(k)1. Any person subject to a subpoena may, before compliance and on timely petition, request the presiding officer having jurisdiction of the dispute to invalidate the subpoena on the ground that it was not lawfully issued, is unreasonably broad in scope, or requires the production of irrelevant material.

2. A party may seek enforcement of a subpoena, order directing discovery, or order imposing sanctions issued under the authority of this chapter by filing a petition for enforcement in the circuit court of the judicial circuit in which the person failing to comply with the subpoena or order resides. A failure to comply with an order of the court shall result in a finding of contempt of court. However, no person shall be in contempt while a subpoena is being challenged under subparagraph 1. The court may award to the prevailing party all or part of the costs and attorney's fees incurred in obtaining the court order whenever the court determines that such an award should be granted under the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

3. Any public employee subpoenaed to appear at an agency proceeding shall be entitled to per diem and travel expenses at the same rate as that provided for state employees under s. 112.061 if travel away from such public employee's headquarters is required. All other witnesses appearing pursuant to a subpoena shall be paid such fees and mileage for their attendance as is provided in civil actions in circuit courts of this state. In the case of a public employee, such expenses shall be processed and paid in the manner provided for agency employee travel expense reimbursement, and in the case of a witness who is not a public employee, payment of such fees and expenses shall accompany the subpoena.

Florida Administrative Code Rule 28-106.212

Concerned that my e-mails were not being forwarded to Ms. Faiella's Treasurer, I telephoned Steve Adkins on Thursday, August 26, 2010, to ask if he received the e-mails and for his e-mail address. I forwarded the e-mails to him at that time (attached). In our telephone conversation Mr. Adkins said that it was brought to his attention that there were issues regarding a raffle that was held and he asked where he could get information on that subject. I directed him to the bottom of Page 64 of the Candidate & Treasurer's Campaign Handbook and advised him to call the Division of Elections for direction.

11. Please summarize the advice you would give to a candidate or campaign treasurer pertaining to campaign finance issues.

I would advise that they consult the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer Handbook or Florida State Statute 106. If they have not found the answer to their question(s) I would advise them to contact the Florida Division of Elections for direction.

Question 6 Response

My contacts with the candidate and treasurer by e-mail are attached. Except for the two e-mails noted below, most e-mails were reminders of report due dates.

Two telephone contacts with the candidate's treasurer, Steve Adkins, are as follows:

August 26, 2010 - Concerned that my e-mails were not reaching Ms. Faiella's Treasurer, I telephoned Steve Adkins to ask if he received the two e-mails I sent #1 dated Thursday, July 29, 2010, 12:25 PM, and e-mail #2 dated Friday, August 6, 2010, 8:26 AM. (Attached) He replied that he had not and I forwarded the e-mails to him at that time. In our telephone conversation Mr. Adkins said that it was brought to his attention that there were issues regarding a raffle that was held and he asked where he could get information on that subject. I directed him to the bottom of Page 64 of the Candidate & Treasurer's Campaign Handbook and advised him to call the Division of Elections for direction.

September 8, 2010, 10:20 a.m. – Mr. Adkins telephoned with a question regarding how to show/correct accepting donations from other candidates. I directed him to call the Florida Division of Elections at (850)-245-6200 for the procedure necessary to correct this issue.

The Press has begun reviewing your Campaign Treasurer Reports online at the Supervisor of Elections web page, Please review "Chapter 11 - Contributions" of the Candidate and Campaign Treasure Handbook and Chapter 106 - Campaign Financing (FL State Statute). Both these documents were in the election packet you signed for during our election packet meeting. Especially note Loans and Cash Contributions on the bottom of Page 25 of the handbook. Double check your reports to make sure you are coding your contributions correctly & that you are not accepting amounts over the lawful limit. Should a Treasurer Report require corrections, an Amendment Report needs to be filed.

The Press has begun reviewing your Campaign Treasurer Reports online at the Supervisor of Elections web page, Please review "Chapter 11 - Contributions" of the Candidate and Campaign Treasure Handbook and Chapter 106 - Campaign Financing (FL State Statute). Both these documents were in the election packet you signed for during our election packet meeting. Especially note Loans and Cash Contributions on the bottom of Page 25 of the handbook. Double check your reports to make sure you are coding your contributions correctly & that you are not accepting amounts over the lawful limit. Should a Treasurer Report require corrections, an Amendment Report needs to be filed.

Complainant: Victoria Huggins

1. Date and time: October 12, 2010 @ 12:48 p.m.

Name: Respondent

Phone #:

Summary: Respondent telephoned and advised me that he had received our letter advising him of Ms. Huggins' complaint. Respondent asked whether he could file amendments to the various treasurer reports before our investigation is complete. I told Respondent that he could but to be sure to file the amendments with the county supervisor of elections' office, the candidate's filing officer. I explained that many times during investigations Respondent's will become confused and submit such report amendments to our office, thinking that they're "filing" their amendments, all the while the filing officer never sees the amendments. I admonished Respondent to not follow that practice and file all treasurer reports with the local county supervisor of elections. Respondent said he understood.

Respondent advised me that after he received our letter advising him of a complaint that he may have made errors with his reporting, he sought and received direction from the Division of Elections pertaining to the proper way to report the many expenditures the candidate had made with her personal credit card.

Summary: R called me in response to the JP Morgan Chase entries. R stated that he called the Division of Elections and spoke with Leonard who instructed him to use 14A, itemized distributions form to report the information about the credit card payments.

I advised R that it's not clear to me what their instructions were and I asked if I could call him back after 1pm. R stated he has a report due today (G4) and that he needs to report additional itemized distributions in this report. I advised R to be sure that he is filing accurate reports and to try to avoid having to amend the reports. R provided me his cell number—772-285-2784.

@ 1:00pm I returned R call. R stated that he spoke with Miguel Hernandez who confirmed it was correct for him to report the information in the itemized distributions form.

I spoke at great length with R regarding the entries reported. R explained that the campaign paid JP Morgan Chase bank as a reimbursement for campaign expenses incurred by Ms. Faeilla because he didn't think it would be right for the campaign to make payments directly to her [candidate]. R stated that the credit card was only used for campaign related purposes.

Summary: Mr. Randolph called me because Miguel Hernandez received a call from R just now and was asking about credit card payments, other distributions, etc.

Mr. Randolph stated that Mr. Hernandez approached him to verify what he had told him in an earlier call. Mr. Randolph stated he told Mr. Hernandez that he doesn't recall speaking with him but that I had just called him about the same thing; he transferred me to Mr. Hernandez for more information.

I spoke with Mr. Hernandez who stated that R was instructed that when a candidate uses a personal credit card that a reimbursement directly to the candidate should occur and that the other distributions form shows where the money was spent by the candidate. Mr. Hernandez stated that he told R that the campaign should cut a check to the candidate not to the credit card company.

8. Date and time: 11/4/10; 1:09pm

Name: Respondent

Phone #: called me

Summary: R called me to discuss the entries for Ms. Faiella's loans and expenditures reported during the F1 report. R asked if he is correct to reimburse R for the credit card expenditures that were previously reported as "loans" from R as well as expenditures to the various vendors.

I reminded R that the only changes to the report that he would want to make are those that make the report accurate. I informed him that if the information is reported accurately but prohibited that there is nothing he can do to the report; I suggested he provide a written explanation to the filing officer if necessary.

I suggested R review the F1 report to see if the post office box rental was accurately reported since the date was listed prior to the date R became a candidate [Ms. Faiella became a candidate on 05/14/10 but the rental date is listed as 04/16/10].

I asked him to verify the date the post office box rental was paid; he confirmed it was paid on 04/16/10. I asked R what payment method was used to pay for the post office box rental; he stated Ms. Faiella used cash to pay for this expenditure. I asked him if the post office box rental was strictly for the campaign or for Ms. Faiella's personal use and loaned to the campaign; he confirmed it was strictly used for the campaign.

I reminded R that the expenditure appears to be prohibited since payment was tendered prior to R registering as a candidate—05/14/10. I cautioned R that the complaint is void of any allegation that this expenditure was made prior to the appointment of a treasurer therefore we are not looking into it. I reminded him to be aware that Ms. Faiella cannot accept any monies or make any expenditures in furtherance of her campaign prior to appointing a treasurer and filing her DSDE-9 form with her filing officer.

I asked R to explain the $100 return check item dated 06/10 found in the bank statement covering 05/29/10 through 06/30/10. Mr. Adkins stated that a contributor's check was returned but it was made good immediately. Mr. Adkins stated the return item fee of $10 was reported but not the return check. I reminded R that all deposits should coincide with a report entry. I also suggested that he be more specific with the purpose listed for the bank fees, such as return item fee for contributor check # and perhaps the check's date.

9. Date and time: 11/05/10; 8:37am

Name: Karen Phillips

Phone #: 772-344-4370

Summary: I called the filing officer to discuss the documents she provided to me and to clarify the date/time Ms. Faiella filed her DSDE-9 and paid her qualifying fee check. I left a message for her to call me back.

Later this morning, Ms. Phillips returned my call and requested I call her back.

@ 3:01pm, I called Ms. Phillips back.

I asked Ms. Phillips to review her campaign records and to clarify the date and time information for Ms. Faiella's filings. Ms. Phillips stated that Ms. Faiella picked-up her packet of information to become a candidate on April 14, 2010; time unknown. Ms. Phillips stated that Ms. Faiella filed her DSDE-9 form on May 14; she paid her qualifying fee at 12:38 on June 14 [first day of qualifying].

Ms. Phillips stated that Mayor Faiella informed her this morning that she has officially resigned her position with the Port St. Lucie Police Department, effective today; Ms. Phillips e-mailed me a copy of the resignation letter.

Ms. Phillips also informed me that Mayor Fiella is going to be away from the office until next Thursday [Nov 12]; she will be sworn in on 11/15/10 for a four-year term.

10. Date and time: 11/05/10; 4:10pm

Name: Frank Borgess

Phone #: 772-528-5006

Summary: I called Mr. Borgess to discuss his $25 in-kind donation to Ms. Faiella's campaign. I asked Mr. Borgess to review his records and confirm whether he paid by personal check, cash or credit/debit card. Mr. Borgess stated it has been a long time now he really doesn't recall but he believes he may have used a personal check.

I reminded him that he previously told me he used a personal debit card; however, the civic center records indicate it was by a check; it is unknown at this time whose check—his or

Ms. Faiella's. Mr. Borgess stated that it should have been his personal check since he donated the rental fee to Ms. Faiella's campaign.

I asked Mr. Borgess if he recalled the date when he rented the booth. Mr. Borgess stated he doesn't recall but that he is certain it was after 05/14/10, which is the same day as the event. However, the records show the invoice date as 05/11/10. Mr. Borgess stated he doesn't believe that is correct.

I asked him if he rented the booth in person, by phone or over the Internet. Mr. Borgess stated that he believed he went in person [had to in order to pay by check], and he also verified that the address listed on the invoice is his home address. Mr. Borgess agreed to provide me a copy of his payment method next week.

Name: Kelly Tiger

Phone #: called me

Summary: Ms. Tiger returned my call. Ms. Tiger stated that she cannot say for sure if the civic center loaned R the tent, tables, and chairs because she doesn't have a written record of it. However, Ms. Tiger said if those items are needed they would be provided by the civic center to ensure the event is a success.

I asked Ms. Tiger to confirm the date R's booth rental was processed and she stated it would be the same date as on the vendor application form [form shows the date of 5/11/10]. Ms. Tiger stated that she cannot explain how the booth rental date is 5/11 if the booth was not rented until 05/14 [the date indicated by R's campaign manager.]

Name: Respondent

Phone #: 772-286-0003

Summary: I called R to discuss the discrepancies between the bank records and the reports.

I explained to R that upon review of the bank records I found that there is no replacement check from Lana's Nails, yet there is one from Thuang T Nguyen, the same person who completed my questionnaire representing Lana's Nails. R stated he must have reported the replacement contribution as a check from Ms. Nguyen rather than Lana's Nails.

I also explained to R that I was unable to find a report entry for the excessive cash refund to Shirley Stradley, yet I found two $500 check entries from Jack Mccuen. R stated that one of them should have been disclosed as a replacement check contribution from Ms. Stradley. R agreed to amend the reports to correct them accordingly.

I also requested copies of all the receipts/backup documentation for the credit card purchases resulting in payments to JP Morgan Chase Bank, and a copy of the campaign check donating the $198 raffle donations to charity, along with a copy of the TR report.

R stated it will take some time to compile the receipts but the other records will be faxed shortly.

I explained to R that his case is separate from any other pending matter and that the receipts are needed as soon as possible. R stated he will forward copies of the receipts upon receipt from the candidate.

Summary: I called Mr. McCuen to clarify information he provided in his questionnaire dated September 9, 2010 pertaining to his contribution(s) to the Faiella campaign. Mr. McCuen stated that it has been a while now and that he cannot answer with certainty without reviewing his records first.

I mentioned to him that I have a copy of three separate checks but that I cannot read the signature on them; it is unknown whether he signed them or Tracy. Mr. McCuen agreed to review copies of the checks and confirm whose signature is on them and what the message is in the memo line.

Mr. McCuen asked me the check amounts. I told him one for $500; $50 and $20. Mr. McCuen seemed surprised that the amount exceeded $500. Mr. McCuen stated he knows there is a limit to how much a person can contribute to a candidate and that he believes the smaller checks may have been ticket to dinners or something. Mr. McCuen verified Waterway Lane address is current.

