious that many lines of speculation can be developed, not the least of which is that the Agency did not know the full extent of syndicate activities...

Additional considerations:

1. Current syndicate may well have had some independent activities of its own activity prior to CPTA involvement in late 1960. Also, could have been Agency run CPTA activity prior in 1962 April
2. Syndicate operators could have had contacts such as those in New York City New Spain in 1975 and 1976.
3. Frank Stupis seems to have had contacts with, but not a member of syndicate. Could well have been used by the syndicate.
4. Stupis has not been a reliable source. He professed to know Osta in Cuba but he was outside Cuba when Osta assumed role of assassin.

If there was an earlier operator in Osta, it was not CPTA; it could have been earlier operation of syndicate.

Stupis could have been or been involved in syndicate operation, or picked up gossip from FOREIGN in 1965 after Cuba with them

Neither the 1967 I-C Report or the SSC Interim Report can

 the Agency processed the poison pills which Dr. Connell delivered to Rosselli { Interim Report, p 80. The chain of custody, according to the 1967 I-C that the pills had been delivered to his account is not shared by and nor is his relationship with 0002198 Roselli, banana, or Trafficante appear as "copy" as he would lead me to believe.

It is also apparent that Shimon was a source for Fred Kellum's column of January 9, 1961, which fixed the date of the passage of the person at the Fontainebleau ^{by Roselli} as March 13, 1961, and contained the report that Castro became ill a few ~~days~~ weeks later.

The real problem with Shimon's story is that the pills were returned to the CIA for a few weeks because Ota could or would not attempt the poisoning, a fact apparently unknown to Shimon before his "leak" to Kellum and his Senate testimony.]

Comment

One additional fact concerning Ota's inability to carry out the mission ties in with the final thesis of this report. Ota lost his position in Castro's office on 26 January 1961, while the planning for the operation was still going on in Miami and Washington.

It would seem though, that the generals did know that Ota had already lost his access to Castro [The 1967 ~~W~~ Report p. 27.]

0002199

With the failure of Onto
 to produce the desired results,
 the project was at a standstill
 until, once again, Santos Trujillo assumed command. Roselli has stated that "Trujillo believes a certain leading figure in the Cuban exile movement ~~etc~~ might be able to accomplish the mission."

The well known was, of course Tony de Varona, ~~the~~
 who was the subject of speculation
 in an FBI memorandum of 11 Jan 1961 connecting him with receiving financial

At the time of his introduction

De Varona was also ^{being} used promoting Varona's image in collaboration with McRaney from 0002260

"Chirri" or "Chillo" Mendez Mendez is described in Tupperman's FBI files as a close Cuban associate.

Completing the picture of support for Varona is the promotion efforts of the Dins and Eddie Cullini, Mehony and Ramsey Brusnic, associates, who were reportedly working through a Washington DC, public relations firm, Edward K Moss and Associates. Moss had previous CPA associations and was supposed acting as a conduit for funds supplied by the Cullini benefactors with the understanding that their group would have "privileged treatment" in the Cuba of the future. Attempts to refute these reports were unsuccessful. [1967 FBI Report p.30]

The Danish influence using the Cullini brothers as a "front" is particularly interesting in light of Varona's admission that Jorge Pujol arranged a meeting in Miami in ~~the summer~~ 1960 wherein ^{my} Danish offered to financially "back" Varona's efforts to ~~assist~~ "educate" the American people about Castro, which may be a euphemism for anti-Castro plots. The logical inference to be drawn is that both the Agency ~~and~~ ^{and} other persons interested in removing the Castro regime, had settled upon de Vanna, ^{proving independent} as an individual who had the potential of uniting the ~~various~~ ^{various} multitudes of exile groups who were in a continual internecine feud. de Vanna was understandably pleased to permit both the U.S.

Government and criminal syndicate to offer him support and asked no questions as to the source of the funds or the motives of his benefactors. [See Vanna testimony -]

