Max. Marks : 100

Instruction : Answer all the Sections.

SECTION - A

I. Annotate any three of the following :

(3×5=15)

a) Ring out the old, Ring in new

Ring, Happy bells, across the snow:

The year is going, let him go:

Ring out the false, Ring in the true.

b) I found a thing to do, and all her hair

In one yellow string I wound

Three times her little throat around,

And strangled her. No pain felt she;

c) ... You forget too much

That every creature, female as the male,

Stands single in responsible act and thought

As also in birth and death.

d) I have walked and prayed for this young child an hour

And heard the sea-wind scream upon the tower,

And under the arches of the bridge, and scream

In the elms above the flooded stream;

e) At what the God had wrought

To please her son, the strong

Iron-Hearted man slaying Achilles

Who would not live long

The vital way for one to stay active, sports are very important in the system of education. In some way, games benefit the participant to spend their time more effectively. Consequently; the individual becomes responsible, accountable and disciplined. Sports improve the blood flow to the brain, and, therefore, more connections between the nerves appear. Then, this activity fosters the memory of the participant, which encourages the concentration of a person as well as their creativity.

This merit explains why sports are essential in education, thus enlightening their relationship. In recap, playing active games contributes to the students brain development and helps the brain to cope with reading better. One characteristic that is essential in education is the ability to face the challenges, and participating in sports improves that trait. Also, those involved in games are more likely to be active in the classroom as it ensures that one is prepared to deal with failures. Sports provide the chance to benefit from them. In terms of the educational process, they improve the learner's creativity and thinking capacity.