Summary: R called me in response to his notice of informal hearing that was mailed recently. R stated that “tax season” is a very busy time for him as an accountant and he asked could his hearing be rescheduled until after May 1, 2012. I explained to R that he would need to file a Motion for Continuance and to state his reasons. I cautioned R that the Commission would have to rule on his motion prior to any informal hearing but that the informal hearing would be heard if they reject his motion, with or without him present.
- I explained to R that his attendance is not required. However, since R stated that he is disputing the allegations that “He” received the excessive cash when he did not, I suggested R submit a request for a formal hearing before DOAH. R stated that he discovered the reporting of the excessive cash when he prepared the reports but that someone else received the cash and made the deposits, not him.
- R stated that he will be filing a request for formal hearing and that he would like to appear before DOAH.

The agreed to consent order is then presented to the Commission for its approval. STATE OF FLORIDA
FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION

In Re: Stephen Adkins

Case No.: FEC 10-274

AMENDED STAFF RECOMMENDATION FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION

Pursuant to section 106.25(4)(c), Florida Statutes, undersigned staff counsel files this written recommendation for disposition of the complaint in this case recommending that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(5), 106.09(1), and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes and no probable to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.19(1)(a), Florida Statutes. Based upon a thorough review of the Report of Investigation submitted on May 26, 2011, the following facts and law support this staff recommendation:

1. On October 1, 2010, the Florida Elections Commission ("Commission") received a sworn complaint from Victoria Huggins ("Complainant"), alleging that Stephen Adkins ("Respondent") violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.
2. Respondent was the treasurer for JoAnn Faiella who was a candidate for Mayor of [REDACTED] in the November 2, 2010 General Election.
3. By letter dated October 22, 2010, the Executive Director notified Respondent that staff would investigate the alleged violations of the following statutory provisions:

Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes: Stephen Adkins, campaign treasurer for Joann Faiella in the 2010 mayoral race in the City of [REDACTED] certified campaign treasurer reports as true, correct, and complete, when they are not as alleged in the complaint.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: Stephen Adkins, campaign treasurer for Joann Faiella in the 2010 mayoral race in the [REDACTED], falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, as alleged in the complaint.

Section 106.19(1)(a), Florida Statutes: Stephen Adkins, campaign treasurer for Joann Faiella in the 2010 mayoral race in the [REDACTED], accepted contributions in excess of the limits prescribed in Section 106.08, Florida Statutes as alleged in the complaint.

Section 106.09(1), Florida Statutes: Stephen Adkins, campaign treasurer for Joann Faiella in the 2010 mayoral race in the City of [REDACTED], accepted a cash contribution or contribution by means of a cashier's check in excess of $50 as alleged in the complaint.

4. Ms. Faiella filed her Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository form with the [REDACTED] City Clerk's Office appointing Respondent as her campaign treasurer. (ROI Exhibit 1)<sup>1</sup> Respondent stated he received a copy of the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer's Handbook. (ROI Exhibit 8)

Sections 106.07(5) and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes.

5. Complainant alleged that Respondent certified that Ms. Faiella's 2010 F1, 2010 F2, 2010 F3, amended 2010 F3, and 2010 G1 campaign reports were true, correct, and complete when they were not.

6. During the campaign, Ms. Faiella was required to submit period reports of all contributions received and all expenditures made by her campaign. As the treasurer, Respondent certified that each report was true, correct, and complete.

7. The following table sets forth the missing and incorrect information on the reports that Respondent certified:

MISSING AND INCORRECT INFORMATION ON RESPONDENT'S CTRs
Date Filed	Reporting Period	Missing Information	Incorrect Information

<sup>2</sup> §106.07(4)(a)5., Fla. Stat., requires that each campaign treasurer’s report contain, “The total sums of all loans, in-kind contributions, and other receipts by or for such [ ] candidate during the reporting period. The reporting forms shall be designed to elicit separate totals for the in-kind contributions, loans and other receipts.”

§106.07(4)(a)9., Fla. Stat., requires the reporting of the “total sum of expenditures made by such [ ] or candidate during the reporting. It does not appear that Chapter 106 requires the reporting of contribution and expenditure totals “to date.”

<sup>3</sup> Respondent made several campaign related expenditures using a personal credit card issued by JP Morgan Chase Bank. Instead of issuing a reimbursement to Ms. Faiella directly as required by Section 106.021(3), Florida Statutes. Respondent “reimbursed” Ms. Faiella by making payments to the credit card company. The total amount of payments to the credit card company exceeded the amount Ms. Faiella actually spent for campaign related items because Respondent used campaign funds to pay for accrued interest and other fees. 8. Because Respondent certified the reports as being true, correct and complete, when they were false, incorrect, and incomplete, it appears that he violated Sections 106.07(5) & 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes.

Section 106.09(1), Florida Statutes.

9. Complainant alleged that Respondent accepted cash contributions on behalf of the JoAnn Faiella campaign in excess of $50.

10. The following table lists the contributions accepted by Respondent on behalf of the Faiella campaign:

TABLE 2: EXCESSIVE CASH CONTRIBUTIONS ACCEPTED BY RESPONDENT<sup>4</sup>

Date Accepted	Contributor	Contribution Type<sup>5</sup>	Amount
06/07/10	Lana's Nails	Cash	$100.00
06/11/10	Jack McCuen	Cash	$500.00
06/25/10	Jennifer Newman	Cash	$100.00
07/08/10	Shirlee Stradley	Cash	$500.00
07/08/10	Anthony Burns	Cash	$500.00

11. It appears that Respondent violated 106.09(1), Florida Statutes, even though the excessive cash contributions (except the cash from the raffle) were returned to the contributors and replaced with a check contribution.

Section 106.19(1)(a), Florida Statutes.

12. Complainant alleged that Respondent accepted excessive contributions from Shirlee Stradley prior to the August 24, 2010 primary election and from J.P. Morgan Chase Bank.

13. Respondent listed a $500 cash contribution on her 2010 F1 report and also listed the replacement check for $500 on her 2010 F3 report. Therefore, Respondent did not receive an excessive contribution from Ms. Stradley. (ROI Exhibits 2 & 4)

14. Respondent reported several "loans" from J.P. Morgan Chase on her reports. The loans were items Faiella purchased using her personal J.P. Morgan Chase credit card for her campaign, for which she intended to be reimbursed. Respondent incorrectly reported the purchases/items as loans from the credit card company. Respondent "reimbursed" Ms. Faiella for the purchases by making expenditures (payments) directly to J.P. Morgan Chase. (The Respondent also paid for interest and other fees assessed against the account with campaign funds). (ROI Exhibit 7) The reimbursement payments were reported as campaign expenditures to J.P. Morgan Chase. (ROI Exhibits 2, 4 & 5) Therefore, it does not appear that Respondent violated this provision of Florida's election laws.

15. "Probable cause" is defined as reasonable ground of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a cautious person in the belief that the person has committed the offense charged. Schmitt v. State, 590 So.2d 404, 409 (Fla. 1991). Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances, of which an [investigator] has reasonably

<sup>4</sup> Respondent also reported a May 31, 2010, cash contribution for $198 from a campaign raffle. Essentially this is an "anonymous donation" and therefore, it is not possible to return the cash to each contributor. Respondent wrote a check to Treasure Fest, a local festival, for $198, the amount of the excessive anonymous contribution.

<sup>5</sup> Between 2-6 weeks after accepting each contribution, Ms. Faiella returned the excessive cash contributions and each of the contributors replaced the cash contribution with a check contribution. (ROI Exhibits 14, 16, 18, 20, & 22)

trustworthy information, are sufficient in themselves for a reasonable man to reach the conclusion that an offense has been committed. Dept. of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles v. Favino, 667 So.2d 305, 309 (Fla. 1st DCA 1995).

16. The above facts show that Respondent was the treasurer for JoAnne Faiella's 2010 campaign for the Mayor of Port Saint Lucie, Florida. During the campaign, Respondent was required to submit period reports of all contributions received and all expenditures made by Ms. Faiella's campaign. As the treasurer, Respondent certified that each report was true, correct, and complete. Respondent certified Ms. Faiella's 2010 F1, 2010 F2, and 2010 F3 campaign reports as true, correct, and complete when they were not. Additionally, Respondent accepted five cash contributions in excess of $50.

17. The above facts also show that Respondent did not accept an excessive contribution from Shirlee Stradley as one of Ms. Stradley's contribution's was $500 in cash which she replaced with a $500 check. Additionally, Respondent did not accept excessive contributions from JP Morgan Chase bank.

Based upon the foregoing, I recommend that the Commission find probable cause that Respondent committed the following violation:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING

Please be advised that other cases have been scheduled for the same time. Therefore, your case may not be called exactly at the time set forth on this notice.

At the probable cause hearing, the Florida Elections Commission will decide whether there is probable cause to believe that Respondent has violated one or more provisions of The Florida Election Code.

Respondent, each Complainant, and their counsel are permitted to attend the probable cause hearing.

The hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes; Chapter 28, Florida Administrative Code, the Uniform Rules of Procedures; and Commission Rule 1.0027, Florida Administrative Code.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent, at his or her own expense, may provide a certified court reporter also to record the hearing.

Before making a decision on probable cause, the Commission will review the complaint, the Report of Investigation, the Staff Recommendation, any written responses submitted by Respondent, and any oral statements made by Respondent and staff at the probable cause hearing.

When your case is called, the Chair will read a brief statement and may ask Respondent, Complainant, and their attorneys, if an attorney is present, to state their names for the record.

Staff will then have time to summarize the case and make a recommendation to the Commission on probable cause. After staff's presentation, if the Respondent is present he or she will have time to make a statement to the Commission in the nature of an oral argument.

Pursuant to the Final Order DOSFEC 05-057, Respondent's statement should explain how the staff erred in applying the law to the facts enumerated in the Staff Recommendation. Respondent may not testify or call others to testify or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing.

At the probable cause hearing, the Commission is not deciding whether Respondent has violated a provision of The Florida Election Code or the amount of the fine. The Commission is only deciding whether Respondent should be charged with violating a provision of the election code. Before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for a second hearing, where Respondent may testify, call others to testify on his or her behalf, and introduce documentary or other evidence that shows Respondent did not commit the violations charged.

After the presentations are concluded, the Commissioners will discuss the case and may ask questions of Respondent and staff. The Commission's decision on probable cause will be made by a majority vote of those members present and voting.

After the Commission decides whether there is or is not probable cause to believe that Respondent violated a provision of the election code, the case will become public. In some cases, the Commission may not make a decision, such as when further investigation is ordered. If the Commission does not make a decision on probable cause, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

After the Commission meeting, the Commission will send Respondent and Complainant a written order reflecting the Commission's decision on probable cause. If the Commission finds no probable cause, the case will be dismissed. If the Commission finds probable cause, Respondent will receive instructions on how to either settlement the matter or select a hearing before the Commission or the Division of Administrative Hearings. These hearings will determine whether a violation has occurred and whether a fine should be imposed.

If Respondent has not received the Staff Recommendation or if you have any questions about the procedures for the probable cause hearing, please contact Patsy Rushing, Commission Clerk, at (850) 922-4539.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION

Pursuant to section 106.25(4)(c), Florida Statutes, undersigned staff counsel files this written recommendation for disposition of the complaint in this case recommending that there is probable cause to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.07(5), 106.09(1), and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes and no probable to charge Respondent with violating Section 106.19(1)(a), Florida Statutes. Based upon a thorough review of the Report of Investigation submitted on May 26, 2011, the following facts and law support this staff recommendation:

1. On October 1, 2010, the Florida Elections Commission (“Commission”) received a sworn complaint from Victoria Huggins (“Complainant”), alleging that Stephen Adkins (“Respondent”) violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

2. Respondent was the treasurer for JoAnn Faiella who was a candidate for Mayor of [REDACTED] in the November 2, 2010 General Election.

3. By letter dated October 22, 2010, the Executive Director notified Respondent that staff would investigate the alleged violations of the following statutory provisions:

Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes: Stephen Adkins, campaign treasurer for Joann Faiella in the 2010 mayoral race in the City of [REDACTED], when they are not as alleged in the complaint.

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes: Stephen Adkins, campaign treasurer for Joann Faiella in the 2010 mayoral race in the [REDACTED] falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, as alleged in the complaint.

Section 106.19(1)(a), Florida Statutes: Stephen Adkins, campaign treasurer for Joann Faiella in the 2010 mayoral race in the [REDACTED], accepted contributions in excess of the limits prescribed in Section 106.08, Florida Statutes as alleged in the complaint.

Section 106.09(1), Florida Statutes: Stephen Adkins, campaign treasurer for Joann Faiella in the 2010 mayoral race in the City of [REDACTED], accepted a cash contribution or contribution by means of a cashier's check in excess of $50 as alleged in the complaint.

4. Ms. Faiella filed her Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository form with the ██████████ Clerk's Office appointing Respondent as her campaign treasurer. (ROI Exhibit 1)<sup>1</sup> Respondent stated he received a copy of the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer's Handbook. (ROI Exhibit 8)

Sections 106.07(5) and 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes.

5. Complainant alleged that Respondent certified that Ms. Faiella's 2010 F1, 2010 F2, 2010 F3, amended 2010 F3, and 2010 G1 campaign reports were true, correct, and complete when they were not.

6. During the campaign, Ms. Faiella was required to submit period reports of all contributions received and all expenditures made by her campaign. As the treasurer, Respondent certified that each report was true, correct, and complete.

7. The following table sets forth the missing and incorrect information on the reports that Respondent certified:

<sup>2</sup> §106.07(4)(a)5., Fla. Stat., requires that each campaign treasurer’s report contain, “The total sums of all loans, in-kind contributions, and other receipts by or for such [ ] candidate during the reporting period. The reporting forms shall be designed to elicit separate totals for the in-kind contributions, loans and other receipts.”

