MASON CLUB TO STAGE PLAY FOR BOOK FUND

Ghost House to be Presented Next November 11 and 12.

Cast of Characters Announced For Ghost House, a Three-Act Mystery Drama.

Rehearsals are being held for Ghost House, the three-act mystery drama to be presented by the Mason Child Study club next Friday and Saturday, November 11 and 12, in the Mason school auditorium. Seven cast of characters has been picked and Miss Doris Cash, the director, says that the production promises to be one of the best ever staged here. The proceeds from the show are to be used by the Child Study club to maintain library service and to purchase additional volumes, it is said.

Miss Cash, the director, has been in Mason the past week helping in the selection of the cast. She says that many of those chosen have had amateur experience and that lines are being rapidly learned. Ending Campaign

The action of the play depends on the combined elements of mystery and drama, the director says. Old Brown Manor, homestead of Augustus Brown, is the setting in which the mysterious events of the March night take place. While chill winds blow outside, the five heirs of Brown are gathered to hear the reading of the will at midnight. The five heirs are Martha Brown, a charming, refined woman, played by Miss Sylvia Barbour; Barbara Brown, her lovely niece, played by Miss Mary Bullen; Donald Kent, a sophisticated man about town, taken by Harold Bell; Mrs. Bates, a domineering social climber, taken by Mrs. Marie Smith; and her meek little husband, played by Edward Bell.

RECORD BREAKING VOTE EXPECTED FOR TUESDAY

Heated Campaign and Eight Proposals Create Interest.

Election officials put supplies and equipment in order for heavy voting. Next Tuesday a record breaking vote is forecast. The heated national, state and local campaigns of the republican and democratic and the interest manifested in the eight propositions on the amendment ballot will bring voters to the polls in record numbers, election officials believe. The entry of Grant M. Hudson as a sticker candidate in the congressional race is also expected to add to the voting. Workers for Mr. Hudson are holding a series of church meetings this week to urge the candidacy of the dry leader.

RAIN DURING OCTOBER HEAVIEST SINCE 1864

TOTAL OF 5.47 INCHES FELL ON 13 DAYS OF OCTOBER. Only twice during period since any records have been kept has the total been exceeded. Rain during the past month was the heaviest October rainfall in any year since 1884. The rain during October of this year amounted to a total of 5.47 inches, according to the records of the weather bureau at M. M. Bowers at the sewage disposal plant. Forty-eight years ago, in October of 1884, the rainfall was a fraction more, 5.73 inches. The only other October during the period since 1863 that the rainfall exceeded that of the past month was in 1875 when 5.81 inches were recorded. Records do not exist for periods earlier than 1863, but since 1863 there have been only two wetter Octobers than in 1932.

Normal Temperatures

October was average in temperature. The average mean temperature of the past month was 49.5 degrees against a 50-year average of 50.3 for October. October 16 was the warmest day when the temperature registered to 76 degrees. Two days before on October 14 the mercury dropped to 27 degrees, the low point for the month. On October 14 and October 28 came the only two killing frosts of the month. On October 13 there was just a trace of snow which soon melted. There were 13 rainy days during the past month. The heaviest rainfall was on October 4 when 1.52 inches came. The next day .30 of an inch was added. On October 10 nearly an inch of rain fell and it also rained some on each of the four days following.

PRESIDENT HOOVER

Mason's second annual Hallowe'en party was an unqualified success in every way. Little Interest Shown in Local City Ticket

One year ago the campaign for city offices was at white heat with two complete weeks of campaigning. This year the Citizens party, the old established non-partisan party, did not make any nominations but urged the members to join with the Peoples party so that only one ticket would be in the field. With but one ticket for the city officers, the race is slight. At first there were rumors that a candidate would run on stickers but no sticker candidate has yet appeared.

When the first heavy fall of snow arrives this winter the county road commission will be ready to go into action. Saturday 10 new snow plows were purchased so that Ingham county highways can be kept open. Huge Loss Sustained in Fire Near Leslie

HARRY KILBURN LOSES BARN, GRAIN AND TOOLS.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed two barns, a large shed, considerable grain and many farm tools at the farm of Harry Kilburn, three miles north of Leslie, Wednesday night. The fire was discovered by Fred Disenroth, a neighbor, about 10 o'clock. Then flames were shooting high in the air. No one was at home at the Kilburn farm. Mr. Disenroth summoned the Leslie fire department but such headway had been gained by the flames that efforts to save the farm buildings were futile.

EDEN L. A. S. TO MEET.

The Eden L. A. S. will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smalley on Wednesday, November 9, for potluck dinner.

Three-Cornered Congressional Race

Number three seems to be the predominant figure in the campaign for congressman in the sixth congressional district. The district is made up of three counties, Ingham, Livingston and Genesee. There are three major contenders in the race, Claude B. Cady, democrat, from Genesee; Seymour H. Person, republican; and Grant M. Hudson, formerly the republican congressman, but who now seeks election as an independent. All three men are from Ingham county. Mr. Person and Mr. Cady being residents of Lansing, and Mr. Hudson being a resident of East Lansing.

The entry of Grant M. Hudson, the third man, complicates the race between the republican and democratic nominees. Prophets seem to fall in two classes. The first group insists that Mr. Hudson will draw his dry support, chiefly from Genesee. The second group prophesies that Mr. Hudson will draw three votes from Cong. Person to one from Mr. Cady. Some of the prophets in the second group claim they are close to the Hudson camp.

