Washington, D.C. 20463 Dear Mr. Steele: This firm serves as general counsel to National Conservative Political Action Committee, 1500 Wilson Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22209 ("NCPAC"), on whose behalf this complaint is filed pursuant to 2 U.S.C. $437g, and the Commission's regulations thereunder. NCPAC is a multi-candidate political committee, registered with the Commission, as required by 2 U.S.C. §433. Its registration number is C00024687. As required by 2 U.S.C. $434, NCPAC files with the 0 Commission and appropriate Secretaries of State reports of its contributions and expenditures in connection with various federal 0 elections, listing the names and addressess of its contributors, and the amounts of such contributions. NCPAC includes among Q. those names pseudonyms, as permitted by 2 U.S.C. $438(a)(4), and has reported those names to the Commission. Enclosed is a mailing soliciting funds on behalf of American Printing House for the Blind, which was addressed to one of the pseudonyms used by NCPAC only on its lists of contributors filed with the Commission and Secretaries of State in connection with federal elections. In order to maintain the confidentiality of NCPAC's pseudonym, the addressee's name and address have been masked on the enclosed mailing, but the code, "125," has been left visible so that a respondent can more easily identify the list used in the questioned mailing. Investigation by NCPAC has revealed that a list containing the subject pseudonym was rented to American Printing House for the Blind by Working Names, Inc., 4421 A East-West Highway, Bethesda, Maryland 20014. Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of

Mr. Charles N. Steele Page Two March 30, 1983 Working Names, has admitted to agents of NCPAC and to the undersigned that Working Names rented the foregoing list to American Publishing House. Mr. Cohen claims that he is only a broker for the list, but has refused to disclose the identities of the purported owners of the list, or to give any further information concerning its use, other than to admit that some of the names on the list came from filings with certain Secretaries of State. With certain specific exceptions, the use by any person, for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes, of information taken from reports or statements filed with the Commission or with Secretaries of State is prohibited by 2 U.S.C. $438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. 104.15. ~ the foregoing, it appears that Working Names, Inc., through Meyer T. AMERICAN PRINTING HOUSE FOR THE BLIND

FUND FOR BRAILLE AND RECORDED EDITIONS Reader's Digest®

Post Office Box 6389, Louisville, Kentucky 40206 Telephone: 502-895-2405

Dear Friend:

A six-pound package is delivered monthly to an elderly gentleman in a retirement village.

Upon its receipt, "The Old Pest" (as he calls himself) contacts us to announce the arrival of the latest issue of the braille Reader's Digest. The regularity of his announcement has made his name a familiar one, here at the American Printing House for the Blind; the gratitude he expresses reassures us of the value of our work.

And he is one of thousands throughout the country who eagerly await the monthly arrival of braille and recorded editions of Reader's Digest. "The Digest is the best medium I have for keeping abreast of the times," writes one deaf-blind reader. These words from an elderly woman in Idaho echo the sentiments expressed in many letters:

"When the mailman delivers my Reader's Digest, I feel like a rich woman, for I love to read, and I am content and happy, in my little room."

Your gift to the Fund for Braille and Recorded Editions-Reader's Digest will continue to make this "invaluable" resource available to the blind and physically handicapped. Please send your check today; $10.50 will bring a treasury of recorded literature into many a lone, little room; $60.00 will deliver seventy-two pounds of braille entertainment to the beloved "Old Pest."

Your gift will be a source of light to those who live in darkness.

Sincerely yours,

JOSEPH B. WOODLIEF Chairman of the Board

I enclose a copy of a mailing recently sent by the Republican National Committee to a pseudonym used by NCPAC in connection with the foregoing filings. The pseudonym is the same as the one to whom the mailing complained of in our March 30 0 letter was sent. I have contacted Preferred Lists. 499 South a Capitol Street, S.W., Suite 504, Washington, D.C. 20003, the list broker from whom the Republican National Committee obtained the list used in connection with the enclosed mailing. Linda Fisher of Preferred Lists has told me that the questioned list was obtained from Working Names, Inc., 4421 A East West Highway, Bethesda, Maryland 20014, and is known as "Truly Conservative Contributors." As was done in our March 30 letter to the Commission, the name of NCPAC's pseudonym has been deleted, but code "VF" has been left visible so that a respondent can more easily identify the list used in the questioned mailing.

RONALD REAGAN

Monday morning

Dear Friend:

cr

When I took office as your President, our country faced the worst economic crisis since the days of Franklin Roosevelt.

With your support, we enacted far-reaching legislation designed to attack the root cause of our economic problems.

We cut back on the Democrats' high tax and big spending binge. And we passed a long-range economic program to reduce inflation, bring down interest rates and create productive jobs in private industry.

Today, I'm proud to say our nation is headed in a new direction. But I felt it was important I personally write you now because what you and I do in the coming days will determine how successful we are in keeping the nation on this new course.

If we fail to stop the Democrats from winning in 1984 they could overturn and destroy all the progress we have made in pulling our nation back from the brink of economic catastrophe.

That's why I hope you will accept my invitation to join me in laying the groundwork for a Republican victory in 1984.

The simple truth is that our opponents, the Democrats, have not learned the lesson that their policies of tax and tax, spend and spend were directly responsible for the prolonged recession which caused all Americans, young and old, worker and businessman alike, to fear for their very economic survival.

And if the Democrats and their liberal special interest group allies regain power, then I am convinced they will force our nation right back down the disastrous road to more spending and higher income taxes.

I am not prepared to sit back and let the Democrats destroy what we have done to cut taxes, to achieve a spectacular reduction in inflation and to restore basic individual American freedoms.

And I don't believe you are, either.

Right now the most important thing you can do to help me carry out our programs that are redirecting our nation is to accept the special Republican Party Membership Card that has been enclosed for you at my request.

By accepting and validating your card with your signature, you are signaling your personal commitment to work with me in our fight for the

Page 2 principles we share. After you sign your card, I urge you to stand behind your commitment by making a generous contribution to the Republican National Committee. Let me tell you why your support of this particular Committee is so important to me. The National Committee is the official organization of our Party responsible for laying the foundation for our entire 1984 campaign effort to elect more Republicans to federal, state and local office. I am counting on your support so the Committee can carry out its full campaign program for our candidates. This includes recruiting and training outstanding candidates, conducting independent surveys of voter attitudes, running local and national TV and radio campaigns, and organizing thousands of volunteers. That's the only way our candidates will be able to counter the massive liberal/Democratic drive to take back control of the government in 1984. I say that because, just as in 1982, our candidates in 1984 will be opposed by a powerful, well-financed coalition of liberal special interest groups and Big Labor Unions. As was demonstrated in the last election, this liberal coalition will stop at nothing to defeat our candidates. They'll spend millions to run radio and TV ads that deliberately twist and distort our programs. And they'll unleash Big Labor's so-called "voluntary" manpower. There is another equally important reason why I am hoping you will make a generous contribution to the Committee. In the months ahead, I personally will be relying heavily on the Committee to build and mobilize broad national support for my legislative programs. Over the last two years the Committee's efforts on behalf of my economic proposals have been absolutely vital to their passage through Congress. And as I continue to press for dramatic changes that will bring government spending under control, I will be relying on the Committee to again help me win some very difficult political battles in Congress. You see, as I look to the months ahead, there is still so much for you and me to do together for our country. We must once and for all bring government spending under control. We must give back to state governments the powers the federal government and courts were never intended to have. And we must continue to rebuild our defenses so we can negotiate arms reductions with the Soviets from a position of strength. But if the Democrats win in 1984, elect a liberal President, gain control of the Senate, and increase their strength in the House, we may lose forever

Page 3 the chance to finish the work we have begun. We would see an immediate return of the very same policies that caused the highest interest and inflation rates in peacetime history and allowed the Soviets to achieve military superiority over us. You and I simply cannot afford to let this happen. I know from talking with my good friend Mike Curb, National Finance Chairman, that the number one goal of the Committee is to raise its full $15.8 million budget for 1983. This amount represents the absolute minimum the Committee needs to protect incumbent Republicans, help our challenger candidates and turn back the alliance of liberal special interest groups, Big Labor Unions and the Democratic Party that has dictated our nation's policies for the last thirty years. If the Committee cannot raise its full budget I fear it will be a dangerous setback in our long struggle to discard the bankrupt liberal policies of the past and keep America on our new course towards economic prosperity. That's why I am hoping you will make a generous contribution to the Committee today. No matter how much you decide to send, I know it will be a great help. Since taking office I have worked hard to live up to the faith which you have placed in me. And I will continue to do so in the years ahead. But I am counting on you to stand by me, our Party and its principles to make the vision we share of America's future a reality. Knowing I have your 0 support will be a very special source of strength for me. V C RR/cf

Dear Mr. Levin:

In reference to MUR 1541: on or about the 28th of December, 1982, the American Printing House for the Blind, Inc., arranged with CELCO, a list broker located at 381 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016, to rent 20,000 names from a list known to the American Printing House as "Truly Conservative" for direct mail fund-raising purposes. A copy of Purchase Order No. 83-0268 dated 1/5/83, reflecting this order as well as others, is attached.

The American Printing House for the Blind entered into the agreement with CELCO in good faith and without prior knowledge that any name received from the list known to the American Printing House as "Truly Conservative" was or might be tainted.

To the best of my knowledge, the American Printing House for the Blind has never done business with WORKING NAMES, INC., or MEYER T. COHEN.

Under the circumstances stated above, the American Printing House for the Blind denies any wrong-doing and/or willful violation of 2 U.S.C. § 438 (a) (4).

Mr. Charles N. Steele General Counsel Federal Election Commission 1325 K Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Steele:

I request that the complaint against Preferred Lists, Anc. (Matter Under Review 1542) be dismissed.

Preferred Lists, Inc. (PLI) rented 5,000 Truly Conservative Contributor names from Working Names on behalf of our client, the Republican National Committee (RNC). (Please see the enclosed PLI purchase order to Working Names.)

Our order was placed in good faith. Neither PLI nor RNC had knowledge of any potential wrongdoing.

As soon as PLI was notified by the National Conservative Political Action Committee's attorney, Robert Sparks, of the potential problem; PLI put its only outstanding order on this list on hold.

PLI acted as a broker and has no ownership rights or shared interest in Working Names or the list, Truly Conservative Contributors.

In summary - because PLI acted in good faith and has no ownership rights in the list in question, I request that the complaint against PLI be dismissed.

Please let me know if I can supply any additional information.

Best regards.

RE: MUR 1542

Dear Mr. Steele:

I am writing in response to your letter of April 8, 1983. Your letter stated that the Federal Election Commission had received a complaint which alleged that the Republican National Committee (RNC) may have violated certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act. Attached to your letter was a photostatic copy of a letter from Robert R. Sparks, Counsel for the National Conservative Political Action Committee (NCPAC). I assume that the attached letter provided the basis for your contention that a complaint had been filed alleging the RNC may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act. The April 1st letter from Mr. Sparks does not appear to necessarily allege an RNC violation. Your initial notification letter and attached materials do not make specific references to which provisions of the FECA we are alleged to have possibly violated. More specific information would be useful for the formulation of a response.

I will attempt, in this letter, to provide additional facts to those provided in the NCPAC April 1st letter to the Commission which will further your understanding of our particular prospecting activities which may be the origin of NCPAC's letter. On January 27, 1983, the RNC ordered a test mailing to a list termed "Truly Conservative Contributors" procured through Preferred Lists, 499 South Capitol Street, S.W., Suite 504, Washington, D. C. On March 4, 1983, the RNC commenced a test mailing of 5,000 pieces to part of that list. The RNC mails approximately 17 million letters per year seeking additional donors to the Committee. As part of this mailing operation, the RNC rents over 1,000 commercial mailing lists. The RNC restricts its list acquisition to nationally recognized and respected list brokers. The RNC has never knowingly used any information from a source prohibited by federal or state law.

Relative to referenced MURs we at this time wish to enter a full denial of all allegations contained in your letters of April 8, 1983 and in complainants attorneys letters of March 30 and April 1, 1983.

We wish to take it one step further and ask that all charges be dismissed due to a lack of substantiating evidence relative to the charges.

Working Names, Inc. is a list management company representing two (2) owners of a list we are marketing as "Truly Conservative Contributors".

This list was compiled by the owners in a legally acceptable manner and within industry standards as demanded by various fundraising organizations.

This list has been marketed to several fundraising organizations, among them The Republican National Committee and The American Printing House for the Blind.

The arrangements for the usage of this list were made through recognized brokers within this industry.

Complainants attorney, specifically Mr. Robert Sparks, is fully aware of our position within the direct mail industry.

We submit that this matter does not belong before the commission at this time.

page 2 We have reason to believe that the decoy submitted to the commission alleging misuse of the NCPAC list will not stand the test of what the industry would rule to be a true decoy. Clearly, everyone would agree that a decoy must be; 1. Unique. Certainly it should not be listed in public, non-governmental records 2. A decoy may only be used once on ONE list only, It must NEVER be used on any other list anywhere. 3. It must be properly documented, so that when questions arise, the documents will support the charges of misuse or unauthorized use. To accomplish this task, many list owners subscribe to a decoy monitoring service. We know for a fact that this complainant does indeed subscribe to just such a service. 3 We request a letter from the monitoring service attesting that this specific decoy is A) a decoy B) that it is properly documented by them. In addition, we request that they furnish to the FEC a copy of 0 all the decoys that they maintain for NCPAC on the list in question. We do not ask that we be shown this listing, but that T it be made available to an independent third party for examination. We also request that NCPAC furnish a sworn statement that this 3 decoy was not used on other lists and that it is not available through sources other than the FEC. 0 We further request under oath a sworn statement from NCPAC that the purported decoy was not "planted" elswhere for the purpose of harassment, or as part of a conspiracy to prevent other list owners or managers from renting legitimately secured lists. So that we may ultimately prove that we are absolutely innocent of all the allegations, we request that NCPAC specifically state which one of their lists they feel we have used. In the enclosed sealed envelope we are submitting to the Commission all the names that came from our batch #A212 used by us to fill the RNC order. We request that this envelope not be opened unless or until complainant supplies further documentation that will support their claim. We would then ask that this listing be compared to the evidence.

page 3 As a part of this response, we submit a sworn statement that we have not destroyed or manipulated the list or the evidence in our possession. Upon receipt of the requested documentation, we ask that the commission examine the evidence. We are confident that this will end the matter. If the commission feels that additional documentation from us is required, we will be glad to furnish same. Sincerely Meyer T. Cohen President C 7 ~ C 0

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

These matters involve allegations that respondents solicited names obtained from reports filed with the Commission or with Secretaries of State by the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

On April 4, the General Counsel received a complaint from counsel for NCPAC stating that American Printing House for the Blind ("the Printing House") had sent a fundraising letter to one of the pseudonyms submitted by NCPAC to RAD. NCPAC further stated that its own investigation revealed that a list containing the pseudonym was rented to the Printing House by Working Names, Inc. Complainant alleges that Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, has admitted that Working Names rented the list to the Printing House. The complaint proceeds to state that Mr. Cohen claimed that he was merely the broker for the list, but he refused to disclose the identities of the list owners. Finally, the complaint alleges that Mr. Cohen admits that some of the names on the list came from filings with certain Secretaries of State. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1541.

Also on April 4, this Office received a second complaint from NCPAC making reference to the first complaint and stating that the Republican National Committee ("the RNC") had sent a fundraising letter to the same pseudonym. NCPAC alleges that the RNC received its list from Preferred Lists. The complaint further claims that Preferred Lists states that Working Names provided them with the list. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1542.

The Office of General Counsel has received substantive replies from all of the respondents. The Printing House replied that it rented the names from CELCO, a New York list broker, that it entered into the agreement "in good faith and without prior knowledge" that the list might be tainted, and that the names came from a list known as "Truly Conservative." It also stated that, "to the best of its knowledge," it had never done business with Working Names or Mr. Cohen. (See Attachment 1).

contained 212 names. After checking those names against a list of 1982 contributors to NCPAC, it appeared that approximately 14 percent of the names on the list portion submitted by Mr. Cohen also appeared on the NCPAC reports filed with the Commission for 1982.

Section 438(a)(4) of Title 2 and section 104.15 of the Commission's Regulations provide that any information copied from filed reports may not be sold or used by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes, other than using the name and address of a political committee to solicit contributions from such committee. Section 104.15(a) includes reports filed with Secretaries of State within the prohibition. In MUR 1472, where the American Legislative Exchange Council ("ALEC") rented a tainted mailing list, but appeared to have had no knowledge or suspicion that the list in question was compiled using names from the complainant's reports, the Commission found no reason to believe that ALEC violated § 438(a)(4). In this matter, the responses of the Printing House and the RNC indicate that they acted in good faith and had no knowledge or reason to know that the list they rented was tainted. Therefore, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that either the American Printing House for the Blind or the Republican National Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a) (4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The response of Preferred Lists also indicates that it acted in good faith without "knowledge of any potential wrongdoing."

Nevertheless, functioning in its capacity as an active participant in the mailing list industry, it sold a list which appears to have been originally obtained in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a) (4). Such activity by an active list broker necessitates further consideration, particularly with respect to whether Preferred Lists made any inquiry as to the source of the list. Therefore, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that Preferred Lists, Inc. violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a) (4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

Working Names possessed the list containing the pseudonym. It appears to be the first named source, if not the original source, of the list in each matter. Furthermore, a significant portion of the names on the list portion sent to the Office of General Counsel by Meyer Cohen appeared on the list of contributors reported by NCPAC for 1982. Based on these circumstances, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that Working Names violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

The General Counsel also recommends that the Commission approve questions to be asked of Preferred Lists, Working Names, and CELCO.

When I inquired as to the origin of the list TRULY CONSERVATIVE I was told that the names on the list were taken solely from information gathered by and made available to the public by the Secretaries of State in those states who maintain records on political contributions. I was informed that this information is available for review and use by any member of the public for any purpose.

- 3. I have been doing business with WORKING NAMES and Mike Cohen since I started CELCO in 1979, and had worked with him for a time while employed by Prescott Lists. I do not know the exact date that I started working with WORKING NAMES, as the records of PRESCOTT LISTS are not available to me at this time.

Dear Mr. Steele:

I request that the complaint against Preferred Lists, Inc. (Matter Under Review 1542) be dismissed.

Preferred Lists, Inc. (PLI) rented 5,000 Truly Conservative Contributor names from Working Names on behalf of our client, the Republican National Committee (RNC). (Please see the enclosed PLI purchase order to Working Names.)

Our order was placed in good faith. Neither PLI nor RNC had knowledge of any potential wrongdoing.

As soon as PLI was notified by the National Conservative Political Action Committee's attorney, Robert Sparks, of the potential problem; PLI put its only outstanding order on this list on hold.

PLI acted as a broker and has no ownership rights or shared interest in Working Names or the list, Truly Conservative Contributors.