Although de Vanna has no ^{specific} memory of meeting Truffante, the Tampa court has admitted that he acted as an "interceptor" in several meetings attended by de Vanna, Roselli, Benvenia, and other exiles. These meetings were arranged by Rafael, "Macho" Jener, a Truffante family partner from Havana who continued to serve Truffante in Miami during the 1960s. Truffante claimed that Roselli had primary contact with Jener but this appears unlikely in view of Truffante's long-standing ^{SECRET} friendship with Jener on Cuba. And Roselli's admission to Comment: Paralleling ~~the~~ the situation at the Senate hearings July 1975 when Rosselli's depiction of Traffante's role ~~changed~~ changed from ~~his~~ his "counsel" character ~~in 1960~~ in 1960 as reported by the Agency to conform to Traffante's "interpreter" state ment, in the recent interview with Cener who agrees with Traffante's ~~limited~~ testimony ~~that~~ he was an ~~interpreter~~ ^{with de Vanna} ~~only~~ for Rosselli. ~~and~~ the net result in both instances is to minimize Traffante's exposure (See C.F. ~~Haggren, who met with de Vanna came to the~~ geopolis of the ~~introduction~~ ^{ambiguity} introduction of de Vanna into phase one of the Castro assassination plots, more ~~clear~~ ~~ambiguity~~ confusion surrounds de Vanna's ~~as~~ actual participation prior to the Bay of Pigs invasion. The I & Report indicates that de Vanna attempted a second gun run before the Cuban invasion that Rosselli was positive that only one attempt, (Orta) was made. He was also positive that he delivered both pills, money and supplies to de Vanna which is corroborated by O'Connell ~~reports~~ during 1961. The conflict is resolved by the Senate in speculation that only one pre-Pray of Pigs attempt was made, and that de Vanna was the contact in the United States who arranged for [Orta] to abandon the poison.

Comment

There appears to be no factual way to resolve de Vanna's initial contribution to the poison attempts especially since Vanna denies ever having received poison pills from Roselli or being involved in any attempt on Castro's life at any time [See Vanna transcript]

Comment

The Agency was aware of the possible dangers inherent in having de Vanna participate in the mob's plot while ~~in~~ employing his part on the Peruvian Canal. However, "Steps were taken to end his participation in the syndicate plan but [they] were apparently ineffective" [M.I.C. Report, p 325]

Phase II

The debacle which marked the mid-April 1961 Bay of Pigs effort, curtailed CIA efforts with the mob to assassinate Castro, but it was not until April 1962, when Bill Harvey assumed Agency responsibility for the task, were efforts made to re-establish contact with Roselli.

However, the fact that the Agency was squeamish during the Bay of Pigs aftermath to condemn to pay to kill Castro, does not mean that the mob shared their shyness. Indeed, both Harvey and Council swore that Harvey "took over a going operation". I.E.O. Rept p 33. The exact details of what that operation might have been ~~cannot be determined~~ has not been uncovered, but Roselli's ability to regenerate his forces ~~was~~ in response to Harvey's contact in April 1962 was immediate. Once again the ubiquitous de l'homme was to provide the ~~individuals~~ who would carry the lethal poison into Cuba.

However, there were some significant ~~important~~ differences between Phase One and Phase Two of the operation which bear upon the ultimate question of the mob's motivation and successes in carrying out their part of the bargain struck in 1960 with the Agency.

Fact. In Phase One, Roselli et al had demonstrated their ability to execute the contract on Castro by naming their source who was, in fact, in a position close to Castro to succeed. In contrast, the details of the matter operated and the ability of the ~~source~~ ^{source} was deliberately vague. After ~~the~~ Harry contacted Roselli in Miami in April 1962, Harry reported that "the plan in which the material was to be introduced to Castro's Ford [which involved] an asset of someone who had access to someone in a ^{restaurant} frequented by Castro." By June 1962 after the source had received money and instructions from the JMWAVE station and had personally sent the goods into Cuba, ~~the~~ "Roselli" reported to Harry on 21 June that source had dispatched a team of three men to Cuba. Just what they were supposed to do is pretty vague. Harry said that they appeared to have no specific plan for helping Castro. They were to recruit others who might be used in such a scheme. If an opportunity to help Castro presented itself, they or the persons they recruited will to make the attempt -- perhaps using the pills. Harry never heard

 [1967 DO Report p 57]

Comment

As the 1967 DO author correctly observed, Harvey's tale of the "favorite restaurant" personifying opportunity ~~was the same plan that Edwards~~ was familiar in that Edwards had decided previously the same plan. The fact that Vauma related the exact modes operandi to Harvey as he had discussed with Edwards in Phase One (circa 1960-mid 1961) leads to the possibilities that:

- (1) Harvey was correct in assuming that he was taking over an ongoing operation in April 1962 or
- (2) he had not had been using di Vauma before, during, and after the Bay of Pigs and requested the CIA to provide logistical support and future protection against the Justice Department; or
- (3) di Vauma was simply making up a story for the Agency to gain ^{their} financial backing or in response to directives from organized crime.

of the picture" with a dispatch
which is subject to several interpretations including the fact that the CIA was a willing participant in the deal.