Queer Tax Relief

Throughout Michigan there is being displayed in various places of business, a placard which proposes the repeal of the Michigan weight tax law as applied to motor vehicles and substituting in its place a fee of one dollar for permanent plates good for the life of the car. At the bottom of the window display poster there is a line in bold face type which reads, "The merchant displaying this poster is aiding in tax reduction."

In 1931 legislation was enacted which is now sent back to the counties to permit the taking over of township highways to be maintained out of county funds, $2,500,000 in 1932 and growing each year in amount until $4,500,000 annually will be made available at which time all township highways of the state will be off the local tax rolls.

At the special session of 1932, all the remaining weight tax was sent back to the counties to replace the property tax for the support of highways. In Ingham county because of the fact no highway bonds remain unpaid, the entire sum is immediately available for highway purposes, resulting in the entire elimination of the property tax in townships, cities and the county at large for road maintenance and improvement.

Every citizen's first duty next Tuesday is to cast his vote. Whether he be a republican or a democrat or a member of one of the other seven parties on the ballot his duty remains the same; he should vote for someone or something. We are all too prone to let important things go by default.

Now certain selfish interests are engaged in promoting a scheme to kill such relief legislation by destroying the source of revenue which produces nearly $20,000,000 annually to replace the tax formerly levied against property.

Let us take a concrete example of how inconsistent some people may become in their tax thinking. A certain Ingham county farmer residing within five miles of Mason has considerable land and personal property. He paid a smart solicitor a dollar, 60 cents of which went direct to the pocket of said solicitor, the remaining 40 cents going to higher-up salaried officials of a high pressure promotional scheme.

In 1931 this same farmer paid on his property, in addition to other taxes, the sum of $25.87 in county and township road taxes. In 1932 there will not be a single penny levied against his property for highway taxes. He has already received 100 per cent tax reduction in road taxes—and without any dollar paid to phoney tax reduction schemes.

Can it be that this farmer is willing to pay some clever solicitor a dollar to save him the price of a $10 set of license plates (this farmer operates a Ford sedan) when by that very act he will bring about the elimination of the fund from which he has already been saved $25.87?

Is the merchant displaying the poster and promoting this scheme aiding in tax reduction? There are plenty of people running about attempting to cheat the farmer without paying them a dollar apiece to do it.

More than half a million dollars of motor tax money will come into county coffers during 1933 to replace the property tax for highway purposes. More than $600,000 of this goes direct upon country roads. Are property owners in large numbers to be found who want to pay a dollar each to defeat the only real tax relief they have ever received?

Good Manners

Crowds at university football games could improve their manners. Improved manners would not only make better football; it would help to show visitors that victory is not the sole end in view. Michigan is no worse or no better than other large schools. At the Princeton game Saturday Michigan supporters were not only guilty of a breach of manners; they proved themselves lacking in sportsmanship on several occasions. Twice the stands made such an uproar while the Princeton quarterback was barking signals that the signals had to be called over. So much time was consumed in the repeating of signals that the visitors were penalized. Then again when a 15-yard penalty was inflicted on Princeton and the ball was placed on the Tigers' 5-yard stripe Michigan sent up one of the biggest cheers of the game.

Such tactics and such a display of poor manners are unworthy of any college or high school. They should be specially distasteful to Michigan where fair play and sportsmanship is traditional.

Followers of horse racing cheer their own horse for speed and the rider for horsemanship. They don't cheer when another horse breaks a leg. Golfers do not cheer when their opponent slices a ball out of bounds. Michigan supporters show poor taste when they cheer because a penalty is inflicted on the opposing team.

The members of the team are not at fault. They are taught true sportsmanship. The students, too, are probably not greatly at fault. But the students, while in a minority at the game, could set such an example that the general public would fall in line and save their cheers for some feat performed by the Michigan team. Michigan would win just as many football games and the laurels won by Michigan would be more becoming. Michigan may not be able to improve on its brand of football but Michigan manners can be improved with benefit to the game.

Football players are supposed to be taught true sportsmanship. The same lessons should be passed around among the spectators.

The successful Hallowe'en party staged by Mason business men Monday night again proves that children are not so hard to get along with.

Bank Bandits

The hue and cry about bank bandits is once again with us. For the past two or three years Michigan has been comparatively free from bank holdups. Vigilante associations hurriedly formed three and four years ago were disbanded and state police were given the credit for stamping out banditry. They did not deny it.

But for some reason or other, perhaps because the air is filled with political oratory, the radio network of the state police has failed the past month in stopping the robbing of banks. In the Monroe instance it would seem that the Monroe police were at fault in not catching the bandits. Had the detective who rushed to the entrance of the bank when the alarm was sounded used discretion instead of valor he might have hidden across the street and picked off the bandits when they left the bank.

Bank banditry can be stopped in only one way. That one and only method is to have better organization among law officers than exists among robber bands. When bank officials and employees and city and state police forces get together and really organize for battle against robbery then robbery will be made more difficult.

When bank robbers meet a hail of lead, bank robbery will cease to be classed as an occupation of slight hazard. When policemen are trained to hunt bandits as dangerous game then banditry will be lessened.

It takes more than a radio network to catch bank bandits. The catching of bandits is best accomplished by close co-operation between all forces in which jealousy and hope for individual credit is sacrificed to efficiency.

A Plain Duty

Every citizen's first duty next Tuesday is to cast his vote. Whether he be a republican or a democrat or a member of one of the other seven parties on the ballot his duty remains the same; he should vote for someone or something. We are all too prone to let important things go by default. Here in Mason we sit around and criticize the caucus of one party or the other but we fail to attend the caucus and vote for who and what we think is right. We sit idly by and let minority groups in state and nation walk off with the spoils. We remain quiet while gangs take possession of our cities. We appear to be so helpless at times.

