

for a Stronger Tomorrow

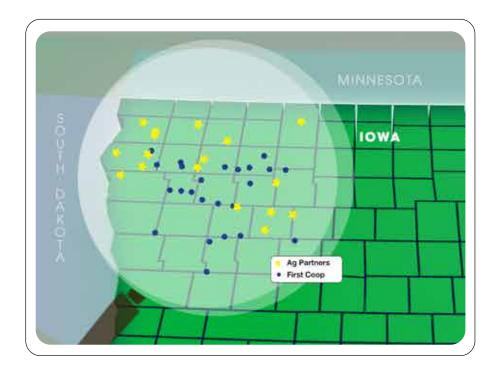

This is an exciting time for our newly merged cooperative and for farmers in Northwest Iowa. As industry changes occur more frequently, we are positioned to move forward and meet the needs of our customers now and into the future. The individual companies shared similar goals and business philosophies including quality products and services which remains at the forefront of everything we do.

Our customers will see a number of positive impacts in many service areas. One grain advantage features 19 of 22 First Cooperative Association (FCA) locations within 20 miles of ALCECO/Ag Partners' shuttle loaders. The combination of agronomy services offers significant efficiencies from field deliveries and application to plant locations. For example, the combined organization now has more key fertilizer locations closer to customer fields in the Aurelia and Albert City market areas. We will also benefit from more warehouse storage space. We will increase our emphasis on feed growth including cattle customers. Our energy department will increase in depth and services offered in new areas.

A map of all combined ALCECO/Ag Partners and FCA locations is featured to the right. As stated before, NO facilities will be closed. Hospers will now be open year-round.

With improved geographic reach and market opportunities; a unified, talented team; and local management, our organization is strongly positioned to be a leader in Northwest Iowa. Thank you to our customers for your support. Our commitment to you will never waver.

Guiding Our Actions ... EVERY DAY

Our goal is to help customers succeed through our proactive employee team, quality and innovative products and key facilities. As we begin this journey our priorities and guiding principles include -

Safety – First and foremost as nothing is more important than a safe work environment for our team and customers. Our focus is on investing time and capital to train our employees and improve any facilities to manage the risks of this business.

Trust in our Team – Our goal is to always retain and attract a great team with the highest standards of integrity. Our team is committed to working, supporting and cooperating with each other to uphold the image of our cooperative. This means serving customers with honesty, loyalty and professionalism.

Alignment – Customers and Market Opportunities – As a newly merged cooperative, we must keep the focus on what our customers need and want in their farming and livestock operations. It also means we will focus on the opportunities identified in the merger study including new grain trading opportunities, improved logistics efficiencies with strategically located fertilizer plants, and the ability to build on the strengths of the Ag Partners' feed business and FCA energy business. One example is the reopening of Hospers as a full-time facility due to the area's combined grain volume opportunities.

Deliver on Commitments – Throughout the stages of the merger, our board, management, and team members will deliver on the commitments or promises made through the merger process. Whether it is increased cash patronage, faster facility upgrades, enhanced market opportunities or faster service to your fields, we stand behind these commitments to our customers, team and Northwest Iowa communities.

Successful management and operations begins with the foundation of a strong board of directors. Our merged organization features a complete board of 12 members with equal representation from both Alceco and FCA. The board members all reside in Northwest Iowa. Accounting & Grain Business

Please review how business will be conducted with First Cooperative Association (FCA) and Albert City Elevator Company (ALCECO) /Ag Partners after 9/1/2021.

CUSTOMERS & VENDORS:

- All business transactions completed with FCA, ALCECO or Ag Partners prior to 9/1 will continue to be handled the same as prior to the merger.
- After a review of each company's computer systems, it makes most sense to continue operating the current systems independently. This will be through 2/28/22 (after harvest and winter prepay season).
- FCA and Ag Partners will continue to bill customers for grain, agronomy, energy, and feed transactions independently. Due to this, some customers will get multiple statements until computer systems are merged. Please pay each statement separately. Thanks for your patience with this!

GRAIN:

- FCA and Ag Partners will utilize one common grain policy this fall.
- FCA and Ag Partners will operate with two separate accounting systems through harvest. As a result, each company will use separate grain scale tickets, contracts, and checks until the accounting records can be merged into one computer system around 3/1/22.
- Grain under newly written and previously contracted bushels needs to be delivered to the location specified in the contract. Uncontracted bushels can be delivered to any location.
- With Alceco merging into the combined company on 9/1, all Ag Partners' facilities will start issuing Ag Partners' checks, contracts, etc. Any outstanding contracts issued by Alceco will be assumed by Ag Partners. Business done with Ag Partners will qualify for any patronage or DPAD credits approved by the board.

YEAR-END TAX 1099s:

 FCA, ALCECO and Ag Partners will independently complete its year-end 1099s to patrons, vendors, and the IRS.
