Tammy Fischer & LK Sheza Hayday Earn High-Money Title Over Cowboy Christmas

By Tanya Randall

"We did some driving," was the understatement of the year from multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Tammy Fischer.

In her quest for her sixth qualification, Fischer of Ledbetter, Texas, and her tough mare LK Sheza Hayday earned high-money honors over Cowboy Christmas and jumped from 31st in the WPRA World Standings into the Top 15.

Although the Forth of July doesn't official end until the conclusion of the $6,300-added Rooftop Rodeo in Estes Park, Colorado, tonight, no one can catch Fischer's impressive $29,133.

"It was the boost I needed," said Fischer, who went to last year's NFR as coach to WPRA Rookie of the Year Taci Bettis. "I was a little behind from the winter. It helped me catch up and gives me a chance to make it back to the NFR. That's where I want to be. I'd like to be running down the alley again instead of walking down with Taci."

Hauling partners, Fischer and Bettis started their Fourth of July run in at the $20,000-added Greeley Stampede in Colorado.

We were winning first and third when we left, but the ground was really bad—like three of the girls in our perf fell," said Fischer. "We left in two rigs because we were worried if they fixed the ground that we both wouldn't make it back, and we need separate rigs up there. Taci was going to Calgary (for the Stampede) and I wasn't." Fischer, who was traveling with her 8-year-old daughter Sydney and an intern from Costa Rica, had her husband Brian in the truck to help her drive. He had come out after Fischer lost an axle on her trailer while at the vet to pick up paperwork to cross into Canada. "I don't have my trailer," she noted. "When we got to Greeley we went to the vet to get Canadian papers and my axle on my trailer messed up. It's a custom order axle so it's three weeks out. Brian had to bring me a trailer from Texas."

That was the only major equipment failure on the trip thus far. "Over the Fourth we only had one blow out, which was good," she said. "It's been fairly uneventful."

Bettis and Fischer stayed in split rigs hauling from Greeley to Billings, Montana, where they left one trailer in case they needed to split on the return trip from Ponoka, Alberta.

Both did well in Ponoka during an afternoon performance—Fischer ended up ninth, while Bettis finished seventh—before running at the $5,000-added Airdrie Rodeo that night. From Airdrie, they dropped back down to the $12,500-added Livingston Roundup in Montana before returning to Ponoka for the short round Tuesday afternoon.

"The second time we went into Canada, they stopped us at the

Add Waddell Remembered

The memorial service for Add Waddell will be held next Sunday evening, July 15th at 7 pm at the Jim Shoulders Living Legends Rodeo Arena, Henryetta, Oklahoma.

Add Waddell was one of the most recognized names in the barrel racing industry. He was known not only for his outstanding training ability and award-winning horses but also as a great horseman.

Due to this unexpected and absolutely devastating loss of a wonderful man, his family is left with the heartbreaking burden of trying to settle this tragedy. Since Add was such a giving person, the equestrian community have set up a gofundme account to help with expenses. You can donate to the family through www.gofundme.com/add-waddell-memorial. This fundraiser will go directly to his son Addison "Little Add" Waddell.

Five Year Old Futurity Added to Kinder Cup

The Kinder Cup Barrel Racing Championship, held each year at the Grand Coushatta Casino in Kinder, LA, will debut a five year old futurity in addition to the BFA 4 year old futurity and $100,000 slot race. Andre' Dohrn, Show Owner and Producer, announced the change after significant requests from top national barrel horse owners, trainers and enthusiasts. She said, "We value and appreciate the feedback and suggestions from our loyal contestants. The $100,000 race will be back in 2019. The Barrel Futurities of America and that $20,000 added futurity will remain as a marquee race at the Kinder Cup. Adding a $7,500 added five year old futurity allows us the opportunity to serve our valued contestants in a new and exciting way."

In 2018 the Kinder Cup paid out $421,000 in total prize money. Show Producer Ryan Dohrn said, "We have been producing events in Kinder for 12 years. 2019 will be the biggest payout in the history of any event held at the casino. We expect that adding the five year old futurity will push the total payout closer to our goal of paying out $450,000! We welcome all feedback and suggestions."

Show Owners and Producers Ryan and Andre' Marie Dohrn are thrilled to welcome barrel racers from across the USA back to Kinder, LA in 2019 to the Grand Coushatta Casino. The 2019 dates are January 31 – February 3.

Pink Buckle to payout $1 Million

The Pink Buckle, which is the cooperative effort of the owners of 40 stallions, has announced the dates for the inaugural Pink Buckle Barrel Race, to be held Oct 5-7, 2018 at the Lazy E Arena, Guthrie, OK. This event will include a Futurity with a Futurity Amateur Division and an Open 4D with a Youth Incentive. The guaranteed payout of $1 Million Dollars will revolutionize the barrel horse industry!