§106.07(4)(a)9., Fla. Stat., requires the reporting of the “total sum of expenditures made by such [ ] or candidate during the reporting. It does not appear that Chapter 106 requires the reporting of contribution and expenditure totals “to date.”

<sup>3</sup> Respondent made several campaign related expenditures using a personal credit card issued by JP Morgan Chase Bank. Instead of issuing a reimbursement to Ms. Faiella directly as required by Section 106.021(3), Florida Statutes. Respondent “reimbursed” Ms. Faiella by making payments to the credit card company. The total amount of payments to the credit card company exceeded the amount Ms. Faiella actually spent for campaign related items because Respondent used campaign funds to pay for accrued interest and other fees. 8. Because Respondent certified the reports as being true, correct and complete, when they were false, incorrect, and incomplete, it appears that he violated Sections 106.07(5) & 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes.

Section 106.09(1), Florida Statutes.

9. Complainant alleged that Respondent accepted cash contributions on behalf of the JoAnn Faiella campaign in excess of $50.

10. The following table lists the contributions accepted by Respondent on behalf of the Faiella campaign:

Date Accepted	Contributor	Contribution Type<sup>5</sup>	Amount
06/07/10	Lana's Nails	Cash	$100.00
06/11/10	Jack McCuen	Cash	$500.00
06/25/10	Jennifer Newman	Cash	$100.00
07/08/10	Shirlee Stradley	Cash	$500.00
07/08/10	Anthony Burns	Cash	$500.00

11. It appears that Respondent violated 106.09(1), Florida Statutes, even though the excessive cash contributions (except the cash from the raffle) were returned to the contributors and replaced with a check contribution.

Section 106.19(1)(a), Florida Statutes.

12. Complainant alleged that Respondent accepted excessive contributions from Shirlee Stradley prior to the August 24, 2010 primary election and from J.P. Morgan Chase Bank.

13. Respondent listed a $500 cash contribution on her 2010 F1 report and also listed the replacement check for $500 on her 2010 F3 report. Therefore, Respondent did not receive an excessive contribution from Ms. Stradley. (ROI Exhibits 2 & 4)

14. Respondent reported several "loans" from J.P. Morgan Chase on her reports. The loans were items Faiella purchased using her personal J.P. Morgan Chase credit card for her campaign, for which she intended to be reimbursed. Respondent incorrectly reported the purchases/items as loans from the credit card company. Respondent "reimbursed" Ms. Faiella for the purchases by making expenditures (payments) directly to J.P. Morgan Chase. (The Respondent also paid for interest and other fees assessed against the account with campaign funds). (ROI Exhibit 7) The reimbursement payments were reported as campaign expenditures to J.P. Morgan Chase. (ROI Exhibits 2, 4 & 5) Therefore, it does not appear that Respondent violated this provision of Florida's election laws.

15. "Probable cause" is defined as reasonable ground of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a cautious person in the belief that the person has committed the offense charged. Schmitt v. State, 590 So.2d 404, 409 (Fla. 1991). Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances, of which an [investigator] has reasonably

<sup>4</sup> Respondent also reported a May 31, 2010, cash contribution for $198 from a campaign raffle. Essentially this is an "anonymous donation" and therefore, it is not possible to return the cash to each contributor. Respondent wrote a check to Treasure Fest, a local festival, for $198, the amount of the excessive anonymous contribution.

<sup>5</sup> Between 2-6 weeks after accepting each contribution, Ms. Faiella returned the excessive cash contributions and each of the contributors replaced the cash contribution with a check contribution. (ROI Exhibits 14, 16, 18, 20, & 22)

trustworthy information, are sufficient in themselves for a reasonable man to reach the conclusion that an offense has been committed. Dept. of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles v. Favino, 667 So.2d 305, 309 (Fla. 1st DCA 1995).

16. The above facts show that Respondent was the treasurer for JoAnne Faiella's 2010 campaign for the Mayor of Port Saint Lucie, Florida. During the campaign, Respondent was required to submit period reports of all contributions received and all expenditures made by Ms. Faiella's campaign. As the treasurer, Respondent certified that each report was true, correct, and complete. Respondent certified Ms. Faiella's 2010 F1, 2010 F2, and 2010 F3 campaign reports as true, correct, and complete when they were not. Additionally, Respondent accepted five cash contributions in excess of $50.

17. The above facts also show that Respondent did not accept an excessive contribution from Shirlee Stradley as one of Ms. Stradley's contribution's was $500 in cash which she replaced with a $500 check. Additionally, Respondent did not accept excessive contributions from JP Morgan Chase bank.

Based upon the foregoing, I recommend that the Commission find probable cause that Respondent committed the following violation:

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION
REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
Case No.: FEC 10-274

Respondent: Stephen Adkins

Complainant: Victoria Huggins

On October 1, 2010, the Florida Elections Commission received a sworn complaint alleging that Respondent violated Chapter 106, Florida Statutes. The Commission staff investigated whether Respondent violated the following statutes:

Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a campaign treasurer from certifying to the correctness of a campaign treasurer's report that is incorrect, false, or incomplete;

Section 106.09(1), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a person from making or accepting a contribution in cash or by a cashier's check in excess of $50;

Section 106.19(1)(a), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a person or organization from accepting a contribution in excess of the legal limits; and

Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes, prohibiting a person or organization from falsely reporting or deliberately failing to report information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

I. Preliminary Information:

1. Respondent was a first-time treasurer for JoAnn Faiella, a first-time candidate for Mayor for the City of [REDACTED]. Ms. Faiella defeated Christopher Cooper with 55 percent of the vote at the general election held on November 2, 2010. Respondent was appointed as campaign treasurer on or about May 14, 2010. To review Respondent's appointment of treasurer form (DSDE-9), refer to Exhibit 1.

2. Respondent is an accountant at Adkins and Associates, located in Stuart, Florida.

3. Complainant was a candidate for Mayor during the 2010 elections; however she and seven other candidates were eliminated at the primary election held on August 24, 2010.

4. Complainant supported Christopher Cooper, Respondent's opponent in the general election held on November 2, 2010.

II. Alleged Violation of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes:

5. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by certifying to the correctness of Ms. Faiella's campaign reports that are incorrect, false, or incomplete.

6. Complainant alleged that Respondent certified Ms. Faiella's 2010 F1; F2; F3; F3 Amendment; and G1 campaign treasurer's reports as true, correct and complete, when they were not. To review Respondent's reports included with the complaint (the reports include handwritten notations submitted by complainant), refer to Exhibits 2 through 6.

7. In a telephone interview with the Investigations Manager on October 12, 2010, Respondent stated that after receiving our notice that he may have made errors with his reporting, he sought and received direction from the Division of Elections pertaining to the proper way to report the many expenditures the candidate had made with her personal credit card.

8. In a telephone interview on October 29, 2010, Respondent stated that the Division of Elections instructed him to use form 14A, Itemized Distributions, to report the information pertaining to the credit card payments.

9. Respondent stated that the campaign made payments to JP Morgan Chase Bank as reimbursements for Ms. Faiella's campaign expenses; Respondent stated that he did not think it would be appropriate for the campaign to make payments directly to Ms. Faiella. Respondent stated that only campaign related purchases were charged to this credit card.

10. Table 1 summarizes the errors Respondent made on his reports, as alleged by Complainant.

To review the invoices and receipts for the “in-kind” loans listed in Column 3 of Table 1, refer to Exhibit 7. To review Ms. Faiella’s reports, refer to Exhibits 2 through 6.

11. In a questionnaire dated September 15, 2010, in a separate matter, Respondent stated that his 20 years of knowledge, skills, and abilities as a tax accountant qualifies him to hold the position of campaign treasurer; Respondent stated that he has provided accounting services to Ms. Faiella for over ten years.

12. Respondent admitted that he collected some of the contributions but he denied making the deposits. Respondent stated that Ms. Faiella collected some of the contributions and that the assistant treasurer made the deposits because he was unavailable. However, Respondent admitted that he maintained the campaign’s finance records and that he prepared and filed Ms. Faiella’s reports. To review Respondent’s questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 8.

13. For additional information pertaining to Jack McCuen’s refunds disclosed in Ms. Faiella’s 2010 F3 report, and the missing report entry for the refund to Shirlee Stradley, refer to paragraphs 36, 37, 42, and 43 of this report of investigation.

14. No other record of Respondent having previously violated this section of the election laws was found.

15. Respondent admitted he read the January 2010 edition of the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer’s handbook to determine his responsibilities under Florida’s election laws.

16. In a letter of response dated November 8, 2010, Respondent stated that there was never any intent to file reports that were incorrect and or incomplete and that his reports were done to the best of this knowledge; Respondent stated he attempted to report all campaign items as instructed. Respondent also stated “[t]his is a complete fabrication...” and “...has no merit.”

17. Respondent stated Ms. Faiella entered the race very late (she qualified on May 19, the election was November 2, 2010), and that a lot happened very quickly. Respondent stated due to an emergency he was required to go out of town and that while he was away, Ms. Faiella publically announced her candidacy. Respondent stated that upon his return he was given the Handbook and no other real guidance.

18. Respondent admitted that “there are several items that were handled incorrectly,” and that Complainant “fancies herself as a community watchdog, but this is merely a witch hunt.” To review Respondent’s letter of response, refer to Exhibit 9.

19. On page 29 of the July 2010 Candidate and Campaign Treasurer’s handbook, Respondent was instructed to pay all campaign expenditures by a check drawn on the campaign account.

20. On page 30, Respondent was instructed to reimburse the candidate or other individual for expenses incurred in connection with the campaign by a check drawn on the campaign account, and to report the full name and address of each person to whom the candidate or other individual made payment for which reimbursement was made together with a clear purpose of such payment.

21. On page 47, Respondent was instructed that each report shall contain the total sums of all loans, in-kind contributions, and other receipts; each total shall be reported separately. However, the handbook is silent regarding “year-to-date” summary totals.

III. Alleged Violation of Section 106.09(1), Florida Statutes:

22. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by accepting a contribution in cash or by a cashier’s check in excess of $50.

23. Complainant alleges that Respondent accepted cash contributions in excess of the legal limit from a number of contributors.

24. In a telephone interview on August 26, 2010, in a separate matter, Respondent admitted that he first realized he had accepted excessive cash contributions when he prepared Ms. Faiella’s 2010 F1 report. Respondent stated that he had confused the $50-cash limit with the $500-limit. Respondent stated that he immediately notified Ms. Faiella of the excessive cash contributions, and refunds were made and replacement checks were issued.

25. In his letter of response, Respondent admitted that “excess cash contributions were accepted and deposited into the campaign account.” Respondent stated that refunds were issued to the contributors; Respondent stated that replacement check contributions were made and accepted. To review Respondent’s letter of response, refer to Exhibit 9.

26. In his questionnaire, Respondent admitted that he understands the cash limit is $50 per person, per election. Respondent stated that he and Ms. Faiella met each contributor at the bank to refund them for their excessive cash contributions.

27. Respondent stated the refunds were made in cash because it was believed to be the proper way to handle this situation. Respondent stated he now knows this is incorrect and that future refunds would not be handled this way.

28. In his questionnaire, Respondent stated that the raffle event was hastily organized and not properly documented. Respondent also stated he now knows the campaign cannot hold a raffle event and that the proceeds are to be treated as “anonymous” contributions and donated to charity at the end of the campaign (raffles are allowed; however, there are reporting requirements that must be met). To review Respondent’s questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 8.

29. In a questionnaire dated September 16, 2010, in a separate matter, the filing officer stated that on August 26, 2010, Respondent queried where he could find information pertaining to raffles. The filing officer stated she referred Respondent to the handbook, and to the Division of Elections for direction. To review the filing officer’s questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 10.

30. Table 2 shows the excessive cash contributions accepted by Respondent, as alleged by Complainant.

TABLE 2: EXCESSIVE CASH CONTRIBUTIONS ACCEPTED BY RESPONDENT
Date Accepted	Contributor	Contribution Type	Amount

TOTAL			$1,898.00

Unknown Contributors/Raffle Donations

31. On or about May 31, 2010, Ms. Faiella’s campaign held a fundraiser event and they conducted a raffle. The campaign collected raffle donations totaling $198.00. However, the full names and addresses of each raffle participant were not recorded, resulting in anonymous donations. Respondent disclosed the raffle donations in Ms. Faiella’s 2010 F1 Original report. To review the applicable page of Ms. Faiella’s F1 report, refer to page 5 of Exhibit 2.

32. On December 23, 2010, Respondent donated $198.00 to the Treasure Fest in order to dispose of the raffle donations. Respondent disclosed this expenditure in Ms. Faiella’s termination report that was filed with the filing officer on January 28, 2011. To review the payment to Treasure Fest, refer to Exhibit 11. To review the applicable page from Ms. Faiella’s termination report, refer to Exhibit 12.

33. In a telephone interview in a separate matter, Ms. Faiella stated future raffles would not be handled this way and that the full names and addresses of each participant would be recorded in order to comply with the law.

Lana's Nails

34. In a questionnaire dated September 9, 2010, Thuang Nguyen, representative of Lana's Nails, affirmed that on June 7, 2010, she made a $100 cash contribution to Ms. Faiella's campaign. Ms. Nguyen affirmed that on July 23, 2010, Ms. Faiella and Respondent refunded her $100 because of rules requiring that amount to be by check, not cash; Respondent disclosed her refund on July 23, 2010.