Again on November 27, 1963, Cain
now the chief investigator for Cook County Sheriff's office, gave the Agency some information that Oswald was in ~~Cuba~~ Chicago in April 1963 with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and had purchased the ~~massacre~~ rifle in March 1963.

2. Recruitment of ~~potential~~ ^{the potential} Assassins

In ~~recruiting~~ ^{the potential} ~~poisoner,~~

Beaucana spoke of a "guy" who was close to Castro while the individual recruited for the CIA pills was Juan Dorta, a secretary in Castro's Prime Ministry.

The identity of the "guy" referred to by Beaucana can never be ascertained but Trafficante was clearly in the best position to recruit ~~at least one~~ one of Castro's Cuban ministers due to his multitudinous contacts in the Cuban government and pentagon circles

000221A

It was common for American gangsters to have Cuban mistresses and Traffucante, Rottoman, and Truine were typical examples. Also, one witness told the Committee that Castro was accustomed to dining at the Macina Hotel (owned by Mike McKay) several times on a regular basis to visit one of his paramours. Thus, it would have been relatively easy for Traffucante to have arranged for a young woman to serve Castro and to attempt to poison him.

L. Maria Torony is a unassuming woman, to say the least, and her potential as an assassin recruited by Frank Stupis has been proved illusory. However, one interesting point is that she was also Thelma Torony's mistress and, there could have been solicited to activate the poison plot. Unfortunately, Torony is totally uncooperative but Torony was not asked about her relationship with Torony in Cuba so that we do not know the dated match.

Comment

Juan Orta, the man identified to the Agency as the gangster's contact in Castro's inner circle, was presumably enlisted by Traffucante, but to date former receipt of grand "hookups".

One fact is extremely bothersome however, in attempting to gauge the depth of the mob's solidarity in using Orta to execute the assassination plan. According to the ~~SECRET~~ FBI Report L-1022

Ota "lost his position in the Puerto Rican Office in July 1961, which planning for the operation was still going on in Miami and in Wash DC." According to the official version Ota accepted the pills in late February - early March 1961 and kept the pills for a couple of weeks before returning them." [1967 FBI Rpt p 275]

7.7. If the mob was close enough to Ota to have pills smuggled in and out of Cuba, then they had to know that Ota had lost his position of necessity. The other possibility was that the pills were left in the US and then were available to him at Havana when he was brought into the plot.

The question arises then, as to whether the mob was pursuing their own assassination plot and the CIA operation or, what appears more likely, simply using the Bay for its ulterior motives previously outlined.

Turning to Phase II of the operation which began in April 1962, ~~there is~~ the same possibilities exist. If Hany and O'Connell are correct in assuming that Hany had walked into an "ongoing operation, then ~~it is~~ it can be assumed that the mob's relationship with de Verna, which predated the CIA participation according to the FBI Summary of 21 Dec 1960, and 18 Jan 1961 had continued uninterrupted after the Bay of Pigs with the receipt of the CIA's participation, funding and material support could, once again, be returned to the Agency although de Vanna would continue to deal through his not contacts, Russell and "Mac".

it can

lack of intent or

True to the loose structure of Phase II in terms of the ambiguous nature of the operational means of attack, the lack of identity of the potential assassins, the complete reliance of Harry upon Russell and not that whether was actually being used not, the Agency's ability to corroborate Russell's information, the speculation arises that the syndicate was not serious trying to assassinate Castro after the Bay of Pigs fiasco and the solidification of Soviet influence on Castro's Cuba. Being settled summarized Trappanite, banking and other from Cuba casinos through must have believed that the "golden game" of Barrow had laid its last egg, and that fortune would be made elsewhere. Certainly, the evidence shows strongly influence in the Bahamas, Las Vegas, and Trappanite projects in the Panama Republic and a new agony for Florida with the influence of Cuban whites. It was also abundantly clear that the new Justice Department program on organized crime would never permit the "wide-open" Cuba of the pre-tenure era if even if Castro and all his Communist associates could be eliminated. SECRET

Despite the uncertainty

0092217 business sense in continuing the paramilitary attempts against Castro in a substantive way.
 There still was a percentage in "stringing the Agency along." First, there was no upside to the syndicate because the Agency was providing full logistical support for Urova. Second, there was the mounting pressure from the ~~State~~ FBI and Justice Department which had to be blunted, if possible.
 No better weapon to accomplish this goal could be found than to use one agency (CIA) against another (FBI).