The goals of the Pink Buckle are to create an exciting opportunity for owners of horses sired by Pink Buckle Stallions. The Pink Buckle Barrel Race gives them the chance to run at an event that pays much more than any other barrel race. Additionally, Pink Buckle Stallion owners will gain exposure and interest in their world-class breeding programs. Barrel horses are elite-level equine athletes and this event will reward everyone monetarily for their excellence in the arena.

Plans to televise a program featuring the event are underway with RFD-TV and FloRodeo will live webcast the race.

Only horses sired by Pink Buckle Stallions are eligible to enter and run for the guaranteed $1 million dollar payout. The Futurity is for horses 4 or 5 years old. The purse will be distributed to the horse owners, stallion owners and breeders. The 4D will be figured on half-second splits and have an equal payout for each 'D' which means that all skill levels of horses and riders have a chance to win big checks!

- $550,000 Futurity (4 or 5 yr olds) guaranteed payout
- $50,000 Amateur Futurity guaranteed payout
- $400,000 Open 4D guaranteed payout ($100,000 in each 'D')
- $20,000 Youth Incentive (14 & under) guaranteed payout

The stallions enrolled in the Pink Buckle represent the best in the industry and we are excited to showcase their offspring in this exciting new way! For a list of stallions or more information go to www.PinkBuckle.com.

DDBHC Moves Back To Bryan

According to the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic Facebook Page, the 2019 Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic will be moving back to Bryan, TX and held in the Brazos County Expo Complex. The last couple years the event was held in Waco, TX after the first several years were held in Bryan. The dates have also been pushed back a couple weeks to April 1-7 for the 2019 event.

border,” she noted. “We sat there for two hours. We were making great time and were going to have a couple hours to let the horses rest and we lost all our time sitting there. They decided it was nothing and let us go.”

At Ponoka, Fischer won the short go and was second on the two-run average and advanced to the Showdown later that evening. With the that money counting, Fischer had to stay and run. She finished second again and picked up $11,307.

Yet, back stateside, Fischer had finished tied for 9th at Greeley and had made the short round. With Greeley 18.5 hours away, she was going to have to hustle in and out of the arena.

“We didn’t get out of (Ponoka) until 10:30,” she explained. “We stopped in Billings, Montana, unloaded Taci’s horses and stuff at the other rig. I walked and watered mine. We weren’t stopped 15 minutes. Put their feed in (the trailer) because it was coming daylight, loaded them up and kept going. I think we stopped twice for fuel and just watered them while they were in the trailer.”

Fischer pulled into Greeley 15 minutes after the rodeo started. She and Ziva finished fourth in the short round and finish sixth in the average for $2,804.

There would be no rest for the weary yet, Fischer had to make 8 a.m. slack in Cody, Wyoming, the next morning.

“We got there at 7:15 and by 9:30 we were gone again to get to Cody,” she explained. “When we pulled up at Cody, Taci was walking out of her trailer to get her horse ready. I had time to take a shower and get my horse ready.”

She and Bettis finished one-two at the $25,000-added Rodeo. Fischer’s second-place finish after her second all-night drive was worth $7,740.

“That’s when you know your horse loves you—when you can haul them all night, give them an hour in their pen and go make that run,” she said. “She won fourth in the short at Greeley, drove all night and won second at Cody. She wants to barrel race. She loves it.”

From Cody, it was an all-day drive to the $10,000-added Oakley Independence Day Rodeo in Utah.

“We got to sleep that night for the first time,” she said. “We drove the next day to St. Paul and got to sleep that night and ran at St. Paul the next day. So, we had three all-days and all-nighters before we got to sleep at night.”

Fischer finished second at the $28,050-added St. Paul Rodeo in Oregon for her third largest payday of the Fourth—$7,282.

The most recent WPRA World Standings have Fischer sitting 15. However, the last two weeks-worth of Canadian Rodeos have yet to be included, so $11,307 is still missing from Fischer’s earnings.

“It gets a little calmer this week,” she noted. “I’m out in Estes Park tonight, we skip a day. I’m at Casper Wednesday, Sheridan Thursday and Colorado Springs Friday.”

Like Bettis, Fischer sold her younger backup horses, so it’s just

Nowlin & DJG Madison Join Top 15 Following Cowboy Christmas

By Tanya Randall

Tracy Nowlin of Nowata, Oklahoma, and her gritty mare DJG Madison ("Dolly Jo") picked up $24,439 over Cowboy Christmas to break into the WPRA Top 15.

"It was really good," said Nowlin of her Fourth of July rodeo run. "It would have been a whole lot better if I hadn't of hit some barrels."