35. Ms. Nguyen admitted that on July 23, 2010, she issued a replacement check in the amount of $100. Respondent properly disclosed Ms. Nguyen's replacement contribution as one from her individually, instead of Lana's Nails. Lana's Nails is a fictitious name owned by Tony C. Phan; Ms. Nguyen is not listed as an officer. To review Ms. Nguyen's questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 13. To review Ms. Nguyen's replacement check, refer to Exhibit 14. To review the applicable page from Ms. Faiella's 2010 F2 report, refer to page 4 of Exhibit 3.

Jack McCuen

36. In a questionnaire dated September 9, 2010, Jack McCuen, affirmed that on June 11, 2010, he made a $500 cash contribution to Ms. Faiella's campaign, and that on July 23, 2010, Ms. Faiella and Respondent refunded him $500 for his excessive cash contribution. Respondent disclosed Mr. McCuen's refund on July 23, 2010.

37. Mr. McCuen denied making any additional contributions after his refund; however, bank records show a $500 check from Mr. McCuen dated July 23, 2010.<sup>1</sup> Respondent disclosed Mr. McCuen's replacement contribution on July 23, 2010. The signature on the replacement check appears to be the same as the one on Mr. McCuen's questionnaire. To review Mr. McCuen's questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 15. To review Mrs. McCuen's replacement check, refer to Exhibit 16. To review the applicable pages from Ms. Faiella's 2010 F2 report, refer to page 4 of Exhibit 3.

Jennifer Newman

38. In a questionnaire dated September 7, 2010, Jennifer Newman, affirmed that on June 25, 2010, she made a $100 cash contribution to Ms. Faiella's campaign. Ms. Newman affirmed that on July 23, 2010, Ms. Faiella and Respondent refunded her $100 for her excessive cash contribution. Respondent disclosed Ms. Newman's refund on July 23, 2010.

39. Ms. Newman admitted that on July 23, 2010, she issued a replacement check in the amount of $100. Respondent disclosed Ms. Newman's replacement contribution on July 23, 2010. To review Ms. Newman's questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 17. To review Ms. Newman's replacement check, refer to Exhibit 18. To review the applicable page from Ms. Faiella's 2010 F2 report, refer to page 4 of Exhibit 3.

Anthony Burns

40. In a questionnaire dated September 15, 2010, Anthony Burns, affirmed that on July 8, 2010, he made a $500 cash contribution to Ms. Faiella's campaign. Mr. Burns affirmed that on July 23, 2010, Ms. Faiella and Respondent refunded him $500 for his excessive cash contribution because it should have been by check; Respondent disclosed his refund on July 23, 2010.

<sup>1</sup> Bank records also show two additional checks totaling $70 drawn on the same joint checking account as the $500 check. The signatures on all three checks appear to be the same as the signature on Mr. McCuen's questionnaire.

41. Mr. Burns admitted that on July 23, 2010, he issued a replacement check in the amount of $500; Respondent disclosed Mr. Burns's replacement contribution on July 23, 2010. To review Mr. Burns's questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 19. To review Mr. Burns's replacement check, refer to Exhibit 20. To review the applicable pages from Ms. Faiella's 2010 F2 report, refer to page 4 of Exhibit 3.

Shirlee Stradley

42. In a questionnaire dated September 7, 2010, Shirlee Stradley, affirmed that on July 8, 2010, she made a $500 cash contribution to Ms. Faiella's campaign. Ms. Stradley affirmed that on August 19, 2010, Ms. Faiella and Respondent refunded her $500 for her excessive cash contribution due to a misunderstanding of the rule; however, Respondent disclosed Ms. Stradley's refund as a duplicate refund to Jack McCuen in error. To review the applicable page from Ms. Faiella's 2010 F3 report, refer to Exhibit 4.

43. Ms. Stradley admitted that on August 19, 2010, she issued a replacement check in the amount of $500; Respondent disclosed Ms. Stradley's replacement contribution on August 19, 2010, as one from Jack McCuen instead. To review Ms. Stradley's questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 21. To review Ms. Stradley's replacement check, refer to Exhibit 22. To review the applicable page from Ms. Faiella's 2010 F3 report, refer to page 13 of Exhibit 4.

44. No other record of Respondent having previously violated this section of the election laws was found.

45. On page 25 of the handbook, Respondent was instructed that a person may not make or accept a contribution from an individual in cash or by means of a cashier's check in excess of $50 per election.

46. On page 43, Respondent was instructed that all monies received in connection with a fundraiser event are campaign contributions subject to the contribution limits and are to be accounted for and reported as any other contribution.

IV. Alleged Violation of Section 106.19(1)(a), Florida Statutes:

47. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by accepting a contribution in excess of the legal limit.

48. Complainant alleges that Respondent accepted an excessive contribution totaling $1,000 from Shirlee Stradley prior to the primary election held on August 24, 2010.

49. According to Respondent's 2010 F1 and F3 reports, the campaign bank records, and his own admission, Respondent received and accepted $500 in cash and a check for $500 from Ms. Stradley prior to the primary election.

50. However, Ms. Stradley's $500 check contribution was a replacement contribution, not an excessive contribution. For more information pertaining to Ms. Stradley's two contributions, refer to paragraphs 42 and 43 of this report of investigation.

51. Complainant is also concerned that Respondent might have accepted excessive campaign loans from a bank on behalf of the JoAnn Faiella campaign.

52. However, for more information pertaining to the credit card transactions resulting in in-kind loans from Ms. Faiella, please refer to paragraphs 7 through 10 of this report of investigation.

53. No other record of Respondent having previously violated this section of the election laws was found.

V. Alleged Violation of Section 106.19(1)(c), Florida Statutes:

54. I investigated whether Respondent violated this section of the election laws by falsely reporting or deliberately failing to report information required by Chapter 106, Florida Statutes.

55. Complainant alleges that Respondent certified that his campaign treasurer reports were true, correct and complete, when they were not.

56. For more information pertaining to the errors Respondent made in his reports, refer to paragraphs 7 through 13 of this report of investigation.

57. Complainant also alleges that supporters, and members, of JoAnn Faiella's election campaign were campaigning within 100 feet of the entrance to polling areas during the early-voting period for the primary elections held on August 24, 2010.

58. However, this allegation of potential violations of Section 102.031(4)(a), Florida Statutes, is not within the jurisdiction of the Florida Elections Commission; therefore, this issue was deemed legally insufficient.

59. Complainant alleges that Respondent made several unauthorized expenditures when he spent campaign funds to repay what appear to be a number of in-kind loans from the candidate, prior to the campaign termination period.

60. According to the campaign reports, Respondent made expenditures of $200.00; $5,815.64; and $1,564.61 on July 1st, August 2nd, and August 25th, respectively, to repay campaign obligations for the many in-kind loans from the candidate.

61. A loan is an obligation; a contribution is a donation or gift. A campaign obligation can be repaid anytime during the campaign, as opposed to contributions which can be returned pro-rata to all contributors during the campaign termination period.

62. However, during this period, a candidate may be reimbursed, in full or in part, for all contributions made to the campaign; therefore, this issue was deemed legally insufficient.

63. No other record of Respondent having previously violated this section of the election laws was found.

VI. FEC History:

64. There is no record of any other complaints filed against Respondent, and there is no record of Respondent having filed any complaints before the Commission.

65. There is no record of any complaints filed against Complainant; however, Complainant has filed three complaints before the Commission, including this one.

Conclusion:

66. In a final interview, Respondent stated that he has no questions at this time.

67. According to the filing officer, Ms. Faiella was provided a copy of the January 2010 edition of the Candidate and Campaign Treasurer's handbook on April 14, 2010. The filing officer did not provide a copy of the handbook to Respondent. To review the filing officer's questionnaire, in a separate matter, refer to Exhibit 10.

68. However, in his questionnaire in a separate matter, Respondent admitted that he received and read a copy of the January 2010 edition to the Candidate's and Campaign Treasurer's handbook. In his letter of response, Respondent denied receiving any other guidance. To review Respondent's questionnaire, refer to Exhibit 8. To review Respondent's letter of response, refer to Exhibit 9.

Respectfully submitted on May 26, 2011.

RE: Case No.: FEC 10-274

RECEIVED

10 NOV -8 AM 10:07

Dear Ms. Malphurs,

I received the notice that a complaint has been filed against me for campaign violations. Some of these allegations are a duplicate to a previous complaint that you are also investigating. There is no denial that excess cash contributions were accepted and deposited into the campaign account, but these items were refund to the contributors and checks to the campaign were issued by the contributors. Since this has been previously discussed with you, I do not want to waste any more of your time by rehashing the issues, but am more than willing to provide any information or discussion as you see fit. The allegation that has me concerned is the first two allegations stated in the correspondence I received. I would like to state that at no time was there ever any intent to file reports that were not complete nor truthful. This is a complete fabrication on behalf of Ms. Huggins and this has no merit. The reports that I filed were done to the best of my knowledge. Mrs. Faiella entered the mayoral race very late and a lot happened very quickly. There was also an emergency in my household which forced me go out of town quite unexpectedly. The day that Mrs. Faiella publicly announced her candidacy I was out of town. Upon my return I was given the Handbook and no other real guidance. I was told that all campaign items needed to be reported and that is exactly what I attempted to do. Unfortunately in doing so there are several items that were handled incorrectly. It was not until our recent phone conversation did I get a true idea of how I should have reported some items. I attempted on more than one occasion to get guidance from the Division of Elections but per our phone conversation I learned that some of the information I received from the representatives of the DOE was incorrect.

The reasons for these allegations, are in my opinion, purely political. Ms. Huggins has aligned herself with Mrs. Faiella's opponent after Ms. Huggins was beaten in the primary election. Ms. Huggins fancies herself as a community watchdog but this is merely a witch hunt.

I appreciate all your input and I will fully cooperate with any investigation that is deemed necessary.

Thank you,

Steve Adkins

Possible Violations of FSS 104?

- 1) 8/9/2010 – 10am – Frank Borges, campaign manager for Joann Faiella, candidate for Mayor, enters the Community Center early polling station with campaign shirt on. Within 100 feet of the front door, the “no electioneering beyond this point” zone, Mr. Borges begins addressing citizens entering the poll, greeting voters, opening the door for them and reminds them to “Vote Faiella.”
- 2) 8/9/2010 – 11:30am. Joann Faiella, candidate for Mayor, is standing directly outside the poll door at the Morningside Library early polling station. She is greeting voters as they enter they poll. She is within the 100 foot mark of the front, the “no electioneering beyond this point” zone. Ms. Faiella then begins escorting voters from their personal vehicles to the polls and enters the poll with the voters. This was also witnessed by Shirley Copenhaver, candidate for Mayor, as well as other poll sitters. Reported to Gertrude Walker, Supervisor of Elections, St. Lucie County.
- 3) 8/11/2010 – 9am. Sheriff Deputy assigned to the poll begins asking where Ms. Faiella is because a vehicle prominently marked with her campaign paraphernalia is parked within the 100 foot “no electioneering beyond this point” zone. Deputy calls to have the car towed from the zone after the polls have been opened 4 hours.
- 4) From August 9 through August 21, campaign workers for Ms. Faiella enter the early voting polling station at the Morningside Library several times each day “to use the bathroom” when a restroom was readily available in the main library, wearing “Faiella” paraphernalia. The poll sitters were not within the early polling station to vote.
- 5) Beginning on Monday, August 9 and continuing for several days, poll sitters for Ms. Faiella were witnessed as “yelling across and inside of the polling stations” which candidate to vote for. This has been documented by a poll worker and reported to Gertrude Walker, Supervisor of Elections, St. Lucie County.

From: "Victoria Huggins" <vjhuggins@yahoo.com>To: "Alfreda Souter" <ASouter@slcelections.com>

Dear Ms. Souter:

In past elections, candidates were not allowed to wear their campaign shirts, ablazened with their logo, into the voting polls unless the covered them up and nothing was allowed past the 100 foot limitation. Has that changed?

This morning at both the Community Center in Port St. Lucie and at the Morningside Library one particular candidates camp was going into the Community Center. At the Morningside Library early voting setting, this candidate was actually walking people in from the parking lot, straight into the polls and then staying in the poll itself or outside of the front door talking on her cell phone, greeting people as they approached the front door.

If the rules have changed, please inform all of the other candidates. If they have not changed, I would expect a call to the early voting centers to inform them that candidates and their campaign staff should not be within a certain distance from the front door, and certainly they are not to wear or handout campaign literature within that 100 foot boundary.

YES - I have more than several witnesses of these violations.

Victoria Huggins

From: "Gertrude Walker" <Gertrude@slcelections.com>To: vjhuggins@yahoo.com

Dear Victoria:

There is no prohibition against candidates wearing campaign tee shirts and other logos in the precinct to cast their vote and leave. They must go outside the 100 foot and stay outside the 100 foot after voting. They are now allowed to enter in Early Voting sites or a polling place unless they are there to cast their vote. I did contact all the Early Voting locations and cautioned them about what you observed.

Thank you so very much for giving me a heads up on this situation.

