MEETING THE POYS IN BLUE. Ever day I meet with some of the gallant boys in bine with whom I used to associate on the march or in camp while phyling the distin-guished role of "war correspondent" in our late and terrible national tragedy. We talk about the red tape that ruled in Washington, or how we lasked in the sumshine along Ating. ach year near the grave of an idolized wife, at short the red tape that ruled in Washington, cr how we lasked in the sun-blue along Arling-tro's famons heights, about fishing for crabs and speckled trout in Mobile Eav, and I must enters that, in going a fishing, your corre-spondent was not enceesful, as he usually caught more crabs than speckled inhabitants of the deep. In this respect he was like Horace Greeley, but then it is only another living evi-dence of the similarity of fate that befall great men. (AN: modestry, you are a jewel, a "duck of a blue." as the grins say when sport-ing their first waterfall ) And we chat of the happy homs we spent simg the silvery shores of the Mexican guil, picking np beautiful sea-shells, then packing them in little giass bottles and rending them by the furloughed veterans to onr wires and ewethearts on the distant prai-ties. And here I must again confess that we FF Here is what the Greenville (East Tenean) New Era says about the negro population of that section. Greenville is the home of Andrew Johnson, and the New Era is, we supoose, as thorough a Union paper as any in Tenessee or out of it. We by no means agree with it about driving the negroes out of the onntry, but we do say that they must be made work for their own support. Those who rant about the negro so much and who know out him so little, should read and digest the ollowing, and learn comething from it, if they are capable of learning anything from any on when and sweethearts on the clistant p rice. We glean the following interesting budget of news from Sonthers papers received at the of-

The Richmond Republic, in an article on the cessibility of a war with Great Britain, save:

Should the British Government persistently efuse to settle the claims of the United State or losses inflicted by British ships and seamen der the Confederate flag, in the late war, th transges resulting from an appeal to war would be a hundredfold greater than the amount o

the indemnity which would astify the claims of this centry. The capacity to injure Ameti-can commerce in return would be limited by the injury which has already been inflicted upon it hy British privaters. We do not present as broad a surface to assault as Great Britaln, who of late years has been menopolis merce of the world. A war between the United States and Great Britain would result in sweep ng the merchant shipping of Great Britain rom the ocean in six months. The war would freat Britain has no army of magnitude enough even to defend Canada. The harnes and smoke-breught we be a start of the population would have been starved. But as hands are required to produce, we must conclude that somebody has worked, and that the negro has not been allowed to draw bis share without contributing his labor. And this, on the whole, agrees with the information of our correspondent. The negroes have, as a general rule, moved from their orizinal quar-ies, but culy to take new ones within a short clistance. They have exchanged one place for another, and then cettled down. Their labor is not, nor can lib the surder the former system, neither in the quality nor the quantity of hands. The in-clustant means invested in the stock by the pri-vate stockholders were, before such investment, the proper and legitimate subjects of State tax-ation. There is no reason why they abound not be subject to that liability after being invested, unless the immunity was necessary to the ex-letence and preservation of the confederate body with which they were connected. If this liability to taxation be enstained, is would ap-pear that the Batts may tax them out of exist-ence, but we long as the property thus invested is only taxed in common with other individual impety, as is done in the taxing of lands of bias State, the apprehension of such danger is marely fanciful. OUR COMMON SCHOOLS.

It is a enricus time to grow enthuslastic about e ventilation of schools just at the commence arnt of winter, when people begin to balt and ar, to pad and bolster every noak and hole gh which the plercing winds and touch of could gain access. But in Chicago people ints not as they are done elsewhere. We are decidedly original, if a little eccentrie, in our style and manner of directing all tangible spencies, wi other to our own comfort or the detiment of others. We must have something to talk about, whether of local or national im-potance. At present the prese is locally en-caged in delly desiling out columns of mingled philosophy and folly regarding the ventilation of common schools. Under the head of "Our Responsibilities to the Next Generation" one prolific centleman cars that if something is not core, and done quickly, we had better all die. Penhape it were better that those who are alive centime to live, and petition Congress to estab-tish a law wherely the modus operandi of mar-riage minth be antibilated in this city until such time as we procued ventilation for the little "responsibilities" (funny name for hables) fout coming in the next generation. The fact of it is we have plenty of school room and stundance of ventilation if we hadn't so many children iding at home and somuch filth in our streets at large. Had these ventilation-philos-ophers looked at it in this light their inteliectual ravings would have died stillborn. Again, some of this ranting cannot have great the asthor of the arricle headed "Our Responsibilites," etc., is an incorrigible old bachelor that never was mariced, and in ali probability never will be nulses miracles and censible women should become more abundant thas at present. Should be considered a genial exercise with onr Western chivalry. Yesterday afternoon an amiable man named Bertram shot at and dan-geronely wounded a tailor named Galk. The cause was somewhat serlons. One of Bertram's children went into Galk's shop, and partly ewallowed a needle, which stuck in the child's throat, for which Bertram stuck a bullet in the railor's acred percon.