1. Robert Mahan

 later when Mahan was Hughes' principal agent]

1) It is quite likely that Roselli is the source, Morgan the channel, and Anderson and Pearson the recipients

(p 120)

- We may now assume that Pearson's story is not patched together from bits and pieces picked up here and there. His ultimate source Roselli, knows more about certain details than we do, and he evidently has talked

(p 120)

- Impact

The Roselli boom contact in Las Vegas in March is particularly disturbing. It lends substance to reports that Castro had something to do with the Kennedy assassination in retaliation for US attempts on Castro's life. We do not know that Castro actually tried to retaliate, but we do (CIA emphasis) know that there were such plots against Castro. Unhappily, it now appears that boom may also have been this (p 122)

Client, Hughes. There might be some value to be gained from endorsing his suggestion that he approach Morgan and perhaps Roselli and vice versa.

- The Pearson story, which is now causing so much distress, includes one detail that is not found in Phase Two: the three-man team
Comment

Not necessary since Pearson was involved in Phase One also, he may have begun the 3-man team initially and may have used Roselli on the concept in Phase Two or Roselli just didn't mention the 3-man team to Mahan or O'Connell during Phase I
Comment

- In figuring out "ulterior motives" for a leak to Pearson, Agency makes the following point:

If protection was what the source was seeking, he could be better assured of getting it by a direct approach to CIA for help. Since Agency can figure an ulterior motive, they decide that Roselli is doubly too much and ~~too~~ ^{too} ~~close~~ ^{close} to Morgan who is also doubly as fully to be regarded as Pearson's

Even Pearson has not yet, as far as we know, used two of his best guards in the story of the job and the fact of the State Dept. meeting.

c. CIA trace (sent in early 1961 & again in early 1962) supplied lethal pills to US. gambly syndicate members. . . . The 1961 plot aborted & pills were recovered.

These furnished in April 1962 passed of gambly rep. to a Cuban wife leader in Fla who in turn, had them sent to Cuba about May 1962. In June 1962, the wife leader would that a team of 3 men had been dispatched to Cuba to recruit for the operation.

of . . . "While the events described of the Cuban did occur & are subject to being patched together as the one complete story, the implication of a direct, causative relationship among them is unproven."

Q 18: During the week of 25 Sept 1960, O'Connell's Makin went to Miami where Roselli introduced my Makin to "Sam Gold" at a meeting in the Fontainebleau Hotel. "Gold" said he had a man whom he identified only as "Joe", who would serve as a courier to Cuba & make arrangements there. Makin pointed out "Gold" to O'Connell from a distance but O'Connell never met either "Gold" or "Joe".

Q 19: At that time the gambly career was still operating in Cuba. Truffante was making regular trips between Miami & Havana as syndicate runner.

(Joe; the courier was on track with a disguised Cuban official with access to Castro and personally of a sort that would enable him to smuggle any poison Castro. The gangster named them man inside as Juan Ota who was then Office Chief and Director of the office of the Puma Mountain. As passed the pills to Tray. Roselli reported to O'Connell that the pills had been delivered to Ota in Cuba. Ota is understood to have kept the pills for a couple of weeks before returning them. According to the gangster, Ota got cold feet.

p. 34. O'Connell believes he must have raised the pills, but he has no specific recollection of doing so.

p. 49. Roselle needed Brian & Troff in the first phase as a means of establishing contacts inside Cuba. He did not need them in the second phase because he had Vernon. However, it would be naive to assume that Roselle did not take the precaution of informing higher ups in the syndicate that he was working in a territory considered to be the private domain of someone else in the syndicate.

p. ~~47~~⁵¹ June 1962 Harry said they appeared to have no specific plan for killing Castro. They were to recruit others who might be used in such a scheme. If an opportunity to kill Castro presented itself, they or the persons they recruited were to make the attempt. ^{perhaps using the pills.}

p. 67. Major Sam-Toner's article of 16 August 1963 cites Justice Dept belief that Oswald never did any spying - merely pretended to go along "in the hope that the Justice Dept done to put him behind bars might be slowed or at least affected by his use of co-operation w/ ~~unsub~~ ~~got~~ ~~agency~~".

Trull puts his cooperation from 1959 to some time in 1960 - long before the abortive rebel invasion at the Bay of Pigs in April 1961. Reports McBain's bugging incident.