FLORIDA ELECTIONS COMMISSION

REVIEW OF COMPLAINT FOR LEGAL SUFFICIENCY

~ PRELIMINARY INFORMATION ~

Date Received: 10/01/10	Reviewer: David	Case #: FEC 10-274	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> ORIGINAL <input type="checkbox"/> AMENDED
-------------------------	-----------------	--------------------	--

Complainant: Victoria Huggins	Respondent: Stephen Adkins
--------------------------------------	-----------------------------------

Complainant:	Complainant is a resident of the [REDACTED], Florida, and is known by some to be a community "watchdog." Complainant was also a candidate for the office of Mayor for the City of Port Saint Lucie; she and seven other candidates were defeated in the August 24, 2010 election. Complainant appears to be looking for good government wherever she can find it. In that search, Complainant found candidate Christopher Cooper.
Respondent:	Respondent is the campaign treasurer for the Joann Faiella 2010 election campaign. Ms. Faiella is a candidate for the office of Mayor for the [REDACTED]. She finished second in a field of 10 candidates in the August 24, 2010 election. Therefore, she will face Christopher Cooper in the November 2, 2010 run-off election.
Background:

~ VIOLATIONS ~

Violations in complaint:	Complainant cited Chapters 104 and 106
Reviewer's violations:	§102.031(4)(a); §106.07(5), 2 of 2; §106.09(1); §106.141(2); §106.19(1)(a); §106.19(1)(c); §106.19(1)(d)
Violations for CMS:	§106.07(5), 2 of 2; §106.09(1); §106.19(1)(a); and §106.19(1)(c)