Abcut three weeks since a portion of the cotton on a freight train took fire (a note of which was made at the time), and, to save the remainder, that part which had ignited was hurriedly cast overboard. There was no roof or shelter near for tiorage, and the cotton was or shelter near for eterage, and the cotton was left by the roadside in an exposed condition. The present high price of the article exclude the cupicity of an individual in the neighborod, and he was not slow to avail hi of averable an opportunity to pilfer the cx-pored cotton. South. We make the lollowing extract: If Northern capitalists will only visit our State and take a lew trips into the interior, they will be able to invest money in more sale and profitable schemes than imaginary oil wells and bogus mibing companies. Our planters' hands are tied for the want of capital, and a few thon-and dollare avanadd on each limitateline woold are tied for the want of capital, and a few thon-sand dollars expended on each plantation would prove a national bleesing. It would give the impoverished and helpless planters a chance to replenish their plantaticns with all the agricul-tural implements required in the cultivation of the great staples—cotton and rise. It would be the magnet which would draw the negroes to work. Of rich land there is no lack, but of money there is a fearful dearth. A great many planters are anxious to cell the whole or a part of their inds, but the buyers are scarce, and they are compelled to sit in desponder cy and they are compelled to sit in desponder (y earn-ing for the hee and spade ard the hand of the hardy laborer, because they are numble to pro-cure money. At a quarter before eight o'clock vesterday morning the cellyee commenced, and gradually the brilliant samlight commenced to grow less, until at length it had become almost entirely extinguished. The city presented a very beau-tifuf but somewhat numatural appearance, for the darkness could not be said to belong either to evening or morning, but had a peculiarly strange effect, especially when the enn was ecen through the trees From the half-moon ap-pearance it gradually became less, till it had assumed the appearance of a quarter-moon, leaving the rest in complete darkness. The singing of birds, which had commenced so melediously in the parks and ontside the city, endemly ceased, and the creatures fluttered among the trees from branch to branch, as though they were undeelded as to whether they ehould agsin go to roost or fly off to the fields for their breakfast. Some of our shoe-blacks, the lazy portion, congratulated each other on the shortness of the day, and wondered if the sun was really in earnest, or was only "selling" every body, being probably fike themselves, for at least one day, more inclined to play tricks than go throngh his day's work. LOUISIANA POLITICS .- In LOUISiana things re about as much mixed as they are here hough not exactly in the same way. They have been mixed ever since General B attempted to administer civil affairs in a millitary way. We have heard it said that the neral is no great favorite down in the Crescen City, which, of course, is libelous. When he left. General Banks took possession of the State of New Orleans, which, if much governing is governing well, must have been one of the best provinces in the white settlements. I polamns is to water. ins had at least three governments in the full tide of operating at the same time. It has been blessed (?) with a millitary government, a city overnment, and a State government, emcing not only New Orleans but the sur rounding country for at least ten miles one way and three and a half or more the other way Whether the Governors have been more nuerons than the governed, it would be hazardons to venture an opinion. They do say that the people have seen sights in the way of taxation. Some of them have thought, we under stand, that taxation is the chief blessing of man. There have not been wanting patriotic mainly just and patriotic. The realities of the gentlemen who insisted that the greater the however blind the inveterate ultras may still exation the greater the blessing, and who remain. They-practical, fair-minded menwere more than willing that their tellow-citiwill learn great lessons of wisdom from the ens should be highly favored in this leftpast to guide their feet aright through the intrihanded way of blessing. The late Governor of the State of New Orleans was elected by the cate paths of the present. The terrible lumin-osity of a thousand battle-fields has diclosed to people, and subsequently the late President ent him a note to the effect that it was his will such minds something else than the dead and the dead past. Happy if what has been seen and that he-the elect of the people-should be overnor. After that he resigned and the Lieutenant-Governor took the scals. He is the present incumbent, Governor J. M. Wells, and is so popular that both of the parties there, the Democratic and the National Conservative Union | politics, and governments. have nominated him for Governor at the election to be held next Monday. While Gen. Banks held posse esion, a State Convention was called, which has been described as a very unique organization, and formed a new constitution, the one now in exstence. Representatives to this body were chosen by the entire State of New Orleans, and the members devoted themselves with great zcal and distinguished patriotism and intelligence to the javment of their per diem, which was triumphantly effected, despite the whole power of the General commanding, "or any ther man.'

This done they adjourned, after several onths' exhaustive labors, with the reserved right to meet again, if, in their sovereign pleasatter amneement that the million of American we they should wish to do so.