In summary - because PLI acted in good faith and has no ownership rights in the list in question, I request that the complaint against PLI be dismissed.

Please let me know if I can supply any additional information.

This is in response to the Commission's request for information of July 15, 1983, to which the time for response was extended until August 12, 1982, addressed to Working Names, Inc., concerning the "Truly Conservative Contributors" list. The list is managed by Working Names, Inc., and owned jointly by Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. and Thomas L. Mays. Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. is located at 1706 Lorre Drive, Rockville, Maryland 20852 and is owned by Victor K. Heyman of the same address. Thomas L. Mays is an individual residing at 1815 - 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20009.

In producing and distributing the lists, the functions of the participants are divided as follows. Working Names advertises and markets the lists and receives payment from the list users. Heyman performs computer processing of the list material, entering the names which it receives onto computer tapes and duplicating the tapes or producing mailing labels from the tape information. Mays obtains the names themselves.

Our clients (brokers) are advised that the sources for these lists were public records maintained by secretaires of state. The list is described as follows:

Conservative in both the political and philanthropic definition, these individuals responded to appeals of the conservative "bent." They are concerned about good health & research programs that do not lead to a welfare society.

The lists of names are obtained from filings made to various governmental bodies of contributors to state and local election campaigns. Although material on file with state secretaries of state is utilized, no material required by Federal law to be filed with the secretary of state of any state is knowingly used.

Due to the presence of a decoy, it appears that part of a Federal list filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee (NCPAC) may have inadvertently been picked up in the "Truly Conservative Contributors" list. It should be noted that the filings made by NCPAC are, as allowed, submitted to secretaries of state offices on NCPAC'S own computer printout and not an offical FEC forms. As a result, if a NCPAC form were filed incorrectly by a state secretary of state, it would not be immediately apparent that a restricted Federal form had been obtained. Indeed, it appears that only a partial NCPAC list may have found its way into data for the "Truly Conservative Contributors" list, in that only one decoy has been identified, while NCPAC was allowed to include ten decoys in each filing. The misfiling by a secretary of state of a partial list would be almost impossible to detect.

Due to the large volume of material handled, after entry of a name onto computer tape, the underlying document is not maintained. It is therefore impossible to determine from where the list with the alleged decoy was obtained. Nevertheless, in an overabundance of caution, the entire batch which included the decoy name has been deleted from any further use by Working Names, Heyman Consulting Group or Thomas Mays. The only customers which purchased the list containing the decoy name were the American Printing House for the Blind, of which you are aware from the complaint, and the Republican National Committee.

Working Names, Inc. also markets another list of conservative contributors and a list of liberal contributors also owned by Heyman Consulting Group and Thomas L. Mays. These lists are collected and represented in the same manner.

Respectfully submitted,

Meyer T. Cohen

Letter to Complainant in MUR 1541/42

On April 4, 1983, the Commission received a complaint from the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") alleging that names obtained from reports filed by NCPAC with the Commission or with Secretaries of State were solicited by respondents, American Printing House for the Blind and Republican National Committee, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. Included in the complaint was an allegation that Working Names, Inc., ("Working Names") had rented a list containing a NCPAC pseudonym to two of the respondents, but that Working Names would not disclose the identities of the list owners. In response to the complaint, Working Names asserted that NCPAC may have used the pseudonym in reports other than those required to be filed by federal law.

On July 12, 1983, the Commission found reason to believe that Working Names violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 and approved questions to be sent to the respondent. 1/The Commission also determined that a letter questioning NCPAC as to whether it placed the pseudonym on any reports other than the report of contributors submitted to the Commission should not be sent at that time. It was suggested that more information should be obtained from the respondents before subjecting the complainant to the above question.

 $[\]underline{1}/$ Also on that date, the Commission found reason to believe that Preferred Lists, Inc. had violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15, and no reason to believe that the American Printing House for the Blind and the Republican National Committee had violated those provisions.

In a meeting with counsel for Working Names on August 3, 1983, and in a letter received from Meyer T. Cohen, President of Working Names, on August 12, 1983, (Attachment 1) it was revealed that the list owners are Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. of Rockville, Maryland and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Both counsel for the list owners and Mr. Cohen stated that, while the Heyman Group performs computer processing of the list material, Mr. Mays provides the names for such lists. According to the responses, Mr. Mays travels to the various offices of the Secretaries of State and obtains the filings made for state and local elections and does not "knowingly" use any material required by federal law to be filed with a Secretary of State. In addition, in his written response Mr. Cohen maintains that NCPAC filings are made on computer printouts, and, if a NCPAC form were filed incorrectly by a Secretary of State, "it would not be immediately apparent that a restricted federal form had been obtained." Mr. Cohen further states that, "[d]ue to the large volume of material handled, after entry of a name onto computer tape, the underlying document is not maintained," therefore, the source of the "alleged decoy" cannot be determined. 2/

This Office contacted the Boards of Elections in Virginia and Maryland and was told that reports for state committees and federal political committees are kept in separate files and segregated from one another. Based upon this information, the response of Working Names, and the information provided by counsel for Messrs. Mays and Heyman, an inquiry as to whether NCPAC included the pseudonym in a report of a non-federal account appears timely. Therefore, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission approve the attached letter addressed to NCPAC's counsel.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of	84 FEB 2	P2: 01
Working Names, Inc. Preferred Lists, Inc.) MUR 1541/42

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

On April 4, 1983, the General Counsel received a complaint from counsel for the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") stating that American Printing House for the Blind ("the Printing House") had sent a fundraising letter to one of the pseudonyms submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division, and that violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 had occurred. NCPAC states that its own investigation revealed that a list containing the pseudonym was rented to the Printing House by Working Names, Inc. ("Working Names"). NCPAC further alleges that Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, has admitted that Working Names rented the list to the Printing House. The complaint also states that Mr. Cohen claimed that he was merely the broker for the list, but he refused to disclose the identities of the list owners. Finally, the complaint alleges that Mr. Cohen admits that some of the names on the list came from filings with certain Secretaries of State. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1541.

Also on April 4, this Office received a second complaint from NCPAC referencing the first complaint and stating that the Republican National Committee ("the RNC") had sent a fundraising letter to the same pseudonym. NCPAC alleges that the RNC received its list from Preferred Lists. The complaint further claims that Preferred Lists states that Working Names provided them with the list. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1542.

On July 15, 1983, the Commission found no reason to believe that the Printing House or the RNC violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) or 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The Commission, however, found that there was reason to believe Preferred Lists and Working Names violated those sections of the Act and Regulations. Interrogatories were sent to Preferred Lists and Working Names and also to Carol Enters List Company ("CELCO"), the list broker for the transaction involving the Printing House.

In a meeting with counsel for Working Names on August 3, 1983, 1/ and in a letter received from Meyer T. Cohen, President of Working Names, on August 12, 1983, it was revealed that the list owners are Victor Heyman and Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. ("Heyman Consulting") of Rockville, Maryland and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Mr. Cohen's response indicated that the functions of the participants dealing with the list were divided as follows: Working Names advertises and markets the list and receives payment from the list users, Victor Heyman and Heyman Consulting perform computer processing of the list material, entering the names which they receive onto computer tapes and duplicating the tapes or producing mailing labels from the tape information, and Mays obtains the names themselves. According to oral representations by counsel and Meyer Cohen's written response, Mr. Mays travels to the various offices of the Secretaries of State and obtains the filings made for state and local elections and does not "knowingly" use any material required by federal law to be filed with a Secretary of State. In addition, in his written response, Mr. Cohen maintains that NCPAC filings are made on computer printouts and, if a NCPAC form were filed incorrectly by a Secretary of State, "it would not be immediately apparent that a restricted federal form had been obtained." Mr. Cohen's response further states that, "[d]ue to the large volume of material handled, after entry of a name onto computer tape, the underlying document is not maintained," and, therefore, the source of the "alleged decoy" cannot be determined. Accompanying Mr. Cohen's response were sworn statements from Mr. Heyman and Mr. Mays stating that they had read his letter. (See Attachment 1).

Responses from CELCO and Preferred Lists, received in late July and early August, state that Working Names informed them that it obtained the names for the list solely from information on file with Secretaries of State and that the names were legally available for the purposes contemplated. (See Attachments 2 and

This Office contacted the Boards of Election in Virginia and Maryland and was told that reports for state committees and federal political committees are kept in separate files and segregated from one another. Based upon this information, this Office, with the Commission's approval, sent a letter, on October 3, 1983, to the complainant asking it if it had included the solicited pseudonym on any list or report other than the report of contributors submitted to the Commission. On October 18, NCPAC replied that the pseudonym "was not used by NCPAC on any report or list of names filed with any agency other than the Federal Election Commission." (See Attachment 4).

II. LEGAL ANALYSIS

Respondent Working Names, through Meyer Cohen and counsel, has indicated that the list in question is owned by Thomas Mays and Victor Heyman and Heyman Consulting. Respondent asserts that Mr. Mays obtained the names for the list from non-federal filings with various secretaries of state and gave them to Mr. Heyman and Heyman Consulting who put the names onto computer tapes and made them available to Working Names.

As NCPAC has denied, in a sworn statement, placing the solicited pseudonym on any list other than the one filed with the Commission, there appear to be three possible explanations of the appearance of the pseudonym on the "Truly Conservative" list: (1) Mr. Mays took the name from FEC filings and passed it on to Mr. Heyman and Heyman Consulting; (2) Mr. Heyman and Heyman Consulting added the improperly obtained pseudonym to the list of legally obtained names provided by Mr. Mays; or (3) Meyer Cohen and Working Names supplemented the list received from Heyman Consulting with improperly obtained names.

The Office of General Counsel, therefore, recommends that the Commission extend its investigation to include all principals in the list offering, namely, Meyer Cohen 2/, Thomas L. Mays, Victor K. Heyman and the Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. Accordingly, this Office has drafted questions to be addressed to Mr. Mays and Mr. Heyman.

The attached questions were drafted with the intent of determining the source of the names. In another matter involving section 438(a)(4), MUR 1549, Mr. Mays was named as a possible source of a mailing list. In that matter, he was able to identify specific Secretary of State offices as sources of names and addresses for the list in question. Once specific offices are identified, the Commission may be able to determine the source of the names (lists of federal or non-federal candidates) and whether the copying of names of contributors supporting federal candidates was inadvertant or not. Furthermore, while counsel for Working Names is also counsel for Mr. Mays

On July 12, 1983, the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe that your client, Working Names, Inc., violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a) (4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. Upon review of the responses received in this matter, the Commission, on February 7, 1984, determined that there is reason to believe that your clients, Meyer T. Cohen, Thomas L. Mays, and Victor K. Heyman and the Heyman Consulting Group, Inc., violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a) (4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. Specifically, it appears that they may have used reports filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") with the Commission for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes. For each client, the General Counsel has enclosed a factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding.

You may submit any factual and legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. In addition, please have Mr. Mays and Mr. Heyman submit answers to the attached interrogatories within ten days of your receipt of this letter. All responses should be submitted under oath.

The Office of General Counsel would like to settle this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause. SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

On April 4, 1983, the General Counsel received a complaint from counsel for the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") stating that American Printing House for the Blind ("the Printing House") had sent a fundraising letter to one of the pseudonyms submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division, and that violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 had occurred. NCPAC states that its own investigation revealed that a list containing the pseudonym was rented to the Printing House by Working Names, Inc. ("Working Names"). NCPAC further alleges that Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, has admitted that Working Names rented the list to the Printing House. The complaint also states that Mr. Cohen claimed that he was merely the broker for the list, but he refused to disclose the identities of the list owners. Finally, the complaint alleges that Mr. Cohen admits that some of the names on the list came from filings with certain Secretaries of ' State. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1541.

Also on April 4, this Office received a second complaint from NCPAC referencing the first complaint and stating that the Republican National Committee ("the RNC") had sent a fundraising letter to the same pseudonym. NCPAC alleges that the RNC received its list from Preferred Lists. The complaint further claims that Preferred Lists states that Working Names provided them with the list. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1542.

Heyman and the Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. Dear Ms. Elliott: This letter is in response to your letter of February 13, 1984, the date for response to which was extended by the General Counsel to March 15th. I have enclosed sworn answers to interrogatories by Victor K. Heyman, on behalf of himself and Heyman Consulting Group, Inc., and Thomas Mays. The facts presented in the General Counsel's Factual and T Legal Analysis are not disputed. The two complaints filed by National Conservative Political Action Committee allege only that a single pseudonym, or decoy, was discovered in the lists prepared and rented by respondents. Although respondents have no knowledge, it can be reasonably assumed that NCPAC, being ... permitted to use as many as ten decoy names, used more than one decoy in its filings with the Commission. It is therefore apparent that if any violation occurred, it involved only the use of a partial list submitted by NCPAC to the Commission. Had a full NCPAC list been used by the respondents, more than one decoy would have appeared and been discovered. The fact that only one decoy name appeared can be presumed. The Complainant NCPAC has had the ability to fully check the subject "Truly Conservative Contributors" list, both through receipt of material addressed to any pseudonym which appeared and directly from a copy of the list which complainant NCPAC itself rented from respondent Working Names, Inc. If any other decoy was included, a further complaint would clearly have been forthcoming. The fact that no further complaint has been alleged for nearly a year, although the Complainant has had access to the list, indicates that there is no ongoing violation, if any violation occurred.

Lee Ann Elliott March 14, 1984 Page Two A more reasonable explanation of the inclusion of the single decoy is that a partial NCPAC list was incorrectly filed in the Office of a secretary of state causing it to be represented by the government office as a state, rather than Federally required filing. Respondents would then have unknowingly received this partial list. Since NCPAC files its reports on generic computer print-outs, rather than Federal Election Commission torms, the misfiling would not have been obvious. If such a misfiling occurred, the respondents use of the partial list would be innocent. Respondents had no intent to use in whole or in part any list filed in any place by NCPAC pursuant to any Federal law. For the above-stated reasons, we submit that there is no probable cause to believe that a violation of the statute has occurred with regard to any respondent. If the General Counsel's Office, however, believes that a technical violation has occurred without willful intent, respondents are prepared to enter into a conciliation agreement to settle this matter. Respectfully submitted, Want S War Matthew S. Watson 0 MSW: clq .2. Enclosure cc: Jonathan Levin, Esq. Ci

COMPREHENSIVE INVESTIGATIVE REPORT # 1

This matter involves two complaints received from the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") stating that the American Printing House for the Blind and the Republican National Committee ("RNC") had sent fundraising letters to one of the pseudonyms filed with the Commission and that violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 had occurred. The first complaint alleged that Working Names, Inc., acting as a list broker, rented the list to the Printing House. The second complaint alleged that the RNC received its mailing list from Preferred Lists and that Working Names provided Preferred Lists with the list.

While the Commission found no reason to believe that the Printing House or the RNC violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) or 11 C.F.R. § 104.15, it did find that Preferred Lists and Working Names violated those sections of the Act and Regulations.

As the investigation proceeded, this Office learned that the list owners were Victor Heyman and the Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. ("Heyman Consulting") of Rockville, Maryland and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Mr. Mays obtained the names themselves and Heyman Consulting performed computer processing of the materials. The Commission, upon the recommendation of this Office, found reason to believe that Heyman Consulting, Mr. Heyman, and Mr. Mays violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. Upon this Office's recommendation, the Commission also extended the investigation to the president of Working Names, Meyer Cohen, and found reason to believe that he violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. These findings were made on February 7, 1984.

In response to the reason to believe finding, counsel for the respondents asserted that the appearance of the pseudonym in the mailings involved was due to an incorrect filing of a NCPAC list as a state report, rather than a federal report, in an office of a Secretary of State. In response to interrogatories, Mr. Heyman stated that Mr. Mays provided the Heyman Consulting Group with the names it used to produce the list involved in the mailings. He further stated that Mr. Mays had told him the names were obtained from the records maintained by "State Secretaries of State" concerning non-federal elections. As part of his response, Mr. Mays submitted a list of the eight Secretaries of State offices where he obtained names for the list of names involved in this matter. Mr. Mays asserted that he requested only filings for state and local contests. This Office has mailed questions to the eight offices in order to ascertain whether or not the obtaining of the pseudonym by Mr. Mays was

Mr. Kenneth A. Gross Associate General Counsel Federal Election Commission Washinton, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Gross:

In answer to your questions contained in your letter of May 10, 1984:

- The Lieutenant Governor's office maintains files, reports, etc. on federal campaigns only. All state campaign reports, etc. are filed with the Alaska Public Office Commission, 610 C Street, Suite 211, Anchorage, Alaska 99501, so there is no need for us to maintain seperate recordkeeping systems.
- 2. We do not require that reports be made on state forms for our purposes. (APOC however does require that state forms be used.) We allow copies of the reports sent to the Federal Election Commission to be filed in our office.
- 3. When a person comes into our office to review a report, they are directed to the person who has control over the reports themselves. They must first request a report, then they are allowed to review the report within a certain area of the office where they can be observed by the person in control of the files.
- 4. The requestor sees the report in the form it was filed; we are not computerized for this area. The F.E.C. administratively instructs filers who contribute to Federal candidates in a state to send the Summary Page, Detailed Summary Page, and any Schedule B pages showing contributions to candidate(s) to the proper states. Some of the filers send the complete report just to cover the bases, and some less than is necessary. We are only required to file and maintain those documents which reflect a transaction in our state.

Mr. Kenneth A. Gross - Associate General Counsel Federal Election Commission 1325 K Street N.W. Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Gross;

In response to your letter dated May 10, 1984, the answers to all of your questions are as follows:

- Yes. Our report files for all state election activity are kept separately from our report files for federal activity. Our County Boards of Election handle all local election activity.
 - A) All state and federal files are kept in the same room, but they are filed in separate folders within separate cabinets. Each candidate (state & federal) has its own folder. Each state PAC has it's own folder. However federal PAC's are filed alphabetically by folder (i.e. all A's are in "A" folder, all B's are in "B" folder, etc.).
 - B) Candidate folders are labeled by name and district (e.g. AD Assembly, SD Senate, JD Judicial, CD Congressional). Major candidates are labeled by name and office (e.g. President, US Sen, Gov, Lt. Gov., Att. Gen, Compt.). State PAC's have the name of the PAC on the tab of the folder and federal PAC folders are labeled alphabetically (i.e. A,B,C, etc.). Cabinets are labeled by description of contents.
- 2. Yes. We require all committees and candidates to file on state forms.
 - A) No. Reports must be filed on our forms.
 - B) Reporting entities are required to submit a copy of the report sent to the Federal Election Commission (FEC) regarding disclosure of federal activities.
- 3. When an individual comes to review a report, he or she must fill out a form entitled, Request for Access to Public Records. Once the form is completed, the file is pulled and given to the requestor. This individual may review the reports at the tables in the Public Viewing Area or they may request copies at a cost of 10 cents per page.