Our attitude has brought us trouble. It may bring disaster to a republic such as ours. This is no monarchy where the franchise is restricted. This is the government of the people. If the government fails it is because we ourselves are failures. This representative government of ours represents us; it doesn't represent us as we should be. It represents us as we are with our virtues and our faults magnified a million-fold.

When 50 and 90 per cent of the electors begin to regularly vote at every election we can forget our fears over minority rule. When 80 and 90 per cent of those qualified to vote actually do vote then our government will enter a new era. Now we have government representative of not much more than half the people. It will not improve until at least 75 per cent of us show enough interest to vote.

Legislating Business

Kansas and Oklahoma have laws prohibiting public utility companies from entering the retail field. Not only are they prohibited from selling at retail, in Kansas they were forced from a field which they had pioneered. The Kansas law has been in operation for a year and here is the report made concerning its operation:

"The passage of the Kansas law resulted in the closing and vacating of 200 stores in Kansas and throwing 1500 trained employees out of their jobs. The passage of the law resulted in a tremendous falling off in the sales of appliances in the state of Kansas. One utility reports that whereas it sold 400 electric ranges in its territory in 1930, only five ranges were sold in the same territory by all the dealers combined after the law went into effect in August of last year. Instead of the independent dealers such as the hardware men and the furniture men securing added revenue from increased sales of appliances, as they had anticipated, statistics show that in Kansas 45 per cent of the appliance business after the passage of the law went to the chain and mail order stores; 15 per cent went to the department stores, and the hardware and furniture dealers obtained only one per cent of the appliance business."

It is an easy matter for one group of merchants to say, "That type of competition is unfair. If that utility company were out of business then all of us would enjoy greater profits." Such reasoning is faulty. Sales have to be made. They don't exist. Business doesn't grow on bushes ready to be picked. Business is developed by sound policies and programs. Forcing his competitor out of business may not help a merchant at all. It may actually result in harm.

Business can not be developed or passed around by legislation either in state or nation. Business is developed by initiative. It is usually a mistake to seek to control business by legislation.

Lansing is growing romantic. Now the board of water and electric light commissioners suggest that the lights be dimmed $10,000 worth a year. What a change! Three years ago Lansing wanted to be lighted up like Broadway. Now it is willing to dim the lights. Slowly all of us are learning our lessons, slowly we are losing our false pride.

Just how innocent are the three youths who are to be freed of the Bellevue bank robbery? The youths themselves admit that the time they have served for a crime they did not commit has been no more than their due. Then why talk about innocence? True, they were innocent of the crime for which they served but they were guilty of other crimes as bad. It is just a case of where society gained by a miscarriage of justice. Society is usually on the losing end.

Let's see now. A year or two ago we were worried over perpetual drought and now rainfall records have been set for two months in succession. One more item to prove that we uselessly worry over so many things.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 30, 1932.
Editor News:

In regard to the editorials about the writings of Prof. Terpenning I think you used none too strong language. It is a shame to have a class of city dwellers who can see no good in the country. They may acknowledge that the farmer is necessary to produce their food but consider him far beneath them in culture and intelligence. In regard to the separate reason for boys and girls which he so objects to let me state my experience. When I was a little shaver I remember the boys and girls had separate recesses in the forenoon and afternoon, but the noon recess from twelve to one was general. Fifty-one years ago this fact I started teaching my first term of country school and since have taught in six other country schools in four different counties. In all of them we had the general recess and no one ever mentioned that anything else had ever been the custom. Old Rip VanWinkle slept for 20 years but the learned professor must have slept for sixty years.

In an old opera the Mikado says his object is "To make the punishment fit the crime." In that case I should like to sentence Prof. Terpenning to a term of years on a farm;—he to support his family and pay interest and taxes from the proceeds of the farm, and, of course, send his children to a one room country school.

Speaking of taxes, some of our city papers are against the tax limitation amendment. They fear if it passes it will seriously cripple our institutions. Maybe so. Are our institutions for the people or are the people to be sacrificed that the institutions may survive? We might better close every institution of learning above the eighth grade in the state for a year or a term of years rather than any considerable number of families should lose their homes on account of inability to pay their taxes. Still I think our schools, prisons, etc., could manage to get along on a greatly reduced income. We have had to do it as individuals and families and still manage to keep off the "welfare list" if we have any income at all.

Your editorial on the so-called "Michigan Plan" was unnecessarily vitriolic. No plan can be proposed that will please everyone. It will have to be a compromise and I imagine this plan is as nearly fair as anything that will be adopted. I am going to vote no because it is the business of the legislature to re-district and because they shirked their duty in no reason why we, the people should do it for them.

Yours truly,
H. M. WELLS.

Idle dollars can be employed today at bargain prices. All commodities are at a low point, real estate is at a low figure.

Sheriff Silsby Says He Stands on His Record—Here's Part of It:

Ingham county in 1928 provided a salary basis for conducting the sheriff's office. The sheriff's salary annually is $10,000. A corps of twelve salaried deputies has been provided, at an annual expense of $14,800, making a total of salaries for the sheriff's office of $24,800. All fees collected were to be turned into the county treasurer. This was designed as an economy measure, but Sheriff Silsby has thwarted that purpose by appointing large numbers of special deputies without salary who serve papers in civil cases and conduct foreclosure sales and pocket the fees. This runs into a lot of money, at least into the thousands yet the sum total of all such fees turned into the treasury for the year ending October 1, 1932, was $361.50. In Jackson county with a smaller population than Ingham, for a similar period, the sheriff's office turned in $1904.48. Is this economy?