"The SSC Find Report has shifted to emphasize instead CIA operational activities against Cuba as requiring specific attention.

Review of Agency -

Persons ~~in charge~~ ^{was} know details of 1963
 & 1964 operations for the most part are no longer available. Primary reliance on records.

CIA has now conducted such a review - looking at "the other end" of a possible chain of evidence, which they had already could have started. This has produced no new evidence bearing on the assassination, altho' it has produced the basis for new lines of speculation. In fact, the review sometimes seemed to become a subtle exercise in trying to get back to the provocation being rather than being not to identify evidence actually bearing on the assassination of Pres. Kennedy. The review sometimes became out of a story if this Agency (which was not under review)
 could have provided clues to solve the assassination ~~SECRET~~ ^{SECRET} Kennedy but

Red Control learned of it. The SSC, in its Final Report, fell into this very trap, trying to make the AMTASH operation actually fit the theory for which the SSC's penetration seemed to be tailored!

Two C

AMTASH

The Agency had not a tentative relationship with this man during Pan Kennedy's life, altho the SSC Final Report - in trying to prove its thesis -- has attempted to present it differently. Because the case is discussed so extensively in the SSC Final Report, it is treated in a separate column in the paper at Tab D. The key point is that prior to Pan Kennedy's death the relationship ~~to~~ with AMTASH was ambiguous and without substance. Had Castro heard of it he could ~~not~~ claim only that there was a contact that had not developed to the point of an understanding.

p14 Now Consideration on the Supplanted Operation

In a column of stories by Paul Mitchell in the New York Daily News, of April 20-25, 1975 it quoted sources as follows:

"The Cuban Comintern scheme involved planting a bomb in Castro's office. I had across to the Prime Minister's office, Stueger said. F. Bruno Felli's parents security guard Orta. F recruited him to work with the Embassy (Russian Embassy in Havana).

"He (Stueger) has claimed on a number of occasions to have been an employee of CIA, although there is no record of any such relationship. He was in contact with some of the CIA Cuban employees in the Miami area, but had no direct relationships with the Agency.

Orta was the director of the office of the Prime Minister, which gave him ^{access} ~~access~~ that would make it possible for him to pass customs. The plan failed because Orta lost his position, and with it his access, in late June 1961. This was prior to delivery of the poison pills to him in late Feb or early March 1961. Orta's escape in this manner was over when he took refuge in the Venezuelan Embassy in Havana in April 1961. He was allowed to leave Cuba in October 1964 and settled in Miami in Feb. 1965.

and on 13 June 1974
 Same news source discuss a possible relationship between Stueger and Trappanese, also mentioning a former Robinson as a former partner of Trappanese. Office of Secy wrote a memorandum in 1975; noting a connection between Sturgis and Portman in 1960, citing FBI reports.

Reference that Sturgis's reports to have had a role in gambling was "on his availability due to his 'lost profits'." One could deduce that Sturgis and Carter could have known one another because of their connection with the gambling activities as well as having contacts with the men heading the gambling operations.

From 1976 Sturgis also reports claim by Maria (Mamie) Loreng that she acted on behalf of Sturgis in 1960 re pain pills in jar of face cream.

Quotes - FBI memo on "Vanna":
 "This seems to confirm some part involving a woman to kill Carter with poison known, the timing of events does not fit the time frame known to CIA. While consideration had been given to various schemes, there were no CIA pills for delivery until February 1961. It suggests that the syndicate may have been running ahead of its man!"

In fact, it is possible that Vanna already was involved in independent agitation with the ~~current~~ ~~syndicate~~

 when first appeared prior to 1947 in ~~Madrid~~ to ~~contact~~ the ~~United~~ ~~States~~. The 1947 DO Report refers to ~~two~~ ~~FBI~~ reports that bear on this.
 One of them, on 21 Dec. 1940, indicates support by the ~~current~~ ~~syndicate~~ for some of the Cuban exiles. The other report, on 18 Jan. 1941, suggests that Varna was one of these giving that support, altho' this was not confirmed.

... to late in June 64 another group
 plot in ~~Madrid~~ for 150,000.

Speculation that when ~~started~~ in April 1942 can appear just "blue over & smelly" already "ongoing".

It is possible that CFA simply found itself involved in providing additional resources for independent operations that the syndicate already had under way.

In a sense CFA may have been "piggy-backing" on the syndicate and in addition to its material contribution was also supplying an aura of official sanction.