- The requestor observes the report in the form it was filed.
- They are sold to the requestor in the form of a copy of the actual report.
- 6. As stated in our response to question 2B, copies of FEC reports are sent to us regarding federal activity, whereas all state election activity must be on state forms.
- 7. Yes. Our office does keep records of the names of persons who review or request reports, and what reports they are reviewing or requesting.
- Election campaign finance reports are made public records by Sec. 14-108(3) and Sec. 14-108(4) of the Election Law. They are expressly made available for public inspection.

Where a record is made available solely by virtue of Sec. 89 of the Public Officer's Law, its use for commercial purposes may be limited by Sec. 88 (3)(d).

However, election finance reports are available independently of the Freedom of Information Law (i.e. Sec 89 of the Public Officers Law) and they may not be restricted in view of Sec. 89 (6) of the Public Officers Law, which reads: "Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or abridge any otherwise available right of access at law or in equity of any party to records".

- 9. Yes. The National Conservative Political Action Committee (NCPAC) has filed reports with our office.
 - The NCPAC began filing reports with our office during March 1982. The last filing we received from the NCPAC was for March 1983.
 - The NCPAC filed copies of reports sent to the FEC with us for its federal campaign activity. The NCPAC has never registered with the State Board of Elections or submitted any filings regarding its state campaign activity.
 - C) As stated in 9B) above, the NCPAC files copies of reports sent to the FEC with us. These reports are on FEC forms.

A copy of your letter has been enclosed for your convenience. If you have any questions don't hesitate to contact us at (518) 474-8200.

3. Each statement shall be preserved by the officer with whom or the board with which it is required to be filed for a period of five years from the date of filing thereof.

4. Each statement shall constitute a part of the public records of such

Requested document or "complaint" of CB radio theft was a field officer's report and, as such, might well include hearsay, reports and names of confidential informants, suspicions or rumors; and since no reasonable definition of "police blotter," as enumerated in the Freedom of Information Law, would call for the inclusion of such information thereon, the requested document was not subject to disclosure under the Law, and its availability should have been denied. Defendants' request for disclosure and inspection of statistical data relating to the arrest and prosecution of persons for prostitution-related offenses, for the purpose of establishing their claim that the law under which they are charged (Penal Law, an 230) is unconstitutionally enforced by the District Attorney and city police, who allegedly routinely enforce section 230.00 of the Penal Law against female prostitutes while they do not enforce section 230.03 against their male patrons, is denied since it does not fit under the categories of discoverable material described in CPL 240.20 and 240.40, is not discoverable on the authority of Brady v Maryland (373 US '83), as it does not address the guilt or innocence of the defendants, and, moreover, the claim of discriminatory enforcement should not be treated as a defense to the criminal charge, but as an application to the court for a dismissal or quashing of the prosecution upon constitutional grounds; however, if defendants should seek and obtain the data under the Freedom of Information Law (Public Officers Law, art 6, §§ 85-90), the court will allow them to renew their motions for an evidentiary hearing and for dismissal of the accusatory instruments, if they should then decide that such motions would be appropriate. Mr. Kenneth A. Gross Associate General Counsel Federal Election Commission Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Gross:

Secretary of State John Fainter referred your letter of May 10, 1984 to me. I received this letter on May 14, 1984. The following information is submitted in response to your questions concerning the process by which the public may review or receive copies of political campaign reports filed in our office. I am setting out your questions and my answers in the order in which you asked the questions.

1. Do you keep files of reports of state and local election activity, (i.e., contributions and disbursements related to campaigns for local and state offices) separate from your files of reports of federal activities (i.e., contributions and disbursements for U.S. House, U.S. Senate, or President)?

Yes. Sworn statements of contributions and expenditures and designation of campaign treasurers for candidates and officeholders and certain political action committees involved in an election in this state are filed separately from files of reports for federal political campaign activities.

a. Please describe in detail how the federal reports are separated from the state and local reports e.g., by separate folder, separate cabinets, separate rooms.

FEC forms and state filings are filed in separate rooms in the Disclosure Filings Office.

Mr. Kenneth A. Gross Page 2 b. Are there clear markings or other indications on the folders, cabinets, or in the rooms to indicate whether the reports contained therein are state or federal? The rooms are not marked to indicate that they contain FEC or state files. However, the file cabinets and folders in each room are clearly labeled to identify FEC and state materials. 2. Do you require reports to be filed on state forms? Reports of federal activities (i.e. contributions and disbursements for U.S. House, U.S. Senate, or President) are not required to be filed on state forms. Tex. Elec. Code Ann. art. 14.07(H)(7) requires candidates for offices created under laws of the United States to file copies of any reports required by federal laws with the secretary of state on the same date they file such reports with the appropriate federal authorities. A report filed under Chapter 14 by a state officeholder or candidate to a public office in this state or a political action committee involved in a state election must use the forms prescribed by the secretary of state. Do you permit reports to be filed on computerized forms? No. As mentioned above, the forms filed under Chapter 14 must be those prescribed by the secretary of state. However, this office allows the reporting entity to attach a computer printout of their records of contributors or expenditures to the sworn statements of contributions and expenditures. -When reports on federal activity are filed, must these reports be filed on state forms or may the reporting entity submit a copy of the report sent to the Federal Election Commission, the Clerk of the House, or the Secretary of the Senate? As mentioned above, when reports on federal activity are filed, the reporting entity must submit to the Secretary of State copies of the report sent to federal authorities. When a person comes to review a report, does he or she have to register at a desk and request specific copies or may he or she go to the appropriate file and pull out the report needed? A person wishing to review a report filed in our office must register with a receptionist and request a specific

Mr. Kenneth A. Gross Page 3 file or files. The person requesting a file may not go directly into the file rooms or file cabinets. Once a person has a file, he or she may review any of the reports filed in the folder but may not remove any forms or files from the office. If the requested reports are on microfiche, staff members set up the film for the person making the inquiry. When reports are reviewed by a requestor, does the requestor see the report in the form it was filed or on a computer printout with the same information? If computer printouts are reviewed, do they indicate whether the information on the printout comes from the state or the federal reports? The reports are filed as they are received and any person wishing to review a file would see the reports as they were originally filed. These records are available on microfiche or in hard copy depending on how old the records are. When a requestor asks for copies of reports that he or 5. she may retain are these copies sold (or given) to the requestor in the form of a copy of the actual report or as a computer printout? 0 Copies of reports are sold at 55¢ for the first page and 15¢ per page thereafter. For microfiched reports the 2 copies are 75¢ for the first page and 25¢ per page thereafter. We have recently expanded our facilities and services, but computer printouts are not yet available from our CO office. Is there any labeling or other designation on copies of the reports indicating whether they are for state or federal campaign activity? Since the copies of reports are made from the original reports, these are clearly labeled as "State Election Forms" or FEC forms. Does your office keep records of the names of persons who review or request reports and what reports they are reviewing or requesting? Yes, these request forms are filed in our office and kept in chronological order. (See enclosed form.)

Mr. Kenneth A. Gross Page 4 Does your state have a statute or regulation similar to 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) or 11 C.F.R. § 104.5 (copies enclosed) prohibiting the use of contributors' names for solicitation or for other commercial purposes? No. If the answer is yes, please enclose a copy of the appropriate statute and/or regulation? N/A Does the National Conservative Political Action Commit-9. tee (NCPAC) file reports with your office? Yes. If the answer is yes, when did NCPAC begin to file reports with your office? a The NCPAC filed a designation of campaign treasurer for a state campaign general purpose political committee on May 26, 1978 and dissolved on October 31, 1978. We have no further record of NCPAC filing as a political action committee involved in state campaign activity. The NCPAC has filed extensive reports on federal 0 campaign activity with the secretary of state. These date as far back as 1977 on microfiche, and I have been unable to 77 trace the earliest reports. Our oldest records are kept in the archives. Many of these files are presently being 5 microfiched. I hope to have an answer for your office by the end of next week. Does NCPAC file one report or separate reports for state campaign activity and federal campaign activity? The NCPAC filed separate reports when it was a state political action committee. As a federal political action committee, it has filed only on FEC forms. If NCPAC's practice has changed from filing one combined state-federal report to filing separate reports, please state when this practice began. The only state reports we have found were separate from federal reports. Our review of the older FEC files may show a different result. Does NCPAC file on state reporting forms or on computer print-outs containing the required information?

Mr. Kenneth A. Gross Page 5 If NCPAC has been filing on computer print-outs, please state when it began this practice and whether this practice is for both state and federal reports. The files we have reviewed thus far show that NCPAC has filed reports using computer printouts as far back as 1977. We are reviewing older files and should soon have an answer about when it began this practice. If you have any questions about these matters, please contact this office. We should have the answers to your questions on NCPAC soon. Sincerely, Martha G. Martinez Assistant General Counsel a Elections Division MGM:bl (

Kenneth A. Gross Associate General Counsel Federal Election Commission Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Gross:

I'm sorry to respond so slowly to your questions sent to me on May 10th. We had a primary election last month which creates a mildly chaotic atmosphere and I simply put your communication aside until the dust settled.

I have responded in red ink on the actual pages you mailed to me with the questions. I hope this kind of response is helpful. I am also enclosing a copy of our California POLITICAL REFORM ACT for your information. I call particular attention to which reads "no conditions whatsoever shall be imposed upon persons desiring to inspect or reproduce reports and statements filed under this title, nor shall any information or identification be required from such persons."

If I can provide you with any further information, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Most sincerely,

Answers to questions by: Kenneth A. Gross

Associate General Counsel

Below are answers to questions about how the Campaign Finance Section of the Office of the Secretary of the State of Connecticut files and maintains Campaign Finance disclosure statements.

Questions 1.- 1a. - 1b.

a

C

All Federal disclosure statements are filed and maintained seperately from state and local disclosure statements. Federal and State disclosure statements are filed and maintained in the Campaign Finance Section of the Elections Division of the Office of the Secretary of the State. A labeled set of file cabinets separate from those used for State files contain the Federal disclosure statements. A single file cabinet is kept in the Campaign Finance Section office, which contains those reports received for the current calendar year. Within that cabinet the reports are filed by committee type (Presidential, U.S. Senate, U.S. House, PACs). Within a committee type the reports are filed alphabetically by committee name in separate filed folders.

C

Prior years are maintained in a locked wire cage in the basement of the building which houses the Campaign Finance Section. In the wire cage PAC's are filed by Committee name alphabetically with all previous years filed together in one committee foleer. Candidate Committees for the offices of U.S. Senate and U.S. House are filed by election year with candidate committees within an election year filed alphabetically within a district or office sought.

Questions 2. - 2a. - 2b.

Federal disclosure statements received in Connecticut are not required to be filed on state forms. In Connecticut we permit reports to be filed on computerized forms, provided the computerized versions contain all the required information in the required format. Federal disclosure reports filed in Connecticut are copies of reports filed with the Federal Election Commission in Washington, the Clerk of the House or the Secretary of the Senate. We do not require them to be submitted on state forms.

Question 3.

A person requesting to review a report must see a member of the Campaign Finance Section and request a specific Committee report or a series of Committee reports, which a staff member will retrieve. If a person is doing extensive research, free access to the files is granted on a case by case basis.

Question 4.

Currently, when reports are reviewed by a requestor, the report is in the form it was filed, within six months all federal reports filed and maintained in Connecticut will be in microfilm form.

Question 5.

A requestor who asks for a copy of a report is given a photo copy of the original report at the rate of 10¢ per page if the number of pages copied exceeds ten pages and the requestor performs the copying. If a Campaign Finance staff member performs the copying, the charge is 10¢ for the first 50 pages and 15¢ per page for above 50 pages.

Question 6.

C:

No specific labeling of copies is performed by the Campaign Finance Section. Distinction between a Federal report and a State report is by the type of report form (Federal or State). A Connecticut Statement of Receipts and Expenditures is easily identified as different from a Federal Statement.

Question 7.

The Campaign Finance Section does not currently record the names of persons who review or request reports and what reports are reviewed or requested.

Question 8.

The State of Connecticut does not currently have a statute or regulation simular to 2 U.S.C. S/S 438(a)(4) or 11 C.F.R. S/S 104.5.

Yes, the National Conservative Political Action Committee (NCPAC) does file Federal Disclosure with this office. Our files indicate that they have been filing such reports since January 1981. NCPAC files only Federal reports for Federal for Federal campaign activity. NCPAC does not have a separate political committee which must be registered with this office to engage in state activity, thus does not file on any state forms. The federal NCPAC filings are partially on computor print-outs, the first of this type was received in this office in June of 1981.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

This matter involves complaints filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") alleging violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

On April 4, 1983, the General Counsel received a complaint from counsel for the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") stating that American Printing House for the Blind ("the Printing House") had sent a fundraising letter to one of the pseudonyms submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division, and that violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 had occurred. NCPAC stated that its own investigation revealed that a list containing the pseudonym was rented to the Printing House by Working Names, Inc. ("Working Names"). NCPAC further alleged that Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, had admitted that Working Names rented the list to the Printing House. The complaint also stated that Mr. Cohen claimed that he was merely the broker for the list, but he refused to disclose the identities of the list owners. Finally, the complaint alleged that Mr. Cohen admitted that some of the names on the list came from filings with certain Secretaries of State. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1541.

Also on April 4, this Office received a second complaint from NCPAC referencing the first complaint and stating that the Republican National Committee ("the RNC") had sent a fundraising letter to the same pseudonym. NCPAC alleged that the RNC received its list from Preferred Lists. The complaint further claimed that Preferred Lists stated that Working Names provided them with the list. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1542.

On July 15, 1983, the Commission found no reason to believe that the Printing House or the RNC violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) or 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The Commission, however, found that there was reason to believe Preferred Lists and Working Names violated those sections of the Act and Regulations. Interrogatories were sent to Preferred Lists and Working Names and also to Carol Enters List Company ("CELCO"), the list broker for the transaction involving the Printing House.

In a meeting with counsel for Working Names on August 3, 1983, */ and in a letter received from Meyer T. Cohen, President of Working Names, on August 12, 1983, it was revealed that the list owners are Victor K. Heyman and Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. ("Heyman Consulting") of Rockville, Maryland and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Mr. Cohen's response indicated that the functions of the participants dealing with the list were divided as follows: Working Names advertises and markets the list and receives payment from the list users, Victor Heyman and Heyman

I. BACKGROUND

This matter involves two complaints filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") alleging violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. These complaints alleged that the American Printing House for the Blind ("the Printing House") and the Republican National Committee ("the RNC") solicited contributions from a pseudonym submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4). NCPAC stated further in these allegations that Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, had rented the list containing the pseudonym to the solicitors, and that the RNC obtained the list from Preferred Lists, Inc., a list broker.

On July 15, 1983, the Commission found no reason to believe that the Printing House and the RNC violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The Commission, however, found reason to believe that Working Names and Preferred Lists violated those sections of the Act and Regulations and sent questions to the respondents.

In response to the questions, counsel for Working Names disclosed both orally and in writing that the list owners are

Although Preferred Lists is a broker, active in the mailing list industry and was, ina technical sense, involved in the commercial use of a name obtained unlawfully, it is difficult to draw a legal conclusion that there is no probable cause to believe that Preferred Lists violated the Act. The responses of Preferred List, however, indicates that it had done business with Working Names for a number of years and did not have reason tosuspect that the list was unlawful in origin. Furthermore, as is the usual case with brokers in the mailing list industry,

Based on the evidence presented, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission take no further action with respect to Preferred Lists, Inc. III. RECOMMENDATIONS 1. Dear Ms. Kerman:

Based on complaints filed with the Commission on April 4, 1983, and information supplied by Meyer T. Cohen, the Commission determined, on July 12, 1983, that there was reason to believe that Working Names, Inc. violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15, a provision of the Commission's Regulations, and instituted an investigation of this matter. Based on information received during the investigation, the Commission, on February 7, 1984, found reason to believe that Mr. Cohen and Thomas L. Mays also violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

Submitted for your review are briefs stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the briefs of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible). The General Counsel's briefs and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

Leslie J. Kerman, Esquire Page 2 If you are unable to file a responsive brief within fifteen days, you may submit a written request to the Commission for an extension of time in which to file a brief. The Commission will not grant any extensions beyond twenty days. A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of the General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety, days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement. BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This matter involves complaints filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") alleging violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

On April 4, 1983, the General Counsel received a complaint from counsel for the National Conservative Political Action Committee stating that American Printing House for the Blind ("the Printing House") had sent a fundraising letter to one of the pseudonyms submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division, and that violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 had occurred. NCPAC stated that its own investigation revealed that a list containing the pseudonym was rented to the Printing House by Working Names, Inc. ("Working Names"). NCPAC further alleged that Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, had admitted that Working Names rented the list to the Printing House. The complaint also stated that Mr. Cohen claimed that he was merely the broker for the list, but he refused to disclose the identities of the list owners. Finally, the complaint alleged that Mr. Cohen admitted that some of the names on the list came from filings with certain Secretaries of State. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1541.

Also on April 4, this Office received a second complaint from NCPAC referencing the first complaint and stating that the Republican National Committee ("the RNC") had sent a fundraising letter to the same pseudonym. NCPAC alleged that the RNC received its list from Preferred Lists. The complaint further claimed that Preferred Lists stated that Working Names provided them with the list. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1542.

In response to the complaint, Meyer Cohen of Working Names admitted that his company has the pseudonym, and he sent us the portion of the list containing the pseudonym. He stated that Working Names is a list management company representing two owners of the list and that the two owners compiled the list in "a legally acceptable manner." Mr. Cohen proceeded to state that the pseudonym or "decoy" submitted by NCPAC may not be a "true decoy" in that it may be obtainable from some source other than reports filed with the Commission or with Secretaries of State.

Research of this Office revealed that the pseudonym was not the only example of a name from the list coinciding with NCPAC reports. The list portion sent to this Office by Mr. Cohen contained 212 names. After checking those names against a list of 1982 contributors to NCPAC, it appeared that approximately 14 percent of the names on the list portion submitted by Mr. Cohen also appeared on the NCPAC reports filed with the Commission for 1982.

On July 12, 1983, the Commission found reason to believe that Working Names violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The Commission also approved interrogatories to be sent to Working Names.