Sheriff Silsby has also been able to accomplish something for the benefit of the people which probably no one else could have done—

Jackson prison has within its walls some splendid entertainers. Sheriff Silsby has been able to accompany to a political meeting in Lansing the Chaplain of the state prison, the Harmony Kings, the Organ Melody Men, the Brown Buddies and their pianist, accompanied of course by a corps of attendants. Such a worthy purpose as furnishing the entertainment for a Republican meeting must be all right even if done by a paid public official.

Mr. Silsby's battle cry is efficiency. Did he not demonstrate some of his efficiency when our court house was robbed of several hundred dollars nearly two years ago, right across from his office? Did he capture the robbers? No, he did not.

And when the robbers were captured over a year later Silsby was on a trip to Texas with friends for several days. How can a sheriff look after the duties of his office and the well being of his people while he spends several long intervals in northern Michigan on vacations fishing or hunting?

Mr. Voter and Taxpayer, is it not about time we called a halt to this kind of efficiency? If you think it is let us elect Thomas H. Hanna to the office of sheriff. A man who will give his entire time and attention to the performance of the duties of the office of sheriff of Ingham county.

A Vote for Hanna is a Vote for Economy and Real Efficiency

This is contributed by Republican and Democratic friends of Thomas H. Hanna, who believe a change will be beneficial.

World Peace Sunday, Nov. 6. With startling clearness we now see that war, in its spirit and practice, is the negation of everything to which the gospel of Jesus Christ bears witness. War degrades human personality, sets brother against brother, and rejects the constructive power of love. Therefore, the church can be satisfied with nothing less than its complete abolition.

Sunday morning worship at 10. Good music and a sermon, also communion and consecration service. Sunday school 11:30. The general lesson on the topic, "The Christian and World Peace" will be discussed freely.

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the lesson sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, October 30.

Among the Bible citations was this passage (Isiah 45:7): "I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things." Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 540): "In Isiah we read: 'I make peace, and create evil.' I the Lord do all these things; but the prophet referred to divine law as stirring up the belief in evil to its utmost, when bringing it to the surface and reducing it to its common denominator, nothingness."

REP. V. J. BROWN SPEAKS ON AMENDMENTS. Under the auspices of the young peoples society of the Eden M. E. church, an evening devoted to the study of the amendments to be voted upon Nov. 8, Sunday, Nov. 6, Rep. V. J. Brown will speak. The several propositions will be explained and the probable effect of their adoption will be discussed. Opportunity for questions will be given at the close of the meeting. Never in the history of Michigan have more important questions been submitted to the electors than appear on the ballot this year, according to many informed people. The widespread interest taken by the voters in properly informing themselves has been evident in the large number of well attended meetings held throughout the state and county. Sample ballots will be available for those who desire them.

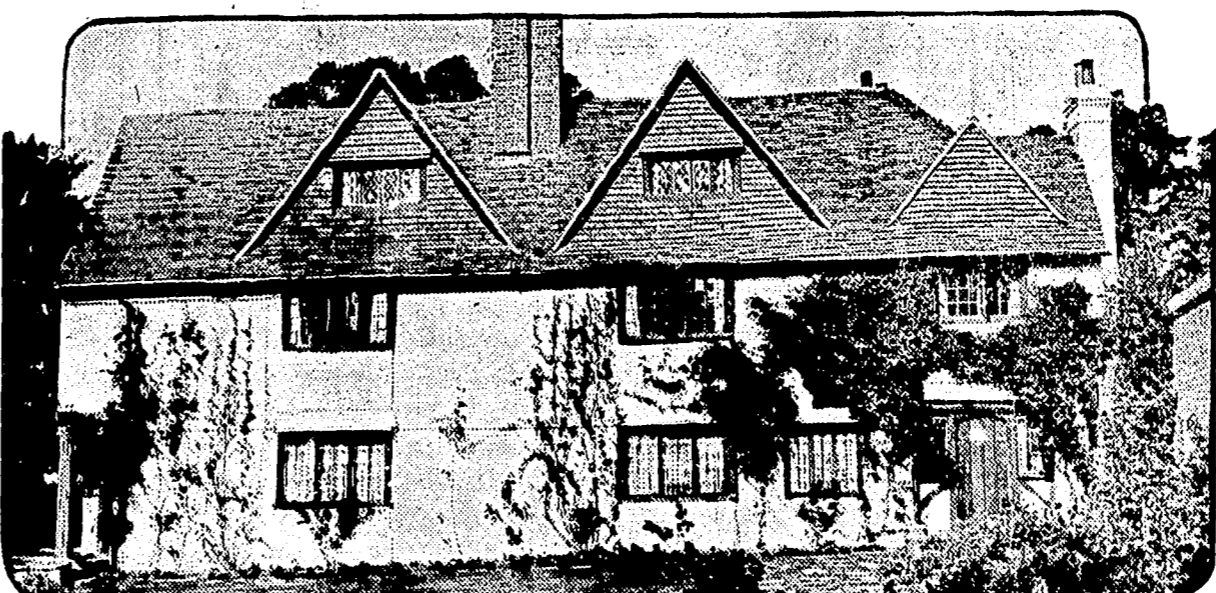

Mason Meets Trojans In Grid Tilt Friday

TWO HARD GAMES YET REMAIN FOR MASON MAROONS. Mason high school's football team journeyed to East Lansing Friday afternoon to take a whirl at the league-leading Trojans. East Lansing has not been tied nor beaten this year and Mason has no reason to believe the Maroons can turn the trick here on those grounds are eagerly awaiting the tilt. Hastings gave Mason a sound trouncing three weeks ago. Last week East Lansing beat Hastings 7 to 0. That leaves Mason looking rather hopeless but Coach Pierce says that his charges still retain their enthusiasm and that anything may happen in the Trojan tilt. Following the East Lansing game, Mason entertained Grand Lodge here on Armistice day for the last contest of the season.