~ COMPLAINT ISSUES ~

1.	Complainant alleges that supporters, and members, of the Joann Faiella election campaign were campaigning within 100 feet of the entrance to polling areas during the early-voting period for the August 24, 2010 election.
2.	Complainant alleges that Respondent certified that his campaign treasurer reports were true, correct and complete, when they were not.
3.	Complainant alleges that Respondent accepted cash contributions in excess of the $50-limit from a number of contributors.
4.	Complainant alleges that Respondent accepted excessive contributions totaling $1000.00 from Shirley Stradley prior to the August 24, 2010 election. Complainant is also concerned that Respondent might have accepted excessive campaign loans from a bank on behalf of the Joann Faiella election campaign.
5.	Complainant alleges that Respondent made several unauthorized expenditures when he spent campaign funds to repay what appear to be a number of in-kind loans from the candidate, prior to the campaign-termination period.

~~~ REVIEW OF COMPLAINT ISSUES ~~~

1. This allegation of potential violations of Section 102.031(4)(a), Florida Statutes, is not within the jurisdiction of the Florida Elections Commission. [Legally insufficient]

2. Complainant appears to be correct, for the most part. Here, I will provide a brief list of Respondent's reporting difficulties for the reporting periods noted in the complaint, which are legally sufficient issues.

2010 F1 Report

- There appears to be an error on the summary page, in the figure disclosed as the "total monetary contributions to date," as a result of Respondent combining the value of in-kind contributions with monetary contributions.
- Respondent disclosed seven loans from "JP Morgan Chase Bank" ranging in values from $20.00 to $3302.16; loans from a bank to the Joann Faiella election campaign, didn't happen. As a rule, banks don't lend money to political campaigns—unincorporated associations of short duration—for good reason. And banks certainly don't make the number of loans disclosed in the campaign treasurer report, to the same borrower, for the various amounts disclosed. Based upon my experience, as well as an admission by the candidate during a telephone call she initiated, it appears that Ms. Faiella used her personal credit card to pay for various things as in-kind loans from herself to her election campaign. Therefore, as Complainant had feared, it appears that we have a number of examples of incorrect reporting here.

2010 F2 Report

- It appears that we have another example of incorrect reporting of an in-kind loan, with a value of $1,617.05 from the candidate on July 21, 2010, disclosed as having been a monetary loan received from a bank. Again, as a general rule, banks don't lend money to political campaigns.

2010 F3 Report

- It appears that there may be a number of math errors represented by the figures for various totals disclosed on the summary page of this treasurer report. Same comments apply to the report amendment.
- Respondent disclosed eight in-kind loans from the candidate as monetary loans from "JP Morgan Chase Bank," in apparent error. Please refer to my comments above for the F1 report.
- It appears that Respondent disclosed, in error, an expenditure which had been made to Jack McCuen during the F2 reporting period for the refund of an excessive cash contribution.

2010 G1 Report

- It appears that there may be a number of math errors represented by the figures for various totals disclosed on the summary page of this treasurer report.

STATE OF FLORIDA
ELECTIONS COMMISSION

Dear Sir/Madame:

I am bringing this complaint forward, not only as a former candidate for Mayor, but as a private citizen. I ran unsuccessfully for Mayor and was defeated in the Primary.

During the Primary, violations by Ms. Faiella were noted as to what I believe was in violation of FSS 104. I informed the Supervisor of Elections office in St. Lucie County and was informed that candidates and the staff on their campaign could not enter the polling place unless they were voting. Unfortunately, that was not the case.

Also of question is whether a report of various LOANS from JPMorgan Chase is actually owned individually by Ms. Faiella or some other individual. She lists JPMorgan Chase as a Business whose occupation is Finance and the contribution type as a LOAN. If JPMorgan Chase is truly a "business" Ms. Faiella has exceeded the contribution limits from any one individual or business within an election cycle.

If these "loans" were made by Ms. Faiella, I believe that her name should have appeared on the Campaign Contributions Report and not the name of the company she borrowed from. Is it truly a loan from herself to herself? And is Ms. Faiella allowed to repay JPMorgan Chase, since it appears as a "business loan" before the campaign has ended?

Ms. Faiella is moving toward the General Election in November and I do not believe that a candidate who has made such grievous errors should be allowed to continue their campaign.

In all respect, Ms. Faiella has signed and verified that each of the reporting periods are "true, correct, and complete." That was not the case and this is a violation of the FEC Campaign Contributions statutes.

Sincerely,

Victoria J. Huggins

Possible Violations of FSS 104?

- 1) 8/9/2010 – 10am – Frank Borges, campaign manager for Joann Faiella, candidate for Mayor, enters the Community Center early polling station with campaign shirt on. Within 100 feet of the front door, the “no electioneering beyond this point” zone, Mr. Borges begins addressing citizens entering the poll, greeting voters, opening the door for them and reminds them to “Vote Faiella.”
- 2) 8/9/2010 – 11:30am. Joann Faiella, candidate for Mayor, is standing directly outside the poll door at the Morningside Library early polling station. She is greeting voters as they enter they poll. She is within the 100 foot mark of the front, the “no electioneering beyond this point” zone. Ms. Faiella then begins escorting voters from their personal vehicles to the polls and enters the poll with the voters. This was also witnessed by Shirley Copenhaver, candidate for Mayor, as well as other poll sitters. Reported to Gertrude Walker, Supervisor of Elections, St. Lucie County.
- 3) 8/11/2010 – 9am. Sheriff Deputy assigned to the poll begins asking where Ms. Faiella is because a vehicle prominently marked with her campaign paraphernalia is parked within the 100 foot “no electioneering beyond this point” zone. Deputy calls to have the car towed from the zone after the polls have been opened 4 hours.
- 4) From August 9 through August 21, campaign workers for Ms. Faiella enter the early voting polling station at the Morningside Library several times each day “to use the bathroom” when a restroom was readily available in the main library, wearing “Faiella” paraphernalia. The poll sitters were not within the early polling station to vote.
- 5) Beginning on Monday, August 9 and continuing for several days, poll sitters for Ms. Faiella were witnessed as “yelling across and inside of the polling stations” which candidate to vote for. This has been documented by a poll worker and reported to Gertrude Walker, Supervisor of Elections, St. Lucie County.

Nothing here, see our office Section 102.03(4)(a)

And no mention of how respondent, the campaign treasurer for the Joan Faiella campaign, is involved in the alleged 102.03(4)(a) violations.

Poll Violations?

From: "Victoria Huggins" <vjhuggins@yahoo.com>
To: "Alfreda Souter" <ASouter@slelections.com>

Dear Ms. Souter:

In past elections, candidates were not allowed to wear their campaign shirts, ablazened with their logo, into the voting polls unless the covered them up and nothing was allowed past the 100 foot limitation. Has that changed?

This morning at both the Community Center in Port St. Lucie and at the Morningside Library one particular candidates camp was going into the Community Center. At the Morningside Library early voting setting, this candidate was actually walking people in from the parking lot, straight into the polls and then staying in the poll itself or outside of the front door talking on her cell phone, greeting people as they approached the front door.

If the rules have changed, please inform all of the other candidates. If they have not changed, I would expect a call to the early voting centers to inform them that candidates and their campaign staff should not be within a certain distance from the front door, and certainly they are not to wear or handout campaign literature within that 100 foot boundary.

YES - I have more than several witnesses of these violations.

Sincerely,

Victoria Huggins

From: "Gertrude Walker" <Gertrude@slections.com>
To: vjhuggins@yahoo.com

Dear Victoria:

There is no prohibition against candidates wearing campaign tee shirts and other logos in the precinct to cast their vote and leave. They must go outside the 100 foot and stay outside the 100 foot after voting. They are now allowed to enter in Early Voting sites or a polling place unless they are there to cast their vote. I did contact all the Early Voting locations and cautioned them about what you observed.

Thank you so very much for giving me a heads up on this situation.

CAMPAIGN TREASURER'S REPORT
4/01/2010 - 7/16/10 F1 Original

Campaign Treasurer's Report Summary:

- 1) Certified that the report was true, correct and complete
- 2) Reported within the Total Monetary Contributions In-kind donations - overreported by $1,495.18

Contributions:

RESPONDENT made an error by adding the figure for his in-kind contribution total value for this report ($1,495.18) to his total monetary contribution figure (13,180.87) to arrive at $14,676.05 for his total monetary contributions to date figure which is incorrect. An amendment could be directed by the P.O.

- 3) Certified that the report was true, correct and complete.
- 4) Reported within Total Monetary Contributions In-kind donations - overreported by $1,495.18
- 5) 5/31/10 - line 26 Raffle Funds, Donation of Cash in excess of the $50 limitation. CTR reports $198.00
- 6) 6/7/10 - line 32 Lana's Nails, cash donation in excess of $50 limitation; refunded amount in F2 report, but not as amendment to report F1.
- 7) 6/11/10 - line 36 McCuen, Jack, cash donation in excess of $50 limitation; refunded amount in F2 report, but not as amendment to report F1.
- 8) 6/25/10 - line 73 Newman, Jennifer, cash donation in excess of $50 limitation; refunded amount in F2 report, but not as amendment to report F1.

- 16) 7/1/10 - line 102 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $20.00 loan
- 17) 7/8/10 - line 103 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $70.00 loan

10/09/10

Incorrect reporting of in-kind loans from the candidate. Candidate used her credit card to cover insufficient funds, but C doesn't raise issue.

10/07/05
10/19/05

Expenditures:

- 18) 7/1/10 - line 12 JPMorgan Chase, LOAN REPAYMENT $200.00

While a loan is a "contribution," it is a different kind of contribution. A contribution is a donation or gift; a loan is an obligation. In our current complaint, there appears to be a series of obligations owed by the campaign to the candidate. Therefore, I do not believe that section 104.141(2), Florida statute, prevents the repayment of loans by the candidate during the campaign, as opposed to having to wait until the campaign-termination period. (The above insufficient)

Expenditures:

- 20) 7/23/10 - line 2 Lana's Nails, REFUNDS CASH DONATION but fails to amend report F1

 22) 7/23/10 - line 4 Burns, Anthony, REFUNDS CASH DONATION but fails to amend report F1
 23) 7/23/10 - line 5 Newman, Jennifer, REFUNDS CASH DONATION but fails to amend report F1

Nothing here.

→ It appears that Respondent got this right; in this case, Complainant does not appear to understand. You don't amend a treasurer report to somehow change reality. This is what Complainant appears to expect Respondent to do, but she doesn't see the problem.

It appears the facts are that Respondent received and accepted too much cash from a number of contributors. And it also appears that it was from four to six weeks before Respondent returned some of the excessive contributions to contributors; "expenditures." Expenditures are reported when they are made, in the report which covers the dates of these expenditures. It appears that Respondent has done this.

CAMPAIGN TREASURER'S REPORT 7/31/10 - 8/19/10 F3 Original

Campaign Treasurer's Report Summary:

- 24) Certified that the report was true, correct and complete
- 25) Total Monetary Contributions To Date is underreported by $461.34. Actual Total Monetary Contributions To Date should be: $29,086.81.
- 26) Total Monetary Expenditures To Date is overreported by $19.75. Actual Total Monetary Expenditures To Date should be $23,781.63.

possible errors in math - such errors can be amended.

Contributions:

- 27) 8/18/10 - line 66 Stradley, Shirley, reports check contribution of $500.00; on 7/8/10 campaign contributions show Ms. Stradley donating CASH in excess of the $50 limitation; with the acceptance of this check, Ms. Faiella accepted contributions beyond the $500.00 limitation within any one election cycle.
- 28) 8/2/10 - Line 69 JPMorgan Chase, lists as INDIVIDUAL, FINANCE $22.05 loan.
- 29) 8/6/10 - Line 70 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $1429.70 loan.
- 30) 8/6/10 - Line 71 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $72.94 loan.
- 31) 8/6/10 - Line 73 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $15.98 loan.
- 32) 8/8/10 - Line 73 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $84.99 loan.
- 33) 8/15/10 - Line 74 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $310.58 loan.
- 34) 8/16/10 - Line 75 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $82.65 loan.
- 35) 8/18/10 - Line 76 JPMorgan Chase, lists as BUSINESS, FINANCE $35.00 loan.

*10/19/10 (10a)
I'm guessing the 2010 F2 rpt failed to include exp. of $500 to Stradley to return cash out. more reporting problems?*

Based upon the 2010 F1 rpt, $500 in cash; no evidence of refund. Then 2010 F3 rpt shows another $500 by ck.

Appears to be more incorrect reporting of in-kind loans from the candidate. Candidate used credit card to spend money the campaign didn't have, but C does not raise this issue.

Expenditures:

- 36) 8/2/10 - Line 1 JPMorgan Chase, LOAN REPAYMENT of $5,815.64
- 37) 8/19/10 - Line 11 McCuen, Jack, REFUND IN EXCESS OF CASH CONTRIBUTION of $500.00. (Already refunded in report F2 but not amended)
- 38) 8/8/10 - Line 14 JPMorgan Chase, FINANCE CHARGES for loan $84.99

apparent incorrect reporting... 10/19/10 (10e)

Complaint fails to assert her allegation; nothing on complaint cover page.

1. Date and time: October 12, 2010 @ 12:48 p.m.

Name: Respondent

Phone #:

Summary: Respondent telephoned and advised me that he had received our letter advising him of Ms. Huggins' complaint. Respondent asked whether he could file amendments to the various treasurer reports before our investigation is complete. I told Respondent that he could but to be sure to file the amendments with the county supervisor of elections' office, the candidate's filing officer. I explained that many times during investigations Respondent's will become confused and submit such report amendments to our office, thinking that they're "filing" their amendments, all the while the filing officer never sees the amendments. I admonished Respondent to not follow that practice and file all treasurer reports with the local county supervisor of elections. Respondent said he understood.

Respondent advised me that after he received our letter advising him of a complaint that he may have made errors with his reporting, he sought and received direction from the Division of Elections pertaining to the proper way to report the many expenditures the candidate had made with her personal credit card.

RE: DE 03-05 (Corrected Version)
Rescinding a Portion of DE 97-06 Relating to Reimbursements to Candidates from Campaign Funds; and Rescinding DE 98-16 Relating to Testimonials
§106.011(1), §106.021(3), §106.07(4), §111.012, Florida
Statutes

Dear Ms. Irvine:

This is in response to your request that the Division of Elections consider rescinding a portion of DE 97-06 as it relates to reimbursements to candidates from campaign accounts in light of recent legislative changes to the pertinent statutory sections. You are Chair of the Florida Elections Commission and pursuant to section 106.23(2), Florida Statutes, the Division of Elections has the authority to issue an opinion to you.

As you note in your letter, DE 97-06 in pertinent part states:

Except for petty cash expenditures allowed under section 106.12, Florida Statutes (1995), the only way that a candidate may make a campaign expenditure is by means of a bank check drawn on the primary campaign depository, pursuant to section 106.11(1), Florida Statutes (1995). Having said this, we recognize the applicability of section 106.07(4)(a)7, Florida Statutes (1995), which requires that candidates report any reimbursements of authorized expenses from their campaign accounts to themselves.

We believe the purpose of this provision is to cover rare occurrences where the campaign must make an expenditure, but the campaign check book is not available. Such a situation could occur when a bill must be paid and the campaign has not received its first order of checks from the bank, or where, during the course of campaign travel, tolls or other miscellaneous expenses must be paid in cash and the candidate has failed to take money out of his petty cash fund for such purposes. [Emphasis added]

As you also note in your letter, in 2002 the Florida Legislature amended section 106.021(3), Florida Statutes, to read as follows:

(3) Except for independent expenditures, no contribution or expenditure, including contributions or expenditures of a candidate or of the candidate's family, shall be directly or indirectly made or received in furtherance of the candidacy of any person for nomination or election to political office in the state or on behalf of any political committee except through the duly appointed campaign treasurer of the candidate or political committee; however, a candidate or any other individual may be reimbursed for expenses incurred for travel, food and beverage, office supplies, and mementos expressing gratitude to campaign supporters by a check drawn upon the campaign account and reported pursuant to s. 106.07(4). In addition, expenditures may be made directly by any political committee or political party regulated by chapter 103 for obtaining time, space, or services in or by any communications medium for the purpose of jointly endorsing three or more candidates, and any such expenditure shall not be considered a contribution or expenditure to or on behalf of any such candidates for the purposes of this chapter. [Emphasis added]

The 2002 Florida Legislature also amended subsection 106.07(4)(a)7, Florida Statutes, relating to the manner in which expenditures are to be reported to read as follows:

7. The full name and address of each person to whom an expenditure for personal services, salary, or reimbursement for authorized expenses as provided in s. 106.021(3) has been made and which is not otherwise reported, including the amount, date, and purpose of such expenditure. However, expenditures made from the petty cash fund provided for in s. 106.12 need not be reported individually. [Emphasis added]

As you state in your letter, prior to the 2002 legislative changes, the division's opinion in the above referenced portion of DE 97-06 was a reasonable interpretation of the then applicable statutory provisions with regard to when a candidate could use personal funds to pay campaign expenses and thereafter seek reimbursement of that expenditure from the campaign account.

However, section 106.021(3), Florida Statutes, now specifically delineates the circumstances under which a candidate or any other person may be reimbursed from the campaign account for expenses. Therefore, reimbursement is authorized only if the expense is incurred for travel, food and beverage, office supplies, or mementos expressing gratitude to campaign supporters. As a result, the above referenced portion of DE 97-06 is rescinded with regard to allowing reimbursements from the campaign account to candidates for campaign expenses paid from personal funds due to campaign account checkbook unavailability. Reimbursements can only be made from the campaign account for the categories of expenses specifically outlined in section 106.021(3).