At press time, she was likely to add to that total as she was placing well at Estes Park, Colorado, which also counts as official Cowboy Christmas Rodeo by the WPRA office. The $6,300-added Rooftop Rodeo concluded Tuesday night.

Nowlin's strong Cowboy Christmas bumped her from 24th to within the Top 15. Nowlin currently sits 12th with $51,102 as of the July 9 WPRA Standings; however, the last two weeks of Canadian rodeos including Williams Lake and Ponoka weren't yet included.

With her mother Beverly Postrach as her co-pilot, Nowlin started her Cowboy Christmas run the $15,000-added World's Oldest Rodeo in Prescott, Arizona.

"I was the first barrel racer out at the whole rodeo and won the first round," said Nowlin. Unfortunately, a slip in the second round resulted in penalty and took them out of the average. Their first-round victory was worth $2,373.

From Prescott, they drove to Greeley, Colorado, for their first run at the $20,000-added Stampede. Although Nowlin ultimately ended up sixth in the round, she worked two other rodeos before returning for the short round on July 3.

At the $12,500-added Roundup in Livingston, Montana, Nowlin and Dolly Jo finished 13th for $500 before heading to Belle Fourche, South Dakota. Unfortunately, they had no luck at the $7,000-added Black Hills Roundup.

"I hit the first barrel on the back side," she noted. "It was my fault I dropped my hand too soon."

Then it was back to Greeley, where they tied for the Finals win with Jana Bean and Dashing Klee and won the average on two for total earnings of $8,676. She didn't have long to celebrate the victory because she was out in morning slack at the $25,000-added Cody Stampede in Wyoming.

"We drove all night to Cody," she said. "She made a good run, Ziva carrying the load. Bred by Aimee Kay of Bluff Dale, Texas, Ziva is by two-time WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday out of the great Pie In The Sky mare Sheza Peasa Pie. Fischer got the mare two years ago from Kappy Allen on a partial trade for MP Quick Money, the PC Frenchmans Hayday gelding that helped carry Fischer to her last NFR appearance.

She said the 8-year-old mare has done great over the Fourth.

"I didn't get a check at Airdrie, I didn't get a check at Livingston and I didn't get a check at Oakley. I was just barely out, probably one or two out, at all of them. She never hit a barrel.

"At Oakley, they rolled me, and I was 13th on the ground. Only one person in my perf got a check. She made a great run, especially for 13th on the ground. It was just super deep. I couldn't ask her do any more than she was doing."

"Probably the worst run I made over the Fourth was Livingston. She bobbed at the first and second. I wouldn't say bad; she didn't run by anything, just a little bit lazy. You just can't bobble out here. With 100 to 150 entered at every place you go, you don't have room for mistakes. You've got to make perfect runs every single time."

Fischer said that Ziva has made the rodeo run out west easier on her in the fact that she seems to like the same pens as her late great horses Easy Dash Oak ("Roundpen") did.

"I haven't decided yet if it's the horses or if it's me that likes the pens, but it's made entering easier," she said. "I just enter what I always liked on him and she's done good at the same places and liked it, so it's worked out really well."

With her daughter having qualified for the Jr NFR in Las Vegas, the pressure is on for Fischer to make it as well.

"We're trying to get it all done out here," she chuckled. "I'm the only one in the trailer that isn't qualified for Vegas. She asks me after every run, 'Does that mean we get to all go to Vegas now?' I'm getting closer." --BRR but we ended up one or two out (of the money).”

Dolly Jo was saving her best runs for Oregon. She and Nowlin won the $28,050-added St. Paul Rodeo for their biggest payday of the Fourth, $9,103. They went right down the road to place second behind Stevi Hillman and Cautro Fame at the $5,000-added Eugene Pro Rodeo for another $2,122.

“We had another 900-mile drive to Oakley (Utah for the $10,000-added Independence Day Rodeo),” she related. “I hit barrel there too.”

Nowlin, who wanted to thank her family and sponsors for their support, concluded her Fourth of July run at Estes Park on Monday night in the slack after the performance.

“Poor Dolly,” laughed Nowlin, thinking about the exhausting past week. “She’d probably thinks it’s easy though. She was a calf horse in her ex-life.”

Nowlin purchased the 12-year-old brown mare, by Royal Blue Chew Chew, a stakes-winning son of Royal Quick Dash, out of the double-bred Streakin Six mare Run Madison, owned by Donald and Janice Guthrie, three years ago. She found the mare on Facebook and was looking for a calf horse for her son Ty.

After roping on the mare, she knew Dolly Jo wouldn’t work for her son, but thought she’d take her through the barrels before she took her back. Although Dolly Jo didn’t know much about the barrels it wasn’t long before Nowlin had her running at pro rodeos.