In a meeting with counsel for Working Names on August 3, 1983, and in a letter received from Meyer T. Cohen, President of Working Names, on August 12, 1983, it was revealed that the list owners are Victor K. Heyman and Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. ("Heyman Consulting") of Rockville, Maryland, and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Mr. Cohen's response indicated that the functions of the participants dealing with the list were divided as follows: Working Names advertised and marketed the list and received payment from the list users. Victor Heyman and Heyman Consulting performed computer processing of the list material, entering the names which they received onto computer tapes and duplicating the tapes or producing mailing labels from the tape information. Mr. Mays obtained the names themselves. According to oral representations by counsel and Meyer Cohen's written response, Mr. Mays traveled to the various offices of the Secretaries of State and obtained the filings made for state and local elections and did not "knowingly" use any material required by federal law to be filed with a Secretary of State. In addition, in his written response, Mr. Cohen maintained that NCPAC filings were made on computer printouts and, if a NCPAC form were filed incorrectly by a Secretary of State, "it would not be immediately apparent that a restricted federal form had been

Maryland and was told that reports for state committees and federal political committees are kept in separate files and segregated from one another. Based upon this information, this Office, with the Commission's approval, sent a letter, on October 3, 1983, to the complainant asking it if it had included the solicited pseudonym on any list or report other than the report of contributors submitted to the Commission. On October 18, NCPAC replied that the pseudonym "was not used by NCPAC on any report or list of names filed with any agency other than the Federal Election Commission."

On February 7, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that Meyer Cohen violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

On March 15, 1984, counsel for the respondents replied that the use of only one pseudonym was discovered and that this indicated that any violation by his client is not ongoing.

Counsel also repeated his explanation that the use of any NCPAC names may have resulted from misfiling at the office of a secretary of state. In an affidavit submitted along with counsel's response, Mr. Mays listed the offices of the secretary of state in eight states as the sources of the list, "Truly Conservative Contributors."

1-p.4 of 13

On May 10, 1984, this Office sent questions to these eight offices inquiring as to the process by which members of the public may review or receive copies of political campaign finance reports and as to whether and how state reports are separated from federal reports. Procedures differ from state to state. All but one of the states separate state filings from federal filings. This is done by having a separate state office for the receipt of filings for state candidacies, by separate filing rooms, or by separate, clearly marked cabinets. The Florida Secretary of State's office stated that it does not separate federal and state files in the above manner. It also stated that NCPAC files reports in computerized form and does not separate federal and state activity.

Section 438(a)(4) of Title 2 and section 104.15 of the Commission's Regulations provide that any information copied from filed reports may not be sold or used by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes, other than using the name and address of a political committee to solicit contributions from such committee. Section 104.15(a) includes reports filed with Secretaries of State within the prohibition.

The appearance of the pseudonym in the list offered by Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen is strong evidence that the list was compiled from prohibited sources. Furthermore, the responses of the state offices maintaining the reports from which the names were obtained reveal that sufficient care was not exercised in compiling the list. Two of the offices used, the Alaska Lieutenant Governor's Office and the Louisiana Secretary of State's Office, maintain reports only of federal candidates and committees. Respondents have posed the defense that they used only non-federal reports. It is apparent from the information as to the state offices used that sufficient care or sufficient regard for the provisions of the Act and Regulations was not exercised by Mr. Mays.

The responses of Mr. Mays and Mr. Heyman after the reason to believe finding against Mr. Cohen indicate that Mr. Mays was the only provider of names for the list in question and that this list was prepared for marketing as a result of a working relationship among Mr. Mays, Mr. Heyman, and Mr. Cohen. In a meeting with this Office in August, 1984, counsel for Working Names, Inc. and Mr. Cohen indicated that there is an ongoing working relationship among these three men. It appears, therefore, that Working Names, Inc. and Mr. Cohen were integrally involved in the activity which violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. Based on the foregoing analysis, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This matter involves complaints filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") alleging violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

On April 4, 1983, the General Counsel received a complaint from counsel for the National Conservative Political Action Committee stating that American Printing House for the Blind ("the Printing House") had sent a fundraising letter to one of the pseudonyms submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division, and that violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 had occurred. The complaint also stated that Mr. Cohen claimed that he was merely the broker for the list, but he refused to disclose the identities of the list owners. Finally, the complaint alleged that Mr. Cohen admitted that some of the names on the list came from filings with certain Secretaries of State. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1541.

1-p.8 of 13

Also on April 4, this Office received a second complaint from NCPAC referencing the first complaint and stating that the Republican National Committee ("the RNC") had sent a fundraising letter to the same pseudonym. NCPAC alleged that the RNC received its list from Preferred Lists. The complaint further claimed that Preferred Lists stated that Working Names provided them with the list. This complaint was subsequently numbered as MUR 1542.

In response to the complaint, Meyer Cohen of Working Names admitted that his company has the pseudonym, and he sent us the portion of the list containing the pseudonym. He stated that Working Names is a list management company representing two owners of the list and that the two owners compiled the list in "a legally acceptable manner." Mr. Cohen proceeded to state that the pseudonym or "decoy" submitted by NCPAC may not be a "true decoy" in that it may be obtainable from some source other than reports filed with the Commission or with Secretaries of State.

Research of this Office revealed that the pseudonym was not the only example of a name from the list coinciding with NCPAC reports. The list portion sent to this Office by Mr. Cohen contained 212 names. After checking those names against a list of 1982 contributors to NCPAC, it appeared that approximately 14 percent of the names on the list portion submitted by Mr. Cohen also appeared on the NCPAC reports filed with the Commission for 1982.

1-p. 9 of 13

On July 12, 1983, the Commission found reason to believe that Working Names violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The Commission also approved interrogatories to be sent to Working Names.

In a meeting with counsel for Working Names on August 3, 1983, and in a letter received from Meyer T. Cohen, President of Working Names, on August 12, 1983, it was revealed that the list owners are Victor K. Heyman and Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. ("Heyman Consulting") of Rockville, Maryland, and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Mr. Cohen's response indicated that the functions of the participants dealing with the list were divided as follows: Working Names advertised and marketed the list and received payment from the list users. Victor Heyman and Heyman Consulting performed computer processing of the list material, entering the names which they received onto computer tapes and duplicating the tapes or producing mailing labels from the tape information. Mr. Mays obtained the names themselves. According to oral representations by counsel and Meyer Cohen's written response, Mr. Mays traveled to the various offices of the Secretaries of State and obtained the filings made for state and local elections and did not "knowingly" use any material required by federal law to be filed with a Secretary of State. In addition, in his written response, Mr. Cohen maintained that NCPAC filings were made on computer printouts and, if a NCPAC form were filed incorrectly by a Secretary of State, "it would not be immediately apparent that a restricted federal form had been obtained." Mr. Cohen's response further stated that, "[d]ue to the large volume of material handled, after entry of a name onto computer tape, the underlying document is not maintained," and, therefore, the source of the "alleged decoy" cannot be determined.

This Office contacted the Boards of Election in Virginia and Maryland and was told that reports for state committees and federal political committees are kept in separate files and segregated from one another. Based upon this information, this Office, with the Commission's approval, sent a letter, on October 3, 1983, to the complainant asking it if it had included the solicited pseudonym on any list or report other than the report of contributors submitted to the Commission. On October 18, NCPAC replied that the pseudonym "was not used by NCPAC on any report or list of names filed with any agency other than the Federal Election Commission."

On February 7, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that Thomas L. Mays violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 and approved interrogatories to be sent to Mr. Mays.

On March 15, 1984, counsel for Mr. Mays replied that the use of only one pseudonym was discovered and that this indicated that any violation by his client is not ongoing. Counsel also repeated his explanation that the use of any NCPAC names may have resulted from misfiling at the office of a secretary of state. In an affidavit submitted along with counsel's response, Mr. Mays listed the offices of the secretary of state in eight states as the sources of the list, "Truly Conservative Contributors."

On May 10, 1984, this Office sent questions to these eight offices inquiring as to the process by which members of the public may review or receive copies of political campaign finance reports and as to whether and how state reports are separated from federal reports. Procedures differ from state to state. All but one of the states separate state filings from federal filings. This is done by having a separate state office for the receipt of filings for state office, by separate filing rooms, or by separate, clearly maked cabinets. The Florida Secretary of State's office stated that it does not separate federal and state files in the above manner. It also stated that NCPAC files reports on computerized form and does not separate federal and state activity.

II. LEGAL ANALYSIS

Section 438(a)(4) of Title 2 and section 104.15 of the Commission's Regulations provide that any information copied from filed reports may not be sold or used by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes, other than using the name and address of a political committee to solicit contributions from such committee. Section 104.15(a) includes reports filed with Secretaries of State within the prohibition.

The appearance of the pseudonym in the list offered by Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen is strong evidence that the list was compiled from prohibited sources. Furthermore, the responses of the state offices maintaining the reports from which the names were obtained reveal that sufficient care was not exercised in compiling the list. Two of the offices used, the Alaska Lieutenant Governor's Office and the Louisiana Secretary of State's Office, maintain reports only of federal candidates and committees. Mr. Mays has posed the defense that he used only non-federal reports. It is apparent from the information as to the state offices used that sufficient care or sufficient regard for the provisions of the Act and Regulations was not exercised by Mr. Mays.

1-p. 12 of 13

Based on the foregoing analysis, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Thomas L. Mays violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

> MUR 1542 - Respondents, Working Names, Inc., Meyer T. Cohen and Thomas L. Mays

Dear Commissioner McGarry:

This letter concerns our request for an extension of time in which to respond to the General Counsel's probable cause brief in the above-captioned matter. This request for a twenty-day extension, a copy of which is attached hereto, was filed with the Office of General Counsel on May 24, 1985. We received official notification from the General Counsel's Office that no extension of time would be granted on May 31, 1985, the date on which reply briefs were due.

As stated in our letter of May 24, 1985, this extension of time is required for us, as new counsel to Respondents, to be able to provide the Commission with significant, new facts with respect to this matter; facts which we were first made aware of on May 22, 1985, which we are currently in the process of verifying and documenting, and which may entail the revision of the answers to interrogatories previously proffered to the Commission by our clients.

Accordingly, we urge the Commission to grant our requested extension of time, allowing us until June 20, 1985 to respond to the General Counsel's brief in this matter. Under Mr. John Warren McGarry, Chairman June 6, 1985 Page Two the circumstances, any probable cause determination rendered without consideration of the new and highly relevant facts which we are currently verifying would be extremely inequit-Sincerely, C Clarke Counsel for Respondents Leslie J. Request for Extension

Working Names, Inc.

Meyer T. Cohen Thomas L. Mays

By letter of May 24, 1985, counsel for Working Names, Inc., Meyer T. Cohen, and Thomas L. Mays requested an extension of twenty days in which to respond to the General Counsel's Brief in MUR 1542. (See Attachment 1). The letter states that, "[a]s new counsel to Respondents," counsel needed the extension "to be able to gather pertinent information and to fully and adequately brief [respondents'] position." Counsel maintains that more time was required to "provide the Commission with significant, new information" pertaining to the matter.

On May 30, 1985, this Office sent a letter to counsel denying any extension of time for a response. The reasons had been explained to counsel in a phone conversation on the previous day.

On June 6, counsel sent a letter to the Commissioners protesting the denial of an extension. (See Attachment 2). Counsel claims that she was "first made aware of" the new facts needed for a reply on May 22, 1985. Counsel claims that such facts need to be verified and documented and may necessitate revising respondents' answers to previous interrogatories sent by the Commission.

This Office recommends that no further extension be granted and intends to draft a General Counsel's Report immediately. This case has been open for over two years. After a prolonged pre-probable cause conciliation period the respondents retained present counsel in late February, 1985. Counsel has known the position of this Office in a detailed manner for at

-2least two months. During conversations with this Office, held a number of weeks prior to the sending of briefs by this Office, counsel for the respondents referred to the "new" facts. As counsel has apparently known about the new information for some time, counsel's request for an extension based on such information does not appear to be justified. Based on the foregoing, this Office recommends the denial of any further time for the filing of reply briefs by counsel for the respondents. Recommendations Deny counsel for Working Names, Inc., Meyer T. Cohen, and Thomas L. Mays the extension of any time in which to respond to the General Counsel's Briefs in MUR 1542. GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

EXECUTIVE SESSION

JUL 23 1985

I. BACKGROUND

This matter involves two complaints filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") alleging violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. These complaints alleged that the American Printing House for the Blind ("the Printing House") and the Republican National Committee ("the RNC") solicited contributions from a pseudonym submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4). NCPAC stated further in these allegations that Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, had rented the list containing the pseudonym to the solicitors, and that the RNC obtained the list from Preferred Lists, Inc., a list broker.

On July 15, 1983, the Commission found no reason to believe that the Printing House and the RNC violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The Commission, however, found reason to believe that Working Names and Preferred Lists violated those sections of the Act and Regulations and sent questions to the respondents.

In response to the questions, counsel for Working Names disclosed both orally and in writing that the list owners are Consulting") and Thomas L. Mays. According to the responses, Mr. Mays went to various Secretaries of State's offices and performed the actual name-gathering while Mr. Heyman performed the computer On February 7, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that Meyer Cohen, Thomas L. Mays, and Victor K. Heyman and the Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The investigation proceeded further with replies from the new respondents and communications by this Office with the state offices visited by Mr. Mays. On October 2, 1984, this Office received a letter from respondents' counsel requesting pre-probable cause conciliation. On October 30, the Commission voted to approve entering into pre-probable cause conciliation and to approve draft conciliation proposals. After a meeting between respondents' counsel and OGC staff members, respondents' counsel sent in signed proposals which this Office received on November 30, 1984.

On January 8, 1985, the Commission voted to amend the proposals signed by the respondents and send them back to the respondents for their consideration. On that date, the Commission also voted to take no further action with respect to Preferred Lists, Inc. On March 1, 1985, the Commission voted to accept the amended proposal that was signed by Victor K. Heyman and the Heyman Consulting Group and close the file as to these -3two respondents. On May 8, 1985, this Office sent briefs to new counsel for Mr. Mays and Working Names and Mr. Cohen stating that the General Counsel was prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the remaining respondents have violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. No reply briefs have been received from counsel. II. LEGAL AMALYSIS Reply briefs were not received from counsel. Hence, the General Counsel's legal analysis remains the same, and the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Thomas L. Mays and Working Names, 5 Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. $$ 104.15. 3 III. DISCUSSION OF CONCILIATION AND CIVIL PENALTY 5 C 4.7 0 5 a

Dear Ms. Kerman:

On July 23, 1985, the Commission determined that there is probable cause to believe that your clients violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 a provision of the Commission Regulations, in connection with the commercial use of a name obtained from reports of contributions on file at the Federal Election Commission.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of thirty to ninety days by informal methods of conference, conciliation and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement. If we are unable to reach an agreement during that period, the Commission may institute civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of civil penalties.

We enclose conciliation agreements that this Office is prepared to recommend to the Commission in settlement of this matter. If your clients agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreements, please have the agreements signed and returned along with the civil penalties to the Commission within ten days. I will then recommend that the Commission approve the agreements. The checks for the civil penalties should be made payable to the U.S. Treasurer.

Defendant and Counter-Plaintiff, Working Names, Inc., by and through its attorney, ANDREW E. BEDERMAN, counterclaims against Plaintiff and Counter-Defendant, Heyman Consulting Group, Inc., and states:

- 3. Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant breached the contract because Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff discovered on or before January 31, 1985, that the lists contained names which Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant did not own.
- 4. As a direct and proximate result of Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant's breach of the contract, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff was required to terminate the contract on or about January 31, 1985; was required to defend a claim made by the Federal Elections Commission for alleged rental of lists containing names not owned Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant; and lost and will continue to lose monies which Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff reasonably expected to earn pursuant to the contract.

- 8. Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant breached the contract on or before June 13, 1984, when Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant provided the list to another person or entity for rental management.
- 9. - 12. At the time these representations were made, Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant knew that the representations were false in that Plaintiff/Counter-Defenant knew that the TRULY CONSERVATIVE CONTRIBUTORS list contained unowned names and that Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant intended to violate the exclusivity agreement by providing the PAID SUBSCRIBERS list to another rental manager.
- 13. Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant made the aforesaid false representations to defraud Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

O.

Meyer T. Cohen

This matter involves two complaints filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee alleging violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. These complaints alleged that the American Printing House for the Blind and the Republican National Committee solicited contributions from a pseudonym submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4). NCPAC stated further in these allegations that Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, had rented the list containing the pseudonym to the solicitors.

In response to the complaint, Meyer Cohen of Working Names admitted that his company has the pseudonym, and he sent us the portion of the list containing the pseudonym. He stated that Working Names is a list management company representing two owners of the list and that the two owners compiled the list in "a legally acceptable manner." Mr. Cohen proceeded to state that the pseudonym or "decoy" submitted by NCPAC may not be a "true decoy" in that it may be obtainable from some source other than reports filed with the Commission or with Secretaries of State.

Research of this Office revealed that the pseudonym was not the only example of a name from the list coinciding with NCPAC reports. The list portion sent to this Office by Mr. Cohen contained 212 names. After checking those names against a list of 1982 contributors to NCPAC, it appeared that approximately 14 percent of the names on the list portion submitted by Mr. Cohen also appeared on the NCPAC reports filed with the Commission for 1982.

On July 12, 1983, the Commission found reason to believe that Working Names violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The Commission also approved interrogatories to be sent to Working Names.

In a meeting with counsel for Working Names on August 3, 1983, and in a letter received from Meyer T. Cohen, President of Working Names, on August 12, 1983, this Office was informed of other persons involved in this transaction. In response to a written interrogatory asking him to state the owners of the list, Mr. Cohen stated that the owners are Victor K. Heyman and Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. ("Heyman Consulting") of Rockville, Mayland and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Mr. Cohen's response indicated that the functions of the participants dealing with the list were divided as follows: Working Names advertised and marketed the list and received payment from the list users. Victor Heyman and Heyman Consulting performed computer processing of the list material, entering the names which they received onto computer tapes and duplicating the tapes or producing mailing labels from the tape information. Mr. Mays obtained the names themselves. According to oral representations by counsel and

-3-Meyer Cohen's written response, Mr. Mays traveled to the various offices of the Secretaries of State and obtained the filings made for state and local elections and did not "knowingly" use any material required by federal law to be filed with a Secretary of State. On October 3, 1983, this Office, with the Commission's approval, sent a letter to the complainant asking whether NCPAC had included the solicited pseudonym on any list or report other than the report of contributors submitted to the Commission. On October 18, NCPAC replied that the pseudonym "was not used by · n NCPAC on any report or list of names filed with any agency other a than the Federal Election Commission." On February 7, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that Meyer Cohen and Thomas L. Mays violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The response of counsel for the respondents included an affidavit from Mr. Mays listing the 0 4 offices of the Secretaries of State in eight states as the C sources of the list, "Truly Conservative Contributors." 9 On May 10, 1984, this Office sent questions to these eight a offices inquiring as to the process by which members of the public may review or receive copies of political campaign finance reports and as to whether and how state reports are separated from federal reports. Procedures differ from state to state. All but one of the states separate state filings from federal filings. This is done by having a separate state office for the the receipt of filings for state candidacies, by separate filing rooms, or by separate, clearly marked cabinets. The Florida Secretary of State's Office stated that it does not separate federal and state files in the above manner. It also stated that NCPAC files reports in computerized form and does not separate federal and state activity. In response to a request from counsel, the Commission, on October 30, 1984, voted to approve entering into pre-probable cause conciliation with Mr. Mays, Mr. Cohen and Working Names, and Mr. Heyman and Heyman Consulting. After a meeting between respondents' counsel and OGC staff members, respondents' counsel sent in signed proposals which this Office received on November 30, 1984. On January 8, 1985, the Commission voted to amend the .0 proposals signed by the respondents and to send them back to the respondents for their consideration. On March 1, 1985, the Commission voted to accept the amended proposal that was signed by Victor K. Heyman and the Heyman Consulting Group and to close the file as to these two respondents. C On May 8, 1985, this Office sent briefs to the new counsel T 0 for Mr. Mays and Working Names and Mr. Cohen, stating that the 5 General Counsel was prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the remaining respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. No reply briefs were received from counsel. On July 23, 1985, the Commission found probable cause to believe that Thomas Mays, Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 and voted to commence conciliation negotiations.