Okemos and Vicinity

Okemos School Notes. The second marking period finds scholarship generally improved in the Okemos high school. The following students have done B average or better for the past month: Ethel Arend, Vera Bouts, Milton Eicher, Dorothy Field, Eleanor Woodworth, Helen Arend, William Cade, Eileen McCurdy, Bernard Coggan, Hugh Holloway, Josephine Jury, Ida Palen, Marion Smith, Arthur Griffith, Blanche Gross, Leona Jones, Margaret Lang, Betty Schubel, Edythe Smith, Delores Viane, Starr Kessler, Donald Laughlin, Ola Oakley, J. Brown, Doris Shields, Thelma White, Elsie Wood, Florence Harvey, Kelvin Kiebler, Eunice Moldenhauer, and Doris Powell. The following have done straight A work: Ethel Kelley, Margaret Evans, Dawn Clark, Blanche Aseltine, Clyde Raymond, Eloise Morris, Virginia Johnson, Mae Annette Loveless. The Indian eleven battled the heavy Lansing Eastern Reserves in a 0-0 tie Okemos field last Friday afternoon. Neither team was ever in easy scoring distance, yet both goals were threatened continually. Long runs were made by both the Eicher brothers and excellent blocking was done by Weaver and Nye. The Indian line was badly out-weighted by the invaders and was occasionally opened for long plunges, but held the greater portion of the time. Both sides were forced to punt repeatedly and Eastern usually gained ground in the kicking duel. The Indians were able to complete a few of the passes they tried but made some good gains in this way. No one was injured and the whole team will be ready to meet Dansville there next Friday at 3:15. Judge McArthur of the probate court of Ingham county will address the Okemos Community Sunday school Sunday morning, Nov. 6, on the subject, 'What is Wrong With the American Home.'

Alaiedon Begins Its Red Cross Roll Call

COMMITTEE IN CHARGE MAKES EARLY START IN WORK. Plans for the organization of Alaiedon township for the gathering of the Red Cross roll call during the week of November 14 are being completed. Mrs. Floyd Fogle has been appointed chairman for the township and is naming captains for each of the nine schools, who will act as assistants in organizing the various sections represented. Every resident will be given an opportunity to do his bit in helping out the work of this organization which ministers effectively in time of need. Alaiedon has recently been benefitted by the distribution of a quantity of cotton material received from the Red Cross to relieve the need for winter clothing in several families of this community. Supervisor Tyler reports that Alaiedon's relief problem is much less than in many nearby townships which seems a greater reason for the residents to be generous at this time by responding to the appeal for funds to help relieve the need in other places.

LESLIE

By Mrs. Ernest Sherman

At a Democratic rally held in the town hall Monday evening with approximately 75 people present, a large majority of which were farmers the following prominent men spoke on the issues represented, Howard Elliot, candidate for representative from the second district; Charles VanNote, candidate for circuit court commissioner; Claude Aldrich, candidate for county clerk; Charles Cummins, candidate for prosecuting attorney; Dan Riordan, representing Tom Hanna, candidate for sheriff. An outstanding statement of Mr. Elliot's was the fact that although the average person who complains of high taxes unintentionally or unwittingly often wish them upon themselves by demanding the improvements and things which perhaps would be beneficial but not especially necessary, and then blame the legislators for tax conditions. Last among the speakers to take the platform was Dan Mahoney of Lansing, a veteran salesman widely known throughout the state by his former connections with the International Harvester Co., in whose capacity he was a world wide traveler. Mr. Mahoney pleaded with those present to have faith in the Democratic party by voting a straight ticket, and to give the young men of the county a chance to help break the present depression. This was without doubt the largest gathering of Democrats in Leslie for years. Attorney Frank Fogg presided as chairman.

Mrs. Brucker Speaks
Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, at an impromptu meeting held in the town hall Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, addressed an audience of about 200 men and women. The governor's wife spoke at length on state and national issues, especially stressing that the state should continue the present administration to bring about a reduction of taxes in Michigan to a worthwhile degree. Accompanying her was Mrs. B. D. Niles, who read the amendments to be submitted at next Tuesday's election and explained the significance of each as they applied to her with an especial plea to the women of Leslie to vote against the first proposed. Mrs. C. M. Cade, president of the Letitia Chandler club of Ingham county, was also present and expressed her views.

Assembly singing and a piano duet by Mrs. Lucine Brown and Mrs. Ivah Rex brought the program to a close. At the business meeting Mrs. Hazel Rossman and Mrs. Sybil Edwards were appointed as a committee to purchase a flag for the club room to replace the one now in use. Next Tuesday evening a Red Cross and Armistice program will be presented at which time war veterans and young men and boys of the community are especially invited guests to hear Marvin Brown, who will be present and relate personal experiences in the World War. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Clara Kiduff, Mrs. Sybil Edwards and Mrs. Alice Hammond. Mrs. Sadie Jones as hostess to the afternoon meeting of the Out-Look club introduced Mrs. Elva VanCamp, as a guest, who during the meeting reported on the book "New Voices", and also pleased with a reading. Quietest Hallowe'en In Sheriff's Memory

NOT A SINGLE COMPLAINT RECEIVED BY SHERIFF.