Additionally, the Division of Elections rescinds DE 98-16 relating to testimonials. The Division of Elections' authority to issue opinions is limited to interpreting the provisions of the Florida Election Code. Pursuant to section 97.011, Florida Statutes, the Florida Election Code is comprised of Chapters 97 through 106 of the Florida Statutes. Section 111.012, Florida Statutes, relating to testimonials simply creates a purely ministerial role for the Division of Elections with regard to the receipt of filings. It does not confer any interpretive authority upon the division. Therefore, the Division of Elections is without authority to render opinions with regard to section 111.012, Florida Statutes, and as a result, DE 98-16 was issued in error and is hereby rescinded.

SUMMARY

DE 97-06 is rescinded with regard to allowing reimbursements to candidates for campaign expenses paid from personal funds just because the campaign checkbook is unavailable. Reimbursements from the campaign account can only be made for the categories of expenses specifically outlined in section 106.021(3), Florida Statutes.

Additionally, the Division of Elections is without authority to render opinions with regard to section 111.012, Florida Statutes, relating to testimonials and, as a result, DE 98-16 was issued in error and is hereby rescinded.

Sincerely,

Edward C. Kast
Director, Division of Elections

Rescinding DE 76-16, 78-2, 88-32, 90-16, and 94-7

TO: The Honorable Dee Brown, President, Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections, 402 South East Twenty Fifth Avenue, Ocala, Florida 34478-0289

Prepared by: Division of Elections

This is in response to your request for an advisory opinion regarding a number of Division opinions that may be out of date or need reexamination. The Division is authorized to provide advisory opinions pursuant to section 106.23(2), Florida Statutes, when requested by any supervisor of elections.

Several supervisors have expressed concern about the continuing applicability of DE 78-2, 88-32, 90-16, 90-33, 91-1, and 94-7. For the reasons that follow, the Division hereby rescinds DE 76-16, 78-2, 88-32, 90-16, and 94-7; however, DE 90-33 and 91-1 remain in effect. For purposes of discussion, we will address each opinion separately.

Three of the above opinions have been superseded by subsequent statutory amendments.

DE 76-16: This opinion concerned whether applications for absentee ballots were public records that must be made available for public inspection under Chapter 119, Florida Statutes. The Division opined in 76-16 that such applications were public records. Section 101.62(3), Florida Statutes (Supp. 1996), with a number of listed exceptions, now provides that such requests are confidential. Accordingly, DE 76-16 is rescinded.

DE 78-2: Former section 98.211, Florida Statutes (1977), limited the information that could be made available to the public to a voter's name, party affiliation, address, and precinct number. Section 98.095, Florida Statutes (1995), now provides that all information which is maintained in the registration books by a supervisor must be furnished upon request to those persons who are eligible to receive it. Thus, it is now irrelevant that the request for information is age specific, as was the case in DE 78-2. Accordingly, DE 78-2 is rescinded.

DE 88-32: The essence of this opinion was that an absentee ballot may be counted if it has been witnessed, even though the witnesses failed to provide their addresses, so long as there is no evidence of fraud. This opinion has been superseded by section 101.68(2)(c)1., Florida Statutes (Supp. 1996), which states, "[A]n absentee ballot shall be considered illegal if it does not include the signature of the elector, as shown by the registration records, and the signature and address of an attesting witness." (emphasis added.) Accordingly, DE 88-32 is rescinded.

DE 90-16: We held that, as a service to members of the media, a supervisor of elections may provide voter registration information over the telephone pursuant to section 98.095, Florida Statutes, given that it was the same information available to such media if they were to personally examine the records. In retrospect, we see no statutory basis for treating the media any differently from any other member of the public who does not fall within the category of persons listed in section 98.095(2), Florida Statutes. Accordingly, we hereby rescind DE 90-16.

DE 94-07: We held that candidates could make unlimited purchases by personal check as long as they intended for such expenditures to be reported as in-kind contributions. The opinion also stated that the "candidate cannot make such purchases as a campaign expenditure except by means of a campaign check... made through the candidate's campaign treasurer." This reasoning has resulted in some confusion as to when and under what circumstances a campaign expenditure or in-kind contribution occurs. Therefore, we rescind DE 94-07. Except for petty cash expenditures allowed under section 106.12, Florida Statutes (1995), the only way that a candidate may make a campaign expenditure is by means of a bank check drawn on the primary campaign depository, pursuant to section 106.11(1), Florida Statutes (1995). Having said this, we recognize the applicability of section 106.07(4)(a)7., Florida Statutes (1995), which requires that candidates report any reimbursements of authorized expenses from their campaign accounts to themselves.

We believe the purpose of this provision is to cover rare occurrences where the campaign must make an expenditure, but the campaign check book is not available. Such a situation could occur when a bill must be paid and the campaign has not received its first order of checks from the bank, or where, during the course of campaign travel, tolls or other miscellaneous expenses must be paid in cash and the candidate has failed to take money out of his petty cash fund for such purposes. Likewise, while candidates may make purchases with personal funds and report them as in-kind contributions, we do not believe that a candidate may make continuous, unlimited expenditures from his personal funds, donate the items to the campaign, and then report them as in-kind contributions from the candidate, if it is his intent to avoid disclosing his expenditures. To do so frustrates the purpose of the campaign finance law which is the full disclosure of campaign expenditures. Accordingly, DE 94-07 is rescinded and superseded by this opinion.

Regarding DE 90-33 and 91-1, these opinions remain valid and binding until amended or revoked by the Division. Smith v. Crawford, 645 So. 2d 513 (Fla. 1st DCA 1994). As we opined in DE 90-33, we continue to believe that the city clerk is capable of examining the record and making a factual determination as to whether an elected city official has served one-fourth of his term. With regard to DE 91-1, we note that the Division has recently amended its petition form to include a check-off box to indicate whether the person signing the petition wishes to change his address.

Summary: Respondent telephoned and advised me that he had received our letter advising him of Ms. Huggins' complaint. Respondent asked whether he could file amendments to the various treasurer reports before our investigation is complete. I told Respondent that he could but to be sure to file the amendments with the county supervisor of elections' office, the candidate's filing officer. I explained that many times during investigations Respondent's will become confused and submit such report amendments to our office, thinking that they're "filing" their amendments, all the while the filing officer never sees the amendments. I admonished Respondent to not follow that practice and file all treasurer reports with the local county supervisor of elections. Respondent said he understood.

Respondent advised me that after he received our letter advising him of a complaint that he may have made errors with his reporting, he sought and received direction from the Division of Elections pertaining to the proper way to report the many expenditures the candidate had made with her personal credit card.

Summary: R called me to discuss the entries for Ms. Faiella's loans and expenditures reported during the F1 report. R asked if he is correct to reimburse R for the credit card expenditures that were previously reported as "loans" from R as well as expenditures to the various vendors.

I reminded R that the only changes to the report that he would want to make are those that make the report accurate. I informed him that if the information is reported accurately but prohibited that there is nothing he can do to the report; I suggested he provide a written explanation to the filing officer if necessary.

I suggested R review the F1report to see if the post office box rental was accurately reported since the date was listed prior to the date R became a candidate [Ms. Faiella became a candidate on 05/14/10 but the rental date is listed as 04/16/10].

I asked him to verify the date the post office box rental was paid; he confirmed it was paid on 04/16/10. I asked R what payment method was used to pay for the post office box rental; he stated Ms. Faiella used cash to pay for this expenditure. I asked him if the post office box rental was strictly for the campaign or for Ms. Faiella's personal use and loaned to the campaign; he confirmed it was strictly used for the campaign.

I reminded R that the expenditure appears to be prohibited since payment was tendered prior to R registering as a candidate—05/14/10. I cautioned R that the complaint is void of any allegation that this expenditure was made prior to the appointment of a treasurer therefore we are not looking into it. I reminded him to be aware that Ms. Faiella cannot accept any monies or make any expenditures in furtherance of her campaign prior to appointing a treasurer and filing her DSDE-9 form with her filing officer.

I asked R to explain the $100 return check item dated 06/10 found in the bank statement covering 05/29/10 through 06/30/10. Mr. Adkins stated that a contributor's check was returned but it was made good immediately. Mr. Adkins stated the return item fee of $10 was reported but not the return check. I reminded R that all deposits should coincide with a report entry. I also suggested that he be more specific with the purpose listed for the bank fees, such as return item fee for contributor check # and perhaps the check's date.

Summary: I called the filing officer to discuss the documents she provided to me and to clarify the date/time Ms. Faiella filed her DSDE-9 and paid her qualifying fee check. I left a message for her to call me back.

Later this morning, Ms. Phillips returned my call and requested I call her back.

@ 3:01pm, I called Ms. Phillips back.

I asked Ms. Phillips to review her campaign records and to clarify the date and time information for Ms. Faiella's filings. Ms. Phillips stated that Ms. Faiella picked-up her packet of information to become a candidate on April 14, 2010; time unknown. Ms. Phillips stated that Ms. Faiella filed her DSDE-9 form on May 14; she paid her qualifying fee at 12:38 on June 14 [first day of qualifying].

Ms. Phillips stated that Mayor Faiella informed her this morning that she has officially resigned her position with the Port St. Lucie Police Department, effective today; Ms. Phillips e-mailed me a copy of the resignation letter.

Ms. Phillips also informed me that Mayor Fiella is going to be away from the office until next Thursday [Nov 12]; she will be sworn in on 11/15/10 for a four-year term.

Name: Frank Borgess

Phone #: 772-528-5006

Summary: I called Mr. Borgess to discuss his $25 in-kind donation to Ms. Faiella's campaign. I asked Mr. Borgess to review his records and confirm whether he paid by personal check, cash or credit/debit card. Mr. Borgess stated it has been a long time now he really doesn't recall but he believes he may have used a personal check.

I reminded him that he previously told me he used a personal debit card; however, the civic center records indicate it was by a check; it is unknown at this time whose check—his or

Ms. Faiella's. Mr. Borgess stated that it should have been his personal check since he donated the rental fee to Ms. Faiella's campaign.

I asked Mr. Borgess if he recalled the date when he rented the booth. Mr. Borgess stated he doesn't recall but that he is certain it was after 05/14/10, which is the same day as the event. However, the records show the invoice date as 05/11/10. Mr. Borgess stated he doesn't believe that is correct.

I asked him if he rented the booth in person, by phone or over the Internet. Mr. Borgess stated that he believed he went in person [had to in order to pay by check], and he also verified that the address listed on the invoice is his home address. Mr. Borgess agreed to provide me a copy of his payment method next week.

However, Ms. Tiger said if those items are needed they would be provided by the civic center to ensure the event is a success.

I asked Ms. Tiger to confirm the date R's booth rental was processed and she stated it would be the same date as on the vendor application form [form shows the date of 5/11/10]. Ms. Tiger stated that she cannot explain how the booth rental date is 5/11 if the booth was not rented until 05/14 [the date indicated by R's campaign manager.]

Summary: I called R to discuss the discrepancies between the bank records and the reports.

I explained to R that upon review of the bank records I found that there is no replacement check from Lana's Nails, yet there is one from Thuang T Nguyen, the same person who completed my questionnaire representing Lana's Nails. R stated he must have reported the replacement contribution as a check from Ms. Nguyen rather than Lana's Nails.

I also explained to R that I was unable to find a report entry for the excessive cash refund to Shirley Stradley, yet I found two $500 check entries from Jack Mccuen. R stated that one of them should have been disclosed as a replacement check contribution from Ms. Stradley. R agreed to amend the reports to correct them accordingly.

I also requested copies of all the receipts/backup documentation for the credit card purchases resulting in payments to JP Morgan Chase Bank, and a copy of the campaign check donating the $198 raffle donations to charity, along with a copy of the TR report.

R stated it will take some time to compile the receipts but the other records will be faxed shortly.

I reminded R that the only changes to the report that he would want to make are those that make the report accurate. I informed him that if the information is reported accurately but prohibited that there is nothing he can do to the report; I suggested he provide a written explanation to the filing officer if necessary.

I suggested R review the F1 report to see if the post office box rental was accurately reported since the date was listed prior to the date R became a candidate [Ms. Faiella became a candidate on 05/14/10 but the rental date is listed as 04/16/10].

I asked him to verify the date the post office box rental was paid; he confirmed it was paid on 04/16/10. I asked R what payment method was used to pay for the post office box rental; he stated Ms. Faiella used cash to pay for this expenditure. I asked him if the post office box rental was strictly for the campaign or for Ms. Faiella's personal use and loaned to the campaign; he confirmed it was strictly used for the campaign.

I reminded R that the expenditure appears to be prohibited since payment was tendered prior to R registering as a candidate—05/14/10. I cautioned R that the complaint is void of any allegation that this expenditure was made prior to the appointment of a treasurer therefore we are not looking into it. I reminded him to be aware that Ms. Faiella cannot accept any monies or make any expenditures in furtherance of her campaign prior to appointing a treasurer and filing her DSDE-9 form with her filing officer.

I asked R to explain the $100 return check item dated 06/10 found in the bank statement covering 05/29/10 through 06/30/10. Mr. Adkins stated that a contributor's check was returned but it was made good immediately. Mr. Adkins stated the return item fee of $10 was reported but not the return check. I reminded R that all deposits should coincide with a report entry. I also suggested that he be more specific with the purpose listed for the bank fees, such as return item fee for contributor check # and perhaps the check's date.

Phone #: 772-344-4370

Summary: I called the filing officer to discuss the documents she provided to me and to clarify the date/time Ms. Faiella filed her DSDE-9 and paid her qualifying fee check. I left a message for her to call me back.

Later this morning, Ms. Phillips returned my call and requested I call her back.

@ 3:01pm, I called Ms. Phillips back.

I asked Ms. Phillips to review her campaign records and to clarify the date and time information for Ms. Faiella's filings. Ms. Phillips stated that Ms. Faiella picked-up her packet of information to become a candidate on April 14, 2010; time unknown. Ms. Phillips stated that Ms. Faiella filed her DSDE-9 form on May 14; she paid her qualifying fee at 12:38 on June 14 [first day of qualifying].

Ms. Phillips stated that Mayor Faiella informed her this morning that she has officially resigned her position with the Port St. Lucie Police Department, effective today; Ms. Phillips e-mailed me a copy of the resignation letter.

Ms. Phillips also informed me that Mayor Fiella is going to be away from the office until next Thursday [Nov 12]; she will be sworn in on 11/15/10 for a four-year term.

Name: Frank Borgess

Phone #: 772-528-5006

Summary: I called Mr. Borgess to discuss his $25 in-kind donation to Ms. Faiella's campaign. I asked Mr. Borgess to review his records and confirm whether he paid by personal check, cash or credit/debit card. Mr. Borgess stated it has been a long time now he really doesn't recall but he believes he may have used a personal check.

I reminded him that he previously told me he used a personal debit card; however, the civic center records indicate it was by a check; it is unknown at this time whose check—his or

Ms. Faiella's. Mr. Borgess stated that it should have been his personal check since he donated the rental fee to Ms. Faiella's campaign.

I asked Mr. Borgess if he recalled the date when he rented the booth. Mr. Borgess stated he doesn't recall but that he is certain it was after 05/14/10, which is the same day as the event. However, the records show the invoice date as 05/11/10. Mr. Borgess stated he doesn't believe that is correct.

I asked him if he rented the booth in person, by phone or over the Internet. Mr. Borgess stated that he believed he went in person [had to in order to pay by check], and he also verified that the address listed on the invoice is his home address. Mr. Borgess agreed to provide me a copy of his payment method next week.

However, Ms. Tiger said if those items are needed they would be provided by the civic center to ensure the event is a success.

I asked Ms. Tiger to confirm the date R's booth rental was processed and she stated it would be the same date as on the vendor application form [form shows the date of 5/11/10]. I also explained to R that I was unable to find a report entry for the excessive cash refund to Shirley Stradley, yet I found two $500 check entries from Jack Mccuen. R stated that one of them should have been disclosed as a replacement check contribution from Ms. Stradley. R agreed to amend the reports to correct them accordingly.

I also requested copies of all the receipts/backup documentation for the credit card purchases resulting in payments to JP Morgan Chase Bank, and a copy of the campaign check donating the $198 raffle donations to charity, along with a copy of the TR report.

I mentioned to him that I have a copy of three separate checks but that I cannot read the signature on them; it is unknown whether he signed them or Tracy. Mr. McCuen agreed to review copies of the checks and confirm whose signature is on them and what the message is in the memo line.

Mr. McCuen asked me the check amounts. I told him one for $500; $50 and $20. Mr. McCuen seemed surprised that the amount exceeded $500. ## JoAnn Faiella Victorious new PSL Mayor! — Candidate that R

Served as Campaign
treasurer to.

Author: AngelinaS | Filed under: Community

BY ANGELINA SELLITTO

Yesterday, Nov 2 at Tutto Fresco Italian Grill, was JoAnn Faiella's victorious election gathering; invitation only.

As we walked in the maitre d' directed all of her supporters to a private room that veered to the right, filled with delightful Italian inspired ordinances, a fully stocked cash bar, and lovely music played by a D.J..

News reporters and press already set up with camera's and microphone's, as everyone mingled and waited patiently at candle lit tables for the arrival of JoAnn.

An anxious feeling filled the air for the results to begin pouring in, as everyone helped themselves to ordinances, wine and spirits. Suddenly, Faiella arrived just before 8:30, as the room filled with clapping and excitement for her presence.