This Office and counsel for the respondents were unable to reach an agreement. In early October, just prior to being informed by respondents' counsel that the respondents would not sign a modified proposal offered by this Office, the former counsel for the respondents called this Office. He is representing Heyman Consulting Group in a state court suit against Working Names for payments allegedly owed by Working Names. During the discovery process in this litigation, Working Names sent certain documents to Heyman Consulting Group. documents included "Payment Advices," i.e., memoranda of payments, on Working Names stationery listing John Whitehead, a businessman actively involved in the mailing list industry, as the payee. (See Attachment 1). The Payment Advices were for the Truly Conservative Contributors list. Each document included the billing date, the "maildate," the "mailer," i.e., the organization purchasing the use of the names, the amount of names from the list being used, the amount of the commission per thousand names, and a deduction for the amount of money being paid to the Heyman Consulting Group. One of these Payment Advices referred to 5,100 names from Truly Conservative Contributors going to the RNC with a maildate of February 28, 1983. Another Payment Advice referred to 10,200 names from Truly Conservative Contributors going to the American Printing House for the Blind with a maildate of February 14, 1983. The dates indicate that these mailings may be the mailings referred to in the complaints initiating this matter.

Mr. Whitehead has responded to a set of Commission interrogatories in a previous matter involving 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4), MUR 1549. It appears that he conducts his business through John Whitehead and Associates.

Section 438(a)(4) of Title 2 and section 104.15 of the Commission's Regulations provide that any information copied from filed reports may not be sold or used by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes, other than using the name and address of a political committee to solicit contributions from such committee. Section 104.15(a) includes reports filed with Secretaries of State within the prohibition.

The appearance of the pseudonym in the list offered by the respondents is strong evidence that the list was compiled from prohibited sources. Furthermore, the responses of the state offices maintaining the reports from which the names were obtained reveal that sufficient care was not exercised in compiling the list. Two of the offices used, the Alaska Lieutenant Governor's Office and the Louisiana Secretary of State's Office, maintain reports only of federal candidates and committees. The defense has been posed that only non-federal sources were used. It is apparent from the information as to the state offices used that there was insufficient regard for the provisions of the Act and Regulations in the compilation of this list.

The evidence presented indicates that there may have been another owner of the list besides Victor Heyman and the Heyman

Consulting Group and Thomas Mays. This Office, therefore, wishes to withhold the recommendation of Commission authorization to file a civil suit in this matter until the issue of the involvement of Mr. Whitehead and his company is resolved. As a possible co-owner of the list or as a major participant in a transaction involving the use of reported names of contributors to federal candidates, Mr. Whitehead and his company may have violated the Act.

Based on the foregoing analysis, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that John L. Whitehead and John Whitehead and Associates violated 2 U.S.C. 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R § 104.15. In order to clarify the remaining areas of inquiry in this matter, this Office recommends that the Commission approve a subpoena for documents and testimony from Mr. Whitehead.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

- 1. Find reason to believe that John L. Whitehead and John Whitehead and Associates violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.
- 2. Approve the attached subpoena for documents and deposition.
- 3. Approve the attached letter and factual and legal analysis.

John Whitehead and Associates

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

This matter involves an allegation that John L. Whitehead and John Whitehead and Associates violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 by using for commercial purposes names of contributors filed with the Commission.

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

Two complaints were filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee alleging violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. These complaints alleged that the American Printing House for the Blind and the Republican National Committee solicited contributions from a pseudonym submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4). NCPAC stated further in these allegations that Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, had rented the list containing the pseudonym to the solicitors.

In response to the complaint, Meyer Cohen of Working Names admitted that his company has the pseudonym, and he sent us the portion of the list containing the pseudonym. He stated that Working Names is a list management company representing two owners of the list and that the two owners compiled the list in "a legally acceptable manner." Mr. Cohen proceeded to state that Research of this Office revealed that the pseudonym was not the only example of a name from the list coinciding with NCPAC reports. The list portion sent to this Office by Mr. Cohen contained 212 names. After checking those names against a list of 1982 contributors to NCPAC, it appeared that approximately 14 percent of the names on the list portion submitted by Mr. Cohen also appeared on the NCPAC reports filed with the Commission for 1982.

In a meeting with counsel for Working Names on August 3, 1983, and in a letter received from Meyer T. Cohen, President of Working Names, on August 12, 1983, this Office was informed of other persons involved in this transaction. In response to a written interrogatory asking him to state the owners of the list, Mr. Cohen stated that the owners are Victor K. Heyman and Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. ("Heyman Consulting") of Rockville, Maryland and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Mr. Cohen filed written statements that the functions of the participants dealing with the list were divided as follows: Working Names advertised and marketed the list and received payment from the list users. Victor Heyman and Heyman Consulting performed computer processing of the list materials, entering the names which they received onto computer tapes and duplicating the tapes or producing mailing labels from the tape information. Mr. Mays obtained the names themselves. According to oral representations by counsel

-3and Meyer Cohen's written response, Mr. Mays traveled to the various offices of the Secretaries of State and obtained the filings made for state and local elections and did not "knowingly" use any material required. On October 3, 1983, this Office, with the Commission's approval, sent a letter to the complainant asking it if it had included the solicited pseudonym on any list or report other than the report of contributors submitted to the Commission. October 18, NCPAC replied that the pseudonym "was not used by NCPAC on any report or list of names filed with any agency other than the Federal Election Commission." Mr. Mays sent an affidavit to this Office listing the J., offices of the Secretaries of State in eight states as the . sources of the list, "Truly Conservative Contributors." 0 On May 10, 1984, this Office sent questions to these eight 7 offices inquiring as to the process by which members of the public may review or receive copies of political campaign finance reports and as to whether and how state reports are separated from federal reports. Procedures differ from state to state. All but one of the states separate state filings from federal filings. This is done by having a separate state office for the receipt of filings for state candidacies, by separate filing rooms, or by separate, clearly marked cabinets. The Florida Secretary of State's office stated that it does not separate federal and state files in the above manner. It also stated that NCPAC files reports in computerized form and does not separate federal and state activity.

Mr. Whitehead has responded to a set of Commission interrogatories in a previous matters involving 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4), MUR 1549. It appears that he conducts his business through John Whitehead and Associates.

Section 438(a)(4) of Title 2 and section 104.15 of the Commission's Regulations provided that any information copied from filed reports may not be sold or used by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes, other than using the name and address of a political committee to solicit contributions from such committee. Section 104.15(a) includes reports filed with Secretaries of State within the prohibition.

The appearance of the pseudonym in the list offered by the respondents is strong evidence that the list was compiled from prohibited sources. Furthermore, the responses of the state offices maintaining the reports from which the names were obtained reveal that sufficient care was not exercised in compiling the list. Two of the offices used, the Alaska Lieutenant Governor's Office and the Louisiana Secretary of State's Office, maintain reports only of federal candidates and committees. The defense has been posed that only non-federal sources were used. It is apparent from the information as to the state offices used that there was insufficient regard for the provisions of the Act and Regulations in the compilation of this list.

The evidence presented indicates that there may have been another owner of the list besides Victor Heyman and the Heyman

Consulting Group and Thomas Mays. As a possible co-owner of the list or as a major participant in a transaction involving the use of reported names of contributors to federal candidates, Mr. Whitehead and his company may have violated the Act.

Based on the foregoing analysis, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that John L. Whitehead and John Whitehead and Associates violated 2 U.S.C. 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.

Office of the General Counsel Federal Election Commission 1325 K Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20463 John L. Whitehead Re: MUR 1542 Dear Mr. Levin: :0

Please be advised that I have been retained to represent Mr. Whitehead in regard to the captioned matter. Confirming our earlier telephone conversations, please find enclosed Mr. Whitehead's response to the subpoena issued December 18, 1985 in this matter. I am sorry that we are several days late, but we are new in the case and it took a while to figure things out.

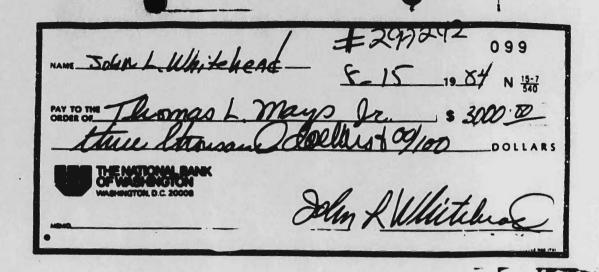

As I informed you on the phone on January 9, 1986, the materials supplied are as follows:

- l. There are two ledger sheets maintained by Thomas Mays showing receipts arising from rentals of the Truly Conservative list. The dates go beyond the days called for by the subpoena, but appear to be generally responsive as "pertaining" to the transactions wherein the raw names were supplied.
- 2. A stack of 30 checks from Mr. Whitehead to Mr. Mays. I believe there are several instances where checks were paid to third parties on Mr. Mays' behalf by Mr. Whitehead. Essentially the checks represent the division of proceeds from the rentals on a 50/50 basis. As I understand it a number of the checks from Working Names Inc. were written to Mr. Whitehead who in turn would write a check to Mr. Mays for 50% thereof.
- 3. A stack consisting of 66 forms entitled "Fulfillment Instruction Order." As I understand it when Working Names would receive an order they would issue one of these documents to the list owners.

Jonathan Levin, Esq. January 9, 1986 Page Two A stack consisting of 18 forms generally entitled "A/P Payment Advice." In most instances the payment advices do not make life simple by identifying "Truly Conservatives". I suppose it might be possible by going through the serial numbers to tie these forms back into the Fulfillment Instruction Orders. (See Item 3 above) I suspect that the majority of the forms produced under this heading go beyond the subpoena, but I have not done the matching to determine that. Letter dated June 21, 1984 from Working Names, Inc. to Messrs. Heyman and Mays. 6. A stack of documents which were provided to me by counsel in the Circuit Court action. I suspect that there is a substantial overlap between these documents and the documents referred to above. Again I have not sat down and tried to line them up to eliminate duplications. Per our discussion on the 9th I would very much appreciate it if the Commission could make it possible to have the originals back as promptly as possible. I very much appreciate your willingness to discuss this matter and reciprocally if there are any questions you might 0 have prior to the deposition, I would be pleased to attempt to get them answered. 77 Very truly yours, 0 C C. Victor Heyman Tom Mays, Jr. 1706 Lorre Drive Rockville, MD 20852

Dear Victor and Tom:

I had a very long working session with one of our bigger broker clients and went over every list usage on TRULY, NICE, SOLID, MATCHED MULTI, COMMITTED LIBERALS and CIVIL RIGHTS $25+ lists.

The results of the usage are mixed ranging from very good to bad (if not horrible).

The future usage therefore was the thrust of our conversation.

In most respects the earlier names out perform the later names. We will therefore, for the first time, begin filling orders with the earlier names.

To get the later names to become more productive we suggest cleaning (ACR, not Data Bank) the whole list.

I can structure the following deal at these guessed-at costs:

Mailer to receive full runs of NICE, TRULY, SOLID. The 3 separate runs in zip sequence on mag tape. More specific instructions will be issued.

Mailer will absorb the costs of the first 2-3% of nixies.

Your partnership will pay the balance of the nixies.

Nixies cost $.25 per envelope.

The partnership will bear the costs of key-punching and updating.

Costs - based on 200,000 universe:

12-13% nixies rate = 26,000 pieces we pay on 10% = 20,800 pieces at $.25/each = $5,200.00

Keying 26,000 nixies and removing/updating addresses @$25/M 650.00 $5,850.00

This breaks down to a guessed cost to each half of the partnership of approximately $2,925.00.

Tom, your half of the partnership owes Victor's approximately $3,750.00 for the keypunching costs from 150,000 to the current level.

If you both approve, I will start putting the machinery in motion. In order to get the deal we would have to move fast, so that it can be done by 1985 testings.

Please let me know.

Thereupon,

JOHN L. WHITEHEAD,

a witness, was called for examination by counsel for the Federal Elections Commission and, having been first duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR THE FEDERAL ELECTION

COMMISSION:

BY MR. LEVIN:

- Q Would you state your full name please?
- A John L. Whitehead.
- Q And the name of your business?
- A John L. Whitehead and Associates.
- Q What is the working address of John L. Whitehead and Associates?
- A It is 2006 Columbia Road, Northwest, No. 20, Washington, D. C. 20009.
- Q I am going to ask you a series of questions. If at any time you don't understand the questions, just tell me and I will try to reword the question in a way you will understand. Is that clear?
 - A That's clear.
 - Q Are you represented by counsel today?

A Yes, I am.

MR. LEVIN: For the record, my name is Robert Levin, and I represent Mr. Whitehead in this matter.

BY MR. LEVIN:

- Q Is he representing you personally?
- A Yes.
 - Q Is he also representing the company?

MR. R. LEVIN: For the record, there isn't a company.

It is a sole proprietorship. It is Mr. Whitehead.

BY MR. LEVIN:

- Q Have you ever had your deposition taken before?
- A Yes.
- Q Then you are aware that the court reporter is taking down everything we say, and it would be difficult for her to record gestures, so it is necessary that you answer verbally.
 - A Yes.
- Q Since receiving the subpoena in this matter, have you spoken with anyone about this deposition, or the answers you will give today?
 - A Yes.
 - Q To whom have you spoken?
 - A I spoke to my counsel, and then I spoke to Mike Cohen of Working Names.

- Q What did you say to Mike Cohen?
- A I asked him if he could provide me with any information that would be helpful to refresh my memory, going back to early '82, due to the fact that I had no records in my possession.
 - Q What did he say to you?
- A He said that he would provide the needed records and documents.
 - Q Anything else?
 - A Good luck.
- Q The documents that you presented to us right before the deposition, are those the documents that you are referring to?
 - A Those are copies of those, right.
 - Q Did he present you with any other documents?
 - A No.
- I'm sorry, he also provided me with copies of interrogatories, Mike Cohen did, in this particular matter that he had answered.
- Q Are these interrogatories from the Commission that you are referring to -- answers to interrogatories?

A Yes, I think so.

Q Do you know how many sets of interrogatories there were?

A No. I think it was just one.

MR. R. LEVIN: For the record, I think that it was Mr. Whitehead's own answers to interrogatories. I don't want to swear to it, but I think that it was your Matter 1549, if I remember the caption.

MR. J. LEVIN: So it is not this matter.

MR. R. LEVIN: I don't think so. It had nothing to do with this subject.

THE WITNESS: I am sorry, it was the Ernie Halter matter which he was involved with. I am sorry, and I apologize, it was the Ernie Halter matter.

MR. R. LEVIN: Also for the record, I obtained from counsel for Mr. Cohen, who is involved in some litigation in the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, an exhibit which I assume is a a deposition which was one of the documents which we supplied to the Commission earlier.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Have you, Mr. Whitehead, read anything in preparation for this deposition?

A I tried to reconstruct dates, various dates for what states that I had visited and what names would have comprised the various lists that were put together.

Q Are those in documents that this office, the Office of General Counsel, has now?

A Yes.

Q You explained that John Whitehead and Associates is a sole proprietorship.

A Yes.

Q What is the business of John Whitehead and Associates?

A Basically to compile mailing lists and to give advice to other people in the industry on the usage of various mailing lists for various clients. It is a direct mail consulting industry.

Q As a sole proprietorship right now, I assume you have no partners.

A That's correct.

Q Have you ever had any partner?

A Officially, no.

Q Could you clarify, "officially"?

A As far as partners per se, no.

- Q Have you ever had any employees?
- A I had someone working for me parttime.
 - A When was that?
 - A That was approximately in early 1982.
 - Q Who was that?
 - A Thomas Mays, Jr.
- Q What did he do in his capacity as working for you parttime?

A He assisted me in going to various states and helping me put together the mailing list on the state level, and bringing the mailing list back to Washington, sorting them out, editing, and then taking them over to the various people who purchased the lists.

- Q When he assisted you, did he go to the state offices?
- A Yes.
- Q With you?
- A Both.
 - Q Sometimes on his own, and sometimes with you.
- A That's correct.
- Q Did you also write letters to some of the state offices, those that you did not go to, or even some that you did go to?

A Yes, primarily phone calls, but some letters were written.

- Q Did Mr. Mays also write letters?
- A Some letters possibly, but mostly all phone calls.
- Q Did you review all of Mr. Mays's work?
- A At the start, I would say, yes, completely. He was new in the business and had absolutely no background in the business. Further on, yes, I did.
- Q At what point did you not review Mr. Mays's work, either in terms of his relation of telephone conversations to you, or a copy of a letter that he would have written?
- A I would say, in almost all cases, I did review his work when he was working for me.
 - Q What dates did you say that he worked for you?
- A I think we said the starting date was early 1982, let's say, March 1982, through possibly early 1983.
 - Q March of 1983, or as late as April 1983?
 - A Probably April of '83, yes.
- Q I am going to ask you a series of questions dealing more specifically with what the company does. You state that you go around to various offices of secretaries of state or, I presume, lieutenant governors; is that correct?

Associates?

THE WITNESS: No.

MR. R. LEVIN: I didn't mean to interrupt, but I thought we should clear that up.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q When did that cease to be active?

A The major activity, I would say, ceased in like April of 1982.

Q So you no longer engage in list compilation.

A I do list consulting, but not compilation, or on rare occasions I do list compilation for the company that I am employed by, List America.

- Q You are now employed by List America.
- A That is correct.
- Q What do you do as a list consultant, then?
- A I would advise people on the type of list that various organizations would use for their fund raising solicitations.
 - Q Do you do any list brokering?
 - A No, I do not.
 - Q Do you engage in list mailing, let's say, with the company that was mailing out a list for solicitation?