“She’s a trooper,” Nowlin said of Dolly Jo. “What can I say, she loves her job!”

After good start last spring, Nowlin tried to make an NFR run in 2017 only to have it cut short by a nagging shoulder injury.

“Last year, I came out, but went home after Cody because my shoulder was bothering me so bad,” she said. Nowlin had surgery this winter. “It’s holding up pretty good since hasn’t really been that long after the surgery. It’s a little sore from all the driving.”

Next up for Nowlin after Estes Park, is Casper and Sheridan,

McKinney & WRS Kool Memories Ice Competition

Q&A with Elaina McKinney

BRR: Can you walk us through your run the Shootout? How was it compared to your Round 1 & 2 runs?

McKinney: This whole weekend he fired hard and worked outstanding. He had 3 consistent runs throughout the week, and he had a good, smooth run the first round, and each round after that he seemed like he ran harder and harder and stayed focused!

BRR: What was your pre-run mental preparation and warmup routine before your run in the Shootout?

McKinney: The temperature was so hot during the week, we tried to not over do anything because it was so hot. We tried to warm him up quickly and tried everything we could to not overheat him. We had the mindset to go in and make a smooth, fast run.

BRR: Your horse, WRS Kool Memories, we have seen win a bunch over the past several years; tell us about your horse and what makes him such a special performer.

McKinney: He is always trying the best he can to work and is always wanting to please. He always gives 110% when he runs. He is more like a family member than an animal to us and I think he knows that.

BRR: Does your horse have any special humorous quirks?

McKinney: He loves his treats and he is always expecting one after he runs. He also always wants to lay down and roll after you take the saddle off. We try to always take him somewhere after he runs to let him lay down and roll.

BRR: How did you end up barrel racing and what do you love about the sport?

McKinney: It runs in the family, my dad and papa have trained many top barrel horses, including WRS Kool Memories. I love the amazing people we're able to meet, the thrill of the sport and the teamwork involved between the jockey and their equine athlete.

BRR: Do you have a role model in barrel racing? Who is it and why do you look up to them?

Simple Solutions, Scientifically Proven®

"East Texas heat and humidity is brutal, especially during the summer months. That is why I keep Firewaterontherocks and my horses in training on Summer Games Electrolyte year around to replace minerals lost in sweat and to encourage drinking."

—Robyn Herring, WPRA barrel racer and owner of the million-dollar sire Firewaterontherocks

CHALLENGE:

- Competing in hot, humid climates
- Dehydration
- Lack of stamina in hot weather
- Non-sweater
- Poor drinker when shipping or competing
- Prone to tying-up

SOLUTION:

Summer Games® Electrolyte

Summer Games
research-proven formula:

- Encourages drinking
- Maintains energy levels and reduces muscle fatigue
- Replenishes key electrolytes and trace minerals
- Supports electrolyte balance, reducing the risk of dehydration, non-sweating and tying-up

Youth World Finals Continued From Page 33

McKinney: I have always looked up to my papa (Bob McKinney), we ride everyday together, and I am always learning from his past experiences in the horse industry. He and my dad are the talent behind all our success and I am forever grateful for them and the things they have taught me.

BRR: If you could share one piece of advice to other youth barrel racers, what would it be?

McKinney: Don't give up, barrel racing has a lot of highs and lows but how you get through it only makes you stronger in the end. No matter how much you win or accomplish; without Jesus Christ we have nothing.

McKinney: I would also like to say that I give all the glory to God and a big thank you to all my family, friends and sponsors for everything, because we wouldn't be where we are today without them.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Mike is a pilot and when we had our plane, he was always giving me tidbits of info. I didn't always get it, but the general drift of things stuck. I mean, who doesn't understand him tapping on the panel and saying, "Uh oh..."

He said there were three things to remember. Aviate, navigate and communicate. Aviate = fly the darn plane! Navigate = stay on course! Communicate = listening and obeying the person who's directing you from a tower somewhere close by (or not).

Well, the other day he used those three things to illustrate what to do when times get tough. I'm stealing them for you.

If we run into trouble, we DO NOT throw our hands in the air and quit. Never. We take the Bible and we run through what we know about God and how He helps us through. We aviate the Word.

Step two, we use the word of God to keep us on course and we don't listen to CNN to get an answer.

Step three, my favorite. Sometimes when we can't see (like when we are in a cloud), it is so comforting to talk to someone who CAN see. They can see what's close to you, any dangerous terrain ahead and when you'll fly out of that cloud. They can talk you through some inclement weather.

Our loving heavenly Father is better than any old radar. His voice will comfort us and lead us through and out of trouble..Safe landings this week!!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