In past years the sheriff's department has been a busy place on Hallowe'en but this year not a single complaint was received, says Sheriff Silsby. He declares that the parties sponsored by Mason business men this year and last year has ended the reign of terror inaugurated on past Hallowe'en nights. He also says that the weather conditions the past two years has aided in keeping the peace.

Quiet and peace seemed to reign throughout the county Monday night. No property destruction of any nature has yet been reported. While many parties were played in some sections of the county no damage seems to have been done.

The Bouyouin orchestra also entertained and Orville Emison played guitar and also sang solos. George Sampson, president of the group, gave a talk on the organization of the club. Games and refreshments of doughnuts and cider followed later in the afternoon.

Leslie Superintendent Is Host To Teachers

HUNTING PARTY IS ENJOYED AT DIAMON LAKE.

D. E. Clay, superintendent of schools at Leslie, entertained the superintendents and agriculture teachers of Ingham County Roundtable at his cottage at Diamon Lake in Mecosta county for a week end hunting trip. The group met at Okemos after the Friday evening activities of their respective schools were over and headed north about midnight. Three o'clock found them at the cottage and soon a fire reddened the heater and lent a cheerful atmosphere to the cottage. After a pancake supper prepared by Supt. Cotter of Williamston, the group started after the cotton tails, nothing daunted by a chill rain that dampened dogs, men and ammunition. The rain was over by the middle of the forenoon and soon a brisk south wind had dried the men invigorated the dogs to a point where they began to chase out an occasional rabbit.

After tramping steadily until dusk and munching apples and cookies stuffed in their pockets before the start, the hunters returned to camp with 18 rabbits. Every hunter had shot at least one and H. T. Thomas of Fowlerville, had covered himself with glory by bringing in five. Soon a half dozen were boiling merrily over the gasoline stove and were fried to a turn by Kelsey, Overholt and Taylor.

HUNTERS USING ARROWS SEEK TO PROVE SKILL

LAND SET ASIDE FOR ARCHERS IN UPPER PENINSULA.

Archers Claim Deer Can Be Shot With Bows And Arrows In Northern Woods.

Modern Robin Hoods shooting big bows and steel tipped arrows at galloping deer, will stage a "deer" with hunters using rifles in the woods here beginning November 15 when the Michigan deer season opens. With state recognizing the primitive bow and arrow as a legitimate weapon for hunting buck deer, a 6,000 acre tract of forested land at Blaney has been set aside for the exclusive use of archers who wish to draw a long bow against the big bucks.

This archery preserve, the only one of its kind in the middle west, lies next to another large tract of land here in which a limited number of rifle shooters can bag their bucks with rifles and bullets. One strand of wire will separate these dueling grounds on November 15th when a group of expert archers will attempt to show that the more primitive and quieter weapon is capable of bringing home the meat almost as often as the bow and arrow with even more sport than the modern rifle.

The 6,000 acres of forest which has been set aside for the bow and arrow hunters was especially selected for this type of hunting. The acre is covered second growth timber, has many tote roads and trails through it, and a number of fairly open spots so that the bow and arrow hunters can execute their shots without interference from thick brush. To make sure that this preserve and other adjacent hunting areas at Blaney are not invaded by pothunters, the owners of the land have arranged for an air patrol during the deer season. A plane carrying a pilot and observer is going to take to the air several times each day during the season to inspect the shooting grounds, and have contact with a warden force on the ground and signal when poachers are sighted.

FILM NEWS MASON THEATRE

With more action and excitement than Fourth of July in a sky-rocket factory, "Branded Men," in which Ken Maynard returns to the screen of the Mason Theatre Friday and Saturday, is the type of Western drama that keeps the pulses pounding and brings the spectators to the edges of their seats. As the new sheriff in a tough cow-town, Ken sets out to clean up a rough gang of cattle rustlers and bank robbers who have long terrorized the country. As the gang have stolen Ken's horse, and are using the wealthy's brother of his sweetheart in their ruse for bringing them to justice, which he does after some of the most thrilling scenes of dramatic action ever seen on any screen. Charming June Clyde is Ken's sweetheart, and in the cast are the two popular comedians Billy Becker and Irving Bacon, who as Ken's pals add a number of laughs to the picture. A Mack Sennett comedy, "Divorce A la Mode" and the final chapter of "The Air Mail Mystery", complete the program for Friday and Saturday.

It takes your breath away—"The Famous Ferguson Case", coming to the Mason Theatre Sunday and Monday, it's so real, so absorbing, so packed with living, breathing actuality. A murder mystery—clues here, clues there, newspaper reporters and cameramen following them like bloodhounds—girl reporters, men reporters, a boy reporter who shows up the journalists from the big city like nobody's business—these are a few of the ingredients of this compelling drama. Joan Blondell as the "sob sister" and young Tom Brown as the kid reporter on the country paper, have especially fine roles, and they are supported by Adrienne Dore, Walter Miller, Leslie Penton, Vivienne Osborne, Miriam Segar and a host of others of equal merit, working together so smoothly that you leave the theatre rubbing your eyes and wondering whether you are returning to fiction and have left realities behind you in the playhouse. A Vitaphone comedy, a Bosko cartoon and the Universal News complete the program for Sunday and Monday.

Eddie Cantor makes his initial appearance on the Mason screen next week Friday and Saturday in "Palmy Days," his finest comedy to date, and as an added attraction is promised "The Last Frontier," a stirring Western drama with Creighton Chaney, son of Lon Chaney, Dorothy Gulliver, William Desmond, Francis X. Bushman, Jr. and a score more of clever screen players. For the following week are promised "The Spirit of Notre Dame," the great football picture featuring the famous Four Horsemen and showing Farrell McDonald in a life-like and moving impersonation of Knute Rockne and Tom Mix in "The Texas Bad Man." Other good pictures coming soon include "Tom Brown of Culpeper," "American Madness," "Arrowsmith," "Sky Devils," "Bird of Paradise," "Hold 'Em Jail," and "Scarface."