- A No. My function would be described as list management.
- Q Something along the lines of what Meyer Cohen in Working Names does?
 - A No, it's not.
- Q When you were in the list compilation business, from where did you obtain the names?
- A Various state agencies. In almost every state, it could be the board of ethics, or the board of elections. In most cases, I think they are connected with the various secretaries of state, but they are known as various agencies within a state.
- Q These are agencies that have as their function the disclosure of reports of candidates and political committees?
 - A That's correct.
- Q Did you obtain any names from the Federal Election Commission at 1325 K Street?
 - A No.

MR. R. LEVIN: When?

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q During the time that you were engaged in list compilation?

MR. R. LEVIN: That is over 20 years.

The question is, John, did you ever get names of any kind from the Federal Election Commission?

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q When was that?

A Back when I was probably working for Richard Vigurie or Steve Winchell, I would get informational reports for them. They would take on particular clients, and these people were involved in fund raising themselves, and they would need to know how much their opponent had spent in the previous election on advertising and things like that to map out the campaign.

- Q Were these for purposes of compiling lists?
- A No.
- Q When you go to the state agencies, what procedure do you go through?

A Most of it is different in each state. Some, you call them on the phone and you give them a list of what reports you would like to have, and they will have a copy waiting for you when you get there and you pay them. Other states, you have to actually go to the files and extract them, run a photo-copying machine or use theirs, if there is one available, and pay for them, and they are yours. You purchase them.

Almost every jurisdiction has various rules.

Q Do you specify what kind of reports you want, other than -- Let me strike that.

Do you specify what kinds of reports you want?

- A Yes.
- Q What kind of specifics do you state to them?
- A It is usually based on the office that the candidate ran for, major candidates, i.e., governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, party reports, Republican, state, central committees in the state.
 - Q Do you ever ask for reports for Federal candidates?
 - A No.
- Q When you ask for reports for party committees, do you state what account of that party committee you want?
 - A Usually the state committee report.
 - Q Do you ever not do that?
- A No.
 - Q In other words, you always specify that you want the state account.
 - A Right, and certain states do not have a state account, or it is not required to be filed with that office, therefore, I would get the candidate for governor or lieutenant governor.

And you would not get the report that does not 0 distinguish between the state and the Federal accounts.

A That's correct.

Are there any states where you have the opportunity to go into the files and look for whatever reports you want, without having to ask for a specific report first from someone at the desk or someone in authority at whatever record room they have?

In a rare instance, that may be a possibility. I can't say that in the past it has not occurred, but it is not the usual procedure at all. Usually you give a written form requesting candidates and the time period in which the report took place, then they would give you the reports.

And you take only state reports.

A Yes.

When you see a report that might have state and Federal candidates, do you decide not to take that report off the shelf, as they say?

In most instances, the Federal candidates are listed separately. They will have a list of state candidates, and then they will have a list of Federal candidates in almost all procedures.

Q Have you ever taken reports from the National Conservative Political Action Committee?

A No.

Q Why is that?

A The NCPAC reports?

Q Yes.

A Basically, as far as I understand, they are a Federal committee which falls under the FEC prohibition to obtain. I am also familiar with the procedures NCPAC uses, and I know the people fairly well.

Q When you compile the reports, what is the next step?

How are they useful to you? I am sorry, compile the list of names.

A We ship them back. They would be shipped back to the office.

MR. R. LEVIN: What is being shipped back to the office?

THE WITNESS: The raw data, photocopies of the actual reports that have been filed with various state agencies. At that point, Tom Mays and myself would sort them out by candidates based on political ideology, party, whether they ran for a local office, or whether they ran for a statewide office, whether they had any strong stands on gun control, or pro-life, or any other category, pro-family issues. We would, at that time, do some editing. Editing means going through and mark out corporations, political action PACs that give to campaigns, and incomplete addresses. We would batch them up, usually in two or three hundred pages per batch, and Tom would transport them over to Working Names.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q To your knowledge, what does Working Names do with these?

MR. R. LEVIN: Counsel, you keep using the present tense. You understand that we are talking about '82 and '83.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q During that time period. When I use the phrase, "during that time period," we will restrict it to the time period of '82 and '83 previously specified at the beginning of this deposition.

A At that point, my involvement was over.

Q To your knowledge, what did Working Names do with them?

A I understood that he would have them keypunched and various lists would be created from this material, using these names and other names which he had in his possession.

Q When you did batch them and sent them over to Working Names, did you send them the reports themselves, or did you send them the lists of names that you had compiled?

A We would send the various names that we had purchased from the various state agencies.

Q In other words, did you send them the report copies, or did you send them lists of names under the categories that you have noted?

A No, we would send them the reports themselves.

MR. R. LEVIN: How would Mr. Cohen and his associates know the names were conservative, Republican, or even Democrats? When you did the editing, how did that information get commucated to them?

THE WITNESS: The boxes would be marked, Republicans, Moderate Republicans, Liberal Democrats, Jewish Donors, et cetera.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- Q Was it your understanding that Mr. Cohen would add or subtract names from the list that you gave him?
 - A Most definitely, yes.
 - Q Do you know from what sources he would take names?

A He is in a similar type of operation in which he acquires mailing lists from various sources. These names would be merged with existing names to create a mailing list, and owner income would be distributed on a percentage basis. If I gave him 25,000 names, and he had 100,000 names, then I would have a percent of that list, the total list.

Q So that Mr. Cohen would possibly add 75,000 names to a list to compile a list under a name such as Truly Conservative Contributors.

A Sure.

MR. R. LEVIN: For the record, Counsel, you asked him what happened to the lists he sent them. For the record, let me be clear, Mr. Whitehead did not supply lists, but Xerox copies of Schedule As.

MR. J. LEVIN: Correct. Thank you.

THE WITNESS: Various states have different names, but Schedule A is prominent.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Do you have any knowledge of where Mr. Cohen obtained his names?

A No.

Q You have no knowledge as to whether or not he went through the same thought processes that you did, or the same actions in terms of asking for state reports?

A No, but probably not. If he was going through the same procedure, then he would not have needed me. So he was getting his from other sources, and the sources I do not know.

Q I wanted a clarification of "probably not."

A Yes, I did not mean, "probably not," but it would not have made sense if he was getting them from the same sources I would because there would be a duplication. He was getting them from other sources. In the industry, it is very common to make agreements with Congressmen and Senators to manage their files. A lot of Congressmen's and Senators' files are managed, and Working Names manages quite a few various Members of Congress's files.

Q So that he would take the names from their actual private lists, perhaps, as opposed to a list that would be on file in any state agency.

A I hesitate to say that. I have no knowledge of his workings.

Q My only question is whether or not you have any knowledge of whether he goes through the same restrictions that you say you put yourself through.

A As far as I know, I have never discussed with him his list gathering procedures.

Q What happened to the names that you have given to Mr. Cohen? Do they then become a list?

A Several lists are created. If he has a lot of requests for very conservative Republicans, my conservative Republicans, or the box that I have marked "Very Conservative Republicans," would probably have been added to that existing list to give it greater volume, and then it would be marketed as a Very Conservative or under a different name.

Q How then are you paid for what you do, or what were you paid during this time period?

A It was an understanding between Working Names that I would be paid a percent due to the number of names which were added to an existing file. A percent would be determined as to what percent my names involve the total list.

O And Mr. Mays would pay you? Excuse me, Mr. Cohen would pay you?

A At one point, Mr. Cohen was paying Tom Mays totally.

At the time at which I gave the list over to Tom, it became Tom's income solely.

Q Did Tom Mays pay you any percentage of the income?

A Probably, but very, very small. I had advanced Tom some money. Up to a certain point, Tom was getting all of the money, and at the time that I loaned him money to buy a car, then the checks started to be put in my name, and I gave Tom some additional income. There wasn't a lot of income generated up to a certain point.

Q So you are saying that the money that Tom Mays paid to you was due to the money that you loaned him for the car.

Is that what you are saying?

A That is correct, but he also gave me, from time to time, some additional money for expenses.

Q Did Tom Mays consider you to have an interest in the list until the payment of the car was made?

A We had discussed the potential income, and we had come to a conclusion that there would be very little money to be distributed.

Q Did you ever charge Mr. Mays for the list which he gave, or when he gave the list to you?

Did you ever charge Mr. Mays for the list when you gave to him?

A Which list are we talking about?

MR. R. LEVIN: The record, I think, is really very confused. I think that it might be helpful just to take him through the chronology instead of hopping in and out.

MR. J. LEVIN: I will do that very shortly. I want to get a general sense of how things operated during that time.

MS. LERNER: Could I ask a couple of questions?

MR. J. LEVIN: Sure.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q You indicated that at some point, you gave a list to Mr. Mays.

A That is correct.

Q At that time, you did not think that the list was going to generate very much income. Is that right?

A That's right.

Q At some later point, you made a loan to Mr. Mays.

A That's correct.

Q And as part of his repayment to you of the loan, he was giving you a percentage of funds that he was obtaining by the list. Is that right?

A It originally started out that he would pay me from his salary. He obtained a full-time job in the meantime. He no longer was in the list gathering business. He obtained a full-time job, and at that point he was going to pay me back a certain amount of money from his salary. But as the list started generating income, he then said, "John, why don't I -- rather than pay you from my salary, why don't I give you the money that is coming in from Working Names and pay it off like that.

Q At the time when you gave him the list, was there any arrangement whatsoever for you to receive payment that was generated from that list?

A No.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Are we talking about the list "Truly Conservative Contributors" now?

A Mr. Levin, at the time, the lists were unnamed. The source material was unnamed. It was almost a year later until Tom Mays started getting checks with statements that we actually knew that there was a list out there called "Truly Conservatives."

Q When you say, "a year later," what time are we talking about then?

A Probably early 1983.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q So actually you did not give Mr. Mays a list. You did not give him a compiled list.

A No.

Q You gave him the names that you had gathered from the secretaries of state.

MR. R. LEVIN: I think what he is saying is that he gave him his interest in those names, and the names had already been physically conveyed somewhere else.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q It is not the list after the list was made up. You are talking about interest in the same things that you had gathered from the secretaries of state.

A Yes.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Do you know of the list "Truly Conservative Contributors"?

A Yes.

Q Who owns this list to your knowledge?

A As far as my knowledge, it is partnership now with Working Names, Mike Cohen, Harriet Heyman, who are partners in Working Names, Victor Heyman of Heyman Consulting, and Tom Mays, Jr.

- Q Could you repeat that list again?
- A Working Names owns -- This is my understanding.

Working Names owns 50 percent. Working names is a partnership of Mike Cohen and Harriet Heyman. Victor Heyman of Heyman Consulting owns 25 percent, and Tom Mays owns 25 percent.

- Q Do you have any interest in that list?
- A Of that list in particular, no.

MR. R. LEVIN: Do you continue to get income off of that list?

THE WITNESS: No. There has been no income generated off of that list as far as I know in six months. It is an old list. In the industry, a list is good for, let's say, two or three years. In other words, the life of that particular file is pretty much over with. It is a closed book.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- Q At some point, you did obtain income from that list?
- A That's correct.
- Q What point was that?
- A Again going back, it would probably be in early 18 1983.
 - Q Mr. Mays was still working with you at the time.
 - A Yes. Working with me, but not working with me any more.
 - Q Who compiled the names that went on this list?

- A What list?
- Q Truly Conservative Contributors.

Let me ask you this. Do you know the source of the names for Truly Conservative Contributors, or sources?

- A I know a partial input.
- Q What was that partial input?

A That was the input that Tom Mays and myself compiled and gave to Mike Cohen, but it was a portion of it. All of these lists were or groups of names were pulled from computer sources to make one list.

Q Could you explain? What computer sources?

A When they were keypunched. Heyman of Heyman Consulting did the keypunch work for all of the lists. Let me explain. Mike Cohen manages 150 lists, all with various names, Truly, Active, Good, Nice, that type of names. It is very common in the list business to compile -- various portions of one file will be included in another file, so the same 5,000 names that went in to make Truly might also have been in Golden Conservatives because that particular file called for California Conservatives only. Therefore, they would take 5,000 of the Truly Conservatives and put them into the Golden Conservatives.

Q Do you remember specifically when Mr. Mays -- Did you say that you had compiled that list as well -- compiled the names as well?

- A I worked with Tom. Tom did the compiling, yes.
- Q Do you remember specifically when these names had been compiled?
- A These names, the names that we are talking about, are for Truly?
 - Q Truly Conservative Contributors.
- A I can only give you an answer as to our particular input into that, or Tom Mays's input into that. It was in approximately March or April '82, but the income was not generated for almost one year because it takes approximately five months to key unch them and get them in order, and put them out, and then the money starts coming back. It is about nine months from the date that you put your list on the market that any income is generated from the file.
- Q Can you recall what states you and Mr. Mays obtained these names from?
- A I can give you a general list, it would not be a complete list, from memory: Texas, Ohio, California, Florida, Louisiana -- Did I say, Ohio?

Q Yes.

Q Alaska?

A Alaska, we would not travel to Alaska because of the location, we would just write and ask for the reports. One of the state agencies up there has the reports. I am not sure which office has it, but Alaska is one of the states.

MR. R. LEVIN: The question is whether you obtained names from Alaska for this compilation?

THE WITNESS: I believe Alaskan names were included.

I can't say for sure about Alaska.

Q I am going to ask you about some more states and see if it would comport with what you are saying.

Q West Virginia.

A Yes.

Q When you went to the offices that you went to, or that Mr. Mays went to, did you make inquiry -- What sort of inquiries did you make as to these contributor reports for Truly Conservative Contributors?

A I never went out ---

MR. R. LEVIN: Objection. Counsel, that is not what he testified to. He testified that there was no such thing as Truly Conservative at the time he was doing this.

MR. J. LEVIN: At the end of my question, I added, for the list that became Truly Conservative Contributors in order to clarify that.

THE WITNESS: Do you want me to go over the general procedure as far as how they obtained the list?

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Yes.

A If it was a state in which you could call ahead and ask them to pull the files for you, and even do the copying for you, such as Florida would do that for you and Texas -- Procedures in the various states change from administration to administration. The office under one administration will be organized totally differently. I would give them a list of the candidates that I would like to see the reports on, who have reports and, depending on the procedures in the office itself, I would make the copies myself or Tom Mays would make copies, or they would make the copies for us. So it strictly depended upon the various jurisdictions that we were in.

Q Did you make inquiry as to whether these were contributors to state or federal candidates?

A I knew that already. I keep up with politics and I have a list of all of the state candidates. The first thing I did when I went into a state, I would ask to see the election primary and the general election candidates, the certified ballot candidates. Then I would make up my list from the people who were on the ballot on the primary and the general election.

Q These did not include NCPAC contributors.

A No, these would be candidates for office. PACs and committees are filed in various states separately, in most states.

Q Did you go to those offices for the PAC contributions or did Mr. Mays go to those offices for the PAC contributions?

A No, unless the PAC contributors were in the same office. He or I would not make a special trip to an office in the secretary of state's office or anything to look at PAC contributors, because I am not interested in PAC donors.

Q Did you make inquiries as to the PAC donors, as to whether these PACS were contributing to Federal versus state candidates, or did Mr. Mays, to your knowledge, do the same?

A He did not. Most states have state PACs which are legal to obtain in the same manner that I described. We would not be interested in the Federal PACs, and NCPAC being a Federal PAC, it would be excluded.

MR. J. LEVIN: I am handing a document to the reporter to be marked FEC Exhibit No. 1, and I am showing the document to Respondent and counsel.

(The document referred to was marked FEC Exhibit
No. 1 for identification.)

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- Q Have you this document before, FEC Exhibit No. 1?
- A Yes.
- Q Can you identify the document for the record?
- A It's a list order fulfillment form which Working Names generated for their client, the American Bible Society.

 - Q What is the purpose of this fulfillment form?
- A That is a form, which the broker and the manager, in this case Mike Cohen's Working Names, would have generated to fulfill an order for his various lists, this one in particular, Truly, for his client, American Bible Society.
 - Q Is this a bill of any sort?
- A No. This is a copy of an order which Mike Cohen generates. It is an internal record. This is actually telling the computer house, in this case, Heyman Consulting, to run 5,000 names from the Truly Conservatives and ship them to American Bible Society. This is an internal part, and this is not affecting the list owner. In other words, this is a form between Heyman Consulting and Mike Cohen.

Q I am going to refer you to the bottom half of FEC Exhibit No. 1.

A Okay.

Q As to the states referred to there, do you have a sense of how many other states were involved in compiling Truly Conservative Contributors?

A You see the problem -- I have no knowledge, but if you were compiling something in, let's say, the State of California, you would have names from -- A better example is Texas. When Bill Clements ran for Governor of Texas, for instance, he might have gotten contributions from all 50 states. So, therefore, if you never go, for instance, to Montana or Kansas and Nebraska, which I probably didn't do because of the distance and the difficulty of acquiring names, he might still have Kansas names in the file, and he might have all states in his file.

In other words, any names obtained, let's say, from seven states probably would have some from all 50 states due to the fact that people in Kansas might be giving to a candidate in Texas or especially a popular figure, let's say, like astronauts running for governor, or sports figures running, they may do nationwide fund raising.

If they had a nationwide fund raiser, i.e., Vigurie or Steven Winchell, then names would be solicited from all over the country on behalf of a candidate running in Indiana or Wisconsin.

Q Let me ask you this: What went into your consideration in compiling the names that eventually became Truly Conservative Contributors? What went into your consideration as to what states you would either go to or write to?

A Due to the limited budget that Mike Cohen wanted to spend on compiling these particular segments of the lists, because these were untested -- Mike Cohen is identified basically in the industry with liberal and Democratic files -- I would not -- I selected only the names that were readily available and inexpensive, and easy to edit. For instance, there might be names in Pennsylvania, but they might have been handwritten and unZipped, I would not have bothered with those.

Q You mentioned that you had written to Alaska. Are there any other states that instead of going to, you wrote or Mr. Mays wrote?

A I don't know about Mr. Mays.

MR. R. LEVIN: I am not trying to be obstructive, but he testified three times that there were more phone calls than letters. I am not trying to be obstructive, but I want the record to be clear. I don't think that he was ever asked:

Did you write to Alaska, or was it a telephone call to Alaska?

I would like the record to stay clear.

MR. J. LEVIN: The question is directed at his know-ledge. If he can only recall to a certain extent, then that will be satisfactory.

MR. R. LEVIN: The thing is, I don't know that it is of record whether he wrote to Alaska or telephoned Alaska.

MS. LERNER: He indicated that they did write requesting things from some states. Let's go back and ask, first of all, if he recalls whether he wrote to Alaska; and, second of all, does he recall writing to any other states.

MR. R. LEVIN: That's fine.

THE WITNESS: I don't recall if it was either phone or writing. I did write to certain states, and phone calls were made, I cannot say that I wrote to Alaska or called Alaska, it has been too long ago.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- Q Do you have any idea how many states?
- A For this particular project?
- Q Yes, for this particular project.
- A No, I don't.