The "Democratic Party" takes ground in fafor of framing a new constitution; the "Namal Conservative Union Party" in favor of amending the present one to suit the present times and thereby avoid the xpense of calling a new convention. We have received an able address from A. P. Field, Esq , Chairman of the Central Committee of this party, in favor of its principles. The measures just mentioned appear to be about the only distinction between these parties. They both sustain the President's policy. Among those nominated for Congress by the mocratic party are ex-Governor Wickliffe. seriy of this State, and son, we believe, of ar ex Governor Wickliffe, and J. A. Rozier. no was a Union member of the convention which passed the ordinance of secession in 1861 e of the immortal seven who refused to sign the ordinance after it was passed. Mr. Rozier, wever, has declined the nomination, for what reason he does not state. The venerable togenarian, Jacob Barker, now eighty-five re old, and as lively as a cricket, supplies his lace. Old Jacob is a thorough Union man.

ad fought accession with as much rim as Rozier and others did. Opposed to him is Col. A. P. Field, also a strong Union man. On this cket, the National Conservative Union, are me excellent names. For Attorney-General are is George S. Lacey, Eeq., who quit the eckinridgers in 1860 to swell the ranks of the vocates of the "Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws," and who did yeonan service in them.

The Freedmen's Bureau in Louisians appears o have been badly managed, and has fallen into disrepute. General Fullerton has now taken charge of it, and iscued a sensible adress to the freedmen, which will doubtless have will be. good effect.

The result of the recent war, so disastrous to

The result of the recent war, so disastrous to the Bouth, has been a revolution of your entire labor system. The 40,060 blacks who were recently your slaves and subject to your will in their every movement, are no longer under your inclvidual control. Hitherto yon have been accustomed to direct their labor by your sovereign mandates. Now you can command it only by contract. This brings about relations which are new to both races, and brings them too enddenly upon such that both you and the blacks find it dull-enit to accommodate yourscives to the al-mighty change. The black man is dazzled if not intoxicated with the air of freedom thrust suddenly upon him, while the white man is more or less oppressed with the thought that this element of his wealth is kept from him. The lgnorast black man has in many instances New YORK, Nov. 1. Crime in Brooklyn is on the increase. The efforts of the police do not check it. The num-ber of arresis daily for felonies are more than do the what they have been. The jall is now so crowded with crimicals that the accomodations for their keeping are entirely in-adequate. Highway robberies are of nightly occurrence, sometimes in the most public thoroughfares, notwithstanding the recent in-crease of the police force. Many of the citizens are in favor of a further increase immediately. New Yong, Nov. 1. NEW YORK, Nov. 1. NEW YORK, NOV. 1.

New York, Nov. 1. The Post's Washington special says that the contractors for the extension of the Library in the Capitol tuilding will not be able to finish the work by the 1-t of Jannary, though it is proceeding with all possible dispatch. Large additions have been made to the Library since last Congress. The Secretary of the Treasury has informed the Assistant Treasurer at New York that the new gold cuts of the denominations of one bun-dred and one thousand doltars will be sent to this city early next week. The twenty, hve, and five hundred doltar notes may not be ready for some time. It is intended to begin the issue of the cerilicates to depositors next week. Nev Dr. McCarty, of Philadeiphia, delivered an address at Irvirg Hall last tught, favoring the independence of Ireland, and Its annexa-tion to the United States. WABHINGTON, Nov. 1. But this was not the only compe-tition that the white inboring man had to con-tend against; the slave of the rich man, who himself not a mechanic or a laborer, was as often as the master workmen apoken of before, a contractor also; and, though by legislative enan-ment no slave could complete with the merchant, the doctor, the lawyer, or the parson, he could complete with the mechanic and workingman. All these disadvantages and restrictions are now removed, and the white workingman has no longer to contend against capital and labor combined, and his advancement to homor, re-gectability, and weath will be certain and even

We are satisfied that the abolition of slavery, although at present looked upon as a great calamity, will eventually prove a great bless-ing to our beloved country is the increased and remunerative employment of our children and the free white man at home, in our own State, instead of being forced to emigrate to some other hand to procure their bread, producing that strength and prosperity that in future will be our protection and safeguard.

GEN. LEE-STOREWALL JACKSON'S GRAVE-LEXINGTOR .- The New York News contains an interesting letter dated at Lexington, Varginia, from which we make the following interesting extincts: • • • But the cettlement of Gen. Lee among them is regarded so, the great event in Lexington society. I saw the old chief on the street the other day, dreased in a plain suit of gray, and apparently in fine health. His course anotesty of demeanor, and calm dignity of bearing which have always so distinguished him, have ahone out more complexonaly than every, while he has excuplously discharged every daty incombent apon him as a loyal citi-men of the restored Union. • • •