Haslett Upsets Leslie In Charity Grid Game

FAVORED TEAM DECISIVELY BEATEN 19 TO 0.

Coach Johnson's Haslett eleven won their second game of the season last Friday when they decisively defeated the Leslie high gridder in a charity game at Leslie. The Leslie squad was favored to win by a small margin but their harder working opponents, by making determined thrusts through the weak Leslie line, marched down the field three times to touchdowns. However, they failed to score their extra points by running the ball. The Leslie team won within half a yard of a touchdown but lacked the scoring push.

The Haslett aggregation made a slow start this season. After being defeated by Dimondale by a 46 to 0 score in the opening game Coach Johnson's charges continued to show improvement and week before last won their first game of the season from Stockbridge 26 to 0.

The Leslie welfare organization was given the proceeds from the game. Only an average crowd attended the charity contest. The next game for Leslie will be with Okemos at the Indian's field on Armistice day.

HEALTH AND HYGIENE Causes of Rheumatism

Almost every person at some time or another experiences joint pains—they may be transient, they may occur only with certain movements of the joints, or they may be constant, when actual disease of a number of joints is present. Indeed, there is no disease so common or attended with such a serious economic aspect, yet with such a low mortality as arthritis. This is illustrated by a statement made at a recent conference of the American Committee for the Control of Rheumatism where it was brought out that during 1931, about 35,000 ex-service men received over ten million dollars in disability compensation caused by arthritis, this group constituting 64 per cent of all beneficiaries. In this group, exposure and injury were the chief predisposing causes. Exposure is given as a cause because of its tendency to produce infection in the nose and throat. Such infections are often associated with a germ called the streptococcus, which, in turn, is found commonly in the blood, joints and lymph nodes and is considered to be the cause of a great group of cases.

A common sequence of events is an upper respiratory infection, a cold, sore throat or the grippe, followed during recovery by invasion of the joints with disabling consequences. Arthritis is exceedingly difficult to treat successfully but it is possible to obtain a major degree of benefit when treatment is begun early and followed persistently.

The arthritis caused by the streptococcus is uncommon in warm climates. A physician from New Orleans remarked that he had seen practically no cases of arthritis, in contrast to his experience in Philadelphia where 50 per cent of the patients in hospitals had arthritis. A physician from southwest Texas had never seen a case of acute rheumatism and rarely one with chronic arthritis.

We are obliged to live in this climate through the changeable weather of the winter months and we must learn, therefore, to avoid as far as possible, danger of exposure, of contracting colds and sore throats, and of allowing chronic infection to persist.

The effect of trauma or injury on the joints will be the subject of future discussion.

Aggies Drop To Third Place In County Race

DEFEAT FRIDAY UNEXPECTED BY DANVILLE.

Defeat Friday brought the Dansville Aggies from second place in the county conference football race down to third place. The victors, Holt, moved up to tie for second position with Okemos, while Dimondale continued to lead the association with a perfect record.

The Aggies were defeated by a score of 7 to 6 Friday by the Holt eleven. An attempted lateral pass when returning the kickoff was fumbled by the Aggie receiver and the Holt boys fell on the ball on the Dansville twenty yard line. A series of line bucks placed them in easy scoring position and Lennon carried the ball over for a touchdown. The play for extra point was successful and won the game for Holt. Dansville scored on a triple pass but failed to get their kick away in time to avoid its being blocked. Both teams were making good gains through the opposing line and around the ends.

Friday Holt will play the conference leaders. Holt fans expect a good game although actual victory by their team is not being anticipated.

Hubbard Homecoming Is Successful Event

MANY FORMER TEACHERS PRESENT AT AFFAIR.

Former teachers and pupils packed the Hubbard school last Friday night at a homecoming. F. E. Scari, county school commissioner, was the speaker of the evening. He warned of the financial chaos which will result if the tax limitation is adopted at the election although he said that he did not blame farmers for voting in favor of it.

Previous to the address of the commissioner the pupils of the school presented a program. Mrs. Henry Longyear and Mrs. Edgar Ridge sang several selections. They were accompanied by Paul Redman, Mrs. Longyear, Mrs. Ridge and Mrs. Lucius Olds also sang.

Mrs. Blanche Hogan of Lansing, presented the school with a picture of Ira Hubbard, her grandfather. She told of some of the experiences of his pioneer days and of the other first settlers in the neighborhood. Mrs. Hogan said that a picture of Edwin Hubbard would also be presented to the school soon.

Former teachers who spoke were Mrs. Josie Puy, Steve Hanna, Miss Esther Taylor, Mrs. Myrtle Taylor, Mrs. F. E. Scari, Lenore Douglas and Dorothy Harmon. Others who were called on were Mrs. V. J. Brown and Homer Crowl, former pupils, and Alice Davis. Mrs. Harold Dakin, the present teacher of the school, was in charge of the program. Her husband told of the reason for the homecoming.

Reuben Royston, 81, was the oldest former pupil present Friday. He attended the school 75 years ago.

Homer Crowl, Mrs. Lucius Olds and Steve Hanna were appointed as a committee to arrange another homecoming next summer.

Plan Demonstration For Turkey Raisers

BEST KILLING METHODS TO BE SHOWN AT COLLEGE.

Turkey growers, dealers and others who may have occasion to kill and dress turkeys are invited to attend a killing demonstration scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Monday, November 7, at East Lansing. It will be held at the State college poultry research plant on South Harrison road, just north of the state police headquarters.