Q Okay.

I am going to refer you to the last line on this document, the reference is to "salt" initials, and it says,

What is the significance of that?

A In the industry, every order that is generated by a list manager, in order to protect the list and make sure that, in this instance, American Bible Society was not using the list twice, they will put a "salt," or a fictitious name in there, and that helps to track the use of the file. That is done by the list manager. But it is commonly done by all.

Q So Mr. Cohen was the one who decided on this.

A Yes.

Q We discussed before your arrangement with Mr. Mays as far as receiving the payment, and the payment also for the car, but I never put this question directly to you. Did you have or ever have an ownership in the list itself, in Truly Conservative Contributors, an ownership interest?

A Not the list Truly Conservatives. I did not know that the list Truly Conservatives existed until payment was received a year later, after the things had been compiled.

Q Did you have an ownership interest in the names themselves?

A I had interest in names that Mike Cohen had. In other words, he was taking my names and forming 25 different mailing lists. I held interest in names, and currently have interest in a list that Mike has.

Q Did you have any interest in the names that you gave to Mr. Mays after you gave him those names?

A No, at that time, I had decided that the list was not going to make money, and I was busy with so many other projects, I told him that if he could make anything with it, if he wanted to work on it full-time, he was welcome to it. It was like giving him everything of nothing at the time.

Q So the money that you would get from that was not out of a proprietary interest, it was out of the fact that Mr. Mays -- It was not as if you had some kind of a lien on names, it was just agreed that Mr. Mays would pay you the money that he got from those names because of what he owed you on the car. That is what I am trying to establish.

MR. R. LEVIN: May I ask, did there come a time,

John, after you had given your interest in the names to Tom

Mays, where you once again had an interest in the income off of those names?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q What time was that?

A It would be approximately, I would say, probably April or May of 1983, at the time at which I had loaned him the money for the car, at that point the interest being, in fact, that he would pay me back from the income that was being generated. At that time, the names had taken off quite well. We sat down and we agreed that we would, from hereon, after the loan was paid back, we would split it 50-50.

MR. R. LEVIN: John was making a point that perhaps should be on the record.

THE WITNESS: The user, American Bible Society, has requested names from these particular states, and the list manager gives the computer house instructions. There may not be any in the states, but if there are any in the states, they include them.

In other words, like for South Dakota, I would almost say that there are probably no South Dakota names in that Truly Conservative file, but the owner is saying, if you have them, provide these states for me. That is all he is telling the computer operator. It is like, if they are there, I want them.

MR. J. LEVIN: I am handing the reporter documents to be marked as FEC Exhibit No. 2, and I am handing FEC Exhibit No. 2 to counsel for the respondent.

(The document referred to was marked FEC Exhibit No. 2 for identification.)

MR. R. LEVIN: Counsel, we will stipulate, if it will save any time, that what has been marked as Exhibit No. 2 are, in fact, accurate Xerox copies of checks from Mr. Whitehead to Mr. Mays, and these are part of the documents that we turned over in response to the subpoena.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q These documents are checks. What do these checks represent? Take your time to look at them.

A These represent checks with which I gave Mr. Mays money for work that he performed for me.

MR. R. LEVIN: If I may, turning your attention, Mr. Whitehead, to page 1, the first check dated 5/6/83, what was that check for?

THE WITNESS: That was a trip which we took and he used his car, and I reimbursed him for the expenses, the mileage, et cetera.

MR. R. LEVIN: The next check down, Check dated

1/24/83, for $2,000, what was that for?

THE WITNESS: That was a check which I gave to Tom. His mother needed a loan to buy something, and it was subsequently paid.

MR. R. LEVIN: The check for 1/22/83.

THE WITNESS: That was probably for miscellaneous expenses.

MR. R. LEVIN: The second page --

MS. LERNER: I think that we can probably cut through this a little. Would you look through the checks and indicate whether any of the checks relate to payments concerning the names that ultimately went into the list Truly Conservative Contributors.

THE WITNESS: I could not say that. I could not say that because these represent payments for him doing various projects for me which would involve numerous lists.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q There is nothing specific that you can recall with regard to the particular names that we are talking about.

A No.

A Gathering names for me, but not necessarily in this particular project. It could have been other list gathering endeavors.

MR. R. LEVIN: Mr. Whitehead, do any of these checks represent payments from you, a sharing by you with Mr. Mays of funds received form Working Names, Inc., or Mike Cohen?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MR. R. LEVIN: Would you tell us which checks are those?

THE WITNESS: I could not say, but I would have to say the checks on the last page.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Which check is that?

A The last two checks, I am sure, would represent that.

They would represent a share. If Mike Cohen had made the entire check out to me, then that would have been probably 50 percent of, or a share of it.

Again, it is hard to say. I think, on the second page, the bottom check definitely was.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q You stated that you had given Mr. Mays the names, or the interest in the names that we are talking about during this period. Now you are indicating that Mr. Cohen would make checks out to you, rather than to Mr. Mays for the monies that came in based on those names. Was that the regular practice?

A Remember, the major bulk of the income that Mr. Cohen was paying me was for other lists. I helped create New York, New York, Jewish Donors, and things like that, so I was still getting income from Mr. Cohen for those other lists.

The lists which Tom had an interest in, Truly and Nice, were to the point of making very little money, so he would include Tom's income in the check to me.

Q Are you aware of any situations where he wrote a check to Mr. Mays which would include the monies that came in from his interest, rather than writing you a check?

A I don't think I understand that.

Q You indicated that Mr. Cohen's checks covered monies owed to you from names that you had given him, including, but not limited to, the names that Mr. Mays had received from you.

A Yes.

Q Do you know if Mr. Cohen ever gave Mr. Mays checks representing payment just related to the names that you had given Mr. Mays?

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Have you ever seen Exhibit No. 3?

MR. R. LEVINE: As an exhibit, or simply the documents?

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- 0 The documents contained in Exhibit No. 3.
- I'm sure I have.
- Do you know when you would have seen those documents contained in Exhibit No. 3?

I saw them when Mike Cohen supplied me some information approximately a month ago, or after I received the request.

- Can you describe what these documents are?
- Α These are the manager's records of the income split.
- Q Do these represent payments to you or from you to Working Names?

- A These would represent payments to me, or to Tom Mays.
- Q Why did Working Names send the invoice to you rather than Thomas Mays?

A Because Tom was living in my apartment at the time, at my address. Mike would send almost all of the correspondence to me, it was directed to my address.

Q Did Mr. Cohen treat you as the person responsible for the names on these lists?

- A What lists?
- Q The list that became Truly Conservative Contributors.
- A I can't answer that, I don't know.
- Q These payments that are on these documents, Exhibit No. 3, do they reflect a percentage of any interest in these names on either your part or Mr. Mays's, in other words, an ownership interest?

MR. R. LEVIN: I object. The documents state what they are, and they say what they say.

THE WITNESS: This is Working Names' records.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- Q If you can't recall.
- A I can't recall. I have no knowledge.

If you cannot recall --Q

MR. R. LEVIN: The question was: Do these show a percentage interest, and the answer is that they speak for themselves.

> MR. J. LEVIN: No.

That was your question, Counsel. MR. R. LEVIN:

MR. J. LEVIN: The question was, do they reflect.

MS. LERNER: He did not say percentage interest, but ownership interest.

MR. J. LEVIN: If he can't recall.

I can't say that I ever did. I can't say I did.

Have you had any business contact with them at all in the past few years, let's say, three years?

With Heyman, no, other than I have seen him. I met A him with other people, but I have never entered into any agreement with him, no.

Q Do you have any knowledge as to whether or not he could have added names to the list Truly Conservative Contributors?

- A I have no proof that he did.
- Q Do you have any reason to believe that he did?
- A Yes.
- Q What is that reason based upon?

A The amount of names that I assisted Tom in acquiring for these various mailing lists numbered no more than 100,000 maximum, and after Tom started receiving income checks, I made some inquiries of Tom as to -- The income was too great for the number of names on the mailing list. Tom was informed by Mike Cohen and Victor Heyman that, in fact, there were approximately 380,000 in the file at this point. The income generated would reflect the higher number rather than the lower number.

- Q What is the source of your information?
- A Mike Cohen.
- Q Anyone else?
- A Just Mike Cohen.
- Q Thomas Mays as well?
 - A Thomas Mays was told by Mike Cohen also of the total numbers.

Q Have you worked with Meyer Cohen and Working Names in the past?

- A Yes.
- Q When was that?
- A I probably had my first business dealings with Meyer Cohen, or Mike Cohen, in possibly 1979.
- Q Have you been working with him consistently since then, or how would you characterize it?
- A Not consistently. Probably several requests to help him compile mailing lists for various clients, but not on a regular basis.
- Q When you do business with Mike Cohen -- You said that you stopped the list compilation in 1983. Until that time, was your function list compiling and his the list management?
- A Yes, but I was only one of many suppliers that Mike would have had. I would not have been his chief supplier even.
 - Q I understand.
 - A Also, I was a consultant.
- Q Since April of 1983, the cut-off date that you mentioned before, have you done business with Mike Cohen?
 - A Yes, on small lists.

Q What do you do in that?

A I gave him some advice on where to obtain some donors to black candidates, and various other files.

Q What functions did Mike Cohen perform with respect to the names that became Truly Conservative Contributors?

A The way I understand it, Mike's function was to be manager, and his function would include advertising the names, taking the orders for the names, cutting the orders which is this right here.

Q You are referring to Exhibit 1.

A Yes, Exhibit 1, and collecting the monies for the lists from the users.

Q Did he add or subtract names to Truly Conservative Contributors?

A He would have the right as the marketing agent to, if he considered the list to be doing poorly, for example, he might take and add more California names and subtract some of the New York names because it is known in the industry that California donor names respond better than New York, state donor names. It would be his function to make the list work as effectively as it could. He has 50 percent ownership in the list, so it would be to his benefit.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q Let me ask a question about that. If you had given him 100,000 names, and he had compiled a list that contained 200,000 names, but ultimately only used 25,000 of the ones that you had given him, would you get paid for 25,000 names or for 100,000 names when the list started making money?

A I would be getting paid for the number of names that he actually used. He would show me a computer verification.

In other cases, he has shown me computer verifications that 7,000 names went into this list, and 20,000 into this one, and he said, "John, I can't use North Dakota. They are in too bad a shape. They are too old. They are low dollar. So we didn't use those, and I threw those out."

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q To your knowledge, did Victor Heyman provide any names to Mike Cohen with respect to Truly Conservative Contributors?

A I did not witness, or I have no proof that he did.

It is all hearsay.

BY MS. LERNER:

- Q Where does the hearsay come from?
- A Mike Cohen had a conversation with Victor Heyman and Ernie Halter, and at that point Heyman admitted that Halter did in fact provide some names to boost the list.

MR. R. LEVIN: Who told you that?

THE WITNESS: Mike Cohen. I never talked to Victor Heyman or Ernie Halter. It wasn't said to me, but said by Mike.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- Q When was this said to you?
- A The week after I received the subpoena.
- Q Accompanying the reasons for the modification.
- A Yes.
- Q Am I correct in assuming, and correct me if I am wrong, in connection with the list Truly Conservative

 Contributors, when Mays received the names, did he send them to Heyman for computer coding, labeling -- Victor Heyman.

MS. LERNER: Let me ask the question.

BY MS. LERNER:

- Q You mentioned that in a conversation with Mr. Cohen, he told you that Mr. Heyman had told him that names from Ernest Halter had been added to the list, as well as the other names.
 - A Yes.
 - Q Do you know if Mr. Heyman added those names on his own, or did they go through Mr. Cohen, who then said to Mr. Heyman, "Please add this to the computerized list"?

A I do not know. I don't know his procedure.

Q Under the ordinary circumstances, would the names for a list that were supposed to be put on a computer printout come from Mr. Cohen to Mr. Heyman, and Mr. Heyman would only put them on the computer, or would he have other people who were also sending him names, and they would all end up on one big list?

A I really can't answer. To my knowledge, or the way
I understand the procedure worked would be that Mike Cohen would gather from several sources source material which would be taken to Heyman, and then the list would be created at that point.

Q You don't know in this particular instance whether had gotten the names from Mr. Halter, and then sent them on to him, or whether Heyman got them himself?

A No, I don't know.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Going back a bit, when you and Mr. Mays were compiling the names that became Truly Conservative Donors, of those parts of the work that Mr. Mays did that you did not review, did Mr. Mays make any representations to you as to the source of these names?

- A Yes, always.
- Ω What were those representations?
- A That they were acquired from the state agencies where I had told him that they were available to be acquired from. He usually showed me before they were boxed up, and he made mistakes from time to time, but he usually showed me what he had in each box and how he had marked them, whether they were liberal Democrats, or whatever.
 - Q Did you catch those mistakes?
- A Yes. There were a few older names that were included that should not have been included, several pages were blurred, and things like that. They were small mistakes.

MR. LEVIN: I am now handing the reporter documents that are to be marked FEC Exhibit No. 4, and I am handing a copy of that to respondent and counsel.

- A Tom Mays, after he received the letter, told me of the content of the letter, but I did not see it. He had got a hold of it.
- Q If you can answer these questions, I refer you to paragraph 4, with respect to the reference to "earlier names," what is that a reference to, if you can answer?

MR. R. LEVIN: You are asking for his understanding of it.

MR. J. LEVIN: Exactly.

THE WITNESS: I am reading this letter in front of me, and I would say that he is saying that his earlier names happen to be better than his later names. I don't know what time frame he is talking about, so I couldn't begin to answer that.

up here, and I did compile civil rights, committed liberals, and solid, or I helped to compile them. I am not sure what he is talking about.

- Q One more question. What is a "nixie"?
- A A nixie is a bad address, moved, not forwardable, deceased, unable to deliver, addressee unknown.
 - Q Whose obligation is it to clean up those nixies?
 - A The manager.
 - O Mr. Cohen?
- A The manager usually works out some agreement with the owner, and owner income will be taken. He will not pay the owner for particular orders in order to cover the cost of the cleaning.
- Q Do you recall any agreement being worked out with respect to the nixies referred to in this letter?
 - A Mr. Cohen would have to --
 - MR. R. LEVIN: The answer is yes or no, do you recall?
 THE WITNESS: No, I don't.
- MR. J. LEVIN: I am handing the reporter documents to be marked as FEC Exhibit No. 5, and I am handing the documents in FEC Exhibit No. 5 to respondent and counsel.

(The documents referred to were marked FEC Exhibit No. 5 for identification.)

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- Q Have you seen the documents in Exhibit No. 5 before?
- A Yes.
- Q When did you see those?
- A Tom Mays was living at my apartment, so Tom would have when he received them, shown them to me.
 - Q Can you identify these documents, what they are?
- A They are a form generated by Working Names as to the breakdown in payments for various lists.
 - Q These are payments owed by Working Names to Tom Mays?
 - A Right.
- Q I am referring now to the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth pages of the Exhibit No. 5.
 - A Yes.
- Q At the top, why at this point in 1984 are you being billed as opposed to Tom Mays -- Why are you being given a payment advice as opposed to Tom Mays?
- A At that time I had written Tom a check for the car, and I was taking all of the income that was derived until the $5,000-plus was paid back.

Q When did you tell Meyer Cohen or anyone at Working Names that this was the procedure to be followed?

A I have no knowledge as to the exact date, but I would say that it was probably several weeks after I had written the check for Tom's car.

Q Are we referring to the check in FEC Exhibit No. 2 on page 2 of that exhibit, written on February 11, 1984?

A Yes.

Q I am going to refer you to FEC Exhibit No. 3, if you would take a look at it, I am going to ask you questions with reference to it.

A Yes.

Q You have just stated that the payments were made to you after the check for the car, dated February 11, 1984, appearing on Exhibit No. 2. On Exhibit No. 3 there are payment advices sent to you in early 1983. List rental order, excuse me.

Why was this mailed to you prior to that car transaction, rather than to Thomas Mays?

A At the time -- I do not know why this was done. This was Mike's deal. These were not mailed out. These statements are not mailed. These statements would come when the bill was paid. He would give you a formal statement when the bill was paid. The check probably would have been six to eight months later, and I would have seen this, or Tom would have seen this. In other words, these are Cohen's internal documents, and I would not have known.

Mike explained to me when I asked him why it was in my name, it was because all the lists had been in my name previous to Tom coming into the picture, and the bookkeeper had kept the account set up in my name. That is how Mike explained it to me.

Q I am going to refer you back to FEC Exhibit No. 5, the first two pages, the payment advices are addressed to Tom Mays. Why would they have switched back to Tom Mays? In other words, the list rental orders being sent to John Whitehead and the payment advices for November 29 and December 19, 1983, referring to Tom Mays.

A The check was sent out to Tom Mays at that address, and it was returned because Tom's name was not on the mailbox. At that point, that is what Mike told me, that the bookkeeper had changed it to Tom Mays, and the check had been returned because he was not living in the building, his name was not on the mailbox. At that point, Mike told me that the bookkeeper changed it.

BY MS. LERNER:

- Q I think we are confusing two different things. On Exhibit 3 is an internal document of Working Names, they are listing your name as the person who owns the names.
 - A And they should not have.
- Q Because at that time Mr. Mays was dealing with those names.
 - A Right.
- Q Exhibit 5, which is a payment advice statement sent out after Exhibit 3 -- Exhibit 3 is in February, and this Exhibit 5 is in November -- the name being used there is Thomas Mays.

A I don't know why they switched back and forth. I don't know why Mike Cohen's bookkeeper did that. When I received the check for the full amount, like I said, I would then write Tom a check for one half of it. I paid taxes on it. At the time, when it was sent to me, if the check was sent to me in my name fully, I would then write a check out to Tom, which you see some of these examples here, for one half.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q One more question on Exhibit No. 5. You will notice, at the bottom of the first sheet in Exhibit No. 5, the third sheet in Exhibit No. 5, and the fifth and the sixth sheets of Exhibit No. 5 there are references to the legal fees for a case with the Federal Election Commission.

MR. R. LEVIN: I don't see that. I see legal fees.

MR. J. LEVIN: On the fifth and the sixth sheets, the first sheet merely refers to legal fees.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Why were they deducting a portion of the payment for the legal fees?

A At that time, they had switched and they were sending all the checks to me in my name. Therefore --

MR. R. LEVIN: Listen to the question. The question is, why were they charging you for the legal fees in a case that they had before the FEC?

THE WITNESS: I do not know.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Was Mr. Mays still living at the same residence at the time?

A Yes.

Q Did Mr. Mays still have any interest in the names going into the list at that time, Truly Conservative

Contributors, at the time that the payment advices were sent?

THE WITNESS: It was a dead list. It was a stagnant list, so he would not have been providing names, no.