She began to make her way around the room, briefly speaking to her supporters, friends, and family.

Just before 9, the results are in! Faiella wins the race for PSL mayor by a decent margin, 55.84% and 20,438 votes, opposed to her running mate, city councilmen Chris Cooper with 44.16% and 16,166 votes.

Faiella spent $42,090 on her campaign mainly focusing on advertising with signs that read her campaign logos, "put people before politics" and "strength is our passion." In response to her victory she said, "This city deserves strong leadership and integrity. I am going to bring new change to the city of Port St.Lucie!"

Her first step she is going to take as mayor of this city is, examining the budget and dealing with the city manager about revising the way things have been handled in the past to change what has gone wrong. "We need to restore the communication with the people of this city, and establish trust."

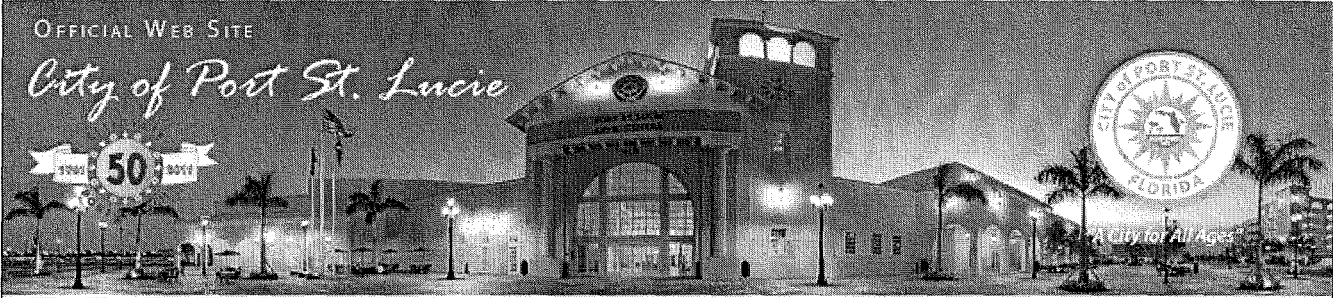

Looking into the future when she was asked about what policies she will be for or against, she wasn't ready to respond. She said, "she hasn't looked that far ahead yet." Her main focus is to restore the trust with the people of the city and re-instate the 24 police officers previously laid off last Sept. due to budget cuts.

She is devoted to keeping this city the "safest city" by having continuous patrol and good relationships between students and advisors to keep the drugs and gangs out of our city.

Faiella said, "being the mayor is a full time job that she is ready to be dedicated to; I will bring the right change."

Port St. Lucie City Council

Mayor JoAnn Faiella

m [REDACTED]

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Mayor JoAnn Faiella and her husband, Pat, moved to Port St. Lucie in September 1989 after falling in love with the city while on vacation. Both were long-time dedicated civil employees eager to contribute their skills and energies to making the beautiful City of Port St. Lucie the safest, most welcoming haven for its residents and visitors.

Pat joined the St. Lucie County Sheriff's Office as a deputy, and JoAnn took a position as assistant director for Colonial Country Day School, where she developed strong working relationships with leaders at the Department of Children and Families. While assistant director, JoAnn earned a degree in child development from Indian River State College to augment her extensive business and marketing background.

She was particularly interested in city and homeland safety and security issues, and went on to achieve certifications in intelligence analysis and anti-terrorism training. JoAnn currently holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration, and achieved recognition as a certified alternate terminal agency coordinator and a certified communications training officer. She was awarded FBI security clearance, earned Homeland Security certification, and was certified by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement as a crime intelligence analyst.

JoAnn began working for the City of Port St. Lucie in 2002, first as a police service aide, and later as a criminal intelligence analyst for the Police Department. She is a recipient of the New York Mayor's Child Advisory Award for her key participation in the successful investigation of one of the state's largest fraud cases

Her efforts and contributions have consistently helped to make Port St. Lucie a safer place for its residents and visitors, and helped to build strong communication with the area's surrounding agencies. JoAnn's ability to recognize a need, define a workable solution, and communicate the advantages of taking action has advanced the department's ability to effectively protect and serve its citizens.

JoAnn has worked with many of Port St. Lucie's business and government leaders and employees during her eight-year tenure, including the police Communications Division, Narcotics Unit, Criminal Investigations Division, Criminal Intelligence Division, and Records Department. In 2007, JoAnn directed the relocation of the Narcotics Division to a secluded facility. She was in charge of budgetary control, site location, lease negotiations, building construction, and oversight and coordination of the entire division's move.

JoAnn's dedication to community issues began early. She was consumer advocate in 1980, working in collaboration with the Attorney General's Office in New York City and the Better Business Bureau. She analyzed and identified consumer and community problems, devised solutions, and established several consumer affairs centers throughout the community that made residents aware of their consumer rights. She published a handbook for consumers titled, "Let Consumers Be Aware "

JoAnn remains active in a number of community service organizations both locally and nationally. She is a committee member of Kids at Hope, an organization whose three-tier philosophy is meant to inspire, empower and transform schools and organizations that serve youth and entire communities. She is also a mentor for local juveniles in need of direction and support.

JoAnn Faiella is a dedicated and passionate professional offering a unique background of business acumen, marketing expertise, and extensive community service experience. She is creative, resourceful and analytical, with solid problem-solving abilities. Her communication and interpersonal skills enable her to build long-term community commitments and create dedicated teams capable of taking the City of St. Port Lucie and its goals for the future to the next level of success.

JoAnn and Pat have three children. Their oldest daughter works in the pharmaceutical industry, their second daughter is majoring in forensic science in college, and their son will be entering high school in 2011. As a strong-knit family, the Faiellas believe that anything can be achieved as long as they have the love and support of one another and their community.

Vice Mayor Linda Bartz

District1@cityofpsl.com

Linda Bartz is serving her second term as Councilwoman, District 1. Linda is a business woman who knows how to balance a budget and manage money.

Linda is active in the community serving with the Port St. Lucie Rotary, Council on Aging, Treasure Coast Crime Stoppers, the Exchange Club, Hospice Ethics Committee, Concerned Citizens, Big Heart Brigade, and the recently formed St. Lucie County Sustainability Ad Hoc Committee.

Whether it's helping to address important issues in the community such as traffic and roads to ensure that emergency vehicles can get to and from hospitals and accident scenes quickly, working with the Superintendent and members of the St. Lucie County School District to raise educational standards or helping to bring down the high cost of taxes, insurance and living on the Treasure Coast, Linda is dedicated and committed to keeping Port St. Lucie moving into the future.

Originally from New Jersey, Linda and her husband Gary have been residents of Port St. Lucie for 20 years. They have three grown daughters and are the proud grandparents of three grandchildren. In her spare time, Linda relaxes by reading a good mystery.

Councilwoman Michelle Berger

District2@cityofpsl.com

Michelle Berger was elected to the Port St. Lucie City Council in November 2004 with 60 percent of the voters approving of the fresh ideas and positive message she offered during her campaign.

As the mother of two boys and the wife of a Palm Beach County firefighter, Michelle understands the expectations of Port St. Lucie's families, and has been a strong proponent of the quality-of-life issues that make the city the destination of so many new residents.

And with more than 14 years of management and small business owner experience, along with a bachelor's degree in business management, she understands the important role businesses play in the city's stability and development. That's why she has been a supporter of policies that ensure the city's growth will include a healthy mix of commercial and residential areas, and that the local infrastructure will be among the best in Florida long into the future.

As a persistent advocate for fiscal responsibility, Michelle urges that taxpayer money be used only for those projects that bring the most value to the city, and her support of a proposal to change the financing plan for construction of the Crosstown Parkway will help the city save millions of dollars on a project that won approval of 89 percent of Port St. Lucie's voters in 2005.

Perhaps her greatest strength, however, is her contagious energy and her ability to build consensus for the programs and projects she believes in. As a volunteer in several local organizations and committees, Michelle has demonstrated this to the residents and officials who have worked with her, and who now see the positive impact she has had on the future of the city.

Her favorite activity is spending time with her family, and their boating and camping experiences have allowed them to enjoy the best of what the magnificent state of Florida has to offer. She currently serves on the St. Lucie County Scenic Highway Committee, the St. Lucie County Bridge and Expressway Authority, St. Lucie County Tourism Development Council, St. Lucie County/Martin Metropolitan Planning Organization, Florida Atlantic University Advisory Committee, St. Lucie County Habitat for Humanity, North Fork of the St. Lucie River Management Advisory Committee, and as an alternate to the Treasure Coast Regional Planning Council. Michelle also serves on the Community Advisory Board for Seacoast Bank, as well as two non-profit organizations' boards: the YMCA of the Treasure Coast and the Police Athletic League in Port St. Lucie. A major accomplishment recently has been the marriage of resources between the Y and PAL which resulted in a new facility for after school care within the City of Port St. Lucie funded by a Children's Services Council grant. Michelle was also recently appointed by Senate President Ken Pruitt to a newly formed State of Florida Fireworks Task Force, which has been assigned the task of crafting new state legislation for fireworks sale and distribution.

Councilwoman Shannon Martin

District3@cityofpsl.com

Councilwoman Shannon Martin was elected in November 2010 to represent District 3 and the residents of Port St. Lucie. Shannon and her husband, Aaron, moved to Port St. Lucie in 2006 with their two children.

Shannon is a paralegal by profession, but brings so much more to the table that benefits the residents of Port St. Lucie, including experience in land use and legal issues, just to name two. Being new to the political scene has made Shannon extremely sensitive to the needs of her constituents. She is committed to establishing transparency in the residents' city government, along with a sense of accountability that is second to none.

Shannon plans to focus on ensuring the city remains fiscally responsible and transparent to the residents. Her paralegal background provides her the skill-set to effectively analyze complex issues like the budget, and to prioritize the issues, making more complete and informative decisions. Shannon is up for the challenge and is humbled by the faith the voters have placed in her as their Councilwoman.

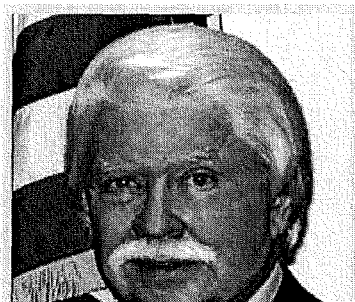

One of the many things that intrigued her during her campaign was the desire of residents to communicate directly with their elected officials. Communicating with and educating residents is the key to maintaining the support needed to move the city forward in a positive direction.

"I look forward to serving the residents of Port St. Lucie and I am committed to representing the best interests of all residents. Being your Councilwoman will be my full-time job and I look forward to the pleasure of serving you. I encourage anyone that has a concern or needs clarification on an issue to contact me at (772) 871-5159 or by e-mail at District3@cityofpsl.com. Let's all make Port St. Lucie the best city with the best residents."

Councilman Jack Kelly

District4@cityofpsl.com

Councilman Kelly is the current voted Chairman of the 13-member St. Lucie County Transportation Organization and liaison to the Martin MPO, as well as past chair of the St. Lucie County Fire District. He is the Council appointment to the St. Lucie County Economic Development Board and serves on a number of other City Boards.

Married 44 years to Gail, he has a married son and daughter and 5 grandsons. Both Jack's wife and daughter are St. Lucie County teachers.

endeavors past and present including past President of the St. Lucie County Boy's and Girl's Club, Lions Club Florida District Governor, United Way Board Member. Several years ago Jack was honored as the PSL Elk's Lodge 2658 "Citizen of the Year." All told, he serves on 10 different boards of directors.

"I still have a great passion for the job. I possess the energy, desire, and tenacious attitude to stay focused and task oriented. I have been the balance on the City Council and balance must be maintained in the decision process. The Council position is my full-time job. It's my life's work. I take it seriously and rely on listening to the public, common sense, experience, and the true facts!"

State finds grounds for investigation of Port St. Lucie mayoral hopeful JoAnn Faiella

By Alexi Howk

Originally published 05:37 p.m. , October 26, 2010

Updated 10:51 p.m. , October 26, 2010

PORT ST. LUCIE — The Florida Elections Commission has found legal sufficiency to begin investigating whether mayoral hopeful JoAnn Faiella, and her campaign treasurer, Stephen Adkins, might have violated state campaign finance laws.

Former mayoral candidate and political activist Victoria Huggins filed a complaint against Faiella and Adkins alleging they committed more than 45 violations, including accepting donations in excess of the $50 limitation, underreporting contributions by $461 and using Faiella's personal credit card to loan the campaign money.

Additionally, Huggins accuses Faiella of telling people how to vote while she was inside a polling site at the Morningside Library during early voting for the Aug. 24 primary election.

"I have reviewed the complaint and find that it contains one or more legally sufficient allegations," wrote Elections Commission Executive Director Rosanna Catalano in an Oct. 22 letter to Faiella and Adkins. "Based on the results of the investigation, legal staff will make a written recommendation to the commission on whether there is probable cause to believe you have violated Chapter 104 and 106, Florida Statutes."

Catalano said if Faiella and Adkins wish to respond to the allegations in the Huggins complaint, they must file a notarized statement within 20 days of receipt of the Oct. 22 letter.

She said the commission staff would investigate the following alleged violations:

Faiella and Adkins certified campaign treasurer reports as true, correct and complete when they are not;

Faiella and Adkins falsely reported or deliberately failed to include information required by Florida law;

Faiella and Adkins accepted contributions in excess of the limits prescribed by Florida law;

Faiella and Adkins accepted a cash contribution or contribution by means of a cashier's check in excess of $50.

Under Florida Law, commission complaints are confidential until the commission renders a probable cause or no probable cause finding. The confidentiality provision does not apply to the complainant, Huggins, but it does apply to the respondents, Faiella and Adkins, unless they waive confidentiality in writing.

At any time before a probable cause finding, Faiella and Adkins may choose to settle the case with the Elections Commission, Catalano said.

Adkins, a Stuart accountant, was out of town and couldn't be reached for comment Tuesday, said his father, John, who answered the phone at Adkins' office.

In a prepared statement, Faiella said Tuesday: "Each and every one of the issues was corrected in amended campaign reports, and they were done so prior to any complaint being filed. What the state is doing is a matter of standard procedure, and my campaign has resolved all of the issues. The allegations by Huggins are procedural and do not allege any criminal activity as was the complaint concerning former Mayor Christensen."

Huggins, who lost her bid for mayor in the Aug. 24 primary against nine other candidates, including Faiella, filed a complaint with the Elections Commission last year against former Mayor Patricia Christensen. That complaint was turned over to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. Christensen resigned last month after she was arrested on charges of misusing campaign finance money.

Huggins said she spoke with an Elections Commission representative Tuesday morning who told her the commission would not be looking into the alleged poll violations because it was out of the commission's jurisdiction. Huggins said she was advised to report the alleged poll violations to the Florida Department of State.

Huggins, who openly supports Faiella's opponent, City Councilman Chris Cooper, also ran unsuccessfully against Vice Mayor Jack Kelly for City Council in 2006.

Huggins said filing the complaint with the Elections Commission has nothing to do with her support for Cooper.

"The validation that came from the (Florida Elections Commission) speaks for itself," Huggins said. "When you see something that is this blatant and a disregard for the state statute that governs campaign finances, I think everybody should know.

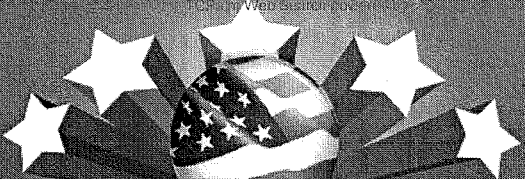

"What really motivated me to do this was watching the poll violations throughout the two weeks of early voting," Huggins said of her allegations. "That bothered me to no end. That's a clear violation."

The Press has begun reviewing your Campaign Treasurer Reports online at the Supervisor of Elections web page, Please review "Chapter 11 - Contributions" of the Candidate and Campaign Treasure Handbook and Chapter 106 - Campaign Financing (FL State Statute). Both these documents were in the election packet you signed for during our election packet meeting. Especially note Loans and Cash Contributions on the bottom of Page 25 of the handbook. Double check your reports to make sure you are coding your contributions correctly & that you are not accepting amounts over the lawful limit. Should a Treasurer Report require corrections, an Amendment Report needs to be filed.

I am forwarding this e-mail to all candidates as an FYI in response to being asked about electronic filing & fax filing of Campaign Treasurer Reports. The City of Port St. Lucie does not have an electronic filing ordinance; all original reports must be filed with an original signature as stated below.

Subject: FYI To Candidates/Treasurers

The Press has begun reviewing your Campaign Treasurer Reports online at the Supervisor of Elections web page, Please review "Chapter 11 - Contributions" of the Candidate and Campaign Treasure Handbook and Chapter 106 - Campaign Financing (FL State Statute). Both these documents were in the election packet you signed for during our election packet meeting. Especially note Loans and Cash Contributions on the bottom of Page 25 of the handbook. Double check your reports to make sure you are coding your contributions correctly & that you are not accepting amounts over the lawful limit. Should a Treasurer Report require corrections, an Amendment Report needs to be filed.

Karen:

Your question was referred to our office for response.

First, the law enforcement officer and the wife of the active detective (I presume a law enforcement personnel and not a private detective) have each submitted a request in writing per section 119.071(4)(d)1.a., Florida Statutes. They must claim that they are eligible and under what professional high-risk class category found in subsubparagraph a. through i.

Second, whenever public records within your custody are then made available whether ongoing such as online or in response to a specific public records request and these individuals' records are included, you, as the records custodian, will have to ensure that the statutorily protected information is redacted as requested from those records and state the reason why (if in response to a public records request).

It is not acceptable to put "Exempt" for the address of a law enforcement officer. Section 106.07, FS, requires an address to be provided for all contributors. It does not have to be a residential address. It can be a work address, a post office box, etc. However, the contributor must provide an address. If an address is not provided, it is considered an anonymous contribution and the candidate may not spend the funds, but will dispose of the funds when the campaign is over.