This demonstration is the final one of a series of five being held in different parts of the state by J. A. Hannah and J. M. Moore of the college poultry staff. Because of the fact that the manner in which birds are dressed greatly adds to or detracts from their attractiveness, the meetings are certainly filling a real need.

All birds will be bled from inside the mouth and a demonstration of both dry picking and scald picking given. In addition, an attractive way to completely draw turkeys and prepare them for the table will be shown. Ample time will also be given to discussion of other turkey problems.

Warns Home Owners Against Cold Spell

CLAIMS MONEY SPENT FOR PROTECTION WORTH WHILE.

In spite of the fact that last winter was very mild, a great deal of money was spent in thawing out pipes and replacing bursted fixtures, according to William F. Dart of the Mason Plumbing & Heating Co. Mr. Dart urges that home owners take precautions against the worst weather that is certain to be here soon.

Many people, states Mr. Dart, have learned that pipes that freeze every winter and must be thawed out several times each season may be protected by insulating them. Houses that stand vacant during the fall and winter seasons should be properly cared for to avoid an expensive plumbing-repair bill, points out Mr. Dart.

FARM PLAYERS MAKE TALKIES FOR FARM MUTUAL.

Pulley holders of the State Farm Mutual and State Farm Life companies in this county are to be entertained with eight reels of talking motion pictures at the East Junior high school auditorium in Lansing on Wednesday evening, November 9, according to L. B. Fishbeck, agent.

Titles of the pictures are "The Benefactor" and "Horse Sense", three reel farm plays by farm folks who are said to carry their roles with professional skill. Warning

With the coming of winter and freezing temperature the danger of bursting pipes and large repair bills will be on the increase.

If home owners will take the necessary precautions against zero weather a lot of this winter expense may be saved.

The Mason Plumbing and Heating Co. is equipped to lower the cost of preparing plumbing for a cold winter. Remember, they urge, that a dollar saved is more than a dollar earned. It means that also a mess is prevented.

Join the Red Cross and Help The Distressed and Needy

Red Cross to Enlist Great Army of Members to Fight Distress

Last year 4,004,459 men and women joined the American Red Cross as members during the annual roll call, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

3,000,000 FAMILIES HELPED BY RED CROSS

Distress in All Areas Met by Giving Food, Clothing and Other Aid.

More than 3,000,000 families throughout the nation were given relief of various types by the American Red Cross in the past winter.

A major relief task, due to unemployment and other unusual conditions in the hit-or-miss mining counties in twenty states, was met by the Red Cross chapters alone, or participating with other agencies.

Flour milled from government wheat turned over to the Red Cross by Congress, was given to 15,000,000 persons in the period from March 8 to June 30, the close of the fiscal year.

"The Red Cross faces the busiest winter since the days of the World War," Chairman John Barton Payne said. "It is organized in virtually every one of the 3,772 counties in the United States, and will co-operate with all agencies to meet distress wherever found."

While carrying on nationwide these unemployment and other relief measures, the Red Cross also was engaged in its regular peace-time activities in public health nursing, service to ex-service men and their families, teaching home hygiene, life saving and first aid.

The Junior Red Cross, composed of almost 7,000,000 school children, also rallied to the support of the society's relief efforts, and the children aided others of their age in practical ways.

While the wheat and cotton were given by the U. S. Government, no money was provided to pay for the necessary work entailed. The Red Cross will meet this expense of almost $500,000 from its treasury.

A Big Vote Is Expected

Records will probably be broken in the election next Tuesday. The ballots contain more names and more propositions than ever before.

Those who vote early in the day will not have to stand in line. They may mark their ballots carefully. They will not be hurried by others waiting to cast their ballots.

The polls are open at seven o'clock in the morning. From then until noon voting is usually light. Voting then takes but a few minutes. It may take an hour in the late afternoon.

Study The Amendments

Study the seven proposed amendments to the state constitution and the referendum before attempting to vote. All the proposals are of grave importance.

Short summaries of the proposition appear on page nine. Turn to that page and mark on the summary how you intend to vote.

If you have not already read the complete text of the amendments go to the polls early and there you will have an opportunity to study an instruction ballot containing the full proposals.

Summer In Sweden

This Swedish Housewife Bakes Only Four Times a Year.

This year all Sweden is celebrating with memorial rites and exhibits, the three hundredth anniversary of the death in battle of Gustavus Adolphus, the Swedish hero king.

Many are the ways of celebrating, for as the traveler moves about Sweden by canoe, coast steamer, river barge, motor car, railway or airplane, he is confronted with many peoples with customs and dialects unlike.

As protected wards of the Swedish state, members of this alien race roam securely over the tundras and snow-capped fields of the North.

Sweden has no colonies and so avoids entangling alliances. Its zest for empire and empire-building was worked off in the dust of youth.

No Immigrants There.

Sweden has no immigration problem, about 99 per cent of its six millions being native-born.

Gift of the low temperatures of the Arctic winter.

Electricity, derived from waterfalls and rivers, is being substituted by modern industry as fuel that in time will supplant the black coal which Sweden lacks.

NOVEMBER PEAS.

"No use going to Florida for winter vegetables," says Leon Iveson, "when you can go into your garden here in Mason on November 1 and pick a mess of peas."

If N. W. Dwight, R. 5, will bring this item to the NEWS office before Nov. 15, he will be given a free admission ticket to the Mason theatre.

A man will forgive and forget almost any negligence around the house except letting the salt shaker get empty.

Men really have the best of it, and the women know it.