MR. R. LEVIN: There were no more names going in.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q At the time these payment advices were sent out, did Mr. Mays have an interest in the receipts that were coming in from the names that had been placed in the Truly Conservative list?

A Yes. He would have had one half-interest, or one-half of one-fourth.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

- Q Who held the other interest in that?
- A Mike Cohen and Richard Heyman.
- Q Do you have anything to add on the reason that you have as far as believing Ernest Halter had involvement in the Truly Conservatives List?
 - A I know of Mr. Halter's reputation in the industry.

 BY MS. LERNER:
 - O What is that?
 - A He is known as a wheeler-dealer operator, and he

2 eliminate salted names. 3 0 Would that include names that had come from the Federal 4 Election Commission reports, by reputation, I am asking you? 5 By reputation, I have heard that. I have never had 6 a conversation with him to that effect. 7 BY MR. J. LEVIN: 8 Q From whom have you heard that information? 9 A Other people in the industry. 10 Anyone specifically? Q 11 Mike Cohen. A 12 Q Anyone not involved in this matter? 13 A Yes, but again, it was pure speculation. 14 Who was that? 0 15 A John Hvasta. 16 0 Anyone else? 17 People I work with at the office. A 18 At List America? Q 19 A Yes. 20 Q What does John Hvasta do, is he a list broker, or a 21 list compiler, or a list owner? 22 He is a list owner.

MR. J. LEVIN: Counsel, I have no further questions at this time.

EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR RESPONDENT

BY MR. R. LEVIN:

- Q Mr. Whitehead, did you go to the offices of the Federal Election Commission at any time and obtained copies of lists of donors which were filed by NCPAC?
 - A No.
 - Q Did you ever instruct anyone to do that?
 - A No.
 - Q To your knowledge, did Mr. Mays do that?
 - A No, never.
- Q As one who is familiar with the industry, would you recognize the NCPAC donor list?
 - A Definitely.
- Q Did you ever see in any -- In the matter that we are here for this morning, did you ever see copies of NCPAC names?
 - A Yes.
 - O In connection with this matter?
 - A No, but I have seen NCPAC names. In this matter, no.
- Ω Did you ever instruct Mr. Mays how to spot NCPAC names, or names of other well-known fund raising organizations?

A Yes.

- Q Did that include how to spot a NCPAC list?
- A Correct.
- Q What instructions, if any, did you give him in connection with dealing with such lists, including NCPAC?

A When he was first trained, I took him down to the FEC, showed him what the Republican Committee filed. I gave him a list, basically, of the Federal PACs, and I gave him a lesson as to the separation of the Federal and the State, and I also gave him a file of various states in which it is illegal to obtain state files to use for these purposes, such as Iowa, and so forth.

So I gave him, I guess, a pretty thorough background as to what names to avoid. I worked with Wyatt Stewart in setting up a particular file at one time for the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, and I know, if there was any possibility of wanting to make a fast dollar or something like that, going down and getting NCPAC names and Republican Committee names, I would tell anybody to stay away from those particular reports.

I know those people. I work for those people. I deal with those people on the phone almost every day. That is not the way to compile a mailing list. You are going to get caught and you are going to get caught real fast.

Q Mr. Whitehead, to your knowledge, subsequent to the filing by NCPAC of a complaint about misuse of its names in this case, did NCPAC continue to rent this list?

A Most definitely.

MS. LERNER: I am sorry, but did you mean NCPAC?

MR. R. LEVIN: Yes, I meant NCPAC. They have continued to be rentors of this list.

MS. LERNER: They were renting. I was thinking that they were renting it to other people.

BY MR. LEVIN:

- Q And the list is Truly Conservative; is that right?
- A Yes.
- Q How long have you been in the business?
- A Since 1966.
- Q In those 20-some years, have you ever been named as a respondent in any proceeding before the Federal Election Commission?
 - A No.
- Q Have you ever been named as a respondent before any agency tasked with the responsibility of enforcing statutes similar to the Federal Election Campaign Act in any State or other jurisdiction?

A No.

- Q How many names have you compiled over the last two decades, approximately?
 - A Millions, probably 20 million.
- Q When did you first become aware that there was the possibility that there were NCPAC names on the Truly Conservative list?
- A Mike Cohen called Tom Mays, and Tom Mays told me of it.
 - Q When?
- A Approximately, I guess, the date that the complaint was filed.
- Q Prior to the complaint being filed, did you have any knowledge that there was a NCPAC name or names on the list?
 - A None.
- Ω To this date, do you know whether the NCPAC names, if they do appear, are the result of any illegal activity?
 - A No.
 - MR. R. LEVIN: I have no further questions.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q Let me clarify something. You indicated that for someone who is in the business, it was easy to recognize a NCPAC report; is that right?

A Yes.

Q I believe you testified that when you sent names to Meyer Cohen, what you sent him were copies of the pages from the reports that you had obtained from the various sectors of the state.

A Yes.

Q Would it be correct, then, to say that Mr. Cohen would have been able to recognize a NCPAC report in those papers as well?

MR. R. LEVIN: Objection. I don't think you can ask him what would somebody else recognize.

THE WITNESS: I don't know.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q Do you know how long Mr. Cohen has been in this business?

A To my knowledge, I recall him being in the business from, say, at least 1975. Basically, Mike Cohen started out not in the Republican or Conservative fund raising field, which

I was in, but in the United Negro College Fund. His major client is the NAACP, and the United Negro College Fund. Those are his two big clients right now.

I had always known of Mike Cohen in that capacity, but not in the capacity of the Conservative and Republican fund raiser. It is more lucrative to be in the Republican and Conservative field, and that is why he switched over, I am sure.

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Pertaining to your discussion of Ernest Halter, do you have any reason to believe that Ernest Halter did business with Victor Heyman in dealing with the names on the Truly Conservative Contributors?

A Other than what Mike Cohen told me, no. Mike Cohen told me that both Ernie Halter and Victor Heyman, both verified that Halter had supplied names for all of the Conservative lists.

Q Did Heyman obtain names on his own, or do you have any reason to believe that?

A I have no knowledge of that. I can't say he did. I know he was hungry for names. He called me many, many times, and he would say, "We have sales of X number," and he talked with Tom several times, and he said, "I have to have more names." I said, "I'm too busy, and Tom doesn't have the money to do it.

Q Let me clarify this. There may be some reason to believe on your part that Halter would have or may have obtained names which Heyman then put on the computer, generating the labels, which was his function.

A It would have been the fastest way for someone hungry for names to obtain them.

Q So this is something you have reason to believe occurred.

A But I have no knowledge of it.

BY MS. LERNER:

Q The hierarchy here seems to be, there are people out there who compile lists, they send their lists to someone like Mr. Cohen -- is he the broker, is that what he would be called?

A The manager and broker, I think, but primarily the manager.

Q He then takes the raw data that everybody provides him and sends it to a computer programming house, to put this together, and then he markets the list.

A Yes.

Q In the ordinary situation, would the computer house be involved in going out and obtaining names to add to these lists, who would they receive them from the manager/broker?

A In most cases, no, but in most cases, the computer house would not be involved in ownership of the list. The ownership -- Heyman's ownership in this particular list came from the standpoint that Mike Cohen did not want to put up the money, or did not have the money to pay for keypunching services. Heyman, his part of the partnership was to provide keypunching services to get the list ready to be rented.

In a normal situation, you would not have a computer house involved in other than just running your labels and shipping them out. This was an unusual case because Heyman is also the cousin of Harriet Heyman who is Mike Cohen's fiance.

MR. LEVIN: I have nothing further.

THE WITNESS: May I say something?

MR. R. LEVIN: If you want to say something, go ahead.

THE WITNESS: I have built a reputation on getting a lot of good names and making a lot of money for other people and for myself in the list industry. I have had lots of offers to take part in some list deals which I totally rejected, knowing that a lot of money could be made, because I was very leary of the source. That is how I first encountered Ernie Halter in this business. He was peddling a million donor names, supposedly, at one time. Someone said, "I know someone who has a million donor names." He got in touch with me through someone else, and I took one look at it and I said, "I wouldn't touch it."

He said, "Give me some leads on who would be interested in buying these names," and I said, "I would suggest no one, absolutely no one that I know that would buy these names."

BY MR. J. LEVIN:

Q Was it your concern that these names would have been obtained contrary to FEC statutes?

A Most definitely, yes.

MR. J. LEVIN: We will be sending you your witness check. This deposition is adjourned, not officially dismissed. Thank you very much.

MR. R. LEVIN: We will waive signature.

(Whereupon, at 11:45 a.m., the taking of the deposition ceased.)

(Signature was waived.)

Victor Heyman Tom Mays, Jr. 1706 Lorre Drive Rockville, MD 20852

Dear Victor and Tom:

I had a very long working session with one of our bigger broker clients and went over every list usage on TRULY, NICE, SOLID, MATCHED MULTI, COMMITTED LIBERALS and CIVIL RIGHTS $25+ lists.

The results of the usage are mixed ranging from very good to bad (if not horrible).

The future usage therefore was the thrust of our conversation.

In most respects the earlier names out perform the later names. We will therefore, for the first time, begin filling orders with the earlier names.

To get the later names to become more productive we suggest cleaning (ACR, not Data Bank) the whole list.

I can structure the following deal at these guessed-at costs:

Mailer to receive full runs of NICE, TRULY, SOLID. The 3 separate runs in zip sequence on mag tape. More specific instructions will be issued.

Mailer will absorb the costs of the first 2-3% of nixies.

Your partnership will pay the balance of the nixies.

Nixies cost $.25 per envelope.

The partnership will bear the costs of key-punching and updating.

Costs - based on 200,000 universe:

12-13% nixies rate = 26,000 pieces we pay on 10% = 20,800 pieces at $.25/each = $5,200.00

Keying 26,000 nixies and removing/updating addresses @$25/M 650.00 $5,850.00

This breaks down to a guessed cost to each half of the partnership of approximately $2,925.00.

Tom, your half of the partnership owes Victor's approximately $3,750.00 for the keypunching costs from 150,000 to the current level.

If you both approve, I will start putting the machinery in motion. In order to get the deal we would have to move fast, so that it can be done by 1985 testings.

Please let me know.

John L. Whitehead

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

John Whitehead and Associates

This matter involves two complaints filed by the National Conservative Political Action Committee alleging violations of 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. These complaints alleged that the American Printing House for the Blind and the Republican National Committee solicited contributions from a pseudonym submitted by NCPAC to the Reports Analysis Division pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4). NCPAC stated further in these allegations that Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen, an officer of Working Names, had rented the list containing the pseudonym to the solicitors.

In response to the complaint, Meyer Cohen of Working Names admitted that his company has the pseudonym, and he sent us the portion of the list containing the pseudonym. He stated that Working Names is a list management company representing two owners of the list and that the two owners compiled the list in "a legally acceptable manner." Mr. Cohen proceeded to state that the pseudonym or "decoy" submitted by NCPAC may not be a "true decoy" in that it may be obtainable from some source other than reports filed with the Commission or with Secretaries of State.

Research of this Office revealed that the pseudonym was not the only example of a name from the list coinciding with NCPAC reports. The list portion sent to this Office by Mr. Cohen contained 212 names. After checking those names against a list of 1982 contributors to NCPAC, it appeared that approximately 14 percent of the names on the list portion submitted by Mr. Cohen also appeared on the NCPAC reports filed with the Commission for 1982.

On July 12, 1983, the Commission found reason to believe that Working Names violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The Commission also approved interrogatories to be sent to Working Names.

In a meeting with counsel for Working Names on August 3, 1983, and in a letter received from Meyer T. Cohen, President of Working Names, on August 12, 1983, this Office was informed of other persons involved in this transaction. In response to a written interrogatory asking him to state the owners of the list, Mr. Cohen stated that the owners are Victor K. Heyman and Heyman Consulting Group, Inc. ("Heyman Consulting") of Rockville, Mayland and Thomas L. Mays of Washington, D.C. Mr. Cohen's response indicated that the functions of the participants dealing with the list were divided as follows: Working Names advertised and marketed the list and received payment from the list users. Victor Heyman and Heyman Consulting performed computer processing of the list material, entering the names which they received onto computer tapes and duplicating the tapes or producing mailing labels from the tape information. Mr. Mays obtained the names themselves. According to oral representations by counsel and Meyer Cohen's written response, Mr. Mays traveled to the various offices of the Secretaries of State and obtained the filings made for state and local elections and did not "knowingly" use any material required by federal law to be filed with a Secretary of State.

On October 3, 1983, this Office, with the Commission's approval, sent a letter to the complainant asking whether NCPAC had included the solicited pseudonym on any list or report other than the report of contributors submitted to the Commission. On October 18, NCPAC replied that the pseudonym "was not used by NCPAC on any report or list of names filed with any agency other than the Federal Election Commission."

On February 7, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that Meyer Cohen and Thomas L. Mays violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. The response of counsel for the respondents included an affidavit from Mr. Mays listing the offices of the Secretaries of State in eight states as the sources of the list, "Truly Conservative Contributors."

On May 10, 1984, this Office sent questions to these eight offices inquiring as to the process by which members of the public may review or receive copies of political campaign finance reports and as to whether and how state reports are separated from federal reports. Procedures differ from state to state. All but one of the states separate state filings from federal filings. This is done by having a separate state office for the the receipt of filings for state candidacies, by separate filing rooms, or by separate, clearly marked cabinets. The Florida Secretary of State's Office stated that it does not separate federal and state files in the above manner. It also stated that NCPAC files reports in computerized form and does not separate federal and state activity.

In response to a request from counsel, the Commission, on October 30, 1984, voted to approve entering into pre-probable cause conciliation with Mr. Mays, Mr. Cohen and Working Names, and Mr. Heyman and Heyman Consulting. After a meeting between respondents' counsel and OGC staff members, respondents' counsel sent in signed proposals which this Office received on November 30, 1984.

On January 8, 1985, the Commission voted to amend the proposals signed by the respondents and to send them back to the respondents for their consideration. On March 1, 1985, the Commission voted to accept the amended proposal that was signed by Victor K. Heyman and the Heyman Consulting Group and to close the file as to these two respondents.

On May 8, 1985, this Office sent briefs to the new counsel for Mr. Mays and Working Names and Mr. Cohen, stating that the General Counsel was prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the remaining respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. No reply briefs were received from counsel.

On July 23, 1985, the Commission found probable cause to believe that Thomas Mays, Working Names, Inc. and Meyer T. Cohen violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15 and voted to commence conciliation negotiations.

This Office and counsel for the respondents were unable to reach an agreement. In early October, just prior to being informed by respondents' counsel that the respondents would not sign a modified proposal offered by this Office, the former counsel for the respondents called this Office. He is representing Heyman Consulting Group in a state court suit against Working Names for payments allegedly owed by Working Names. During the discovery process in this litigation, Working Names sent certain documents to Heyman Consulting Group. These documents included "Payment Advices," i.e., memoranda of payments, on Working Names stationery listing John Whitehead, a businessman actively involved in the mailing list industry, as the payee. (See Attachment 1). The Payment Advices were for the Truly Conservative Contributors list. Each document included the billing date, the "maildate," the "mailer," i.e., the organization purchasing the use of the names, the amount of names from the list being used, the amount of the commission per thousand names, and a deduction for the amount of money being paid to the Heyman Consulting Group. One of these Payment Advices referred to 5,100 names from Truly Conservative Contributors going to the RNC with a maildate of February 28, 1983. Another Payment Advice referred to 10,200 names from Truly Conservative Contributors going to the American Printing House for the Blind with a maildate of February 14, 1983. The dates indicate that these mailings may be the mailings referred to in the complaints initiating this matter.

On December 4, 1985, the Commission found reason to believe that John L. Whitehead and his company, John Whitehead and Associates, violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15. On that date, the Commission also approved a subpoena for documents and deposition to be sent to Mr. Whitehead. Due to the office move, the notification and subpoena were not mailed until December 23, 1985. Mr. Whitehead was deposed by attorneys of this Office on January 23, 1985. During the deposition, Mr. Whitehead proceeded to explain why he is listed as the payee for the aforementioned payment advices.

Mr. Whitehead's testimony indicates that the names that were used for the list "Truly Conservative Contributors" were one-quarter owned by Thomas Mays, one-quarter owned by Victor Heyman, and one-half owned by Working Names, of which Meyer Cohen is the president. Mr. Mays compiled the names for Mr. Whitehead and Mr. Whitehead gave the list to Mr. Mays in early 1982, approximately one year before the complaint was filed. During early 1983, when the list started generating income and Mr. Mays owed money to Mr. Whitehead for loans and transactions unrelated to mailing list activities, Mr. Mays and Mr. Whitehead decided to split Mr. Mays' share of the income from the list on a 50-50 basis until the loans were repaid.

Mr. Whitehead indicated that Mr. Cohen would make out checks to Mr. Whitehead, rather than Mr. Mays, in payment for the use of names, because most of the money sent by Mr. Cohen to Mr. Whitehead was not for "Truly Conservative Contributors", but rather, was for lists which were owned by Mr. Whitehead. Mr. Whitehead indicated that payment advices for Truly Conservative

-7-Contributors were addressed to him, rather than to Mr. Mays, because Mr. Mays was living with him at the time. Furthermore, he stated that he had asked Mr. Cohen why Mr. Cohen's documents would display his name rather than Mr. Mays' name and that Mr. Cohen informed him that this was "because all the lists had been in [Mr. Whitehead's] name previous to Tom [Mays] coming into picture, and [Mr. Cohen's] bookkeeper had kept the account set up in [Mr. Whitehead's] name." II. LEGAL ANALYSIS Section 438(a)(4) of Title 2 and section 104.15 of the Commission's Regulations provide that any contributor information copied from reports filed with the Commission may not be sold or 10 used by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for commercial purposes, other than using the name and address of a political committee to solicit contributions from such committee. Section 104.15(a) includes reports filed with 0 Secretaries of State within the prohibition. 77 The testimony of Mr. Whitehead does not contradict the 0 evidence used as a basis for the probable cause findings made 0 with respect to Working Names, Inc., Meyer T. Cohen, and Thomas Mays. Because conciliation has already concluded with a failure to reach an agreement with Working Names, Mr. Cohen, and Mr. Mays, this Office recommends that the Commission authorize the Office of the General Counsel to file suit against these respondents in United States District Court. Although it appears that Mr. Whitehead gave the list to Mr. Mays who used it for commercial purposes, this Office recommends the Commission take no further action with regard to Mr. Whitehead. Mr. Whitehead gave the list to Mr. Mays for personal rather than pecuniary reasons. Although he received monies originating from the proceeds of the sale of the list, those payments represented repayments of private debts owed by Mr. Mays to Mr. Whitehead. Based on the foregoing, therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission take no further action with respect to the allegation that John L. Whitehead and John Whitehead and Associates violated 2 U.S.C. § 438(a)(4) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.15.
